This paper is part 3 of Research Department Report Number 123, "Exploring the T.R.Q.: An Assessment of the Effectiveness of the Teachers' Rating Questionnaire," which gave questionnaire users information necessary to tailor the instrument to their own needs. Retention of TRQ questions which generated good distributions of teacher ratings and which were nonredundant in relationship to other questions resulted in a standard form suitable for general applications. This supplement presents information about item selection along with a complete set of the four TRQ administration booklets as revised for (1) kindergarten, (2) grade 1, (3) grade 2, and (4) grade 3+. TRIMMING THE TRQ
(Revised forms of the TRQ for Toronto use)

In part three of Research Department Report #123, Exploring the TRQ, the questions of the Teachers' Rating Questionnaire were examined according to a number of criteria and those with particular weaknesses were pointed out. Although the attitude taken in the report is that the user of the questionnaire could use the information provided to tailor the TRQ to his own purposes, there is also some value in advancing a standard form of the questionnaire suitable for general application. Those who have read #123 may wish to know a little about the actual item selections, and for them the following few pages were prepared.

Table 1 presents a list of questions from the kindergarten, grade one and grade two versions of the TRQ which are recommended for removal, (none are removed from grade 3+). The reasons for removing the questions are varied. Some of the questions generate poor distributions of teachers' ratings (as observed in Figures 12 - 15 of Report #123). Others are part of highly redundant clusters of questions (in these cases, the question with the best distribution and relationship to other questions was retained).

Because the questions in the physical sections of the TRQ were universally bad by all criteria, there is good reason to consider removing them as well. Furthermore, the physical section of one questionnaire had little relationship with the physical section of the other two. Removing the physical section items will also further standardize the questionnaire as the same three sections will remain on all four TRQ versions (kindergarten to grade 3+).

Table 2 shows the questions comprising the three sections on each of the four TRQ versions, which are advanced as the standard form.

The kindergarten questionnaire was the first attempt at developing the TRQ. In the history of the development of this instrument (see Research Report #981) a revision of the kindergarten questionnaire is mentioned. Because of the feedback received from teachers and because of the problems encountered with the kindergarten questionnaire, a major change in format was decided upon. In the original kindergarten questionnaire a general structure for the rating scale was provided, followed by the stems or items that were to be used. It was discovered that much more specific guidelines were needed for each and every item. Indeed it may be the absence of these specific guidelines which account for the fact that the kindergarten questionnaire had the lowest estimated reliability.

1 McLeod, D. B., & Wright, E. N. Parents' occupations, student's mother tongue and immigrant status: further analyses of the every student survey data. Toronto: The Board of Education for the City of Toronto, September, 1971, (#98).
In trimming the TRQ it was decided that items from the revised questionnaire, which later came to be called the June Questionnaire, would be used since this was the format followed for all future forms. The numbering and organization of the June Questionnaire was very different and no suitable matches were found for question numbers 35, 38, 40, 3, 10 and 13 and these items were dropped. The reader who may have access to the June Questionnaire cannot use its numbering to refer to the content, but would have to cross reference with the list of items provided at the end of Report #123.2

Item #9 had no suitable match but it was retained and a set of criteria statements were provided for it.

Following this text is a complete set of the TRQ administration booklets as revised for kindergarten, grades 1, 2 and 3.

Instructions

Specific criteria for you to follow in the rating of each question are stated in detail. These criteria provide the best means of obtaining uniform thinking regarding ratings, both for various pupils and for various teachers at various times of the year. These detailed criteria actually will assist in completing the rating questionnaire quickly and easily as you rate more of the students in your class.

1. Please read each question carefully.

2. Decide from your own knowledge the ratings for each pupil.

3. Record the rating for each pupil for every question.
SECTION ONE

1. Pronounces words well enough to be understood.

   Rate 0  - if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
   - if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

   Rate 2  - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when teaching, or
   - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.

   Rate 4  - speaks as described in question.

   Rate 6  - often speaks with clarity and fluency.

   Rate 8  - consistently speaks with clarity and fluency.

2. Identifies by name the following colours: red, yellow, blue, green, black, white.

   Rate 0  - cannot identify by name any of the colours listed.

   Rate 2  - identifies by name some of the colours listed.

