A. During the term of this Agreement, the Administration shall make available to AAUP, within a reasonable time after receiving a request therefor, all information which is reasonably required for the implementation of this Agreement or the negotiation of subsequent Agreements.

B. Within 30 days after receipt of a notice of appointment signed by a new full-time faculty member, the Administration shall provide AAUP with the name, mailing address, rank, base salary, effective date and length of appointment of such new faculty member.

D. Within 15 days after receipt of notice that a full- or part-time faculty member has terminated his appointment at Adelphi for any reason whatsoever, including retirement, disability, or death, the Administration shall provide AAUP with the name of such faculty member.

E. The Administration shall forward to AAUP copies of all termination notices of full-time faculty members at the same time as such notices are sent to the faculty member.

B. The Administration shall use its best efforts to provide AAUP with a suitable office on-campus.

C. The parties will confer at such reasonable times as either party may request to consider problems concerning this Agreement or other matters of mutual concern.

ARTICLE VI
PERSONNEL PLAN AND GOVERNANCE PROVISIONS

A. The Constitution of the Faculty of Adelphi University, including the document pertaining to the University Council, shall provide continuance of existing rights, privileges, and responsibilities of the Faculty to participate directly through the Senate in its own governance and in the initiation of the decisions on educational policy and standards within the University.

B. The Personnel Plan of Adelphi University, including all Appendices thereto, shall provide continuance of existing policies and procedures on Faculty status in all conditions and rights of appointment, reappointment, tenure, promotion, retirement, obligations, and hearings.

C. Amendments to the Constitution and the Personnel Plan shall be made through existing procedures. However, some provisions of these documents affecting terms and conditions of employment may also be modified as specified elsewhere in this Agreement.

D. C. All well-established, generally applicable practices which benefit members of the bargaining unit in a significant manner shall be maintained, unless modified by this Agreement, or by mutual consent. “Generally applicable” as used herein means a practice which has been applied to a well-defined category of faculty members or to a reasonably broad group of faculty members from different departments who share a community of interest. It is understood that this clause does not apply to the size and scheduling of classes, nor does it apply to workload.
ARTICLE VIII
GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

A. Definition of Grievance:
A grievance is a dispute concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement.

B. Settlement of Disputes:
The Administration and the AAUP shall make an earnest effort to resolve potential grievances informally at the departmental level.

C. Formal Grievance Procedure:
1. Step I
The grievant (or the AAUP) shall file a written grievance with the appropriate Dean within one (1) month after the occurrence of the event which gave rise to the dispute. However, if the occurrence of the event is not immediately known to the grievant (or to the AAUP in the case of a broader dispute), the time within which to file a grievance shall commence when the occurrence of the event is discovered by the exercise of due diligence.

The Dean shall hold separate or joint conferences within two (2) weeks after receipt of the grievance to discuss the dispute with all relevant parties, including appropriate department heads, in an attempt to reach a satisfactory settlement.

If the dispute is not settled, the Dean shall, within one (1) week after the conference, deliver to the grievant and the AAUP a signed statement of his position regarding the matter.

2. Step II
The grievant (or the AAUP) shall be entitled to obtain review of the Dean's Step I position by filing a written notice of appeal with the Dean of Faculty within one (1) week after actual receipt of the Dean's written statement of position.

The Dean of Faculty shall hold separate or joint conferences within one (1) week after receipt of the notice of appeal to discuss the dispute with all relevant parties, in an attempt to reach a satisfactory settlement.

If the dispute remains unsettled, the Dean of Faculty shall, within one (1) week after the conference, deliver to the grievant and the AAUP a signed statement of the Administration's position regarding the matter.

3. Step III
If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step II, either the AAUP or the Administration may submit it to final and binding arbitration provided, however, that the right to arbitrate is waived unless the party desiring arbitration notifies the other party, within three (3) weeks after the Administration's Step II position shall have been received by the grievant and the AAUP, of its intention to seek arbitration.
D. Appointment of Permanent Arbitrator:

The parties hereby designate EVA ROBINS to serve as permanent arbitrator of all grievances arising under this Agreement. In the event that Miss Robins declines to serve in such capacity, or resigns, or is unavailable to hear a particular dispute, or otherwise cannot be reached for a period of two (2) weeks after the first attempt, an alternate arbitrator shall be selected for each arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association, and the arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the Voluntary Labor Arbitration Rules of such Association.

E. Cost of Arbitration:

The necessary expenses of arbitration, excluding counsel fees, shall be shared equally by the parties.

