This is one of a series of eight Teacher Education Modules developed by Adams State College Teacher Corps Program. The goals of this module package are listed as follows: a) to introduce the intern to music for elementary school children; b) to enable interns to develop knowledge and skills of an elementary level in music; c) to enable interns to translate written music notation of elementary difficulty into song; d) to acquaint interns with methods and materials utilized in elementary music instruction; and e) to enable interns to use many of the traditional instruments in elementary music education, i.e., autoharp, tone bells, and rhythm instruments. Listed are competency goal statements, prerequisites, and resources. The package is divided into the following modules: Pitch; Tempo and Duration; Sharps--Flats--Key Signatures; Pitch and Duration Simultaneously; Dots After Notes; Teaching Rote Songs; Use of Rhythm Instruments; Tone Bells; Autoharp; and the Realities of the Arts to Primary Children. Each module lists time, objectives, and enabling activities and describes evaluation. There is a criteria checklist after each module for the cooperating teacher, team leader, and on-site instructor. However, the opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the U.S. Office of Education, and no official endorsement by the U.S. Office of Education should be inferred.
Introduction and Rationale

The general purpose of the following modules is to better provide meaningful musical experiences for children in elementary schools. The need for expanded instruction in music is evident in the fact that many elementary schools have no music instruction and many schools only provide children twenty minutes of music a week with the music teacher meeting over a thousand children each week.

In attempting to provide more music instruction for children, it is indicated that more of our classroom teachers acquire (1) basic knowledge of music fundamentals, (2) basic skill in music presentation, (3) the realization that music is an important asset and influence and can be an aid in teaching other subjects, (4) confidence in their musical abilities, and (5) the realization that music teaching is not beyond the ability of those who have no musical background and no great musical talent.

The intent of these modules is to provide a self-help guide for prospective teachers to attain a basic, minimal proficiency in reading elementary music. This proficiency involves translating musical notation into song. The piano, since it is commonly available, is the mechanical medium suggested. No attempt is made to require piano playing proficiency or to guide toward correct piano technique. The piano is only a means of finding correct pitch and a tool for translating written music into sound. If the piano-playing can accurately translate notation into sound, the teacher usually can sing this music and, of course add the words to produce a song. This proficiency is difficult. It will require serious application, considerable time, and careful assimilation of facts contained in the packet. However, anyone with a musical background will find it quite elementary.

After the "music reading" proficiency has been attained, some guidelines for teaching songs to elementary and especially primary children are presented. The intent of these guidelines is to provide teaching competencies and to alert the teacher to common errors in presenting songs. Three of these competencies involve somewhat physical as well as mental proficiencies and must be practiced until they become automatic.

The next intent of the modules is to help the intern, by utilizing the acquired proficiencies, actually teach a song to the children, evaluate the "success" of the teaching and prepare to teach other songs. After the first song teaching presentation, more emphasis should be shifted to the aesthetics, the enthusiasm, the feeling and the affective domain of music.
Suggestions For Use and Explanation of Unique Qualities

Since many prospective teachers have little or no musical background, this course must attempt two objectives. First, the prospective teacher will learn to recognize music symbols (read music) and will produce correct musical sounds from these musical symbols. Second, the prospective teacher must have a familiarity with music materials that is suitable for elementary children, and must demonstrate methods of presenting music to children. This, of course, presents a problem similar in scope to teaching a prospective teacher a new language and, at the same time, presenting methods and materials for the prospective teacher to teach the new language. Therefore, it is evident that those interns who have a musical background will find the course relatively easy, and those interns who have no musical background must realize the course will require more time, study, and practice than would many similar courses.