   Rate 4  - identifies the colours described in question.

   Rate 6  - identifies by name the colours listed plus orange, brown, purple, pink, gray.

   Rate 8  - identifies by name all colours listed in "Rate 6" plus other blends and shades - e.g., turquoise, mauve, gold.

3. Can count up to five objects, people, or things in a picture.

   Rate 0  - cannot do any rational counting, or
   - gets mixed up when counting objects, etc. (omissions and reversals).

   Rate 2  - counts objects correctly to some point below 5 (e.g., consistently counts 4 objects or people but gets mixed up after 4).

   Rate 4  - counts as described in question.

   Rate 6  - consistently counts up to 10 objects, etc.

   Rate 8  - consistently counts more than 10 objects, etc.
4. Day-to-day speech shows some understanding of time concepts (e.g., day, week, month, year, hour, summer, fall, etc.).

Rate 0  - if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
         - if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.
         - speech shows no understanding of these concepts.

Rate 2  - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
         - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by
         "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.
         - speech displays limited understanding of these concepts or generally confused ideas about these concepts.

Rate 4  - speaks as described in question.

Rate 6  - uses many such words and displays good understanding of them.

Rate 8  - displays superior understanding of these and other concepts, e.g., earlier, later, yesterday, tomorrow.
SECTION TWO

5. Gets along with classmates in most of the daily activities (both activity period and teacher guided or directed situations) without a great deal of help from the teacher.

Rate 0  - even with teacher help, has little or no ability to get along with others (shows temper, pushes, snatches, very excitable, shy, timid, or distractible).

Rate 2  - is dependent on "special" classmates or the teacher, or
- can only get along with others in specific situations or specific activities, or
- is very inconsistent from day to day in ability to get along with others.

Rate 4  - acts as described in question.

Rate 6  - frequently gets along independently with classmates in most of the daily activities.

Rate 8  - consistently gets along independently with classmates in all of the daily activities.

6. Often accepts social responsibility connected with the activity period - takes reasonable care of equipment, helps others voluntarily or upon request, respects property and work of others.

Rate 0  - accepts no social responsibility in the activity period.

Rate 2  - frequently needs a great deal of teacher help to act responsibly, or
- can only accept social responsibility in a few situations, or
- is very inconsistent from day to day in acceptance of social responsibility in the activity period.

Rate 4  - acts as described in question.

Rate 6  - independently accepts social responsibility in activity periods.

Rate 8  - consistently and independently accepts social responsibility in activity periods.
7. Remains interested in an occasional self-chosen activity for about thirty minutes (e.g., painting, block building, doll house).

Rate 0  - tears around in aimless manner when free to choose own occupation.

Rate 2  - activity displays some direction but powers of concentration and length of attention seldom last for more than fifteen minutes.

Rate 4  - acts as described in question.

Rate 6  - frequently remains interested in a self-chosen activity for thirty minutes.

Rate 8  - frequently remains interested for thirty minutes or more in a variety of self-chosen activities.

8. Remains interested and attentive for the duration of many teacher guided group activities.

Rate 0  - is seldom interested or attentive (apathetic, day dreams, always tired, distractible, etc.) during group activities, or
- consistently needs teacher help with self-control (pushes, squirms, pokes, interrupts, easily excited, silly behaviour, etc.).

Rate 2  - frequently needs teacher help to maintain self-control or to overcome distractions during group activities, or
- remains interested and attentive only for the duration of one or two daily activities, or
- generally short interest and attention span, or
- frequently day dreams and displays poor listening ability.

Rate 4  - acts a described in question.

Rate 6  - remains interested and attentive for the duration of most group activities without teacher help.

Rate 8  - integrates productive self-direction with teacher guidance for the duration of all group activities.
9. Sometimes completes on own initiative a colouring, painting, pasting, box sculpture project from the previous day.

   Rate 0  - never on own initiative works on such projects throughout one activity period.
   Rate 2  - on own initiative works on such projects throughout one activity period.
   Rate 4  - works as described in question.
   Rate 6  - frequently on own initiative completes such projects from the previous day.
   Rate 8  - can accomplish the requirements for "Rate 6" with a variety of media.

10. Solves own problems with regard to rules, routines, materials and equipment, seeking and/or accepting help when it is really needed.