F. Excluded Matters:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the following matters, which are governed by existing practices and statutes (e.g. Personnel Plan, Faculty Constitution), shall not be subject to the foregoing grievance and arbitration procedures: disputes relating to termination or suspension of a tenured faculty member or of a non-tenured faculty member during the period of a contract, appointment, reappointment, promotion, academic freedom and tenure.

G. University Grievance Committee:

The provisions of the Personnel Plan relating to the University Grievance Committee shall continue in full force and effect with respect to matters within its jurisdiction thereunder.*

H. Right to Initiate Arbitration and Settle Disputes:

No faculty member covered by this agreement shall have the right to initiate arbitration under the provisions hereof, such right to initiate arbitration being limited to the AAUP and the Administration. In the event that any claim is made at any time by any faculty member against the Administration or the AAUP under the provisions of this Agreement, any agreement or adjustment made by or between the AAUP and the Administration with respect to such dispute shall be final and binding upon the faculty member.

ARTICLE IX
NO STRIKES - NO LOCKOUTS

The Administration shall not engage in any lockout and the AAUP and any employee or employees in the bargaining unit, singly or in concert, shall not authorize, condone or engage in any strike, slow-down, picketing, cessation of work or other interference with the business of the University during the life of the Agreement.*

APPENDIX B

EQUALIZATION ALLOCATION FORMULA

The salaries for 1973-74 shall be computed in the following manner: Each faculty member who was at Adelphi in both 1972-73 and 1973-74 shall have his 1972-73 base salary increased by 5.5%. Faculty members who were promoted effective in the Fall of 1973 shall have the sum of $500 added to the salary so increased. Faculty newly hired in the Fall of 1973 shall have salaries assigned by the Administration. Once those numbers have been computed in the aforementioned manner, the sum of $50,000 equalization money shall be added to certain faculty base salaries by the following three-step procedure.

Step One: All faculty shall be divided into groups based on rank and years in rank at Adelphi, so that within a given group, all faculty will have been in rank at Adelphi for the same number of years. An exception is made for those in rank for long periods of time: for Assistant Professors, those in rank at Adelphi 8 years or longer are combined into one group; for Associate Professors, this is done for those in rank at Adelphi 10 years or longer; and for Professors, 11 years or longer. For all faculty (except library faculty) whose base year is longer than nine months, the base salary shall be multiplied (for computational purposes only) by a fraction equal to 9/n times their base salaries, where n is the number of months in their annual contracts. For each group the average (mean) salary shall now be computed. For all faculty who are below the mean within their groups, the amount of money necessary to bring them to the mean shall be calculated, and the total sum (A) necessary to bring all the full-time members of the bargaining unit to their respective means shall be computed. It is anticipated that this sum will be well above $50,000. The amounts of money necessary to apply steps two and three (see below) shall be subtracted from the $50,000 to give a difference B. The fraction B/A represents what percentage of the money needed to increase all salaries below the respective means to those means is in fact available. Each faculty member who is below the mean of his group (except for new faculty members, who will receive no equalization money at all in 1973-74) will now receive an additional sum calculated by multiplying the amount necessary to bring him to the mean by the fraction B/A. It is anticipated that this fraction will be between 0.3 and 0.4. Faculty who are above their respective means will receive no equalization money in Step 1.

Step Two: The faculty shall be regrouped into categories by rank and years in rank (as of 1973-74) as follows:

Instructors

a. Years 1 and 2
b. Years 3 and 4
c. Years 5 and 6
d. More than 6 years

Assistant Professors

a. Years 1, 2, 3
b. Years 4, 5, 6, 7
c. Years 8, 9, 10, 11
d. More than 11 years

Associate Professors

a. Years 1, 2, 3, 4
b. Years 5, 6, 7, 8
c. Years 9, 10, 11, 12, 13
d. More than 13 years

Professors

a. Years 1 - 5
b. Years 6 - 10
c. More than 10 years

The average (mean) salary (after the application of Step 1) for each category will then be computed. Within each rank, if a faculty member in category (b) has a salary (after the application of Step 1) lower than the average computed for category (a) for the same rank, his salary shall be brought up to that average. Similarly, faculty members in category (c) with averages lower than the category (b) average, shall be brought to that average, and so on.

