INTRODUCTION

This is the third of a series of supplements to the MLA Selective List of Materials, published in 1962 under contract with the U. S. Office of Education through the National Defense Education Act. The production of these supplements has been supported by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, since they had no government support. As their name indicates, they are intended to supplement and not to replace the Selective List of Materials. The supplements include 1) materials published since the original List went to the printer in 1961, 2) revisions in a few of the evaluations, and 3) items omitted from the original list through inadvertence.

Each item has been evaluated according to criteria set up by committees which were appointed by their respective teachers associations and the Modern Language Association. For each type of item there are several categories of criteria and the item has been judged excellent, acceptable, or unacceptable in each of these categories. If an item is judged unacceptable as a whole, it does not appear in this supplement.

The amount of current activity in the production of foreign language teaching materials may be gauged by the fact that the present supplement, which is largely made up of items produced since 1961, contains almost half as many items as were on the original 1962 List.

In the left margin Arabic numerals indicate the grade or class level (7-9 for junior high school). When an item is considered useful at more than one grade level, each applicable level is indicated. Roman numerals indicate language proficiency levels (I for beginners). "T" indicates materials for the teacher.

The name or initials in capital letters in each entry is the code name for the producer, whose full name and address are listed in Appendix 2 on pp. 62-64. List prices are given.

The names and addresses of foreign producers are also included in this list on pp. 62-64. Materials produced in foreign countries may be ordered directly from the producer or from an American distributor of foreign materials. Dollar prices given for such items are approximate, and they are based on quotations from various American distributors of foreign materials. Persons wishing to order from an American distributor should get exact quotations from a particular distributor before ordering. A list of American distributors is given on pp. 65-69.

In the notation "1EEA, 2A, 3AAU," etc., the numbers refer to the criteria for the category of this material. The letters are the ratings given by the evaluators: E - excellent, A - acceptable, U - unacceptable. If all evaluators agree on a rating, this letter appears only once. The criteria appear in Appendix 1 on pp. 51-61.

We are indebted to many persons for whatever virtues the present supplement shows, to the forty-six evaluators on the committees, whose names appear on pp. vii - ix, to Mrs. Ariadne Renko, New York University, and to Mr. James F. O'Brien, Columbia University, who were extremely helpful in the evaluation of various materials: to members of the MLA staff.
We wish also to express our gratitude for their splendid cooperation to the many publishers and producers of the materials evaluated here. Their generosity in donating materials has not only made possible the evaluations but also contributed greatly to the display of teaching materials maintained in the Materials Center of the Modern Language Association.

Despite our efforts, we are sure that the supplement has errors of commission and omission. Some excellent materials appeared too late to be included; others were omitted because they are not generally available; others were not submitted for evaluation. We will be grateful for criticisms of the supplement as a whole and we will be grateful to know authors, titles, and publishers of items that you believe should be submitted for evaluation in any future edition.

All inquiries concerning the evaluations published here should be addressed to the Material Center and not to the evaluation committee members, since all files are maintained at the Materials Center.

Some committee members are authors of materials evaluated in this supplement. An item authored by an evaluator was always referred to a different committee even though it would normally have been sent to the committee of which the author was a member.

MATERIALS FOR MODERN HEBREW. Since teaching materials for Modern Hebrew were included in the Selective List, it was originally planned to include them in this supplement as well. Only one new text, however, was sent by publishers. Therefore, in consultation with Professor Abraham I. Katsh, Chairman of the Modern Hebrew Committee, it was decided, in view of the paucity of the materials submitted, to refer teachers to bibliographies available elsewhere:

1) Hebrew Abstracts, published periodically; available from:
   National Association of Professors of Hebrew
   Room 41, 80 Washington Square East
   New York City, N.Y.

2) A Bibliography on Teaching of Hebrew to Adults, available from:
   Department of Culture and Education of the Jewish Agency
   515 Park Avenue
   New York City, N.Y.

The abbreviation SLOM for Selective List of Materials, 1962, is used throughout the supplement.

Spoken German is not emphasized by content although records and tapes accompany text. Language almost entirely narrative in style. Subject matter is generally of interest to high school student. A wealth of practice exercise is included. Text has moved from traditional to transitional. Could be used by a teacher who wishes to move from grammar translation in the direction of audio-lingual.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7E, 8A, 12A, 13A

Language is fresh and mainly conversational. Tries to do a great deal in a short time and is thus better suited to short sequences in senior high school and college than to the junior high school. Too few exercises for each grammar point introduced. An abundance of exercises for home study. Tapes include Introductory "Prereading" Lessons; Lesson Texts (first at normal speed, then by phrases); Pronunciation Drills; Pattern Practice; Conversations (first at normal speed, then by phrases); and Oral Exercises.

(Text) 1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7A, 8A, 9A, 10A, 11A, 12U, 13A

This book is best suited for students who have some background in language. English equivalents on same page as basic sentences. Text material is more appropriate to college than high school. Centers around university life in Austin, Texas.

1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7E, 8A, 9A, 10A, 11A, 12A, 13A

Introduction to modern German authors. Selections are very short and interesting. Many selections provide some insights into German culture. Vol. 1, Deutsch-Erstes Buch, and Vol. 2, Deutsch-Zweites Buch, were evaluated in the 1962 SIM.

1A, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9A, 10E, 11A, 12A, 13A

Excellent text for advanced course. Examples of style are taken from a number of authors and spoken language is contrasted with written style. Exercises are varied and are for both oral and written work.

7-9

1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6E, 7E, 8A, 9A, 10A, 11U, 13E

Book assumes considerable previous formal grammar training. Because of the few directions given for using this text, teachers would have to be carefully guided in order that they might successfully follow the listening, speaking, dramatizing, writing formula which the author suggests in the foreword. Contains many authentic children's rhymes and good phonetic (pronunciation) exercises. Dialogues and reading selections would be of interest to junior high school students.

(Tapes) 1E, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5E, 6A, 7A, 8A, 9A, 10A, 11A, 12A, 13A

Adult subject matter. Could be used in senior high school. Presentation using cartoons is lively and unique and makes dialogue material interesting. Tapes include all the basic sentences, variations, almost all of the pattern practices contained in text.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES & RESOURCE LISTS

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E

Contains such categories as "Sources of Free Materials," "Bibliographies and Resource Lists," "References on Methodology," and various categories of texts and other teaching aids.

Littmann, Arnold. DIE DEUTSCHEN SPRECHPLATTEN. EINE KRITISCHE BIBLIOGRAPHIE. HUEBER, 1963. 263 pp. $4.25.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4EEA

An excellent purchase guide for prospective buyers. Especially valuable since records are not provided for inspection as are books. The teacher can determine rather accurately whether he will find the record useful by consulting this volume. Materials covered include drama, poems, dialects, history, cultural topics available on records (33 1/3 rpm. discs only). Topically arranged under various headings and chronologically arranged within subheadings. Annotations are critical, explanatory of form, content, fidelity, and relation to cultural contribution. Technical aspects of records are often slighted. Index by author and by subject matter.

Too long to complete in a single high school year.

10-12
1E, 2E, 3A, 5E, 6A

7-9
1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6A

BOOKS OF SONGS

1E, 2E
Fifty-three songs in four categories: Summer, Day and Work, Love, and Drinking Songs. Good variety of selections. Since it is so inexpensive, most students can afford to have their own copies.

7-12
1E, 2E
An excellent book for the teacher and for German clubs. Contains a fine collection of German folk songs as well as regional songs in dialect. A few English and Latin songs. Total number around 264.

1E, 2A
Excellent book of 17 typical Christmas songs.

CONVERSATION BOOKS

1A, 2A, 4A, 5A, 6A
Usefulness depends on teacher presentation and drill. Could be supplementary materials for smaller groups in a class. It might be helpful to the teacher who has had no contact with native speakers for an extended period. The book attempts to acquaint the learner with German beliefs and customs.

1E, 2A, 3A 4U, 5A, 6E, 7E, 8U
Exercises for preparation in lab, practice at home, and performance in class. They are monotonously similar and without intellectual challenge. Teacher would have to work strenuously to keep class moving. Over emphasis on question-answer drills. Intonation and pronunciation are not treated in text. Tape program will provide models for imitation.

DICIONARIES

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 7E, 8E, 9EA
The first 2 volumes of a 4-volume work. Too detailed and expensive for use by individual secondary school students, but it should be in every German department and school library, and accessible to every teacher of German.

1EEA, 2EEA, 3EEA, 4E, 7EAA, 8EAA, 9EEA
Of use primarily to advanced student in high school for reference in depth. Designed for reading rather than writing because the names of synonyms are not well illustrated through sentences. The German-English volume is not so well printed as the English-German. Up-to-date colloquial language.

DISCS & TAPES: CULTURAL

THE GERMAN STORY. (Multilingua 2-speed language learning record). Performed by Inge Godenschwager. JOLES, 1959. One 12 in. 33 1/3 or 45 rpm. disc. (Serial Nos. GS-1, GS-2). Approx. 90 min. $5.95. One 7 in. 3 3/4 ips. mylar tape with complete text and translation $7.95.
GERMAN

1E, 2E, 4A, 5E, 6A, 8E, 9A
A bird’s eye view of Germany: geography, climate, cities, culture, history, economy, and famous people. Lack of separation of bands on the disc would be a nuisance in use. At the fast speed (45 rpm.), the voice sounds unnatural although not distorted.

10-12
GERMANY’S RUDOLF SCHOCK. Performed by Rudolf Schock and Bielefelder Kinderchor. CAPITOL. One 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. disc. (Serial No. T-10143). $3.98.

1A, 2E, 4E, 5E, 6E
Selections are chiefly from light operas ("Dein ist mein ganzes Herz," "O Madchen, mein Madchen," etc.). A splendid disc. Good for German club. No printed text.

7-9
Grimm Brothers. HANS IN GLÜCK. Performed by Horst Beck and others. TELEFUNKEN. One 71/2 in. 45 rpm. disc. (Serial No. U-45861-M). Approx. 20 min. $1.35.

1A, 2E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 8E, 9A
Made for German-speaking children. Recommended with qualifications: if presented properly by the teacher, could be used in grades 7-9. An excellent FLES group might use it if prepared in advance. Excellent except for discrepancy between content and language level.

DISCS & TAPES: LANGUAGE

1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9A, 10E, 11A, 12E, 13A, 14E, 15E
Although primarily for adults, this could be used as supplementary material for senior high school students. A self-study oral approach, utilizing the principles and practice of structural linguistics. Eight lessons with dialogues to be mastered orally, pattern drills, both "mim-mem" and transformational, and dialogue for listening. Speed of utterance may not allow some adult students to hear accurately what they are to imitate. After mastery of the material on the disc, some additional grammatical explanation would be necessary to clarify certain points, e.g. the numerous forms of articles which have been memorized in context. Verbatim text contains excellent statement of purpose and principles. Alphabetical index to phrases.

PLEASE DO NOT TRY TO ORDER THESE MATERIALS FROM MLA. WE HAVE ONLY SINGLE COPIES FOR INSPECTION. ORDER DIRECTLY FROM THE PUBLISHER OR DISTRIBUTOR. SEE THE LISTS OF SOURCES ON PP. 62-69.

Important as a completely self-instructional device for learning German. The method of presentation is unique and students will learn. However, the content is uninteresting and the language pedantic. Sometimes sentences are inane. Each student should have his own text, tape, and tape recorder.

(Tapes) 1A, 2A, 3A, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7A, 8E, 9A, 11A, 12E, 14E, 15U

Material is rather sophisticated for junior high school. It is excellent for highly motivated and capable senior high school learners. The student is able to work at his own pace. However, he often seems to lose and miss the personal contact with the teacher and other learners. The text contains a considerable number of errors. The lack of a teacher's manual is a serious shortcoming.

Halpert, Inge D. CHILDREN'S PLAYWAY TO GERMAN. JOLES, 1959.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6A, 8E, 9E, 10E, 12E, 13E, 14E, 15E

Excellent for starting German in the home, ages 4 to 12. Could be used with other materials, in FLES. The two-speed technique, allowing slowing down the speech, introduces some distortion, especially at fast speed; this is not beyond acceptable limits. Booklets contain line drawings for use with question-answer techniques. Highly motivating, the set captivates very young listeners.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 8E, 9E, 10E, 13E, 14E, 15E

These records and booklets could be used to advantage in a FLES or Junior High School Program where they could be integrated into the regular teaching course. Material is presented in an interesting manner. Various voices, songs, and music.