   Rate 0  - seldom attempts to solve own problems, or generally seeks a great deal of help from others in making decisions or solving problems.
   Rate 2  - solves own problems only in specific situations, or attempts to solve own problems are generally immature (forgets much about routines, little carry-over evident from previous experiences, very dependent on others, overanxious about mistakes, limited ability to reason, stick to a project, etc.).
   Rate 4  - acts as described in question.
   Rate 6  - usually solves own problems independently in a wide variety of situations.
   Rate 8  - consistently solves own problems suitably in all daily situations.
11. Frequently follows directions in many games or routine situations.

Rate 0
- seldom follows directions, or
- generally needs to have directions repeated.

Rate 2
- rarely follows directions without teacher help, or
- only follows directions in a few specific situations, or
- very inconsistent in ability to follow directions.

Rate 4
- follows directions as described in question.

Rate 6
- frequently carries out directions independently in a wide variety of situations.

Rate 8
- consistently carries out complicated directions independently in all situations (e.g., "If you are sitting beside a boy, are wearing short sleeves, have a name that begins like the work 'big', then hop on two feet and get into the line").

12. Has sufficient emotional stability to accept and carry out the requirements of many of the daily routines (coatroom, washroom, juice, rest, tidying up, changing for physical education, etc.).

Rate 0
- consistently ignores requirements of routines, or
- reacts adversely (temper, refusal, etc.) to the requirements of most routines, or
- cannot carry out the requirements of any routines without teacher help.

Rate 2
- reacts adversely to specific routines, or
- independently can only accept and/or remember a few requirements of routines, or
- is inconsistent from day to day in reaction to routines, or
- often needs teacher help to carry out the requirements of rules and routines.

Rate 4
- acts as described in question.

Rate 6
- independently remembers and carries out the requirements of most of the daily routines.

Rate 8
- dependably and independently remembers and carries out the requirements of all the daily rules and routines.
13. Controls temper in many situations.

Rate 0  - if temper tantrums ever occur.
Rate 2  - frequent loss of temper (not tantrum), or
  - frequently irritable, or
  - consistently irritable in specific situations or activities, or
  - inconsistent in control of temper.
Rate 4  - acts as described in question.
Rate 6  - consistently controls temper.
Rate 8  - controls temper and also deals sensibly with emotional situations.
SECTION THREE

14. Speaks in simple sentences that can be easily understood.

Rate 0
- if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
- if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

Rate 2
- if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
- if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.
- seldom willing to speak, or
- only speaks in a few specific situations, or
- speech is generally lacking in fluency (e.g., "I um saw, um um a fire truck um on the way um um to school."), or
- cannot speak in simple sentence form (one or two word answers).

Rate 4
- speaks as described in question.

Rate 6
- often uses organized descriptive sentences about people, things or actions - e.g., "I see the little dog running down the road after the boy."

Rate 8
- consistently uses organized descriptive sentences displaying superior vocabulary and structure.
15. Coherently tells stories about and/or describes concrete materials in the classroom (e.g., own handwork, large pictures used for picture study, science materials, articles or toys brought from home).

Rate 0
- if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
- if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

Rate 2
- if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
- if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects,
- seldom will attempt to tell a story about or describe concrete materials, or
- attempts are limited to one or two sentences, or
- attempts are often rambling, or
- attempts are repetitive - e.g., "Do you know what, well that's a house and do you know what, the boy is...", etc.

Rate 4
- speaks as described in question.

Rate 6
- coherently tells stories about and/or describes many different concrete materials.

Rate 8
- displays ability to speak logically and sequentially and to originate suitable beginnings, endings and explanations for stories.
16. Coherently relates or describes incidents (e.g., home, trips, coming to school, etc.).

   Rate 0  - if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
            - if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

   Rate 2  - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
            - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.
            - seldom will attempt to relate or describe incidents or
            - attempts are limited to one or two sentences, or
            - attempts are often rambling, or
            - attempts are repetitive.

   Rate 4  - speaks as described in question.

   Rate 6  - coherently relates or describes a variety of incidents.

   Rate 8  - displays ability to speak logically and sequentially and to originate suitable beginnings and endings for descriptions of incidents.

