AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made as of July 1, 1970, by and between the Administration of St. John's University, New York (the "Administration") and the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors—Faculty Association at St. John's University (the "AAUP-FA").

The intent and the purpose of this Agreement are to promote and improve the quality and effectiveness of education at St. John's University, New York (the "University") and to maintain high standards of academic excellence in all phases of instruction at the University. The parties hereto concur that these objectives can be materially achieved by means of amicable adjustment of matters of mutual interest, and through the establishment of basic understandings relative to personnel policies, practices and procedures and matters affecting other conditions of employment.

It is recognized by the parties that mutual benefits are to be derived from continual improvement in the position of the University as an institution of higher learning; that the faculty is particularly qualified to assist in formulating educational policies and developing educational programs; that the University has responsibility to present and make available to the student body the kind and degree of learning that meet the highest standards of higher education; and that these objectives can be materially advanced by conducting uninterrupted courses of study.

Now, therefore, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Article I

Recognition

§1.1 The Administration hereby recognizes the AAUP-FA as the exclusive bargaining representative for all full and regular part-time members of the faculty presently or hereafter employed by the University in the bargaining unit set forth in the certification issued by the New York State Labor Relations Board dated April 22, 1970 (Appendix A; the "faculty").

§1.2 The parties agree that, in the event there is any merger or consolidation with any other educational institution, or an acquisition any other educational institution, the faculty members of such other educational institution who become employed by the University shall become members of the certified bargaining unit herein. In the event, however, that such faculty members are members of a collective bargaining unit and a contract for such unit is in effect at the time of such merger, consolidation or acquisition, such faculty members shall not be required to become or remain part of the instant bargaining unit.

§1.3 The foregoing provision shall not apply to any merger or consolidation with Notre Dame College of Staten Island until September of 1971.

Article II

General Relationship Between the AAUP-FA and the Administration

§2.1 This Agreement shall be binding upon and is exclusively between the AAUP-FA and the Administration unless otherwise specified herein. All rights and privileges claimed under the terms of this Agreement shall be enforceable only by the AAUP-FA and the Administration unless specifically provided herein.

§2.2 This Agreement shall not be construed to repeal, rescind or otherwise modify any of the provisions of the Statutes of the University, as amended, or any future amendments thereto by the Board of Trustees (the "Statutes") which are not in conflict with this Agreement. The provisions of the Statutes which are not in conflict with the provisions of this Agreement shall be assimilated into and made part of any individual contract of employment between a faculty member and the University. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of the Statutes and the terms of this Agreement, the latter shall be controlling.

§2.3 The rights, privileges and obligations of faculty members set forth in this Agreement shall be assimilated into and made part of any individual contract of employment between a faculty member and the University; all such rights, privileges and obligations claimed under such individual contracts of employment shall be enforceable only through the procedures hereinafter set forth in this Agreement or the Statutes, whichever is applicable. In the event of a conflict between the terms of an individual contract and the terms of this Agreement, the latter shall be controlling. This Agreement shall be incorporated by reference in employment contracts issued to faculty members. All faculty members shall be furnished with a copy of this Agreement by the Administration.

§2.4 The Administration, in adopting the 1966 Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities of the American Association of University Professors, has stated that the University "does 'require particular accommodations' contemplated" in that Statement for a Catholic university. The AAUP-FA has also adopted that Statement. Accordingly, the parties hereby incorporate that Statement by reference into this Agreement. The AAUP-FA and the Administration, by such incorporation of that Statement, have recognized and hereby continue to recognize the desirability of participation by the faculty in various areas specified therein as well as the desirability of generally resting final authority in the Administration, as specified therein. To these ends, the parties agree that all the rights, powers and authority of the Administration which have not been abridged or modified by this Agreement are retained by the Administration. The existence and right to exercise such powers and authority shall not be subject to the grievance-arbitration procedures set forth in this Agreement, but any claim of arbitrary, unreasonable or discriminatory exercise of such powers and authority relating to the terms and conditions of employment, or the failure to act in accordance with the aforementioned Statement, shall be subject to such grievance-arbitration procedures.

§2.5 The presently constituted organizations within the University (e.g., the University Senate, faculty councils, departmental personnel and budget committees, etc.) or any other or similar body composed in whole or in part of the faculty, shall continue to function at the University, provided that the actions thereof may not directly or indirectly repeal, rescind or otherwise modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

§2.6 Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the freedom of the Administration to recognize and deal with external educational associations; accrediting agencies; and professional organizations, such as the national office of the American Association of University Professors, provided, however, that such recognition or dealing shall not repeal, rescind or otherwise modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Article III

Past Practices

§3.1 The parties agree to continue all practices of the Administration which are currently adhered to by the Administration, provided, however, that such practices are not in conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. In the event of such a conflict, the terms of this Agreement shall be controlling.

§3.2 As used in this Agreement, the term "practices of the Administration" refers to those practices of the Office of the President, the Offices of the Vice Presidents and the Offices of the Deans, based upon written policies of the Board of Trustees and the University Senate.

