Developed during a project designed to provide a continuous, competency-based line of vocational training in business and office education programs at the secondary and postsecondary levels, this package consists of an instructor's guide and learning module for a course on Business English. Various aspects of implementing and articulating secondary and postsecondary Business English courses are covered, including course content, performance standards, student-teacher agreements, suggested instructional times, tasks addressed in the courses, outcome-referenced measures, equipment needed, and references. Among those topics addressed in the task sheets are grammar; punctuation; abbreviations; capitalization; developing paragraphs; using reference materials; composing business letters, short memorandums, correspondence, and reports; developing a bibliography; demonstrating oral conversation skills; using positive body language; developing listening skills; and solving communication problems. The task sheets contain some or all of the following: performance objectives, performance actions, suggested instruction times, performance standards, and related technical information. (MN)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

While this articulated, performance-based instruction objectives guide is the product of the work of all of the Business and Office Education Task Force Committee participants and has been reviewed by all Business and Office Education teachers in The School District of Greenville County, the following teacher initially was responsible for developing Business English: Willisteen Talbert.

The cooperation of the Business and Office Education Office, Office of Vocational Education, South Carolina State Department of Education, is appreciated. The Office allowed the Task Force Committee for Business and Office Education to review a 1981 draft of Business English objectives that the State Office is developing.

BUSINESS ENGLISH

LEVEL: Secondary

TITLE: Business English

DESIGNATION: BUS ENG

COMPUTER NUMBER: 406

DESCRIPTION: Business English is a two-semester course designed to help students develop competencies in basic phases of communications—writing, speaking, listening, and reading—and in English grammar. Students are instructed in vocabulary building, using the dictionary and other references and choosing words to convey thoughts precisely. Principles of punctuations, capitalization, and abbreviation, and other tools used for writing are included in the course. Units of instruction emphasize the awareness of business etiquette, human relations, and other aspects of business and office work. Constant emphasis is placed on the applicability of the learning to the student's career objectives.

OBJECTIVES: Exercise good judgment and show proficiency in preparation and handling of business correspondence. Recognize the importance of effective communications skills in business correspondence. Identify and recognize correct grammar and word usage and improve vocabulary. Distinguish between correct and incorrect forms of capitalization and punctuation. Display effective oral communications through accurate and clear expression. Utilize language as a tool for thinking, learning, and conveying thoughts. Demonstrate speed and accuracy in locating information through the use of dictionaries, thesauri, word-division guides, and other reference sources. Display a thorough knowledge of the English language and the ability to use it effectively on the job.

PREREQUISITES: Typewriting I

Suggested Grade Level: 12

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION: Evaluation will be by knowledge and performance tests with an emphasis on the basic skills needed to apply grammar, usage, and style principles in order to prepare written communications that meet the standards of business. Oral communications skills that are important to business success will be tested by performance measurers.

JOB QUALIFICATION: Business English, itself, is not a course intended to qualify the student for employment. It is a collateral course fundamental to success in business and office work.

WORKING CONDITIONS: Typical work hours in professional or business surroundings.

SIMILAR PROGRAMS POST-SECONDARY LEVEL: There is no equivalent course at the post-secondary level in Secretarial Science at Greenville Technical College for which a student may receive advanced standing.

LEVEL: The TEC course, SSC 165, Application of Office Language Skills, is similar to the secondary Business English course and a student who successfully completes the exemption requirements for the TEC course, SSC 165, may be awarded advanced standing for work in Business English.

LEVEL: Post-secondary, Secretarial Science
TITLE: Application of Office Language Skills
DESIGNATION: SSC 165
DESCRIPTIVE OBJECTIVE: Given instruction and practice problems, the student will be able to demonstrate the ability to apply grammatical, punctuation, and spelling rules.

BUSINESS ENGLISH
(Secondary Level)

Adopted from Outline of High School Credit Courses by the South Carolina State Department of Education (1980 issue).

Business English is designed to help students develop competencies in all phases of communications writing, speaking, listening, and reading. A solid foundation in English grammar is developed. Students are instructed in vocabulary building, using the dictionary, and other references, and choosing words to convey thoughts precisely. Principles of punctuation, capitalization, abbreviation, and other emphasize the awareness of business etiquette, human relations, and other aspects of employment. Student will be able to:

1. Exercise good judgment and show proficiency in the preparation and handling of business correspondence.

2. Recognize the importance of effective communications skills in business correspondence.

3. Identify and recognize grammar and word usage.

4. Distinguish between correct and incorrect forms of capitalization, and punctuation.

5. Display effective oral communications through accurate and clear expression.

6. Utilize language as a tool for thinking, learning, and conveying thoughts.

7. Demonstrate speed and accuracy in locating information through the use of dictionaries, thesauri, word-division guides, and other reference information.

8. Display a thorough knowledge of the English language and the ability to use it effectively for on-the-job experiences.
Correct English usage applies to Business English.

Current recognized references for English usage should be consulted by students as necessary.

Standards that apply may be found in the following curriculum guides of The School District of Greenville County.

Standards concerning English usage may be found in the Articulated, Performance-based Instruction Guide for Typewriting, Modules 1.0 and 2.0, Greenville, SC: The School District of Greenville County, 1982, and other modules of the articulated instruction guides for Business and Office Education.

For some objectives of the Articulated, Performance-based Instruction Guide for Business English, standards of English usage are included.