Another possible unique quality or requirement for this course is that any skill, especially motor skills, requiring coordination of eye, voice, fingers, etc., must be continually reviewed and practiced. It cannot be "learned" in one or a few attempts and be dropped when continuing on into the next phase. Each module must be continually reviewed and new material learned as the intern progresses through the entire series of modules. The concepts and skills begun in Module One must be further practiced and improved throughout the following modules. At the completion of this series of modules each intern should have a repertoire of at least ten songs learned from printed music. The intern should not have a familiarity with at least four of the ten songs learned and practiced in this series of modules.
MUSIC FOR ELEMENTARY TEACHERS

MUS-370

GOALS

I. To introduce the intern to music for elementary school children.

II. To enable interns to develop knowledge and skills of an elementary level in music.

III. To enable interns to translate written musical notation of elementary difficulty into song.

IV. To acquaint interns with methods and materials utilized in elementary music instruction.

V. To enable interns to use many of the traditional instruments in elementary music education, i.e., autoharp, tone bells, rhythm instruments, etc.

COMPETENCY GOAL STATEMENTS

Upon completion of this series of modules the intern will:

I. Be able to instruct elementary children in the fundamentals of music.

II. Be able to present songs to children in a classroom situation.

III. Be able to incorporate music and songs into other classroom academic areas such as social studies.

IV. Be able to effectively present listening lessons to children.

Prerequisites

These modules assume that the intern has no background or understanding in written music or notation. However, the abilities to "carry a tune", distinguish between high and low pitch, and understand simple fraction relationships are useful. No further academic prerequisites are required that would not be assumed acquired by a junior in college.
Time

An intern should complete the series of modules within ten weeks.

Resources

Explanation of terminology:

The packet used to explain the contents of the course is entitled Music 370 Self-Help Guide. For brevity it will be referred to simply as "packet" throughout the modules.

The text that is often used for musical material and reinforcing explanations is Music for the Classroom Teacher by Dallin and Winslow published by W.C. Brown, (price - $5.50 in 1973) and will be referred to as "text" throughout the modules.

Practice Rooms

Instruments may be practiced in any room in the Music Building that is not occupied. Practice rooms (small) are on the second floor on the west side. Most rooms are fully utilized and the small practice rooms are assigned and reserved at certain periods but any room that can be found open may be used. The Music Building is open 7:00 A.M. until 10:00 P.M. weekdays, and some hours on Saturdays and Sundays.
Materials

a. Making Music Your Own, published by Silver Burdet, with recordings, this is a "song series" with pupil's books and teacher's manual for each grade, (K-8). Many public schools have these publications, however, if they are not available at the intern's school, they may be checked out from room 106a in the Music Building, Adams State College.

b. Adventures in Music, recorded and published by RCA. A collection of concert recordings with accompanying teacher manuals (grades 1-6) to be used in listening lessons. This series may be found in the Learning Resource Center and in room 106a of the Music Building, Adams State College.

c. Bowmar Orchestral Library, recorded by Bowmar. To be used as listening lessons, has no teacher manual, may be found in the listening room number 106a of the Music Building, Adams State College.

d. Rhythms Today with Recordings, published by Silver Burdet, is a teacher's manual for movement to music (dance) and corresponding records for the music. This may be borrowed for a limited time from room 107 of the Music Building.

If not available at intern's school, a set may be borrowed for a limited time from room 107, Music Building, Adams State College.
Module #1

PITCH, A BASIC ELEMENT OF MUSIC

Time

This module can be completed within 5-7 hours, if this time is distributed throughout the week. Mastery of this module will probably be more difficult, and you will probably need more time to complete this module (8-10 hours) if you attempt to complete this module in one day.

Objectives

Upon the completion of the enabling activities of this module, the intern will:

1. Correctly play on the piano Figures 1, 2, and 3 on pages 4 and 5 of the "Music 370--Self-Help Guide" and play the correct pitches of "Merrily We Roll Along" on page 145 of the text.

2. Recognize the correct letter name of any note on either the bass or treble clef and sound any designated tone or note on the piano.

3. Sing at least one of the songs of either Figure 1, 2, or 3 in the "Music 370--Self-Help Guide".

Enabling Activities

1. Read pages 1, 2, and 3 of the "Music 370--Self-Help Guide".

2. Read the text (pages 96-99) and especially observe the illustration on the top of page 97.

3. Practice on the piano keyboard the notes of Figures 1, 2, and 3 in the "Music 370--Self-Help Guide".

4. Practice on the piano "Merrily We Roll Along", page 145 of the text.

5. Follow the "Suggestions for Skill Practice" on pages 2 and 3 of the "Music 370--Self-Help Guide".

6. Answer the questions in Handout #1.

7. Review the "Criteria Checklist", Handout #2, and utilize this checklist to evaluate yourself on each of the behavioral indicators.
8. Submit the "Criteria Checklist", Handout #2, to your cooperating teacher, team leader, and on-site music instructor. This checklist must be completed, signed, and dated by one of the above persons. After the signing of the "Criteria Checklist", give this checklist to your team leader to keep in his/her records.