§4.5.1 Whenever a vacancy occurs in the post of academic dean, as defined in Section 8.1.1 of the Statutes, of any of the schools or colleges, a search committee composed of four tenured faculty members of the particular school or college in which the vacancy exists shall be elected by its faculty and shall be chaired by the chief academic officer, with vote. The search committee, by majority vote, shall submit to the President the names of no fewer than three candidates, together with its recommendation for appropriate faculty rank and ure, which candidates shall fulfill such qualifications for the office of the deanship involved as provided for in the Statutes. If the President accepts one or more names, he shall then submit same to the Board of Trustees for consideration and final action. If the Board of Trustees rejects all the names so submitted by the President, it shall state its reasons in writing and request the committee to continue its search.

§4.5.2 The foregoing procedure shall continue until the search committee submits a candidate acceptable to the President and the Board of Trustees of the University.

§4.6 Teaching Load and Scheduling of Courses

The maximum teaching load per semester in the School of General Studies is fifteen semester hours of credit or its equivalent. A faculty member assigned a combination of graduate and undergraduate teaching shall not exceed the equivalent of twelve undergraduate semester hours of credit, in which case three graduate semester hours of credit are considered equivalent to four undergraduate semester hours of credit.

§4.6.2 Present practices with regard to science laboratory courses shall be followed.

§4.6.3 The teaching load during any semester may, by mutual agreement between the faculty member and the departmental chairman, and with the approval of the dean, exceed the maximum teaching load per semester as stated above. In the event the dean rejects any such mutual agreement, he shall state his reasons therefor in writing and in the absence of any further recommendation by the chairman, the decision of the dean shall be determining. Any semester hour of credit in excess of the maximum load per semester shall be compensated on the following basis, whichever is higher:

Such professional responsibilities shall be evaluated and defined by the Faculty Responsibilities Committee composed of one member appointed by the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors, one member appointed by the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University and two members appointed by the President of the University. This Committee shall make its recommendations to the President of the University and terminate its responsibilities by January of 1972. Should the President, for compelling reasons, reject any of the recommendations submitted to him, he shall so notify the Committee in writing, stating his reasons therefor. The Committee shall reconsider its recommendations in light of the President's reasons and shall present its revised recommendations, if any, to the President within two weeks of its receipt of the President's objection. Any reasonable decision by the President shall be determining.

§4.6.5 The normal office-hour responsibility of a faculty member in a school or college other than the School of General Studies shall be two posted office hours per week per semester. In the School of General Studies the normal office-hour responsibility of a faculty member shall be four posted office hours per week per semester. Office hours shall be scheduled by the faculty member in consultation with the departmental chairman.

§4.6.6 After discussion between the faculty member and his departmental chairman, the assignment of courses, their time and campus location, shall be made by the departmental chairman in conjunction with the departmental personnel and budget committee, where practicable, and thereafter discussed between the chairman and the dean. In the event the dean rejects any such original recommendation, he shall state his reasons therefor in writing and the departmental chairman, in conjunction with the departmental personnel and budget committee, where practicable, shall submit further recommendations to the dean. Any reasonable change by the dean shall be determining.

§4.6.7 Changes in a faculty member's program may be made in accordance with section 4.6.6 if emergencies arise. Whenever the necessary changes due to emergencies are made, every effort shall be made to consult with the affected faculty member in the interest of arriving at the best solution for all concerned.

The standard work week for professional librarians shall be five days. Any professional librarian who works either in excess of the five day work week or on official University holidays shall receive compensatory time off. §4.8.1 Commencing with the Spring semester of the 1970-1971 academic year, the number of instructional preparations for different courses each semester shall not exceed three except that, with the permission of the faculty member, the number may be four in any particular semester, provided that there shall not be more than a total of six instructional preparations in any two successive semesters.

§4.8.2 All instructional preparations for different sections of the same course during a semester shall be deemed a single instructional preparation.

§4.9 Aid for the School of General Studies

In the School of General Studies, a faculty member with a total student load of over 225 may request from the dean of that School, assistance for grading. Any denial of such assistance shall be made in writing, stating the reasons for such refusal.

§4.10 Reduced Teaching Load for Members of the AAUP-FA Grievance Committee and Bargaining Committee

§4.10.1 The Administration shall grant to each of the six members of the faculty designated by the AAUP-FA as the members of the AAUP-FA Grievance Committee, a teaching reduction of one three semester hour course per semester.

§4.10.2 The Administration shall grant, during the last semester of this Agreement, to each of the six faculty members designated by the AAUP-FA as the members of the AAUP-FA Bargaining Committee, a teaching reduction of one three semester hour course. If a faculty member serves on both the Grievance and Bargaining Committee during said last semester of this Agreement, he shall be entitled to a teaching reduction of two three semester hour courses for that semester.

§4.10.3 No such teaching reduction shall be deemed to change the status of a full-time faculty member.

