Library Bulletin

ISSUED AUGUST 1973
SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

This is the first issue of the Library Bulletin in its new format. In response to requests from IPPF member associations we have decided to give some idea of the content and coverage of the most important items added to the Central Office Library. Commencing with this issue annotations will appear with the entries for significant publications which have arrived at Central Office during the previous three months.

In order that you should not miss hearing about other useful publications, we recommend that you scan regularly the "Bibliography of Family Planning and Population" produced by the Simon Population Trust, 141 Newmarket Road, Cambridge CB5 8HA.

Arrangement of this issue

Books only are included in the list and are arranged in classified order according to the classification scheme at present in use in the IPPF Central Office Library.

The main outline of the schedules is as follows:

1. General Office Management and Administration
2. Contraceptive Methods
3. Family Planning (General)
4. United Nations; Conferences, etc.
5. Population
   5.3 Africa
   5.4 America
   5.5 Asia
   5.6 Europe
   5.7 Oceania
   5.8 USSR
5.9 USSR
6. Religious, Moral, Ethical and Political Attitudes to Family Planning
7. Medicine
8. Education, including Sex and Population Education
9. Communication, Publicity, History, etc.

An alphabetical list of authors appears at the end of each issue, with classification marks used as cross references.

Purchase of Books

An alphabetical list of relevant publishers and their addresses will be found at the end of this issue, and in the interest of speed and efficiency those wishing to obtain copies are advised to order direct from the publisher or their local bookseller. It is not possible for the IPPF Central Office to deal with orders for material, other than IPPF publications.
Prices

The price for all books is given as the publishers' list price, which is not necessarily the price that the IPPF paid. Where the price is indicated as 'not known', in many cases, the book may be free of charge, but this should NOT be assumed when ordering. It is sometimes possible to arrange a small discount on large orders with a local bookseller.

Loans of Books

It is not feasible for IPPF to lend books from the Central Office Library overseas, because of the great risk of loss, damage and delays, and high postal costs involved. Readers of the Library Bulletin may be able to borrow certain books from IPPF libraries situated in the following Regional Offices:-

IPPF Regional Office for Africa, P.O. Box 30234, Nairobi, Kenya.

IPPF Middle East & North Africa Region, P.O. Box 1567, Beirut, Lebanon.

IPPF South-east Asia & Oceania Region, 246, Jalan Ampang, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

IPPF Indian Ocean Region, No. 6 Alwis Terra-e, Colombo 3, Sri Lanka

IPPF Middle East & North Africa Region, P.O. Box 1567, Beirut, Lebanon.

IPPF Indian Ocean Region, No. 6 Alwis Terra-e, Colombo 3, Sri Lanka

IPPF Middle East & North Africa Region, P.O. Box 1567, Beirut, Lebanon.

IPPF Indian Ocean Region, No. 6 Alwis Terra-e, Colombo 3, Sri Lanka

IPPF Publications List

An up-dated list of IPPF publications is appended to each issue of the Library Bulletin.

IPPF Annotated Subject Bibliographies

A list of these bibliographies appears at the end of each issue of the Library Bulletin. Some titles are now available in print. All titles are annotated and up-dated at approximately annual intervals. Single copies are available upon request and larger quantities are available to those able to describe their intended use.
Issued August 1973

CONTRACEPTIVE METHODS

GOLDSMITH, Alfredo, editor
SNOWDEN, Robert, editor

This conference dealt with topics across a wide range, including matters with philosophical implications, points with relevance for educators, social scientists and bioengineers and new information for the clinician and paramedical personnel who provide family planning services.

ROBERTS, Anthony

A clearly written and easily readable book which explains the various methods of contraception, abortion, the diagnosis of pregnancy and venereal disease.

VICTOR-BOSTROM FUND

A collection of articles which discuss various aspects of the distribution of contraceptives, particularly stressing the need for the development of commercial distribution systems.

THE FAMILY PLANNING RESEARCH UNIT

A report of the first independent large scale trial of the Dalkon Shield in the United Kingdom.

CHURCH INFORMATION OFFICE

This booklet attempts to explain what vasectomy is, to state some of the ethical issues which arise and to specify the questions which those contemplating vasectomy should answer. It is mainly intended for the guidance of clergymen and social workers whose advice is sought on these type of problems.
ABORTION

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION, REGIONAL OFFICE FOR EUROPE.