8.0403  Proofread punctuation insertions and correct any errors.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

- Capitalization rules, 100 percent accuracy
- Punctuation rules
- Punctuation must not change content or meaning of sentences

RELATED TECHNICAL INFORMATION:

- Capitalization rules
- See Task 8.05 for End (Terminal) Punctuation Rules

SEE FOLLOWING PAGES FOR PUNCTUATION RULES.
STANDARDS FOR PUNCTUATION

COMMA

Rules

(1) In citing a date within a sentence, set off the year with commas. Ex. On May 24, 1975, we transferred our account to a bank in Phoenix.

(2) When two or more adjectives modify a noun, separate them by commas if they bear equal relationship to the noun. Ex. A brilliant young lecturer gave an interesting, informative talk.

(3) Separate by commas a series of words or a series of phrases. Ex. They like to receive letters that are short, clear, and friendly.

(4) Use a comma after a dependent clause that precedes a principal clause. (Do not set off a clause used as a subject or predicate.) Ex. When we are angry, what we say may not be precisely what we mean.

(5) Use commas to set off a nonrestrictive appositive, but do not set off a restrictive appositive. Ex. Mr. Poe, our professor of English, reviewed the book Autumn Wind.

(6) Separate with a comma two consecutive, unrelated numbers. Ex. In 1969, 135 firms used this plan. During 1974, 32 discarded it.

(7) Use commas to set off a nonrestrictive clause. Ex. This trip, which is recommended in all guide books, costs little.

(8) Use a comma to separate coordinate (independent) clauses joined by one of the coordinating conjunctions (and, but, for, nor, or, and sometimes so and yet.) Ex. A position is open, but I cannot interview anyone to fill it.

(9) Use a comma to set off an introductory phrase containing a verb. Ex. To qualify for this job, applicants must write effective letters.

(10) Use commas to set off words and phrases that are parenthetic (not essential to the sentence structure). Ex. Learning to typewrite, for example, requires consistent practice.
(11) Use commas to set off words of direct address.
Ex. Thank you, Mr. Cole, for sending the portraits to me so promptly.

(12) Use a comma to separate a city and a state name.
Ex. Our annual meeting will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, on August 21.

SEMICOLON AND COLON

Rules

(1) Use a semicolon between independent clauses of a compound sentence when no conjunction is used.
Ex. The statements did not come with his letter; they may come today.

(2) Use a semicolon between independent clauses of a compound sentence that are joined by a conjunctive adverb (however, therefore, etc.)
Ex. We had engine trouble; consequently, we could not arrive in time.

(3) Use a semicolon to separate independent clauses of a compound sentence if any of the clauses are punctuated with commas.
Ex. You can take Fay, Helen, and John; and the others will go by bus.

(4) Use a colon to introduce an enumeration or listing.
Ex. Please ship us the following parts: fuse box, light, and switch.

COLON AND HYPHEN

Rules

(1) Use a colon to introduce a question or long quotation.
Ex. The question is this: What experience is necessary for the job?

(2) Two spaces follow a colon except when used between sets of reference initials in the letter or to separate hours and minutes. As a rule, use figures with a.m. and p.m.
Ex. We finished the tour at 12:45 p.m. and left the city at 5:26 p.m.

(3) Use a hyphen in compound numbers from twenty-one to ninety-nine.
Ex. Approximately thirty-seven of the forty-eight delegates attended.

(4) Retain the hyphen in a series of compounds with the same ending or beginning; this is called suspended hyphenation.
Ex. Each 2- and 3-day tour is taken in a school-owned or -leased bus.
HYPHEN AND DASH

Rules

(1) Use a hyphen to join compound adjectives preceding a noun.
Ex. The well-known stateman has been appointed for a four-year term.

(2) Use a dash (--) for indicating a sudden change in thought.
Ex. The best way—perhaps the only way—to have friends is to be one.

(3) Use a dash (--) for emphasis to set off an appositive.
Ex. Your stars—freedom, opportunity, faith—are bright and constant.

(4) Use a dash (--) to introduce the name of an author when it follows a direct quotation.
Ex. "The road to freedom, while narrow, is a two-way street."—Gross.

QUOTATION MARKS

Rules

(1) Enclose a direct quotation with quotation marks.
Ex. This man wrote, "Happiness is not the end of life; character is."

(2) When a quotation is broken by such expressions as he said, enclose both parts of the quotation marks.
Ex. "Great minds," Irving wrote, "have purposes; others have wishes."

(3) Place periods or commas inside the closing quotation mark.
Ex. "What we need," Harry said, "is dirtier hands and cleaner minds."

(4) Place semicolons or colons outside the closing quotation mark.
Ex. She said, "I listen for facts"; I know she concentrates on ideas.

(5) Place question marks or exclamation points inside closing quotation marks when they are part of the quotation; place them outside when they refer to the entire sentence, of which the quotation is but a part.
Ex. Did he read "A New Asia"? I called, "Strike while others sleep!"

(6) Enclose in quotation marks the titles of magazine articles, reports, lectures, subdivisions of printed words, and theses. (Underline or type in all capitals titles of books, magazines, and newspapers.)
PARENTHESES

Rules

(1) Use parentheses to set off parenthetical or explanatory matter.
Ex. Ralph (my cousin) lives in the capital city of Arizona (Phoenix).

(2) Use parentheses when an amount expressed in words is followed by the same amount in figures.
Ex. I can sell my home to them for thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).

(3) Parentheses may be used to enclose enumerations.
Ex. We should all work for (1) speed, (2) control, and (3) good form.

(4) A punctuation mark is placed inside the closing parenthesis if it applies to the parenthetical material.
Ex. Bring the late report with you. (We have a copy of the old one.)