Three sets of two 7 in. 3 3/4 ips. full-track tapes, $16.00 per set or three sets of two 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm.

discs, $8.00 per set. Three Student Workbooks, $.88 each. Teacher's Manual free upon adoption.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 10E, 12E, 13E, 15E
Excellent quality and clarity of voices. Variety of interesting material. Vocabulary useful for everyday conversation. An excellent supplement to laboratory drills that often become monotonous. Intended primarily for auditory comprehension. Could, however, be expanded for use as stimulus for conversation or for review of important structures that are included. Teacher's Manual gives text of all recorded material.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 12E, 13E, 14E, 15E
Good structure drills in rudiments of German, focusing especially on high-frequency structures, particularly those which are most in contrast to English. Package would serve well as basic tape series with texts not accompanied by tapes, or as an adjunct to complete tape-text series. Teacher's Manual with full German text, basic instructions, and the philosophy behind the course.

1E, 3E, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7E, 8E, 10E, 12E, 13E, 14A, 15E
Appropriate at any level if used discriminately. Excellent supplementary drill tapes. Variety of exercises—some more suitable for review than for drill of recently presented material. On most tapes only one response possible for each stimulus. Some sentences lengthy. With most classes careful previewing would appear crucial. Print-through slightly audible. Teacher's Manual gives text of the recorded materials and basic instructions.

1A, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5E, 6U, 7E, 8E, 9A, 10A, 11A, 12A, 13U
Primarily a home study course but could be used as supplementary drill material. Consists of listen-repeat exercises of phrases and unrelated sentences only. Many sentences are quite long. Includes an excellent introduction to principles of language learning. Text booklet in German, English, Italian, Spanish, French. Second booklet with grammar practice and additional vocabulary arranged by categories of meanings.

2E, 6A

German folk songs with full orchestral background. The voices are good, the diction clear. Many are very well known. A balanced selection. Two are in dialect. Text of songs printed on record jacket.

2E

Beautifully sung and recorded carols. Medley arrangements of the best-known carols make the recording less good for teaching than for background music. Includes German version of "White Christmas." No text.

2E

Excellent quality of voices and recording in a selection of less-known songs. More for listening than teaching. No text.

2A, 6A

Nine well-known German carols clearly sung by man's and woman's voices, alternating. Man's voice has some not quite acceptable pronunciation characteristics. Clear recording. A color filmstrip with very legible text makes the set useful for teaching the carols. French carols on reverse of record. Teacher's Guide with words.

1A, 2A, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E

Good teaching and sing-along technique with 8 German songs. Introductions are recorded. Text spoken in phrases with pauses for repetition, then sung in longer segments, finally in full verses. Pronunciation differences between spoken and sung German need to be pointed out by the teacher. Also contains translation.

GERMAN

1E, 2E, 3E, 4A, 5A
This series of intermediate readers has a twofold aim: to describe and explain the current political, social, and intellectual situation in Germany and to help the reader understand why the Germans think and act as they do. These volumes have questions at the bottom of each page which help the student to read and understand the material. A German-English vocabulary supplements the numerous footnotes on each page. These readers are excellent. Students find them very informative and interesting. Elementary Volumes I-V in this series were evaluated in SLOM, 1962.

1E, 2E, 3A, 5E
Interesting selection of old favorites. Edited to eliminate archaic forms and constructions. Difficult words and expressions are clarified in the back of the book by the use of German synonyms. No exercises.

1A, 2A, 5A
Not recommended for translation practice. The wide range of difficulty makes it usable at many levels (possibly I-IV). Its possible use is as a basic or supplementary reader.

1E, 2A, 3A, 5A
Selection of stories of Hebel which have become classics in Germany. Notes. No end vocabulary.

1A, 2A, 3A, 5A
Delightful and popular story. Numerous notes and end vocabulary. Has been reset in Roman type, language brought up to date. Can be used as an outside comprehension story, with testing in German and English, or as an extra reader for an advanced class.

1E, 2E, 3A, 5A
Good introduction to contemporary German writing of both established and young authors. Notes very thorough and complete. Prose suitable for Level II; poetry for Level III.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5A
GERMAN

10-12  DIE JUNGEN LANDSTREICHER.
7-9 Vol. 3 in a series of 4 Novellen.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5A
Simple, easy, interesting story. Designed as supplementary reading for audio-lingual course. Good apparatus and exercises.

10-12  DER KLEINE BÜRGERMEISTER

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5A
Simple, easy, interesting story. Designed as supplementary reading in audio-lingual course. Good apparatus and exercises.

10-12  Lepman, Jella. DAS GEHEIMNIS VOM KUCKUCKSHOF.
7-9 2nd ed. MURRAY, 1961. 79 pp. Paper 4s/6d.

1E, 2E, 3A, 5A
Interesting, suspenseful detective story. Gives a good picture of the Black Forest, its people and their way of life. Vocabulary is simple enough to make the book interesting and easy reading in first year, or supplementary reading for second year. No exercises.

10-12  Littmann, Arnold. PETER HAT PECH.

1E, 2E, 3A, 5A
Detective story with considerable suspense. Language and subject matter appeal to high school students. Up-to-date Berlin dialect incomprehensible to students. No end vocabulary.

10-12  Marcus, Eric. WIR REISEN NACH DEUTSCHLAND.
7-9 HOLT, 1964. 230 pp. II

$3.60. Ten 7 in. 7 1/2 ips. dual-track tapes $75.00. Also available on loan for duplication.

1E, 2E, 3A, 5E
Useful for reading, for the text is fresh and stimulating. Exercises are unimaginative and the translation is inappropriate. Would be excellent for taking care of individual differences at intermediate and advanced levels.

10-12  Schmidt, Gerard F. HÖR GUT ZU!

1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5E

10-12  Seidmann, Gertrud. GRAU IST ALLE THEORIE.

1E, 2E, 3E, 5A
Series of humorous scenes which can be acted out. Suited for adolescent level. Variety of dialogue. No end vocabulary, but unfamiliar words are clarified by use of German synonyms.

10-12  Spang, Günter. ZWÖLF HEITERE KURZGESCHICHTEN.

1E, 2A, 5A
Interesting and amusing stories. Useful for reading, for comprehension or as a basis for discussion. Delightful change from more routine texts. No notes or end vocabulary, or exercises.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5E
Interesting in appearance. Useful as a supplementary reader for change of pace in the classroom or to take care of individual differences through independent reading. Dialogues, drills, and workbook are included.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 10A
Good film for general orientation to life in Germany. Subjects included: Bonn wine festival, Ruhr industry, life on a farm, the Volkswagen works. Excellent, perfectly normal speech in the narration. The tape is taken from the film sound-track with pauses for repetition.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 10A
Excellent introduction to Switzerland. Very good, natural narrative voice. The tape is taken from the film sound-track with pauses for repetition.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4EA, 5A, 6A, 7A, 8A, 9E, 10A
A good introduction to Hamburg: harbor, business and shopping districts, a middle-class home, etc. The tape is taken from the film sound-track with pauses for repetition.

1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5E, 6A, 7A, 8A, 9E, 10A
Views of Munich, Dinkelsbuhl, and Rothenburg. What the tourist is shown with brief descriptions. German narrative is overly careful in enunciation. The tape is taken from the film sound-track with pauses for repetition.

1E, 2E, 3A, 4E, 5A, 6E, 7A, 8A, 9E, 10A
The film shows Black Forest farms, towns, and resorts, along with some of the more usual occupations. The accompanying handbook has the complete text of the sound track, a vocabulary, and

INTEGRATED PROGRAMS

10-12 A-1M GERMAN: LEVEL TWO by Mary P. Thompson and Staff of Modern Language Materials Development Center. HARCOURT, 1964. (9 units plus last 3 units of Level One). 404 pp. $3.80. Practice Record Set (box of nine 7 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs) $4.60. Student Test Answer Forms (booklet of 48 perforated pages) $.60. Classroom/Laboratory Materials: 7 1/2 ips. Tape Set (forty 7 in. full-track, Tenzar reels) $120.00 or 33 1/3 rpm.

Record Set (twenty-two 12 in. discs) $44.00. 7 1/2 ips Listening-Comprehension Testing Tape Set (four 7 in. full-track Tenzar reels) $20.00. Teacher's Manual free on specific request.

(Text) 1E, 2E, 3A, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 10E, 11E, 12E, 13E
Level introduces a rather heavy vocabulary load for the learner. Transition between Level I and Level II is abrupt and taxing. Lack of visuals should be remedied. Text places an increasing stress on reading and writing while maintaining audio-lingual skills. Narratives are interesting and provide an opportunity to observe cross cultural differences. Many structure drills of various kinds are provided. Teacher's Manual provides a rather complete guide for day to day teaching. It is a must for the teacher using these materials.

(Discs & Tapes) 1A, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 11E, 12E, 14A, 15E
Generally excellent. However, at times speakers forget that they are not speaking to native Germans but to learners. Endings are dropped or utterances are unclear so that the student becomes confused about grammatical points.

(Practice Record Set) 1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 11E, 12A, 14E, 15E
These home study discs will add measurably to the program if used as directed. One should note that many students and teachers have purchased the discs and then found that the discs were used less than expected. Presumably disc use should be carefully evaluated to determine how home study is contributing to perfecting audio-lingual skills. Level I of these materials was evaluated in SLOM, 1962.

  (Text)  1E, 2E, 3A, 4E, 5E, 6A,
       7E, 8E, 9E, 10A, 11E, 13E
  An excellent continuation from Level II. However, the humor of some selections is lost on American students. Generally the content is interesting to American teenagers and represents a good variety of subjects and styles.

  (Discs & Tapes)  1E, 2E, 3E,
                   4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 11E, 12E
                   14E, 15E
  There are many drills to help the student master grammar. However, the drills are not always consistent and the student becomes unsure of his response; for example, the student practicing the passive with "von" is suddenly confronted with "durch" even though "von" would have been correct.

  (Practice Record Set)  1E, 2E,
                        3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 11E,
                        12E, 14E, 15E
  Home study discs may be less important in Level III than previously. Probably each teacher should have a few sets to lend to students needing practice over and above that available during class.

Lively style. Attempts to provide cross cultural insights.
Content is of interest to a teen-ger and activities are reasonable for second level learners. The book is live with current thinking of linguists and other language experts.

Tape instructions to student are inadequate. Teacher will have to tell student what he is supposed to do. Finding tape script in manual requires considerable page thumbing since tape script for one lesson is not all in one place.
Utterances are sometimes very long for student response or repetition.

There are not always enough drills

A German text with grammar explanation in German based on the direct-method used in the Goethe
Institute. No English used. A German-English vocabulary available separately. If the teacher is willing to take the time, the exercises and stories are well worth the trouble, since the vocabulary is good and practical. Unless the teacher is prepared to make her own vocabulary lists or simplify the grammar explanations in English, it would not be suitable for high school

LINGUISTICS

1EUU, 2EAU, 3A, 4EAA
This excellent descriptive grammar is designed primarily for teachers' reference but can also be used in advance courses in composition and conversation. The best modern descriptive treatment of contemporary German in English. The preface de-emphasizes the importance of oral skill.

LITERARY TEXTS

1E, 2E, 3E, 4A
Excellent collection of radio plays by a good cross-section of contemporary radio play writers. A variety of themes. Everyday spoken language of contemporary Germany. The depth and discussion questions at the end of each selection make them ideal for advanced groups. In addition, there are the usual questions on plot, at the back of the book, which are useful for lower level groups. Tapes made from original studio productions.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E
This chronicle of the Thirty Years War is one of Brecht's masterpieces—a series of isolated moments, an example of single 'epic' theater. Text has ample notes, very clearly given: critical material, vocabulary, notes. Illustrations throughout are of the Berliner Ensemble's performance. The content and language may cause misgivings about its appropriateness as a text for high school students.

1E, 2E, 4E
Excellent, comprehensive reader containing writings on German life, land, and people, as well as literary works and discussions of art and artists. Attempt to show how rich the German tradition is. Good for teacher reference or for the school library, but not suited for use as a classroom text. No notes or vocabulary.

