Fifty-six articles and reports dating from September 1963 to May 1968 pertain to various factors and problems related to rural education and small schools. These factors include comparison of rural schools, educational and occupational plans and attainments of rural youth, dropouts, problems of minority groups, educational innovations, and inservice education of faculty members. (CM)
PROBLEMS OF NON-URBAN EDUCATION: A BIBLIOGRAPHY

Prepared for
Research and Information Services for Education
Montgomery County Schools (Title III Project)
King of Prussia, Pennsylvania

by

Robert L. Buser and William L. Humm
Department of Secondary Education
Southern Illinois University
Carbondale, Illinois
May, 1969

Interpreting Our Environment, A pamphlet prepared by the Outdoor Education Center, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois, November, 1968.

Weaver, Robert C. "The Big City Schools - Problems and Prospects; Background The Urban Crisis," The PTA Magazine, LIX (October, 1964), 18-20.