The New Legislature	8
Summary Matrix of Bills	12

Final Action on Legislation

The State Legislature adjourned the 2009–2010 regular session on August 31. After its September 2010 meeting, the Commission was tracking 19 bills, of which 5 had been acted upon and 14 were awaiting the Governor’s signature. Of the 19 bills, the Governor signed 12 of these.

The final dispositions of the bills are shown in the matrix. The Governor cited the budget deficit in many of his veto messages, noting that the state’s fiscal situation prevented many good bills from being signed into law. The Governor signed 41% and vetoed 59% of the bills reaching his desk during the 2009–2010 session.

AB 867 (Nava) CSU: Doctor of Nursing Practice degree

Chaptered by Secretary of State, September 28, 2010

Commission position — Watch

This bill authorizes CSU to award the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree. The bill would distinguish this degree from research-based doctoral degrees offered at UC. The bill requires that these programs be designed to enable professionals to earn the degree while working full time, train nurses for advanced practice, and prepare faculty to teach in postsecondary nursing programs. Recent amendments limit this bill to a three-campus pilot program, expand the reporting requirements for programs created through this statute, and sunset the pilot program on July 1, 2018. The bill requires CSU to report each year on the status of this degree program and specifies that degree programs established by the bill are not exempt from the CPEC review process.

AB 1413 (Fuentes) Student financial aid: eligibility: California Dream Act of 2010

Vetoed by Governor on September 30, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill expands eligibility for state financial aid to students exempted from paying nonresident tuition through specified provisions of law and extends the nonresident tuition exemption to graduates of adult education and technical schools, provided the student spent at least one year in a California high school. This bill, coordinated with the California Dream Act (SB 1460, Cerdillo), builds on AB 540 of 2001 and makes AB 540 students eligible for Cal Grants, institutional aid at UC and CSU, and other state financial aid programs.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1413 without my signature. I have always wholeheartedly supported the policy of making higher education opportunities as affordable as possible for all California's students. Our state's university and community college systems are amongst the finest in the country and should be made accessible to those seeking a better life through higher education. Unfortunately, given the precarious fiscal situation that the state faces, it would not be practical to adopt a new policy that could limit the financial aid available to students that are in California legally, in order to provide that benefit to those students who are not.

Since the beginning of the year, I have committed to provide the highest amount of funding for higher education, including for financial aid to needy students, that I believe is prudent given all of the competing interest for limited resources. Given the difficult decisions that are yet to be made to enact a state budget, I am still hopeful that the funding level that I have proposed for higher education will still be enacted. However, with that uncertainty coupled with the ongoing fiscal liabilities California will continue to face in the coming years, the State needs to be especially cautious in even considering enacting a measure like this.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

AB 1713 (Furutani) Public education: reporting requirements

Chaptered by Secretary of State, September 24, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill deletes, consolidates, and modifies specified reports that are required of the California Community Colleges and standardizes report due dates.

AB 1182 (Brownley, Chapter 386 of 2009), eliminated, restructured, and reorganized 45 reports to the Legislature required of UC, CSU, and the community colleges. AB 1713 further consolidates reporting requirements and deletes obsolete requirements for the community colleges. AB 1182 was the product of a work group comprised of legislative staff, DOF, LAO, and CPEC. The bill included the work group's consensus recommendations on the reporting requirements provided by UC, CSU, and the community colleges and it earlier addressed concerns raised by the governor.

The bill maintains important reports and changes reporting dates to more realistic timelines for collecting and submitting data from the local districts. CPEC staff believes this bill will streamline and improve needed reports, while freeing resources in the chancellor's office for critical oversight and policy functions.

AB 1889 (Portantino) Private postsecondary education: California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009

Vetoed by Governor on September 24, 2010

Commission position — Watch

Existing law establishes the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, which provides for student protections and regulatory oversight of private postsecondary schools. The act requires schools to refund 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less specified expenses, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. This bill would change the second deadline for notice of cancellation from the seventh class day after enrollment to the seventh day after enrollment. The most recent amendments make changes to employment classifications of bureau staff and prohibit the bureau for one year from enforcing the act against schools certified by the FAA to offer programs in flight instruction and aircraft maintenance.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1889 without my signature. Among many other provisions, this bill would require an Executive Branch agency to follow specific staffing requirements prescribed by the Legislature. This is both an inappropriate and unacceptable action to micro-manage and burden the implementation of regulatory policy.

