PUBLICATIONS PREPARED BY

BUREAU OF INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

Published by California State Department of Education

PRICES EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 1966

Orders for publications should be addressed to:

California State Department of Education
Sacramento, California 95814

Purchase orders without remittance will be accepted only from public agencies. However, in billing for such orders, the California State Department of Education can use only its own invoice forms; it cannot fill out special invoices or voucher forms from the ordering agency. All other orders, including those from student book stores, must be accompanied by remittance. Books cannot be returned for refund or exchange.

The sales tax of 4 percent must be added to the prices quoted here on all orders to California locations, except orders for resale, which should be marked "For Resale" and should show the resale permit number.

The courses of instruction for the various apprenticeable trades are planned so as to require that each apprentice have both a workbook and testbook plus a reasonable number of reference books. Therefore, an equal number of workbooks and testbooks should be ordered at the same time.

Orders for examinations will be accepted only from schools or from authorized agencies, and must be on official purchase order or stationery.

The following publications designed for apprentice training programs are available free of charge to schools using California instructional materials. Requests for these should be addressed to Instructional Materials, State Department of Education, Sacramento, California 95814.

1. Answer sheets for both testbooks and final examinations. These should be requested on official request forms supplied by Instructional Materials or official school stationery. Either should be signed by the school official responsible for the apprentice training program.

2. A publication entitled Introduction to the Teaching of Classes for Apprentices, which explains in detail how the instructional material is to be used.
