This document contains validated activities and competencies needed by librarians working in a school library. The activities and competencies are organized according to the functions which school librarians perform: acquisitions; cataloging; circulation and reader services; collection maintenance; interlibrary loan; management; reference; and serials control. Within each function, competencies are grouped under the categories of Knowledge, Skills, and Attitudes, and three professional levels are dealt with: entry level (0-3 years experience), mid-level (4-9 years experience), and senior level (10 or more years experience). This document contains validated activities and competencies needed by librarians working in a school library. The following operational definition of competency was developed:

A competency is a generic knowledge, skill or attitude of a person that is causally related to effective behavior as demonstrated through external performance criteria, where:

- Knowledge is having information about, knowing, understanding, being acquainted with, being aware of, having experience of, or being familiar with something, someone, or how to do something.
- Skill is the ability to use one's knowledge effectively.
- Attitude is a mental or emotional approach to something, or someone.

We have identified several types of knowledge that are necessary to perform information work satisfactorily as follows:

- Basic knowledge in such areas as language, communication, arithmetic operations, etc.
- Subject knowledge of primary subject fields of users served such as medicine, chemistry, law, etc.
- Library and information work environments such as the information community, its participants and their social, economic and technical interrelationships, etc.
- Knowledge of what work is done such as the activities required to provide services and produce products, etc.
- Knowledge of the organization or user community served such as the mission, goals, and objectives of the user or the organization, user's information needs and requirements, etc.
There appear to be three kinds of skills necessary to perform information work satisfactorily including:

- Basic skills such as cognitive, communication, analytical, etc.
- Skills related to each specific activity being performed such as negotiation of reference questions, evaluation of search outputs, etc.
- Other skills such as managing time effectively, budgeting and making projections, etc.

Attitudes of librarians are found to be extremely important to work performance. We have found it useful to subdivide attitudes into:

- Dispositional attitudes toward one's profession, the organization served, one's work organization, and other people such as users and co-workers.
- Personality traits/qualities such as confidence, inquisitiveness, sense of ethics, flexibility, etc.
- Attitudes related to job/work/organization such as willingness to accept responsibility, willingness to learn, desire to grow, etc.

The activities and competencies are organized according to the functions which librarians perform, and by professional level as displayed in Figure 1. The competencies are cumulative across professional level, i.e., competencies of mid-level professionals include entries shown at the mid-level as well as those at the entry level, etc.

It is important to understand the distinction between functions performed and positions or job titles. Our rationale behind the functional approach was that we were more concerned with what information professionals do than with what they are called. In a single-person library, therefore, the librarian will undoubtedly perform more than a single function. In using and interpreting the competency data in this document, it is important to consider the functions being performed by professionals and the activities being performed to determine which competencies are appropriate. The functions identified for librarians working in school libraries are:

- acquisitions
- cataloging
- circulation and reader services
- collection maintenance
- interlibrary loan
- management
- reference
- serials control.

Three professional levels were defined as follows:

- entry level (up to 3 years of professional experience)
- mid level (4-9 years of professional experience)
- senior level (10 or more years of professional experience).

The activities performed are listed first and numbered sequentially. The actual assignment of individual activities to subcategories of the major activities and to the functions varies from library to library. The organization of activities that we developed provided us with the "best fit" case. Indented and unnumbered activities are essentially paraprosfessional activities which, in small libraries, may be performed by professionals.

The activities are followed by the validated sets of knowledge, skills and attitudes. Two versions of each of the lists are provided. The first set have those competencies designated by the validators as essential in bold face print, and those designated as desirable in regular face print. The level of emphasis is denoted by asterisks as follows:

* denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 50-70 percent of the validators of that competency

 denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 71-84 percent of that validators of that competency  denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 85-100 percent of the validators of that competency.

The second set of knowledge, skills, and attitudes have competencies designated by the validators as becoming more or less important in the future. Again, the level of emphasis is denoted by asterisks as follows:

* denotes each competency rated by 1-20 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future.

 denotes each competency rated by 21-40 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future.

 denotes each competency rated by 41-100 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future.

• denotes competencies rated as currently not applicable which have also been rated as becoming more important in the future.

Selection

1. Develop a good understanding of the media center's collection development policies and guidelines

2. Receive requests from faculty and media center staff for purchase of materials for the library's collections or for the professional collection

3. Forward orders for serials/numbered series to the serials control section

4. Select materials to order from publishers' catalogs, book reviews, bibliographies, circulation and interlibrary loan requests for materials not owned by the library, exchange lists, etc.

5. Supervise the preparation of lists of selected citations which may be reviewed by the appropriate faculty advisory group for purchase approval

6. Forward bibliographic citations for selected serials/numbered series and any such materials received in the section to the serials control section for processing

7. Examine shipments of unsolicited materials (blanket orders/on-approval shipments, gifts, etc.) to select which items are suitable for retention; annotate processing slips for each item as required

8. Assign processing priority to all material selected for the collections

9. Maintain a statistical record of selection and the usefulness of various selection tools

10. Supervise bibliographic searching and verification:

    search in-process file(s) (items on order, want lists, and received items not yet cataloged) and library's catalog(s) to determine if the cited titles are needed for the collections annotate citations that are discovered to be serials/numbered series and return them to supervisor verify and locate additional bibliographic data, as required; refer problems to supervisor maintain record of searching and verification statistics
ACTIVITIES

Selection (cont'd)

11. Search for trade and non-trade bibliographic information that technicians are unable to locate; refer problems to higher level staff, as appropriate.