If the author or interest groups wish to make staffing decisions for the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, I suggest they look into applying for the position of Bureau Chief. Applications can be obtained at: www.gov.ca.gov/appointments.

For these reasons, I refuse to sign this bill.

AB 1901 (Ruskin Chapter 201, Statutes of 2010) Postsecondary education: Master Plan for Higher Education

Chaptered by Secretary of State, August 27, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill codifies findings and declarations from the summary report of the Joint Committee on the Master Plan for Higher Education. This committee was established pursuant to ACR 65 (Ruskin), Resolution Chapter 106, Statutes of 2009. The most recent amendments to the bill clarified legislative intent to outline in statute statewide goals and outcomes for effective implementation of the Master Plan.

The bill includes the following findings:

- California's future economic, social, and cultural development depends upon ensuring that all its citizens have opportunities to develop themselves so that they can contribute their best to society.
- California will need to prepare more than one million additional graduates by the year 2025 in public higher education institutions to meet our workforce needs.
- California must support an educational system that prepares all Californians for responsible citizenship and meaningful careers in a multicultural society; this requires a commitment from all to make high-quality education available and affordable for every Californian.
- To accomplish these goals, California's system of higher education will need to expand.

AB 1971 (B. Lowenthal Chapter 204, Statutes of 2010) California State University and University of California: alumni: disclosure

Chaptered by Secretary of State, August 27, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill extends existing privacy protections for alumni donors to UC, CSU, and Hastings College of the Law expiring in January 2011, to January 2016. The bill requires disclosure forms that institutions currently must give donors be available on an alumni association's Internet home page or in the alumni association's privacy policy. The bill also expresses legislative intent that the systems report to the Legislature on compliance with these provisions by July 2014.

AB 1997 (Portantino) Community colleges: student financial aid programs: pilot program

Vetoed by Governor on September 29, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill simplifies the process by which community college students may apply for fee waivers. The bill allows community college districts limited authority to use the simplified form and requires they report usage information to the state.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1997 without my signature.

This bill is unnecessary. Nothing under current law prohibits the California Community College Chancellor's Office from working with local community colleges to meet the objectives of this bill. Furthermore, the annual budget act was augmented several years ago to provide the community colleges an additional $34.2 million for financial aid outreach efforts that were expected to assist students with maximizing federal and state financial aid.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

AB 2047 (Hernandez) Public postsecondary education: admissions policies

Vetoed by Governor on September 30, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill allows UC and CSU to consider race, gender, ethnicity, household income, and other relevant factors in admissions to the maximum extent allowed by the Fourteenth Amendment and permitted by the 2003 U.S. Supreme Court decision in Grutter v. Bollinger. The bill prohibits giving admissions preference to students based on any of these factors. The bill provides that this demographic information can be used if an institution is trying to recruit a diverse student body but requires its use to be consistent with relevant case law and in conformity with provisions of the state constitution.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 2047 without my signature.

The goal of advancing a more diverse student population at the University of California (UC) and California State University (CSU) systems, while maintaining high academic standards is an admirable one. However, this bill attempts to change the constitutional ban on considering race, gender, ethnicity, or national origin as a factor in admissions that the people of California supported when they passed Proposition 209 in 1996.

The UC and CSU systems are aware of and supportive of the important goal of student diversity and make every attempt through its comprehensive review admissions process. That process considers many of the factors contained in this legislation, but do so within current constitutional restrictions. The intent of this bill would be more appropriately addressed through a constitutional change of those current restrictions.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

AB 2086 (Coto) Cal Grant Program: qualifying institutions: publication of license examination passage rates

Chapters by Secretary of State, September 24, 2010

Commission position — Watch

This bill requires each of the public higher education systems' governing boards to certify to the Governor and Legislature they post professional licensure examination pass rates on all online enrollment applications. This bill seeks to provide college applicants with information on success rates of students who have completed a specified course of study at these institutions.