Evaluation

The intern will be evaluated on his/her attainment of the objectives of this module by the cooperating teacher, team leader, or on-site instructor through the use of the "Criteria Checklist", Handout #2. (See the specific criteria on this checklist.)
STUDY GUIDE QUESTIONS

The intern should answer the following questions:

1. What is "pitch"?

2. What is the name of the tone on the space above the treble clef?

3. When singing a tune, can you continue to sing without the piano and end on the correct pitch as checked with the piano?

4. What is the name of the pitch produced by striking the white piano key that is on the right side of the "group of two" black keys?
COOPERATING TEACHER, TEAM LEADER, AND ON-SITE INSTRUCTOR

PITCH, A BASIC ELEMENT OF MUSIC

CRITERIA CHECKLIST

This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of Module One. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. If the intern does not meet these criteria, he/she must repeat the enabling activities of Module One until these criteria are attained. Upon meeting the criteria for the behavioral indicators on this checklist, the intern should submit this signed and dated checklist to the team leader to keep in the team leader's music file for each intern.

8. Submit the "Criteria Checklist" for Module #2 to supervisory personnel to rate your attainment of the objectives of Module #2.

Evaluation

The intern will be evaluated on his/her attainment of the objectives of this module by the cooperating teacher, team leader, or on-site music instructor according to the behavioral indicators and criteria on the "Criteria Checklist" for Module #2. The intern can also utilize this checklist for his/her own evaluation before submitting it to a supervisor for rating. The intern should also discuss with a supervisor the meaning and function of each term listed in the first objective of this module.
This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of Module Two. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. If the intern does not meet these criteria, he/she must repeat the enabling activities of Module Two until these criteria are attained. Upon meeting the criteria for the behavioral indicators on this checklist, the intern should submit this signed and dated checklist to the team leader to keep in the team leader's music file for each intern.

The intern will explain and demonstrate the meaning of ♯, ♭, "accidental", and key signature, with emphasis on their functions, to the on-site music instructor or another supervisor. If you wish, you may tape record the above demonstrations and explanations and submit them to the on-site music instructor or college facilitator. He/she will rate your performance according to the "Criteria Checklist" for Module #3.
This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of Module Three. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. Date

PITCH AND DURATION SIMULTANEOUSLY

Time

One week and two days.

Rationale

Pitch and duration have been separately considered in previous modules but, of course, always must be read and played simultaneously in the production of music. The skill of interpreting pitch and correct duration simultaneously requires considerable practice time and application.

Objectives

Upon the completion of the enabling activities of this module, the intern will:

1. Play on the piano the correct durations and pitch of "Bingo", page 7 in the text; "Sweet Betsy", page 62 in the text; "Lavender's Blue", page 102 in the text; and "My Goose" and "Clocks and Watches", page 175 in the text.

2. Play, after a reasonable practice time (15 to 30 minutes), a simple tune that was unfamiliar to the intern when assigned.

3. Sing the above melodies as they are played on the piano.

Enabling Activities

1. Practice the melodies listed in the first objective of this module as found in the text.

2. Practice singing the melodies after you are positive that you are playing them correctly on the piano.

3. Study the text, pages 14-22.

4. Submit "Criteria Checklist" for Module #4 to the on-site music instructor or college facilitator to be rated on the attainment of the objectives of this module.
Evaluation

The intern will perform the tunes listed under Objective One of this module by playing them on the piano and singing them. This performance will be presented to the on-site music instructor or college facilitator.

The on-site music instructor or college facilitator will select (from the text) a tune with which the intern is unfamiliar. The intern will be assigned the tune and, after a reasonable practice time (15 to 30 minutes), will be rated on Behavioral Indicator Six on the "Criteria Checklist" for Module #4.