§4.10.4 The names of the members of the Grievance Committee and of the Bargaining Committee shall be made known by the Presidents of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and the Faculty Association at St. John's University to the dean of the school or college to which the faculty members are assigned at least six weeks prior to the commencement of the semester for which the teaching reduction is requested.

§4.16 Personnel Files

§4.16.1 The University shall maintain two categories of personnel files for each faculty member:

(a) There shall be a pre-employment file which shall contain all materials requested or received by the University from persons other than the applicant in connection with the faculty member's original employment. The pre-employment file shall be available neither to the faculty member nor to the committees and individuals responsible for the review and recommendation of the faculty member with respect to reappointment, promotion or tenure.

(b) There shall be an official category of personnel files which may be maintained by the department and/or the school or college and/or the chief academic officer. It shall be the only category of files which shall be available to the committees and individuals responsible for the review and recommendation of the faculty member with respect to reappointment, promotion or tenure. It shall include but not be limited to the following:

- (i) Information relating to the faculty member's academic and professional accomplishments submitted by the faculty member or placed in his file at his request.
- (ii) Memoranda of discussion between faculty members and departmental chairmen or administrators relating to evaluations of his professional performance. Copies of such memoranda shall be sent to the faculty member involved.

In addition, the faculty member may, for a reasonable charge for copies, make or obtain copies of said file or files. If the person in charge of said file or files does not approve the removal thereof for the purpose of making such copies, such copies shall be made for the faculty member, for a reasonable charge for copies, and within five school days after receipt of a written request from him.

§4.17 Reduction or Elimination of Programs

The Administration may abolish programs and reduce the size of the faculty in a particular program, provided that (a) it consults with the faculty in accordance with the 1966 Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities and (b) it follows the provisions of Section 4.18 hereof.

§4.18 Retention of Employment

§4.18.1 In the event of a need to reduce the size of the faculty because of bona fide financial exigency, or to eliminate or curtail programs or courses of instruction, reduction of the faculty shall be on the following basis:

(a) Reduction shall first take place among adjunct faculty members, then superannuated faculty members, then non-tenured faculty members in the department affected. The controlling factors in these reductions shall be on the basis of worth to the department and to the University, and the procedure to determine such worth shall be in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4.4 [Tenure and Promotion].

(b) Reduction shall then take place among tenured faculty members in the department affected and shall be on the basis of a combination of seniority and worth to the department and to the University. The procedure to determine retention or reduction shall be in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4.4 [Tenure and Promotion].

(c) Prior to the termination of employment of any tenured faculty member, an effort shall be made to place said faculty member first in another department of the school or college of which he is a member and then in another school or college of the University (other than the School of Law) provided that said faculty member can be assigned courses which he is academically qualified to teach in another department and/or another school or college and provided that no tenured faculty member in the other department and/or other school or college shall be terminated as a result thereof.

(d) The method of implementing the relocation of a tenured faculty member under this section shall be as follows:

1. Within the times provided for in Section 4.18.9 hereof, the Administration shall give termination notice to the faculty member involved and inquire whether such faculty member desires the Administration to exercise its best efforts to relocate him.

2. Within seven days after receipt of such notice of termination, the faculty member shall reply to the chief academic officer setting forth his educational background and stating where he feels qualified to teach and can make a worthwhile contribution within the University.

3. Within seven days after receipt of the faculty member's reply, the chief academic officer shall transmit the request to the dean of the school or college to which the faculty member requests that he be assigned.

4. Within two weeks after receipt of the transmittal, the dean shall convene a meeting of the school or college Personnel Committee. Prior to the meeting, the members of the school or college Personnel Committee shall consult with the members of the department where retention is sought to ascertain whether the incoming faculty member is qualified in that discipline. The school or college Personnel Committee shall then schedule a hearing within two weeks after its initial meeting. At the hearing a representative of the subject department may attend as a consultant, without vote. If a member of the school or college Personnel Committee is also a member of the department where retention is sought, he shall not vote on the retention. If the consensus of the incoming department supports the faculty member's qualifications and the school or college Personnel Committee, by a majority vote, approves his retention, the decision shall be transmitted to the President for final action by the Board of Trustees. If the consensus of the incoming department rejects the faculty member's qualifications and the school or college Personnel Committee, by a majority vote, approves the faculty member's retention, the matter shall be submitted to the University Personnel Committee.

5. If the Personnel Committee of the incoming school or college, by a majority vote, disapproves retention of the incoming faculty member, the request shall, within two weeks, be submitted to the University Personnel Committee for review and decision. If retention is again disapproved by a majority vote, the rejection shall be deemed final.

6. If the University Personnel Committee, by a majority vote, affirms the retention of the faculty member, the issue of retention shall be submitted, within two weeks, to the President for transmittal to the Board of Trustees for final review and decision.

§4.18.2 Should the program or position which is being reduced or eliminated be reactivated within the term of this Agreement, the faculty member or members whose services have been terminated pursuant to this Section shall be reinstated, if they so desire, on the basis of seniority. Reasonable notice of any such reinstatement shall be given to the faculty members whose services were terminated pursuant to this section.