AB 2302 (Fong) Postsecondary education: student transfer*Chapters by Secretary of State, September 29, 2010Commission position — Watch*

This bill requires the three public systems to jointly develop ways to improve student transfer. It requires them to create a transfer degree that would guarantee third-year status at CSU or UC. As amended, this bill makes other changes to current law regarding transfer admissions to support the transfer pathway proposed by SB 1440 (Padilla). The most recent amendments limited the cost impacts of the bill's provisions and ensure that existing CSU transfer law is retained until the proposed new transfer pathway is established.

AB 2382 (Blumenfield) California State University: Doctor of Physical Therapy degrees*Chapters by Secretary of State, September 28, 2010Commission position — Support*

This bill authorizes CSU to award a stand-alone Doctor of Physical Therapy degree. It includes a provision stating that nothing in the bill limits or precludes existing statute requiring CPEC evaluation and recommendation of all programs established under this statute. The most recent amendments clarify reporting requirements on programs established pursuant to these provisions and repeal the provisions authorizing these degree programs on January 1, 2019.

AB 2385 (John A. Perez) Pilot Program for Innovative Nursing and Allied Health Care Profession Education at the California Community Colleges*Chapters by Secretary of State, September 30, 2010Commission position — Support*

This bill express legislative intent to establish accelerated nursing and allied health care pilot programs at five community colleges. This five-year pilot program seeks to shorten time-to-degree in nursing programs from the current average of two years to 18 months. The most recent amendments make minor, technical changes to the bill and cite the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and the availability of federal stimulus funds as providing opportunities for California to address healthcare workforce shortages. The bill requires the Community Colleges Chancellor's Office to evaluate the effectiveness of these pilot programs.

AB 2402 (Block) California State University: admissions: procedural requirements*Chapters by Secretary of State, September 24, 2010Commission position — Watch*

This bill establishes a more prescribed process for CSU when its trustees adopt changes in admissions policies that will affect applicants who live in the campus' local service area. The bill would also require that any such changes take effect a minimum of one year after they are adopted. The most recent amendments allow CSU to change admission criteria to a campus after six months if the change is based on changes in available resources. Similar to AB 2401, CPEC is concerned that this bill may hinder campuses' flexibility to manage admissions, majors, and other operations.

AB 2437 (V. Manuel Perez) State Government: Economic Development*Vetoed by Governor on September 27, 2010Commission position — Watch*

This bill establishes the California Manufacturing Competitiveness Act of 2010, to support retooling and expansion of manufacturing facilities. The bill authorizes the California Industrial Development Financing Advisory Commission to establish the California Manufacturing Competitiveness Loan and Loan Guarantee Program for the purpose of attracting, retaining, and expanding manufacturing facilities.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 2437 without my signature.

While I am supportive of providing California's manufacturers with greater borrowing opportunities to make capital investments, I believe the proper location of this economic development program is in the Governor's Office of Economic Development. In addition, this bill would create new higher costs to employers as a result of the prevailing wage requirements on projects financed under this bill.

For these reasons I cannot sign this bill.

AB 2682 (Block) Community colleges: student assessments: pilot project

Vetoed by Governor on September 28, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill amends the community colleges' existing matriculation program to establish a pilot program creating a centrally delivered student assessment system for placement and advisement. The most recent amendments require the chancellor's office to use the existing test item banks created by CSU and the K-12 system in developing the common assessment of college readiness.

Veto Message:

I am returning Assembly Bill 2682 without my signature.

