This publication is designed for teachers of Chinese language and culture who are interested in using audiovisual materials to supplement classroom instruction. The listings objectively present materials which are available; the compilers have not attempted to evaluate them. Content includes historical studies, techniques of brush painting, myths, art forms, personal studies, and educational and economic documentaries. Grade level ranges from elementary to college level and adults. The four major sections include listings of audiovisual materials, addresses of producers and distributors, subject index, and general index. Within the audiovisual materials section, items have been classified by categories to enable teachers to choose the kind of media they prefer. There are over 300 films, 61 feature-length films, nine videotapes, 122 filmstrips, 53 slide collections, 9 overhead transparency collections, 7 photographic series, 132 audiotapes, and 98 records. Annotations for each entry provide information about the producer, rental or purchase price, component parts, length, and a description of content. Materials are coded according to type in the subject and general indexes. (AV)
Audio-visual Materials for Chinese Studies

Compiled by

Eugene Ching and Nora C. Ching

The Ohio State University

A publication of the American Association of Teachers of Chinese Language and Culture
New York

November, 1974
CONTENTS

Preface
Foreword by Dr. Paul K. T. Sih

[A] Audio-visual Materials

Films ......................................................... 1
Feature Length Films ..................................... 48
Videotapes ............................................... 56
Filmstrips ................................................ 58
Slides ..................................................... 76
Overhead Transparencies ................................ 90
Photographs ............................................ 92
Audio Tapes ............................................. 94
Records ................................................. 112

[B] Addresses of Distributors and Producers ........... 125

[C] Subject Index ......................................... 138

[D] General Index ......................................... 158

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS CATALOGING IN PUBLICATION DATA

Ching, Eugene, 1921-
Audio-visual materials for Chinese studies.

DS734.95.29C47 016.951 3 75-1363
Preface

Audio-visual Materials for Chinese Studies is a revised and much enlarged edition of Guide to Chinese Audio-visual Materials, a Xerox special issue of the Journal of the Chinese Language Teachers Association. The change of the title indicates two things: First, the new title reflects better the nature of this compilation. It is meant to be an informative publication for teachers of Chinese language and culture who are interested in using audio-visual materials together with their classroom instructions. What the compilers are trying to do is to show what is available rather than what should be used. The objectivity of AMCS is maintained by keeping all the available subjective descriptions of the items and by not injecting the opinions of the compilers. The compilers did not attempt to evaluate them because of the tremendous time and effort required to do a decent job and the relativity of usefulness of a particular item to teachers of different subjects. Secondly, the new title reflects the new publisher, American Association of Teachers of Chinese Language and Culture. AATCLC ought to be the logical publisher since AMCS is really even more useful for teachers of Chinese culture than for teachers of Chinese language only.

As the table of contents will show, AMCS consists of the following sections: (1) audio-visual materials, (2) addresses of distributors and producers, (3) subject index, (4) general index. Under (1), instead of listing all items alphabetically, they have been classified by categories, such as films, feature length films, video tapes, etc. By so doing, the teacher would be able to choose the kind of media he/she prefers. The subject index and general index are both coded so that a teacher can pick items under the subject of his/her interest and look up titles under the general index with the knowledge of what kind of material a particular item is.

In order to cover as many items as possible, a large number of sources has been consulted. The following bibliography is included here not only for the information of the users of AMCS, but also for acknowledgment of our indebtedness.

Educational Motion Pictures, Bloomington, Indiana.

Audio-Visual Center, Indiana University.

Learning Resource Center, West Hartford, Conn., Educational Motion Pictures, Los Angeles, The National Information Center for Educational Media and The University of Southern California, 1971, 140 pp.
National Center for Audio Tapes, 1974-76 Catalog, Boulder, Colorado, University of Colorado.

The University of Southern California, Film Catalog 1973-74, Los Angeles, The National Information Center for Educational Media and the University of Southern California, 1972, 166 pp.

In the process of compiling AMCS, we must acknowledge the assistance rendered by Mr. Peter Chow, Miss Carol Gee, and Mr. Robert Mowry for the predecessor of this edition. Mrs. Josephine Lamini has done most of the work for AMCS in the present form. Without her devotion and industry, AMCS would have to wait quite a while before it could have been published.

Last but not least, thanks are due to Dr. Paul K. T. Sih, Executive Secretary, AATCLC, for his encouragement and arrangement for the publication.

We want also to thank Dr. Chi-pao Cheng for the beautiful calligraphy he did for our cover.

E.C. and N.C.C.

September 1974
Columbus, Ohio
FOREWORD

The study of the language and culture of China in a professional way requires an intense amount of effort both in classroom learning and individual study. However, with the help of audio-visual materials, the task both on the part of the teacher and the student in Chinese Studies will be made easier, and their efforts will be greatly rewarded.

As the existing audio-visual materials relating to Chinese Studies are voluminous, it is most difficult to locate them properly. Thanks to Professor Eugene Ching of The Ohio State University, who served as President of AATCLC for 1972-1974, and his wife, Nora, a revised and enlarged edition of A Guide to Chinese Audio-Visual Materials is made available for the interest of the membership of AATCLC and all the teachers and students concerned with the study of the Chinese language and culture.

It is hoped that with the availability of this volume, Chinese Studies in the United States, with the added use of audio-visual materials, will find a new vista in developing a more effective and efficient way in the pursuit of Chinese Studies.

Paul K. T. Sih
Vice President for International Studies and Education, and Executive Secretary of AATCLC

October 1974
FILMS

Achievement in Hong Kong (1956)
International Film Bureau (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 15 min.
The film concentrates on the resettlement areas and housing projects built by the Hong Kong Government. There are some very effective scenes of a raging fire that destroyed the homes of 60,000 people in 1953. The film points to some real problems in Hong Kong and to their causes.

Acrobatics
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 75 min.
This display of traditional Chinese acrobatics offers a selection of feats performed by China's skillfully trained traveling acrobatic troupes. A film from the People's Republic of China.

Acupuncture Anaesthesia
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
16mm, color, English sound track, 50 min.
This film vividly illustrates the history and modern developments of using acupuncture instead of anaesthetics to induce analgesia. Featured in this documentary are open-heart surgery and removal of a tenuous growth on the brain. A film from the PRC.

Afro-Asia Table Tennis Friendship Tournament
U.S.-China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $35.00)
16mm, black-and-white, Chinese sound track, 60 min.
Recorded a number of matches among the various African and Asian teams including the breath-taking dexterity of the Chinese players. In addition there are shots of the players visiting factories and agricultural communes. Filmed in Peking and environs in November 1971.

The Ancient Chinese: An Introduction
International Film Foundation, Inc. (Rental: $36.00) (Sale: $360.00)
16mm, color, 21 min.
This film uses a combination of animation based on ancient Chinese motifs, live photography of China today, and art photographs to bring the people of ancient China alive. Includes the earliest civilizations and the origins and legends of the Shang, Chou, Han, T'ang, and Sung Dynasties, plus crucial events in the lives of Confucius, Huang Ti, Marco Polo, Ch'eng-chi Khan, and Kublai Khan.

Ancient Chinese Painting in America
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
Harman (Sale: $100.00)
16mm, color, 11 min.
This short documentary presents a concise survey of one of the most important branches of Chinese art, with representative masterpieces from various dynasties, filmed from the collections of many leading museums in the United States. Photographed by John L. Feierbacher.
Ancient Orient - The Far East (1957)
Indiana University (Rental: color-$5.15; b&w-$3.65)
University of Illinois (Rental: color-$6.90; b&w-$5.50)
University of Colorado (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Utah (Rental: color-$7.50)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: b&w-$3.00)
Coronet (Sale: color-$162.50; b&w-$81.25)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 114 min.
The early civilizations of India, China, and Japan had great influence on the cultural development of the world. The film uses examples from each of the three cultures in attempting to explain reasons for the influence.

Appeasement - Ally of Red China
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min.

The Art of Chinese Painting (1960)
Embassy of The Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
The use of Chinese brush and ink, and the techniques of painting in the Chinese manner are beautifully illustrated and masterfully demonstrated by Professor Huang Chun-pi, a leading contemporary Chinese artist.

Autopsy of 2100 Year Old Woman
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from The People's Republic of China.

Away With All Pests
U.S.-China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $35.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 60 min.
An insight into life in China today by the famous English surgeon, Dr. Joshua Horn, who worked there from 1954 to 1969 organizing medical resources and "barefoot doctors."

The Bamboo Village
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 15 min.
The story of a rural village in Taiwan where bamboo is the major product and source of income for most families. The transition of Taiwan is charmingly told in the life and the living conditions of the residents of Kuan-miao, a village named after a Taoist Temple. The modern culture which has harmonized the old with the new is working out beautifully.

Bastion for Freedom (1966)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
A portrait of Taiwan as a bastion for freedom. Physically, China's island province of Taiwan is only 100 miles away from the Communist controlled mainland, but materially, it is worlds apart. This film tells the story of the Free Chinese striving for progress in Taiwan.

The Battle of China
Taiwan Films (Rental: $25.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 67 min.
This film is from the Why We Fight series by Frank Capra who was commissioned in 1942 to produce a series of films explaining U.S. government foreign policy from 1931-41. The film presents an overview of Chinese industry and culture and deals with Japan's total commitment to the conquest of China.

Beautiful Bait
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
A Chinese operetta based on the story of Tiao Ch'an, a beautiful maid servant to a loyal cabinet minister in the late Han Dynasty.
To help her master solve a political crisis, Tiao Ch'an offers to be used matrimonially in a political intrigue and succeeds. This presentation of stylized singing and dancing is performed by students of the Foo Hsing School of Dramatic Arts.

Behind the Great Wall of China
Radio Films (Rental: $60.00 classroom use, $90.00 admission charged)
(Sales: $350.00)
16mm, color, 70 min.
This film, produced by Claude Jaeger, presents a nation's emergence from the slow pace of an old culture into the methods of a new one, focusing on influences from western society, and assimilations and attitudes toward tradition and the sacred. Behind the serpentine wall live a group of peasants, poets, and workers, whose contributions to civilization in ideas, inventions, artistry, and intelligence need no retelling. The film depicts the construction of a railway and viaduct over mountains and gorges in which the rich province of Szechuan is rimed. A railroad is urgently needed to link Peking and Chungking to Shanghai and the sea.

Bethune
Contemporary/McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $30.00) (Sales: $350.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 60 min.
A film biography of Dr. Norman Bethune, the Canadian doctor who served with the North Chinese Army during the Sino-Japanese War where his work behind the battle lines to save the wounded made him a legend. This documentary pieces together his remarkable career and reveals why he was so highly regarded. Also provides a first person view of social progress in China.
Blueprint for Progress (1965)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 26 min.
Taiwan's social and economic development in recent years has set a worthy example for growth, and is viewed as a blueprint for progress by many people. Filmed in color and for cinemascope showing, this film is specifically designed to present an up-to-date picture of Taiwan, island province of The Republic of China.

Born Chinese
Time-Life (Rental: $40.00) (Sale: $300.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 57 min.
Many aspects of life in Hong Kong are skillfully interwoven in this story of the Lung family as it goes about a typical day. Scenes of the Hong Kong docks and harbor, the squatter shacks, and the housing development add good local color. The film is valuable for an attempt to picture the West through Chinese eyes.

Buddhism (1973)
NBD Educational Enterprises (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $330.00)
16mm, color, 26 min.
This study of Buddhism illustrates the philosophy that people become what they have done as it focuses on the activities of young Buddhists in North America.

Buddhism in China
China Institute in America, Inc.
35mm, color, 30:30 min.
Surveys the development of Buddhism in China from its introduction to its subsequent spread and transformation. Basic ideas of Chinese Buddhism and their influence on the character and life of the Chinese are discussed.

Buddhism, Man and Nature (1968)
Hartley Productions (Rental: $25.00) (Sale: $200.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.
Very beautiful and artistically structured color film footage, using nature and the camera to describe and explain the Buddhist world view. While not directly related to China, the film indirectly covers and shows Chinese painting and philosophy.

Cartoon - Little Horner
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $160.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track.
A film from the People’s Republic of China.

The Celebrations of the 22nd and 23rd Anniversaries of the Founding of The People’s Republic of China
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing, each film) 35mm, color, English sound track, 40 and 50 min.
These two related films allow the viewer to witness the spectacular celebrations taking place in the nation’s capital, Peking. There is great footage of Chinese officials, traditional culture and massive assemblance of workers.
Ch'eng Ch'ing Lake (1967)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
In the southern part of scenic Taiwan is the beautiful, ornamental lake, Ch'eng Ch'ing, a favorite resort. Centered entirely around this lake, and with Chinese music in the background, this film provides an atmosphere that is purely of the Orient.

Children of China
Indiana University (Rental: $3.65)
University of Southern California (Rental: $5.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $1.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Rental: $7.50) (Sale: $60.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 11 min.
Presents episodes from the home, school, and play life of children in a representative Chinese village. Traditional patterns of Chinese family life are portrayed. School training in loyalty to parents, together with home and community customs, reflects the influence of Chinese tradition on contemporary life. Recreational activities are shown, and Chinese dialogue is reproduced and interpreted.

China
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 25 min.
Panel discussion on NBC Open Mind program.

China (1945)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 18 min.
Describes the Medieval way of life in China, the beginnings of democracy under Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, the struggles against Japan, and the many problems to be solved.

China (1965)
Felix Greene Films (Rental: Unavailable)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $20.65)
16mm, color, 65 min.
This film depicts the day to day life of the Chinese people; it was made with the purpose of showing what the people are like and the way they live in The People's Republic of China.

China 1932-1945
See War in China

China: The Awakening Giant (1967)
Kourau-Wil Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $250.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
16mm, color, 17 min.
Stressing the role of the frontier in China's future, the film shows changes that have occurred in Chinese agriculture and industry.
China: The Big Question (1968)
Audio-Visual Educational Films (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $170.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $7.80)
16mm, color, 1530 min (also issued on video tape)
This film surveys the massive effort in China to create a society of absolute equality. After mentioning the great improvement in people's material living conditions, the film focuses on the intensive propaganda and control machinery in China and emphasizes the elements of blind obedience to the State and hatred of the U.S. It ends with a few hints as to the enormity and danger of China's population. A companion film is titled China: A One Class Society.

China: A Century of Revolution (1972)
Films Incorporated (Sale: $430.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 3 parts
1) Agonies of Nationalism, 1850-1927, 23 min. (Rental: $18.00) (Sale: $145.00)
2) Enemies Within and Without, 1927-1944, 25 min. (Rental: $18.00) (Sale: $155.00)
3) Communist Triumph and Consolidation, 1945-1971, 20 min. (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $130.00)
A three-part historical film series on China from the Boxer Rebellion to the Nixon visit. Owners of either the first edition of China: A Century of Revolution or China: Roots of Madness can trade them in on this new edition and receive a 25% discount on the purchase price. See the title China: Roots of Madness for sources of the first edition.

China Commune (1973)
Westinghouse Learning Films (Rental: $35.00) (Sale: $350.00)
16mm, color, 35 min.
An intimate look into the way of life and institutions of the Kwang Li People's Commune, People's Republic of China. Introduces the systems of administration, divisions of labor, and various forms of political education. Shows that much progress has been made and that personal incentives play a major role.

China Crisis (1966)
University of Utah (Rental: $11.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 45 min.
Tells the story of the 14th Air Force in China in 1944 and the great work done without the much needed equipment and supplies because of the difficulty of flying everything over the "Hump."

China: An End to Isolation (1971)
University of Illinois (Rental: $11.00)
16mm, color, 23 min.
A presentation of the technical and moral victories of Mao's revolution. Substituting self-sacrificing patriotism for the profit motive, the Chinese live simply, work hard, and find their reward in the feeling that they have contributed to an improvement in the standard of living. Shows industries and agricultural pursuits including fish farming. Discusses China's "no debt" status and its foreign aid to Africa.
China: Feeding One-Fourth of the Human Race (1967)

McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $215.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.70)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)

This film shows the great variety in patterns of Chinese agriculture and focuses on improvements in land utilization and agricultural techniques that have been introduced. Noting the potential for agricultural development which lies in the virgin lands of Western China, the film ends on a cautious note of optimism on the future of China's food-population ratio.

China: A Hole in the Bamboo Curtain (1973)

Carousel (Sale: $350.00)
Association-Sterling Films (Rental: $28.50)

An evaluation of life in modern China as compared with the political and economic standard of living prevailing in the United States. Features scenes of life and work in Shenyang, Peking, Shanghai, and Canton. Includes sequences of medical advances through acupuncture and China's historic sites.

China: The Industrial Revolution (1967)

McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $215.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.70)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)

This film, which surveys the major industrial developments taking place in China today, shows what progress has already been made and discusses the many problems still to be solved before China can become a modern industrial nation. The film shows what mineral resources China possesses and how they are distributed geographically. It also shows the nature and location of manufacturing in China and illustrates the government's emphasis upon tools and materials necessary for agriculture, transportation and construction.

China Interview

United Church of Canada (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.

Dr. Paul Lin of McGill University who taught in China under the Communist regime for fifteen years answers basic questions about the meaning of the Chinese Revolution. Script available. (The United Church of Canada does not normally send films to the U.S. as they are often held up in customs.)

China and Its Agriculture (1969)

West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $7.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.30)
Coronet (Sale: color-$210.00; b&w-$105.00)

16mm, color, 16 min.

Besides showing the major agricultural products of China, this film also discusses the cultural, social, and political organization, which is the basis of China's agricultural accomplishments.
China and Its Industry (1969)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $7.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.50)
Coronet (Sale: color-$210.00; b&w-$105.00)
Shows the major resources, raw materials and industries of China and describes how these industries developed. Discusses the laboring people, how they are trained and how they live.

China and Its People (1969)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $7.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.50)
University of Wyoming (Rental: $7.50)
Coronet (Sale: color-$210.00; b&w-$105.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.
Discusses some of the changes which are taking place in China today under its Communist government, and points out that the government is trying to win popular support for these changes.

China: The Land and the People (1955)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: b&w-$3.00)
Indiana University (Rental: color-$7.00; b&w-$4.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: color-$7.70)
Alden (Rental: $1.00)
Coronet (Sale: color-$162.00; b&w-$81.25)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 13:30 min.
The geographical differences between North and South China are explained with emphasis on agriculture, thus helping to break down the traditional stereotype of all Chinese as rice farmers and consumers. Though outdated in some respects, the film is instructive regarding China before 1949.

China: The Old and the New (1966)
McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $235.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
University of Wyoming (Rental: $7.50)
United Church of Canada (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.
This film illustrates some of the many social changes which are taking place in China today. By contrasting old ways of life with the new, the film makes clear how extensive and far reaching many of these changes are. It includes scenes of life in both urban and rural China, and explores changes in such areas as language, education, religion, status of women, music and art, transportation, medicne, and housing.

China: A One-Class Society (1968)
Audio-Visual Educational Films (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $165.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $7.70)
16mm, color, 15 min. (also issued on video tape)
Beginning with a narrated history of China over the past century, this film focuses on the commune and its economic, social, and political role in Chinese society. The film also includes a discussion on marriage, sex, the role of manual labor and the training of the militia; the film ends with a short sequence on the Red Guardes and the Cultural Revolution. A companion film is titled China: The Big Question.
China: An Open Door? (1972)
University of California, Los Angeles (Rental: $30.00)
Color, 3 parts
1) The Awakening Giant (Rental: $10.00) 12 min.
Discusses the history of communism in China up to the end of World War II and President Nixon's visit.
2) Days of Turmoil (Rental: $10.00) 12 min.
Deals with the first twenty years of communist rule, discussing the Great Leap Forward, the Cultural Revolution, and the first Chinese atomic test.
3) Today and Tomorrow (Rental: $15.00) 35 min.
A glimpse of China as it appeared at the time of President Nixon's visit: Red Guards and their "Little Red Book," the role of women, and typical scenes of Peking. Discusses the admission of the PRC to the UN.

China: Peking and the Communas (1968)
Universal Education and Visual Arts (Rental: $29.00) (Sale: $286.00)
16mm, color, 22 min.
This was filmed by Miss Myra Roper, an Australian educator and traveler, during trips which she made to China in 1965 and 1966.
The film surveys life in China's cities and communes in relatively prosperous areas in North China, around Peking. Focusing first on the living conditions of a husband and wife skilled-worker team in a machine factory, and then on a commune, the film covers food supply and eating facilities, schools and market places. Ubiquitous children are seemingly a favorite target of Miss Roper's camera.