§4.18.3 Seniority of a faculty member is based on the date he commenced continuous full-time employment in his department at the University. Faculty members who were employed by the University prior to the creation of transverse departments shall have their seniority measured on a university-wide basis. Seniority acquired during academic appointment shall remain in effect and continue during any period of time such faculty member, while retaining his faculty status, assumes an administrative position at the University and be credited in full if he thereafter returns to the bargaining unit. Conflicts of seniority among faculty members with the same commencement date of full-time employment in the department shall be resolved by earlier dates of full-time employment at the Unioy, part-time employment at the University or date of letter of appointment to the University, in that order.

§4.18.4 Faculty members who are relocated to teach at the Staten Island campus shall retain their seniority as though no relocation had occurred.

§4.18.5 A faculty member whose employment was interrupted by military service in order to fulfill a military obligation and who returned to the University immediately after separation from military service, shall be deemed to have continuous employment with the University. Such faculty member's time in military service shall be applied as part of his seniority.

§4.18.6 A faculty member who resigns from the University and subsequently is reemployed by the University shall not be deemed to have continuous employment. Such faculty member shall measure his seniority from the date of reemployment.

§4.18.7 When an individual is originally employed by the University as an administrator with academic status, but his duties are solely administrative, his time and service in his administrative capacity shall not be measured as seniority.

§4.18.8 The time and service of any administrator with academic status employed prior to the date of this Agreement shall be measured and applied as seniority and shall continue to be so measured and applied.

§4.18.9 Written notice of termination of employment for the reasons set forth in section 4.18.1 shall be given to non-tenured faculty members in accordance with the standards of notice for non-reappointment set forth in Article 30 of the Statutes. Tenured faculty members shall receive no less than twelve months' written notice. At the option of the Administration, contract salary may be paid in lieu of such notice.

Article VII

Fringe Benefits

§7.1 The University shall provide, to full-time faculty members who make application therefor, a TIAA/CREF Retirement Annuity plan, major medical insurance, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, disability insurance and travel insurance, the major provisions of which are outlined generally below.

§7.1.1 TIAA/CREF Retirement Annuity Plan

Commencing with the September after the first year of service at the University, faculty members between 30 and 60 years of age eligible to join the TIAA/CREF retirement annuity plan. If the faculty member contributes five per cent (5%) of his contract salary, the University shall contribute an amount equal to nine per cent (9%) of the faculty member's contract salary commencing September 1970. The University's contribution shall be increased to ten per cent (10%) commencing September 1971.

§7.1.2 Major Medical Insurance

The University provides major medical insurance to the limit of $25,000 on a non-contributory basis after one month of employment.

§7.1.3 Group Life Insurance

After one month of employment, the University provides insurance in the amount of $12,500. The faculty member's contribution is $2.00 per month. The University absorbs the rest of the cost, which is approximately two-thirds of the total cost. During the 1971-1972 academic year such group life insurance shall be revised so that the coverage thereunder for each faculty member shall be a derivative of his contract salary to be hereafter determined, the total additional premium cost of such increased coverage, however, shall not exceed $12,000. In no event shall the amount of insurance coverage to be furnished any faculty member be less than $12,500.

§7.1.4 Blue Cross/Blue Shield

The University provides a Blue Cross/Blue Shield group contract to the faculty member. The cost of family coverage, over and above the individual cost, must be borne by the insured.

§7.1.5 Disability Insurance

The University provides a total disability plan on a non-contributory basis. The plan becomes effective one year from the date of employment.

§7.1.6 Travel Insurance

The University provides travel accident insurance containing various benefits of up to $100,000 for death or dismemberment, on a non-contributory basis, for any faculty member who travels for the University on University business, whether locally or long distance. The policy provides 24 hour coverage while in travel status.

§7.1.7 Supplementary Pension

In order to provide a more equitable retirement benefit to faculty members who have heretofore contributed to the available retirement plans at the University and who have a minimum of twenty years of service at the University, a Supplementary Pension is provided based on 0.85% of the average salary for the last five years, times the number of years of service, and reduced by the amount of the regular TIAA/CREF or Phoenix Pension Plan annuity.

§7.2 Tuition Waiver

The present practices with regard to remission of tuition in undergraduate courses for dependent sons and daughters, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, of full-time faculty members and faculty members who die or are disabled after completing ten years of continuous service at the University, shall apply to the spouse of such faculty members. Said practices shall also apply to the spouse and/or such dependent sons and daughters of full-time faculty members who retire after completing fifteen years of continuous service at the University.

Article VIII

Leaves

§8.1 Sabbatical Leaves

§8.1.1 During the 1971-1972 academic year each full-time faculty member who has completed twelve years of continuous service at the University shall be eligible to make application for a sabbatical leave.