17. Talks freely and fluently in many expected situations (usual daily activities) without signs of extreme tension (agitated; high pitched shaky voice; twisting of clothes, stuttering, crying, etc.).

   Rate 0  - displays extreme tension in most situations.

   Rate 2  - often displays extreme tension, or
            - consistently displays tension in specific situations (e.g., when being disciplined; when something unexpected occurs; when asked to follow directions, to decide what to do, etc.).

   Rate 4  - reacts as described in question.

   Rate 6  - free of tension in both expected and unexpected situations (visitors to room, getting hurt, etc.).

   Rate 8  - reacts to and expresses self in both expected and unexpected situations without tension.
18. Creates stories, around any idea.

Rate 0  - if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
         - if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

Rate 2  - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
         - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.
         - seldom attempts to create stories, or
         - attempts are limited to a few words, or
         - attempts are usually incoherent, rambling, or "silly".

Rate 4  - ability as described in question.

Rate 6  - can create well organized stories, around many ideas.

Rate 8  - superior ability to create stories, around many ideas.

19. Sometimes expresses own ideas in relation to the daily activities (e.g., discussion, story, game, dramatization, music, activity period).

Rate 0  - if the child cannot or will not speak at all in the situation(s) outlined in the question, or
         - if the child has unintelligible speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question.

Rate 2  - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired due to extreme tension, mannerisms, stuttering, stammering when talking, or
         - if the child's speech in the situation(s) outlined in the question is consistently impaired by "baby talk" substitutions, limited English vocabulary, physical defects.
         - seldom willing or able to express own ideas, or
         - generally displays inability to stick to the subject.

Rate 4  - speaks as described in question.

Rate 6  - expresses own ideas in organized sentences in relation to many different activities.

Rate 8  - displays superior ability to express own ideas in relation to all the daily activities.
20. Consistently decides on own initiative what to do within the prescribed boundaries of the activity period.

Rate 0  - never can decide on own initiative what to do during the activity period.

Rate 2  - frequently needs help from the teacher to decide what to do, or
- is always indecisive,
- usually chooses the same kind of activity or "easy activities", or
- often displays annoyance, sulkiness, etc. if not given first choice or if there is a need to make an alternate choice.

Rate 4  - acts as described in question.

Rate 6  - choices display desire for wide variety of activities and experiences from day to day.

Rate 8  - choices display desire for wide variety of activities and ability to plan ahead, stating project to be undertaken, method to be used, etc. (e.g., "I'm going to make a cage for a lion with boxes and wood. I'm going to use straws for the bars and cut out a lion to put in it and then I'll paint the cage" or "I'm going to paint a picture about the postman and then I'm going to the blocks").

21. Sometimes follows the line of thought throughout discussions, stories, experience planning, etc.

Rate 0  - never follows one line of thought throughout any activity.

Rate 2  - seldom follows one line of thought throughout any activity, or
- only follows one line of thought throughout the shortest activities or in a few specific activities.

Rate 4  - follows the line of thought as described in question.

Rate 6  - frequently follows the line of thought throughout most of the daily activities.

Rate 8  - consistently and independently follows the line of thought throughout all the daily activities.
22. Thinks logically about or can explain pictures, things, rules, own ideas (reasons, makes deductions or inferences).

   Rate 0  - seldom thinks logically or explains.
   Rate 2  - sometimes thinks logically in specific situations.
   Rate 4  - thinks as described in question.
   Rate 6  - frequently thinks logically and makes explanations in most situations.
   Rate 8  - consistently thinks logically and makes explanations in a superior manner (cause and effect relations: e.g., "my leg hurts because I fell down").

23. Expresses different opinions and own ideas during discussion times and the activity period.

   Rate 0  - always too timid, shy or afraid to differ from others, or
           - consistently displays unpleasant manner or behaviour when differing from others.
   Rate 2  - needs a great deal of encouragement to express differing ideas and own opinions, or
           - sometimes displays unpleasant manner, or
           - is very inconsistent from day to day in ability to differ pleasantly.
   Rate 4  - acts as described in question.
   Rate 6  - always willing to express different opinions and own ideas in a pleasant manner.
   Rate 8  - differing ideas and own opinions are constructive and are offered with due regard for the efforts, rights, and opinions of others.
ADMINISTRATION BOOKLET

TEACHERS' RATING QUESTIONNAIRE

(Grade 1)

Revised Form 1974

Instructions

Specific criteria for you to follow in the rating of each question are stated in detail. These criteria provide the best means of obtaining uniform thinking regarding ratings, both for various pupils and for various teachers at various times of the year. These detailed criteria actually will assist in completing the rating questionnaire quickly and easily as you rate more of the students in your class.

