This is a comprehensive bibliography on the concept of value.
A COMPREHENSIVE BIBLIOGRAPHY ON

THE VALUE CONCEPT

Walter L. Thomas

Project on Student Values
3860 Plainfield Boulevard, N.E.
Grand Rapids, Michigan 49505

June, 1967

Allport, Gordon W. Are attitudes biological or cultural in origin? Character and Personality, (1936), 4, 195-205.

American Council on Education. Inventory of Beliefs. (Publication information on the I of B test is presently unavailable).

Auerbach, J. G. Value changes in therapy. Personality, (1950), 1, 63-67.

Bales, Robert. Bales Value Profile, Unpublished form, Harvard University, Department of Social Relations.

———. Factor analysis of the domain of values. Cambridge: Harvard University Laboratory of Social Relations, (1956).

Barnes, Donald L. Approaches to values and value change. Unpublished paper, (1967).

Battrick, Delmer H. How can we use our school program to contribute to a better understanding, appreciation, and acceptance of moral and spiritual values? National Association of School Principal's Bulletin, (April, 1954), 38, 79-81.

Baur, E. Jackson. Achievement and role definition of the college student. Lawrence, Kansas: Department of Sociology, University of Kansas, (1965).

Bertocci, Peter A. A reinterpretation of moral obligation. Phil Phen Res, (1945), 6, 270-283.

Burgemeister, B. B. The permanence of interests of women college students. Archives of Psychology, (July, 1940), No. 225, 5-56.

Burton, M. V. The effect of college attendance upon personality as measured by the Bernreuter Personality Inventory. Journal of Educational Research, (1945), 38, 708-711.

Cattell, Raymond B. Sentiment or attitude? Character and Personality, (1940), 2, 6-17.

Cohen, J. B. A scale for the measurement of attitude toward the aesthetic value. Journal of Psychology, (1941), 12, 75-79.

______. Changes in the opinions of female students after one year at a university. Journal of Social Psychology, (1940), 11, 341-351.

Crawford, Will C. Spiritual values. San Diego, California: City Schools, (1948).

Department of Instruction of the St. Louis Public Schools. Moral and ethical values in the public schools of Hawaii. Honolulu: Department of Public Instruction, (1949).

Respect for public property. (1959), (other information not available).

Division of Instruction of Fairfax County, Virginia. Hand in hand, a resource bulletin in moral and spiritual values. Fairfax County schools, (September, 1953).

Duffy, E. A critical review of investigations employing the Allport-Vernon Study of Values and other tests of evaluative attitude. Psychological Bulletin, (1940), 37, 579-612.

Dunn, Sandra, Bliss, Joan, and Siipola, Elsa. Effects of impulsivity, introversion, and individual values upon association under free conditions. Journal of Personality, (1958), 26, 61-76.

Eisenthal, Sherman. The dependence of visibility of values upon group compatibility and level of need for affection. Dissertation Abstract, (1962), 22(7), 2485.

Farnsworth, Paul R. Elite attitudes in music as measured by the Cattell space method. Journal of Research in Music Education. (1962), 10, 65-68.

Ferguson, L. W. The measurement of primary social attitudes. Journal of Psychology, (1940), 10, 199-205.

--- Humphreys, L. G., and Strong, F. W. A. A factorial analysis of interests and values. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1941), 32, 197-204.

Fischer, Robert P. Do the interests of students indicate a need for a liberal education? Journal of Educational Research, (April, 1944), 37, 619-627.

Fletcher, John M. Science and the problem of human values. Scientific Monthly, (1942), 54, 259-265.

17

———. Experimental comparisons between generalizations and problems as indices of values. Journal of General Psychology, (June, 1945), 38, 31-50.

______ How can we emphasize moral values? High School Journal, (May, 1953), 36, 239-246.

Hartmann, George W. High-level choice behavior and its determination by the organism's primary values. Psychological Bulletin, (1940), pages not available.

Hendrickson, G. Attitudes and interests of teachers and prospective teachers. Paper read before Section QAAAS, Atlantic City, (December, 1932).

Inventory of Beliefs, Form T. Adapted from American Council on Education's Inventory of Beliefs, Form I, 1951; Syracuse, New York: Department of Psychology, Syracuse University. (mimeographed)

Jones, V. Attitudes of college students and the changes in such attitudes during four years in college. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1938), 29, 14-25.

These values we hold dear. Childhood Education, (September, 1954-May, 1955), 31, 4-8.

Krug, E. A. Our values, our decisions, and our action. Educational Leadership, (November, 1948), 6, 73-77.