China: A Portrait of the Land (1967)
Indiana University (Rental: color-$8.50)
University of Minnesota (Rental: b&w-$4.65)
University of Southern California (Rental: color-$7.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Rental: color-$11.00)
(Sale: color-$295.00; b&w-$130.00)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 18 min.
The film focuses on the regional differences in China in terms of population density, climate, geography and economic development.
Dividing the country into five major areas, (North China, South China, Tibet, Manchuria, and Inner Mongolia), the film emphasizes the potential for population expansion and economic development of the vast territories of Western and Northern China. This film was photographed by a Swiss cameraman whose freedom of movement was limited by Chinese authorities.

China: The Red Song Contemporary/McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $50.00 classroom; $75.00 announced by admission charged)
(Sale: $595.00)
16mm, color, 56 min.
Gives an excellent picture of present day China and a clear understanding of the Cultural Revolution through candid interviews with Red Guard university students on such topics as their daily life and the changes the Cultural Revolution has brought on their studies. Includes the only film interview ever given by the late Anna Louise Strong, the American writer who died in 1970 after living 30 years of her life in China. She gives her Westerner's interpretation, from inside China, of the Cultural Revolution and the Chinese personality.
China: The Roots of Madness (1968)
Films Incorporated - 83 min (Rental: apply for price)
Indiana University - 2 reels, 74 min (Rental: $17.25)
University of Utah - 2 Parts: Part I, 38 min (Rental: $10.00)
Part II, 41 min (Rental: $10.00)
University of Illinois - 3 Parts:
China: The Search for National Unity, 1800-1927 (Rental: $7.60)
China: Civil War and Invasion, 1927-1931 (Rental: $6.50)
China: The Rise of Communist Power, 1941-1967 (Rental: $8.10)
West Glen Films (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white
Through the use of extensive and significant historical film footage, this film studies the origins and development of the Chinese revolution. Discusses China's internal decay and foreign intervention, the rise of nationalism and the rejection of Confucian heritage as well as Western influence. Includes interviews with Pearl Buck. Written and narrated by Theodore White. See also China: Century of Revolution (revised edition of this film).

China '71
Films Incorporated
16mm, color; 29 min.
Describes the attitudes of the people and the growing industrialism of the country where communes build their own equipment, mills, and factories. Points out that the army raises its own food and builds its equipment to relieve the civilian population of this burden.

China Since 1911 (1961)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 60 min.
A history of China, from the Nationalist viewpoint, beginning with the opening of China by Western imperialism in the middle of the nineteenth century. The film lacks thematic and narrative interest and is subject to some criticism on grounds of objectivity, but does contain some rare footage, particularly of the Japanese invading Manchuria.

China: The Social Revolution (1967)
McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $250.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $9.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
16mm, color, 17 min.
The film begins by contrasting the culture of the upper classes in Chinese society with the reality of peasant existence, and then focuses on the use of political indoctrination and control to narrow the traditional gape and antagonisms between the officials and the people. The film also discusses the changing role of women and religion.
China Story: One-Fourth of Humanity (1968)

Keposin Films (Rental: $135.00) (Release: purchase: $600.00 - $900.00)
16mm, color, 75 min.
This film was compiled by Edgar Snow over a period of thirty years as a foreign correspondent in China. It contains a great deal of footage that cannot be seen anywhere else, including interviews with Mao Tse-tung, Chou En-lai, and others, and pictures of the Chinese Red Army's historic Long March.

China Today (1972)

NBC Educational Enterprises (Rental: $13.00) (Sale: $275.00)
Films Incorporated (Rental: $23.00) (Sale: $330.00)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $9.15)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 22 min.
Shows China's structured society concentrating on the area of economics, agriculture, education, and medicine. Commentated by John Chancellor.

China - The Two-Headed Dragon

West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 17 min.
Documents the long and bitter struggle for the control of China between Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Tse-tung. Discusses the decision of the United Nations to seat the People's Republic of China and to expel the Nationalist Chinese Government. Screen News Digest.

China Under Communism (1962)

Encyclopedia Britannica Films (Rental: color-$13.50)
Indiana University (Rental: color-$9.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: color-$10.30)
University of Southern California (Rental: color-$8.00)
10mm, color and black-and-white, 22 min.
Revised edition of the above film.
China and the World (1969)

Time Life Films (Rental: $12.00) (Sale: $125.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
The humiliating invasions and defeats of China by foreign powers during the nineteenth century. The effect of the Japanese War and seizure of Taiwan, Korea, and Manchuria. The restoration of digni-ity as a prime motive. China's involvement in Korea. The deterioration of her relations with Russia after the thaw of 1955, and the hardening of the Chinese line. No. 13 in the series World History from 1917 to the Present (See Revolution in China for other films on China in this series.)

China's Youth
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

China's Chair
Contemporary Films/McGraw Hill (Rental: $11.00) (Sale: $260.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $10.80)
16mm, color, 29 min.
Explores the controversial period following the end of World War II and the division of the "two Chinas," up to the seating of the People's Republic of China at the United Nations on November 15, China's Industrial Revolution (1967)

Indiana University (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Colorado (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Wyoming (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: color-$7.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica Films (Rental: color-$11.00)
(Sale: color-$220.00; b&w-$150.00)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 15 min.
This film depicts China's patterns of industrialization focusing on the relationship between industrial development and agriculture, and the role of foreign aid. It depicts China as increasingly selfreliant as a result of her ability to build up her own machinery industry while mechanizing agriculture and producing consumer goods, but notes the role played by substantial aid from the Soviet Union during the decade of the 1950's. The problems created by industrialization are presented quite clearly. This film was photographed by a Swiss cameraman whose freedom of movement was limited by Chinese authorities.

China's Villages in Change (1967)

Indiana University (Rental: color-$9.00)
University of Colorado (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Wyoming (Rental: color-$7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: color-$6.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica Films (Rental: color-$11.50)
(Sale: color-$290.00; b&w-$150.00)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 20 min.
A very useful film to stimulate a discussion of the ways in which China has dealt with problems of agricultural backwardness and a small peasant economy. By focusing on three different villages in widely separated parts of the country, the film offers an interesting contrast in economic standards of living and social patterns of behavior. This film was photographed by a Swiss cameraman whose freedom of movement was limited by Chinese authorities.
The Chinese American: The Early Immigrants
Hamel Film Corporation (Sale: $270.00)
16mm, color, 20 min.
The history of the first Chinese to come to the United States, their role in the gold rush, the building of the transcontinental railroad, their savage persecution and eventually their unjust exclusion.

The Chinese American: The Twentieth Century
Hamel Film Corporation (Sale: $270.00)
16mm, color, 20 min.
The development of San Francisco Chinatown following the Earthquake. Important Chinese personalities. President Nixon's visit to China. Interviews with a Chinese American student, a banker, and a judge. The unique position and problems of the Chinese American who finds himself on the crossroads of two political systems.

Chinese American (1970)
SFA Educational Media (Sale: $21.00)
Super 8mm film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows typical shots of Chinatown and a Chinese festival. Portrays the difference in assimilation of the younger as opposed to the older generation.

Chinese Art Treasures (1962)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 10 min.
This is a recording of some Chinese objects d'art from a selection of Chinese art treasures which were exhibited in the United States in 1960-61.

Chinese Bronze of Ancient Times
Indiana University (Rental: $8.50)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 15 min.
Chinese bronze ceremonial vessels produced before the Christian era are deeply religious in conception. Their designs have influenced the design of ceramics, textiles, and jades, and have served as touchstones to the validity of recorded ancient Chinese history.

Chinese Brush Strokes - An Introduction to Chinese Writing (1961)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $6.50)
Martin Meyer (Sale: $20.00) (Preview print & study guide available.)
16mm, color, 17 min.
Traces the history of Chinese writing from its early pictographic form to the present writing system. An illustration is given on the techniques employed in creating the twelve basic strokes from which all the ideographs are composed; each stroke is identified by its Chinese name.

Chinese Ceramics Through the Ages (1955)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
Offers a panoramic view of the evolution of Chinese ceramics from Neolithic earthenware down to refined porcelain.
Chinese Communist Foreign Policy (1962)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
Describes China's interests in its bordering countries. Describes settlements with Pakistan over Kashmir, tentative diplomatic relations beyond the border countries, Chinese strategy at the Bandung Conference, and Peking's attitudes about U.N. membership.
Doak Barnett discusses the intent, hindrances and possibilities that affect Chinese foreign policy. No. 33 in the series Communism - Myth vs. Reality.

The Chinese Communist Industrial Economy (1962)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
Examines the economic and industrial objectives and accomplishments of the Chinese communists, discussing the relationship of their industrial capacity to that of other Asian nations, the contribution of industry to China's military capacity, and China's economic prospects. No. 21 in the series Communism - Myth vs. Reality.

Chinese Dressmaking
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 10 min
Fitted sheath-like gowns with side slits and high collars - these are the features of Chikho, the traditional Chinese dress for women.
Shows how a master tailor designs and sews a gown with trimmings that fits a Chinese doll perfectly.

Chinese Family: Life Aboard a Sampan (1968)
BFA Educational Media (Sale: $25.95)
Super 8mm film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows a day in the life of a sampan family.

Chinese Firecrackers
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 10 min
As far back as the seventh century, the Chinese burned bamboo sticks to explode and scare away devils. When gun powder was invented in the Sung dynasty, firecrackers took their present form. Shows how Chinese firecrackers are made today - by methods dating back to the Sung dynasty, and how they are used in festivals.

Chinese History During the Past Fifty Years
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white

Chinese Ink and Water Color (1961)
Martin Meyer Production (Sale: $223.00)
16mm, color, 18 min.
Fay Chong, an instructor of calligraphy, demonstrates the use of Chinese ink, mounted rice paper, Chinese brushes, and water colors in painting that combines the oriental and western techniques.
Includes exercise sheets. Preview prints available.
Chinese Jade Carving (1950)
- Purdue University (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, color, 10 min.
Painstaking Chinese craftsmen spend lifetimes in the pursuit of perfection in jade carving. Basic techniques of jade carving are demonstrated by a master artist and beautiful samples are shown.

Chinese Journey (1968)
- Time Life Films (Rental: $25.00) (Sale: $300.00)
16mm, color, 25 min.
This is part of "The World of Lowell Thomas" series; the film covers a journey through parts of Northern China, the Yangtze River Valley, Peking, the Mongolian People's Republic, and Ulan Bator. The emphasis is on scenes of temples, monasteries, and ancient artifacts; the film is an interesting travelogue, unconcerned with the social, economic, and political conditions of the countries visited.

Chinese, Korean, and Japanese Dance
- The Asia Society (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $225.00)
16mm, color, 25 min.

Chinese Music and Instruments (1969)
- Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
An introduction to the instruments used in Chinese classical music, demonstrating their use individually and in ensemble.

Chinese New Year (1964)
- Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 15 min.
Lunar New Year to the Chinese is like Christmas to the Westerners. This film shows some of the colorful scenes of traditional customs related to the Lunar New Year Season, including a farewell party for the "Kitchen God," dragon and lion dances, and the traditional family dinner.

Chinese Objects d'Art (1970)
- Doubleday Multimedia (Sale: $23.50)
Super 8mm film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Describes Chinese works of art and points out that the skills, artistic abilities, and industrious nature of the people who produce the objects of great commercial value have helped to balance the economy of Hong Kong. Teacher's guide included.

Chinese Painting: Its Traditions and Techniques (1964)
- University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $5.70)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 15 min.
Chow Chian-chiu and Chow Leung Chen-ying demonstrate principles and techniques which underlie ancient traditions and explain symbolism which motivates their expression.

Chinese Painting Through the Ages
- Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
This film endeavors to show, with the best specimens available, how Chinese painters evolved their theory and practice, and what Chinese painting has to offer the world of art.
Chinese Peasant Goes to Market (1949)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $8.00)
University of California, Los Angeles (Rental: $5.00)
Black-and-white, 10 min.
Daily life of peasants in traditional China.

Chinese Planting Medicine
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $10.00 per showing)
16mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People’s Republic of China.

Chinese Sculpture Through the Ages
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
Sculpture is shown to be religiously and architecturally functional to the Chinese. This film, via the medium of sculpture, emphasizes the religious aspect of the Chinese people. The art of sculpture suffers when the spiritual ardor wanes.

Chinese Shadow Play (1947)
Indiana University (Rental: $4.75)
16mm, color, 11 min.
After a brief history of the shadow play in China, a shortened version of one of China’s most popular fairy tales, “The White Snake Lady,” is shown. After the performance, the camera moves backstage to reveal the musical instruments, the beautifully painted puppets and the skill with which they are manipulated.

Chinese Shadow Plays
Asian Theatre Program Film Lending Library (Rental: $15.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Performed by Master Chang Teh-ch’eng and his puppet troupe from Taiwan. Converted from a video-tape made during Chang’s U.S. tour in 1972.

The Chinese-Soviet Relationship (1964)
Association-Sterling Films (Rental: $11.50) (Sale: $150.00)
Macmillan Films (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 28:30 min
Professor A. Doak Barnett and Marshall Schulman discuss the nature of the Sino-Soviet split and the major points of dispute and disagreement involved. A concise presentation which could serve as an excellent stimulus for discussion.

Chinese Village
Colonial Williamsburg Film Distribution Center (Rental: $8.00)
16mm, color, 15 min.
The story of a legendary Chinese village told by means of Chinese paintings in the collection of the governor’s Palace in Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. To the background accompaniment of traditional Chinese music, the narrator tells the story of the founding and growth of the village in a simple and clear manner. Excellent shots of Chinese houses, dress and landscape as well as such daily activities as fishing, hunting, and farming.

Chinese Writing (1969)
Harmon Foundation (Rental: $8.00) (Sale: $200.00)
16mm, color, 22 min.
Shows how modern characters evolved from ancient pictographs and demonstrates balance in calligraphy.
Chinese Written Language (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia (Sale: $23.50)
Super 8mm film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Demonstrates the evolution of the Chinese written language from pictures to symbols.

Cities in Transition (1969)
Doubleday Multimedia (Rental: $20.00) (Sale: $200.50)
Purdue University (Rental: $8.25)
16mm, color, 18 min.
Preseuts contemporary vignettes of China's largest city, Shanghai. Shows that the people of Shanghai and other urban centers are experiencing a transition from Confucianism and colonialism to communism and a modern society. From the series Red China.

A City of Cathay (1961)
Chinese Information Service (Loan) (Sale: $168.00)
16mm, color, 25 min.
One of the greatest paintings in the history of Chinese art is presented for the first time on screen: the Ch'ing Ming Shang Ho T'u, which is thirty-seven feet long and one foot high. It shows the lively scenes of a spring festival up the river from Kaifeng, capital of China during the Sung dynasty. Background music arranged by Kuo Pao-lee.

The Cuck Crows at Midnight
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35 mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

Communism in China (1964)
Institute for American Strategy (Loan)
2 films, 16mm, black-and-white, 30 min each
Lecturer Karl Wittfogel discusses the background of the Chinese communist struggle for power and the development of the Communist Chinese regime.

Communism in Conflict - The Dragon and the Bear (1963)
Screen News Digest
16mm, black-and-white, 17 min.
Examines the ideological break between Chinese and Russian Communists. With study guide.

Communist China (1965)
Indiana University (Rental: $6.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $7.70)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $6.50)
Yeshiva University Film Library (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 23 min.
Focusing on the population problem, this film contrasts peasant conservatism to the changes that have shaken that conservatism. With a slightly pessimistic view of the future, the thesis is suggested that flood control and water conservation education, and land reform will perhaps allow the problems of good production and population growth to be solved, if time allows.
Communist China's First Decade (1962)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
Portrays Communist China's internal developments and external policies during its first two decades. The film conveys the impression that China's failures and excesses outweigh her achievements. A partial portion is followed by a discussion of China's problems and prospects by Dr. Roger Swearingen and Dr. Richard Walker, both of the University of Southern California. Discussants warn that China poses a formidable threat to world peace. This film is not wholly free of biases; it is thus best suited to students with a basic knowledge of the subject. No. 19 in the series Communism - Myth vs Reality.

Communist China's Foreign Policy (1962)
Association-Sterling Films (Rental: $11.50) (Sale: $150.00)
Macmillan Films (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 28:30 min
Professor A. Doak Barnett discusses Chinese Communist Foreign Policy, touching on all major aspects of the subject. A good survey and an excellent stimulus for further discussion. Professor Barnett answers student questions at the end of the lecture.

Communist Chinese Agriculture (1962)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
Shows the intensive use of land under cultivation. Points out land-man ratio and describes the programs of drastic land reform. Choh-Ming Li discusses the seriousness of agricultural crisis, the recognition of agricultural failures by the communists and the implications of the Soviet rift for agriculture. No. 22 of the series Communism - Myth vs Reality.

The Communist Revolution in China (1962)
Association-Sterling Films (Rental: $11.50) (Sale: $150.00)
Macmillan Films, Inc. (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 28:30 min.
This is part of "The Meaning of Communism" series. The film contains a lecture by Professor A. Doak Barnett on the history and development of the Communist-led Chinese Revolution. A broad and concise survey, the film provides stimulus for discussion. Professor Barnett answers some questions from students at the end of the lecture.

Communist Take-Over of China (1972)
Anargyros Film Library (Sale: $15.95)
Super 8mm film loop, silent, black-and-white, 4 min.
Uses authentic newsreel footage to survey the civil war in China and the role of Chiang Kai-shek. Shows the victorious forces as they parade in Peking and Chairman Mao being greeted by his forces. With film notes.

Confucianism
University of Minnesota (Rental: $6.45)
16mm, 30 min.
Describes Confucius as a teacher and statesman. Points out that when spontaneous tradition breaks down, it must be replaced with deliberate tradition and reviews how this was done by Confucianism.
Call no. - 6730252
Conversation on China (1965)

American Friends Service Committee (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Professor Robert A. Scalapino, Stuart Meacham of AFSC, Howard Stephenson of the San Francisco World Council of Trade, Geoffrey Andrew of the National Conference of Canadian Universities, and Dr. William Moran of the Foreign Service Institute of Georgetown University, discuss China and the U.S. in addition to covering diplomatic recognition, the problem of U.N. membership, cultural exchanges, and the future of Sino-American relations. The film devotes a large portion of time to a discussion of Vietnam and its relation to America's China policy. The controversial concept of Asian Communism is discussed in relation to the war in Vietnam.

Defiant Island

Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.

Destination Hong Kong

Blackhawk Films (Sale: $59.95)
Super 8mm, color, sound, 400 feet
Describes the prominent role of the dragon in the festivities which dominate Chinese culture. Includes scenes from the dragon boat races and the Chinese new year.

The East is Red (1971)

Purdue University (Rental: 16mm-$8.75)
Doubleday Multimedia (Rental: 16mm-$223.00)
16mm and super 8mm, color, 20 min.
A study of the economic and cultural problems of present-day China. traces the development of these problems from the social and political traditions of the past. From the series Red-China.
Eastern Religions: The Way (1973)

NBC Educational Enterprises (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $330.00)

16mm, color, 26 min.

Using animation and stills in motion technique, this documentary illustrates some of the ways man has sought to make order out of his universe. Deals with Taoism, Confucianism, Buddhism, and Shintoism.

Eight or Nine in the Morning (1973)

University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)

U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)

16mm, color, 25 min.

Education in China since the Cultural Revolution. From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

Excerpts from Chinese Opera

Chinese Information Service (Loan)

16mm, color, 10 min.

A fairly short, but colorful sampling of excerpts from seven Chinese operas in the classical tradition. The Chinese music is interesting but the film should be seen as part of a more lively program with a speaker who is knowledgeable and capable.

Exhibition of Chinese Arts and Crafts

China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)

35mm, color, English sound track

A film from the People's Republic of China.

The Face of Red China (1955)

Indiana University (Rental: $14.00)

West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $11.00)

University of Colorado (Rental: $15.00)

Purdue University (Rental: $10.25)

New York University (Rental: $11.00)

University of Southern California (Rental: $12.50)

Contemporary, McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $13.50) (Sale: $275.00)

This film, introduced by Walter Cronkite, was made by a Canadian journalist and a West German photographer during the height of the labor intensive projects of the Great Leap Forward, and is now rather dated. It focuses mainly on life in the cities and on the pressures that the Communist Revolution exerted at that time on the old family structure and the intellectual traditions of pre-1949 China. The role of propaganda in Chinese society, rather than its content, is stressed. The film portrays something of the same spirit that seemed to characterize the Cultural Revolution of the mid-1960's.