1. Please read each question carefully.

2. Decide from your own knowledge the ratings for each pupil.

3. Record the rating for each pupil for every question.
SECTION ONE

1. Shows evidence of good ability to listen and absorb content in the daily programme (e.g. - by remembering facts about stories and poems read by the teacher, by learning songs).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rate 0</th>
<th>little or no attempt to listen or absorb content of programme.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Rate 2</td>
<td>content absorbed is very limited due to easy distractibility, short attention span, or memory.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rate 4</td>
<td>can listen attentively for a lesson period and remember most of the content.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rate 6</td>
<td>could listen attentively beyond a lesson period and remember most of the content.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rate 8</td>
<td>could listen attentively beyond a lesson period and appropriately apply the content of the lesson to other situations.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Has sufficient mental maturity to do some productive work (review lessons, new lessons and seatwork, etc.) at the current classroom level in reading.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rate 0</th>
<th>generally well below Grade 1 level in reading, or reading vocabulary very limited.</th>

<tr>
<td>Rate 8</td>
<td>reading ability has gone beyond the Grade 1 expectations.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3. With a minimum of teacher help, frequently follows the current topic in a discussion, story or reading period.

Rate 0 - with or without teacher help, can seldom do what is required in the situations involved in the question, because:
- interrupts frequently with unrelated ideas due to attention seeking, immaturity of thought or lack of experience, or
- consistently daydreams or displays apathetic attitude, or
- is extremely distractible, or
- has very limited English language skills, or
- has inability to think logically and sequentially, to make inferences and deductions.

Rate 2 - performance is often impaired due to factors mentioned for 0 above, or
- is very inconsistent (swings from good to poor performance) in doing what is required in the situations outlined in the question.

Rate 4 - has ability to follow current topic as described in the question.

Rate 6 - seldom needs any teacher help to follow the topic and can make relevant contributions to the situations outlined in the question.

Rate 8 - consistently makes superior and relevant contributions to the situations outlined in the question.

4. With a minimum of teacher help, can set and follow some relevant purposes for reading each story and for planning each group or classroom activity.

Rate 0 - even with teacher guidance, cannot set purposes or goals.

Rate 2 - with or without teacher guidance, can seldom set purposes.
- can only set purposes in certain situations, or
- is very inconsistent in ability to set purposes.

Rate 4 - can set and follow purposes as described in the question.

Rate 6 - consistently sets, follows and achieves relevant purposes for reading and other activities.

Rate 8 - establishes a series of relevant purposes and derives appropriate information for them.
5. Frequently attempts to solve own problems in connection with most seatwork, directions, rules, routines and classroom equipment.

- Rate 0 - seldom attempts to solve own problems in any situation, or needs a great deal of teacher help to solve problems.

- Rate 2 - can only solve own problems in a few situations, or will attempt to solve problems but efforts are very immature, or is very inconsistent in attempts to solve own problems, frequently swings from good to bad attempts.

- Rate 4 - attempts to solve own problems as described in the question.

- Rate 6 - frequently solves own problems connected with the situations outlined in the question.

- Rate 8 - consistently solves own problems with superior performance in the situations outlined in the question.

Rate 0  - generally shows little or no interest in teacher-directed activities.

Rate 2  - shows some interest in only a few teacher-directed activities.

Rate 4  - responds as described in the question.

Rate 6  - is responsive towards most teacher-directed activities and usually makes positive contributions.

Rate 8  - is responsive towards most teacher-directed activities and usually makes positive contributions beyond the Grade 1 expectations.
Instructions

Specific criteria for you to follow in the rating of each question are stated in detail. These criteria provide the best means of obtaining uniform thinking regarding ratings, both for various pupils and for various teachers at various times of the year. These detailed criteria actually will assist in completing the rating questionnaire quickly and easily as you rate more of the students in your class.

