Such teachers are paid on a per diem basis. This shall be indicated in the letter of appointment.

Section 7. Teaching Duties and Assignments

a) A teacher shall not be required to perform production work which is not part of the student instructional program, as part of his teaching assignment.

b) Teachers shall not be assigned nonprofessional duties such as cafeteria, assembly, commencement, apprentice banquet, and non-counseling registration duties.

Section 8. Teaching Load, Limitations, and Special Assignment(s)

a) The teacher's weekly class load shall be based upon the following formula:

Type of Class	Total 55-Minute Teaching Periods

(2) Academic - Combination of Individual and Group Instruction 20

(High School Contract Services, Apprentice, Adult High School, and Adult-Vocational Courses)

(3) Laboratory or Quiz (Associate Degree Courses) 24

(4) Shop (High School Contract Services, Apprentice, Adult High School, and Adult-Vocational Courses) 24

b) Limitations

(1) Full Teaching Load

Class loads which fall between 97 and 103% shall be construed as 100%. Underloads and overloads above or below this range shall be computed from 100%. If an overload cannot be avoided, a compensatory time adjustment shall be made during the succeeding school year. If this time adjustment cannot be made, the teacher shall be paid cash compensation for the overload of the previous year at one and one-half (1½) times the teacher's regular salary rate; e.g., six percent (6%) overload equals nine percent (9%) additional compensation.

If an underload cannot be avoided, the teacher shall be given a special assignment, or may be given an overload the succeeding year. Such overloads shall not exceed fifteen percent (15%).

(2) Size of Classes

- (a) In classes in which the enrollment is more than sixty (60), the instructor shall be given one and one-half (1½) hours' credit on his full teaching schedule for each contact period with such classes.

- (c) Maximum class size shall be determined on the basis of the average attendance during the first four (4) weeks of each semester and shall be maintained thereafter for the remainder of that semester.
- (d) Shops, labs, and quizzes are limited to the number of stations available in a given lab or shop but the number of students shall normally not exceed twenty (20). If there is an enrollment of over twenty (20) and an average attendance taken over the full semester of over twenty (20), the percentage of teaching load for each such shop, lab, and quiz shall be recalculated and compensated for as outlined in Section S. 5) (1) above. The formula for this calculation is:
The average daily class attendance for the semester, in excess of twenty (20), divided by twenty (20), times the percent of load for that class, plus the percent of load for that class, equals the recalculated load.
- (e) Every effort shall be made to equalize classes by the end of the fourth (4th) week of instruction.
- (f) The above (a-e) shall not be aplicable to classes in the various fields of health occupations.

Changes so approved shall be effective at the beginning of the following semester.

c) Special Assignment

c) A non-tenure teacher who is being terminated shall have the right to appeal for a hearing before the Campus Director with or without representation.

d) A tenure teacher shall not be dismissed, suspended, discharged, or denied re-appointment except for just cause. Such actions against any teacher shall follow these specific procedures:

(1) The teacher shall be notified in writing stating cause for such action, with a copy to the Union.

(2) The teacher shall be entitled to a hearing with Union representation, before the Board within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notification.

The teacher and Union shall receive notification as soon as possible regarding such transfers or terminations. ()

Section 2. Outside of MATC

Salary Determination

Upon Initial Employment

When a teacher is initially employed he or she is given credit on the salary scale of the appropriate class as follows:

1. For each year of approved teaching or industrial or business experience related to the teaching area, or (1) increment with a maximum of five (5) increments allowable.
2. If the prospective teacher does not have all of the previous experience necessary for five (5) increments above Step 1, military service may be credited not to exceed two (2) years of extended active duty, one (1) increment being allowed for each full year of active duty.
3. The Board recognizes the fact that certain classes of teachers are in especially great demand and those qualified for successful teaching in our institution may be in short supply. Thus the Board authorizes the Campus Director to exercise his judgment in such special cases by adding an increment to the maximum otherwise allowable on initial employment.