§8.1.2 Such application must be made by the March 1st prior to the academic year in which the sabbatical leave is sought and shall first be submitted to the faculty member's departmental Personnel and Budget Committee. Upon approval, the departmental Personnel and Budget Committee shall forward all such applications to the school or college Personnel Committee. Upon receipt of all applications, the school or college Personnel Committee shall make a list of those faculty members who are applying for a sabbatical leave. Such list shall then be submitted to the University Personnel Committee and its decision shall be transmitted to the President for submission to the Board of Trustees. Except as provided below, all decisions to grant sabbatical leaves shall be based upon the applicant's seniority.

§8.1.3 As used herein, the term sabbatical leave shall mean that the faculty member is entitled to full pay for one semester or one-half pay over two consecutive semesters, at the faculty member's request. On former option, the faculty member has the right of election as to which semester he shall be on sabbatical. In either case, he shall be paid in equal installments over the time period involved.

§8.1.4 In no event shall the total number of sabbatical leaves granted during the term hereof exceed a total cost to the University of $25,000, less such deductions as heretofore agreed upon by the parties.

§8.1.5 A faculty member whose employment was interrupted by military service in order to fulfill a military obligation and who returned to the University immediately after separation from military service, shall be deemed to have continuous employment with the University. Such faculty member's time in military service shall be applied as part of his seniority.

A faculty member who resigns from the University and subsequently is reemployed shall measure his seniority from the date of reemployment.

§8.1.6 In the event of a conflict, the provisions pertaining to seniority as expressed above, shall not be deemed to vary, alter or modify the measurement and applicability of seniority as defined in any other section of this Agreement.

§8.1.7 The sabbatical leave described herein shall not affect the continuing grant of research leaves as set forth in Section 8.3 hereof.

§8.1.8 When the standard for the granting of a sabbatical leave is met, such leave may be denied solely on the grounds of prior right of other faculty members, specific need of a department during that year, or financial limitations of the University under this Agreement.

§8.1.9 A faculty member on sabbatical leave shall be entitled automatically to any general salary increases, to any increase in the benefits program which shall be granted to the faculty as a whole.

§8.1.10 During the period of the sabbatical leave, the regular, normal deductions from the faculty member's salary shall be made in terms of hospitalization, major medical, insurance, and so on.

§8.2 Maternity Leaves

§8.2.1 Faculty members who are pregnant may take a leave of absence without pay prior to the commencement of the semester in which they shall reach the fifth month of pregnancy and shall return to work no later than the semester following two months after the date of delivery.

§8.2.2 Seniority shall accumulate during such leave of absence. If the faculty member desires more than the initial leave of absence, she may do so only after being examined by her family or treating physician, or by some other doctor acceptable to the University and obtaining his certification that additional time off is necessary, and then only for one semester additional at a time. Should the doctor rule that the faculty member is fit to return to work, and she does not do so, she shall lose all seniority.

§8.3 Research Leaves

§8.3.1 It is University policy to grant research leaves from instructional and other teacher-related activities when such leaves will result in: (1) the scholarly enrichment and increased professional competence of the faculty member; (2) his increased value to the University; (3) the enhancement of the University's reputation in the academic community.

§8.3.2 A faculty member is eligible to request a research leave when he has completed six full sequential years of instructional service in a given school. One research leave does not preclude a second or third if the time requirement is satisfied. Summer teaching shall not be counted toward the time required to be eligible for a research leave. Hence, twelve continuous semesters of teaching represent the minimum time requirement.

§8.3.3 The intent of this policy is to grant such leaves not to make them difficult to obtain. Accordingly, the department and school will make every reasonable effort to accommodate a qualified faculty member's justified request. In specific instances, it will be the responsibility of the chairman of a given department and the dean of the appropriate school to determine what adjustments can be made to facilitate, when possible, the granting of such leaves.

§8.3.4 The research leave may take either of two forms. The faculty member may be relieved of his duties for one full semester with full pay—Or he may be granted a leave of one complete academic year, with half-pay. In either case, he will be paid in equal installments over the time period involved.

§8.3.5 Such leaves will generally be granted on the basis of rank and tenure of service. In special instances, however, when the return on intellectual investment promises to be exceptional, factors of seniority and rank shall be of secondary importance.

Since the requirement of six academic years of continuous service, not including summer sessions, represents a minimum, it is not expected that every faculty member will be granted a leave automatically upon completion of this time requirement. It is the duty of the proper Personnel and Budget Committee and dean to determine how many personnel in a given department may be on leave simultaneously.

§8.3.7 Criteria to Be Met

(a) It is the intent of this policy that research leaves be devoted to scholarly activities, such as the writing of a book, professional development, or research on a professional project. No leave will be granted for purposes of teaching in another institution; nor will it be granted for mere travel for purely personal reasons.

(b) A faculty member requesting a research leave must file with the appropriate chairman, and ultimately with the dean of the school or college, a complete and precise statement of the purposes of the leave. This statement will include such essentials as the following:

- (1) the objectives of the leave; (2) the activities to be undertaken; (3) the values to be derived not only for the individual but also for the school or college and/or the University. This statement must be filed two full semesters before the commencement of the leave. Thus, a faculty member desiring to begin his leave of a Fall semester must file his petition during the first month of the preceding Fall semester.