The Fall of China (1962)

Indiana University (Rental: $7.00)

University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)

University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)

West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)

Alden Films (Rental: $7.50)

McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $11.00) (Sale: $135.00)

16mm, black-and-white, 27 min.

This film was produced by C.B.S. Television for the "Twentieth Century" series. It is narrated by Walter Cronkite, and opinions are expressed by Hua Chiang Kai-shek, General Wedemeyer, General Barr, and Pearl S. Buck. Background is furnished for each opinion. The Communist victory on the mainland is attributed to the military mistakes of the Nationalists and the ruthlessness of the Communists. There is some interesting old footage used.
Family of Free China
Indiana University (Rental: $8.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $9.40)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 22 min.
Wang Shen, a teenage boy of the village of Pingtung, Taiwan, introduces home life, the educational system, improved farming techniques, commerce, and industries in his village. Life in the large city of Taipei is also explored.

Farming in South China (1949)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $5.00)
New York University (Rental: $9.50)
Indiana University (Rental: $5.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $6.10)
University of Utah (Rental: $6.00)
Universal Education and Visual Arts (Sale: $120.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
Describes rice farming, silk worm breeding, and vegetable production and marketing methods before the Communist takeover in 1949. Focusing on a rather well-to-do peasant family, the roles of superstition, ancestor worship, and the inherent limitations of small peasant land ownership are brought out.

Fascinating Hong Kong
Blackhawk Films (Sale: 8mm-$13.75)
China Trade Corporation (Sale: 16mm-$12.50)
Universal Education and Visual Arts (Sale: 8mm-$12.50)
16mm, 8mm, 58mm, color, 4 min.
Highlights of Hong Kong: Oriental customs and traditions.

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Founding of the Republic
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 60 min.
A historical documentary. This film is also known as China Since 1911. (See description under that title.)

Fifty Years of China (1961)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 45 min.
Shows the history of the Republic of China during the past fifty years. A valuable documentary film for students of modern China.

The First Afro-Asian Table Tennis Invitational Tournament
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
16mm, black-and-white, English sound track, 60 min.
To promote international understanding and friendship, China filmed this tournament of friendly competition.

Fisherman's Song
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 20 min.
This film outlines China's fishing industries, from pearl digging to shark catching and the growing scientific approaches now being used to maintain natural abundance of sea life. A film from the PRC.
The Five Chinese Brothers (1958)
Weston Woods Studios (Rental: $5.00) (Sale: $120.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $5.00)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $3.90)
16mm, color, 10 min.
An iconographic motion picture based on the children's book of the same title by Bishop and Wiese. From the Picture Book Parade Series.

Flight of the Dragon
Indiana University (Rental: $6.75)
16mm, color, 14 min.
Dr. Idu Shih-shun, a Chinese ambassador to Canada, narrates the highlights of his country's history: a series of its artistic masterpieces such as porcelain figurines, jade knives, and candlestick lamps are shown as an expression of the Chinese philosophy and way of life. The figures are from the collection of the Royal Ontario Museum.

Flowers Growing in the Sun
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, Chinese sound track, 20 min.
This short film has a Chinese sound track and is perfect for students of the Chinese language. The subject matter concentrates on the day-to-day life of the children living in China. From the People's Republic of China.

Flowing With the Tao (1973)
Art Eye Productions (Rental: $25.00) (Sale: $200.00)
16mm, color, 14 min.
Alan Watts, America's foremost interpreter of Eastern thought, explores the nature of reality as illustrated in the flowing forms of water.

The Forbidden City (1973)
NBC Educational Enterprises (Rental: $21.00) (Sale: $135.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $17.00)
University of Utah (Rental: $12.00)
16mm, color, 43 min.
The history, people, and treasures of Peking. Winner of San Francisco International Film Festival Award.

Formosa - Blueprint of a Free China (1951)
University of Illinois (Rental: $7.70)
16mm, black-and-white, 27 min.
Show Chiang Kai-Shek's government and the army of Free China on Formosa. With American aid the army has been trained in modern warfare, government officials have worked out problems of administration, and modern agriculture and industry have been developed.

Formosa - The Island of Promise
Indiana University (Rental: $5.25)
University of Colorado (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 18 min.
Formosa, an island which doubled in population with the arrival of Chinese Nationalists, is progressing rapidly with the assistance of the E.C.A. and the Joint Committee on Rural Reconstruction; the island has become almost self-supporting now. With land reforms, military training, and the education of women, Formosa is now a model of progress.

Formosa Story
Indiana University (Rental: $1.75)
16mm, black-and-white, 11 min.
This is a short version of the film Formosa - Island of Promise (see above). The film tells how the island of Formosa is becoming economically self-sufficient through the help of E.C.A. and the Joint Committee on Rural Reconstruction of the United States.

Free China on Parade
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.

Friendship First, Competition Second (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)
16mm, color, 25 min.
Chinese sports and entertainment: juggling, acrobatics, opera, athletics, etc. Emphasizes that for the Chinese competition is seconddary to friendship. From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

From War To Revolution (1969)
Time Life Films (Rental: $12.00) (Sale: $25.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
The social, economic, and political conditions that existed in China during the nineteenth century; the establishment of the Chinese Republic in 1911 under Sun Yat-sen; its collapse, Civil War, and Chiang Kai-shek's take over of the Nationalist Party in 1926; the Japanese invasion; the defeat of Chiang by Mao Tse-tung in 1949.
No. 11 in the series World History From 1917 to the Present. (See Revolution in China for other films on China in this series.)

Glimpses of Taiwan (1969)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
Portrays the colorful aspects of the Chinese way of life, revealing the fascinating attractions Taiwan has to offer the tourist.

Golden Heritage - Golden Harvest (1968)
Chinese Information Service (Loan - write to Association-Sterling Films)
16mm, color, 27 min.
Documents Taiwan's transformation from an agriculture-oriented society into one predominantly industrialized.

The Golden Mountain on Mott Street (1968)
Carousel Films
16mm, black-and-white, 34 min.
Discusses the Chinese immigrant and the complex problems that confront him and his children as an ethnic minority in the United States.

Good Earth (1937)
Indiana University (Rental: $10.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $11.20)
16mm, black-and-white, 62 min.
This is an abridged version of the feature film, The Good Earth; it portrays farm life in China before the Republic, when agriculture was the main occupation of most Chinese families. The film shows the painful effect of famine in a farm community and the triumphant return to the land after the famine is over.
The Good Earth - "Famine Sequence" (1952)
Films Incorporated (Rental: $60.00 for five years; $52.50 for three years)
16mm, black-and-white, 15 min.
Part of a larger film called The Good Earth, adapted from Pearl Buck's novel. Although a fictionalized background of the Chinese Revolution, the situations, problems, and descriptions are real. The acting is good, but Western actors playing the parts of Chinese peasants detract somewhat from the impact of the film.

The Good Earth - "Woman Sequence" (1952)
Films Incorporated (Rental: $60.00 for five years; $52.50 for three years)
16mm, black-and-white, 15 min.
Part of the larger film called The Good Earth, adapted from Pearl Buck's novel. The traditional Chinese view of women as being inferior and subject to the whims of men is portrayed in many scenes. The film presents the traditional Chinese woman as an object of economic value and an instrument of labor.

Government of Communist China
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
An interview with Dr. Theodore H.E. Ch'en of the University of Southern California, in which he discusses Chinese governmental structure and the means by which the Communist Party controls the government and the people. Somewhat simplistic and often tedious. Emphasizes methods of thought reform and mass mobilization. No attempt is made to explain Communist goals, ideology, and methods as functions of the pre-1949 experience, or to compare the Chinese with other Communist political systems. Recommended for groups with prior knowledge of Communist Chinese politics. No. 20 in the series Communism - Myth vs. Reality.

Great Treasurehouse (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)
16mm, color, 25 min.
Contrasts medical practice in China today with the poor health conditions of the past, emphasizing preventative care and acupuncture. From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

Great Wall (1956)
Oceania Production (Rental: $12.00) (Sale: $125.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 27 min.
This film, produced in Hong Kong, retains the original Chinese (Mandarin) sound track while superimposing an English narration that enters and fades out for adequate explanation. The drama - a true historical story - concerns the experiences of a young couple torn apart by the dictates of a ruthless emperor whose only objective was the building of the Great Wall.

Han Tomb Find
U.S. - China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $35.00)
16mm, color, Chinese sound track, 28 min.
A documentary from the People's Republic of China showing the objects discovered in a tomb of the Han period. The 2000 year old female corpse for whom this tomb was made was found to be in a remarkable state of preservation. English narration on separate cassette.

Hangchow, China's Garden City (1950)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 12 min.
Pictures the grandeur and beauty of Hangchow, including the lakes, temples, gardens, bridges, and bamboo-covered mountains.
Here's a list of film titles and a brief description of each:

New Big Day (1963)
Embassy of The Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 30 min.
A presentation of the colorful celebration of the Double Ten (October 10), a National day of the Republic of China, with special emphasis on scenes of a military parade in front of the Presidential Building.

Here Is China (1944)
The Ohio State University (Rental: OSU use only - apply for price)
16mm, black-and-white, 26 min.
This is a portrait of the Chinese, their life, customs, and peaceful pursuits of spiritual life. There are comments on ancient art and culture of China; shows Chinese at work and at play. Effective when compared with China Under Communism (see above).

Historical Relics Unearthed in New China
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 60 min.
China's archaeological workers undertook large scale excavation and protection of historical relics in various parts of China, while taking an active part in the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution. A multitude of precious articles were discovered and excavated, many extremely rare, some the first such found. A film from the People's Republic of China.

Hong Kong (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
7 Super 8mm film loops, silent, color, 4 min. each.
- Chinese Objects d'Art
- Chinese Written Language
- The Dragon - Symbol of China
- Hong Kong
- Oriental Carpet Weaving
- Rice Paddies of Hong Kong
- Textile Industry of Hong Kong
See individual titles for descriptions.

Hong Kong (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Describes Victoria, Hong Kong, as a classic example of Western influence on an ancient Oriental civilization.

Hong Kong
Indiana University (Rental: $3.15)
16mm, black and white, 10 min.
Hong Kong, a partially westernized city, provides a good example of contrast between the modern way of life and the "old China." Scenes from the film include a Chinese Motion Picture Studio, street life, processions, and famous landmarks.
Hong Kong - Crossroads of the Orient (1962)
Universal Education and Visual Arts (Rental: color-$20.00)
(Sale: color-$198.00; b&w-$99.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: color-$8.40)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 17 min.
Shows Hong Kong's unusual role as the only Oriental city open to traffic from both sides of the Bamboo Curtain. Pictures conditions arising from the serious overcrowding of the city's limited territory and the attempts made to alleviate them. Also shows farming near the Red China border.

Hong Kong: Free Port (1961)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 21 min.
Shows conditions of the Chinese refugees living in the colony of Hong Kong. Explains the importance of the American Consulate in Hong Kong. Demonstrates how cooperation among Americans, British, and the Chinese brings prosperity to the colony.

Hong Kong/Thailand
Cinema Eight (Sale: $59.95)
Super 8mm, color, sound, 400 ft.
A filmed journey in the Far East.

How Communism Came into China
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.

How to Paint in the Chinese Way
Purdue University (Rental: $3.50)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 11 min.
Madame Yee Ping, a famous Chinese landscape painter, introduces the theories in Chinese painting - it is more important to think than to paint.

Idyllic Island
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
Ran In-t'ing, a famous Chinese landscape painter, introduces the beautiful scenery of Taiwan. The skill of Mr. Ran's painting of a landscape is compared with the real scenery. There are about a dozen paintings and scenic locations.
Industrial Development of Free China (1967)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.

Presents the tremendous and impressive industrial growth in Taiwan, attributing it to the free enterprise development strategy of the Nationalist Chinese Government.

Industry of Free China
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 60 min.

This film introduces Free China's industrial development and products. Although mostly light in nature, the industrial production of The Republic of China has enjoyed such booms in recent years that it has helped offset the nation's unfavorable foreign trade balance since 1963.

Inside Red China (1957)
MacMillan Films, Inc. (Rental: $22.50) (Sale: $250.00)
University of Wisconsin (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 56 min.

This film is narrated by Robert Cohen, an American newsreel cameraman and documentary film-maker, who was commissioned by W.B.C. to film the group of American students who went to China in 1957. It is the result of his forty-five day tour of China and deals with China's economic development during the period when Russian aid was still available and welcome. China's progress in agriculture and industry, attracting industrial plants, communications and transportation facilities is illustrated, together with pictures of student life and mass demonstrations.

Inside Red China (1967)
University of Illinois (Rental: color-$19.75)
University of Wisconsin (Rental: b&w-unavailable)
University of Southern California (Rental: color-$15.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: b&w-$7.00)
Carousel Films (Sale: color-$550.00; b&w-$275.00)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 51 min.

Scenes of industrial growth and the communes contrasted with the still low technological level and intensive labor economy and transport system. Interesting scenes of the clean and efficient Chinese railroads, and the faces of youth. The film ends with a discussion of the causes and development of the Red Guards and the Cultural Revolution.

Introduction to Acupuncture (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $17.00)
Color, 22 min.
The history, basic theory and practical applications of acupuncture.

Investment in the Future (1966)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.

Taiwan had sixty-five universities and independent colleges as of the 1965-66 academic year, in which some 85,346 students were registered. In addition, there are fourteen military academies and schools of similar level. This picture shows colorful student life on various campuses.
Invitation to Taiwan (1969)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 30 min.
Describes the tourist attractions in Taiwan. Includes a Chinese opera, dining in a Chinese restaurant, the National Palace Museum, the Taroko Gorge, colorful aboriginal dances, and scenic beauty.

Japan Attacks China (1972)
Kenalex Corporation
Demco (Sale: $24.00) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Super 8mm, film loop, black-and-white.
From the series The World in Flames, which chronicles major events, battles, and strategic moves of World War II. Authentic historical footage compiled from the major archives of the world.

Journey to Kunming - China's Frontier Metropolis
University of Minnesota (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, 29 min.
A visit to the Kunming of 1949. (Call no. - 630828)

Kuan Miao (1966)
Embassy of The Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
Kuan Miao is a typical small town in southern Taiwan whose inhabitants enjoy their century old business - bamboo crafts. This film shows how the local people make their favorite crafts and fare through their booming business.

Land of Genghis Khan (1936)
University of Illinois (Rental: $3.40)
16mm, black-and-white, 10 min.
Reviews some aspects of life in Mongolia, showing the sunbaked cities, residences of Mongolian nomads, felt tents in the Gobi Desert, a Buddhist temple, villagers, a religious festival, a devil dance, herdsmen, and a camel caravan.

A Letter From Taiwan (1965)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
Presents a report on Taiwan, including its way of life, education, health, culture, industry, agriculture, and scenery.

Life in China
The Ohio State University
A series of seven films about contemporary life in Mainland China.
The first three films are now available:
1) Mill Workers' Family (1971)
16mm, black-and-white, 17 min; (Rental: $7.00) (Sale: $10.00)
Shows the typical pattern of family life in China. Focuses on one family, showing both husband and wife employed as skilled laborers in Peking's State Cotton Mill Number 2; their child who plays in the Mill's nursery; their life together with one grandparent living in a Mill apartment; their participation in community action groups and self-improvement study; their leisure time as a three-generation family on their day off in the parks of the Imperial Palace.

2) Agricultural Worker in the Commune (1971)
16mm, black-and-white, 25 min. (Rental: $7.50) (Sale: $120.00)
Portrays the communal structure of rural China today and reveals the place of the individual citizen within it.

3) Industry (1972)
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min. (Rental: $8.00) (Sale: $135.00)
Stresses the importance of both heavy and light industry in China's development, showing the steel mills of Wuhan, the harbors of Shanghai, a fertilizer factory, ceramics factory, textile mill, and a commune tea factory. The life of the industrial worker is reviewed—living conditions, education, and health programs, and the part which workers play in the political and cultural demonstrations.

Life in the Far East (1969)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $7.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.30)
University of Wyoming (Rental: $7.50)
Coronet (Sale: color-$195.00, black-and-white-$97.50)
16mm, color, 10 min.
Explains how Southeast Asia has become westernized but has remained culturally linked to China.

Life in North China (1971)
Films Incorporated (Rental: $19.00) (Sale: $230.00)
16mm, color, 18 min.
Commune workers from the country join with the city workers of North China, once known as Manchuria, to celebrate National Liberation Day.
Rare scenes of the Chinese in festive mood thronging through the streets and squares of the city to watch the parade.

Life on the Land (1969)
DoubleDay Multimedia (Rental: $17.55) (Sale: $175.00)
16mm, color, 15 min.
Depicts the lives of peasants on the people's communes in the Yangtze River plain outside the cities of Nanking and Shanghai. The communal system is shown with its failures and modifications. Emphasis, however, is placed on the hardships of peasant life. The theme of China as an underdeveloped land and people is repeated many times. From the series Red China.

Liu Pi-Chia
Contemporary McGraw Hill (Rental: $22.50)
Color, 29 min.
Description of the life of a Nationalist soldier working on a land reclamation project in Taiwan.

Mao Tse-tung (1964)
University of Illinois (Rental: $6.30)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
University of Wisconsin (Rental: unavailable)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $8.00)
Alden (Rental: $9.00)
Contemporary, McGraw-Hill Films (Rental: $11.00) (Sale: $185.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 26 min.
The film covers the period in Chinese history beginning with 1912, and describes Mao's personality and those aspects of his life involved with the struggle for power. It indicates his policies in regard to the West, and shows the programs he has initiated in an attempt to transform China into a modern, fully communized, industrial nation. There is some interesting old footage used.

Mao vs. Chiang (1964)
Films Incorporated
16mm, black-and-white, 25 min.
Discusses the defeat of the republican regime of Chiang by the communist forces of Mao and the resulting formation of the People’s Republic of China in 1949.

Mao vs Chiang: Battle for China (1964)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Made up from rather creative editing of interesting documentary footage, this film takes a sharply anti-communist view of the Chinese Revolution, and describes the recent history of China and the personalities and roles of Mao Tse-tung and Chiang Kai-shek from that viewpoint.

Maoism and Titoism (1962)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.
Discusses each leader’s background and political development along with his philosophy and its relationship to the Soviet Union. Presents Mao’s theories on “New Democracy” and discusses their relevance to Africa, Asia, and other underdeveloped areas. Reviews Tito’s theories on leadership, economy, and foreign policy and analyzes Yugoslavia’s contribution to the centrifugal forces in the Soviet Bloc. No. 5 in the series Communist vs. Reality.

Mao’s China
Films Incorporated (Rental: $19.00) (Sale: $230.00).
16mm, color, 18 min.

Mao’s China (1971)
Macmillan Films (Rental: $55.00) (Lease: $695.00, 5 years)
Twyman Films (Rental: $75.00)
16mm, color, 77 min.
The first major documentary about life in the People’s Republic of China, recording the effects of Mao Tse-tung’s cultural revolution. Chosen for screening at the White House prior to President Nixon’s trip to China.

Marco Polo
Association-Sterling Films (Rental: $27.50)
16mm, color, 55 min.
The animated story of Marco Polo’s journey to China.

Marco Polo’s Travels (1955)
Indiana University (Rental: $5.75)
University of Illinois (Rental: $6.80)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $4.05)
University of Southern California (Rental: $5.50)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Rental: $9.00) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 19 min.
This film, through maps, animation, and dramatization, recreates adventures that Marco Polo described in his book about his travels. Differences between Eastern and Western cultures are dramatized by scenes from Marco Polo's detailed account of life in other lands. Collaborated by George B. Fowler.

Masterpieces of Chinese Art

Mass Communications, Inc.
16mm, color, 28 min.

Presents and describes 50 pieces of art from the Chung-shan Museum, Taipei, Taiwan, which houses the richest collection of Chinese art in the world. Includes bronzes from the Shang Dynasty, jade artifacts, Sung porcelain ware, lacquer, and calligraphy. The film concludes with a detailed examination of probably the three greatest paintings in the entire history of Chinese art: Travellers on a Mountain Path by Fan Kuan, Early Spring by Kuo Hsi, and Early Snow on the River by Chao An. A score of authentic Chinese music heightens the mood of the film.