II-III DEUTSCHE GEDICHT. AM. BOOK, 1963.
Poems of many types are arranged chronologically from Opitz to Haushofer. Visible page glosses rather than an end vocabulary are included. Biographical and critical headnotes serve as brief introduction to each poet's work and place in German literature. This is good for intermediate level.

A cross-section of the best in Austrian literature, designed for intermediate students. Includes Grillparzer, Schnitzler and Lernet-Holenia. Visible marginal glosses are provided plus an end vocabulary. Extensive questions and exercises. Apparatus and exercises are very helpful to the teacher.

Modern German short stories appealing to American high school students. Good introduction in English. Visible vocabulary and also end vocabulary. Ample comprehension exercises at back of book. Can be used as early as Level II in junior high school.

GERMAN

1E, 2A, 3E, 4A
Compilation of 64 poems for use at elementary-intermediate level. Sampling of the finest achievements of the German spirit from the Middle Ages to the present. 1E, 2A, 3A, 4A
A good supplement to the usual texts available. Selections are representative of major authors in German literature. Has no notes or autobiographical sketches of authors and can, therefore, only be used in classes which have a good grasp of the language and can understand political ideas and concepts.

basis. Highly theoretical with much linguistics terminology. Little direct practical application for the high school teacher.

I AAE, 2E, 3E, 4A, 5AE
Thorough and complete. Indispensable as reference for spoken language, especially with accompanying "Ubungstexte" which contains wealth of minimal pairs.

1E, 2E, 3E, 5A
Wealth of illustrated acoustic examples, especially minimal pairs. A must for the teacher of German and useful for advanced high school students. Accompanying record.

1EEA, 2EAA, 3E, 5EAA
A careful analysis of the individual sounds and sound systems and a thorough discussion of the differences between them. Essential for teacher reference and for help in assisting students to acquire a good pronunciation of German. Contrastive approach valuable, but teachers will have to set up their own lists in which principles are applied. Since most teachers are not able to read phonetic transcript, a record with actual sounds of examples would be useful.

VI

1EEA, 2EAA, 3E, 4EAA, 5EAA
Very detailed coverage. Material clearly organized with an original numbering and coding system allowing quick identification of items. Terminology new in treating syntactical material because of new theoretical basis. Probably the best descriptive grammar of modern colloquial German. Though not specifically designed for the American teacher and student, it is nevertheless indispensable for them.

10-12 Lederer, Herbert, and Werner Neuse. KLEINES AUFSATZBUCH. HOLT, 1961. 154 pp. $3.40. Three 7 in. 7 1/2 ips. dual-track tapes. Approx. 30 min. each. $22.50 or on loan for duplication. Script upon request.

This set of materials should properly be placed under the category "Composition" for which no specific criteria were developed for SLON. The aim is to maintain audio-lingual skills while building writing skills. The book is interesting and provides for stimulating writing activities and laboratory drills. The tapes consist of a partial reading of a narrative which also appears in the text, followed by questions and pauses for student response. Correct answers are then given. Some supplementary drills of various types are also included.

Intended as a self-teaching package. Over 800 sentences, grouped by subjects but not in dialogue form. Most of the recording is very deliberate, though not otherwise distorted; toward the end several dialogues are recorded at normal speed. There are pauses for repeating except in these dialogues. Not recommended for classroom use. Manual gives for each sentence English and German text and phonetic transcription based on English values for the letters. A booklet, Hints on Speaking German, is a simple grammar for basic, conversational use.

Excellent illustrations, examples and idiomatic expressions. Tremendous amount of new vocabulary which is taken up according to groups (sports, school, etc.). Good spacing. For use only as self-study travel aid.

Strictly for travelers who desire a very superficial knowledge of German. There are no pauses for repetition of sentences that include German sounds which American speakers are likely to find troublesome. Brief Student's Manual with German and English text and introductory instruction.

Although there are no exercises, the book could be useful as a supplementary reference. Material presented is written so that it can be understood by all students. Rules are given with numerous examples.
BASIC TEXTS

(Text) 1A, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5A, 6E, 8A, 9A, 10E

This text, the best published to date, is divided into 25 lessons. Each lesson is divided into two parts, and each part contains one page of large print conversation based on topics and situations encountered in Norwegian urban life. The English equivalents and phonetic spellings are conveniently printed on the opposite page. Each lesson includes exercises, consisting of pattern drills, questions, listening drills, suggested situations around which conversations can be built, and a discussion of some aspect of grammar. The book provides most of the answers pertaining to structure, but the method used has some cumbersome features. The illustrations, format, and printing are superb.

(Tapes) 1EEA, 2EEA, 3EEA, 4EEA, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 10EEA, 11EEA, 12EEA, 13EEA, 14EEA

Ideal for both independent and classroom study. Technical quality is excellent and the voices (both masculine and feminine) are generally clear, natural and pleasant. With only a few exceptions, each lesson contains materials for listening, repetition, and response. The use of two voices for pattern drills seems unnecessary. These tapes together with the text constitute the best material now available for beginning study of Norwegian.

BOOKS OF CULTURE & CIVILIZATION

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 6AUU

A collection of representative folk tales with an informative but not entirely adequate introduction. The translation is satisfactory, but not excellent. The book can be used as supplementary reading in first year language and in culture and civilization courses. Second year students can read these tales in the original. The paper, printing, and binding are of mediocre quality.

1EAA, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5EAA, 6EAA

Geography, politics, history, literature, music and art. Because the approach is seemingly more oriented to the prospective traveler than to the student, the book can best serve as supplemental reading. The interpretation of the country is original and at times bold, revealing a distinct one man's view. Though revised for an English and American public, it is still evident that the book was written for Frenchmen.

BOOKS OF SONGS

1A, 2A

Although not intended for foreign students, this song book can be useful for the instruction of children in the classroom and in language camps. It contains no explanation of the songs, no vocabulary list, and no English texts. The songs, both traditional and modern, are grouped according to type. Some Swedish and Danish songs are also included.

DISCS & TAPES: SONGS

SCANDINAVIAN FOLK SONGS. Sung by Arne Dørumsgaard and Saga Sjøberg. MONITOR, 1963. One 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. disc. (Serial No. MF 333). $4.95.

1A, 2AU, 3U, 4A, 5A, 6A, 8A, 9A

Excellent for giving insight into Scandinavian folk culture. Nine of the songs are Norwegian; the rest are Swedish and Finnish. Though some of the selections might be questioned, all of the songs are authentic, arranged in good taste, and performed well. Most of the language is dialectical.

ANGLES

1AUU, 2EEA, 3A, 4A

A generally reliable guide to contemporary Norwegian pronunciation, best used by teachers to implement their own knowledge, and by advanced students who wish to perfect their pronunciation. Contains numerous diagrams and a concluding word-index of 40 pages. Not in the strictest sense a work in descriptive linguistics for no attempt at phonemic analysis is made. Oriented toward the traditional language teacher. Thoroughness is its main virtue; an outdated approach is its main defect. One 7 in. 45 rpm. disc, The Pronunciation of Norwegian, accompanies the book.

MAPS

1E, 2E, 4E

Prepared in atlas manner, this book of sectional maps of Norway is ideal for classroom use. Because it is inexpensive, each student can own a private copy. A complete index provides for easy location of cities, villages, mountains, fjords, lakes, rivers, and glaciers.
REFERENCE GRAMMARS

1A, 2A, 3A, 4U, 5A
Survey of grammar by parts of speech, with an introductory description of sounds and a final section on word order. Traditional in organization, accurate though incomplete in statement. Can be used for reference by advanced students. It would be most useful for the teacher. Has no index but a very complete table of contents.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

Out of print. For information concerning a new, revised edition write the Cultural Attaché, Norwegian Embassy, Washington, D.C.

A valuable reference for both teacher and student seeking information about the administration, organization, and content of Norway's educational system. The courses of study leading to the university and other schools of higher learning are clearly outlined. Diagrams assist the reader in seeing details in their proper context. In addition to an index, there are seven pages of "definitions" where ready answers are available for standard questions.

RUSSIAN

DRILLS by Wasyl Jaszczen, Tatiana S. Kelly, and Joseph A. Mastronie under DISCS & TAPES: LANGUAGE.

The visual aids which accompany the text are highly stimulating for conversation. The frequency with which Russian material is accompanied by a parallel English version, however, is disadvantageous. There are so many typographical errors that the student's confidence in the text will be adversely affected.

Conscientious and thorough, this Soviet text does not reflect the same viewpoint as most American texts, either with respect to methodology or cultural presentation. Its value is as a contrasting, serious alternative to those basic texts designed by American teachers for use here, where smaller increments are in greater favor.

(Text) 1A, 2EEEA, 3A, 4EEEU, 5EEEU, 6EEEU, 7A, 8EEEA, 9EEEA, 10EEEA, 11EEEA, 13EEEA
Although designed for college, its use at the advanced secondary level would be a welcome, profitable challenge to instructor and student. The structures are well presented, the grammar, reading and conversation functions of language competence are divided into separate learning units. Highly recommended but stiff.

(Tapes) 1A, 2A, 3A 4A, 5A, 6E, 7A, 8U, 9E, 11E, 12E, 13E 14E, 15E, 16E
Very adequate, especially good transformation drills.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES & RESOURCE LISTS

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E
An extensive classified bibliography of Russian titles in transliteration and translation recommended to both teachers and libraries. The wide range of subjects will excite the curiosity of students, suggest fields of research, and introduce much specialized vocabulary. Teachers will be encouraged to explore beyond the routine of daily classes, increasing their professional competence.

BOOKS OF CULTURE & CIVILIZATION

10-12

VI

This sophisticated, extremely interesting and well-written survey of Soviet literature requires a background knowledge of the Russian and Soviet scene in order to enjoy fully the intellectual and literary nuances of the author's views. The secondary school student is not likely to be culturally or intellectually equipped to absorb the scope and subtle insights. Useful as a reference work for term papers or as a supplementary outside reading assignment for the brighter students.

1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E

Designed as a text in Russian folklore, the book contains a wealth of material, accented, carefully arranged, and presented with helpful notes and separate vocabularies for the selections. A valuable source of cultural information, it is an excellent supplement to any course in literature. A very attractive book.

BOOKS OF SONGS

T

7-9

1E, 2A

Sixteen songs prefaced by a vocabulary list instead of an English translation of the whole song. Several of the songs, such as Stenka Razin, have been cut so short that the story interest is lost. There is no background or historical material to aid the non-native teacher. Among the more familiar songs to American students of Russian are "Volga Boatmen" and "The Birch Tree."

1E, 2E

Contains 44 folk and popular songs. A list of records containing most of the songs is given and guitar chord fingering charts are included. Many of the better-known songs are included. There is an excellent introduction which should be invaluable to a non-native teacher. The Russian text is sandwiched between a free English translation and a transliteration, which seems to be a definite drawback. Complete texts are given. A good song book for clubs and classes. The introduction and notes add to the value of the book.

DICTIONARIES

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 7A, 8A, 9A
Contains about 25,000 words.
Was intended originally for students in Russia who are studying English.  A resultant disadvantage is that the foreword and most abbreviations are in Russian.  Very weak in regard to morphological information about Russian.

Superior to Bylinskij's 1960

even coverage of surnames and in its careful consideration of name stress principles.  The first thorough work since Ogienko in 1912.  Well organized, with observed variant stresses included.
Fills a hitherto striking gap in stress documentation.  Excellent for advanced students.  Also lists diminutive forms of Russian given names.  Includes a table of

(MIT)  1E, 2A, 3E, 4E, 7A, 8E, 9E

Intended for use by English-speaking students, this dictionary is of very limited scope and contains only around 3,500 words.
Both versions contain a section on grammatical rules.  The MIT dition reprints the sections on pronunciation and endings from Lapidus' Dictionary and contain a brief chapter on Russian spelling.

ENGLISH DICTIONARY.  MIT, 1963.

(MOSCOW)  1E, 2A, 3E, 4E, 7A, 8A, 9A
(MIT)  1E, 2A, 3E, 4E, 7A, 8E, 9E

A good small dictionary.  Although both versions appear to be identical, the Moscow edition claims to contain 11,000 words while the MIT reprint claims only 3,500 words!
The first estimate is probably the correct one.  The dictionary provides much information on the pronunciation and morphology of Russian.  Some of the information on case endings is ambiguous.  The MIT edition separates the explanations for usage of the dictionary from the grammar tables and explanations of phonetics.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 7A, 8A, 9A

This is a handy dictionary for the intermediate student.  Because of space limitations, its treatment of phraseology is minimal.  After 20 years, this is still the most popular one-volume dictionary with Russian-English and English-Russian sections.  Its worst defect is the incongruous grouping of the material.
RUSSIAN

DISCS & TAPES: CULTURAL

10-12

Moussorgsky, Modest Petrovich.