Step Three: In a few individual cases where necessary because of extreme discrepancies (Assistant Professors - Year 3 and Associate Professors - Year 7), salaries of faculty members (after the application of Steps 1 and 2) will be brought up to 5% less than the average salary (before the application of Steps 1 and 2) of the group which has the same rank, but one year less experience in that rank at Adelphi. It is anticipated that Step 3 will affect four individuals.

Each faculty member who is entitled to equalization money in Steps 1, 2 and/or 3 shall have these sums added to the base salary as previously computed (1972-73 base plus 5.5% plus $500 for promotion), regardless of the number of months in his annual contract. Faculty members on leave without salary in 1973-74 shall not receive any of the $50,000 equalization money; but the appropriate amounts shall be calculated for them so... that a base can be established for future years.

The procedures for the determination of 1974-75 and 1975-76 salaries shall be similar to that outlined above, in a manner to be agreed upon by the Administration and the AAUP. The sums of $40,000 and $30,000 shall be applied towards equalization in 1974-75 and 1975-76, respectively. The equalization money shall not be applied to new faculty entering Adelphi in any year, but shall apply to all eligible faculty who are in at least their second year at Adelphi in 1974-75 and 1975-76.

APPENDIX C WORKLOAD

I. STANDARD PRACTICES

A. General

The workload shall be four courses or twelve hours per semester (credit or contact hours whichever is existing practice, except as modified herein), except as listed below.

1. The approval of the appropriate Dean and the Dean of Faculty will be required for the granting of additional teaching credits per course beyond the stated amount of teaching credit. This shall not apply to laboratories.

2. Each faculty member should hold at least four (4) office hours distributed across the day and week as best to serve the interest of students. These office hours should be posted. At times of advisement, additional hours shall be scheduled.

3. Each faculty member should maintain a significant presence on the campus for teaching, office hours, committee work, research, etc. Common University practice is the equivalent of four (4) working days.

4. Each faculty member shall: participate in planning activities, student advising, committee work, registration, faculty and department meetings and activities prior to the opening of each term as well as during the term; meet administrative requirements as to record keeping; sending information promptly to Registrar, Bursar, etc.; following each term, submit grades, counsel academically delinquent students, and participate in Commencements.

5. Undergraduate and graduate courses are to be taught on weekdays and occasionally on weekends between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 p.m. To prevent slighting any group of our students we believe full-time faculty should share in teaching across that period in reasonably arranged schedules.

6. Underload in the Fall semester shall be made up by overload in the Spring. If underload is more than made up by overload the next semester, then there will be cash payment for such additional overload. If overload or Independent Study or its equivalent payments are made for the Fall, there should be deduction from salary in the Spring if the faculty member has an underload in the Spring. The amount of deduction shall not exceed the amount of overload payments. Except at the discretion of the Administration, no faculty member who has been granted released time shall simultaneously carry an overload.

At the discretion of the Administration and the agreement of the particular faculty member involved, cash payments may be substituted for the released time listed below.

B. College of Arts and Sciences

II SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS

A. No faculty member shall be compensated or given credit for student advisement. Except in those cases where advisement is an integral part of the student's program (i.e. Social Work), advisement should be part of faculty responsibility in addition to regular teaching assignments.

B. No faculty member shall be compensated for more than five students in Independent Study per semester.

C. Faculty members with underloads in a given semester shall undertake Independent Study.
   1. Before it is assigned to a faculty member carrying a full load provided it is within the area of the faculty member's expertise and the student is willing.
2. Without additional compensation.
3. Six students taking 3 credits each of Independent Study shall equal one course (this waives the limit of 5 Independent Study students per semester).

D. Certain special assignments may, at the discretion of the Administration, carry compensation in addition to salary. This extra compensation shall not, however, be considered part of base salary.

E. Faculty compensation for Independent Study, or its equivalent, shall be as follows:

- 11 or more semesters teaching experience: $150 per student
- 6 - 10 semesters teaching experience: $128 per student
- Less than 6 semesters teaching experience: $113 per student

F. Faculty who supervise master's or doctoral research shall be compensated at the same rate as in paragraph E, provided that the student has officially registered for such research. Compensation for a given student in a given course shall be limited to two semesters for a Master's and six for a doctoral (one or more of these semesters may be a summer session).

G. Faculty members shall not be compensated for Independent Study or master's or doctoral research unless they have a full teaching load. If a faculty member does not have enough teaching to bring him up to the base load then independent study or its equivalent may be added to his load at the rate of six students = one course.

H. If any teaching or other services are to be required by the Administration in the January intersession, they shall be paid for at rates to be mutually agreed upon by the AAUP and the Administration.