May in Blossom

Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 50 min.

A romance during a visit to Taiwan. This film is in Chinese.

Melody of Ancient China

Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 15 min.

Ancient Chinese melodies are authentically recorded in this delightful short film. Also introduced are various ancient Chinese musical instruments.

Misunderstanding China (1972)

CBS Educational and Publishing Group
16mm, color, 50 min.

Through clips from old films and illustrations from comic books, texts and other sources, this film presents the traditional American view of China as being quaint, ruthless, elegant, impoverished and forever inscrutable. Newsreel footage of the Sino-Japanese War is used to describe the weakness and collapse of the Nationalist armies and the success of Mao's revolution. Designed to make Americans reassess their view of China, this film was prepared as a TV special as background for President Nixon's visit to China.

Modernization Through Human Power (1969)

Doubleday Multimedia (Rental: $19.55) (Sale: $195.50)
Purdue University (Rental: $8.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.

Presents aspects of daily life in two important industrial centers of the People's Republic of China. From the series Red China.

Moscow-Peking Relations (1962)

University of Southern California (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 29 min.

Traces the background of the relations between Moscow and Peking which led to competitive views on communist theory and the treatment of uncommitted areas. No. 32 in the series Communism—Myth vs. Reality.
Moslems in Free China (1965)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
'A moslem family flees from Sinkiang province on the Chinese mainland and arrives in Taiwan via India. This film also shows Moslem activities in Taiwan, including worship at the famous Taipei mosque.

The New China (1969)
Time Life Films (Rental: $12.00) (Sale: $125.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
The dramatic restructuring of the social and economic order during almost 20 years of Mao's rule. No. 12 in the series World History From 1917 to the Present. (See Revolution in China for other films on China in this series.)

New China: Part I - People in Peking; Part II - People in the Country
University of Wisconsin (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, color, Part I - 19 min; Part II - 18 min.
Part I - People in Peking, depicts life in Communist China as experienced by one family. Shows a machine tool factory, its children's nursery and canteen, shops and consumer goods. Shows scenes of Peking's streets, buildings, parks, and a celebration in Workers Stadium.

New Face of Chinese Military
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
This film is also known as Sianyang Operation. In Chinese.

New Formosa
Macmillan Films (Rental: $12.00) (Sale: $125.00)
16mm, color, 45 min.
The historical and contemporary life of Taiwan from the point of view of the people living there.

A Night at the Peking Opera (1959)
Kodak Films (Rental: $75.00) (Sale: $275.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $9.60)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 20 min.
After a brief explanation of the more obvious conventions of the Chinese opera, the film presents excerpts from three operas, performed in Paris by a Chinese opera troupe. The choice of stories presented gives the real flavor of Chinese opera in a way understandable to an observer unfamiliar with this art form, yet enjoyable even to the connoisseur.

Now the Farm is Ours
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 25 min.
Shows the results of land reform in Taiwan.
On A Moon-Lit Night (1965)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, widescreen, 15 min.
This film records the beauty of nature as set to classical Chinese music. On a Moon-Lit Night is an ancient Chinese composition written by Kuan-lun in the T'ang Dynasty.

On Perilous Peaks Dwells Beauty in Her Infinite Variety
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

One Nation Many People (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)
Color, 25 min.
Three of China's national minorities: the Uighurs in Sinkiang, the Mongolians of Inner Mongolia, and the Thai of Yunnan. From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

One Small Step (1972)
Screen News Digest (write for information on free use through sponsorship)
16mm, color, 17 min.
Deals with the visit of President Nixon to the People's Republic of China. Discusses points of agreement between the two countries in the Shanghai communique and other areas of interest concerning the trip.

Open Spandrel Bridges
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

Oriental Brushwork
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica Films (Rental: $11.00) (Sale: $220.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.
Uses a variety of Oriental paintings from the Freer Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. to depict the characteristics of Oriental art. Points out that Chinese art is the ancestor of Japanese art. Similarly for music. Features Mr. Tyrus Wong and Dr. Chiura Obata. Narrated by Eliot O'Hara.

Oriental Carpet Weaving (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
Demon (Sale: $23.50) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Demonstrates new methods and modernized tools which are improving commercial potential of oriental carpet weaving.

Oriental City - Canton (1949)
Universal Education and Visual Art (Rental: $13.00) (Sale: $120.00)
University of Illinois (Rental: $5.10)
University of Colorado (Rental: $5.00)
University of Utah (Rental: $5.00)
Watson-Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
A cursory survey of life in Canton before 1949, showing brief scenes along the waterfront, of the financial district, the old city, the suburbs and nearby rural areas. The virtues of old Chinese culture are extolled and the uniqueness of Chinese civilization stressed, but social conditions of poverty and psychological degradation for the masses are treated superficially.
Our Man in Hong Kong (1961)
Contemporary, McGraw Hill (Rental: $25.00) (Sale: $250.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $11.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 56 min.
This film was produced by NBC News as an NBC "Special Report."
Narrated by David Brinkley, the film surveys life in Hong Kong and stresses the problems of the city's population - poverty, hunger, overcrowding, education, and health - in sharp contrast to the enormous fortunes that are also being made. The film also includes interesting scenes of Hong Kong street life.

Out of Chinese Painting Brush
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm
The late Professor Chang Shu-chi boldly develops patterns with spontaneous rhythm and harmony in Chinese painting. He shows Chinese mastery of brush work and poetic interpretation of nature.

Overseas Chinese Love Their Motherland
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, Chinese sound track
Shows patriotic activities of overseas Chinese.

Overseas Chinese Students in Taiwan
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min., Chinese sound track
A documentary film on the life of the overseas Chinese students in Taiwan.

Painting a Chinese Figure
University of Minnesota (Rental: $3.90)
16mm, color, 11 min.
A Chinese artist shows how to paint a Chinese figure. Starting with a live model, he makes preliminary sketches and gradually completes the painting, which is simple and subtle. Paintings of opera performers, tribes of people from remote sections of China, and provincial dancers are also displayed.

Painting the Chinese Landscape (1952)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $3.90)
Purdue University (Rental: $5.00)
16mm, color, 10 min.
Illustrates in detail the four important steps in painting Chinese landscapes - layout, brushwork, shading, and retouching. The film includes paintings of the four seasons to emphasize the Chinese philosophy of a perfect harmony with nature.

Painting With Calligraphy (1958)
University of Colorado (Rental: $5.50)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $3.90)
University of Utah (Rental: $5.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $6.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, color, 12 min.
Examples of calligraphy, defined as beautiful writing, are found in hieroglyphics, petroglyphs, and symbolic characters of oriental script.
Demonstrations are given by Eliot O'Hara.
Paper Cutting Little Soldier
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

Patrick Watson Interviews Professor Paul Lin
See China Interview

Pearl of the Orient
Macmillan Films (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $125.00)
16mm, color, 15 min.
The history and contemporary life of Hong Kong. Produced in Hong Kong.

Pearl S. Buck (1950)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $6.00)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
University of Southern California (Rental: $8.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
In an interview, Pearl Buck describes some of the happiest days of her childhood in China, points out the basic differences between the Western and Oriental approaches to living, discusses the changes that have taken place under the Communist regime in China and considers ways in which America may recover the good will which has been lost in Asia during recent years.

Peiping Family (1948)
New York University (Rental: $9.50)
Indiana University (Rental: $5.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 20 min.
This is a film about Dr. C.F. Wu, an American-trained Chinese scientist, and his family in Peiping from the end of World War II to 1948. The film emphasizes family ties and economic difficulties faced by the upper middle class Chinese, their devotion to education and the mixture of traditional and modern ways of life.

Peking - Marco Polo's Wonder (1950)
Contemporary Films (Rental: $10.00)
University of Utah (Rental: $5.50)
16mm, color, 10 min.
A tour of the scenic spots in the city of Peking. The bridge of Marco Polo, the palaces of the emperors, the lakes and other points of interest are shown.

The Peking Opera: Dance of the Warriors
Rogosin Films (Rental: $90.00) (Lease price: $550.00-$750.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 45 min.
A ballet filmed at the Peking Opera

Peking Remembered
Macmillan Films (Rental: $30.00) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, color, 40 min.
Using creative animation techniques, along with carefully researched photographs, paintings, and Oriental objects d’art, this film recreates the turmoil, history and atmosphere of Peking before the Communist regime. Not a political film, but an excellent background for appraising what is happening in China today.
The Peking Symphony Orchestra (1965)
Felix Greene Films (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 18 min.
Symbolising Chinese interest in Western music, at least before the Cultural Revolution, the Peking Symphony Orchestra plays two short pieces by modern Chinese composers and parts of Liszt's Piano Concerto No. 2 in A Major. The pianist is Yin Cheng-zuo, an international prize winner at Vienna and Moscow.

People of Western China (1940)
Indiana University (Rental: $3.15)
University of Utah (Rental: $4.00)
University of Colorado (Rental: $4.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $3.00)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $60.00)
Black-and-white, 11 min.
Features the traditional way of life in a valley of Western China in the days before the communist regime. Shows how centuries-old village industries such as pottery making, weaving, silver working, and bamboo craftsman ship have survived in the face of modern technological development. Contrasts the primitive system of crop-irrigation with the new methods made possible by a hydroelectric plant.

People's Army (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)
Color, 25 min.
From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

People's Communes (1973)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $19.00)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged)
Color, 25 min.
Discusses the means by which China has reached self-sufficiency in food production. Also covers daily commune life. From the One Man's China series by Felix Greene.

The Pleasure of Chinese Cooking (1963)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
Bob Bailey (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, color, 16 min.
Madame Grace Za Chu does the on-camera cooking in this fine based on her cookbook. She gives out secrets of easy preparation of a Chinese dish, shopping and eating customs of Chinese homemakers.

Postal Service Today
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 21 min.
A documentary film on the postal service of The Republic of China.

Prawns
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00, per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 20 min.
Prawns, a Chinese aquatic speciality, are found in the waters of Pohai Bay. In the Spring, schools of female prawns swim from the South to lay eggs in the waters near the estuaries of the rivers which empty into the bay. Soon the spawning season begins. A film from the People's Republic of China.

President-Chiang Kai-shek (1966)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, 30 min.
A collection of documentary film clips of President Chiang's life since his early years.
President Nixon's Visit to China
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $7.00)
16mm, color, 17 min.
An exclusive report on President Nixon's historic visit to the People's Republic of China. Screen News Digest.

Private Industry of Free China (1961)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 30 min.
Shows Taiwan's industrial development since the island's restoration to independence.

Red Banner on the Industrial Front - Taching Oil Field
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 60 min.
A documentary which records the arduous struggle of the workers at the Taching oil field. Practically using their bare hands, the workers built and completed the oil field within a few short years. This film offers a good starting point to understanding China's basic doctrine of self-reliance. A film from the People's Republic of China.

Red China (1971)
Doubleday Multimedia
Purdue University
1) Cities in Transition
2) Life on the Land
3) Modernization Through Human Power
4) The East Is Red
Please see individual titles for descriptions and prices.

Red China (1971)
Time Life Films (Rental: $50.00) (Sale: $500.00)
16mm, color, 50 min.
Portrays China as a completely monolithic society with one mind, one direction, and one all-powerful, all-knowing leader - Mao Tse-tung. Shows propaganda teams singing, dancing, and preaching the teachings of Mao as well as anti-Americanism. Also deals with the agriculture which seems to be flourishing, the industry which has made remarkable strides, and the people themselves who are well-taken care of by the state. From BBC-TV. Winner of 1971 New York International Film and TV Festival Gold Award.

Red China (1958)
University of Colorado (Rental: $4.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 11 min.
Traces the roots of revolt, war, and unrest that have led to two Chinas. Pictures the changes that have taken place behind the Bamboo Curtain, especially in industry and education. Portrays China as a communist country which will go to any extreme to achieve the ends of the state.

Red China (1962)
Indiana University (Rental: $12.25)
University of Southern California ($12.50) (Sale: $275.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 54 min.
This film was taken by a Swiss journalist during visits to China in 1956-1961. Beginning with a short historical sketch of pre-1949 China, the film then shows street life, construction projects, political rallies, and life on a commune. The film was taken during the height of China's post-Great Leap Forward difficulties, and the over-all impression is one of drab conformity and forced labor.

Red China Diary with Morley Safer (1968)
- University of Illinois (Rental: color-$20.00)
- University of Minnesota (Rental: bw-$9.15)
- Bailey Films (Rental: color-$95.00; bw-$12.00)

Morley Safer, a CBS News correspondent, travels to five major cities in China where he interviews students, workers, and peasants, and attempts to get their definitions on what the "thought of Mao Tse-tung" means to them in everyday life. A standard guided tour of Peking, Shan, Tianan, Shanghai, and Canton formed the basic for this film; the correspondent was not allowed to travel in politically sensitive areas. This film attempts to examine the content rather than just the form of Chinese propaganda.

Red China: Part I and Part II
- McGraw Hill Films (Sale: $100.00)

16mm, black-and-white, 5½ min.
A comprehensive review of China's development from 1949 through the aftermath of the Great Leap Forward. First part is an historical survey of the roots of the Communist takeover and early gains. Second part of this film is essentially a travelogue of a Swiss journalist's three-month visit in 1959. Stress is placed on economic development, but other areas are also explored.

Red China - Peking and the Commune (1967)
- University of California (Sale: $286.00)
- University of Illinois (Rental: $10.00)

16mm, color, 22 min.
A record of daily life in Peking and on a communal farm outside the city; observes the effect of government programs in agriculture, education, industry, and public health upon the individual Chinese.

- Indiana University (Rental: $19.00)
- University of Illinois (Rental: $21.55)
- University of Southern California (Rental: $15.00)
- McGraw-Hill Films (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $61.00)

16mm, color, 5½ min.
An interview with reporters and cameramen who visited China and with former U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, attempting to explain some of the forces and factors within Red China which may influence the leaders of that nation in their decision as to whether or not to intervene in the Vietnam conflict.

Red Detachment of Women - Ballet
- China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)

16mm, color, 90 min.
A modern revolutionary ballet performed by the Peking Ballet Troupe. This film pays tribute to the unconquerable spirit of the Red Army fighters and centers around the importance of the role women played during China's struggle for independence. A film from the People's Republic of China. (See also feature-length section)
Red Flag Canal
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
U.S.-China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $95.00)
16mm, black-and-white, Chinese sound track, English subtitles, 145 min.
Tells how the peasants of Lin Haien County, against enormous odds, cut through mountains to build a canal and after ten years of incredible labor transformed a barren, drought-stricken area into a flourishing farmland. The effective and daring tasks performed by women in this undertaking are especially inspiring. From the People’s Republic of China.

Red Wine China (1960)
Sherman Drinberg Film Libraries
16mm, black-and-white
Growth of Communist China from 1947 to 1949.

The Religions of Man: Confucianism and Buddhism (1958)
Indiana University (Rental: $6.75 each)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min. each
1) Confucianism - An introduction to basic Confucian ideas and practices.
2) Buddhism, Pt. 1 - The origins of Buddhism.
3) Buddhism, Pt. 2 - Discusses the “Eightfold Path,” philosophy central to the Buddhist approach to life.
4) Buddhism, Pt. 3 - A survey of Buddhism as a missionary movement with an explanation of the differences between the Hinu-yana and Mahayana schools.

Requiem For A Faith
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $16.00)
Color, 28 min.
Discusses the culture of the Tibetan people, emphasizing their religious beliefs and practices.

Report from China (1971)
Hadin Films (Rental: $60.00 classroom showing; $90.00 high schools; $120.00 campus or public showing)
(Sale: $995.00 complete 90 minute version; $375.00 each 30 minute part.)
16mm, 35mm, color, 90 min. (three 30 min. parts)
Part One: A close and objective look at China’s industries with visits to several different factories and interviews with factory leaders.
Also shows a worker’s residential district, visiting a kindergarten, a two-shift elementary school, and a housewives’ study group.
Part Two: Studies the solidarity and diligence of the Chinese people as they work together for the advancement of their country, with visits to a typical worker’s home, a cultural center, a work-study agricultural school, a commune, a teacher’s college, and more factories. Students travel to the country to assist farmers with their harvest, and the people join together in a mass celebration of the National Day.
Part Three: A continuation of this study of the non-violent Chinese Revolution, focusing on winter preparations on a commune, a travelling medical team with a mobile operating unit, Red Guards undertaking their own 14 month “Long March” across China in memory of the famous “Long March” of the Chinese Revolution, and Mao’s words to the younger generation: “The world is yours as well as ours, but in the last analysis, it is yours.”
A Report On Acupuncture
Macmillan Films, Inc. (Rental: $25.00) (Sale: $80.00)
16mm, color, 28:30 min.
An objective, factual report on acupuncture as applied primarily to diagnosis, treatment of pain and illness, and anesthesia. Intended for general audiences as well as for medical professionals. Filmed in Taiwan. This film is a finalist in the 1974 Atlanta Film Festival.

Report on China (1944)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 32 min.
Presents the record of American-Chinese cooperation for victory. Shows accomplishments of General Stilwell in training Chinese soldiers, General Chennault in directing Chinese and American military aviation, the building of the Stilwell Road. Surveys Japanese aggression in China from 1941 on, including the sacking of Nanking.

Revolution in China
Time Life Films (Rental: $12.00 each) (Sale: $25.00 each)
Three films, black-and-white, 20 min. each
1) From War to Revolution
2) The New China
3) China and the World
Please see individual titles for descriptions. These films represent Unit IV in the series World History From 1917 to the Present.

Rice Paddies of Hong Kong (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
Demos (Sale: $23.50) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows that the production of rice is an important facet of existence in Hong Kong.

The Rise of China (1966)
Indiana University (Rental: $6.75)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Uses evidence provided by China's recent wars and present industrial development to analyze the affect which China will continue to have upon world peace. Examines the United States' policy of containing China and interpersperses interviews with leading experts on China with scenas shot in China and countries directly influenced by China, such as Korea, Malay, and India. Also known as The Struggle for Peace:
The Rise of China.

Rise of Communist Power (1967)
University of California, Berkeley (Rental: $11.00)
Black-and-white, 29 min.
Describes Mao's gain of the mainland and Chiang's retreat to Taiwan.
An edited version of China: Roots of Redness.

Sampan Family (1969)
Indiana University (Rental: $5.00)
University of Michigan (Rental: $3.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $6.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 15 min.
Shows the Ling family, who live on a sampan in the Min River in Fukien Province. Presents the family's daily fishing activities, the housekeeping chores, the preparation of food, the family having lunch, the mother sewing the children's clothing, the drying nets, and the entire family rowing their home (boat) to the night's anchorage.

46
San Min Chu I in Taiwan (1965)
Embassy of the Republic of China (Loan)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 25 min.
San Min Chu I, or The Three Principles of the People, represents the political and social philosophy of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, father of the Republic of China. Released in the centennial of Dr. Sun, this film shows how the principles are applied and how they are successfully carried out in Taiwan.

Scientific and Educational Film - Comets
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

Self Reliance (1973)
U.S. - China Friendship Association (Rental: arranged).
16mm, color, 25 min.
Explains China's policies of self-reliance and decentralization in an introduction to her economy. Also discusses conservation and recycling. From Felix Greene's One Man's China series.

Seven Festivals of China
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color
A colorful portrait of Chinese customs and festivals now preserved only by the Chinese people of Taiwan. Acclaimed as the best film depicting the theme "Adventures in Understanding Through Travel" at the 1974 Laguna Beach International Film Festival in California.

Shihmen Dam
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 60 min.

Should Red China be Admitted to the U.N. (1954)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $1.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 15 min.

Siangyang Operation
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
A film on the new military unit of China.

Sino-Soviet Conflict (1961)
Institute for American Strategy (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Lecturer Karl Wittfogel discusses the background of the Sino-Soviet conflict and the probable effects of an official break between the two major Communist countries.

Siu Mei Wong: How Shall I Be? (1971)
Learning Corp. of America (Rental: $20.00) (Sale: $220.00)
16mm, color, 18 min.
A study of one of the ethnic groups of American society. Describes a family conflict which arises when a Chinese girl wishes to study ballet after school and her father wishes her to continue to study Chinese. The minimal dialogue in this film is in Chinese, with subtitles.
Sound of a City
Macmillan Films (Rental: $12.50) (Sale: $150.00)
16mm, color, 12 min.
A film on Hong Kong, one of the world's busiest and most beautiful harbors and the real open door between Red China and the rest of the world.

