ABSTRACT

Part of the Syracuse (New York) city school district's guided occupational orientation program, the student workbook consists of information and question sheets suitable for grade 6 career education studies on topics in the labor field, including labor laws, wages, and unions; job applications and interviews; on-the-job training; and social security. (MF)
1. Arrange the following types of jobs in the labor field according to size. Put the largest job area at the top and the smallest at the bottom.

   Skilled  Technical  Laborers  Clerical  Semi-skilled

Largest and fastest growing:

Smallest and growing the least:

Put T for true or F for false in front of the following:

2. ____ Management finds the workers for business and industry.

3. ____ The management field is growing smaller.

4. ____ The sales field is steadily growing.

5. ____ Labor laws protect children from unfair employment.

6. ____ Only the person working puts money toward his Social Security account.

7. ____ The only time you collect Social Security is when you are too old to work.

8. ____ Everyone has to have working papers.

9. ____ An "application" is asking for a job in writing.

10. ____ In most cases, labor groups are made up of people paid by the hour or week.

Labor: The word "labor" has several meanings. In the World of Work, "labor" means working people. Almost everyone in the world works to earn money to support himself and his family. See if you can fill in the blank:

Soldiers and sailors make up the Armed Forces; "workers" in our society are called the L______ force.

In this study you will learn that people are paid by the hour, the week, or the year. In most cases, labor groups are made up of people paid by the hour or week. Those paid by the year are usually in another group called "professional" or "management". Ask your teacher if your class can discuss these terms: labor....management.

How are they different?
Should one be stronger? Why?
Are there more in one group or the other?
What group would you want to be in? Why?
This picture may look like a forest of trees to you but it is really a picture of the LABOR FIELD. The "trees" show you the types of jobs in that field.

It is a picture that tells you in which field most jobs are going to be, and how fast those fields are growing. Let's study each of them.

TECHNICAL

People in the technical field run and repair machines.

This field is growing the fastest of all. As a matter of fact, it is thought the field will double in fifteen years.

Special training is needed. Where? In trade schools, vocational schools, on-the-job training, or apprenticeship programs.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:
1. People in the technical field ___________ and ___________ machines.
2. The ___________ field is the fastest growing in the labor field.
3. ___________ training is needed for jobs in the technical field.
A. THE LABOR FIELD

CLERICAL

People in this field keep records, type letters, file papers, and use office machines.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. If you look at our picture of the labor field, you will see that this is the (first, second) _____________ fastest growing group.

2. Clerical workers keep _____________, _____________ letters, _____________ papers and use office _____________.

SKILLED

People in this field are highly trained in a special skill. For example - carpenters, plumbers, mechanics, and electricians. The job outlook for these workers is good. There is a chance of advancement in this field as well as good money and security.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING

1. Skilled workers are _____________ trained in a _____________ skill.

2. Three good things about being a skilled worker are:
   a. chance of _____________,
   b. good _____________, and
   c. _____________.
A. THE LABOR FIELD

SEMI-SKILLED

This kind of worker has received less training than a skilled worker. His work is not as difficult and he does not have as much responsibility. Accordingly, a semi-skilled worker receives less pay than a skilled worker.

Machines have taken the jobs of many semi-skilled workers. That is why this labor "field" is not as large as the others.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:

Put T for true or F for false in front of these statements.

1. Semi-skilled workers receive less training than skilled workers.
2. Semi-skilled workers receive more pay than skilled workers.
3. This labor field is larger than that of skilled workers.
4. Machines have replaced many semi-skilled workers.

LABORERS

The laborers group of workers is becoming smaller every year. These jobs require no training or skill and are constantly being replaced by machines. Examples of this type of work are: ditch-diggers, stock clerks, lifting and carrying packages.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. The laborers group of workers is the (smallest, largest) in the field.
2. These jobs require _______ training or skill.
3. Many of these jobs have been replaced by _______.
OTHER TYPES OF JOBS

Management

This is the group of people who manage or run any business. Some of their duties are to organize the work, buy the raw materials, find the workers, and sell the products. These jobs usually require years of education and experience.

As business grows and expands, more management help is needed, so this job field stays steady in its size. Many businesses and industries provide their own management training.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:

Put T for true or F for false in front of the following statements.

1. Management jobs usually require education and experience.

2. Management is the word used to describe people who run a business or industry.

3. Management finds the workers.

4. The management field is growing smaller.

5. Management training is only available in a trade school.

Sales

This group of workers is slowly but steadily growing. More and more money is being used to train people to sell products. Many businesses have their own training programs in order to produce "top-notch" salesmen. This field requires less education than management; also, there are many jobs available for women.