(c) The chairman will forward his recommendation to the dean of the school or college by the end of the semester in which the original request was submitted. Should the chairman disapprove the request, the faculty member shall have the right to appeal to the personnel and budget committee of his department, which in turn will forward its recommendation to the dean. The final decision is subject to the dean's and chief academic officer's approval.

(d) At the completion of the research leave, the faculty member will submit a complete and accurate report on how the time was spent and what desirable results were achieved. Copies of this accountability report will be forwarded to the departmental chairman, the dean and the chief academic officer of the University within three months after the faculty member again resumes his teaching assignments.

(e) The faculty member obligates himself to remain in the employ of the University for a minimum of one year after the completion of his research leave.

(f) A faculty member on a research leave shall be entitled automatically to any general salary increases, to any increase in the benefits program which shall be granted the faculty as a whole.

(g) During the period of the research leave, the regular, normal deductions from the faculty member's salary shall be made in terms of hospitalization, major medical, insurance, and so on.

Article IX

Retirement Age

§9.1 A faculty member shall retire at the end of the year commencing September 1 and ending the following August 31 in which he shall attain his 65th birthday.*

§9.2 The eligible retiree may continue teaching on annual appointment on either a full-time or part-time basis under the following conditions:

(a) He is in good health and is capable of performing his normal duties.

(b) There is need for his continuing services as determined by his departmental Personnel and Budget Committee.

(c) He submits a written application to his departmental chairman with copy to his dean at least six months before his retirement would become effective.

(d) His application is passed upon by his departmental Personnel and Budget Committee. A majority vote shall be controlling. Whether the majority vote is in the affirmative or negative, the application shall proceed to the following step.

(e) The application is then submitted to the school or college Personnel Committee. Again a majority vote shall be controlling.

(f) If the majority vote is affirmative on both levels, the application is transmitted to the President of the University for final action by the Board of Trustees. If the majority vote is negative on both levels, the application will be deemed rejected. If there is any combination of an affirmative and a negative vote on these two levels, the application shall be submitted to the University Personnel Committee.

* For the purpose of this contract, the 65th birthday is deemed to be on the date usually celebrated as his birthday.

e for its determination and, if approved, shall be transmitted to the President of the University for final action by the Board of Trustees; and, if disapproved, the action of the University Personnel Committee shall be controlling.

(g) Each year the faculty member shall submit anew his application to continue teaching.

(h) During such years of full-time continued service, the faculty member involved shall be entitled to the continuation of all fringe benefits, with appropriate deductions being made therefor.

Article X

Grievance-Arbitration Procedures

§10.1 Intent

The Administration and the AAUP-FA recognize and endorse the importance of adjusting grievances properly without fear of prejudice or reprisal. Accordingly, the Administration and the AAUP-FA agree that they will use their best efforts to encourage the informal and prompt settlement of complaints and grievances, as hereinafter defined. The orderly processes hereinafter set forth shall be the sole method for the resolution of all complaints and grievances.

§10.2 Definitions and Exclusions

§10.2.1 A grievance is defined as an allegation by a faculty member, a group of faculty members, or the AAUP-FA that there has been (a) a breach, misinterpretation or improper application of the terms of this Agreement; or (b) an arbitrary or discriminatory application of or a failure to act pursuant to this Agreement, the Statutes, and practices of the Administration, related to the terms and conditions of employment.

§10.2.2 The term "grievance" shall not include:

(a) Complaints relating to the merits of the "Removal or Suspension" of faculty members which matters are governed exclusively by Articles 35-40 of the Statutes;

(b) Complaints relating to the merits of appointment, reappointment, promotion, academic freedom and tenure which matters are governed by the Statutes and practices of the Administration;

§10.2.3 A grievance, with the exception of grievances when presented to a departmental chairman, must be stated in writing setting forth the basis therefor, and the remedy requested. Grievances may be filed by a faculty member personally on his behalf, or by the AAUP-FA on its behalf, or by the AAUP-FA at the request of a faculty member on his behalf.

§10.3 Step I—Departmental, School or College Level— Grievances by a Faculty Member or the AAUP-FA

§10.3.1 Grievances which may be processed under Step I of the grievance procedure are as follows:

(A) Grievances by or on behalf of a faculty member.

A faculty member may present a grievance in his own behalf, or, at his request, a grievance may be presented in his behalf by the AAUP-FA, not later than ten (10) school days following the faculty member's knowledge of the act, event or the commencement of the condition which is the basis of the grievance.