The intern should review and rate himself/herself on all the behavioral indicators rated on the "Criteria Checklist" for Module #4 before he/she is rated on each behavioral indicator by the on-site music instructor or the college facilitator. Pay particular attention to the stated criteria.
This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of Module Four. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. If the intern does not meet these criteria, he/she must repeat the enabling activities of Module Four until these criteria are attained. Upon meeting the criteria for the behavioral indicators on this checklist, the intern should submit this signed and dated checklist to the team leader to keep in the team leader's music file for each intern.

7. In the opinion of the evaluator, the intern, when singing all of the above tunes, did the following: (Check one.)

   ___ Sang the correct pitch and duration.
   ___ Made some pitch errors.
   ___ Made many pitch errors.
   ___ Sang note values correctly.
   ___ Made some errors in note values.
   ___ Made many errors in note values.

B. Context - Meeting with on-site music instructor or college facilitator.

C. Criteria - The intern should review, repeat, and be rated again on any of the first six behavioral indicators if he/she makes more than three mistakes as observed by the on-site music instructor or the college facilitator.

   The intern should be encouraged to sing by the rater regardless of the number of errors produced and rated on Behavioral Indicator Seven. If the intern cannot correctly sing, and singing seems to be an impossibility for the intern, review may not help the intern’s ability, and he/she should continue into the next modules with the understanding that his/her singing weakness is not inherent, but can be improved by much singing practice in the subsequent modules.

The intern must be able to explain to the on-site instructor the function of dots after notes.
This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of Module Five. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. If the intern does not meet these criteria, he/she must repeat the enabling activities of Module Five until these criteria are attained. Upon meeting the criteria for the behavioral indicators on this checklist, the intern should submit this signed and dated checklist to the team leader to keep in the team leader's music file for each intern.

Modules one through five were presented for the purpose of enabling the intern to translate printed music into correct sound. Module #6 is intended as suggestions and/or guidelines for the presentation of these songs to children.

Time

Eight to ten hours

Objectives

Upon the completion of the enabling activities of this module, the intern will:

1. Present a song by rote to classroom children.
2. When presenting a rote song, apply the "ten commandments" of teaching a rote song.

Enabling Activities

1. Study the "ten commandments" of teaching a rote song in the Music 370-Self Help Guide.
2. Practice the "ten commandments" suggestions.
3. Conduct a trial rote song presentation with other interns or team leader incorporating these "ten commandments" within your presentation.
4. After thorough preparation, present the song(s) to a group of children. Video-tape or tape-record this presentation and use the tape to analyze your presentation(s).

Evaluation

Using the taped presentation, the intern should evaluate his/her presentation using the attached evaluation sheet (Handout #1, Module #6). The on-site instructor should evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of this module by using the criteria checklist (Handout #2, Module #6) as well as the evaluation sheet (Handout #1, Module #6).

This criteria checklist is constructed to evaluate the intern's attainment of the objectives of music module six. The cooperating teacher, team leader, or music on-site instructor should complete the checklist and sign and date it. The intern must meet the criteria or standards as stated below. If the intern does not meet these criteria, he/she must repeat the enabling activities of module six until these criteria are attained. Upon meeting the criteria for the behavioral indicators on this checklist, the intern should submit this signed and dated checklist to the team leader to keep in the team leader's music file for each intern.

A. Behavioral Indicators

1. The intern can list the following number of the "ten commandments" and can explain the reason for each.

2. When teaching a song to a classroom of students the intern demonstrated this number of "commandment" suggestions.

5. Using the evaluation sheet (Handout #1, Module 6) for the intern's song presentation to a classroom of children, the intern's overall rote song presentation would be graded as
B. Context - On-site instructor's, or cooperating teacher's evaluation of intern's presentation of a rote song within an on-going classroom situation.

C. Criteria - The intern should receive a rating of 6 or above on behavioral indicator's one and two on the preceding page. The intern's overall performance should be graded as "C" or above on behavioral indicator three. If the above criteria are not attained by the intern, he/she should repeat the performance of the three behavioral indicators until success is achieved.
