This teaching guide focuses on several prominent German-Americans and their contributions to American life, and provides some insights into German culture. It is part of the Louisville Area Ethnic Heritage Studies Project described in ED 150 043. The project materials are designed to foster communication across intercultural/ethnic lines. The objectives for this unit are to acquaint students with German-Americans such as Albert Einstein, Dwight Eisenhower, Lilli Lehmann, John Steinbeck, "Babe" Ruth, and Karen Horsey, to help students recognize contributions to and effects on American life of these prominent people; and to provide background information on German culture. Suggested time allotment is one to two weeks. The guide includes a pretest, posttest, and five behavioral objectives accompanied by instructional strategies and facilitating materials, including group discussion, independent research, and role playing. A worksheet, designed to aid the student in doing independent research, lists the prominent persons. A bibliography of resources concludes the unit. (Author/CK)

ETHNIC HERITAGE PROJECT
1976-1977
Jefferson County Public Schools, Louisville, Kentucky
It is the policy of the Jefferson County Board of Education in compliance with provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 not to discriminate on the basis of sex in the administration of any educational program or activity.
Recognizing the value of an ethnic studies program as a vehicle for promoting positive attitudes toward cultural diversity, Jefferson County Public Schools curriculum writers and teachers, in conjunction with representatives of the University of Louisville and the Bicentennial Committee of the Louisville Chamber of Commerce, have examined present ethnic studies courses of the Jefferson County Public Schools and have developed components for these courses.

Funded by the United States Office of Education, the newly developed units focus on increasing understanding and appreciation of the diversity among ethnic groups represented in the Greater Louisville community.

The units will be tested and evaluated in pilot classrooms during the 1976-1977 school year.

RATIONALE FOR ETHNIC STUDIES

The recognition of cultural pluralism as intrinsic in society in the United States is receiving increased attention from the nation's educators who realize that cultural diversity manifests itself daily in the classroom and often is the source of communication breakdown, misunderstanding, and conflict.

Consequently, school systems across the country are seeking to develop a variety of curriculum offerings that will deal with this cultural diversity in substantive and affirmative ways.

The Jefferson County Public Schools became directly involved in this search as the result of a grant from the United States Office of Education for the development of an Ethnic Studies Program in local schools. The grant resulted from a joint proposal by the University of Louisville, the Jefferson County Public Schools, and the Louisville Chamber of Commerce.

To meet grant guidelines, a curriculum writing committee comprised of local instructional leaders and teachers met during the months of July and August, 1976, to develop criteria for an ethnic studies program, to analyze present ethnic studies courses, to construct model units for implementation in county classrooms, and to plan ethnic fairs in six county schools.
PROGRAM CRITERIA

The Curriculum Writing Committee for the Ethnic Studies Program believes that an Ethnic Studies Program should cross disciplinary lines throughout the curriculum and must include the examination of major ethnic groups represented in American society.

The committee further believes that the specific characteristics listed below mark a definitive ethnic studies program and should be reflected, in varying degrees, in individual ethnic studies courses.

Characteristics

An Ethnic Studies Program, logically:

1. Emphasizes the universality of human needs
2. Explores the experiences and contributions of ethnic groups
3. Analyzes the relationships between ethnic groups
4. Develops a historical perspective of ethnic groups
5. Provides a balanced accurate and impartial treatment of ethnic groups
6. Analyzes ethnic myths and stereotypes
7. Contains interdisciplinary elements
8. Explores future prospects of ethnic groups
9. Endorses the principle of social equality of individuals
10. Focuses on attitudes and values of ethnic groups
11. Promotes individual self-awareness and feelings of self-worth
12. Seeks accommodation, appreciation and acceptance of cultural diversity

Part III

Directions: Choose one German-American from the lists in Parts I and II and explain ways her/his contribution affected the American way of life.
Behavioral Objective 1

Following the viewing of the filmstrip The German-Americans and having participated in a discussion of the filmstrip, the student will write a definition for eleven teacher-selected terms from the filmstrip.

Instructional Strategies

List on the chalkboard or duplicate the terms from the Teacher's Guide for the filmstrip The German-Americans.

Have students view the filmstrip The German-Americans.

Discuss the content of the filmstrip, stressing the major terms introduced (refer to the Teacher's Guide).

Ask students to write one-sentence definitions for each of eleven terms from the filmstrip.

Behavioral Objective 2

Given audiovisual material, time for independent research, and a list of prominent German-Americans, the student will complete a chart entitled "German-American Profiles and Contributions." (See Worksheet 1.)

Instructional Strategies

Have students view a multimedia package.

Ask students to do independent research.

Have students complete a chart entitled "German-American Profiles and Contributions."

Facilitating Materials

Behavioral Objective 3

Using the completed chart "German-American Profiles and Contributions," the student, working in a group situation, will discuss the effects on American life of the contributions of German-Americans.

Instructional Strategies

Have the students, in small groups, discuss the effects of the German-American contributions on American life. Pursue the effects of one person's contribution or explore with the students one category (e.g., food, music, science, recreation) so that the students become knowledgeable about immediate effects, as well as long-range effects, in any cause-effect relationship.

Have the students at the end of the discussion arrive at a conclusion. (Ask: What statement can you make about the major effects of the German-American contributions on American life?)

Ask a member from each group to read orally to the class the statement concerning the effects of the contributions of German-Americans on American life.

Behavioral Objective 4

Given readings "German Immigrants" and "Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend," the student will role play one of the following German immigrants (i.e., a farmer, a schoolboy or girl, a writer, a former revolutionary, a laborer) stating personal reasons for immigrating to the United States in 1848.

Instructional Strategies

Have students read "German Immigrants" by Virginia Brainard Kunz and "Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend."

