ABSTRACT
Presented is information on approximately 100 Federal programs designed to assist the handicapped and/or people working with or for them. It is explained that the compilation was excerpted from the 1975 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, gathered from material provided by the Library of Congress, and augmented by a survey of Federal agencies conducted by the Office for Handicapped Individuals. Each program is described using the following terms: program description, uses and use restrictions, types of assistance, formula and matching grants, applicant eligibility, beneficiary eligibility, application procedure, appropriations, program accomplishments, enabling legislation, and information contact. Programs are indexed by subject, Federal department and agency, and applicant eligibility. (CL)

Documents acquired by ERIC include many informal unpublished materials not available from other sources. ERIC makes every effort to obtain the best copy available. Nevertheless, items of marginal reproducibility are often encountered and this affects the quality of the microfiche and hardcopy reproductions ERIC makes available. * via the ERIC Document Reproduction Service (EDRS). EDRS is not responsible for the quality of the original document. Reproductions supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made from the original.

INTRODUCTION

This compilation is a comprehensive listing and description of Federal programs and activities which provide assistance or benefits to the handicapped and those working on their behalf. The information has been excerpted from the 1975 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (reflecting changes published in the update, November 1975); gathered from material provided by the Library of Congress; and supplemented by an interim report on a survey of Federal agencies made by the Office for Handicapped Individuals.

This is the first year the Clearinghouse of the Office for Handicapped Individuals has published this volume and made it available to people working with and for the handicapped. If dissemination of this information proves to be useful and is favorably received, a yearly update is planned. Suggestions for improvement are welcome and will be carefully considered.

The Office for Handicapped Individuals

History: In 1974, the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare announced the establishment of an Office for Handicapped Individuals in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Human Development.

The Office for Handicapped Individuals (OHI) is a coordinating and advocacy unit for its target population.

Some specific functions of the OHI are:

- To serve as the focal point in the Department for the consideration of issues and policies affecting the handicapped and development of Departmental goals for handicapped programs.

- To analyze program operations on a continuing basis to evaluate the effectiveness of all programs providing services to handicapped individuals.

- To develop means of promoting the prompt use of engineering and other scientific research to assist in solving problems in education, health, housing, rehabilitation, architectural and transportation barriers, and other pertinent areas.

- To provide a central Clearinghouse for information and referral. This includes referral to existing information sources in the handicapped field within the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, other departments and agencies of the Federal Government, and public and private agencies and organizations which operate on a national level.
HOW TO USE THE DIRECTORY

Information on the majority of programs in this directory is excerpted from the 1975 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance and its November update. For brevity's sake, only the most crucial elements of catalog information were retained, but some users may wish to consult the full catalog entries. All programs excerpted from the OMB catalog retain their OMB identification number.

In some instances when the program description of the OMB catalog made no specific reference to the handicapped, but such reference was contained in the information provided by the Federal agency to the Office for Handicapped Individuals (OHI), an insert taken from this OHI survey was added to the OMB text. A few programs and activities not appearing in the OMB catalog were excerpted from the OHI report. They are recognizable by their B 1-15 numbering instead of the OMB number.

Most of the listed programs provide assistance to the handicapped and/or people working with or for them. A small number of programs were included which manifest no specific orientation toward the handicapped but which may be useful to many handicapped people, e.g., Food Stamps. This group of programs is admittedly an arbitrary selection and we urge users to consult the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance for more complete information.

Medical research programs which have implications in the field of handicaps are listed by title, as are programs of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration, which is committed to facilitating mass transportation systems that can be used by the handicapped. Programs are arranged by Federal department or agency administering them. A subject index is provided in the back for quick reference. Each program is described using the following terms:

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program provides financial support to States (1) to extend and improve (especially in rural areas and in areas suffering from severe economic distress) medical and related services to crippled children and children suffering from conditions that lead to crippling, and (2) for special projects of regional or national significance which may contribute to the advancement of services for crippled children.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Grants may be used for locating crippled children and providing medical, surgical, corrective, and other services for diagnosis, hospitalization, and aftercare for such children, and for training of professional personnel. Grants may be used for the purchase of services and care from hospitals and other providers. TYPES OF ASSISTANCE/FORMULA AND MATCHING GRANTS

Formula Grants; Project Grants.