Sparkling of Canals in Shaoshan
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing), 35mm, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

The Story About Ping (1955)
Weston Woods Studios (Rental: $5.00) (Sale: $120.00)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $3.90)
University of Nevada (Rental: $5.50)
University of Utah (Rental: $5.50)
16mm, color, 10 min.
Employing the iconographic method, using the pictures and text of the picture book by Hariorie Flack and Kurt Wiese, telling of a young Chinese duck who runs away from his river houseboat home on the Yangtze River.

The Story of Chinese Art (1952)
Indiana University (Rental: $8.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $8.70)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 20 min.
This is a survey of Chinese art from its unknown beginnings to modern times, showing how it was affected by Asiatic and European influences. Art objects, animated maps, and graphs are used to show China's contribution to world civilization.

The Struggle For Peace: The Rise of China
University of Illinois (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
Describes the old and the new as the photographer gives his own interpretation of the historical and cultural paradoxes found in Peking.

Table Tennis
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing), 35mm, color, English sound track
A film from the People's Republic of China.

T'AI Chi Ch'UAN (1969)
Tom Davenport (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $60.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 8 min.
Analyses the aesthetic and spiritual values of the traditional form of spiritual and physical Exercise in China called T'ai Chi Ch'Uan. Performed by Nan Huii-chiang on the seacoast of Taiwan.

Taiwan
University of Wyoming (Rental: $12.00)
16mm, color, 30 min.
Describes the educational system of the island in three classes: schooling for all, vocational schools, and schools for the handicapped. Also shows aspects of agriculture and communications.
Taiwan - 1969
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, 25 min.
Introduces achievements in industrial fields and in a better life on Taiwan.

Taiwan: The Face of Free China
Indiana University (Rental: $9.00)
16mm, color, 26 min.
Presents a brief history of Taiwan from its discovery by the Chinese to the present. Topics discussed in the film include geographic location, topography, population, politics, education, religion, and the economical improvement of Taiwan.

Taiwan Today (1960)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 28 min.
This film shows the image of a free and happy group of people, their festivals and religious rites, schools and factories, farms and forests, problems and hopes. This film is also known as This is Taiwan.

Tao-chi: Post Painter of Old China (1967)
University of Michigan TV Center (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $100.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min. (also issued on videotape)
Reviews the life and multifaceted talents of Tao-chi, a 17th century artist, examining his poems and paintings which possess many 20th century qualities.

Textile Industry of Hong Kong (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
Demo (Sale: $23.50) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, 6 min.

The Third China
Association-Stirling Films (Rental: $13.50)
Carousel Films (Sale: color-$195.00; b&w-$100.00)
16mm, color and black-and-white, 16 min.
A report on the twenty million expatriate Chinese who live in Singapore, Thailand, Indonesia, Hong Kong, and Malaysia. This report considers why overseas Chinese virtually control the economy of many of the countries they live in and notes the uneasiness and sometimes hostility of the citizens of the host country.

This is Taiwan
See Taiwan Today

Three Great Religions
Harmom Foundation (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, 15 min.
Presects the three philosophies that dominate China - Taoism, Buddhism, and Confucianism.
Three Thousand Years of Chinese Art
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 25 min.
Priceless Chinese art treasures, deposited at the National Palace Museum in Taiwan, are presented with explanations in chronological order. These include calligraphy from the Chin and T'ang dynasties, paintings from the T'ang and Sung, bronzes and jades from Shang-Yin and Chou, and porcelain from the Sung and Yuan dynasties, enamelware, lacquerware and miscellaneous objects.

Thunder Out of Asia - The Dragon and His Dreams (1966)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $3.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 15 min.
Portrays the life and times, triumphs and trials of Mao Tse-tung. Documented with historical films.

The Thunder Tigers
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, color, 10 min.
A documentary film on the tactical training of the Chinese Air Force.

Tikki Tikki Tembo
Weston Woods Studios (Rental: $10.00) (Sale: $120.00)
16mm, color, 9 min. (Primary grades)
This Chinese folk tale, illustrated iconographically, tells the story of why Chinese parents today give their children little short names instead of great long ones. Also available as sound-filmstrip.

Tingfu Ts'iang (1950)
NBC Television
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min.
A "Meet-the-People" interview in which Dr. Tingfu Ts'iang, the chairman of the Chinese delegation to the General Assembly of the United Nations and the Chinese representative on the Security Council, discusses American-Chinese aggression and the role of Nationalist China in the world.

A Town By the Yantze
Picture Film Distribution Corp.
16mm, color, 10 min.
A poetic picture of the medieval town Changsu as it appeared before 1949.

Town Life (1970)
Doubleday Multimedia
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows typical town scenes in Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, and on the Chinese mainland.

The Trouble With Chinatown (1969)
NBC Educational Enterprises (Rental: $15.00) (Sale: $330.00)
16mm, color, 26 min.
Confronted by a massive wave of immigration and a restless and westernized younger generation, many Chinese are beginning to look again at their traditional isolation. This ethnic group is finding ways to deal with the new problems of a rapidly changing social structure.
Turmoil in Communist China—The Troubles of Mao Tse-tung (1967)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $4.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 16 min.
Tells the story of Mao Tse-tung and presents the history of China since the founding of the Chinese Communist Party in 1921. Screen News Digest.

Two Faces of China (1966)
Magnun Photos (Rental: $50.00) (Sale: $500.00)
16mm, color, 50 min.
Discusses the persistence of tradition in today's China.

The Two-Headed Dragon (1971)
Screen News Digest (write for information on free use through sponsorship)
See China—The Two-Headed Dragon for description.

Two Heroic Sisters on the Grasslands (1966)
M. Scher (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, color, 65 min.
The story of two sisters on a commune in Inner Mongolia. The two sisters, one 9, the other 7, are left to guard the commune's flock of sheep, when a violent blizzard isolates the girls and the sheep. Rather than save themselves and allow the flock to be lost, the two girls brave cold and hardship to stay with the flock until help arrives. The film is an animated cartoon of the Walt Disney type; the narration is in Chinese with brief English explanations. It is supposedly based on a true story that took place in Inner Mongolia in 1964.

2100 Year Old Tomb Excavated
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, color, English sound track, 30 min.
This film tells the story of the excavation of a Chinese noblewoman's corpse belonging to the Western Han Dynasty. The 20th Century came to know the Chinese matron two years ago. Her 65 foot high burial mound lay in the path of a hospital project outside Ch'angsha, capital of Hunan Province. A film from the People's Republic of China.

Understanding the Chinese (1945)
University of Utah (Rental: $7.50)
16mm, color, 11 min.
Traces some of the early accomplishments of China and its religious, social, and economic backgrounds. Shows tenant farming as one of the pressing problems and gives an overview of the various climates and resulting agricultural products. China is comparatively a land of manpower which has resulted in a lack of industrial progress and neglect of natural resource potential.

Chelsea House Educational Communications (Rental: unavailable)
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, black-and-white, 7 min.
Portrays American efforts to maintain the traditional open door policy with China.

Vice President Chen Cheng Visiting the U.S.A.
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 30 min.
This film is narrated in Cantonese Chinese.
Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit (1950)

NBC Television (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min.
A "Meet the Press" interview in which Madame Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, Indian Ambassador to the U.S., discusses the threat of Communist Chinese domination of eastern Asia and India.

Village Agriculture

Doubleday Multimedia
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows the methods of farming the most important crops in the Far East.

Village Domestic Life

Doubleday Multimedia
Super 8mm, film loop, silent, color, 4 min.
Shows houses in villages in Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, and on the Chinese mainland along with the type of life led by the villagers.

A Village in China Today (1966)

McGraw-Hill Films (Rental: $12.50) (Sale: $210.00)
Indiana University (Rental: $7.50)
University of Illinois (Rental: $9.20)
University of Southern California (Rental: $7.00)
This is a film about Kwei Jung, one of China's villages. It portrays how villagers live, and how their life is changing under communism.

War At the Top of the World (1962)

CBS News (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 58 min.
Reports on the Chinese Communist attack on India during the last months of 1962.

War In China (1959)

University of Illinois (Rental: $7.60)
University of Colorado (Rental: $7.50)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $6.00)
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
McGraw Hill Films (Rental: $11.00) (Sale: $135.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 27 min.
Tells the story of how the Chinese people heroically resisted Japanese invasion in the years prior to World War II. This crucial period in modern Chinese history is recreated through the skillful use of selected old newsreels. This film will provide fine background for an understanding of contemporary China. A CBS News production, narrated by Walter Cronkite. Also known as China 1932-1945.

Water People of Hong Kong (1957)

Universal Education and Visual Arts (Sale: $55.00)
West Hartford Learning Resource Center (Rental: $3.00)
16mm, black-and-white, 10 min.
An interesting film study showing daily life on the many hundreds of junks and sampans which form the water community of Hong Kong. Scenes of a wedding and the accompanying festivities are also shown.
Wellington Koo (1951)

NBC Television (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min.
A "Meet the Press" interview in which Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese Ambassador to the United States, discusses the relationship of Nationalist and Communist China.

Wellington Koo (1951)

NBC Television (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black-and-white, 28 min.
A "Meet the Press" interview in which Wellington Koo discusses the reasons for China's being uninvited to the peace talks and the signing of the multilateral treaty.

What is China? (1949)

Indiana University (Rental: $5.50)
University of Minnesota (Rental: $4.05).
16mm, 20 min.
Compares the relative size of Europe and the United States with the size of China proper and shows the geographical sections of China such as Manchuria, Mongolia, and Tibet. Discusses the role of China's rivers in its economy, China's cultural contributions, and a variety of public places.

The Year of the Rabbit (1964)

WMBR-TV, Chicago (Rental: unavailable)
16mm, black and white, 30 min.
Chinese New Year in Chicago.
FEATURE LENGTH FILMS

The Beggar's Daughter (Chin Yu Wu)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (Widescreen)
A story about a poor scholar who married the daughter of a wealthy beggar for money and finally came to love her for her virtue.

Because of Love (Ch'un Chin Ts'ai hu Han)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm and 16mm, color, 100 min.
The unsuccessful artist chooses to bury his troubles in wine bottles and eventually causes the death of his beloved wife.

Bi-Syune-Hwang-Hwa
Audio-Visual Center, Indiana University

This is a story about the ill-fated revolution which took place on March 29, 1911 in Canton, China. An annotated script by Eugene Ching is available from the Publication and Distribution Service, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

The Bean Curd Queen (Tou Fu Hai Shin)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.

Beautiful Duckling (Yang Ya Jen Chia)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A farmer yields to blackmail to prevent his daughter from learning that she is an adopted child. The story finally ends when the girl uncovers the truth and chooses to follow her adopted father.

Black Dragon Residence
Asian Theatre Program Film Lending Library (Loan)
16mm, color, 110 min.
This film on the Chinese theatre form uses authentic Peking Opera techniques. Produced by the University of Hawaii.

Blood Will Tell (Hai T'ang Hung)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about the love and hatred between the Chief of Police, his adopted daughter and her real parents who were outlaws serving sentence in prison.

The Bride and I (Hein Niang Yli Wo)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
This film portrays a comic situation at a wedding.

Days of Cheer and Sorrow
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about the troubled Lee family, who were finally reunited after many days of cheer and sorrow.
The Debt of Blood (Luan Shih Er Nu)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
The story evolves around the family of the president of the Jen-Shuan Hospital during the Sino-Japanese war. It shows the struggle between different members of this family and their varied political views.

Dragon Gate Inn (Lung Men Kâ Chan)
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
The conflict between a famous eunuch named Tsao and the faithful General Yu. The eunuch falsely accused the General to treason and was eventually punished for his own crime at a confrontation with the accused General's exiled family at a wayside inn.

The East is Red (1966)
Contemporary, McGraw-Hill Films (Rental: $75.00 classroom showing; $125.00 or 50% of proceeds from admissions, whichever is higher, for announced or admission charged showing)
16mm, color, 130 min.
This modern opera-epic, which combines elements of traditional Chinese opera with modern revolutionary songs, music, costumes, and staging, was produced by the government of The People's Republic of China. The film is a long description of the Chinese Revolution from the Chinese Communist point of view. It begins with vivid descriptions of exploitation and misery in the pre-communist period, and the birth of the Chinese Communist Party in 1921. The theme is one of enemies and exploitation. The film has been shown to millions of people in China, and is, therefore, a good way to learn what the Chinese people are being taught.

The Emperor's Nightingale
Macmillan Films (Rental: $35.00) (Sale: $650.00)
16mm, color, 60 min.
The legend about the emperor in the court of Cath who finds the answer to the question, "What is happiness?"

Father and Son
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, black-and-white, 100 min (widescreen)

Fire Bull
Mercury (Rental: $150.00)
35mm, color, 125 min.
During the Warring States period (403-221 B.C.), five states combined forces under the command of Yen to attack the State of Ch'i. Under the direction of General Tien Tan, the people of Chino, by means of unity, bravery, and stealth, retaliated against the army of Yen and finally drove the enemies away, and regained their freedom.

Flowers of the Plant
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about the confusion in Professor Lo's family when his illegitimate child moves in.
Forget Me Not
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

Fourteen-thousand Witnesses
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
16mm, black-and-white, 1 reel
Shows 14,000 former Chinese Communist P.O.W.'s of the Korean War and how they later enjoyed their free and prosperous life in Taiwan.

The Fortune Teller's Daughter
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

Four Loves
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.

While growing up, a charming girl develops a warm and loving relationship with each of her three male cousins. Reaching womanhood, she is called upon to choose among them and cannot. The film reveals conflicts in an old Chinese family and the strain of filial respect, fraternal love, and family solidarity.

The Fourteenth Daughter of the Hain Family
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Fugitive
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Great Love Affair on Earth
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, black-and-white, 100 min. (widescreen)
A story about a love affair between a boy and a girl from different parts of China. The conflict of customs, values and views is the basis for endless comedies.

Fairy, Ghost and Vixen
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
Excerpts from the famous collection of stories called Fairy, Ghost, and Vixen.

Her Puzzle
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
This is a story about a girl who has difficulty accepting that her mother is mentally ill; she blames her father for her mother's illness.
After a traumatic incident, she finally begins to understand that her father is a lonely man and that love is the main constituent in a happy marriage.
Human, Ghost and Fox
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
An excerpt from the famous Chinese novel The Haunted. The story evolves around the romance between a poor scholar, a ghost, and a fox.

I'll Make My Own Choice
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
This is a comedy about two young lovers who could not marry each other because their parents had previously arranged marriages for each of them. The conflict is resolved when the lovers find, coincidentally, that they are each other's betrothed.

Jade Goddess
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A love story about two tormented lovers who were forced apart by the girl's parents because of the boy's poverty. The hero and the heroine are finally united, but he dies from ill health at the completion of his artistic masterpiece - The Jade Goddess.

Lady in the Moon
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
Chang-oy, a beautiful fairy in the moon, falls in love with a handsome hunter on earth. The supreme Mother Goddess permits her to descend to earth. The hunter becomes a noble king. Time corrupts mankind; soon he begins to shun the advice of Chang-oy, oppresses his people, and wages war against neighboring states for vanity. Saddened, Chang-oy returns to the moon; an earthquake rakes the kingdom, killing the king.

Lonely Seventeen
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
A sensitive girl of seventeen spends her lonely-days dreaming of marriage with her handsome cousin. When the cousin is killed in an accident, she becomes sorrowful and inconsolable. In time she begins to transcend her sorrow and reach out for life.

The Loneliest Night
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
During the Japanese invasion, T'ien Chung, a Japanese reporter, awakes from a wound and finds that he has been left behind after a severe battle. An aged villager mistakes him for his son and entertains him well. T'ien Chung develops deep understanding and love for the family. He leaves them the next morning with pure friendship and an unforgettable experience.

The Magic Lamp
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, black-and-white, 100 min. (widescreen)
Many Enchanting Nights
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Moon Lit Villa
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A stormy incident occurs, and causes changes in the life of a pretty secretary and two brothers. When life becomes peaceful again, the trio sit together in the Moon Lit Villa talking of the past with sweet and sad recollections.

Morning Song
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A young composer's search for his long lost lover.

Operation Bangkok
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.

Orchids and My Love
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about a talented dancer who becomes crippled psychologically after she recovers from polio at the age of 8. Upon reaching womanhood, she falls in love with a young man; with his encouragement and her longing to lead a normal life, she finally learns to walk and dance again.

Oyster Girl
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A lovely girl learns that she is pregnant after her fiance, a fisherman, goes to sea. She encounters both compassion and cruelty from people in the village. This film was awarded the best film in the 1964 Asian Film Festival.

Passion
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)
A film about passion between men and women.

A Perturbed Girl
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about Yen Sung's granddaughter who unexpectedly marries the only remaining heir of the family which her father executed. On his mother-in-law's birthday, the husband attends the celebration party and discovers some evidence of his father's innocence in a secret place. This evidence is used to clear his father's guilt and to prove that his father-in-law is, in fact, guilty of the crime.
Prosperity Ahead
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

Red Detachment of Women
U.S.-China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $50.00)
16mm, color, Chinese musical sound track, 120 min.
A modern revolutionary dance drama depicting a true episode in the Civil War period of 1927-1937. It tells the story of how a young woman, Wu Ching-hua, together with other bitterly oppressed Chinese women, was drawn into the armed struggle for liberation. A combination of traditional Western ballet, Peking opera, folk dance and Chinese acrobatics. A film from the People's Republic of China.

The Road
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
A young man rebels when his father tries to break up his relationship with a girl. Torn between love for the girl and love for his father, he decides to leave home, but the girl intervenes. Moved by the anguish of the father and son, she contrives to re-unite them at the cost of her own happiness.

Seven Fairies
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Seventh Heaven
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)
A modern story about the poor in Hong Kong.

Silent Wife
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
Honoring a family commitment made before his birth, a young man marries a deaf and dumb girl. Unexpectedly, her beauty, character, and womanly virtues win her husband's love. Her husband had kept a second wife in another city for many years, but finds his love for his first wife much greater than the love for the second. He returns home too late and finds her dead. The stricken husband can only salvage hope for future happiness from his deaf and dumb daughter's love.

Song of China (1934)
Trans-World Films (Rental: $25.00)
16mm, black-and-white, subtitles, 60 min.
Stars Shang Kuah-wu. Directed by Lo Ming-Yau.

Song of the Waves
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)
The Story of Ch'in Hsian-lian
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Story of Ping Pung
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

The Swallows Return
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A daughter begins to fear that she will lose her father's love when he decides to remarry after his wife's death. The girl's hostility sabotages her father's wedding plans. The daughter eventually comes to realize that she has only succeeded in making her father miserable, and that his love for another does not necessarily mean a decrease in his love for her.

Three Smart Girls
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

Temptation
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
16mm and 35mm, color, 100 min.
A story about a young swordsman who was torn between his dedication to defeat the terrorizing bandits and the love for a girl he once rescinded.

Tiao Chan
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min.
During the Three Kingdoms Period (221-229 A.D.), an imperial maid named Tiao Chan vows to help bring about the downfall of a tyrant. She is powerless, however, to keep herself from falling in love with Li Pu, the tyrant's adopted son. Li Pu becomes his father's enemy when the tyrant forces Tiao Chan to be his concubine. Tiao Chan remains with the tyrant until his downfall.

Trouble on the Wedding Night
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)
This is based on a legend of a bride who would not let her husband into the wedding room until he could answer her riddle.

Tunnel Warfare
China Trade Corporation (Rental: $100.00 per showing)
35mm, black-and-white, English sound track, 75 min.
The first full length feature film released outside of the People's Republic of China. This is a fictional account of the Chinese people's struggle to combat the Japanese invasion of their homeland during the 1940s. Through the establishment of an underground network of tunnels, the Chinese were able to repel the threat of Japanese aggression.
The Valiant Villain
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, 16mm, color, 100 min.
Chow Ch'u eliminated the three evils of South China by 1) killing the fierce tiger, 2) killing the dragon that haunted the river, and 3) reforming himself.

When Woman and Robber Met
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

White Haired Girl
U.S.-China Peoples Friendship Association (Rental: $50.00)
16mm, color, Chinese musical soundtrack, 120 min.
A modern revolutionary ballet from the People's Republic of China depicting the class conflict in a North China Village during the War of Resistance against Japan.