Facilitating Materials

Kunz, Virginia B. "German Immigrants," in Many Peoples One Nation ed. by Peter I. Rose.

Cutler, Charles L., and Morrill, George P. Land of Immigrants, "Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend."

Facilitating Materials

Kunz, Virginia B. "German Immigrants," in Many Peoples One Nation ed. by Peter I. Rose.

Instructional Strategies

Have individual students, assuming the role of one of the five German immigrants listed below, explain the immigrant's personal reasons for migration to the United States.

- A farmer
- A schoolboy/schoolgirl
- A writer
- A former revolutionary
- A laborer

Behavioral Objective 5

Given readings "German Immigrants" and "Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend," the student will write a one-page essay concerning the contributions to America of the "Forty-Eighters," in general, and Carl Schurz, in particular.

Instructional Strategies

Have students read two readings, "German Immigrants" and Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend.

Assign students a one-page essay describing the contributions to American culture, of the "Forty-Eighters" and Carl Schurz.

Facilitating Materials

"German Immigrants" by Virginia Brainard Kunz from Many Peoples One Nation.

"Carl Schurz-Lincoln's Friend" from Land of Immigrants.

BOOK SELECTION AND REEVALUATION POLICY

Objectives

The primary objective of the school materials center is to implement, enrich and support the educational program of the school.

The school materials center should contribute to the social, intellectual, cultural and spiritual development of the students.

Selection

Materials for the school materials center should be selected by librarians in consultation with administrators, supervisors, faculty members, students and parents.

Reputable, unbiased, professionally prepared selection aids should be consulted as guides.

Criteria for selection

Selection should consider the needs of the individual school based on a knowledge of the curriculum and on requests from administrators and teachers.

Consideration should be given to individual students based on a knowledge of elementary and secondary youth and on requests of parents and students.

Selection should provide for a wide range of materials on all levels of difficulty, with a diversity of appeal and the presentation of different points of view.

The instructional materials should have high literary value.

Materials should have superior format.

BOOK SELECTION AND MATERIALS REEVALUATION PROCEDURES

Revised June 27, 1969

We seek to educate young people in the democratic tradition, to foster a recognition of individual freedom and social responsibility, to inspire meaningful awareness of and respect for the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, and to instill appreciation of the values of individual personality. It is recognized that these democratic values can best be transmitted in an atmosphere which is free from censorship and artificial restraints upon free inquiry and learning and in which academic freedom for teacher and student is encouraged.

It is further recognized that there are areas of such a controversial or questionable nature that some restraints upon complete academic freedom are necessary.

The Jefferson County Board of Education wishes to meet ignorance, hatred and prejudice not with more ignorance, hatred and prejudice, but with understanding, goodness, and reason. Therein no individual will be allowed to impose his personal views in any subject area, and the best professional behavior and individual thought will be expected at all times. When political, moral or social problems arise within the classroom as topics of discussion or study, opportunities for opposing points of view must be provided.

The Board of Education does not advocate a policy of censorship, but a practice of judicious selection of materials to be used with students in the classrooms of Jefferson County Public Schools, and wants only to be helpful to the teachers in providing good learning experiences for boys and girls. Teachers shall use prudent judgment in determining whether materials are of such nature and shall submit items to their principal and supervisors for approval before inclusion in their instructional programs. Should such material be selected for inclusion in a teacher's curriculum guide, and objections to same evolve, the Board insists upon the following.

Individuals involved will be provided an opportunity to discuss the matter fully with local school personnel.

The materials reevaluation procedure will be initiated and conclusions reported to the school and individuals involved. See attached BOOK SELECTION AND MATERIALS REEVALUATION POLICY.

With reference to library books per se and book selection, the form used in 1963-69 and the years before may be used. See attached CITIZEN'S REQUEST FOR REEVALUATION OF MATERIAL.

Furthermore, in recognition of the scope of this problem, the Board encourages the administrations of the local schools to form panels of qualified persons, appointed fairly (e.g., teacher, parents and other school and community representatives) to consider materials to be used in the curriculums that might have an adverse effect on students. In addition, the Board suggests that individual school departments be encouraged to consider, read and review all supplementary curricular inclusions that might be offensive politically, socially or otherwise.
BOOK SELECTION AND MATERIALS REEVALUATION POLICY

Individuals, organizations, or groups who challenge or criticize instructional materials shall be asked to complete the form Citizen's Request for Reevaluation of Material comparable to that suggested by the National Council of Teachers of English.

After completing the above mentioned form, a school committee composed of the teacher in the subject area, the principal, the supervisor, and the librarian shall review with the complainant the written criticisms and attempt to reach a decision concerning the complaint.

If a decision is not reached which is satisfactory to the complainant, the principal shall request the Associate Superintendent for Instruction to delegate a central committee to review and make a final decision concerning the disposition of the complaint. This decision will be reported back to the principal by the Associate Superintendent for Instruction. This central committee shall be composed of an administrator, a supervisor in the subject area under question, a classroom teacher in the subject area, the Coordinator of Library Services and a mature* parent, preferably from the school district from which the complaint originates. No member of the central committee shall have been a member of the local school committee with the exception of the supervisor.

The materials involved shall have been withdrawn from general circulation and use pending a decision in writing by the central committee.

However, in the event the complainant does not concur with the decision, he may request that this child be excused from any contact with the objectionable subject matter. Such requests will be honored.

*The word mature in this context applies to all members of the committee and means highly developed or advanced in intellect, moral qualities and outlook.

The materials center in each school should have on file "Citizen's Request for Reconsideration of a Book" from The Students' Right to Read. Reprinted by permission of the National Council of Teachers of English, October 16, 1963.