NOW DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. The sales field is steadily _______________.

2. Many firms have their own sales _______________ programs.

3. The sales field requires _____________ education than management.

4. There are many jobs available for ________ in this field.
LABOR LAWS

There are many ways to help protect the American worker. One of these ways is by laws that make sure no one makes people work for unfair pay, or laws that protect children from being employed unfairly. For example, the New York State Labor Law requires everyone between the ages of 14 and 17 to have a work permit or "working papers."

Use this paragraph to help you - put T for true and F for false before each statement.

_1. The labor force is made up of sailors.
_2. Labor laws are to protect the worker.
_3. Working permits are needed by everyone.
_4. Labor laws protect a worker from illness.
_5. Labor laws protect a worker from being paid unfairly.
WAGES - DIFFERENT WAYS THAT PEOPLE ARE PAID

1. A fireman gets a yearly salary, a worker at General Electric gets a weekly pay envelope. Carpenters and electricians get paid by the hour.
   a. If a policeman earns $7,000 in one year, how much does he earn in one month? in one week? (Figure on 12 months in one year and 52 weeks in one year.)
   b. If a factory worker earns $92.00 in one week, what is his yearly salary?
   c. If a carpenter's wages are $4.00 an hour and he works 45 hours in one week, what is his weekly pay?

USE THE REST OF THIS PAGE TO FIGURE ON.
LABOR UNIONS

LABOR means the working people
UNION means "joined together"

Write what you think LABOR UNIONS are:

________________________________________

________________________________________

Ask your teacher if your class can discuss the meanings they have written, then with your teacher decide on the best meaning. Ask her to write it on the board. Copy it here:

________________________________________

________________________________________

________________________________________

List three reasons why workers would want to belong to a union:

1. ______________________________________

2. _______________________________________

3. _______________________________________

Does anyone in your family belong to a union? ____________________________________

If the answer is yes, write the name of the union they belong to.

________________________________________

What unions have you heard of? ____________________________________________

________________________________________
C. JOB APPLICATION

The first step in getting a job is to apply, or ask for it. When you ask for a job, you do it in writing. This is called a job application. Unscramble the following sentence:

in application asking An writing is job for a.

On an application, the employer asks for information he needs to know about you. This helps him decide if you are the right person for the job.

On the next page is a sample job application. If you were applying for a job, how would you fill it out?

D. INTERVIEWS

INTERVIEWS AND INTERVIEWS

The purpose of an interview is to find out information. There are two kinds of interviews for us to think about:

1. You ask the questions to get information about a job or:
2. Someone asks you questions about yourself when they are thinking about hiring you.

(Type #1 Interview) "Getting the Facts"

You will be using type #1 interview. Here are some hints to help you.

a. Study the interview sheet on the next page.

b. Plan how you will introduce yourself to the person you will interview, how you will conduct the interview, how long you will spend asking questions, and how you will end the interview.

c. Use the interview sheet on the next page to practice or adult friends and classmates.

You will have interview sheets attached to each Career Study to "get the facts" about that job.

How To Sell Your Product

RULES FOR TYPE 2 INTERVIEW

1. Wrap the package Attractively -

"Neat but not Gaudy," is the word Girls. Leave the eye makeup, highly teased hair, and short short skirts at home. Fellows, the levis, sweatshirts, and sneakers are NIX on interviews. Look NEAT AND CLEAN.

2. Be sure the package arrives on time-

9:05 is too late for a 9:00 appointment, BESIDES, they've heard all the excuses, and a few you haven't dreamed up yet.

3. A care package gets more attention than a "Don't Care".

Be interested in your employer's business and how you can fit into his organization - or wind up in the dead letter office.

4. Fragile - Handle with Care -

A courteous, respectful attitude and "thank you," regardless of the outcome of the interview - always impresses people.

5. Don't Advertise Competing Products -

A job interview is no place for the "BUDDY SYSTEM." Let your friends do their own job-hunting.

6. False Advertising Doesn't Pay -

Fill out the application truthfully - don't claim experience or skills you don't have. It always backfires and doesn't help.

7. Fill Out Application Neatly -

Print if necessary, or write legibly.
Type Number 2 Interview

Pretend you are an employer. You are interviewing people for the jobs as salespeople in your store. Ann, Sam, Dan, Sue, and Tom applied for the jobs. If you think they should be hired for the jobs, check the box below "yes". If you do not think the person should be hired, check the box below "no".