Woman in Danger
Mercury (Rental: $125.00)
35mm, color, 100 min. (widescreen)

Wu Feng
Audio-Visual Center, Indiana University
16mm, color, 120 min.
This film depicts the experiences of a Han official who was appointed to take care of tribal affairs in Taiwan. The main theme of the film is the Confucian concept of righteousness even at the expense of one's life. An annotated script by Buren Ching is available from the Publication and Distribution Service, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103.
VIDEOTAPES

Asian American Heritage
Great Plains Instructional TV Library

- (Rental: $75.00/7 days, with broadcast rights)
- (Rental: $131.00/10 months, no broadcast rights)

2 inch videotape and video cassette, color, 30 min.
Introduces students to the many aspects of a rich heritage that have become blended into the American way of life - food, dress, language, poetry, art, and religion. Intermediate. From the series Cultural Understandings.

China: The Big Question (1968)
Audio Visual Education Films (Sale: $110.00)

3/4 inch video cassette, color, 15:30 min.
See film section for description.

China: A One Class Society (1968)
Audio Visual Education Films (Sale: $110.00)

3/4 inch video cassette, color, 15 min.
See film section for description.

Chinese Shadow Plays
New York State Education Department (Rental: $37.00)
Black-and-white, 30 min.
This lecture demonstration presents Chang Teh-cheng, 5th generation Chinese shadow-puppet master as he fashions and paints a typical puppet and then performs a scene from "The Monkey," one of the most famous shadow plays.

Communism in China and the Far East
National Instruction Television Center (Rental: $37.00)

2 inch videotape, black-and-white, 20 min.
Analyzes historically the communist conquest of the Chinese mainland, and investigates the factors involved in the downfall of the Republic of China. Considers China's attempts at industrialization and the regimentation of human activity through the commune system.

Festivals, Fun and the Future
Great Plains Instructional TV Library

- (Rental: $75.00/7 days, with broadcast rights)
- (Rental: $131.00/10 months, no broadcast rights)

2 inch videotape, video cassette, color, 30 min.
A view of the Chinese New Year as it is celebrated in San Francisco and Denver, and other festivals that have deep meaning for Japanese Americans. Depicts scouting activities, judo school, annual picnics, and family fun in the mountains. Shows Asian Americans at work and how this work relates to their future. Intermediate. From the series Cultural Understandings. Preview available.

Shantung Traditional Music
New York State Education Department (Rental: $37.00)
Black-and-white, 30 min.
A performance by the Lu Sheng Ensemble of music from the province of Shantung. The Chinese instruments are shown in conjunction with scroll paintings that serve to illustrate the musical selections. Instruments... shown: the sone (shawn), the ti (bamboo flute), the sheng (bamboo mouth organ), and the shuangkuan (paired double reed pipe).

Tao-chi: Poet Painter of Old China
University of Michigan Television Center (Sale: videotape-$20.00; video cassette-$15.00)
1/2 inch videotape and 3/4 inch videocassette, 30 min.
Three years duplication rights; also issued on 16mm film.
Reviews the life and talents of Tao-chi, a 17th century artist, examining his poems and paintings which possess many 20th century qualities.

What Does It Mean To Be a Chinese American?
Great Plains Instructional TV Library
(Rental: $55.00/7 days, with broadcast rights)
(Rental: $15.00/10 months, no broadcast rights)
2 inch videotape, black-and-white, 30 min.
From the series That's A Good Question, which purports to combat prejudice and racism in pupils of the intermediate grades. Simple previews available.
FILMSTRIPS

American Families: The Wongs (1971)
Coronet Instructional Films
45 frames, color, record or cassette
Introduces a family of Chinese descent, showing them at work, at worship, and playing and solving community problems with their neighbors.

Ancient China (1967)
Inquiry Audio-Visuais (Sale: $7.50)
45 frames, color, 30 min.
Surveys the key elements of China's past, her agricultural patterns, trade, commerce, and intellectual traditions. A fairly successful attempt is made to cover these characteristics which are still relevant to knowledge and understanding of modern China. A good cataylist for further study and discussion of the relationship of ancient to modern China. A teacher's guide is provided.

The Ancient Giant
Society for Visual Education (Sale: $10.00)
45 frames, color
Traces China's history and shows examples of traditional art forms, customs, and recreational activities. Explains how government direction of culture is seen as a way towards greater unity.

The Art of China: PAINTING, SCULPTURE, CERAMICS Educational Dimensions Cenco (Sale: $52.50 with records; $56.50 with cassettes) (when ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $61.50 with records; $67.50 with cassettes)
3 filmstrips, 17 min each, color, 3 records or cassettes.
Covers 3000 years of Chinese art, introducing China's symbolic world of legends and myths.

Asia: The World's New Power (60)
Current Affairs (Sale: $4.00)
45 frames

Background for Today's China (1968)
SSE Cross-Media
3 filmstrips, 65-63 frames each, color, captions.
1) City Life, Transportation, Crafts, Local Trade.
2) Agriculture and Village Life.
3) Cultural Life.
These filmstrips were made from slides taken in 1947 by Cutler J.
Coulson and cover life in China before the communist takeover.

Behind the Bamboo Curtains (1966)
Teaching Resources Films (Sale: $11.00)
72 frames, color, record.
Show the unique, picturesque side of precipitous and achievement of communist China after 20 years of the Revolution.

Buddhism
Time-Life Education (Sale: $7.00 ccartooned; $8.00 sound)
Cenco (Sale: $9.00) (when ordering, mention producer name above) 71 frames, color, sound or captions.
Shows many shrines that testify to the vast influence of Buddhism, its history and doctrines. A lecture booklet is included.
Can Eastern Thought Help the West? (1973)
Multi-Media Productions, Inc.
Demo (Sale: $9.95 with record; $11.95 with cassette)
This program examines the question whether despite technological advances and material progress, something still may be lacking in the West.

Canton: A City in Southern China
Hulton Educational Publications (Sale: $4.79)
Color
Very recent photographs of life in the important city of Canton.

The Chinese Celebrate the New Year (1971)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $13.00)
45 frames, color, record
A study of the life of the Chinese-American family living in a large city and the problems that they encounter as they endeavor to adapt their oriental heritage to their new environment. With teacher's guide.

China
Teaching Resources Films (Sale: $38.75)
2 filmstrips, 55 frames each, color, record
Includes teacher's guide and 35 student handbooks.

China (1970)
Filmstrip House (Sale: $30.00)
4 filmstrips, black-and-white, 2 records
China - Early Civilizations
China - East Meets West
China - The Land and Its People
China Since 1919
See individual titles for descriptions.

China (1972)
Scholastic Magazines (Sale: $15.00 with record; $17.00 with cassette)
65 frames, color, record or cassette
Presents a historical and cultural overview of China, focusing on the search for security and stability and showing the effect of traditional Confucian doctrines. Highlights recent changes in the country. Includes script and teacher's guide.

China
A.J. Nystrom and Co. (Sale: $120.00)
5 filmstrips, 7 cassettes
This program shows the complex transformations that have taken place in Chinese society under communist leadership. Covers geography, history, agriculture, industry, daily life, and gives a summary and an analysis. Dr. Francis L.K. Hsu is program consultant. This is a multi-media program: booklet, transparencies, map, globe, and activity sheets are available at additional cost.
China
--- Scholastic Magazines (Sale: $19.50)
55 frames, color, record
From the series Art and Man. Includes 30 copies of Art and Man magazine, teacher's guide, set of transparency masters.

China...A Place of Mystery (1977)
--- Marsh Film Enterprises (Sale: $17.00)
65 frames, color, record or cassette
Uses photographs of the People's Republic of China made in 1971 to show the similarities and differences between the Chinese and American ways of life. Elementary. Teacher's guide at additional cost.

China: An Overview of South, North and West (1966)
--- McGraw-Hill Book Company
40 frames, color
Defines the three major regions of China and describes the climate, farming, urban areas, and industry in each.

China and the Impact of Communism (1962)
--- Current Affairs Films (Sale: $11.02)
67 frames, black-and-white
Shows present-day China with ruthless regimentation at home and expansionism abroad. The ambitious program of 1966 is dramatized and explanations are given as to why and how it fell short. Filstrip no. 37.

China and Her Neighbors
--- Contemporary, McGraw-Hill (Sale: $28.00 set; 47.00 each strip)
4 filmstrips, color
China: Past and Present - 51 frames
China: Life in the Country - 66 frames
China: Life in the Cities - 46 frames
China: Industry and Communications - 44 frames
Each filmstrip in this series concentrates on one aspect of China, with some duplication throughout the series as a whole. The theme of change and development and the picture of building and growth are constant throughout the series. There are some interesting views of factories production and facilities of the people's communes. A survey of the accomplishments of the Communist government is presented.

China: Art and Architecture (1966)
--- McGraw-Hill Book Company
16 frames, color
Shows examples of the arts of China: paintings, sculpture, tapestries, ink brush drawings, ivory carving, ceramics, as well as choral groups, the theater, films, and acrobatics.

China - Collective Farm (1968)
--- Garman Educational Assoc., Inc. (Sale: $7.50)
21 frames, color (double frame available)
Presents a view of agricultural workers on a modern collective farm cultivating rice and wheat, harvesting crops by hand, raising pigs and ducks, and making noodles and silk.

China: Courts, Tombs and Dragons
--- Educational Activities
--- Denco (Sale: $12.95 with record; $12.95 with cassette)
When ordering, mention producer name above.

---
Learning Arts (Sale: $11.95 with record; $12.95 with cassette)

Color, record or cassette
Uses China's art to tell the story of its history, rulers, people and culture. Includes teacher's guide.

China: The Door Reopens (1973)

Scott Education (Sale: $37.00)

Demco (Sale: $37.00) (when ordering, mention producer name above)

Learning Arts (Sale: $37.00)

2 filmstrips, color, records or cassettes

This special report provides an incisive look at China and its people, its politics, and its future. Part I - Historical background. Part II - Nixon's visit; political life now compared with a few years ago.

China - Early Civilizations (1970)

Filmstrip House (Sale: $0.00)

82 frames, black-and-white, record
Covers the early empire of China from pre-historic beginnings. Explores religious and philosophical development, foreign contact, isolationism, and foreign subjugation. From China series.

China - East Meets West (1970)

Filmstrip House (Sale: $0.00)

72 frames, black-and-white, record
Explores the cultural shock in China toward the coming of the West - internal rebellion, Japanese belligerence, permeation of occidental trade and ideas, and failure to adjust to the twentieth century. From China series.

China: Faraming (1966)

Morrow-Till Book Co.

Demco (Sale: $0.50) (when ordering, mention producer name above)

Learning Arts (Sale: $0.50)

38 frames, color
Scans the principal farm crops in each of the three major regions of China. Includes teacher's guide.

China in the Modern World (1972)

Educational Audio Visual, Inc. (Sale: $64.00 with records; $66.00 with cassettes)

4 filmstrips, color, 4 records or 4 cassettes

The End of Imperial China - 67 frames, 17 min.
The Struggle for Power - 75 frames, 23 min.
The Growth of Chinese Communism - 60 frames, 23 min.
The People's Republic Today - 60 frames, 23 min.

Beginning with the 16th century, this set shows the ancient way of life, the events which led to the Manchu Dynasty's downfall, and the history of the Nationalist and Communist movements. The visual images are supported in the narration by quotations from leading figures in Chinese history and excerpts from ancient and modern Chinese literature. Aspects of traditional and modern Chinese life are interwoven throughout. Teacher's notes and full text of the narration included. Preview privileges.
China in Perspective: Roots of Civilization (1970)
Guidance Associates (Sale: $4.50 with record; $6.50 with cassette)
2 filmstrips, Part I - 104 frames, 16 min.; Part II - 125 frames, 17 min.
Covers the whole period from China's beginnings to the takeover in 1949 by Mao. Interviews with Pearl Buck, John K. Fairbank, and A. Bowk

China in the Seventies (1972)
Hulton Educational Publications (Sale: $4.75)
Omega Films (Sale: $4.75)
30 frames, color
Highlights various attitudes of the Chinese people concerning politics and production as they have developed in the years since the cultural revolution.

China: Industry (1968)
McGraw-Hill Book Co.
Demco (Sale: $5.50) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
39 frames, color
Describes the various types of light and heavy industry in China. Discusses the nation's mineral resources and transportation facilities, and the progress which still must be made to achieve China's scheme of industrialization. Includes teacher's guide.

China: Its People and Its Country
Contemporary Media, Inc. (Sale: $19.50)
60 frames, record or cassette
A basic introduction to the climate, geography, agriculture, natural resources, race, language, and government. From the series China: Yesterday and Today.

China: Its Peoples (1968)
McGraw-Hill Book Co.
Demco (Sale: $5.50) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $5.50)
38 frames, color,
Describes the different ethnic groups in China. Discusses the family structure, urban and rural dwellings, the role of children, and education. Includes teacher's guide.

China Joins the World (1972)
Teaching Resources Films (Sale: $10.00 with record; $11.50 with cassette)
75 frames, black-and-white, record or cassette
Examines Communist China as the third superpower in world diplomacy. Discusses why China has abandoned its policy of isolation and considers the implications of its new policy for world peace. With teacher's guide, script, and duplicating master.

China - The Land and Its People (1970)
Filmsrip House (Sale: $6.80)
66 frames, black-and-white, record
Shows how terrain, weather, and resources have affected national development in China. From China series.
China Now (1972)

BNC Corporation (Sale: $65.00)
Learning Arts (Sale: $65.00)
4 filmstrips, color, 4 records or cassettes

Human Side - Features family life, education, role of women, recreation and cultural activity, medicine and housing - all shown in striking contrast to the stereotyped faceless-masses concept of the Chinese people.

Meeting the People's Needs - Deals with China's giant efforts towards industrialization and modernization of agriculture.

Ideas in Action - Illustrates how the political ideas of Chairman Mao have been translated into organization and action from the national hierarchy down to the local level.

Long March to Unity - Covers the geographical and historical factors which kept China weak and divided for centuries.

In this series, all major aspects of current life behind the Bamboo Curtain are fully documented with emphasis on the impact of Mao Tse-tung's leadership and ideas on the lives of the people. Authentic photos used in the filmstrips range from historic newsphotos from the early 1900's to contemporary "on location" color photos of mainland China taken in recent years. Includes wall map and source book. Teachers guide.

China Panorama

Visual Education Consultants (Sale: color-$7.50; b&w-$5.00)
Captions
A description of the people, land and industry of the People's Republic of China.

China - Peking (1969)

Carnegie Educational Assoc, Inc. (Sale: $7.50)
19 frames, color (double frame available)
A view of the architecture, industry, and social life of Peking.

China Regional Geography (1968)

McGraw Hill
Demosco (Sale: $18.00) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $18.00)
6 filmstrips, color
China - Its Peoples
China - Rivers and Canals
China - Farming
China - Art and Architecture
China - Industry
China - Overview of South, North & West
A focus on life in modern China. Examines development from a traditional past to a communist controlled present, with special attention to the influence of varied geography, and questions about the future. See individual titles for further description.

China: Revolution in Progress (1971)

Multi-Media Productions, Inc.
Demosco (Sale: $14.95 with record; $16.95 with cassette)
(When ordering, mention producer name above)
2 filmstrips, record or cassette
Deals with questions brought up by China's revolutions in ideology, culture, industry, and agriculture, and discusses Mao's place in China today.
China: Rivers and Canals (1968)
McGraw-Hill Book Co.
Denco (Sale: $8.50) (then ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $8.50)
36 frames, color
Points out the importance of the rivers and canals as sources of water for irrigation, hydroelectric power, transportation, and food.

China Since 1949 (1970)
Filmstrip House (Sale: $6.00)
64 frames, black-and-white, record
Illustrates the communist take-over and the subsequent anomaly of Taiwan. Views life in Red China including communes, factories, propaganda, medicine, leisure, and progress. From China series.

China Today (1969)
Carman Educational Associates, Inc. (Sale: $7.50)
21 frames, color (double frame available)
Contrasts life in the cities of Peiping, Hangchow, and Shanghai with life in the rural areas of Inner Mongolia.

China: Twenty Years of Revolution
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: Record version-$58.50; each unit-$13.00)
(Sale: Cassette version-$67.28; each unit-$14.95)
5 filmstrips, about 74 frames each, color, record or cassette
China: The Revolution and the People
China: The Revolution and the Arts
China: The Revolution in the Schools
China: The Revolution on the Land
China: The Revolution in Industry
This series was shot in China by permission of the Chinese Government. Colorful photography shows the revolutionary changes which have taken place in the areas of art, education, industry, use of the land, and the people themselves. Authentic music from the People's Republic of China accompanies the narration.

China: Yesterday and Today
Contemporary Media, Inc. (Sale: $52.50)
3 filmstrips, about 60 frames each, records or cassettes
Cultural Revolution Canton, China
Life in a Village Commune
China: Its People and Its Country
See individual titles for descriptions.

China: The Future - Education in China (1972)
Hulton Educational Publications, Ltd (Sale: $4.75)
Omega Films (Sale: $4.75)
24 frames, color, teacher's guide
Introduces the educational system in China and emphasizes those aspects of education in China which differ from practices in other countries, and the changes made during the Cultural Revolution.
China's New Look (1972)
Teaching Resources Films (Sale: $129.00 with records; $134.00 with cassette)
Demco (Sale: $19.00) $14.95, individual programs
(When ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $127.00)
10 filmstrips, 550 frames, color, 5 records or cassettes
Educational Goals
Years of Revolution
Peasantry, a Way of Life
Life Styles in the Cities
Cultural Heritage
Geographic Diversity
Years of Revolution
- An introduction to the people, economy, culture, social and political institutions, and way of life in the People's Republic of China. Contrasts ancient rural styles of living with modern urban life in Peking. Includes teacher's guide and text of narration.

Chinatown
Scholastic Magazines (Sale: $15.00 with record; $17.00 with cassette)
60 frames, color, record or cassette. (Kindergarten & primary grades)
Presents a day in San Francisco's Chinatown shopping for food, watching Mr. Yang paint, using the abacus, and writing the Chinese way. With teacher's guide.

Chinese and Japanese Art (1967)
Grolier Educational Corp.
63 frames, color
Portrays Chinese and Japanese art through the works of K'o'jan, Ch'i Pai-Shih, Oji, Tao, Homme, Shoraka, Harunobu, Gyokudo, and many others.

Chinese Art (1973)
Scholastic Productions (Sale: $60.00)
3 filmstrips, color, record or cassette
Part I - 66 frames - The discovery and description of ancient Chinese pottery and bronzes from Neolithic times
Part II - 97 frames - Architecture, sculpture, pottery, and minor art forms to the present
Part III - 90 frames - Painting forms from the earliest of the first millennium B.C. to the present.

Chinese Art Treasures
Chinese Information Service (Loan)
231 frames

Chinese New Year
Society for Visual Education, Inc. (Sale: $10.50 with guide and script)
38 frames, color (primary to intermediate)
Compares how Chinese New Year is celebrated now and how it was celebrated long ago in China.
Chinese Poetry (1973)
Schloat Productions (Sale: $48.00)
2 filmstrips, color, record or cassette
Part I - 91 frames - Surveys Chinese poetry from the ancient pre-Christians era through the Sung Dynasty.
Part II - 100 frames - Chinese poetry of the 19th and 20th centuries including poetry of Red China

Chinese Pottery and Painting (1972)
Hulton Educational Publications (Sale: $4.79)
Omega Films (Sale: $4.79)
Presents examples of works from different periods in the history of Chinese art - bronzes, jades, paintings, calligraphy, and pottery.

Ching Dao (1970)
Scott Graphics Education Division (Sale: $15.00)
58 frames, color, record or cassette
Shows life of the Chinese in Chinatown, New York City, a community which includes Italians, Jews, Puerto Ricans, as well as Chinese. Explains that Chinese-American children attend Chinese school to learn the language, history, and culture that are a part of their heritage. Includes teacher's guide. No. 4 in the series America's Children.

Communist China: Asia's First Superpower? (1972)
Current Affairs Films (Sale: $32.00)
Demco (Sale: $17.50 with record; $17.50 with cassette)
(When ordering, mention producer name above)
Learning Arts (Sale: $22.50 with record; $22.50 with cassette)
66 frames, color, record or cassette
Questions whether or not the People's Republic of China is on route to becoming a superpower. Explains that China's impact on the international scene is not commensurate with her huge population. Presents the possibility of a power struggle between Communist China and Japan.