(5) A punctuation mark follows the closing parenthesis if it punctuates the sentence itself.
Ex. I shall call him (the clerk, I mean), but I shall call you first.

(6) A reference in parentheses at the end of a sentence is placed before the period. If the reference is a complete sentence, it is written as a complete sentence and enclosed in parentheses.
Ex. You will find the pictures you desire in the new book (page 137).

APOSTROPHE

Rules

(1) The singular possessive is usually formed by adding 's; but for words having more than one syllable and ending in s, only the apostrophe is added.
Ex. The Countess' son (my boss's uncle) financed his brother's trips.

(2) When plural nouns do not end in s, add 's to form possessive.
Ex. Children's shoes and women's robes are on sale at the local shop.

(3) Add only the apostrophe to form the possessive of plural nouns ending in s.
Ex. The girls' shoes and boys' coats will be shipped by fast express.

(4) The possessive of initials, abbreviations, etc., is formed with s.
Ex. William Wright, Jr.'s signature must appear on the YMCA's checks.
(5) When common possession is to be shown for two or more persons, use 's with the last name only.
Ex. Van and Bert's mother is here; Jan's and Pat's mothers have left.

(6) Possessive pronouns do not take an apostrophe. (It's is the contraction of it is and thus requires an apostrophe.)
Ex. The book is hers. Its cover is torn, so wrap it with great care.

(7) When a one-syllable proper name ends in s, add 's to show possession.
Ex. Bess's talk on current events was better than Mr. Nance's report.

(8) Add only an apostrophe to show possession with a multisyllable proper name ending in s.
Ex. Carl Williams' store is only one block from Vince Marques' house.

(9) Company and organization names sometimes omit the apostrophe.
Ex. She walked from Wilson's Department Store to Citizens State Bank.

(10) It is better not to use the possessive form for inanimate objects; but business sanctions the possessive with day, month, year, etc.
Ex. It's true that eight years' work was destroyed in one day's time.

(11) Use 'd to form the past and past participle of coined words.
Ex. The office manager X'd out the last line; then he OK'd the cable.
PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given sentences requiring end punctuation, complete each sentence by inserting correct end (terminal) punctuation marks, (period, question mark, exclamation point).

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.0501 Review rules for use of the period, question mark, and exclamation point.

8.0502 Insert correct end (terminal) punctuation in sentence examples (exercise) given by the teacher or from the textbook.

8.0503 Review punctuation answers and correct incorrect responses.

TERMINAL PUNCTUATION

Rules

(1) A complete sentence has a period for terminal punctuation. Ex. The mastery of an art requires insight and technical proficiency.

(2) A request in the form of a question is usually punctuated with a period. Ex. Will you please have Mr. Johns sign the six copies of the report.

(3) Use a question mark after a direct question—not after an indirect question. Ex. He asked how long she has worked for you. When did you hire her?

(4) Use an exclamation point after a word, a phrase, or a sentence to indicate strong emotion or to carry sharp emphasis. Ex. Your sales met your quota! Congratulations! You earned a bonus.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours
PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:
- 100 percent accuracy in selecting correct end (terminal) punctuation for given sentences (exercises).

RELATED TECHNICAL INFORMATION:
- Punctuation rules: Period, Question Mark, Exclamation Point
PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a list of items that can be abbreviated such as states, titles, firm names, geographical names, government agencies, academic degrees, and associations, abbreviate each item with 100 percent accuracy.

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.0601 Review current rules for abbreviations.

8.0602 Review current U.S. Postal Service rules for abbreviation of geographical terms (States, etc.).

8.0603 Given a list of items to abbreviate, identify the current accepted abbreviation with 100 percent accuracy.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

- 100 percent accuracy in abbreviating typical business used terms such as states, titles, firm names, etc.

SEE SUGGESTIONS FOR ABBREVIATIONS ON FOLLOWING PAGES.
ABBREVIATIONS

1. CAPITALS, HYPHENS, PERIODS, AND SPACING

a. In general, when abbreviating a word or words, capitalize and hyphenate the original word or words. Use a period after each element of the abbreviation, unless through usage the period is omitted. Allow no spaces after periods except when they follow the initials in names of persons.

   c.o.d.   A.B.   St.   a.m.   ft.-lb.   J. M. Jones

b. Omit periods and spaces after initials used as shortened names of organized bodies, if not contrary to usage.

   AEC     TVA     ARC     AFL-CIO

2. GEOGRAPHIC TERMS

a. You may abbreviate United States when preceding Government of the name of a Government organization, except in formal writing. Spell out United States when it is used as a noun or when it is used as an adjective in association with names of other countries.

   U.S. Government
   U.S. Department of Agriculture
   The climate of the United States
   British, French, and United States Government

b. With the exceptions noted in paragraph a, preceding, the abbreviation U.S. is used in the adjective position, but is spelled out when used as a noun.

   U.S. foreign policy     the economy of the United States
   U.S. economy            United States Steel Corp. (legal title)

4. NAMES AND TITLES

a. Use abbreviations in firm names as they are shown on the firm's letterhead.

J. Dillard & Sons, Inc.

b. Where brevity in company names is required, the following abbreviations may be used:

Bro.--Brother  Co.--Company  Inc.--Incorporated
Bros.--Brothers  Corp.--Corporation  Ltd.--Limited &--and

c. Abbreviate Mr., Mrs., M., Messrs., Mlle, Mme., and Dr., with or without a given name or initial.