BORIS GODUNOV. Performed by Boris Christoff and the Chorus of the National Opera House of Sofia and Paris Conservatoire Orchestra.

ANGEL. Four 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial No. DL 3633). $19.98. Includes handsome Russian text with accents and the English translation.

1A, 2A, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E

Very good supplement for advanced classes. Excellently presented. Voices clear. Text accompanying is complete, giving background information, synopsis of the plot and the complete libretto in Russian, English transliteration and English translation.

10-12

MOUSSORGSKY MELODIES. Sung by Boris Christoff. ANGEL. Four 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial Nos. 35602, 3, 4, 5). $4.98 ea. Text.

1A, 2A, 4A, 5E, 6E, 8E, 9A

Excellent supplementary material that could be used to advantage in Russian clubs. Soloist exceptionally clear. Book accompanying the records is quite beautiful, containing the complete text in Russian, English, French, and Italian, and has many vivid illustrations of cultural significance. The language in some of the songs is quite difficult.

1EEA, 2EEA, 3E, 4EEA, 5EEA, 6EEA, 7E, 8EEA, 9EE, 10EE, 11EE, 12E, 13E, 14E, 15E

Commences with the Russian alphabet and proceeds step by step to very brief conversational units. The text gives explanations to some grammatical problems and has a Russian-English vocabulary at the end. The whole Russian text is stressed. It can be employed with profit as a conversational supplement to a basic class text. The material is, however, dull and spoken very slowly.

DISCS & TAPES: LANGUAGE

7-9

BASIC RUSSIAN. WILMAC. Two 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial No. WRS-212). 60 min. $9.95 or two 7 in. 3 3/4 ips. tapes $14.95. Includes text with English and Russian translation. Additional text $.35.

1EEA, 2EEA, 3E, 4EEA, 5EEA, 6EEA, 7E, 8EEA, 9EE, 10EE, 11EE, 12E, 13E, 14E, 15E

The conversations are not always humorous, but they usually hold the student's interest. They are brief, yet they recount an incident. A student will feel comfortable because he will have learned many of the words incorporated in the text. Some intonations are poor.

Fayer, Mischa H. READINGS FROM BASIC RUSSIAN: Book II. MONITOR. Two 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial Nos. MR 109, 110). $4.98 ea. Includes Russian text and English translations. Basic Russian: Book II was evaluated in SLON, 1962.

1EEA, 2EEA, 4E, 5EEA, 6EEA, 8E, 12E

Helpful to students using Basic Russian, but a more varied, conversational tempo would be preferable to the monotonous reading of the material as recorded here. The tempo is constant throughout. However, these records are extremely well prepared, and the student will find them of great aid.

Harvey, Howard G. PASSPORT TO RUSSIAN. COLUMBIA REC. Twelve 7 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial No. CFL 5). $10.98. Includes text and dictionary.

The records and accompanying text are a very good aid to the beginner in his study of Russian, whether for traveling purposes or for the study of the language itself. The vocabulary and dialogues are practical and well organized and presented. Dialogues use words and phrases one would need if traveling in the USSR. The material is contemporary and interesting. A good set of records to accompany the third semester of a formal Russian course.

Although primarily intended for Essentials of Russian, these tapes are suitable for any Russian language course. The grammar explanations in English on the tape are difficult to follow and will have to be supplemented by the teacher. See: Essentials of Russian by A. von Gronicka and Helen Yakobson under BASIC TEXTS.

Nikanov, F. I. THE RUSSIAN ALPHABET GUIDE. FOLKWAYS. Two 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs. (Serial No. FI 8160). One hour. $11.90. Includes complete, two-color Visual Chart.

Pei, Mario, and F. I. Nikanov. GETTING ALONG IN RUSSIAN. Vols. I and II. Performed by F. I. Nikanov and Countess Buxhoeveden. FOLKWAYS. One 12 in. 33 1/3 rpm. disc per ea. vol. (Serial Nos. FI 8161, 8162). $5.95 each with text.

1EEA, 2EEA, 3EEA, 4EEA, 5EEA, 6EEA, 7EEA, 8EEA, 9EA, 10E, 11EEA, 12EA, 13A, 14E

Deals with such topics as passport, baggage, hired conveyance. Contains sections on numerals, places of interest, cable, and telephone. The recorded voices are strong and appealing. The content is of special interest to students who plan to take a trip to the Soviet Union. Some of the vocabulary and common expressions can also be adapted by students, with profit, to local situations. Some wrong stresses are given in the texts.

1EA, 2EEA, 3E, 4EEA, 5E, 6E, 7A, 8EEA, 9EA, 10E, 11EEA, 12EA, 14A, 15A

A very helpful device for pronunciation drills. The discs divide the Russian alphabet into three groups: 1) letters similar in appearance and pronunciation to Latin letters; 2) letters similar in appearance to Latin but different in pronunciation; 3) letters mainly of Greek origin. Psychologically such grouping of Russian letters may be of greater advantage to the student than the presentation of the alphabet in chronological order. The printed guide which accompanies the spoken words is artistic and appealing. The use of the red color to emphasize the item to which attention is drawn is a good pedagogical device. This guide can be used in many advanced classes as well to correct students' pronunciation.

These records will perhaps best serve for home study on a "refreshsume a grammatical foundation (to be reactivated) which only second-

Very valuable. "Mednyi Vsadnik" by Pushkin can be used with great profit either for listening or as an aid in memorization of part of this famous poem. The text accompanying the tape has the stress marks, notes, and a glossary. The introduction in the text gives the student a picture of the period of that time and the first humanitarian theme of the "little man" in Russian literature.

which are fine material for use in Russian clubs or for after-class listening. The mood is unfortunately much the same throughout and tends to become somewhat monotonous if one listens to both sides of the records at one playing.

YULYA SINGS MIDNIGHT IN MOSCOW AND OTHER RUSSIAN HITS. Sung by Yulya Whitney. MONITOR. One 12 in. 33 1/2 rpm. disc. (Serial No. MP 597). Mono and stereo. $4.98 with text.

A very exceptional collection of songs performed by a talented artist whose voice should enable the teacher to use this record not only to teach songs, but also for language teaching. The dictation on these records is exceptionally clear. The songs are well chosen and are usually well liked by students.

ELEMENTARY READERS

Story is divided into small sections with exercises, vocabulary. The content may be a little boring to students, but the vocabulary is good.

Short selections from writings of well-known authors. Includes review and supplement of grammar, exercises, notes, and vocabulary. The selections are very brief and selected mainly from much longer works. The chief values are a good set of notes and vocabulary.

An attractive and diversified selection of readings. Most items are complete in themselves rather than excerpts. The notes and analyses of language are particularly good. Unlike most readers, this one is specifically designed to teach a student how to cope with language difficulties by explaining difficult and unusual constructions and then offering a series of drills on each troublesome point.

Two short stories by contemporary Soviet authors, simplified by editors. Exercises, vocabulary. The stories are interesting, although a note on the contents is sorely needed to explain why Pushkin's Javas ljubil is attributed to Shakespeare in Zinochka.

RUSSIAN

1U, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5A
In content, the story is subtly propagandistic underneath its drama and sentimentality. Furthermore, it has had to undergo a great deal of editing to bring the language to the level of the students. It would be much more appropriate unedited, but with notes.

Wiens, Gerhard. BEGINNING RUSSIAN READER. HOLT, 1961. Illus. 188 pp. $4.60.

1A, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A
The main feature of this book is a modern satirical fantasy based on "Gulliver's Voyage to the Twentieth Century." The author skillfully combines humor and imagination in the telling of his story, and he uses a modern idiomatic vocabulary which is especially appealing to the secondary school student. Other sections of the book are uneven in quality. The folk tales are excellent, but the section on the alphabet is much too easy.

Appropriate in content and format for secondary levels. Fine basic dialogues, structure drills, conversation stimulus.

(Discs & Tapes) 1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9A, 11E, 12E, 14E, 15E Well coordinated tape-text material, excellently recorded. Logical, even structure and transformation drills. Instructions in English are clear and concise.

(Practice Record Set) 1E, 2E, 3E, 4E, 5E, 6E, 7E, 8E, 9E, 11E, 12E, 14E, 15A Designed for the individual student for practice at home as a supplement to class work. For best results each student should have his own set. Their use would enhance the development of a high standard of pronunciation and intonation.

(Teacher's Manual) 1A, 2A, 3A, 4E, 5A, 6E Programs a very full schedule of classroom teaching. Contains many useful suggestions.

A-LM RUSSIAN: LEVEL THREE by Mary P. Thompson and Staff of Modern Language Materials Development Center. HARcourt, 1964. (12 units plus last 2 units of Level Two. 400 pp. $5.20. Practice Record Set (box of six 7 in. 33 1/3 rpm. discs) $3.60. Student Test Answer Forms (booklet of approximately 80 perforated pages) $.80. Classroom/Laboratory Materials: 7 1/2 ips. Tape Set (approx. thirty-two 7 in. full-track Tenzar reels) $100.00 or 33 1/3 rpm. Record Set (approx. twelve 12 in. discs) $40.00. 7 1/2 ips. Listening-Comprehension Testing Tape Set (four or five 7 in. full-track Tenzar reels) $20.00. Teacher's Manual available free on specific request (in preparation).

(Text) 1E, 2A, 3A, 4E, 5E, 6A, 7E, 8A, 9A, 10A, 11E, 12E, 13A This text and its accompanying materials are of very high quality. Quite advanced. Format is similar to that of earlier levels. Writing exercises are included.

(Discs & Tapes) 1E, 2A, 3E, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7A, 8E, 9A, 11A, 12E, 14A, 15A The discs are perhaps less practicable than the tapes; the content is the same for both. The drills are imaginative and thorough, and the materials are authentic. They are advanced enough so that their use might well be considered for college level also. Ideally they might include a greater cultural focus; particularly in view of their advanced level.

(Practice Record Set) 1E, 2E, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6A, 7A, 8A, 9A, 11A, 12A, 14A, 15A These discs for home use are valuable for following up the listening and speaking drills in Levels I and II, which occur in reduced proportion in Level III. The Level III textbook contains the text of these records; thus, their use is a coordinated (optional) part of the course.
LITERARY TEXTS

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A
The principal virtue of this selection is that the poems are short and, therefore, easy to memorize, but they are not really representative of the best Russian poetry. The notes accompanying the text are inadequate.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4E
In many ways this story is an ideal choice to read after two or three years study of grammar. The vocabulary is simple, and, at the same time, divorced from a pedantic textbook flavor. Although concerned with the adventures of a mongrel dog, this is not a story exclusively for children.

1A, 2E, 3A, 4A
These stories, though not the best of Chekhov, are short and linguistically simple; consequently, they build up a student's confidence as he progresses in the language. They are also quite amusing, thus adding a touch of lightness to the student's reading.

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A
This series of short articles on daily life in the USSR and brief biographical sketches of Gorki, Pushkin, Chaikovsky, Lermontov, and Chekhov can be useful as a supplementary text for beginning Russian language courses. The questions at the end of each article can be used as spring boards to open up class discussion. On the whole, a useful but not particularly inspiring book.

1E, 2A, 3A, 4A
Tolstoy's sensitivity concerning the fears and joys of childhood are expressed in this moving story. Although there is not much in the way of action, the story will have an appeal to the young reader because of its subject. The text itself is clear, the vocabulary adequate. The text might be improved by adding explanatory notes. The introduction, though short, is quite good. Main defect is the small print.

A short story by Turgenev about a deaf serf and his dog. It is rather long for high school use. Main virtue is large print. Notes and end vocabulary.

Too advanced a text for most secondary school students. Since there are no supplementary notes or explanations of allusions, much of the meaning of the poems would be lost. Furthermore, the forceful impact of Yevtushenko's style would be dissipated if the student had to spend hours searching for definitions of words. It could be used as a literary text and a reader only if the teacher judiciously selected those poems which are clear in meaning and easy to read.