This is the first meeting that the World Health Organization has convened to discuss the significance of induced abortion as a health problem. The nature and size of the problems differ widely from country to country and the variations that occur are mainly accounted for by differences in legislation. Liberalization of legislation reveals the size of the problem by creating a demand on the health services which has to be met and which previously was more or less ignored.

NEUBARDT, Selig
SCHULMAN, Harold

This text outlines surgical principles for the interruption of pregnancy before 12 weeks gestation, including preoperative preparation and anaesthesia by paracervical block, and assesses complications such as bleeding, syncope, and vomiting. The technique of saline abortion for interruption of pregnancy after 12 weeks gestation is discussed as well as complications such as hypernatraemia. There are additional chapters on the establishment of abortion clinics and out-patient services.

BERGSTROM, S. editor
GREEN, K. editor
SAMUELSSON, B. editor

The participants at this conference reviewed the available methods for the analysis and identification of the various prostaglandins and their metabolites in blood using quantitative mass spectrometry and radio-immune methods.

CUTHERBT, M.F. editor
The aim of this book is to provide a concise account of the theoretical developments and to outline the major area in which the prostaglandins have potential therapeutic application.

JOSIMOVICH, John B. editor
Uterine contraction - side effects of steroidal contraceptives.

The first volume in this new series considers the most recent advances in two areas of reproductive research - the control of uterine contraction and the side effects of steroidal contraceptives.

SOUTHERN, Edward M. editor
The Prostaglandins: clinical applications in human reproduction.

This book is basically concerned with the great increase and significant advances in clinical research in the field of applications of the prostaglandin compounds to female reproductive physiology since 1970.

WYNN, Margaret
WYNN, Arthur
Some consequences of induced abortion to children born subsequently.
London, Foundation for Education and Research in Child-bearing, 1972. 30 pages. Tables. Price: £0.60

This paper presents evidence to suggest that induced abortion may adversely affect subsequent pregnancies and subsequent children.

FAMILY PLANNING AND SOCIAL WELFARE

AZIZ, Farrukhnigar, editor
FAMILY PLANNING ASSOCIATION OF PAKISTAN
Proceedings of the Indian Ocean Region Seminar on administration.

The specific aims of this seminar were to explore and examine various aspects of administrative organization with a view to improving the administration of non-governmental organizations with particular reference to family planning associations in the Region.
BANERJEE, A.M.

The author discusses various aspects of family planning administration - personnel planning and development, budgeting and financial management, supervision and coordination, and evaluation research.

INTERNATIONAL PLANNED PARENTHOOD FEDERATION

This is an informal report on the activities of a Workshop held at Mombassa on the subject of the role of the fieldworker in family planning.

VENEREAL DISEASE

PLATTS, William M.

A handbook containing up to date instructions on the handling, diagnosis, treatment and surveillance of venereal and sexually transmitted diseases. It is orientated especially towards the general practitioner, the medical student, both undergraduate and postgraduate, those involved in teaching or talking about the venereal diseases, and possibly members of the nursing profession.

DEMOGRAPHIC SURVEYS ETC

WISHIK, Samuel M.
HELBIG, Donald W.

This manual is intended to provide a detailed, step by step guideline for the administrator who desires a relatively inexpensive and simple-to-administer method to detect recent changes in fertility. The Fertility Pattern Method is particularly well suited to countries or areas where accurate fertility data is not available.
ENKE, Stephen
BROWN, Richard A.
Old Age Insurance with fewer children. Santa Barbara, Center for Tables. Price: not known.

This paper analyses for traditional societies, the logical effects of varying life expectancies at birth upon fertility, average age of motherhood, and intrinsic population growth, according to different parental objectives, strategies, and means of reducing fertility.

HUH, Jong and others
Administrative evaluation of family planning program in Korea.

The objective of this study was to evaluate family planning in Korea by examining its administrative practices, personnel policies, and data communication problems. It aimed at discovering the factors which influence the effectiveness of the family planning programme and making recommendations for improving the effectiveness of the programme.

SUCHMAN, Edward A.
Evaluative research: principles and practice in public service and 186 pages. Price: £3.50

The author describes the techniques used to determine empirically the extent to which social goals are actually being achieved, to locate the barriers to the achievement of these goals, and to discover the unpredictable consequences of social actions.