One-half of the Crippled Children's Services grant funds are apportioned among the States in accordance with criteria specified in the law (Section 504(1)). These funds are referred to as Fund A. Each State receives a grant of $70,000 and such part of the appropriation remaining as the number of children under 21 in the State bears to the total number of such children in the United States. States must match dollar for dollar the funds allotted to them under this section. The other half of the crippled children's grant funds (Section 504(2)) is known as Fund B. From this fund, an amount is administratively allocated for special projects. The remainder of Fund B is apportioned among the States according to the financial need for each State for assistance in carrying out its State plan. No matching is required for the funds allotted under this section.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY:
Formula grants are available to State crippled children's agencies. Project grants are available to State crippled children's agencies and to institutions of higher learning.

BENEFICIARY ELIGIBILITY:

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

State Crippled Children's Agencies submit certifications that meet the conditions of plan approval specified in the Social Security Act and that assure high quality of service. These certifications and supporting documents are approved by the Regional Health Administrator. Applications for special project grants are reviewed by Maternal and Child Health Services central or regional staff, as appropriate.

Fiscal Year 1976 est. $64,900,000

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Despite the rising costs of medical care, about 509,000 crippled children received physicians' services through this program in 1974, including 97,000 children with multiple handicaps and 41,000 children with congenital heart disease. Through intensified casefinding and screening activities and provision of necessary treatment and follow-up care, efforts will continue toward making physicians' services available to children statewide by 1975. Approximately 118 professional personnel are provided training.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A program to provide educational, comprehensive medical and social services necessary to enable individuals to freely determine the number and spacing of their children, to promote the health of mothers and children and to help reduce maternal and infant mortality.

The following are examples of contracts involving the handicapped:

A contract was funded June 30, 1974 for 15 months to design and test a prototype delivery model to provide family planning services to persons of childbearing age who are receiving psychiatric treatment in the nation's public and non-profit facilities.

A contract was funded in Fiscal Year 1974 and continued in Fiscal Year 1975 to hold eight two-day regional workshops on family life education and family planning for the mentally retarded. The goals of the workshops for the mentally retarded are (1) to identify their needs in this area; (2) to correct misunderstandings concerning the sexuality and family planning needs of the retarded; (3) to present information on how to provide for their education and family planning needs; (4) to assemble lists of materials and funding resources by State; and (5) to bring together State leaders, including parents to discuss possible activities concerning family planning and family life education within their State.

These workshops to date have resulted in increased state-wide activities in this area.

A contract was awarded to develop and demonstrate a workable model for the effective delivery of educational family planning services to the community of mentally retarded individuals. This will be accomplished through the development of a model designed to meet the special needs of the retarded population and those individuals, including staff and parents, who are closely involved with the retarded and exert considerable influence in their daily lives. Program efforts will be concentrated in training for professional staff, parent education and client education.

for purchase or construction of buildings; salaries of personnel paid from other Federal grant funds; and certain other miscellaneous items as specified in the regulations. Priority in the provision of services will be given to persons from low-income families. None of the funds awarded shall be used to provide abortions as a method of family planning.

