North Dakota

Profile of State College and Career Readiness Assessments (CCR) Policy

| CCR assessment policy | North Dakota offers the WorkKeys assessment as an alternative to the state administration of  the ACT. The state pays for one administration of either the ACT or the WorkKeys. |
| :--- | :--- |
| Purpose | To ensure students are college and/or career ready. |
| Major changes in CCR assessment policy since  the 2009-10 school year for financial reasons | No |
| Major changes in CCR assessment policy since  the 2009-10 school year for any other reasons | No |
| Grade CCR assessment first administered | Grade 11 |
| State financial support for students to take the  CCR assessment | Yes |
| Is the CCR assessment administered during the  regular school day?  Institutions for undergraduate admission  purposes? | Yes |

| Is the CCR assessment used by postsecondary  institutions for placement purposes? | Yes for ACT. No for WorkKeys. |
| :--- | :--- |
| Granted exemptions on college placement  exams for students who meet a certain  standard on the CCR assessment | Yes for ACT. English ACT subtest score of 18 is necessary for English 110. Math ACT subtest  score of 22 is required for College Algebra. WorkKeys scores are not used as a substitute for  ACT scores for college entrance or course placement. |
| Is postsecondary institution course credit  awarded for performance on the CCR  assessment in any way? | No |
| Is the CCR assessment used in any way by  potential employers? | No |
| Impact of adoption of the common standards  on state CCR assessment policies | Test administration of the ACT/WorkKeys will not change. These assessments will be  administered each spring to all high school juniors. The state will adopt the testing schedule  for the consortia assessments. |