Kuhlen, Raymond G. Changes in the attitudes of students and relations of test responses to judgments of associates. School and Society, (1941), 52, 514-19.

Lehmann, Irvin J. Changes in critical thinking, attitudes and values from freshman to senior years. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1963), 54(6), 305-315.

Likert, R. Likert method applied to Thurstone attitude scale. Journal of Social Psychology, (1938), 5, 228-238.

———. A technique for the measurement of attitude. Archives of Psychology, (1932), 22(140), 1-55.

Little, Lawrence C. Toward better education in moral and spiritual values. Pittsburgh, Pa.: Department of Religious Education, University of Pittsburgh, (1953).

—, and Bowles, W. Personal values as determinants of perceptual fixation. Journal of Personality, (September, 1949), 18, 224-235.

Melouth, Jan. The Study of Values--test and graphology. Character and Personality, (December, 1933), 2, 144-151.

Mullahy, Patrick. Values, scientific method, and psychoanalysis. Psychiatry, (1943), 6, 139-146.

Nebraska Department, The American Legion. Exploring basic American documents for their moral and spiritual values. Lincoln, Nebraska: Department of Public Instruction, (1954).

---

Oakland Public Schools. Moral and spiritual values in the Oakland Public Schools. Oakland, California: Oakland Public Schools.

---

---

---

---

---

---

Personality changes associated with a college education. San Jose, California: San Jose State College, (1962).

---

---

---

---

Postman, Leo, and Murphy, Gardner. The factor of attitude in association memory. Journal of Experimental Psychology, (1943), 33, 228-238.

---

---

---

---

---

Rao, N. A. Hanumantha. The application of the order of merit and paired comparison methods to study the preferential values of undergraduate students. Journal of Karnatak University (India), (1962), 6, 137-142.

Values are fundamental. Childhood Education, (February, 1959), 35, 246-47.

Review of Friedman, Foundations of the measurement of values (1946), Nervous Child, (1947), 6, 476-77.

Richardson, H. M. Community of values as a factor in friendships of college and adult women. Journal of Social Psychology, (1940), 11, 303-312.

Romine, S. Education is a value process. Phi Delta Kappan, (November, 1949), 31, 153-54.

Psychological depression and educational attitudes. Student Medicine, (1956), 2, 5-20.

Shane, Harold G. Educational values as guides to planning with children. Childhood Education, (October, 1964), 31, 56-60.

——. The pictorial study (a modification of Vernon-Allport Study of Values). Chicago: Psychometric Affiliates, (1957).

Shorr, Joseph E. The development of a test to measure the intensity of values. Journal of Educational Psychology, (May, 1953), 44, 266-278.

Smith, Henry L., McElhinney, R. S. and Steele, G. R. The old world historical background of religious and moral education in schools. Indiana University School Education Bulletin, (September, 1934), 10, 1-144.

Smith, Madorah E. The values most highly esteemed by men and women in Who's Who suggested as one reason for the great difference in representation of the two sexes in those books. Journal of Social Psychology, (1962), 58(2), 339-344.

Snygg, Donald. The place of psychology in the development of values. American Psychologist, (1949), 4, 212.

Solomon, Richard L. and Howes, Davis H. Word frequency, personal values, and visual duration thresholds. Psychological Review, (1951), 58, 256-270.

Spencer, D. Frankness of subjects on personality measures. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1938), 29, 26-35.

Stanley, J. C. Insight into one's own values. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1951), 42, 399-408.

Symonds, F. M. A social attitudes questionnaire. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1925), 16, 316-322.

---. The value concept in educational psychology. Journal of Educational Psychology, (1953), 449-462.

When planning is based on values, what are children learning? Childhood Education, (October, 1964), 31(2), pages not available.

Whitely, Paul L. The constancy of personal values. Journal of Abnormal and Social Psychology, (1938), 33, 405-08.

—. A test for personal goal-values. Journal of Social Psychology, (1940), 11, 259-274.

Wieman, R. S. Study of personality in terms of value. Psychological Bulletin, (1941), 38, 583.

44

and DiVesta, Francis J. The relationship between values, concepts, and attitudes. Educational Psychological Measurement, (1948), 8, 645-659.

Woods, Frances Jerome. Cultural values of American ethnic groups. New

Worchel, Philip and Byrne, Donn, eds. Personality change. New York: John

Wright, Beatrice A. Altruism in children and the perceived conduct of others. Journal of Abnormal and Social Psychology, (1942), 37, 218-223.

Zirbes, Laura. Helping children make value judgments. Childhood Education, (October, 1964), 31, 61.