Lt. Gov.--Lieutenant Governor  Prof.--Professor Supt.--Superintendent
d. Use the following abbreviations after a name:

  Jr., Sr.
  2d, ed, II, III (not preceded by a comma)
  Degrees: M.A., Ph. D., LL.D.
  Fellowships, orders, etc.: F.R.S., K.C.B.

e. Sr. and Jr. should not be used without given name or initials, but may be used in combination with any title.

  A. B. Jones, Jr.; not Jones, Jr., or Mr. Jones, Jr.
  President J. B. Jones, Sr.

f. Do not use titles, such as Mr., Mrs., and Dr., in combination with another title or with abbreviations indicating academic degrees.

  John Jones, A.B., Ph. D.; not Mr. John Jones, B.B., Ph. D.
  Dick Roe, M.D.; not Dr. Dick Roe, M.D., or Mr. Dick Roe, M.D.

g. When the name is followed by abbreviations designating religious and fraternal orders and academic and honorary degrees, arrange the abbreviations in this sequence: Orders, religious first; theological degrees; academic degrees earned in course; and honorary degrees in order of bestowal.

5. PARTS OF PUBLICATIONS

Abbreviations may be used to designate parts of publications mentioned in parentheses, brackets, footnotes, lists of references, and tables, and followed by figures, letters, or Roman numerals.

app., apps.—appendix, appendixes
art., arts.—article, articles bull., bulls.—bulletin, bulletins cl., cls.—clause, clauses

pl., pls.—plate, plates pt., pts.—part, parts
sec., secs.—section, sections subch., subchs.—subchapter, subchapters subpar., subpars.—subparagraph, subparagraphs
6. CALENDAR DIVISIONS

a. When brevity is required, you may abbreviate the names of months, except May, June, and July, when used with day, or year, or both.

b. The names of days of the week are preferably not abbreviated. If they are, use the following forms.

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given sentences in which no words have been capitalized, capitalize the items requiring capitalization with 100 percent accuracy.

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.0701 Review rules for capitalization.

8.0702 In given sentences in which no words have been capitalized, capitalize the items requiring capitalization.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

- 100 percent accuracy in capitalization of items in given sentences.

SEE FOLLOWING PAGES FOR CAPITALIZATION STANDARDS.
STANDARDS FOR CAPITALIZATION

1. Capitalize the first word of a sentence or a group of words that is used as a sentence.

2. Capitalize a direct quotation that is a complete sentence. Do not capitalize indirect quotations and direct quotations that are not sentences.

3. The first word following a colon may be capitalized if it is the first word of a rule or of a sentence.

4. Capitalize all proper nouns, including the names of persons, days of the week, months, holidays, geographic localities, races, buildings, government bodies, political parties, historical events, organizations, and so on.

5. Capitalize words like river, lake, street, avenue, building, ocean, school, mountain, park, city, state, company, and hotel when they are part of a specific proper noun.

6. Capitalize adjectives derived from proper nouns.

7. Do not capitalize words that were originally proper nouns but that are no longer associated with the person, place, or thing whose name they carry. (Consult an up-to-date dictionary when in doubt.)

8. Do not capitalize the seasons—spring, summer, autumn, fall, winter—unless they are represented as a person.

9. Capitalize the points of the compass and nouns and adjectives derived from them when they refer to regions of the country. Do not capitalize such words when they merely indicate direction or general location.

10. Capitalize a common noun when it replaces the complete proper name only if the common-noun form warrants the special distinction that capitalization gives it. For example, the U.S. Constitution, but a constitution.

11. Capitalize company referring to your own employer only if office policy requires it. In any case, do not capitalize company in such phrases as our company and this company.

12. Capitalize the names of specific courses of study, but do not capitalize the names of subjects, with the exception of any words that are derived from proper nouns. For example: I plan to take English in the fall.
Standards for Capitalization

13. Capitalize such terms as no., chapter, division, section, model, article, exhibit, list, room, volume, policy. Do not capitalize page, line, paragraph, note, size, and verse.

14. Capitalize the names of specific departments, divisions, committees, and similar units within your own organization, and also the short forms of such names. Do not capitalize these terms when they are preceded by a word other than the. When the word our or your precedes the terms, they are usually not capitalized.

15. Capitalize trade names but not the name of the product itself.

16. Capitalize titles when they precede a name unless the name is used in apposition and is set off by commas. Do not capitalize titles when they follow a name unless they refer to high-ranking government officials on the state, national, or international level. This rule does not apply to titles in the inside address of a letter or to titles typed in an address on an envelope.

17. Capitalize titles used in direct address. Also capitalize titles such as Father, Mother, Uncle, and Aunt, and titles of high government officials when they are used in place of a specific proper name. Do not capitalize such titles when they are introduced by words like a, an, my, his, or our.
PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given a copy of sentences containing incorrect number expressions, write each sentence correctly observing rules of number expression.

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.0801 Review and practice using basic rules for expressing numbers correctly.

Rule: Numbers used as ordinals (first, second, twelfth) in regular sentences must be spelled out. Thus: "It was Bill's second chance."

Rule: Spell out fractions, with a hyphen, that should stand alone. Thus: "Bill got two-thirds of it."

Rule: Spell out any number that starts a sentence. Thus: "Nineteen of us took the trip."

Rule: Use figures for numbers occurring in all technical expressions, such as measurement, symbols, dates, and after cueing words. Thus: 4'10", 5 percent, 32 degrees, 4 percent, No. 87, Page 34, and Box 19.