PERIODICALS

KOMETA. SCHOLASTIC. Illus. 9 issues a year. Approx. 8 pp. $1.00 a year. Special rates for quantity orders.

This periodical should keep the interest of the students. The material is varied, of interest, supplied with photographs and drawings. It could be used for outside work but also for conversation. The fact that there is a vocabulary readily available will stimulate the student to read. Vocabulary may be quite different from that in some standard secondary school texts, but content is extremely interesting and it increases in difficulty each month.

This Soviet cultural propagandistic publication has very limited pedagogical value. General interest only. One page of Russian text with translation.

This book can serve not only as a reference grammar, but also as a vocabulary-builder, word-finder, and phrase book. The text is divided into sections on nouns, verbs, adjectives, and other parts-of-speech. Attention is paid to morphology, syntax, and idiomatic constructions. All Russian and English words are indexed.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS

The exercises are poor, and the dialogue texts do not separate English from Russian versions acceptably, but it may serve as a useful supplement for self-study.

These cards would be good for reference and for individual study in more advanced secondary school work. The selection of verbs treated is good, the cards are numbered, and the information is readily accessible. The verb forms are listed in the traditional person-order. Stress is included. Clear print.

TEACHERS COURSE GUIDES

1A, 2A, 3A, 4A, 5A, 6E Useful for the experienced teacher. Many good suggestions concerning the use of audio-visual aids are given. The cultural outline is excellent. Too many grammatical items are included in the program. A core is presented, to serve as an example. It must be supplemented, expanded, and patterned by the teacher. Several errors in Russian were noted.

The Modern Language Association Foreign Language Program called together the Materials List Conference on Criteria for Evaluation on 28-29 October 1960 in New York City. Its chief purpose was to discuss and define criteria for the evaluation of materials to be included in the revised MATERIALS LIST. The Chairman of the Conference was Donald D. Walsh, Director of the Foreign Language Program; participants were the chairman of each of the evaluation committees and other specialists in the teaching of foreign languages or in the selection of materials. Eleven specialists were asked to write work papers proposing criteria for evaluating different types of materials. The work papers were discussed and revised at the Conference. In January 1961, the tentative criteria were sent to all participants for their comments. The following document includes the resulting changes.

The authors of the original work papers are Elvira Adorno, Nelson Brooks, Frederick D. Eddy, Manuel H. Guerra, Elizabeth Keesee, Robert G. Mead, Jr., Filomena C. Peloro, Karl-Heinz Planitz, Raymond S. Sayers, Marian Templeton, David Weinstein.

The original work papers must be rated in the first criterion, "concept of culture," two evaluators rated the book excellent and one rated it acceptable. All evaluators agreed that it was acceptable in regard to criterion 2. "Organization." The evaluators split again on criterion 3 and 4, "psychological appropriateness" and "language," but were in agreement on the last three, "up-to-date-ness," "appearance," and "exercises." The reader will also note that criterion 7 may be omitted if the book is written in English. In the case of a single title which includes different types of materials, "text" or "disc" or another appropriate key word will appear before each of the codes given.

1. DEVELOPMENT OF THE FOUR LANGUAGE SKILLS
E: Listening comprehension and speaking represent the major concern at the beginning and throughout the period covered by a basic text, followed by the teaching of reading and writing, which occupy no more than one third of the total teaching time.
A: The text recognizes the importance of introducing all four skills and generally observes the accepted relative emphases.
U: The text is not written in accordance with the principles above.

2. SCOPE
EA: (a) The text reflects one dominant objective, language competence, to which are eventually added two others, cultural insight and literary acquaintance. (b) It is designed to familiarize the student with high-frequency structural patterns in the three systems of sound, order, and form (phonology, syntax, and morphology).
U: (a) The emphasis on cultural insight or literary acquaintance is so great as to be detrimental to the development of language competence. (b) The text does not distinguish between structures and usages that are important because frequently used and those that only a full description of the language would include, their importance being relatively minor. It places a principal effort upon the learning of irregular and exceptional forms.

3. ORGANIZATION FOR SCHOOL SCHEDULES
EA: The material to be learned is organized to fit into the schedule of the usual class periods and school terms.
U: The material is not so organized.

4. PRESENTATION OF MATERIAL
EA: (a) The material of the first weeks or months of the course (depending on age level) is designed for a period of oral presentation by the teacher, with or without the help of recorded material. In this first stage, a student has little or no need to refer to the printed word. (b) The text presents new learnings in the FL in dialogue form or in the form of narrative or model sentences usable in conversation. (c) Structure is learned by use rather than by analysis. (d) Exercises enable the student to adapt new learnings to his own conversation without reference to English.
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Bibliographies & Resource Lists

U: (a) The text does not provide for an initial audio-lingual period or for the oral introduction of new material and the beginner is obliged to refer to the printed word in order to carry on his classwork. (b) The text is based on an inventory of parts of speech or it presents sentences in the FL that "translate" English sentences literally but are not authentic in the foreign culture. (c) It assumes that the analysis of structure must precede the learning and use of that structure. (d) No provision is made for the student’s gradual and guided progress from mimicry and memorization to free use of the FL in conversation.

5. PSYCHOLOGY OF LEARNING
EA: It presents language models and exercises that, in their selection and preparation, sequence, apparatus, and appearance on the printed page, reflect concern for the basic principles of the psychology of learning: (a) The text is based on the development of skills (habit formation) rather than the solving of problems. (b) It provides models to be imitated for both spoken and written language. (c) It observes the principle of small increments in which problems are isolated and drilled one at a time, making the chance of error negligible, before two or more related but contrasting structures are drilled in a single exercise. (d) It provides for repetition and reintroduction of material previously learned. (Repitition is the mainstay in overlearning and habit formation.)

U: The text shows little or no awareness of these basic principles of the psychology of learning.

6. EXERCISES
E: (a) There are copious and varied drills dealing with language elements that have occurred in the utterances presented in dialogue, narrative, or sentence form. (b) It includes no exercises in which the FL is to be translated into English.
A: It contains much drill material as in (a) above and no exercises as in (b).
U: (a) There is a paucity of drill material, (b) The exercises include translation from English into the FL of sentences not previously learned by the student.

7. READING MATERIAL (if present)
EA: Any reading materials foster the cultural or literary objectives or both, (a) Cultural information should be factual, authentic, representative, important, and of interest to the learner. (b) Other reading selections should be chosen for their quality as examples of literature, for the appropriateness of their length, their interest to the learner, and their adaptability to his competence in the new language.
U: The reading material given has no cultural or literary merit, or it is faulty in information or in language, or it is inappropriate to the learner because of its length, content, or linguistic difficulty.

8. WORD STUDY
E: The text promotes the learning of vocabulary by observation and use of words in context and not in lexical lists. (The learning of vocabulary is minimized while the learning of structure is maximized during the period in which a basic text is appropriate.)
A: Only a few vocabulary items are added which are not necessary to the drilling of structures.
U: Many unnecessary vocabulary words must be memorized, to the detriment of the learning of structures.

9. STRUCTURE ANALYSIS
EA: (a) The explanations are in English, (b) In the latter part of the text, the structures that have been gradually learned are drawn together in a clear and systematic way for ready reference.
U: (a) The text attempts to explain structures in the FL. (b) It presents structure summaries before examples have been learned through use.

10. LESSON- AND END-VOCABULARY
EA: Appropriate lists of the foreign phrases, idioms, and words, with or without English equivalents, appear at the ends of sections, or in a complete list at the end of the book, or both.
U: The lexical aids offered are inadequate or the glossary is inserted in the running text or in other ways that hinder learning.

11. USE OF ENGLISH
EA: English is used for directions, comments, explanations, and for establishing the meaning of what is to be learned. It is occasionally used as an aid in distinguishing between forms in the FL that are otherwise not easily learned.
U: The text presents the learnings in the FL as a series of translations from English, rather than as selections from a language code that is entirely independent of English. It presents dubious and faulty English designed to "lead" the learner into the patterns of the FL.

12. INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TEACHER
E: There is a separate manual containing instructions for the teacher concerning: (a) preparatory explanation and ground rules for the class, (b) presentation of the material to the class, (c) techniques for overlearning the basic material (dialogue or narrative) (d) techniques for drilling sound patterns, structure, and vocabulary (e) techniques for checking in class the outside work (f) techniques and suggested plans providing for the frequent re-entry into class work of previously learned items (g) techniques of audio-lingual review and testing (h) instructions for procedure with a particular unit whenever the material demands it.
A: No compromise is acceptable for (a), (b), (c), or (d).
U: The instructions for the teacher do not meet the standard for A or are not applicable as given.

13. LAYOUT
EA: (a) The type size and arrangement reflect the relationships between language models, drills, and explanations and their relative importance to the learner. (b) Dialogues, narratives, and reading material in the FL can be read without English being visible.
U: (a) The layout does not reflect these relationships or it is confusing to the learner. (b) It is printed so as to encourage constant reference to English.

*Based on a work paper by Elizabeth Keesee, Specialist in FLs, USOE, Washington 25, D.C.
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Books, Pamphlets, & Bulletins on Methodology

BOOKS OF CULTURE & CIVILIZATION

They range from little anthologies of belles-lettres (tr enthusiast, to a series of more comprehensive and superficially stated, to a book written expressly for the purpose by an outstanding interpreter, native to the culture he is describing. These texts have also been designed for various levels of instruction. It seems advisable to have books on culture in English for home assignments during the first two years of language instruction (except in the primary grades) and then, beginning with Level III, to have books on culture and civilization written in the FL for use both in and out of class. The teacher should have reference books giving a more comprehensive and deeper analysis of the foreign culture.

The chief defect found in these books has been the failure to work from a sufficiently wide concept of a national culture; some cultural elements have been exaggerated, others underplayed, and still others omitted entirely.

Culture and civilization texts, to put it simply, should reflect and communicate the whole cultural environment of the linguistic area or country concerned. This means that these books ideally should include the approach of the cultural anthropologist to the country in question: physical characteristics of the people, their family customs, social organization, government, religion, organization of work and division of labor, the role of the sexes and the division of power, in addition to the more traditional elements of political, intellectual, and literary history. The author of such a book must be competent in many fields of knowledge other than language, and such people are not numerous in teaching or any other area. But once the attention of the profession has been focused upon the great need for texts of this sort, and their characteristics established in a general way, we may confidently expect that some of our colleagues will attempt to meet the challenge presented by the composition of such books.

1. CONCEPT OF CULTURE

E: Comprehensive coverage of the important aspects of culture: psychology, behavior, family relationships, work, social customs, education, recreation, economy, intellectual history, government, showing both similarities and differences in relation to the culture of the United States. For the teacher, the book should be comprehensive or, if it treats a limited subject, exhaustive. For younger children, the aspects may be limited to the concerns of foreign children of the same age.

A: It covers only some of the aspects of the foreign culture, but these are treated fully with both differences and similarities.

U: The foreign culture is presented as strange, exotic, or quaint, or as a replica of the culture of the U.S.; or the book gives a distorted view of the culture.

2. ORGANIZATION

E: The chapters or sections are logically related; there is a balance of fact and interpretation, and proper balance in the treatment of the various aspects of culture chosen.

A: There are occasional faults in balance or organization, but in general the purpose of sections is clear and the cultural view is not distorted.

U: The organization is confused or the sections are not related, there is a notable lack of either fact or interpretation, or a poor choice of the aspects of culture is presented.

3. PSYCHOLOGICAL APPROPRIATENESS

E: The method of presentation (narrative, essay, etc.) and the concepts presented are appropriate to the intended readers. The aspects of the culture presented should correspond to the concerns of persons in the foreign culture of the same age as the intended readers.

A: One or two topics are somewhat inappropriate.

U: The method or concepts are generally inappropriate.

4. LANGUAGE (English or foreign)

EA: The language is appropriate to the intended readers both in choice of words and complexity of sentence structure.

U: The words are too simple; the tone is inappropriate; or the book, if in the FL, is so difficult that the students will translate instead of reading.

5. UP-TO-DATENESS (if treating contemporary life)

EA: The factual material, maps, charts, and photographs are a good indication of the present state of the foreign culture. (It has been suggested that books in this class should be published as looseleaf books so that new chapters or revisions can be added.)

U: The material concerning contemporary life is now out of date.

6. APPEARANCE

E: The illustrations are attractive, clear, and chosen to exemplify significant points in the text. In general, the book is attractive and sturdy.