1. Ann was fifteen minutes late for her interview. She said she really wanted the job, but she had met some friends on the way and had stopped to talk with them.

2. Sam took his mother with him when he went for his interview. He said his mother would help him answer the questions.

3. Sam was chewing gum. He played with some papers on your desk. He never looked at you when answering his questions.

4. Sue said she had not worked before but that she had studied about jobs in school. She said she had a good attendance record and wanted a chance to show that she was a good worker.

5. Tom told about two of his part-time jobs. His record was good. He said he had never been late for work.
A SECOND CHANCE

Some interviews fail. The person does not get the job he wants because he has not done all the right things during the interview. Sometimes a second interview will get a person the job he wants. Let's pretend the shipping department of Ace Industries needs a clerk. A boy named Andrew Brown had been interviewed for the job once, but failed to get it because he:

1. __ was late for the appointment
2. __ wore sloppy clothes
3. __ did not have his hair combed
4. __ was not friendly and polite

Read about Andy's second chance. He really wants to do better and is glad to have another chance. The appointment is set for 2:30 P.M.

First read the rules for a good interview, then fill in the blanks in such a way that Andy will get the job.

RULES FOR A GOOD INTERVIEW

1. Be on time
2. Know how to answer questions
3. Be neat in dress and appearance
4. Be friendly and polite
Andy's Second Chance

It was ___________ P.M. when Andy arrived at Ace Industries. "My name is ________________," he told the clerk. "I have an ________________ at ________ P.M."

"We have been expecting you, but the boss will be a little late. Please sit down."

"_____________" said Andy as he got a magazine from the table. He looked at the clock. It was 2:40. "The boss must be very busy," he said to himself. He got another _______________. He was tired of waiting but he wasn't going to _______________.

At 2:55 the boss came in. He walked up to Andy. "You are Andrew Brown," he smiled. Andy _______________ when he saw the boss coming toward him. "Yes, I am ______________," he smiled back.
Read the directions and complete the exercise called WHAT WOULD YOU DO? Have a friend correct your answers from an answer sheet.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

If you were being trained for a job and found yourself in any of the situations below, what would you do? Put a cross (x) beside the answer you think is BEST. And in the empty spaces, write an answer of your own.

1. You find it difficult to understand some of the classroom instruction you are receiving.
   - a. Tell the instructor that you're having difficulty understanding.
   - b. Ask another trainee to help you understand the information.
   - c. Drop out of the training program.
   - d. ________________________________

2. The training is going well, but you don't think you're being paid enough money.
   a. Ask the person who hired you if there's any possibility of getting a raise.
   b. Quit the training program and try to find another job.
   c. Tell the person who's training you that you can't live on the money you are earning.
   d. _______________________

3. You have a reason to complain about the way a training program is being conducted.
   a. Take your complaint to the president of the company you are working for.
   b. Take your complaint to the head of the training program.
   c. Explain your complaint to the other people who are being trained with you and find out if they agree with you.
   d. _______________________

4. You're being annoyed and bothered by someone else who's being trained with you.
   a. Stay away from him as much as possible.
   b. Try to become friendly with him.
   c. Report him to the person who is training you.
   d. __________

5. You discover that you don't like the job you're being trained for, and would like to be trained for another kind of job with the same company.
   a. Go immediately to the person who hired you and present him with your problem.
   b. Ask the person who's training you for advice about the problem.
   c. Speak to another trainee about your problem and ask him for his advice.
   d. __________
Secure means _ _ _ _ _ "safe from harm."
Security means being s _ _ f _ _ _ harm.
Social means _ _ _ _ _ "how we live our life".
SOCIAL SECURITY means living a life safe from harm...in this case, safe from the harm of not having money to live on when you are too old or sick to work. When anyone gets paid for working, a small amount of money is taken out of the paycheck for Social Security. The person who pays you adds an equal amount. Both of these amounts are sent to the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. In Washington, this money is put into a fund in your name. The fund is called your Social Security. You get money back from this fund:

   a - when you are old enough to stop working but still need money to live on b - if you are too sick to work
   c - if you should die (some of the money is paid to your family)

Use the information in the paragraph above to complete the following sentences.

1. When anyone works, a small amount of money is taken out of your __________ for Social Security.
2. The person who pays you, pays an __________ amount toward your Social Security.
3. The total amount of money is sent to the __________ Government in Washington, D.C.
4. You get money back from Social Security when you are old enough to stop __________.
5. You get Social Security if you are too sick to __________.
6. Social Security means ________________________________