Rule: For expression of clock time, use figures if a.m. or p.m. are included and whenever the time is very precise and exact. Spell out numbers when used informally or with the word "o'clock."

Rule: For periods of time and ages, use figures for ages and time expressed in years-months or years-months-days form. Spell out ages and times when not expressed in very exact terms.

Rule: In expressing numbers in addresses; use figures for building numbers, spell out numbered street names when one through ten, use figures of numbered streets higher than ten, and use figures for postal-zone numbers.

Rule: Spell out either of two consecutive numbers in a sentence, preferably spelling out the shorter word.
Rule: When expressing numbers in regular sentences in business letters or reports; spell out numbers one through ten unless they are in a sentence including higher figures, spell out approximate figures than can be expressed in one or two words, and use figures for numbers higher than ten and for all numbers in sentences that include any number higher than ten.

Rule: When expressing amounts of money; use figures and a dollar sign for precise amounts of money, use ",00" only if amounts in the same context include decimals, use figures and the spelled-out word "cents" for amounts under a dollar unless the amounts in the same context require a dollar sign, and spell out only indefinite amounts of money.

8.0802 Express numbers correctly in given sentences.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:
- Express numbers correctly in given sentences containing incorrect number expressions.

SEE THE FOLLOWING PAGES FOR STANDARDS FOR NUMBER USAGE.
SEE THE FOLLOWING PAGES FOR EXAMPLES OF RULES APPLIED.
STANDARDS FOR NUMBER USAGE

1. Spell numbers from one to ten except when used with numbers above ten.

2. Always spell a number beginning a sentence even though figures are used later in the sentence.

3. As a general rule, spell the shorter of two numbers used together.

4. Spell isolated fractions in a sentence, but type a series of fractions in figures. Use the diagonal (/) for fractions you make.

5. Numbers preceded by nouns are usually expressed in figures.

6. Express measures, weights, and dimensions in figures without commas.

7. Use the percent sign (%) with definite numbers typed in figures. Use percent (spelled) with approximations and in formal writing.

8. Spell names of small-numbered avenues and streets (ten and under). Type house numbers in figures except for house number 0 or 0.

9. Use a comma to separate (a) unrelated groups of figures which come together and (b) whole numbers into groups of three digits each (however, policy, year, page, room, telephone and most serial numbers are typed without commas).

10. Use a colon to separate hours and minutes expressed in figures.

11. Use a hyphen to join compound numbers from twenty-one to ninety-nine.

12. Use parentheses to enclose figures that follow spelled-out amounts.

13. Use an apostrophe as a symbol for feet in billings or tabulations or as a symbol for minutes. The quotation mark may be used as a symbol for inches or seconds.

14. Use apostrophe and s to form the plural of most figures. In market quotations, form the plural of figures by addition of s only.

15. Type dates and time in figures, except in very formal writing.
EXPRESSING NUMBERS

EXAMPLES OF RULES APPLIED

The following suggestions offer overall guidance in choosing the best method of expressing a number:

a. Spell out numbers at the beginning of a sentence. Numbers under 10 are to be spelled out, except when expressing time, money, and measurement.

b. Prefer Arabic numerals to Roman numerals.

c. Except in legal documents, avoid repeating in numerals a number which has been spelled out.

1. NUMBERS SPELLED OUT

a. Single numbers of less than 10 within a sentence.

six horses
three times as large five recommendations
seven machine guns

d. Numbers of less than 100 preceding a figure.

two 3/4-inch boards
twelve 6-inch guns
but 120 8-inch boards

c. Round numbers and indefinite expressions.

a hundred cows, dollars, men
the early seventies
in the eighties
midsixties
a thousand and one reasons less than a million dollars

b. but 100-odd pupils, 250-fold but the 1870's, not the '70's or 70's but mid-1961

d. Numbers used with serious and dignified subjects and in formal writing.

the Thirteen Original States millions for defense but not one cent for tribute in the year nineteen hundred and sixty-five
e. Large numbers denoting amounts which are formally spelled out, as in legal work, are expressed as follows:

one thousand six hundred and twenty eight thousand and ninety-two fifty-two thousand one hundred and ninety-five nine hundred and seventy-three thousand eight hundred and fifty-two

f. Fractions standing alone, or followed by of a or of an.

one-half inch one-half of a farm, not 1/2 of a farm but 1/2 to 1 3/4 pages three-fourths of an inch, not 3/4 inch or 3/4 of an inch

g. Ordinal numbers less than 10th. (See also paragraph 3e following.)

First Congress
eighth parallel
ninth century
Second Street

2. NUMBERS EXPRESSED IN FIGURES

a. Single numbers of 10 or more within a sentence.

50 ballots, guns, horses
nearly 10 miles
about 40 men

b. Serial numbers. (Commas are not used in serial numbers.)

Bulletin 725
ME 5-9020

c. Quantities, measures, and time.

(1) Ages.

6 years old
52 years 10 months 6 days
a 3-year-old boy

(2) Dates.

June 1959; June 20, 1959 not June, 1959, or June 20th, 1959
March 6 to April 15, 1959 not March 6, 1959, to April 15, 1959
15 April 1960 (military)
4th of July, but Fourth of July, meaning the holiday the 1st (day) of the month, but the last of April or the first of May, not referring to specific days

(3) Decimals.

Place a zero before a decimal where there is not unit, except in market quotations. (See paragraph (5) following.) Omit decimal point and zeros after a number unless the zero is needed to indicate exact measurement.

0.25 inch
1.5
gage height 10.0
approximately 10 feet Degrees.

longitude 77°08'06" E. (spaced omitted) latitude 49°26'14" N.