A: The illustrations are to the point, if not especially artistic.

U: The illustrations are irrelevant or confusing.

7. EXERCISES (for books in the FL for students)

E: The book has text and exercises which are good for practising reading and perhaps other language skills (listening, speaking, writing) at the intended proficiency level.

A: The teacher can create or adapt the exercises.

U: The book has translation or free composition exercises.

BOOKS OF SONGS

1. FEATURES

E: A description of the background for each song, the complete lyrics in the FL, and a musical score in a singable key, including syllabication, tempo, and a good arrangement for piano accompaniment.

A: All the above except that the background material is general for all of the songs and the music is reduced to the melody only.

U: The keys are not singable or the lyrics are given only in English, or there is no background material.

2. CHOICE OF SONGS

E: They belong to the foreign culture, are given in an authentic version, and are appropriate to the intended age group.

A: Almost all are authentic, their origin is indicated, and they are appropriate to the age group.

U: A considerable proportion are not authentic or are not appropriate to the age level.

BOOKS, PAMPHLETS & BULLETINS ON METHODOLOGY

1. SCOPE

E: Discusses thoroughly all important aspects of the subject.

A: Most of the important aspects are discussed well.

U: Omits many significant aspects.

2. CONTENT

EA: The discussions of techniques and practices reflect a thorough knowledge of the accepted principles of language learning.4

4 Based on a work paper by Manuel H. Guerra, Alameda SC, Hayward, Calif.

5 Based on a work paper by Elizabeth Keesee, Specialist in FLs, USOE, Washington 25, D.C.

6 These principles include, in brief: 1) An initial and continuing stress on the spoken language, with the four skills developed in this sequence: listening, speaking, reading, writing. 2) A minimum of talking about the language. 3) Language learning viewed as the development of skills and not as the solution of problems. 4) Reading divorced from translation. 5) Culture treated in its broadest sense.
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Conversation Books

U: The discussions reflect a faulty concept of the principles of language learning.

3. CLARITY OF STYLE
EA: The concepts are clearly and adequately expressed.
U: They are presented in an obscure or difficult manner.

4. FACILITY OF REFERENCE
E: The format and indexes permit the teacher to find references quickly.
A: There is no index, but the format permits the teacher to locate references.
U: There is no index, and the format does not permit the teacher to find references easily.

CONVERSATION BOOKS

Conversation requires a speaker, a hearer, and a situation. The immanent presence of all three should be felt in any sentence or dialogue or conversation that presumes to give models for learning. Many so-called conversation manuals do not respect that true nature of conversation (very little of which, for example, is in terms of question-and-answer), and evaluation should be very critical in this regard.

1. SCOPE
EA: There is a representative sampling of high-frequency structures and typical, important situations that students might often encounter.
U: The sampling of structures or situations does not relate to their usefulness and frequency.

2. SEPARATION OF THE TWO LANGUAGES
E: English equivalents are printed so that the FL can be read without English being visible. Examples: They are printed on the reverse side of the pages, or in a separate part of the book.
A: The two languages are arranged so that the English can be covered up easily and completely.
U: The two languages are intermingled.

3. TRANSLATIONS (if present)
E: Any translations are in good, idiomatic English which contains no hint of the foreign constructions it is translating.
A: Any translations are in good, idiomatic English.
U: Unused or nonsensical English is used in translating foreign constructions.

4. SITUATIONS
E: The situations are culturally authentic and have a likelihood of reality: the geographical setting, the individual personalities, the relationships between individuals, the problem being discussed, and the emotional attitudes are all normal to the culture and are clearly established.
A: The situations are culturally authentic and seem real; the definitions have all the above qualities, including illustrative phrases, but dominant meanings are not indicated.
U: The situations are misleadingly incomplete, unclear, inaccurate or sometimes circular; or phrases needed to illustrate the definition are missing.

5. UTTERANCES
EA: The separate utterances are: (a) brief enough to be learnable, (b) largely in the form of statement and rejoinder rather than question and answer, (c) what a native speaker would be likely to say in the situation.
U: They are too long to be learned as dialogue or unnatural to native speakers.

6. WORD STUDY
EA: Vocabulary learning is integrated with the structures and conversations and is not emphasized for its own sake.
U: It is emphasized at the expense of the learning of structures and conversations.

7. LESSON- AND END-VOCABULARY
E: Appropriate lists of the foreign phrases, idioms, and words, with English equivalents, appear at the ends of sections and complete lists at the end of the book.
A: Such lists appear only at the ends of sections or at the end of the book.
U: There are no lexical aids, or those offered are incomplete, or the glossary is inserted in the text or margins.

8. SOUND SYSTEM
E: A consistent graphical representation of pronunciation and intonation patterns is given wherever new problems occur throughout the book.
A: The book contains some useful comments on the sound system, especially on intonation patterns.
U: There are no comments on the foreign sound system or misleading comparisons with English sounds are given.

DICTIONARIES

1. PREFACE AND EXPLANATIONS FOR USE
EA: The preface states for what use the dictionary was written and whether British or American English is used, describes the scope, and explains the arrangement of the entries and each part of individual entries: all with accuracy and clarity.
U: The preface omits essential information or is generally not clear.

2. SELECTION OF WORDS
EA: The words are very carefully selected for frequency, usefulness, currency, and complete coverage of student need.
A: A number of rare or obsolete or too special words are included or the useful words are not adequately defined.

3. DEFINITIONS
E: The definitions are accurate, clear, concise, and never circular; the dominant meanings are indicated; synonyms are distinguished.
A: The definitions have all the above qualities, including illustrative phrases, but dominant meanings are not indicated.
U: The definitions are misleadingly incomplete, unclear, inaccurate or sometimes circular; or phrases needed to illustrate the definition are missing.

4. ILLUSTRATIVE PHRASES (except in young children's dictionaries)
EA: Illustrative phrases are given to show how a word is used in context and are well-chosen to show special extensions and limitations in the use of a word.
U: There are no illustrative phrases.

5. PICTURES (if used)
EA: They are small and clear, and they aid understanding of the entries. (Those in picture dictionaries for children may be larger and colored.)
U: They are not clear or they clutter the page so that it is difficult to find entries.

6. ETYMOLOGY (for advanced dictionaries)
EA: Etymologies are clearly indicated and consistent with the above qualities, including illustrative phrases, but dominant meanings are not indicated.
U: There are no etymologies or many of those given are no longer accepted.

7. SYLLABIFICATION, STRESS, AND PRONUNCIATION
E: The orthographic division of syllables is marked as well as

*Based on a work paper by David Weinstein of Hebrew Teachers College (Brookline, Mass.) and the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

*Circularity in definitions is produced by using only words from the same family or synonyms to define each member of the group so that the reader who does not know any of the terms can never discover the meaning of any of them. E.g., Circle: that which is circular; Circular: having the quality of a circle.
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Discs & Tapes

1. CONTENT APPROPRIATE TO GRADE LEVEL

EA: The content (subject and its treatment) is appropriate to the abilities and interests of the age group to which the item has been assigned by the evaluator on the basis of the language in the recording.

U: The content is appropriate for a decidedly different age group from the one for which the language is appropriate.

2. LANGUAGE FOR LISTENING OR FOR Imitation

Note: In the presentation of language for learning, we distinguish between language for listening and language for imitation.

Recorded language "for listening" helps a non-native to develop the ability to understand easily when addressed by a native speaker of the language. Recorded language for imitation, on the other hand, while it may help to develop listening skills, has a quite different main purpose: it serves as a model for the imitation of pronunciation.

U: The type does not distinguish the various parts of the entries or it is in general difficult to read.

9. PAPER AND BINDING

E: The dictionary is not heavy for its size, the print does not show through, and the paper and binding withstand heavy use.

A: The print does not show through and the book is durbale.

U: The paper is too thin or the paper and binding are delicate.

DISCS & TAPES11

1. BASIC CRITERIA FOR ALL RECORDINGS (except Songs)

1. CONTENT APPROPRIATE TO GRADE LEVEL

EA: The content (subject and its treatment) is appropriate to the abilities and interests of the age group to which the item has been assigned by the evaluator on the basis of the language in the recording.

U: The content is appropriate for a decidedly different age group from the one for which the language is appropriate.

2. LANGUAGE FOR LISTENING OR FOR Imitation

Note: In the presentation of language for learning, we distinguish between language for listening and language for imitation.

Recorded language "for listening" helps a non-native to develop the ability to understand easily when addressed by a native speaker of the language. Recorded language for imitation, on the other hand, while it may help to develop listening skills, has a quite different main purpose: it serves as a model for the student to concentrate on other elements of pronunciation.

U: The material does not meet the A standards.

4. VOICES

E: (a) All voices are crystal clear, giving the impression of a face-to-face encounter when played on a good machine at normal volume. (b) They are leveled: none having greater or less volume than the others. (c) They are phonogenic: pleasing and natural, showing no haste, irritation, fatigue, boredom, forced gaiety, or forced friendliness, nor too obvious an intent to teach. Female voices are not disagreeably shrill. (d) They are appropriate to the situation and characters portrayed. (e) They are varied: of both sexes, and differing in timbre if of the same sex. However, a single voice, of excellent quality andcontriving to remain attractive and interesting at all times, is not acceptable.

A: No compromise is acceptable for (a) or (b). In (c)-(e) some deviation from the excellent standard is acceptable.

U: The material does not meet the A standards.

5. AUDIO CHARACTERISTICS: DISCS

Note: If the recorded materials are to be used primarily in a language laboratory or other installation using headphones, good quality headphones should be used to evaluate audio characteristics. Materials acceptable when heard over a loudspeaker may not be acceptable when headphones are used.

E: (a) Studio noises (clicks, coughs, lip noises, etc.) are completely eliminated. However, this does not apply to occasional unobtrusive realistic background noises or effects in recordings made for listening only. (b) When the material is played on a good machine such as an Ampex tape playback, the unvoiced consonant sounds, in particular th, s, s/, are clearly distinguishable one from another. (c) Disc surface noise or tape hiss is barely audible when the material is played on a good machine at normal volume. (d) Dead silence (spliced-in dead or virgin tape) is not substituted for room noise in silent spaces. (Dead silence is acceptable as a marker between sections of the material.) (e) Groove echo or print-thru is absent or at worst very faint when the volume is turned up in silent spaces. (f) No variation in recorded volume is present on the disc or tape so that it is not necessary to adjust the volume on the playback periodically.

A: No compromise is acceptable for (a) or (b). In (c)-(f) some slight deviation is acceptable.

U: The material does not meet the A standards.

6a. PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: DISCS

E: (a) The surface is free of broken grooves, pinholes, cracks, and other imperfections. (b) The maximum length of recorded time (to assure maximum durability and minimum groove echo) on discs of various diameters is as follows: 33 1/3 rpm, 7 in. min., 10 in. 15 min.; 45 rpm, 7 in. 5 min. (c) For use by the teacher or at the lab console, no maximum diameter is set. For student use, the diameter is small (7 or 10 in.). The smaller discs are easier to handle and cost less to replace if damaged or broken. (d) The label has large clear type for side and band identification as well as for the title. (e) The space between bands is wide enough (about 1/16 inch) to facilitate finding the band desired and placing the needle on it. (f) The center is raised to protect the playing surfaces of the discs when stacked. (g) The disc is flexible, indicating resistance to breakage.

A: Neutral intonation: a relatively flat intonation contour: no marked rising or falling of the tone.

B: (a) The language for listening is linguistically and culturally authentic. (b) There is no recorded English equivalent or translation, except in an occasional drill where cues are given in English. (e) The pace, accent, intonation, and junctures of the full utterances are preserved in the partial utterances.

A: No compromise is acceptable for (a)-(d) but in (e) it is also acceptable that the partials have a consistently neutral intonation allowing the student to concentrate on other elements of pronunciation.

U: The material does not meet the A standards.

*Based on a work paper by Frederick D. Eddy of Georgetown Univ. and Filomena C. Peloro of the Hackensack (N.J.) Public Schools.

*Standard: the normal, unaffected speech of cultivated, educated natives that shows no conspicuous regional or class characteristics.

55
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Discs & Tapes

A: No compromise is acceptable for (a) or (b). In (c)-(g) some deviation is acceptable.
U: The material does not meet the A standards.