I respect the author's intent to reduce costs and create efficiencies for students and community colleges. However, I have concerns that this bill creates a duplication of the efforts that resulted from the expansion of the existing Early Assessment Program (EAP), which evaluates the college-readiness of high school students. I signed into law in 2008 the bill that expanded the use of the EAP operated by the California State Universities, to include community colleges. Therefore, it is unclear why this bill is necessary.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

SB 1143 (Liu) Community colleges: student success and completion: taskforce and plan

Chapters by the Secretary of State, September 28, 2010

Commission position — Watch

This bill requires the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges to adopt a plan for promoting and improving student success. The Board is to convene a task force to develop recommendations for improving persistence and completion at the community colleges. The bill cites low levels of course completion, certificate and degree attainment, and transfer as reasons for developing this plan.

SB 1357 (Steinberg) California Longitudinal Pupil Achievement Data System

Chapters by Secretary of State, September 30, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill requires the California Department of Education to include data on pupil absences in CALPADS, contingent on receipt of federal funding for this purpose. The bill states legislative intent to support the development of early warning systems to identify and support pupils who are at risk of dropping out of school. The most recent amendments make implementation of the provisions to include pupil attendance data in CALPADS contingent upon receipt of federal funding and require consultation on the report with the Department of Finance and the Legislative Analyst's Office. CPEC supports efforts to improve the quality and utility of student information. This information can be used to develop more effective educational practices and student support services.

SB 1440 (Padilla) California Community Colleges: student transfer

Chapered by Secretary of State, September 29, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill proposes the Student Transfer Achievement Reform Act. It requires that a student receiving an associate degree for transfer in a community college be deemed eligible for transfer into a CSU baccalaureate program provided the student meets prescribed requirements for the program. Recent amendments condition a community college district's receipt of state apportionment funds on its development of granting associate degrees for transfer.

SB 1440 expands opportunities for community college students to attain a baccalaureate in a timely manner by the transferring to CSU with an associate degree. The bill encourages community college and CSU faculty to collaborate on developing more effective local articulation agreements to develop the associate degree for transfer required in this bill.

SB 1460 (Cedillo) Student financial aid: eligibility: California Dream Act of 2010

Vetoed by Governor on September 30, 2010

Commission position — Support

This bill proposes the California Dream Act of 2010. The bill expands eligibility to institutionally provided financial aid, including Board of Governors fee waivers at the community colleges, to students covered under AB 540 (Firebaugh, Chapter 814, Statutes of 2001). The bill exempts from paying nonresident tuition in the community colleges and CSU any person who has attended and graduated from California secondary schools, including adult schools and technical schools.

Veto Message:

I am returning Senate Bill 1460 without my signature.

I have always wholeheartedly supported the policy of making higher education opportunities as affordable as possible for all California's students. Our state's university and community college systems are amongst the finest in the country and should be made accessible to those seeking a better life through higher education. Unfortunately, given the precarious fiscal situation that the state faces, it would not be practical to adopt a new policy that could limit the financial aid available to students that are in California legally, in order to provide that benefit to those students who are not.

Since the beginning of the year, I have committed to provide the highest amount of funding for higher education, including for financial aid to needy students, that I believe is prudent given all of the competing interest for limited resources. Given the difficult decisions that are yet to be made to enact a state budget, I am still hopeful that the funding level that I have proposed for higher education will still be enacted. However, with that uncertainty, coupled with the ongoing fiscal liabilities California will continue to face in the coming years, the State needs to be especially cautious in even considering enacting a measure like this.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

The New Legislature

On November 2, 2010, voters elected representatives in all 80 Assembly districts and 20 of the 40 Senate districts. All 62 incumbents who ran were re-elected to a second or third term. Nine members and former members of one house of the Legislature who ran for a seat in the other house were elected. The Senate has two newly elected members who have not previously served in the Legislature. The Assembly has 27 newly elected members.

State Senate — 24 Democrats, 15 Republicans, 2 vacancies

District	Member
District 1 (Fair Oaks)	Senator Dave Cox died on July 13, 2010. A primary election was held on November 2, with four candidates on the ballot. The top two finishers of this special election — current Roseville Assemblymember Ted Gaines and Rancho Cordova Mayor Ken Cooley — will meet in a runoff election to be held early in 2011.
District 2 (Santa Rosa)	Assemblymember Noreen Evans elected. Senator-elect Evans is a former member, and past chair, of the Assembly Budget Committee.