HALL, Peter
Law and population growth in Singapore. Medford, Fletcher School of Series No.9. Price: not known.

An account of the history of the family planning programme in Singapore and a survey of the legislation which pertains to family planning, abortion and sterilization.

INTERNATIONAL PLANNED PARENTHOOD FEDERATION, EUROPE REGION
A survey of the legal status of contraception, sterilisation and various pagination. Price: £0.50

The information in this report was obtained in response to a questionnaire completed by a number of European lawyers, who had been nominated by the national associations of the Europe Region of the IPPF. The material is presented under country headings, which are listed alphabetically. It is intended that the report should be revised periodically.

KLOSS, Diana M.
RAISBECK, Bertram L.

A survey of the legislation in Great Britain which pertains to the subjects of birth control, abortion, sterilization, immigration and emigration and marriage.

ROSEN, Robert C.

A survey of the legislation in Jamaica which pertains to the subjects of birth control, abortion, sterilization, immigration, emigration, and marriage.

DIENES, C. Thomas

An analysis of the legal response to the changing place of birth control in American society. This book covers over 100 years from the emergence of birth control as a social and legal problem in the early nineteenth century to the present consideration of a policy for publicly supported fertility control.

STEPAN, Jan
KELLOGG, Edmund H.

The purpose of this paper is to show what the present legal situation concerning voluntary sterilization is in as many countries of the world as possible, and to indicate the confusion which has arisen as a result of the above developments.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION OF ADULTS (Family Planning)

FAMILY PLANNING ORGANIZATION OF THE PHILIPPINES.
UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES, INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC HEALTH
IPPF-SEAO Regional Workshop on training methods and tools, December 18-29, 1972, Manila: proceedings. Manila, Family Planning Organization of
The general objectives of the workshop were: a) to acquire and develop skills in the use of different training methods and tools. b) to develop further skills in the planning, organization and management of training programmes and in assessing their effectiveness. c) to establish an informal and relaxed atmosphere in the training situation which allows free exchange of ideas between trainers and trainees.

McTERNAN, Edmund J. editor
HAWKINS, Robert O. editor

A useful book for persons concerned with and responsible for organizing, planning, and administering educational programmes in the allied health field.

UNITED NATIONS, ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST

This meeting was organized to assist countries in the ECAFE region which were establishing national family planning programmes to plan a training strategy and to organize and implement a training programme for all categories of personnel working in the national programme.

INTERNATIONAL PLANNED PARENTHOOD FEDERATION

This booklet describes the various different contraceptive methods now available and provides answers to some of the more common questions that are asked about family planning.

HARMAN, David

This is the second book in a series devoted to the integration of family planning education with literacy and non-formal adult education programmes.

WHELAN, Elizabeth Murphy
QUADLAND, Michael C.
This text has been designed for health and education professionals who wish to review and expand their knowledge of human reproduction and conception control. The programmed learning technique used in this book stresses active participation on the part of the reader.

HUBBARD, Charles William

This book offers information in four areas concerning the sexual aspects of living: contraception, abortion, sterilization, and the venereal diseases. Scientific terms are defined and spelled phonetically in a glossary, and supplementary readings are suggested throughout the text.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

F. MANDIRA, Mahdi

A systematic and comprehensive analysis of the international organizations that constitute the United Nations System. An enquiry into their functions, their performance, and whether they are instruments of social change.

HAZZARD, Shirley

A history of the United Nations which is at the same time a critical study. The author calls, not merely for reform of the existing apparatus, but for a new and active United Nations.

SYMonds, Richard
CARDER, Michael

The subject of this book is the discussion of and action upon the population question which took place within the agencies of the United Nations System and in the League of Nations System which preceded it. It is an attempt to trace, in relation to one particular question, the way in which the policies of the agencies of the United Nations System have evolved, in response to what forces.
CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

INTERNATIONAL PLANNED PARENTHOOD FEDERATION, INDIAN OCEAN REGION

The objectives of this seminar were to define and correlate the development of population policies to the situation existing in developing countries; to examine the relevance of population policies to development plans; to highlight the problems of implementation; and to outline the role of education in the implementation of population policies.

BOURGEOS-PICHAT, Jean

This book is one of a series which is the result of a study carried out by Unesco in collaboration with national and international research centres in the social sciences as well as many individual scholars. The individual volumes are designed to give a picture of the main trends of research in various disciplines.