1. Please read each question carefully.

2. Decide from your own knowledge the ratings for each pupil.

3. Record the rating for each pupil for every question.
SECTION ONE

1. Shows evidence of good ability to listen and absorb content in the daily programme. (Remembers facts, learns songs, remembers sequence of events in a story, etc.)

   Rate 0 - little or no attempt to listen or absorb content of programme.
   Rate 2 - can listen for only part of the lesson period and absorbs very little.
   Rate 4 - shows evidence of good ability to listen and absorb content in the daily programme.
   Rate 6 - could listen attentively beyond a lesson period and remember most of the content.
   Rate 8 - could listen attentively beyond a lesson period, remember most of the content, and apply the content of the lesson to other situations.

2. Reads silently with comprehension.

   Rate 0 - reading vocabulary very limited, reads with little or no comprehension, little progress being made.
   Rate 2 - reads silently with good word recognition and comprehension at bottom level of class.
   Rate 4 - reads silently with good word recognition and comprehension at middle level of class.
   Rate 6 - reads silently with good word recognition and comprehension at top level of class.
   Rate 8 - reads silently with good word recognition and comprehension above Grade 2 level; reads story books on his own.

3. Oral reading has fluency and correct phrasing; conveys meaning to listeners.

   Rate 0 - word by word reading; conveys little or no meaning to listeners.
   Rate 2 - can read at bottom level of the class with fluency and correct phrasing; conveys meaning.
   Rate 4 - can read at middle level of the class with fluency and correct phrasing; conveys meaning.
   Rate 6 - can read at top level of the class with fluency and correct phrasing; conveys meaning.
   Rate 8 - can read beyond Grade 2 level with fluency and correct phrasing; conveys meaning.
4. Is acquiring auditory-visual word attack skills in the following areas:
- identifying rhyming words
- identifying initial consonant sounds
- identifying final consonant sounds
- identifying initial two-letter consonant blends
- identifying vowel sounds
- making consonant substitutions
  (a) initial
  (b) final

Rate 0 - has very limited auditory skills and few or no auditory-visual skills.

Rate 2 - has some auditory-visual skills, but performance is inconsistent; has not acquired auditory-visual skills in most areas listed in question.

Rate 4 - shows evidence of acquiring the auditory-visual word attack skills listed in the question.

Rate 6 - has acquired the auditory-visual word attack skills listed in the question.

Rate 8 - has acquired more auditory-visual word attack skills than those listed above.

   Rate 6 - often shows some ability to integrate self-direction with guidance from the teacher.
   Rate 8 - consistently shows outstanding ability to integrate self-direction with guidance from the teacher.

14. Usually shows ability to control temper and avoids showing irritability in most situations.
   Rate 0 - frequently loses temper and shows irritability in many situations.
   Rate 2 - occasionally loses temper and shows irritability in some situations.
   Rate 4 - usually shows ability to control temper and avoids showing irritability in most situations.
   Rate 6 - consistently shows above average ability to control temper and avoids showing irritability in most situations.
   Rate 8 - consistently shows superior ability to control temper and avoids showing irritability in all situations.
15. Usually reacts to situations without mannerisms or tensions.

Rate 0  - consistently displays many nervous mannerisms or extreme tension.

Rate 2  - often displays nervous mannerisms or extreme tension.

Rate 4  - usually reacts to situations without mannerisms or extreme tension.

Rate 6  - consistently free of mannerisms and tensions.

Rate 8  - superior poise in all situations.

16. Usually shows willingness to attempt new challenges and tasks independently.

Rate 0  - usually avoids new challenges or tasks, or
- may cry when confronted with a new task, or
- consistently works at one thing to the point of exhaustion.

Rate 2  - needs much encouragement to attempt a new challenge or task, or
- needs help when attempting a new challenge or task.

Rate 4  - usually shows willingness to attempt new challenges and tasks independently.

Rate 6  - consistently attempts new challenges and tasks independently.

Rate 8  - attempts all new challenges and tasks independently with interest and performs beyond Grade 2 expectations.

17. Can tell a story about a picture. (printed picture or own creative picture)

Rate 0 - only names objects in picture.
(e.g., I see a ball. There is a dog.)

Rate 2 - relates only the action illustrated in the picture.
(e.g., The boy has a ball. He is throwing it to the dog.)