*Correct for tabular work, and for text when used with other numbers ordinarily written in figures, as "$12,000,000 and $9,250,600."
PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given unarranged copy of several sentences, arrange in paragraph form in logical order.

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.0901 Avoid bringing into the sentence unrelated ideas or too many details. Complete each thought logically in exercise sentences.

8.0902 Express related ideas in sentences in such a way that the relationship is immediately clear to the reader.

8.0903 Rewrite exercise sentences avoiding excessive detail that might obscure the central thought of the sentences.

8.0904 In exercise sentences to be rewritten, avoid mixed, obscure, or illogical constructions.

8.0905 Arrange unarranged copy of several sentences in paragraph form demonstrating unity and logical thinking.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

- Arrange sentences in logical sequence for developing paragraphs.
MODULE  8.0  BUSINESS ENGLISH

TASK  8.10  EDIT AND REWRITE PARAGRAPHS CORRECTLY

PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given rough-draft copies of several paragraphs, in need of revision, review and edit each item. A checklist will be used to rate performance and all items must receive an acceptable rating. Correct grammatical skills, punctuation, spelling, and capitalization should be used.

PERFORMANCE ACTIONS:

8.1001  Read entire document.
8.1002  Make suggested changes, using proofreading symbols where appropriate.
8.1003  Reread corrected copy for accuracy of content, clarity of expression, and smooth-flowing style.

SUGGESTED INSTRUCTION TIME: Hours

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS:

- All items on checklist must receive acceptable rating.

RELATED TECHNICAL INFORMATION:

- Proofreader's marks.
- Capitalization, punctuation, word-division, and grammar rules.

CHECKLIST
(Rate Acceptable or Unacceptable)

1. Corrected grammatical errors.
2. Corrected punctuation errors.
3. Did not change content meaning.
4. Used consistent format.
5. Used writing style, compatible with employer's preference.
6. Use clear and concise wording in revision of material.

SEE FOLLOWING PAGES FOR STANDARDS FOR WORD DIVISION AND EXAMPLES OR WORD-DIVISION RULES.
STANDARDS FOR WORD DIVISION

1. You may divide words at the ends of lines to keep the right margin as even as possible. Excessive division should, however, be avoided.

2. Divide words between syllables only, as forenoon and bombard. When in doubt, use the dictionary to help solve word-division problems.

3. Do not divide words of only one syllable, such as friend, thought, or trained. Do not separate a syllable without a vowel; as, didn't.

4. Do not divide a word of seven or fewer letters, such as also, duty, or going.

5. Do not separate a one-letter syllable at the end of a word; as enough.

6. Do not separate a one- or two-letter syllable at the end of a word; as ready, largely, higher.

7. You may usually divide a word between double consonants; as correct, million, message.

8. When adding a syllable to a word that ends in double letters, divide after the double letters of the root word; as express, expressing.

9. When the final consonant is doubled in adding a suffix, divide between the doubled letters; as, begin, beginning.

10. Divide hyphenated compounds only at the point of the hyphen.

11. Avoid dividing abbreviations, numbers, and proper names. When necessary, separate a surname for the initials or given name.

12. Separate the parts of a date, if necessary, between the date of the month and the year.

13. Do not divide the last word on a page.

14. Every effort should be made to avoid dividing words on more than two consecutive lines.
WORD DIVISION

EXAMPLES

1. GENERAL

When words must be divided, they are separated between syllables. One-syllable words are never divided. Proper division into syllables is given in Webster's dictionary.

2. DIVIDE WORDS

a. After a vowel, if the vowel itself is a separate syllable within a word.
   - physical not phys-ical
   - separate not sep-arate
   - particular not partic-u-lar
   - criticism not crit-i-cism

b. Between the members of solid compounds.
   - railroad proof-reader

c. At the hyphen in hyphenated compounds.
   - court-martial above-mentioned

d. Between adjoining vowels in separate syllables.
   - estuary gene-alogy cre-ation

e. After prefixes of three or more letters.
   - ante-date tri-color inter-leaving trans-portation

f. Before suffixes of three or more letters.
   - portable writ-ing

g. After second consonant of double consonants ending a root word, when followed by a suffix.
   - telling express-ing

h. Between double consonants that are doubled because of a suffix is added.
   - remitted thin-ning

i. After the consonant at the end of a syllable with a short vowel and before the consonant at the end of a syllable with a long vowel, if no vowel is a separate or if vowels do not adjoin.
   - progress (verb) pro-gress
   - project (verb) pro-ject
   - stenographic (adjective) steno-graphic
   - stenographer (noun) stenog-rapher
3. DO NOT DIVIDE WORDS

   a. At the ends of more than two consecutive lines.

   b. At the end of a line when the part begun there does not suggest the whole word.

      counter-offensive   not   coun-teroffensive

   c. Of five or fewer letter, even though containing more than one syllable.

      avoid begin into also every area

   d. Between a one- or two-letter terminal syllable and the rest of a word.

      ammonia proceeded period

   e. Between a one- or two-letter initial syllable and the rest of the word.

      identify around behaviors

   f. At the end of a page or of a paragraph.

4. DO NOT SEPARATE CLOSELY RELATED WORD UNITS

   a. Avoid separating words in close association, such as the elements of dates and of proper names, groups of initials and surnames, and abbreviated titles (Dr., Mrs., etc.) and names.

      (1) When it is necessary to divide a date, the year may be carried over to the next line.