Communist China and World Affairs
Current Affairs Films (Sale: $32.00)
63 frames, black-and-white
Discussion of the theory and practice of China's foreign policy. The filmstrip stresses America's foreign policy toward internal violence in Southeast Asia as a necessary response to Chinese aggression. Includes teacher's guide.

Communist Expansion in Asia
Educational Record Sales (Sale: $38.50)
Color
Form the series Communism: What You Should Know About It, which purports to help American students understand the challenge of communism to the free world.

Confucianism and Taoism
Time-Life Education (Sale: $7.00 captioned; $10.00 sound)
Demco (Sale: $40.00) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
64 frames, color, captioned or sound
Confucianism and Taoism have been two important philosophies in China up until now. This filmstrip presents these philosophies on a comparative basis, showing from which sources each has sprung, how they have developed and how they differ.
Cooperative Farming in China
Carman Educational Associates (Sale: $8.00)
Color
From the Life and Geography series.

Courts, Tombs and Dragons (1968)
Educational Activities, Inc. (Sale: $11.95 with record; $12.95 cassette)
56 frames, color, record or cassette
This filmstrip focuses on China's past culture and its relationship to the society and history from which it grew. The filmstrip emphasizes the unchanging continuity of the tradition, but generally tends to ignore the changes that have taken place since 1949.

The Crises in the Communist Orbit
Current Affairs (Sale: $4.00)
45 frames
From the World Problems series.

Cultural Revolution Canton, China
Contemporary Media, Inc. (Sale: $19.50)
61 frames, record or cassette
Discusses the activities of the Red Guards in the streets of Canton, focusing upon the devotion to Chairman Mao's thoughts and the surrender of one's life for the good of the state. Explains the chaos created by the Red Guards and the installment of Lin Piao as Vice Chairman. The filmstrip closes with a section on Mao's experience at the caves in Yenan after the Long March. From the series China: Yesterday and Today.

Discovering Today's China
DKO Corporation (Sale: $49.50)
Learning Arts (Sale: $49.50)
2 filmstrips, color, records or cassettes (elementary)
These filmstrips focus upon change, culture, and environment to present a broad picture of life today in the People's Republic of China. Includes teacher's guide. A set of 4 paperback books and a political map are available at additional cost.

Emerging China (1972)
Visual Education Consultants (Sale: $5.00)
38 frames, black-and-white
An overview of the history of China designed to broaden understanding of the Communist regime as well as to explain how it has changed from earlier years.

The Far East - Hong Kong
Carman Educational Associates (Sale: $7.50)
An overview of the colony of Hong Kong.

The Far East - Rural Life
Carman Educational Associates (Sale: $7.50)
Presents a composite and typical picture of village life throughout the East, including Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, and the Chinese mainland.
Farmers and Boatmen of South China
Garvan Educational Associates (Sale: $8.00)
Color
From the Life and Geography series.

Fish in the Air
Weston Woods Studios (Sale: $9.20 with record; $12.75 with cassette)
Color (Kindergarten to primary)
A Chinese folktale.

The Five Chinese Brothers
Current Affairs (Sale: $6.50)
45 frames, color
This filmstrip is an adaptation of a world-famous folktale, done by photographing puppets which act out the story of The Five Chinese Brothers. The producer has designed this filmstrip to stimulate an interest in books and reading.

The Five Chinese Brothers
Weston Woods Studios (Sale: $9.20 with record; $12.75 with cassette)
Color
An illustrated version of this Chinese folktale.

Formosa (1957)
Herbert E. Budek
49 frames, color
Surveys the island of Formosa with its South Chinese cultural heritage and strong Japanese influence. Shows the physical setting, life in urban areas, commerce, trade, transportation, and living conditions of the original natives in the interior mountain areas. Includes script.

Formosa (1963)
Herbert E. Budek
18 frames, color, captions
Depicts the South Chinese culture, noting its strong Japanese influence.

Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $13.00)
60 frames, color
A study of the life of Genghis Khan and his role in the history of the world. Includes teacher's guide.

The Giant Looks to the Future
Society for Visual Education, Inc. (Sale: $10.00)
62 frames, color
China's efforts to solve internal problems and grow into a modern nation. From the series The People's Republic of China.

The Giant's City Boy: Sung Li
Society for Visual Education (Sale: $10.00)
61 frames, color
Shows life in the large, industrial city of Kwangchow. Illustrates how children are taught the importance of serving the state. From the series The People's Republic of China.
The Giant's Village Girl: Hsu Li-ang
Society for Visual Education, Inc. (Sale: $10.00)
66 frames, color
Family life on a commune; government regulation of activities. Tells how government encourages working together. From the series The People's Republic of China.

History of China
Hulton Educational Publications (Sale: $9.98)
2 filmstrips; 38 frames each, color
Traces the history of China from ancient times to the present. Examines historical leaders, works of art, scenic points of interest and present-day industries.

Hong Kong (1968)
Q-Ed Productions (Sale: $10.00 with record; $18.00 with cassette)
70 frames, color, record or cassette. (primary and intermediate)
A young Chinese refugee girl presents Hong Kong, including its bustling harbor, boat dwellers, ladder streets and native markets.

Hong Kong: A Crowded Environment (1973)
Carman Educational Associates (Sale: $8.00)
6 filmstrips; color, notes
A general survey of a city which despite its physical limitations and extreme problems of overcrowding has become one of the busiest ports and thriving centers of light industry in the world.

Hong Kong - An Historic Port (1966)
Association Films, Inc. (Sale: $6.00 with script; $9.00 with record) 46 frames, color, record, 10 min.

Hong Kong - Crossroads of the East (1963)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $6.00)
Educational Record Sales (Sale: $6.50)
Color, record, 20 min.
Explores the agricultural economy surrounding the metropolis and takes a brief glimpse at the life of the people on the sampans. Depicts Hong Kong as a Far East hub of world commerce. Filmstrip series no. 8880.

Hong Kong, Part I - Shipping and Industrial Center (1968)
Herbert M. Ekins Co. (Sale: $8.05)
47 frames, color, captions
Presents a history of the harbor colony of Hong Kong, including its present activities as a shipping and industrial center. Includes teacher guide frames and vocabulary list.

Hong Kong, Part II - East and West Work Together (1968)
Herbert M. Ekins Co. (Sale: $8.05)
51 frames, color, captions
Discusses many of the problems facing the city of Hong Kong and some of the solutions devised by cooperation between the British government and the Chinese. Includes teacher guide frames and vocabulary list.
In the Land of China (1968)
United Church of Canada
Berkeley Studio
69 frames, color, record. (Primary)
Provides a view of China by observing geographical aspects, life in Peking and Shanghai, trade fairs, rural and factory communes, and children's activities. Includes script and guide.

Inside the People's Republic of China
Eye Gate House (Sale: $25.00)
6 filmstrips, color, records or cassettes
The People of China
Work of the People of China
Trade and Transportation in China
Education and Communication in China
Communes in China
Health Services in China
A comprehensive study providing new insights into the rapidly changing situation in China. Available by set or individually.

Japanese-Americans and Chinese-Americans (1968)
Schloat Productions (Sale: $27.00)
70 frames, color, record
Describes the problems of Japanese- and Chinese-Americans in being accepted by their fellow Americans. Includes teacher's guide and script.

A Journey in China (1966)
Carman Educational Assoc., Inc. (Sale: $8.00)
26 frames, color
Illustrates the journey of Professor J.A. Lauwerys from Peking to Shian and Chunking, and down the Yangtze River to Hankow.

Land and Tie in China
Scott, Foresman and Company (Sale: $13.34)
Color, 20 min.
Territorial expansion, population, topography, climate, land utilization, and natural resources are dealt with. This is suggested as an introduction to further studies.

Lee Lan and the Dragon Kite (1965)
Stephen Bosustow Productions (Sale: $31.00)
2 filmstrips, color, record or cassette
Part I - 54 frames, 10 min.
Part II - 65 frames, 10 min.
Relates the unusual life of a girl and her family living on a fishing junk in Hong Kong. Useful with or without record; script included. From the Faraway Places series.

Life in the Chinese Countryside (1972)
Hilton Educational Publications (Sale: $1.79)
Omega Films (Sale: $1.79)
31 frames, color
Presents photographs which were taken in 1971. Shows life in the communes and describes the cultivation of crops.
Life in the People’s Republic of China (1974)
Eye Line House (Sale: $62.50 complete set; $8.25 individual filmstrip; $5.50 individual cassette)
6 filmstrips, color, 3 cassettes
Major Cities of China - Peking, Shanghai, and Kwangchow (Canton)
Urban and Suburban Life in China
Agriculture of China
Children of China
Culture of China
Modern Arts and Handicrafts of China

Life in a Village Commune
Contemporary Media, Inc. (Sale: $19.50)
60 frames, record or cassette
The self-sufficiency of the village life style is the main theme of this filmstrip. The countryside housing, food production, early school indoctrination and devotion to Chairman Mao's thoughts are shown in the photographs and explained in the narration. Also shown pageantry, a special display dedicated to the thoughts of Mao, and the military self-sufficiency of the commune. From the series China: Yesterday and Today.

Living in China Today (1966)
Society for Visual Education, Inc. (Sale: $37.75 with records, $40.50 with cassettes)
4 filmstrips, 58-64 frames each, color, 2 records or cassettes
Agriculture and Rural Life
Cities and City Life
Resources, Industries, Transportation, and Communication
Land of Change and Growth
This introduction to life in contemporary China stresses change, modernization, youth, and the new status of women. Old is balanced against new in agriculture and industry, public health, village and urban life. The section on political education emphasizes the new role of political indoctrination and the Communist Party as well as the grandeur of the old empire. Includes teaching guide. Available individually. Useful with or without recording.

Manila, Hong Kong, and Singapore (1965)
IPC
(10c (Sale: $7.00) (When ordering, mention producer-name above)
Captions
Form the series Our World Neighbors: Asia and the Pacific.

Mao, China, Revolution (1972)
Westinghouse Learning Press (Sale: $39.00)
2 filmstrips, color, 2 records or cassettes
With the aid of historical news clippings, discusses the beginning of communism in China, the emergence of Mao Tse-tung, the causes of the revolution, and the causes of the cultural revolution. Focuses on the way of thinking of Mao in an attempt to shatter fixed ideas about Red China.
Mao Tse-tung
Educational Record Sales (Sale: $6.50)
color
Covers Mao Tse-tung's contributions to China.

Marco Polo
Milton Educational Publications (Sale: $4.79)
Omega Films (Sale: $4.79)
31 frames, color
Depicts events in the life of the Venetian explorer Marco Polo, describing his journey to Asia, his many adventures in the court of Kublai Khan, and his return after an absence of 24 years to Venice.

Marco Polo, Man of Destiny (1969)
Troll Associates (Sale: $7.00)
40 frames, color, captions
Describes the travels of Marco Polo.

Mei Li
McGraw-Hill (Sale: $9.00 filmstrip; $7.00 record; $9.00 cassette)
color
Mei Li, a little Chinese girl, who lives in North China, goes to the New Year Fair in the City and has enchanting experiences.

Ming Li of China (1957)
McGraw Hill Book Company (Sale: $6.50)
40 frames, color
Original art work shows the way of life in China. Includes teacher's guide. From the series Children of the Orient.

Mongolia Today: An Eyewitness Report (1972)
Current Affairs Films
Denco (Sale: $17.50 with record; $19.50 with cassette)
(When ordering, mention producer name above.)
color, record or cassette
Delves into the customs and traditions of a people who once almost ruled the world, examines the lifestyles and overall living conditions in present-day Mongolia, and assesses the importance of Mongolia in the context of the growing rift between China and the Soviet Union.

The Mysterious Giant
Society for Visual Education (Sale: $10.00)
67 frames, color
An overview of China's location, topography, climate, land use; aspects of urban and rural life; China's military system. From the series The People's Republic of China.

Pearl Buck: The Good Earth (1972)
Current Affairs Films
Denco (Sale: $17.50 with record; $19.50 with cassette)
(When ordering, mention producer name above.)
Learning Arts (Sale: $20.50 with record; $22.50 with cassette) color, sound, 15 min.
Analyzes Pearl Buck's timeless tale and gives insights into the culture and philosophy of China.
Peking (1952)
Time-Life Education (Sale: $7.00)
Demco (Sale: $7.00) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
67 frames, color, captions
This filmstrip begins with an explanation of Peking's commercial and trading past, and then goes on to other areas such as its art treasures and ancient tradition of science. Included are pictures of the Imperial City and the Sacred City as well as the Emperor's Summer Palace. Invaluable for understanding the ancient Chinese. Includes lecture, notebook.

The People's Republic of China
Society for Visual Education, Inc. (Sale: $67.50 with records; $71.50 with cassettes)
6 filmstrips, 61-71 frames, color, records or cassettes
The Mysterious Giant: The Giant Looks to the Future
The Ancient Giant
To Feed the Giant: The Giant's Village Girl: Hau Li-ang
See individual titles for descriptions.

Revolution: China (1971)
Current Affairs Films (Sale: $22.50)
Learning Arts (Sale: $20.50 with record; $22.50 with cassette)
107 frames, black-and-white, record or cassette
Discusses the Chinese revolution of 1911, focusing on the causes, roles of leadership, ideology and violence, and goals and accomplishments. Illustrates major changes in political and social order which resulted from the revolution.

Revolution: A Model - China and Mexico (1972)
Current Affairs Films
Demco (Sale: $31.50 with record; $39.50 with cassette)
(When ordering, mention producer name above.)
Sound filmstrip, record or cassette
Focuses on the causes and roles of leadership, ideology and violence in the revolutionary process. Explores in depth two of the most significant revolutions of the 20th century, Mexico and China.

Rise of Chinese Civilization (1963)
Encyclopedia Britannica (Sale: $6.00)
Educational Record Sales (Sale: $6.50)
48 frames, color, captions
Deals with China's history from the time of the Shang and Chou dynasties through the unification under the Ch'in. The political contributions of the Han and cultural legacies of later dynasties are reviewed. Filmstrip series No. 10570.

Seeing China (1968)
Coronet Instructional Films
6 filmstrips, about 68 frames each, color, records
Land and Resources
History
Agriculture
Industry and Commerce
City Life
Education and Culture
The Shape of Modern China (1972)

Time-Life Films (Sale: $45.00 with records; $47.50 with cassettes)
Demco (Sale: $45.00 with records; $47.50 with cassettes)
(When ordering, mention producer name above.)

3 filmstrips, about 100 frames each, color, records or cassettes

Within the Wall

The Continuing Revolution

Uses news photographs to show how China has developed under communism from the birth of the People's Republic in 1949 to President Nixon's visit to Peking in 1972. Includes teacher's guide.

Southeast Asia: Overview of Strategic Area

Current Affairs Films (Sale: $6.00)
45 frames
The foreign policy of the United States in Asia is presented as a reasresponse to the dangers of Chinese Communism. The strategic importance of Southeast Asia is stressed, but generally, the analysis of events in Vietnam is debatable. From the series Current Affairs.

The Story About Ping

Weston Woods Studios, Inc. (Sale: $9.20 with record; $12.75 with cassette)
46 frames, color. (Kindergarten to primary) Depicts life on the Yangtze River. Includes teaching guide. Useful with or without sound.

The Struggles Within Asia (1966)

Teaching Resources Films (Sale: $10.00)
55 frames, black-and-white
From the series Current Affairs. Accompanied by a 48-page manual.

Studies of China

Hulton Educational Publications (Sale: $16.31)
Omega Films (Sale: $16.31)
8 filmstrips, color; 1 audio tape
The filmstrips: Life in the Chinese Countryside
China in the Seventies
China's Future - Education in China
Traditional Chinese Religion
Chinese Pottery and Painting
Canton: A City in Southern China
History of China - 2 filmstrips

The tape:
The Chinese Language
See individual titles for descriptions.

Taiwan Today

Aims Instructional Media Services (Sale: $45.00 with records; $47.50 with cassettes)
4 filmstrips, color; 2 records or 4 cassettes
Examines Taiwan's political history under Chiang Kai-Shek and looks at the rich variety of cultures present on the island.

This is Free China

Chinese Information Service (Loan)
61 frames, color
Tikki Tikki Tembo (1970)
Weston Woods Studios (Sale: $9.50 with record; $12.75 with cassette)
31 frames, color, record or cassette. (Primary)
A Chinese folktale in which a boy has trouble telling people that his brother with a long name has fallen into a well. With script.

To Feed the Giant
Society for Visual Education (Sale: $10.00)
71 frames, color
Illustrates the organization of agricultural communes, their functions and activities: From the series "The People's Republic of China.

Today's China: As Seen Through the Eyes of its Young People (1972)
Spoken Arts
Demos (Sale: $79.95) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
4 filmstrips, 4 cassettes
The history and contemporary life of China. Includes authentic Chinese music and song.

Traditional Chinese Religion
Omega Films
(Sale: $4.75)
Color
Some of the elements which make up the ritual life of a South China village. Part I - ancestor worship; Part II - ritual practices.

The World Since 1945, Part I: The Cold War (1968)
Poulet Publishing Co.
25 frames, color
Points out that the cold war between Russia and the United States led to the formation of opposing military alliances and of a neutralist group, and that efforts to improve East-West relations have led to disputes between Russia and Communist China. This filmstrip is part of a set entitled "Concept-Centered Lessons in World History," which is priced at $29.97.
SLIDES

Architecture of Peking and Environs
Prothmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $35.00)
27 slides, color
Imperial City, Outer City, Pei hai Park, and Summer Palace; exteriors, interiors, and details. Includes diagrams and text. Ten day preview available to faculty; listing of individual titles available. Order no. CA-10.

Art and Ideology in Communist China
Ralph Or Crosier, East Asia Center, University of Rochester, Rochester, New York 14627 (Sale: $50.00)
80 slides, color
This series comes with taped commentary read on camera. Also includes printed text.

The Art of China: An Introduction
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $40.00)
36 slides, color
Painting, sculpture, architecture

The Art of China: Ceramics (1972)
Educational Dimensions Corp.
20 slides, color
Presents examples of the art of Chinese ceramics, with emphasis on form and decorative quality. Shows bronzes which were instruments in the ceramic art and characteristic ceramic pieces of the Sung, Jin, Nine, and Ching Dynasties. Includes lecture notes.

The Art of China: Painting (1972)
Educational Dimensions Corp.
20 slides, color
A survey of Chinese painting on paper and silk, with some reference to the fresco. Reflects the priority given to landscapes and to plants, birds, and animals as subjects, and the purity with which the human being is portrayed.

The Art of China: Sculpture (1972)
Educational Dimensions Corp.
20 slides, color
Shows various forms representive of the evolution of Chinese sculpture ranging from examples of ancient tomb sculptures to contemporaneous clay ceramic figures. Correlates the forms with materials used and with dynastic trends.

The Art of China - Paintings
The Art of China - Ceramics
The Art of China - Sculpture
Learning Arts (Sale: $35.00 per set)
20 slides per set, color
Rare and significant examples chosen from 3,000 years of artistic achievement. Includes lecture notes, teacher's guide, annotated slide mounts.

22
Art of Chinese Landscape
Universal Color Slide
Demco (Sale: $12.95) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
32 slides, color, text
From the series Art of the World.

The Art of the Sung Potters
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.35 each slide)
12 slides
Porcelains and stoneware.

Asian Shadow Theatre Puppets
Art Council Aids (Sale: $33.50)
28 slides, color
This set includes shadow theater puppets from Cambodia, Indonesia, and Thailand as well as from China. (8 China slides) The history of the shadow theatre and the physical and symbolic aspects of the puppets are discussed in an accompanying commentary.

Buddhism
Universal Color Slide
Demco (Sale: $12.95) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
32 slides, color, text
Relates art to Buddhism for a deeper understanding of the Chinese culture. From the series Art of the World.

China
Prothmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $20.00 cardboard; $28.50 glass)
A "slidebook", 21 slides, color
Pottery, sculpture, painting, and ceramics from 200 BC to the 18th century.
This slidebook gives about a page per slide of background information. 10 day preview available to faculty; listing of individual slides available.
Order no. 32-7

China (1972)
Purdue University (Rental: for Purdue U. use only)
199 slides, color
A collection of photographs of the cities, rural and scenic areas in the People's Republic of China. Includes the cities of Peking and Shanghai, and the scenic area of West Lake. Also shows the interior and the artifacts in the ancient palace in Peking.