MATRAS, Judah

"This book is a theoretical, methodological, and substantive introduction to the study of human populations, their structures, variations, and changes, and to the social structural causes, correlates, and consequences of population trends. It summarizes world population history, reviews recent growth trends and variations, and considers the background and meaning of the current world population "explosion". Materials presented in the book describe and illustrate sources of demographic data, methods of measurement, and basic techniques of analysis." - Preface.

ENVIRONMENT

COLE, H.S.D. editor
FREEMAN, Christopher. editor
JAHODA, Marie. editor
PAVID, K.L.R. editor
An interdisciplinary team at the Science Policy Research Unit at Sussex University have examined both the structure and the assumptions of the World Models developed at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. While they feel that the assumptions made at MIT may be unduly pessimistic, they do feel that distributing the fruits of growth equitably will require radical political and social, as well as technological, change.

POPULATION CRISIS COMMITTEE

Individuals from Britain, Continental Europe and the United States met to consider whether population policies should be implemented in their own countries, and, if so, how this could be done without an intolerable degree of constraint on individual freedom.

DAVIES, David

This book is intended to be a convenient and concise means of reference. It covers allied sciences such as human biology, sociology, ecology, and palaeontology, as well as providing definitions of a multitude of anthropological terms.

ECONOMICS OF DEVELOPMENT

GOSOVIC, Branislav

This book is the first major study on UNCTAD. It describes and analyses the origins and birth of UNCTAD, its role and activities in the field of trade and development, its institutional traits and evolution. It also discusses the process of decision-making in UNCTAD.

RICH, William

This study, gathering together existing evidence, argues that appropriate policies for making health, education, and jobs more broadly available to lower income groups in poor countries contribute significantly toward the motivation for smaller families that is the prerequisite of a major reduction in birth rates. It argues that combining policies that give special attention to improving the well-being of the poor majority of the population with large-scale, well-executed family planning programmes should make it possible to stabilize population in developing countries much faster than reliance on either approach alone.

URBANIZATION, MIGRATION etc

JANSEN, Clifford J. editor
A collection of papers that review the problems created by internal migration in various countries.

AMERICAS

PIOTROW, Phyllis Tilson
The author recounts and analyses the history of the evolution of family planning and population policy in the United States and the United Nations.

MOORE, D. Ernest
An analysis of Haiti's problem of economic and social development.

ALBA, Victor
The author describes all aspects of Latin American life: its history, economic practices, political traditions, social customs, art and cultural life, and its aspirations for the future.

CHAPLIN, David, editor
This volume consists of some of the updated papers of a conference held at the University of Wisconsin in May 1968, supplemented by a selection of the most relevant published works on the same subject.
ASIA

SNOW, Edgar

A view of contemporary China that has chapters on medical care and population control, the cultural revolution, the army, people's communes, and political leaders.

KOREA, MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL AFFAIRS

This booklet contains useful demographic and economic data on Korea, and traces the progress of the national family planning programme during the past ten years.

EUROPE

FAMILY PLANNING ASSOCIATION

This statement is a summary of the attitudes of the United Kingdom Family Planning Association towards the government's recent proposals. The FPA is concerned mainly that family planning services and advice should be offered free of charge under the National Health Service, and that the services provided should be of a high standard.

MEDICINE, MEDICAL EDUCATION, SEXUAL BEHAVIOUR

BOURNE, Gordon

This is a comprehensive guide for all women awaiting childbirth. The author describes the conception and development of a baby - the symptoms and signs of pregnancy - the antenatal care available and the care a woman should take of herself during pregnancy.
EDUCATION

TA, Ngoc Châu

The main purpose of this survey was to discover the effect on education costs of population growth, given various assumptions as to the future trend of fertility and mortality. The comparison of the various factors in cost increases and their respective weight offers a considerable number of pointers as to the educational development policy to be followed. It demonstrates the considerable effort which will have to be made in order to extend and improve education under conditions of rapid population growth.

BURGESS, Tyrrell

The author explains some of the latest findings on the mental, emotional, and educational development of children. He considers the value of nursery schools and then explains the emotional and educational experiences of primary and secondary schooling. This involves some discussion of the legal compulsion of education, the methods of teaching children to schools, the different reactions of children to school, and in which parents can interpret and support their children's education.