      (2) When it is necessary to divide a proper name, the surname may be carried over to the next line.

   b. Do not separate figures, letters, or symbols from their accompanying words when used as a group.

SEE REPORT WRITING SUGGESTIONS ON THE FOLLOWING PAGES.
WRITING A REPORT

Report Writing

The following hints, however, may make report writing easier.

1. HIGHLIGHTS IN REPORT WRITING

   Always use an outline
   Keep to the point
   Be concise
   Get someone else to read and criticize the report
   Put lengthy explanations in attachments
   Make enough copies

2. USE AN OUTLINE

   It helps to get material in the right order
   It aids our thinking through of the report as a whole
   It enables us to be sure that all important points are included, and that unimportant details are left out Changes can be made in an outline more easily than in a completed draft

3. WRITE DIRECTLY ON THE SUBJECT

   It makes it more difficult for the reader to follow
   It wastes valuable time of the reader
   It gives him a poor impression of our ability to think clearly

4. ELIMINATE USELESS WORDS AND PHRASES

   It saves time of writer, typist, and reader
   It makes the report much more forceful
   It takes the "hot air" out of it

5. GET A CRITICAL REVIEW

   To find parts that are not clear
   To recognize "rough spots," where flow of thought is not smooth
   To detect wandering away from the subject
   To help reduce wordiness
6. USE ATTACHMENTS

They permit the report itself to be shorter, more readable, and more forceful.
They enable the reader to refer to supporting data or illustrative materials if he desires.
They permit the reader to find quickly the exact items he wants to see.
They support the body of the report with factual data.
They add to the strength without adding to the length.

7. SUFFICIENT COPIES

So the person receiving the report can refer to other interested parties.
Several people may want to use it at the same time.
If the report is important enough to prepare, copies should go in the files.

8. GETTING READY TO MAKE A REPORT

What can we do to get ready to make a report?

a. Define the Subject
   - for clarity and understanding
   - for set limits
   - to meet the needs of the recipient

b. Gather the Facts
   - data from records
   - observed facts
   - opinions and expressions

c. Organize the Facts
   - sift out the unimportant
   - put in logical order
   - strive for "punch," climax
   - include conclusions and recommendations
PERFORMANCE OBJECTIVE:

Given proper reference materials and instructions for writing a manuscript or report on a specific topic, compose a manuscript or report using correct format, grammatical skills, punctuation, spelling, and capitalization.

Dear Landowner:

All of us know that farming calls for greater outlay today than at any time before. This fact is true whether you purchase land, use funds for operating costs, or buy extra items for your farm. You can now, however, look to the years ahead with confidence that the financial picture for the farm is going to improve. Since you are a modern farm owner and operator, we know that you are concerned with the best and most efficient plan of financing your farm.

Enclosed is a book that will tell you about our loan service; we want you to know our Lank Bank Association can help farm owners like you with their financial needs. You will see in the circular that loans can be made for the payment of debts, purchase of land, improvements on the farm, farm operating and living expenses, and the purchase or construction of a home either on or off the farm. A section near the end lists a group of special questions with answers that various people have asked, so, why not take the next few minutes and examine the information carefully. Perhaps these are some of the same questions that you have. If you need financial aid for your crops this spring, do not hesitate to come in and request a loan. Our friendly personnel are ready to serve you with your special problems.

Sincerely yours,
Review the rough-draft paragraphs. Correct grammatical, punctuation, spelling, and capitalization errors using proof-reading symbols and then rewriting the edited drafts so that content is not changed and so there is clarity of expression and smooth-flowing style.

Noxale china Company
3875 Lexington Street
Richmond, VA 23234

Attention Mr. Garry Crane

Dear Sir:

SUBJECT: Our order no. 1483

The china that we ordered from you on March 51 arrived today by United Parcel Service. Our Receiving Clerk, signed for the merchandise although she said she could hear the rattle of broken pieces even before opening the package.

Of the six place settings that we had ordered for one of our customers, only 1 place setting was in tact. The merchandise we have ordered from you in the past always had special cardboard forms protecting the individual pieces. This package had only paper around the china.

since our customer wishes to have the six place settings for a very special occasion, might we have a rush order placed on the replacement of the 5 place settings which were broken? The pattern is autumn leaves and is described in detail on our Order No. 1483.

Very truly yours,

THE MODERN GIFT SHOP

Howard Emerzian, Manager

MANUSCRIPT LINE SPACING

A report for Typing II

By Edward Scripp

"When should a manuscript be typed with double spacing and when should it be typed with single spacing?"

This is a question that concerns many typists.

WHEN TO DOUBLE SPACE

A manuscript should be double spaced when it is prepared for the eyes of a critical reader who may need space in which to mark comments and corrections.

So, work that is prepared for a teacher or an editor to read is best typed in double spacing as this page is.

WHEN TO SINGLE SPACE

A manuscript should be single spaced when the matter of supplies or filing space is important.

In business, for example, many reports are duplicated so that each head of a department may receive copy. If the report is long, using single spacing will save a

1. 1935 portside Avenue,
2. West Bangor 12 Main
3. Dear Miss Power:
4. It was kind of your to tell us frankly than you believe our magazine, THE ORGANIZATION JOURNAL "is fine but costs too much". We must not have invited your attention to the great savings you can earn by taking a long-term subscription to the magazine! Sorry' here are the current rates:
10. One Years $5.00 42 cents a copy
11. Two Years 8.00 33 cents a copy
12. Three Years 10.00 28 cents a copy
13. Five Years 12.00 20 cents a copy

14. The deduced rates for longterm subscriptions are possible of course, because we'are spared the cost (about $1.5) of reminding you to renew.
15. Don't you agree that THE ORGANIZATION JOURNAL are worth 28 or 20 ¢ a copy?
16. If you agree and we hope you do, please circle the years for which you would like you're subscription extended and than return this letter to us. We'll mail your bill in Early June
17. Yours Very Sincerely,
Identify the structural parts of a typewritten letter with 100 percent accuracy.