China
Universal Color Slide
Demco (Sale: $12.95) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
32 slides, color, text
Relates art to the history, sociology, and religion of China for a better understanding of Chinese Culture. From Art of the World series.

China - An Introduction
Prothmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $10.00)
8 slides, color
Includes contemporary craftsmen at work and the Wall of China. Ten day preview available to faculty; listing of individual titles available.
Order no. CA-11
China, Japan, E. Vietnam, Japan

Prothmann Associates (Sale: $19.00)
6 slides, color

Chinese Art

American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.95 each slide)
32 slides, color
Sculpture, pottery, paintings from Neolithic through modern period.

Chinese Art

Universal Color Slide

Nesco (Sale: $1.95 per set) (When ordering mention producer name above)
4 sets, 15 slides per set, color, text
I. To Tang Dynasty
II. Five Dynasties and Northern Song
III. Southern Song Art
IV. Imperial and Ching Dynasties

Chinese Art, 1000 BC to the 20th Century

American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $12.50 per set)
10 slides per set, color
Order no. Titles
7727 Chinese Art, Part I
7728 Chinese Art, Part II
6149 Chinese Animal Sculpture
6575 Y.M. Metropolitan Museum, Chinese Bronzes
2124 Chinese Sculpture of the Tang Dynasty
2367 Chinese Dynasty Ceramics
7731 Early Chinese Bronzes
7732 Han Through Tang Dynasty - Painting
2099 Han Through Five Dynasties - Painting
7740 N.Y. Metropolitan Museum, Chinese Art
7751 Ming Dynasty Ceramics
7730 Ming Dynasty Painting
7731 Relief Sculpture of the Wei Through Ching Dynasties
6188 Selection of Chinese Vases from the Altman Collection
8126 Sung Dynasty Art
7729 Sung Dynasty Art
6468 Sung Landscape
7728 Tomb Relief of the Han Dynasty (ink rubbings)
8349 Typical Vessel Shapes of Ancient China
7726 Wei Dynasty Sculpture
7726 Yuan Dynasty Painting

Chinese Excavations

Prothmann Associates (Sale: $27.50)
24 slides, color, text
Recently excavated treasures as exhibited in Paris, London, and Toronto.
Jade shards, Neolithic and ancient dynasty tombs.
Chinese Painting
Proffmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $25.00)
20 slides, color
Sung, Ming, and contemporary paintings. The nine contemporary religious paintings are from the Peking collection, Peking. Ten day preview to faculty; listing of individual titles available. Order no. CA-8.

Chinese Painting Collection
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $11.35 each slide)
58 slides, color
Han Dynasty to 18th century.

Chinese Pottery and Stoneware
Proffmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $27.50)
20 slides, color, text
Includes T'ang, Sung, and T'zu Dynasties. From English museums and collections. Ten day preview to faculty; listing of individual titles

Chinese Religion
Professor Charles A. Kennedy (Sale: $54.00)
180 slides, color
Emphasis is on Chinese folk religion, and the local and regional deities and practices. An explanatory text by James H. Ware of Austin College accompanies the set. Contents include: common practices in Chinese religion, Chinese folk religion, Buddhism, Taoism, Confucianism. Sets may be previewed without charge.

Chinese Sculpture (1972)
Purdue University (Rental: $3.50)
20 slides, color, script
Items from Shang, Chou, Han, Chin, Wei, T'ang, Sung, Yuan, Ming, and Ch'ing.

Chinese Vases: The Altman Collection, Ming and Ch'ing
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.75 per slide)
75 slides, color

Ch'ing Ware: Chinese Rococo
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $11.35 each slide)
10 slides, color

Early Chinese Art
Harvard University (Sale: 2x2-$1.25 each; 3x4-$1.50 each)
165 black-and-white, glassbound slides
These lantern slides show paintings, sculpture, and the minor arts. Also available as 5 x 8 inch black-and-white prints (see photograph section).
History of Oriental Arts
Prothmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $40.00)
300 slides, color
This set is divided into 15 smaller sets of 20 slides each, of which six sets are on Chinese art (Sale: $30.00 per set):
1) Pre-Historic, Yin, Chou, Ch’in, Han
2) Wei, Chin, Southern and Northern Dynasties
3) T’ang Dynasty
4) Sung Dynasty - paintings
5) Sung Ceramics and ’uan Paintings
6) Xing and Ch’ing paintings and ceramics
Ten day preview to faculty; listing of individual titles available.
Order no. DA-1

Hong Kong - On Red China’s Border
Hokon Films (Sale: $5.99)
40 slides, color

In the Caves of Tun-huang
Universal Color Slide Co.
43 slides, color
Shows artwork found in the caves of Tun-Huang. This set is correlated with The Art of Chinese Landscape Painting written by Antil de Silva.
Detailed listing of the slides included is available upon request.

India and China
Prothmann Associates (Sale: $9.00)
6 slides, color
Marionettes of Pakistan and imperial robes of China. From the collections

Introductory Survey of Chinese Art
Sandak, Inc. (Sale: $208.00, 160 slides; $104.00, 80 slides)
Color
Tells the story of Chinese culture as represented in various art media from Neolithic times to the 18th century. Art examples shown are from leading museums in the U.S. and the National Palace Museum in Taipei.
A detailed commentary prepared by Joan Hartman is included in the set.

Japan and China (1969)
Prothmann Associates, Inc. (Sale: $30.00)
36 slides, color, a "slidebook"
A comparative introduction to the art of both countries. This slidebook gives about a page per slide of background information. Ten day preview to faculty; listing of individual titles available. Order no. GB-6

Let’s Look at the China Puzzle (1967)
League of Women Voters (Sale: $6.00)
36 slides, color
These slides, which cover both Communist China and Taiwan, concentrate on the development of industry and social changes that have occurred in both places. There is also a discussion of the dilemma of U.S.-China policy. Script included. Also available are several complementary publications at additional cost - write for more information.
Marco Polo and Cathay (1973)
Carman Educational Associates (Sale: $6.00)
8 slides, color, notes

Ming and China
Prothmann Associates (Sale: $14.90)
9 slides, color
Pieces from Far Eastern museums. 10 day preview to faculty; order no. C26.

Ming Vases
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.35 each slide)
14 slides, color

Painting in Communist China
Ralph C. Crozier (Sale: $50.00)
80 slides, color
Includes taped commentary (reel or cassette) and text

Painting of the Sung Dynasty
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.35 each slide)
8 slides, color

Pillsbury Collection of Chinese Bronzes
Minneapolis Institute of Arts (Sale: $25.00 set; $1.75 individual slide)
75 slides, color
A list of detailed descriptions of each slide available upon request.

Prehistoric
Prothmann Associates (Sale: $17.00)
12 slides, color

Production in China (1973)
Multi-Media Productions, Inc.
Demos (Sale: $19.95) (When ordering, mention producer name above)
50 slides
Glimpses into the economy of Red China.

Relics of Ancient China
Francis G. Mayer (Sale: $25.00 set; $1.75 individual slide)
Art Color Slides, Inc.
Rare pottery pieces, ritual bronze vessels, and jade objects from the collection of Dr. Paul Singer.

Revolutionary Art: The Modern Chinese Woodblock Print
Ralph C. Crozier (Sale: $29.00)
28 slides, color
Includes taped commentary (reel or cassette) and text.

Sculptures of Wei Dynasty
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.35 each slide)
10 slides, color
Stone and bronze statues.
Selection of Chinese Vases From the Altman Collection
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.25 each slide)
25 slides

Sung Dynasty
From Chinese art (Sale: $20.00)
10 slides, color
Pieces from Eastern Chinese museums. 10 day preview to faculty. From no. 025.

Sung Sculpture at Metropolitan Museum
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.25 each slide)
6 slides, color

Taiwan (1972)
Purdue University (Rental: for Purdue only)
10 slides, color
Shows some of the scenic areas in Taiwan. Includes Chien Shan Park, Ancient Palace Museums, Chiang K'ai-shek Memorial Hall, Kenting Tropical Garden, Springs and Hot Springs, Taichung Park, Mt. Alishan, Sun Moon Lake, Green Lake, Ali, Chimkan Tower.

T'ang Art of China
American Library Color Slide Co., Inc. (Sale: $1.25 each slide)
12 slides, color
Paintings, sculpture, pottery.

Other sources for the sale and/or rental of slides on China:

Albright-Knox Art Gallery
1265 Elmwood Avenue
Buffalo, N.Y. 14222
Two color slides (Sale: $1.25 each)
1. Chimera, limestone, 62½ inches high
2. Ritual Vessel, bronze, 12½ inches high.

American Library Color Slide Co., Inc.
305 E. 45 Street
New York, New York 10017
Survey sets of Chimeras. Each slide supplied with data such as artist, title, dates, media, and source and are coded for filing in historic sequence. See also title section.

The Asia Society
112 East 61st Street
New York, New York 10021
Atkins Museum of Fine Arts
William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art
4525 Oak Street
Kansas City, Missouri 64111

57 color slides showing paintings, sculpture, ceramics, and bronzes. (Sale: $3.50 each to individuals sending check or money order in advance; $1.50 each to schools and universities sending purchase orders.) List of short descriptions available upon request.

Beloit College
Theodore Lyman Wright Art Center
Beloit, Wisconsin 53511

500 black-and-white and color slides available for short-term loan to educational institutions: Architecture, sculpture, paintings, bronzes.

Dr. Black Color Productions
1109 41st Avenue
Hollywood, California 90066

257 color slides (Sale: $1.25 each; $.90 each; $.75 25 or more)
Archaeology, pottery, lacquer, jade, ceramics, textiles. Catalog of titles and short descriptions available upon request.

The Boston Museum of Fine Arts
Slide Library
Boston, Mass. 02115

1900 color and black-and-white slides (Rental: $6.00, 50 slides)
(Sale: $.75 each)
Architecture, paintings, porcelain, pottery, sculpture, ceramics, furniture, bronzes, textiles, lacquer, gold and silver jewelry, and lacquer. Rental slides are released for lectures only and available to New England residents only.
The following sets are available for purchase:
Chinese Ceramics (Sale: 10 slides – $5.00; 20 slides – $12.00; 40 slides – $24.00)
Chinese Decorative Vessels (Sale: 20 slides – $12.00)
15 additional titles to be released in the near future; apply for description and price.

The British Museum
Department of Oriental Antiquities
London, W.C. 1, England

330 color slides (Sale: new transparencies – £1.00p)
(Sale: duplicates made from existing copies – 10p)
Pottery, porcelain, bronzes, jades, lacquer, glass, glass, woodcuts, paintings. A list of descriptions categorized according to medium.
and period sent upon request. Black-and-white and color photographs are also available. The Museum accepts orders for new photographic work, but only in connection with its own collection.

The Brooklyn Museum
Lending Service
Brooklyn, New York 11238

135 color slides available for loan. Ceramics, sculpture, and paintings.

Barney Burstein
29 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02116

134 color slides (Sale: cardboard mounts=$1.25-$2.00 depending on quantity ordered)
(Sale: glassbound=$1.50 each)
Slides of bronze, jade, paintings, sculpture, scrolls, textiles, and ceramics of Shang, Chou, Han, Wei, Six Dynasties, Tang, Sung, Yuan, Ming, Ch'ing, and Siam, taken primarily in the Fogg Art Museum, Harvard; Boston Museum of Fine Arts; Worcester Art Museum; and the Joris Ivens Gallery, Boston.

Carnegie Institute
Division of Education
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15213

The Cleveland Museum of Art Library
Cleveland, Ohio 44106

4750 color and black-and-white slides. These slides are free for educational use in Metropolitan Cleveland. Nominal rental and postage are charged for loans outside Cleveland area; limited to special educational use or to museums.

The de Young Museum Society
Art Shop
Golden Gate Park
San Francisco, California 94118

100 color slides (Sale: $.50 each)
Bronzes, pottery, porcelain, jade, stoneware, lacquered wood, and hanging scrolls. A seven page list of titles and short descriptions is available for $.25 mailing costs.
The Detroit Institute of Arts
5200 Woodward Avenue
Detroit, Michigan 48202

55 color slides (Sale: $1.75 each)
Paintings, sculpture, ceramics, and bronzes. Catalog with titles or short descriptions available upon request.

E.B. Crocker Art Gallery
216 "O" Street
Sacramento, California 95814

25 color slides available for sale: pottery, paintings, textiles, and jewelry.

Honolulu Academy of Arts
Academy Shop
900 South Beretania Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96814

40 color slides (Sale: $1.50 each)
Ceramics, sculpture, paintings.

Los Angeles County Museum of Art
Slide Collection
5905 Wilshire Blvd.
Los Angeles, California 90036

320 color slides available for rental to residents of Los Angeles County. These slides cover bronzes, ceramics, paintings, textiles.

Heston Color Slides
3801 N. Florida
El Paso, Texas 79930

About 350 color slides (Sale: $1.25 per set; $1.50 individually)
Travel scenes of Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Mainland China. The slides are grouped in sets of four. Catalog available.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art
Slide Library
Fifth Avenue and 82 Street
New York, New York 10028

1300 slides (Rental: in groups of 50 or fraction thereof - apply for price)
Glass, wood, metal, and black-and-white.
Sculpture - 50; Painting - 600; Prints - 10; Ceramics - 400; Decorative Arts (Costume, Chess, Glass, Jewelry) - 60; Lodestar - 50;
Metalwork - 70; Textiles - 70. No lists of titles available. Mail orders not encouraged. Preferable for borrower to select own slides from the files. Rental outside of NYC requires 1 to 6 week notice.
Seven color slides of the Cernuschi collection of ancient Chinese art are available for sale.

30 color slides on paintings and sculpture available for loan.

500 color slides (Sale: $12.75 per set)
100 sets of 6 slides, 15 subject categories:
  1) Chinese Calligraphy - 3 sets
  2) Chinese Painting - 75 sets
  3) Chinese Jade - 13 sets
  4) Chinese Porcelain - 19 sets
  5) Chinese Bronze - 17 sets
  6) Enamal Ware - 3 sets
  7) Trinkets - 3 sets
  8) Writing Material - 3 sets
  9) Lacquer Ware - 3 sets
 10) Bronze and Mirrors - 2 sets
 11) Embroidery - 2 sets
 12) Tapestry - 2 sets
13) Tibetan Buddhism Ritual Implements - 2 sets
14) Portraits - 2 sets

Catalog available
These slides are also available from Frotmann Associates (Sale: $12.00 per set; $11.00 a set for 50 or more sets; $100.00 for 100 sets)

38 color slides (Sale: $1.50 each)
Slides of the Museum's collection of Chinese sculpture, paintings, architecture, furniture, ceramics, jade, lacquerware, and bronze.
Listing of slides with detailed descriptions available upon request.
Ostasiatiska Museet
Museum of Far Eastern Antiquities
Skeppsholmen-Stockholm 100, Sweden

70 color slides available for sale. These slides cover bronzes, ceramics, paintings, sculpture, wood, jade, enameil, and lacquer.

University of Pennsylvania
The University Museum
33 and Spruce Streets
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104

58 color slides (Sale: $.50 each)
Bronze, cloisonne, pottery, porcelain, and jade. List of titles and periods available.

Roloc Color Slides
Box 1745
Washington, D.C. 20013

224 color slides (Sale: $3.35 each)
Travel scenes in Macao, Canton, Peking, Hong Kong and other areas of China. Lists of descriptions are available for $3.20 postage.

The Royal Ontario Museum
100 Queen's Park
Toronto, Ontario, Canada
M5S 2C6

Slides of all the Museum's Chinese objects available. The Museum's collection is very strong in Shang, Chou and Warring States bronzes, Shang, Chou and Han ceramic vessels, Tang white wares, Liao ceramics, Shang oracle bones, and Tang burial figures. Lists of detailed descriptions are available on slides of the Museum's major objects and better paintings. Also available are four books on the Far Eastern and Chinese collections - write for more details.

Sakamoto Photo Research Laboratory
L-28-2 Matsubara, Setagaya-ku
Tokyo, Japan

3,500 black-and-white slides available for rental and loan. These slides cover ceramics, paintings, sculpture, and bronzes.
Lore Schirokauer
340 Lantana Avenue
Englewood, New Jersey 07631

A large collection of color slides on all aspects of China and her civilization. Mr. Schirokauer makes up custom sets, filling the specific needs of individuals or institutions. Slides are also sold separately. A general guideline on price is $0.00 for fifty slides; however, price is subject to adjustment depending upon need for research, type of mounting, size of order, etc. All slides are on approval. Also available, from her collection of slides on Japan's Nara period, is otherwise unavailable documentation concerning the arts of T'ang China. Inquiries are welcomed.

Seattle Art Museum
Volunteer Park
Seattle, Washington 98112

3500 slides
(Sale: preselected-$5.00 each or 5 for $1.00)
(Sale: duplicated on request-$1.75 each)
(Loan: limited to residents of Seattle)

Color and black-and-white
Architecture, paintings, and sculpture of all periods; jade, metalwork, lacquer, and ceramics. A list of 77 pre-selected slides available on request. Although there is no compilation of titles or descriptions available for the rest of the slides, the museum will search for specific items in their collection.

Smithsonian Institution
Freer Gallery of Art
Washington, D.C. 20560

170 color slides
(Sale: 5.00 each)

Paintings, bronzes, pottery, and jade. List of brief descriptions and periods available upon request.

The Taft Museum
316 Pike Street
Cincinnati, Ohio 45202

11 color slides
(Sale: 5.75 each)

These are slides of porcelains mostly from the K'ang Hsi period.

Universal Color Slide Co.
136 W. 32nd Street
New York, New York 10001

150 color slides
(Sale: 5.50 to 8.70 each depending upon quantity)

Individual slides of Chinese art show pottery, bronze, jade, glass, lacquer, silk, marble, silver, paintings, wood, and porcelain. A partial listing with detailed descriptions available upon request. Also available is a pre-selected set of 50 slides at $18.95.)
World Color Slides
200 Collingsworth Drive
Rochester, New York 14625

200 color slides (Sale: $2.75 each)
These slides, taken in 1947, show the life and culture of Mainland China as it was before the communist take-over: Shanghai, Yangtze Valley, Peking, Hankow, Canton, Hangzhou, Soochow, and farm and village life near Peking, Hankow, and Canton. Each slide descriptively titled as to location and subject matter. Slide listings available upon request.

Tom Davenport Films
Pearlstone
Delaplane, Virginia 22025

1500 color slides on all aspects of Taiwanese life and culture. Taken in 1966-68.
OVERHEAD TRANSPARENCIES

Asiam History - China
Learning Arts (Sale: $100.00)
20 transparencies with overlays
1) China Physical Features
2) China's Principal Crops
3) China Provinces and Major Cities
4) Population Distribution
5) China's Population Compared
6) China - An Overview, 5000 BC to 300 BC
7) China - An Overview, 200 BC to 700 AD
8) China - An Overview, 900 AD to 1075
9) China - An Overview, 1050 to 1127
10) Chinese Imperial Government
11) Confucianism - The Five Relationships
12) Taoism
13) Sun Yat Sen - Three Stages of Government
14) Three Principles of the People - Sun Yat Sen, 1924
15) Foreign Influence in China, 1621-1937
16) Long March
17) Traditional Chinese Classes
18) Stages in Development of Communism
19) Some Functions within the Commune
20) Communist Indoctrination Techniques

China
Inquiry Audio Visuals
10x10 prepared transparency, color
From the series Maps of the World, Intermediate and Junior High.

China
Learning Arts (Sale: $35.00)
6 transparencies with overlays
History, geography, anthropology, sociology, economics, political science

China and Japan in the 19th and 20th Centuries
Visucom-Multifax
6x10 prepared transparency, color, 2 overlays
From the series Western Civilization, Vol. 3, which illustrates history from World War I to the present.

China, Mongolia
Horizon, Inc. (Sale: $75.00)
Coroco (Sale: $75.00) (after ordering portion producer must check)
9x11 prepared transparency, color, 4 overlays
From the Map Transparency series which presents maps of the world.

The China Theater
Inquiry Audio Visuals
10x10 prepared transparency, color
From the series Dramatic Episodes in Chinese History - World War II, which depicts military events of the second world war.