A list of works dealing with adult education in professional fields is given. One hundred and fifty citations are listed. Ordering information for documents cited is also provided. (CK)
CONTINUING EDUCATION IN THE PROFESSIONS

A SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

compiled by
Susan D'Antoni
Department of Adult Education
OISE
GENERAL

Continuing Education in the Professions. ERIC Clearinghouse on Adult Education. Current Information Sources No. 24, Sept. 1969.

Royce, Marion., The Continuing education of women: some programs in the U.S. OISE Department of Adult Education, 1968.

Sharer, Robert E. There are no islands; the concerns and potential of continuing education. North Quenay, Mass., Christopher Publishing House, 1969.

Lomax, R. S., Problem of Keeping prepared. Journal of Business Education
DENTISTRY

Biedenbach, J. M., Continuing education for engineering manager. IEEE

Bondi, A. , Price and rewards of continuing education. Chemical Engineering

Boulgarides, J. D., and San Fillippo, V. C., Engineers need further education, where will they get it? Industrial Engineering 1: 56-7, August, 1969.

Buettner, D. R., Continuing education, whose responsibility? American

Continuing accent on continuing education. Chemical Engineering 72: 135-6, August, 1965.

Continuing education, A. A. A. S. symposium, Dallas, Texas, Dec. 28.

Deppert, G. F., Program to make obsolescence obsolete. Chemical Engineering

It can't stop learning.

Ginsberg, I. S., Continuing education at Whiting. Hydrocarbon Process

Herring J. J., Measuring Effectiveness of Continuing Education Course for Engineers using videotape and telephone for remote instruction. SAE Paper 600023 for meeting Jan. 13-17, 1969.

Huntu, L. P., Is continuing formal education of value in attacking engineering obsolescence. IEEE Transactions on Education. E-0

Johnstone, R. E., Continuing education for engineers. Engineering 107:

Jones, R. C., Practical continuing education for the individual engineer.

Knowles, Asa S., Continuing education: fastest growing dimension in Martin, P., Pennsylvania study shows how engineers sidestep obsolescence.

Myers, J. P., Action for continuing education. Mechanical Engineering

Nissan, A. H., TAPPi's Present and future activities in continuing Wright, R. R., Role of the law school in continuing legal education.

LIBRARY SCIENCE

MEDICINE

Brayton, D., Television in continuing medical education, Medical and Biological Illustration 19: 2-6, January 1968.

un continuing to learn, Archives of Internal Medicine (Chicago) 123: 345-6, March 1969.

Robertson, G.J., et al., Television in continuing medical education, Medical and Biological Illustration 18: 4-7, January 1968.

NURSING

Irwin, J.E., Widen your horizons, Canadian Nurse 64: 41-?, July ,968.

Refreshed, will work part time, American Journal of Nursing 68: 2188-90, October 1968.

SOCIAL WORK

Rupa, M., Continuing education for social workers a family agency experiment, Social Worker 29: 53-60, no. 4.
THEOLOGY