This manual is designed for the use of ESL students in the language laboratory. The manual consists of 30 lessons, each between 5 and 10 minutes in length. Every fifth lesson, beginning with lesson 10, is a review lesson. The emphasis is on punctuation. For a 15-week course, the materials are designed to be used twice a week during the regular language laboratory session. The instructor should be prepared to devote 10 to 15 minutes to each lesson, including correction time. The students should be able to correct their own errors and chart their own progress, and therefore minimal teacher supervision is required. (Author/AM)

PROGRESS CHART

ANSWERS
INTRODUCTION

This set of materials is designed for the foreign student of English in the language laboratory. It consists of thirty lessons, each being of between five and 10 minutes in length. These materials are to be used as a supplement to the writing section for the intensive students in the English Language Institute at the University of Pittsburgh. The student:

1st: Listens carefully to a lesson concerning a particular convention in the mechanics of writing. The student will be able to read along in his manual as he listens to the explanation. (Between 3-5 minutes in length)

2nd: An exercise concerning the particular point in the lesson, as well as a number of previous points, is provided. This exercise usually consists of a dictation or sentences to punctuate. Every fifth lesson is a review lesson, beginning with Lesson 10.

3rd: When the student has completed an exercise, he is then instructed to turn to the Answer Key which is located at the back of the manual. All points to be emphasized are underlined to facilitate student correction. After the student has corrected his own work, he is then instructed to place his NUMBER RIGHT in the space provided, and then to compile his PERCENTAGE. The percentage, in turn, is to be marked on the PROGRESS CHART which is located at the front of the Answer Key. The progress chart is provided as an additional motivational factor for the student. Some assistance from the lab instructor will be necessary, especially for the beginning lessons.

For a 15-week course, the materials are designed to be used twice a week during the regular language laboratory session. The instructor should be prepared to devote from 10 - 15 minutes per lesson, including correction time. The students should be able to correct their own errors and chart their own progress with facility. Minimal teacher supervision is required.

Additional Directions for corrections are included following Lesson 10 and Lesson 20.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Throughout this project, the staff of the language laboratory has been exceptionally helpful and encouraging. They have patiently taped all of the following 30 lessons, and were kind enough to lend their voices from time to time. Along with Walter Davison, Director; and Sharon Hawryluk, Assistant Director; I would like to thank Dorothea Gottlieb, Thomas Huebner, John Nesgoda, Charles Mitchell, Martin Burns, Lois Wilson, William Hendricks, and Daniel Doorn, who have all contributed to this project.

Christina Bratt Paulston, Director, English Language Institute; and Mary Newton Bruder, Assistant Director; have offered numerous ideas and suggestions for improvement. Judith Kettering was instrumental in improving the final revision. Karen Billingsley typed the final copy beautifully.

Dear Mary

Paul and I have just returned from a wonderful vacation in France and Germany. We left on June 7th and returned last Sunday. Did you know that we were going to Europe?

I must tell you that the best way to go is by ship. We sailed across the Atlantic Ocean in only three days, and we had such a good time. An important Chinese official sat at our table the first night, and we enjoyed playing cards with him afterwards. We also met a Spanish diplomat, a German officer, and an Italian playboy. Wow! There were 8,500 passengers in all.

However, the trip was more expensive than we had planned. We had saved 2,500 and we spent more than that.

When do you plan to visit us? We have a lot of pictures to show you.

Please write soon.

Love,

Walt

Dear Mary,

Paul and I have just returned from a wonderful vacation in France and Germany. We left on June 7th and returned last Sunday. Did you know that we were going to Europe?

I must tell you that the best way to go is by ship. We sailed across the Atlantic Ocean in only three days, and we had such a good time! An important Chinese official sat at our table the first night, and we enjoyed playing cards with him afterwards. We also met a Spanish diplomat, a German officer, and an Italian playboy. Wow! There were 8,500 passengers in all.

However, the trip was more expensive than we had planned. We had saved 2,500 and we spent more than that.

When do you plan to visit us? We have a lot of pictures to show you.

Please write soon.

Love,

Walt