Write the unarranged letter in three acceptable forms as instructed by the teacher with 100 percent accuracy.

Suggested Forms:

Blocked: Date line, complimentary close, and writer's identification begin at center. All other lines begin at left margin.

Semiblocked: Same as blocked, except the first line of each paragraph is indented five spaces.

Full-Blocked: All lines begin at left margin. Copy may be set off from the rest of the letter by indenting.

Simplified: Same as full-blocked, but with these additional features: the salutation is replaced by an all-capital subject line; the complimentary close is omitted; the writer's identification is typed in all capitals letters on one line; and open punctuation is always used.

Mrs. Frank Pons/524 Walker Street, S.W./Vienna, VA 22180/Dear Mrs. Pons/The Admore Savings and Loan Association found 19--to be a most significant year. Continuous growth through the years and the resultant need for additional space have made necessary larger main office headquarters. We moved into our new building at 7201 Bertalot Boulevard last week. Although our new home is quite different from our former one, we hope you will agree that we are still the same friends who have served you for many years.

For your added convenience, the Eastern Burke Branch was opened in late February. The closeness of this branch to the central business district is an advantage.

On behalf of the Association, I wish to thank you, Mrs. Pons, for your continued confidence and loyalty./Sincerely yours/Trelles G. Case/President and Managing Trustee/xxx/

Re: Our Purchase Order 92035, December 3, 1981
Your Shipping Invoice 08902, December 28, 1981

Gentlemen:

On inspecting our shipment of supplies and equipment, we find the following errors and damage.

Reference our purchase order.

Line 1, ordered transistors TRC 456, shipped TRC 457
Line 3, ordered #547, shipped #557
Line 6, Field Test Unit — damaged (unit power supplies in form of battery pack came loose and broke test meter) We estimate unit cannot be repaired locally and requires replacement.
Line 8, Cable, RF, Adaptors: Two dozen ordered. One dozen shipped.

This was a large order and we are not upset by minor shortages or errors. The damaged Field Test Unit, however, is another situation. It is apparent that the packer did not properly pack the unit for shipment. When you ship us a new Test Unit, we ask that it be properly packed.

Please tell us how you would like to handle the return of the shipment made in error and the damaged Test Unit. If you wish to be paid for the items received, we will deduct for the items shipped in error and damaged, and pay for the remaining items when they are received.

Sincerely yours,

Howard R. Galloway

First Year Completed: ____________________________
Second Year Initiated: ____________________________
Second Year Completed: ____________________________

Instructor: ____________________________

DIRECTIONS: The purpose of the proficiency report is to communicate to the student, other instructors, or potential employers the abilities that a student has demonstrated to the instructor in vocational training. Mark each task as soon as possible after instruction or skills demonstration. If instruction is not aimed as task proficiency, or if only an orientation or introduction to the task was provided, DO NOT mark a proficiency level or mark Level 0. Levels 1-4 indicate that instruction was given and the proficiency may be interpreted as follows:

Level 0 No skill level demonstrated or proficiency training not given in the skill.
Level 1 Individual's skill level is not that generally expected for entry level employment.
Level 2 Individual's skill level probably is that generally expected for entry level employment, but the individual probably will need close on-the-job supervision for a while longer.
Level 3 Individual's skill level is that generally expected for entry level employment.
Level 4 Individual's skill level is equal to that of a worker with some on-the-job experience.

For further description of the levels of proficiency, see the "Proficiency Report" section of the Policies and Procedures Guide for Articulation Between The School District of Greenville County and Greenville Technical College.

The production of this curriculum guide and binder by the Occupational Education Articulation Program was funded through the South Carolina Appalachian Council of Governments. This guide and binder are the property of The School District of Greenville County or Greenville Technical College.

Except for document and binder copies that have been placed in libraries or shared with educational organizations, the documents and binders are issued on an accountability basis.

Documents and binders issued to instructor participants remain the property of the issuing institution. Should a vocational instructor leave the employment of The School District of Greenville County or Greenville Technical College, the document and binder must be returned to the principal, vocational center director, or department head so the instruction guide may be used by replacement personnel.

Corrections, modifications, and notes may be made on the pages of the documents for the purpose of modifying the field trial edition or to improve the instructional value of the document. Please share any corrections, modifications, and recommendations concerning this document with the Occupational Education Articulation Program.

Illegible or blank document page replacements may be requested at no cost through the Occupational Education Articulation Program. For replacement pages, please indicate:

- Document Title
- Module Number
- Task Number or Page Number

Replacement costs for this document and binder are:

1" Binder - $2.80
2" Binder - $5.00
Document - .05¢ per page (1982)

The binder design is simple and straightforward.

Two triangular figures, in balance, represent the two institutions participating in articulation.

Two levels of training are represented by the placement of the triangles and the identification of the two institutions.

Horizontal and vertical lines represent lateral and vertical articulation.

The diagonal across the design represents the progressive movement in career development for successful job performance.

The two figures are not closed when they face, but allow for interaction and are linked by the document titles: "Articulation Policies and Procedures Guide" and "Articulated, Performance-based Instruction Guide."