EDUCATION IN HEALTH, BIOLOGY AND HOMECRAFT

MENTAL HEALTH MATERIALS CENTER

The purpose of this guide is to facilitate the skillful selection and use of educational materials in support of programmes pertaining to all aspects of family life education.

SEX EDUCATION

BASS, Medora S.

The purpose of this book is to point out the special need of the retarded for sex education and to give some guidelines for involving parents or professionals in planning programmes for schools.
NOLAN, Dorothy
SMITH, Murray

This series of lessons, developed by the Family Planning Association of Australia, was originally intended for adolescents in the out of school situation. As participation was voluntary, there are only 6 lessons each of two hours duration. The lessons, divided into two sections, biological and emotional and behavioural, deal with various aspects of human reproduction, sexuality and responsible parenthood.

KENNER, Jill

The aim of this book is to reassure parents about the sex education of their children, and help them to see that it can be easy and enjoyable, instead of difficult and embarrassing.

LEARNING TECHNOLOGY INCORPORATED
FILIPPI, Ronald K.

A programmed instruction textbook for parents and other adults to enable them to discuss sex more easily with children. It is hoped that once a person has finished the book they will be able to explain the basic facts and myths about sex in terms children understand.

POPULATION EDUCATION

FORENINGEN FOR FAMILIEPLANLAEGNING

The aim of this seminar was to formulate workable teaching plans and devise teaching media for translating population and family planning education to the level of 9 - 11 year old children. Participants came from Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Indonesia, and the Arab Republic of Egypt.
MEHTA, T.S. editor
PARAKH, B.S. editor
SAXENA, R.C. editor

The participants at this conference - Directors of Education, Directors/Principals of State Institutes of Education, Chairmen of the Boards of Secondary Education, met to consider administrative and academic decisions with regard to the implementation of population education programmes in schools in India.

PHILIPPINES, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

This booklet was prepared to acquaint the Philippine public with the rationale for introducing population education into the school system and the role it is expected to play in achieving the goals embodied in the national population policy.

PERRY, G.A.
JONES, E.
HAMMERSLEY, A.

This handbook is intended as a guide for the teacher in his approach to environmental studies with children in the 9-13 age group. The emphasis is on the practical discovery of information within the local environment. There is much detailed information concerning areas and places to visit. Bibliographies, '1m loops and recordings are among the lists of reference material.

TROOST, Cornelius J. editor
ALTMAN, Harold. editor

A book of readings, activities, and ideas which can be used as a general reference source by teachers from kindergarten through grade twelve. It is also suitable for the student teacher.
MASS COMMUNICATION, PUBLICITY

KLINE, F. Gerald. editor
TICHENOR, Phillip J. editor

The selection of essays in this book provide an exposition of research perspectives with emphasis on work being done in the research centres affiliated with major schools of journalism and mass communication in the United States.

CROCKER, A.H.

This book has two sections - the first section is a comparative review of performance, and the second section gives detailed descriptions of a number of overhead projectors.

BIBLIOGRAPHIES

HARRIS, John

A select list of works which give information about Nigeria. The arrangement is under very broad subject groupings, with an index which refers specifically to every author, every proper name, and a large number of subjects.

BHATIA, Brajesh. editor
GOYAL, M.M.L. editor

This bibliography contains more than 300 references of articles and books dealing with family life and population education. The references are not annotated.

WATTS, Mary E.
The purpose of this list is to provide social workers with references to information that would be useful to them in their work in relation to family planning services. Most of the articles, pamphlets, and books have appeared in the last 6 years.

WINTON, Harry N.M. editor

This annotated bibliography of more than 1200 entries, presents a selection of publications of the intergovernmental organizations in the United Nations System which deal with man, the resources available to him, the environment, and the population problem. The information given about each item includes the author, title, collation, publisher, publication date, language, sales numbers, and document symbols.

LIBRARIANSHIP AND INFORMATION SCIENCES

UNESCO

This directory was prepared by Unesco from the responses to questionnaires sent out to the major institutions of the world offering courses in librarianship and information work. More than 300 schools are listed, with details of courses offered, duration, diplomas awarded, conditions of admission, and numbers of teaching staff.

REFERENCE BOOKS

HANKINSON, Richard

This summary information guide is intended as an introduction to the many agencies and organizations working in the international population assistance field, and to give a brief outline of their specific fields of interest, the kind of assistance they can offer and an indication of the size of their present assistance programme.
