ABSTRACT

This booklet discusses the difference among "two,"
 "too," and "to," and presents class activities to assist students in learning the differences. The booklet presents and discusses three rules: use "too" if "so" or "also" can be substituted for the word;
 use "two" if another number can be substituted; and if "so," "also," or another number does not sound well when substituted, use "to." The booklet concludes with a series of exercises that can be used as individual seat exercises, group activities, or teacher-directed or student-directed activities. (RS)

What is AVKO?

AVKO is a non-profit tax-exempt membership organization.

AVKO was founded in 1974.

AVKO is subsidized by donations and grants.

AVKO is open to membership to anyone interested in helping others learn to read and write.

AVKO is run by members from as far away as Hawaii and Quebec.

AVKO's daily operations are handled by volunteers.

AVKO plans to build and operate a model reading research center in a YEAR-AROUND camp setting that would economically and efficiently service the needs of dyslexics of all ages.

AVKO hopes to spread the concept that parent and spouse tutoring in spelling/reading skills can be successfully taught in adult community education classes and that members of a problem reader's support group can greatly assist the efforts of any volunteer tutor working in the literacy movement.

AVKO provides newsletters and economical opportunities to pursue individual research projects and to take part in large scale cooperative research projects that have immediate practical applications.

AVKO is attempting to accomplish these goals primarily through the profits generated by the inservices, workshops and the sale of materials developed for the special needs of students, parents, and adults -- but AVKO still needs donations to survive.

THE THREE "TOOZE"

TOO, TWO & to

Once upon a time there were three "TOOZE":

Papa TOO

Mama TWO

and little baby to.

PAPA TOO was always saying O-O, I ate too much too = so

or OOooh, it's too hot in here... or OOooh, it's too cold in here...
or OOooh, it's too bad you can't come...
or OOooh, it's too good for me...
or OOooh, it's too far away...
or OOooh, it's too close for comfort...
or OOooh, it's too hard for me...
or OOooh, it's too easy for me...
or OOooh, it's too soft for me...

too = also

or OOooh! Can I go too?
or OOooh! Will she be there too?
or OOooh! Will I get one too?
or OOooh! Will she have one too?
or OOooh! I can do that too.
or OOooh! I want some too.
or OOooh! Let's go there too.
or OOooh! We're going there too.
or OOooh! Tom wants one too.

THE PAPA TOO RULE: If you can substitute either the word so or also for one of the "tooze" and it makes sense (at least grammatically), then spell the word with the extra o, too.

MAMA TWO has a W in the middle of her name.

W stands for woman

Woman has two syllables.

We walk on two legs.

It may not be right, but two comes after one. And in normal speech one comes before two, and men come before women. Mama TWO is a Woman. And though she comes after Papa, Mama TWO is proud and like the AVIS ad, Mama TWO tries harder because she has been put into a number TWO position.

The MAMA TWO rule: If you can substitute any number for one of the "TOOZE" and it makes sense, at least gramatically, then it must be MAMA TWO.

BABY to:

Little BABY to is small.

Little BABY to has one less letter than the other TOOZE, PAPA TOO
and MAMA TWO

Little BABY to has such a small voice that when he says his name it sounds like "uh" as in:

SOUNDS LIKE:

BUT WE SPELL IT:

We're gonna win.

We're going to win.

Yuh wanna bet?

Do you want to bet?

Do I hafta go?

Do I have to go?

THE BABY to RULE: If the word isn't important enough to be sounded BIG as PAPA TOO or MAMA TWO, if you can't substitute SO, ALSO (TOO) or any number (TWO), then it has to be BABY to.

EXERCISES: Write the correct spelling of the "TOOZE" in the blanks provided.

These exercises can be used as:

1. Individual seat exercises.
2. Group "Let's everybody do it together. When we disagree we argue it out as to who is right and why.
3. Teacher-directed, student self-corrected, let's do them together and correct them as we go. one after the other.

Students can be challenged to create exercises such as these:

THE "TOOZE" will be written incorrectly as "tu" or as it sounds in normal sloppy speech. Your job is to correctly spell the words.

If it isn't ("tu") _____ hot, we "wanna" _____
take the "tu" _____ boys out to the park to see the "tu" _____-headed cow that is "tu" _____ ugly
"tu" _____ describe.

The "tu" _____ girls wanted "tu" _____ go there
"tu" _____, if it wouldn't be "tu" _____ much bother.

The "tu" _____ of us believe that if it's "tu" _____ hard for a teacher "tu" _____ understand, then we shouldn't "hafta" _____ do it.

Not only can students be challenged to create exercises such as the one on the preceding page, but they can also be challenged to create answer sheets for the exercises such as the following:

If it isn't ("tu") too (so) hot, we "wanna" want to take the "tu" two (w2) boys out to the park to see the "tu" two (w2) -headed cow that is "tu" too (so) ugly
"tu" to describe.

The "tu" two (w2) girls wanted "tu" to go there
"tu" too (also), if it wouldn't be "tu" too (so) much bother.

The "tu" two (w2) of us believe that if it's "tu" too (so) hard for a teacher "tu" to understand. then we shouldn't "hafta" have to do it.