APPROPRIATIONS

Fiscal Year 1975: $211,905,791
Fiscal Year 1976: $200,551,000

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS

In an effort to further reduce the Nation's infant mortality rate, increased emphasis is being given to providing family planning services through this program. Preliminary estimates indicate that about 870,000 women received services in fiscal year 1974. In fiscal year 1974, an estimated 1,500,000 children attended well-clinics. In fiscal year 1974, States were assisted in the provision of prenatal and postpartum care to approximately half of the women receiving services in clinics especially in rural areas. In fiscal year 1975, State Maternal and Child Health Agencies are required to carry out a program of projects in each of five areas; maternity and infant care, comprehensive care of children and youth, dental care for children, infant intensive care, and family planning. The maternity and infant care projects in fiscal year 1974 provided comprehensive health care to approximately 142,000 mothers and 48,000 infants and continued to exercise influence on reductions in infant mortality. In many of the children and youth projects, the cost of care per child is decreasing because of the emphasis on comprehensive, rather than emergency or episodic, care. The extent of this should be to extend preventive services to a larger number of children in succeeding fiscal years. Approximately 21,000 children will receive treatment under the dental care projects in fiscal year 1974. In fiscal year 1974, $783,000 was provided for the continuation of eight intensive infant care projects; they provide increased medical and nursing supervision, care by personnel specially trained in such fields as treatment of cardiopulmonary failure and respiratory distress in newborns, and use of special equipment in an attempt to combat high infant mortality rates for infants born prematurely or with conditions detrimental to their normal growth and development. About 1,250,000 women received family planning services in fiscal year 1974 through the State maternal and child health program, including about 115,000 women who received such services through family planning projects. It is expected that in fiscal year 1975 these levels will be maintained.

A program to provide comprehensive health, educational, nutritional, social, and other services to preschool economically disadvantaged children and their families and involve parents in activities so that the children will attain overall social competence.

1972 Amendments to Public Law 92-424, the statutory authority for Head Start, require that at least ten percent of the national Head Start Program enrollment opportunities be made available to handicapped children. It is intended that these preschool children receive the benefits of an integrated setting where they can learn and develop with non-handicapped children and that services shall be provided to meet their special needs. This amendment incorporated handicapped children into the Head Start Program whose overall goal is to bring about a greater degree of social competence in disadvantaged children. Social competence means the child's everyday effectiveness in dealing with his environment and later responsibilities in school and life. It takes into account the interrelatedness of cognitive and intellectual development, physical and mental health, nutritional needs, and other factors that enable the child to function optimally. Head Start is a comprehensive developmental approach to helping children achieve social competence.

In addition, there is a social service component of all Head Start programs which assists the family in its own efforts to improve the condition and quality of family life. More specifically:

1. The program must provide the handicapped child the experience of learning and playing with non-handicapped children. This plays an important role in fostering the child's self-image, overall development and equips the child to overcome the handicap. Head Start programs are expected to actively reach out into their communities, and, in cooperation with other groups and agencies serving handicapped children, must enroll eligible handicapped children whose parents desire the child's participation. No child may be denied admission solely on the basis of the nature or extent of a handicapping condition.

2. Screening, diagnostic and needs assessment procedures utilized must address all handicaps and provide an adequate basis for education, treatment, and related services. Initial identification must be confirmed by professionals trained in assessing handicapping conditions.
3. Head Start grantees are encouraged to consider program models that can appropriately meet the individual needs of handicapped children. The Head Start program options, which include variations in center attendance and a home-based component, allow grantees greater flexibility to individualize program services.

4. Head Start programs are to make every effort to work with other agencies serving handicapped children in order to mobilize the resources that they can provide to the handicapped children enrolled in Head Start.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Ninety percent of the enrollees in a program must come from families whose income is below the poverty guidelines as established. Training programs are available for employees of Head Start programs.

FORMULA AND MATCHING GRANTS

Project Grants.

Twenty percent non-Federal must be supplied. This share may be in cash or in kind; providing space, equipment, utilities or personnel services.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY:
Any public or private nonprofit agency which meets the requirements may apply for a grant.

BENEFICIARY ELIGIBILITY:
Full-year Head Start programs are primarily for children from age 3 up to the age when the child enters the school system, but may include some younger children. Summer Head Start programs are for children who will be attending kindergarten or elementary school for the first time in the fall. No less than 10 percent of the total enrollment opportunities in Head Start programs in each State shall be available for handicapped children.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The Office of Child Development/Head Start regional representative will provide each applicant agency with a completed check list form showing exactly which items must be completed by each applicant and delegate agency.