In the event that a faculty member presents the grievance on his own, the AAUP-FA shall be entitled to representation at any hearing and any adjustment of the grievance shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

1. Informal Presentation

(a) When the grievance concerns a matter which is within the authority of the chairman of the department to which the faculty member belongs, it shall first be considered by the departmental chairman. The chairman shall communicate his decision to the dean and all other persons concerned as promptly as possible but not later than five (5) school days after the grievance has been presented to him. While oral presentations to departmental chairmen and informal settlement of grievances are encouraged, the departmental chairman may request, in writing, that a written grievance be presented to him. Within five (5) school days after receipt of such request, the faculty member shall comply with that request. In the event the grievance is in writing, the chairman's decision shall likewise be in writing.

() Any settlement, withdrawal or other disposition of a grievance by a departmental chairman shall not constitute a binding precedent in the disposition of similar grievances.

2. Formal Presentation

(a) When the grievance concerns a matter which is within the authority of the dean to whose school or college the faculty member is assigned (and which is not within the authority of the departmental chairman) it shall be first presented to the dean. The dean shall communicate his written decision to all persons concerned as promptly as possible but not later than seven (7) school days after presentation of the grievance.

(b) An appeal from a decision on a grievance which had been presented to a departmental chairman may be taken to the dean of the appropriate school or college within seven (7) school days after the decision of the departmental chairman. The appeal shall be in writing and duly signed by the faculty member and shall specifically state the act or condition and the grounds on which the grievance is based and the reasons the disposition of the grievance is unsatisfactory. The dean shall communicate his written decision to all persons concerned as promptly as possible but not later than seven (7) school days after the appeal.

(B) Grievances by the AAUP-FA.

Grievances by the AAUP-FA at the school or college level shall be served against the dean and shall be handled in the same manner, by the same steps and timetable, as set forth in provisions of Step I relating to formal grievances by or on behalf of a faculty member. Grievances by the AAUP-FA on its own behalf shall be presented to the dean within ten (10) school days following the time that any member of the Grievance Committee of the AAUP-FA knows or reasonably should have known of the act, event, or commencement of the condition which is the basis of the grievance. The dean shall communicate his written decision to the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and to the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University within seven (7) school days after receipt of such grievance.

§10.4 Step II—Central Level—Appeals and Central Grievances by the AAUP-FA

§10.4.1 Grievances which may be processed at Step II of this grievance procedure are as follows:

(A) Appeals from decisions of a dean which have been processed in accordance with Step I of the grievance procedure. Such appeals shall be presented to the President or his designee within ten (10) school days after the delivery of an adverse decision. The appeal shall be in writing and duly signed by the faculty member or the AAUP-FA and shall state specifically the act or condition and the grounds on which the grievance is based and the reasons the disposition of the grievance is unsatisfactory. The President or his designee shall communicate his written decision to the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and to the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University (and where applicable to the aggrieved faculty member) within ten (10) school days after receipt of such appeal.

(B) Grievances involving more than a single school or college. Such grievances shall be presented to the President or his designee by the AAUP-FA within thirty (30) school days following the time that any member of the Grievance Committee of the AAUP-FA knows or reasonably should have known of the act, event, or commencement of the condition which is the basis of the grievance. The President or his designee shall communicate his written decision to the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and to the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University within ten (10) school days after receipt of such grievance.

§10.5 Step III—Arbitration—By the Administration or AAUP-FA

§10.5.1 Any grievance which has not been resolved at Step II of the grievance procedure may be submitted to arbitration by the AAUP-FA within twenty (20) school days of receipt of an adverse decision in Step II. Any demand for arbitration shall be in writing, shall specify the issue in detail, shall be sent by certified mail to the President of the University, and shall be sent to the New York City office of the American Arbitration Association. An arbitrator shall be chosen pursuant to the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association.

§10.5.2 The arbitrator's fees and other expenses of arbitration shall be shared equally by the parties. Expenses of witnesses shall be borne by the party who calls them.

§10.5.3 Except as otherwise provided herein, arbitration shall take place in accordance with the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association.

§10.5.4 The decision of the arbitrator shall be accepted in good as final and binding upon the parties. The Administration and the AAUP-FA agree that all arbitration awards shall fully and immediately be complied with. If an arbitration award is questioned, it shall nevertheless be complied with subject to future adjudication but shall not be rendered moot by such compliance, provided, however, that any monetary award may be placed in escrow for a reasonable time pending such adjudication and the results thereof.

§10.5.5 The arbitrator shall limit his decision strictly to the application and interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement and he shall be without power or authority to make any decision contrary to, or inconsistent with, or adding to, or subtracting from, or amending, or modifying or varying in any way, the terms of this Agreement or the Statutes or practices of the Administration; this limitation, however, shall not prohibit the arbitrator from upholding the terms of this Agreement if the same conflicts with any such Statutes or practices of the Administration.

§10.5.6 Whenever there is a claim of a violation of Article XII or XV herein, either party may immediately submit the matter to arbitration with a hearing scheduled within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of notice by the American Arbitration Association. It is agreed that either party may request the American Arbitration Association to submit to both parties, by telephone or telegram, a list of five arbitrators who are available for an immediate hearing. If the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator within forty-eight (48) hours of knowledge of such list, the American Arbitration Association shall select the arbitrator. Knowledge of such list by the AAUP-FA shall be deemed adequate if so communicated to either the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors or the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University. The parties shall request the arbitrator to issue the award within forty-eight (48) hours after the conclusion of the hearing.