6b. PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: TAPES
E: (a) Tapes played at the slower speeds (3⅓ or 1⅓ ips.) generally do not equal the audio performance of tapes played at 7½ ips. A slower-speed tape should be listened to very carefully or tested electronically to determine whether it equals or very nearly equals the audio performance of a tape played at 7½ ips. on the same machine. (b) Tape reels are not completely filled. At least ½ in. is left between the tape and the outside edge of the reel. (Full reels often cause threading difficulties.) (c) The tape is flexible enough not to crack when bent double and the magnetic coating is uniform (no bare or thin spots). (d) The recording is full-track. (e) A small reel (5 in.) is best for language study to facilitate locating the material desired, particularly for individual student use. (f) Printed and spoken identification is simple, clear, and complete. Essentials are: title of the material, including the name of the language (Beginning French), and reel number if there is more than one reel. All of this appear: on the box, on a light-colored tape leader, and on the reel. It is spoken in English at the beginning of each tape. The end of each tape is signaled by an appropriate announcement. Sections of the tape are identified by an appropriate announcement, or by leader tape or a silent space of several seconds duration.
A: No compromise is acceptable for (a)-(c). In (d) a two-track recording is acceptable; in (e) a 7-in. reel is acceptable; in (f) a detail or two can be missing.
U: The material does not meet the A standards.

7. RECORDED INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS
E: Before the students work with recorded material in the school or at home, the teacher should present the material and conduct a practice session. Therefore: (a) All recorded instructions are as brief as possible, ideally single-word commands. (b) The principle of small increment (see 14, b, ii, below) is carefully observed. A: There is occasional compromise with these principles. U: The material shows little or no consideration for these principles.

8. PRINTED TEXT TO ACCOMPANY MATERIAL
E: (a) For the teacher, there is at least one complete text of the recorded material. (b) At appropriate points in the teacher’s and student’s text—preferably in the margin—the corresponding recorded material is identified: reel number and section or disc side and band.
A: No compromise is acceptable for (a).
U: The instructions are long or complicated. They interlard English and the FL.

8. PRINTED TEXT TO ACCOMPANY MATERIAL
E: (a) For the teacher, there is at least one complete text of the recorded material. (b) At appropriate points in the teacher’s and student’s text—preferably in the margin—the corresponding recorded material is identified: reel number and section or disc side and band.
A: No compromise is acceptable for (a).
U: The material does not meet the A standards.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA: RECORDINGS FOR SPECIAL PURPOSES

CULTURAL (Level III-)
Items that take an important step beyond language study by giving the student an authentic experience in depth with the foreign culture. Some are accompanied by flipstrips or slides; some are on the sound track of carefully chosen and edited moving pictures. If such experiences are to be authentic, they require a certain audio-lingual competence; up through Level II the student’s cultural experiences have been an integral part of his language study. Although the basic language skill involved is listening, the materials may have short exercises in speaking practice, and may be accompanied by printed scripts for student reading practice. Examples: a recorded dialogue or narrative about school life in the foreign country; a newsreel with a special prepared foreign language sound track, with or without corresponding tapes or disc.

Note: For 1-8 see Basic Criteria.

9. CONTENT
EA: Usually designed or edited for use above Level II, the material (through dialogue or narrative, or both) gives the student the opportunity to participate in an authentic, interesting, and important manifestation of the language and culture as a supplement to the regular course work.
U: The material does not meet these standards.

DISCS & TAPES: LANGUAGE
Note: For 1-8 see Basic Criteria.

9. LISTENING AND SPEAKING PRACTICE (for material comprising a full course)
EA: The material provides listening and speaking practice, both of the quality described in Basic Criteria 2 and 3.
U: Such material provides only listening practice, or only speaking practice, or a poor balance between the two.

10. DELAYED REFERENCE TO THE WRITTEN LANGUAGE (in beginning courses)
E: To use the recorded material the beginner is never asked to refer to the printed word.
A: He is required only occasionally to refer to the printed word.
U: He is obliged to refer constantly to the printed word.

11. PRONUNCIATION DRILLS (if present)
EA: They concentrate on: (a) sounds especially difficult for native speakers of English and (b) contrasts within the foreign language which have no counterpart in English: du and doux, Wahn and warm, mesas and meses. (c) Individual sounds are drilled in isolation less than they are drilled in context.
U: The material does not meet these standards.

12. DRILL MATERIAL
E: (a) It contributes to an early oral mastery of structures of high frequency, concentrating on those which create special difficulties for speakers of English, followed by those of lower frequency, and uses oral pattern practice and analogy. (b) The principle of small increment (see 14, b, ii, below) is carefully observed. A: There is occasional compromise with these principles. U: The material shows little or no consideration for these principles.

13. VOCABULARY (for Level I)
E: Especially in the early weeks or months of the course, vocabulary, like everything else, is kept under careful control. The number of words is just sufficient to permit cumulative substitution in previously learned patterns. The choice of vocabulary depends on the situations presented in the basic material and on the structures drilled. There are no recorded lists of words.
A: Some words are introduced that are not necessary to the situation and structure presented.
U: Many unnecessary words are introduced. There are recorded lists of words.

14. FORMAT
E: (a) The sequence in the presentation of basic material to be overlearned is (i) for listening (no spaces); (ii) for learning (by partials and full utterances, with spaces); (iii) for fluency (by full utterances, with spaces). (b) Small increment (Basic material (such as a line of dialogue) is presented both as a whole and by partials so that the student can master it by easy stages and yet make progress. (c) Drills eliciting student response require the student to make only one new structural change at a time; manipulation of two or more structural changes in the same response is always preceded by drills which provide mastery of each change separately. (d) Average length of the selections to be overlearned (dialogue or narrative) is 12 utterances or sentences for grades 7-9 and 16 for grades 10-12. The selection is broken into quarters, thirds, or halves (3 to 8 utterances in each segment) for effective presentation and practice. (e) Average length of full utterance or sentence in basic material to be overlearned: 8 syllables (1st 8 weeks), 10 syllables (2nd 8 weeks), 12 syllables thereafter. (f) Length of a partial utterance or sentence in basic material to be over-learned is about 5 syllables when new material is be-
APPENDIX 1: Criteria: Elementary Readers

In the absence of recorded songs, and many of them are very good for listening. But only a very small fraction of this material is suitable for learning purposes. We must have more songs recorded and presented for student participation and learning.

1. PRINTED INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE TEACHER
2. VOICES
3. AUDIO CHARACTERISTICS
4a. PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: DISCS
4b. PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS: TAPES
5. PRINTED TEXT TO ACCOMPANY MATERIAL
6. CONTENT

E: (a) The materials consist of recordings of the best in literature: plays, poems, short stories, and other prose. (b) In their content and presentation they make the most of dramatic and emotional appeal. (c) They are produced by the finest native talent available (example: a play by Molière recorded by the Comédie Française). A: The material satisfies two of the three criteria. U: The material does not meet the A standards.

DISCS & TAPES: SONGS

There is no lack of recorded songs, and many of them are very good for listening. But only a very small fraction of this material is suitable for learning purposes. We must have more songs recorded and presented for student participation and learning.

The audio and physical characteristics should not disqualify a recording otherwise meeting all of the criteria below, but any serious failings in these two areas should be noted in the evaluation for the guidance of prospective purchasers.

1. SONGS FOR IMITATION

E: (a) Words and music correspond to the interests and abilities of the students: for Grade 5, no love songs; in Grade 11, no nursery rhymes. (b) Words, music, and interpretation are authentic, existing in the foreign culture. (c) Songs are recorded by artists having a native or near-native pronunciation. (d) The recording provides a voice singing in a key within the student’s singing range. (e) It also provides an instrumental accompaniment for student singing in the same key as the one the recorded singer uses.

A: The material satisfies all but (e).

U: The material fails to satisfy criterion (e) and one other.

2. SONGS FOR LISTENING

EA: See the first three criteria under 1 above.

U: The material does not meet these standards.

3. RECORDED INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS (Songs for Imitation and Listening)

E: Before the students practice with the recorded material, the teacher should present the song and conduct a practice session. Therefore, all recorded instructions are as brief as possible, ideally a single-word command, given in the foreign language without translation.

A: Brief explanations of procedure, given in English, are acceptable.

U: The recorded instructions are unnecessarily long or they interlard English and the foreign language.

4. SMALL INCREMENT (Songs for Imitation)

EA: The material presents a line to be practiced both as a whole and by partials so that the student can master it by small increments and yet keep moving constantly ahead in a satisfactory way.

U: The material does not meet this standard.

5. LENGTH OF SILENT SPACES FOR REPETITION (Songs for Imitation)

E: A repeat space must be long enough to allow one to make the utterance or sing the phrase at the same speed as the model voice, plus about 1 second.

A: A deviation of up to 25%, from the figure given is acceptable.

U: The material does not meet the A standard.

6. PRINTED TEXT TO ACCOMPANY MATERIAL (for both Imitation and Listening)

E: (a) For the teacher, there is at least one complete text of the recorded musical setting for the recorded material and musical notation at least of the melody. (b) At appropriate points in the teacher’s and student’s texts (preferably in the margin) the corresponding recorded material is identified: reel number and section on disc side and band.

A: No compromise is acceptable for (a).

U: The material does not meet the A standard.

U: It is psychologically inappropriate, or it is dull.

2. LANGUAGE

U: The words and sentence structures are in general too difficult or too simple for the intended readers, or the language is artificial.

3. NOTES AND END-VOCABULARY
EA: (a) Notes give the student the needed linguistic help and literary and cultural references. (b) There is a complete end-vocabulary of the foreign phrases, idioms, and words used in the book.
U: There are no notes or lexical aids, or those offered are incomplete, or notes or glossary in English are inserted in the text or margins (thus interlarding the two languages).

4. EXERCISES
E: The exercises derive from the text in a planned sequence of difficulty. They give the student some practice in speaking and writing but keep the main stress on reading comprehension.
A: The exercises are varied but unselected, some good, some bad.
U: The exercises have little to do with the reading text and take no account of the degree of linguistic competence of the student.

5. APPEARANCE
EA: (a) The text is easily legible. (b) The illustrations are attractive and relevant.
U: (a) The text is poorly printed. (b) The illustrations are unattractive or inappropriate.

A: There is a teacher's guide containing a summary of the film, a vocabulary list, and suggestions for pre- and post-showing class activity in line with recommended teaching methods.
U: There is no script or summary, or the teacher's guide offered is inadequate, or it suggests activities which are not recommended.

FILMS*: DRAMATIC & DOCUMENTARY

Only films with an FL sound track will be evaluated.

1. LANGUAGE OF THE DIALOGUE
E: The dialogue was originally recorded in the FL and is appropriate in tone to its intended audience.
A: It has been dubbed in the FL but is appropriate in tone and correlated to the gestures.
U: It is in English or the FL dialogue is decidedly inappropriate.

2. VOCABULARY
E: The vocabulary is in general use, not regional or too technical, and is within the viewers' vocabulary. (Special vocabulary is allowed in a film for advanced students, Level IV-VI)
A: It is in general use and only a few items need to be explained before the film is shown.
U: It requires much prior explanation.

3. ACCENT AND PACE
E: The pace is normal for a native film and the pronunciation is standard, showing no regional peculiarities. (Regional language may be allowed and even useful for Levels IV-VI)
A: Only a very few regionalisms appear and the pace is only slightly slower than normal.
U: The speech is definitely regional (except for Levels IV-VI), it is unnatural, or it is comprehensible only with great difficulty.

U: The voices are not clear, or there is extraneous noise that interferes with listening, or the volume is uneven.

6. CONTENT
EA: It stimulates thought at a level which the students can discuss in the FL and it gives them an insight into part of the foreign culture.
U: It stimulates little thought or thought of such complexity that the viewers can discuss it very little in the FL, or it gives a distorted view of the foreign culture.

7. SCOPE
EA: The film is an impressive, rounded, meaningful treatment of a well-chosen subject.
U: The scope is too great to be treated or too narrow to be significant or the purpose of the film is hazy.

LINGUISTICS16

1. ORIENTATION
EA: The book presents the new concepts of language that scientific analysis has elaborated.
U: It presents concepts now incomplete or obsolete, or the underlying linguistic principles are not made clear.