APPROPRIATIONS

Fiscal Year 1975 est. $414,300,000
Fiscal Year 1976 est. $434,300,000
Since 1965, Head Start has served about 5,667,000 children from low-income families in 50 states, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Pacific Trust Territories. The programs have improved the quality of life for these children by providing educational experiences, improving their health, assuring that they receive proper nutrition, and providing social and psychological help to them and their families. During Fiscal Year 1974, Head Start served approximately 350,000 children in full-year, summer and experimental programs. During Fiscal Year 1972, Head Start launched the pilot program, Home Start in 16 localities; in Fiscal Year 1973, the Child and Family Resource Program (11 sites) was added. In Fiscal Year 1974, the Handicapped programs Project Developmental Continuity and EPSDT were begun. PUBLIC ASSISTANCE—MAINTENANCE ASSISTANCE (STATE AID)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A program to set State standards, to provide the Federal financial share to States for aid to families with dependent children, emergency welfare assistance, assistance to repatriated U.S. Nationals, and in Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands aid to the aged, blind, permanently and totally disabled, and administration of these welfare programs, and to monitor performance.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Money payments by States made directly to eligible needy families with dependent children and to needy, aged, blind, or disabled persons in Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands are to cover costs for food, shelter, clothing, and other necessary items of daily living. Payments in the form or money or vendor payments assist needy families in emergency or crisis situations, such as imminent eviction or exhaustion of food supplies. Under the program, payments are also made for care of specified children in foster homes or institutions. Federal funds up to $250 per home may be available for home repairs. Under the repatriation program, money is provided for food, shelter, clothing, medical care (including hospitalization and treatment of mentally ill persons), and transportation to persons who have been returned to the United States because of destitution and who are not eligible for other financial assistance programs. Funds for State and local administration of programs are for costs of interviewing public assistance applicants for eligibility determination and validation of eligibility; costs of State and local personnel engaged in program direction and management; and other on-going costs and activities related to administering the programs.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE/FORMULA AND MATCHING GRANTS

Federal funds pay 5/6 of the first $18 of the average payment and then 50 percent to 60 percent of the balance within the Federal average maximum. If it is to the State's benefit, it may use the medicaid formula with no maximum (provided the State has a medicaid plan) which ranges from 50 to 83 percent Federal funds. The federal share of home repairs is 50 percent with a limit of $500 in Federal and State funds for any one home. The federal share of payments for AFDC and the adult categories in Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands is determined by individual computation and subject to statutory ceilings.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Supplemental Security Income program is a nationally uniform system of payments to the aged, blind, and disabled whose income falls below Federally prescribed minimums, or who are eligible for State income payments. It represents an attempt to provide an income floor for those segments of the population least able to provide for themselves through work or savings; those over 65 or with severe physical or mental impairments. Under the program, an eligible person with no other income is guaranteed an annual income of $1,752 ($2,628 for a couple).

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE

Direct Payments with Unrestricted Use.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY:
The eligibility of an individual who has attained age 65 or who is blind or disabled is determined on the basis of monthly income and resources. In determining income, the first $20 of social security or other income would not be counted. An additional $65 of earned income, plus one-half of any monthly earnings above $65, would also not be counted. If, after these exclusions, an individual's countable income is less than $146 a month ($219 for a couple both of whom are categorized as above) and resources are less than $1,500 ($2,250 for a couple), he is eligible for payments. The value of the home, household goods, personal effects, an automobile, and property needed for self support are, if found reasonable, excluded in determining value of resources. Life insurance policies with face value under $1,500 are excluded in resource valuation.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS ADMINISTRATION

MINIMUM WAGE AND HOUR STANDARDS
(FEDERAL WAGE-HOUR LAW)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A program to provide standards protecting wages of working persons by requiring a minimum hourly wage rate, overtime pay, and equal pay for men and women performing the same or substantially equal work. Additional standards apply to child labor.