§10.6 General Provisions as to Grievance and Arbitration

§10.6.1 At any formal stage in the grievance procedure, the grieving party may elect in writing to have a hearing.

§10.6.2 The filing or pendency of any grievance under the provisions of this Article shall not prevent the Administration and its representatives from taking the action complained of, subject however, to the final decision on the grievance.

§10.6.3 Failure at any step of this procedure to communicate the decision on the grievance within the specified time limits shall permit the aggrieved party to proceed to the next step. Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a grievance to the next step within the specified time limits shall be deemed to be acceptance of the decision rendered at that step. The time limits specified in the grievance procedure may be extended in any specific instance only by mutual written agreement.

§10.6.4 Wherever written grievances, answers, decisions or appeals are required by the formal grievance procedure, they shall be served by certified mail upon (a) the dean or the President at their campus offices; (b) the President of the St. John's Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and the President of the Faculty Association at St. John's University at the addresses designated by them respectively, provided, however, that service shall be deemed adequate if received by either of said Presidents; (c) to a faculty member at the home address on record with the University. Where service is so made by certified mail, it shall be deemed complete and the document so served shall be deemed to have been received three (3) days after mailing. Personal service, duly receipted, shall also be adequate service and may be used in lieu of service by mail.

Article XI

Non-Discrimination

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent any faculty member from bringing before any governmental administrative agency any complaint regarding discrimination with regard to race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex or marital status.

Article XII

No Strike—No Lock-Out

§12.1 The AAUP-FA and the Administration subscribe to the principle that any and all differences under this Agreement be resolved by peaceful and appropriate means without interruption of the University program. The AAUP-FA, therefore, agrees that during the term of this Agreement, it shall not instigate, engage in, ort, encourage or condone any strike, work stoppage, or other concerted refusal to perform work by any of the faculty members covered by this Agreement. This section, if violated, may, in the sole discretion of the Administration, be enforced either through the arbitration provisions hereof or by means of an action in any court of competent jurisdiction or in any administrative agency having jurisdiction, or through any combination of these remedies.

§12.2 The Administration agrees that during the term of this Agreement it shall not lock-out any or all of the faculty members covered by this Agreement. This section, if violated, may, in the sole discretion of the AAUP-FA be enforced either through the arbitration provisions hereof or by means of an action in any court of competent jurisdiction or in any administrative agency having jurisdiction, or through any combination of these remedies.

Article XIII

Separability

In the event any provision of this Agreement, in whole or in part, is declared to be illegal, void or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction or any administrative agency having jurisdiction, all of the other terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect to the same extent as if that provision had never been incorporated in this Agreement, and in such event the remainder of this Agreement shall continue to be binding upon the parties hereto.

Article XIV

Successor Clause

During the term of this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including but not limited to the provisions of Article IV, Sections 4.17 [Reduction or Elimination of Programs] and 4.18 [Retention of Employment] shall be binding on the successors, assigns, transferees, etc. of the University.

Article XV

The University's Operation on Staten Island

The parties are fully aware of a consolidation between the University and Notre Dame College of Staten Island and have agreed that the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement will be applicable to the University's operation at Notre Dame College of Staten Island only after September 1, 1971. In the event, however, that any term or condition of this Agreement would not appropriately apply thereafter to the University's operation at Notre Dame College of Staten Island, the parties, upon written request from either party, agree to promptly reopen this Agreement for the purpose of agreeing upon such additional terms. In no event, however, shall this section or any other section of this Agreement be deemed to permit any reopening on any matter relating to compensation or monetary items, including any matters set forth in Article VI and Article VII of this Agreement. If this Agreement is so reopened, the remaining provisions of this Agreement, including the No-Strike and No Lock-Out clause, shall in any event continue to be binding upon the parties hereto. Any notice of such reopening shall state what provisions will be negotiated, the substance of the rights affected and the substance of the proposed amended provisions. The Administration and the AAUP-FA shall enter into such negotiations as are required within ten (10) school days after receipt of such notice.

Article XVI

Duration of Agreement

§16.1 This Agreement shall be in effect for a period from July 1, 1970 to and including June 5, 1972 (the day following June commencement at the University in the 1971-1972 academic year) and shall remain in effect from year to year thereafter, unless either party shall give to the other a written notice of intention to terminate or modify this Agreement. Such notice shall be given at least sixty (60) days prior to June 5, 1972, or sixty (60) days prior to the end of any yearly extension period. Whenever such notice is given by either party of proposed change, the nature of any proposed change desired must be stated in the notice and the parties will promptly enter into negotiations therefor.

§162 In the event either party terminates this Agreement as above provided, prior to June 5, 1972, this Agreement shall be deemed to exclude the 1972 Summer Sessions even though such Summer Sessions may, in fact, commence prior to June 5, 1972.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.