2. SCOPE
E: (a) The book presents a general linguistic analysis and also shows the application of principles to one or more given languages. (b) It concerns itself with writing as well as speech. (c) It deals primarily with contemporary language, touching on historical analysis only enough to put the contemporary in proper perspective.
A: It is concerned only with general linguistic analysis, or only with speech. It may deal at some length with historical analysis, provided that the presentation of the contemporary is not slighted or confused.
U: It does not meet the A standards.

3. RELEVANCE TO LANGUAGE TEACHING
E: The book was written specifically for the FL teacher to aid in solving the problems of language teaching and learning.
A: It was not written specifically for the FL teacher but it has distinct relevance to language teaching.
U: The book is too technical, or it has little relevance to language teaching.

4. CLARITY
EA: The text is organized and worded so as to make the new concepts it proposes readily available to the user who is not a specialist in linguistics.
U: The wording is so recondite that most FL teachers would find the book difficult to understand, or the presentation is too diffuse to make the underlying principles clear to the average FL teacher.

LITERARY TEXTS17

Literary texts are evaluated only if they have been produced for student use in the United States or abroad. Teachers may, of course, use other texts appropriate to the student's age and proficiency, but it is not feasible to evaluate such books here.

1. LITERARY OR CULTURAL QUALITY
E: It is an outstanding work of literature.
A: It is worth reading as literature or for its insights into the foreign culture.
U: It has neither literary nor cultural merit.

2. EDITORIAL TREATMENT
E: Its introduction, addressed to the student, tells him what he needs to know to appreciate the text. The text is intact, or the abbreviation and simplification are of minor degree, and the reader is told to what extent the text has been changed.
A: The introduction, addressed to the reader and to the teacher, gives more information than the former can digest. There is no clear indication of the degree of textual revision, but changes are minor.
U: The text is drastically abridged or simplified.

3. NOTES AND END-VOCABULARY
EA: The notes and the end-vocabulary are mainly in the FL and entries in both parts give the student the needed linguistic help and literary and cultural references.
U: There are footnotes or sidenotes that constantly juxtapose English and the FL, or the entries do not answer the students' needs.

4. APPEARANCE
EA: (a) The text is easily legible. (b) The illustrations are attractive and relevant.
U: (a) The text is poorly printed. (b) The aesthetic quality of the illustrations falls far below that of the text.

MAPS18

1. VISUAL QUALITY
E: The maps are in color and, if wall maps, they are large enough so that areas can be seen from the students' positions.
A: The maps are clear and as large as above, but are not in color.
U: The areas of wall maps are too small or too indistinct to be seen from the students' positions.

2. LABELS
EA: Labels are in the FL and easily legible.
U: Labels are in English or illegible.

3. UP-TO-DATENESS (for political maps)
EA: Current boundaries and political status are shown.
U: Boundaries and political status shown changed more than a year ago.

4. DURABILITY
EA: The paper and ink will withstand school use for five or more years.
U: The paper or ink will not meet this standard.

PERIODICALS: FOR THE TEACHER19

1. QUALITY OF ARTICLES
E: They are eminently worth reading for content.
A: Most of them are important and interesting.
U: They are trivial or vulgar.

2. QUALITY OF LANGUAGE
EA: The style has literary merit, is intelligent, and is current.
U: The style in many articles is faulty or the FL has been corrupted by English.

3. APPEARANCE
E: It is well-printed with clear type on good quality paper; illustrations are artistic and interesting.
A: The print is easily legible; illustrations are attractive and relevant.
U: It is badly printed and poorly laid out.

APPENDIX 1: Periodicals: For the Student

4. DISTRIBUTION OF TOPICS
E: The countries or languages covered are represented in proper proportion and there is a good range of points of view.
A: No areas supposedly covered are greatly neglected and there is some range of points of view.
U: The periodical has a single strong political or aesthetic bias.

5. PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION (For a pedagogical periodical)
EA: Some of the articles discuss new developments in the field; there is reliable reporting of professional meetings and events; there are good reviews of all important new textbooks and teaching aids; and advertising promotes items truly useful to teachers.
U: Professional news and developments are reported meagerly or uninterestingly; reviews are sporadic or unreliable.

PERIODICALS: FOR THE STUDENT

FL editions of American magazines are excluded because they generally reflect only American cultural attitudes.

1. HUMAN INTEREST
E: The articles appeal to the students' interest without becoming sentimental or sensational.
A: Most of the articles are appealing.
U: The articles generally have little human interest or they are sensational.

2. CULTURAL CONTENT
E: The articles present the foreign culture faithfully to adolescents and help to give them good insight into the culture.
A: They generally present a true picture of the foreign culture with some breadth and interest.
U: The cultural content is mainly American or is otherwise unfaithful to the foreign culture or unsuitable to adolescents.

3. INTELLECTUAL CONTENT
E: The ideas presented are stimulating even to the brighter students and they relate to other fields of study.
A: With rare exceptions, the intellectual level is appropriate to the age level.
U: The ideas expressed are either childish and trivial or too difficult for the intended age level.

4. EXERCISES (if present)
EA: (a) The exercises are in the FL only. (b) They derive from the content of the periodical and emphasize important points. (c) They are appropriate to the language proficiency of the students.
U: (a) The exercises contain sentences with the two languages intermingled. (b) They are not related to the articles, or they pick out unimportant details. (c) They do not correspond to the language proficiency of the students.

5. APPEARANCE
E: The type and paper make reading easy and there are interesting, appropriate, and artistic illustrations. (Illustrations are desirable at least until the students are mature and proficient enough to begin to read periodicals for adults.)
A: The type is legible and there are significant illustrations.
U: The print is difficult to read and the illustrations are unappealing or insignificant; or there are no illustrations.

PICTURES & WALL CHARTS
Sets of pictures or wall charts will be evaluated only if they accompany language programs.

REFERENCE GRAMMARS
They should treat the whole spectrum of language usage "from sound to sentence." There should be a complete description of the grammar of the sound system, without reference to the written language. In addition, there should be sections on morphology and syntax that deal with the written language. Such grammars should be predicated upon the traditional approach of philology and the newer point of view of descriptive linguistics. Any type of reference grammar should be evaluated in regard to the following aspects:

1. ORGANIZATION OF THE MATERIAL
2. DEPENDABILITY AND CLARITY OF THE STATEMENTS MADE
3. AUTHENTIC ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES
4. INDEX
5. LAYOUT

REVIEW GRAMMARS
A review grammar should be a systematic summary of structures already familiar, with a deeper penetration into known areas, resulting in a comprehensive survey of all structures frequently used. All the classes and patterns of language, from simple sound clusters through words, phrases, and utterances to complete sentences, should be systematically discussed. Rules should be given that summarize typical patterns of form and function and should be phrased for easy retention by the student.

1. ORIENTATION
EA: The grammar clearly states what knowledge is assumed on the part of the learner and indicates the direction in which this is to be augmented.
U: The grammar is a basic text in disguise for it does not distinguish between treatment of what is assumed to be known and what is to be learned.

2. SCOPE
E: (a) The book reviews the grammar of the spoken language as well as that of the written language. (b) It is concerned with completeness of presentation of all forms likely to be used to the intermediate student.
A: (a) The book reviews only speech or only writing and states this specialization prominently. (b) It is concerned with completeness of presentation, but only for speech or for writing.
U: (a) The grammar purports to be complete but ignores the grammar of either speech or writing, or it confuses the two grammars. (b) It attempts to be as complete as a reference grammar.

* Based on a work paper by Nelson Brooks of Yale Univ.
* Based on a work paper by Nelson Brooks of Yale Univ.
APPENDIX 1: Teachers Course Guides

5. GRAMMAR OF THE WRITTEN LANGUAGE
EA: The book explains both the grammar of form (inflections) and the grammar of syntax.
U: The book does not recognize that form presents one type of learning problem and the syntax of an utterance presents another.

4. GRAMMAR OF THE SPOKEN LANGUAGE (if included)
EA: (a) The grammar reviews especially those features of spoken language that present particular difficulty to one whose native language is English. (b) A consistent graphical representation of pronunciation and intonation patterns is used.
U: (a) The grammar attempts to give, without adequate discrimination, a complete account of the phenomena of the spoken language, or the points selected for discussion are not of high frequency or of special use to the English-speaking student. (b) The graphical representation of sounds is inconsistent, or misleading comparisons with English sounds are given.

5. STRUCTURES
EA: The structures exemplified and discussed are of relatively high frequency, and primary concern is with those that differ from structures of English.
U: The grammar tries to account for all the usages that may occur in the FL without regard for frequency, or it unduly stresses irregular or unusual forms and structures.

6. MANNER OF PRESENTATION
EA: (a) Rules are briefly expressed in simple language, even if scientific accuracy must occasionally be sacrificed. (b) Structures are made clear by the use of examples drawn from the FL and are not presented as translations from English. Such examples may afterwards be repeated in English to make their meaning clear.
U: (a) The rules are stated in a difficult manner. (b) The rules are given without sufficient examples, or the examples suggest that the FL is attempting to express the structures and utterances of English. (For example, "To express 'some' or 'any' the French say . . .")

7. ORGANIZATION
EA: The discussion is systematic.
U: The presentation of the grammatical review does not help the student to arrange the different problems systematically in his own mind.

8. EXAMPLES
E: (a) The rules are accompanied by many illustrative examples. (b) The examples are pertinent, of interest to the student, and of immediate value in his use of the FL.
A: (a) The rules are accompanied by sufficient illustrative examples. (b) The examples are pertinent and useful, but not especially interesting in content.
U: (a) The number of illustrative examples is insufficient. (b) The examples given contain faults in language or are extremely dull.

9. EXERCISES
EA: The exercises are in the FL only.
U: The exercises are restricted to groups of isolated English sentences to be translated into the FL or they contain sentences with the two languages intermingled.

10. END-VOCABULARY
EA: There is a complete list of the foreign phrases and words used in the book, with English equivalents.
U: No such lexicon is given, or the one given is not complete.

11. LAYOUT
EA: The type size and arrangement of the page reflect the relationships between the language models, drills, and explanations and their relative importance to the learner.
U: The layout does not reflect these relationships, or it is confusing to the reader.

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIALS
Miscellaneous materials have been included when they were thought to be of interest to teachers, even though no criteria had been written for them.

TEACHERS COURSE GUIDES

1. ADAPTATION TO THE LISTENING-SPEAKING-READING-WRITING PROGRESSION (for Level I)
E: The guide provides for an initial oral presentation.
A: It provides materials which can be adapted to an initial oral presentation.
U: It is not adaptable to an audio-lingual period.

2. PRESENTATION AND RE-ENTRY OF LANGUAGE PATTERNS
E: The guide presents the material in the form of sentence patterns (in use), provides for extension in the use of these, and provides for their re-entry.
A: It presents the greater part of the material in sentence patterns and makes some provision for their re-entry.
U: Most of the material consists of nouns to be learned, with a minimum number of sentence patterns.

3. AUTHENTICITY (OF THE FL) AND SELECTION OF STRUCTURES
E: The language is native, the sentence patterns are of high frequency, and the introduction of these follows the normal usage (rather than such artificial arrangements as all of the present tense first, past tense, future tense, etc.)
A: The language is near-native, the sentence patterns are introduced frequently, and the introduction of these follows somewhat the normal usage.
U: The language is awkward, the patterns will not be needed in other situations, and only one or two tenses are used.

4. PROVISION FOR EVALUATION OF PROGRESS
E: The guide provides tests to determine the mastery of audio-lingual skills at regular intervals.
A: It provides sample questions to evaluate progress.
U: It provides no tests.

5. PSYCHOLOGICAL APPROPRIATENESS
E: The situations, language, and activities are interesting and suitable to the age group for which the guide has been written.
A: The material is adaptable to the age group for which the guide has been written.
U: The situations, language, and activities are not appropriate to the age group for which the guide has been written.

6. CULTURAL CONTENT
E: The dialogues, stories, and other activities are those typical of the foreign culture.
A: Some of the situations and stories are typical of American culture rather than the foreign culture.
U: There is very little material related to the foreign culture.

7. PROVISION FOR CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES (in the Elementary School)
E: The guide provides a sufficient number of songs, games, and activities which reinforce the sentence patterns and phrases being learned.
A: The guide provides some songs, games, and activities which lend variety to the classroom procedures and reinforce some vocabulary.
U: The guide does not include any songs, games, or activities, or those included represent completely different material from that of the regular classwork.

Supplementary materials have been included when they were thought to be of interest to teachers, even though no criteria had been written for them.