The objective of the program is to prevent the curtailment of opportunities for handicapped individuals who normally would not be able to command the minimum wage. This office authorizes subminimum wages under the Fair Labor Standards Act where necessary and for the shortest period necessary to prevent the curtailment of opportunities for employment for handicapped individuals.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Federal wage and hour standards apply generally to employers engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce or in enterprises so engaged. For most non-farm covered employment the current minimum hourly wage is $2.30, with time and one-half required for hours worked over 40 in a work week. For non-farm employment covered by the law as a result of the 1966 amendments or the 1974 amendments, the minimum hourly wage will be: $2.20 an hour beginning on January 1, 1976; and $2.30 an hour beginning on January 1, 1977. To the extent necessary to prevent curtailment of employment opportunity, certificates authorizing special minimum wage rates are issued for learners, handicapped workers, full-time students, student workers, and apprentices. Employees of contractors performing on most federally financed or assisted construction projects, or providing goods or services under contract to Federal agencies, are subject to special standards. These special standards require that employees receive no less than the wages and fringe benefits prevailing in the locality as determined by the Secretary of Labor, and that daily and weekly overtime compensation be paid. The standards apply to performance on direct Federal contracts and also the most construction projects financed in whole or in part by the Federal Government (e.g., projects under the Revenue Sharing Act of 1972 and National Housing Act). For federally assisted construction and Federal service contracts subject to prevailing wage requirements, contracting agencies must request a wage determination.

Advisory Services and Counseling; Investigation of Complaints.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A program to insure that developments resulting from Government-sponsored aerospace research and development are made available to the maximum extent possible for the nation's benefit.

Among the goals of NASA's Technology Utilization Program is to promote an awareness of developments in medical, scientific, and educational communities. Biomedical Application teams assist medical and clinical researchers in defining technical problems and solving them using NASA developed technology.

Examples of assistance: a joint Veterans Administration/NASA program to apply voice actuated control systems to permit a high level spinal cord injury patient to operate a 6° freedom manipulator from the wheelchair; a horizontal shower system allowing thorough bathing of patients while lying on a stretcher will be installed at Palo Alto Veterans Administration and Stanford University hospitals; assistance to the Rancho Los Amigos Hospital to refine their Athetoid Assist Device; design and fabricate an improved rotational permit to be placed in an artificial leg device of a leg amputee.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS

Innovations, inventions, and improvements developed in the space program are brought to the attention of the public in several ways. NASA Tech Briefs are single page announcements of such innovations. Technological advances of special significance or complexity are published in Technology Utilization (TU) Reports. TU Surveys are publications which consolidate major contributions in a broad area or quantum jumps in the state of a single art. NASA-sponsored Industrial Application Centers offer specialized technical information services tailored to meet the needs of local industry.

Anyone may apply.

BENEFICIARY ELIGIBILITY:

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The NASA TU program has helped many industrial, educational, and governmental organizations develop new products, increase productivity, and reduce costs. Typically, the Technology Utilization Program provides user access to aerospace technology in support of technical problem-solving. For example, the Skylab heat pipe system, being adapted and applied to a thermal control system on the Alaskan Pipeline, will maintain structural integrity and control the environment by preventing uncontrolled freezing and thawing of the permafrost. In 1974, 4,200 industrial clients throughout the country spent nearly $1,000,000 through the regionally located IAC's for this type of information service. A new line of railroad freight cars has been developed using the NASTRAN computer program, one of 1,500 programs available from COSMIC, the Technology Utilization Office's software center. A total of 778 firms purchased 263 programs and 4,770 items of related documentation for $163,000 contributing greatly to the nation's industrial productivity. During the past year, more than 2,500 individuals and firms were given access to the NASA research in practical solar heating and cooling system for housing in response to one of 525 Tech Briefs published in 1973. Over 6,000 technical innovations from the space program are now available for use by American industry.