12. Determine source of procurement (jobber, direct, gift, exchange, etc.).

13. Prioritize recommended selections in each subject area; consult with mid level librarian to determine which materials should be placed on the want list for possible order action at a later date.

14. Supervise order/request processing:

- prepare records (manual or automated) for items to be ordered/requested now/later
- prepare purchase orders, if required
- prepare order/request documentation for mailing
- claim outstanding orders
- cancel orders, as required
- re-issue orders to different sources, as required
- maintain statistical record of order/request processing operations

Receipt Processing

15. Supervise receipt processing of ordered/requested materials, blanket order/on-approval shipments, leased materials, unsolicited gifts, etc.

- open packages and retain sender information
- check shipments against packing lists/invoices
- check shipments for damage
- examine received items for imperfections
- for unsolicited shipments, search in-process file(s) and center's catalog(s) to determine which items are needed for the collections
- update in-process file with receipt information
- update in-process file re: any errors in receipt or receipt of damaged/imperfect materials
- annotate packing slips/invoices for damaged/imperfect materials, incorrectly supplied materials, and unwanted materials
- annotate packing slips/invoices to indicate materials which are branch copies
- annotate packing slips/invoices to certify receipt of all materials retained
- deliver packing slips/invoices to invoice processor
- insert and/or update processing slips for materials to be retained
15. Supervise receipt processing of ordered/requested materials, blanket order/on-approval shipments, leased materials, unsolicited gifts, etc. (cont'd)

- Mark materials retained for the collection as required (invoice number, date of receipt, etc.)
- Place materials to be cataloged on the appropriate book trucks
- Forward any serials/numbered series received to the serials control section
- Process materials for the professional collections as required and place on the appropriate book trucks
- Send form letters to acknowledge gifts, if appropriate
- Prepare damaged/imperfect materials, incorrectly supplied materials, and unwanted materials for return to suppliers, if appropriate
- Place unwanted/damaged items not to be returned to suppliers in specified area to await proper disposal
- Maintain statistical record of receipt processing operations

16. Supervise the delivery of materials to the cataloging section at regular intervals

17. Supervise preparation and disposal of unwanted materials

File Maintenance

18. Supervise creation and maintenance of in-process file(s)

- Input orders/requests, want list items, unsolicited receipts
- Update records based on correspondence received and actions taken
- Update records with receipt, return and disposal information
- Update records with cataloger assignment, if appropriate
- Update records when cataloging has been completed and items are no longer in process
- Delete records at appropriate intervals, maintain statistical records of file creation and maintenance operations

19. Supervise maintenance of accession records for materials which will not be added to the collections, if required
ACTIVITIES

ENTRY LEVEL

Other

20. Handle problems related to the selection and acquisition of materials for media centers; refer special problems to higher level staff, as appropriate

21. Assist staff in locating materials received but still in process

22. Advise other libraries/media centers of sources used to obtain difficult-to-locate materials

23. Supervise the preparation of exchange lists for items selected by senior staff

24. Examine dealers' stocks and publishers'/producers' displays at book/AV fairs and conferences in order to become familiar with the characteristics of the various offerings

25. Conduct business by phone, when appropriate

26. Write memos and letters, as required

27. Prepare manuals of procedures

28. Make recommendations to the section manager for improvement in operations of the unit/section

29. Attend and participate in staff meetings

30. Provide an overview of the operations of the unit/section to visitors, as requested

31. Supervise technicians, and paraprofessional staff

32. Work to develop "esprit de corps" among staff supervised

33. Assist section manager in writing job descriptions for self and for staff supervised

34. Assist section manager in developing performance standards for self and for staff supervised

35. Assist section manager in the review and performance evaluation of staff supervised

36. Assist in the selection of new technicians and paraprofessionals
Activities

Acquisitions

Other (cont'd)

37. Keep abreast of developments in the information field, library practice or legislation that affect selection and acquisition of materials.

38. Attend professional meetings and prepare reports for dissemination to staff.

39. Develop professional contacts both within and outside the media center system.

Acquisitions

Mid Level

Selection

40. Keep abreast of the information needs of the user community so that selection of materials may be made to support new courses and other new areas of educational interest/activity.

41. Select materials which are to be placed on the want list based on budget constraints.

Verification and Ordering

42. Supervise the maintenance of an address file of procurement sources.

43. Draft formal letters for ordering/requesting materials, claiming/canceling orders, acknowledging gifts, etc.

44. Schedule purchases of materials in order to operate within the budget.

45. Work with contract and/or purchasing department(s) of the school system to identify requirements and develop draft procedures for purchasing materials.

46. Work with serials control staff to develop draft procedures for ordering and fiscal control of serials/numbered series.
Fiscal Control

47. Work with the finance and accounting department of the school system to identify requirements and develop draft procedures for processing invoices for payment

48. Supervise invoice processing for acquisition of materials

- receive and log in packing slips/invoices from acquisitions and serials control staff with receipt information noted
- receive and log in original invoices
- match original invoices with annotated packing slips/invoice copies
- convert currency to U.S. dollars, if required
- search/request search of acquisition and serials control files to verify receipt, if necessary
- maintain record of expenditures by account
- process approved invoices for payment and forward them to the appropriate fiscal office
- process purchase order documents as required
- receive correspondence from suppliers
- draft replies to correspondence concerning payment problems
- prepare prepayment statements if required
- maintain files of invoices and other documents related to the purchase of library materials
- prepare reports of expenditures and balances in all accounts
- maintain a record of invoice processing statistics

49. Maintain control of the materials budget; notify the section manager of situations which may require special action

50. Review reports of expenditures and balances in all accounts as prepared by an accounting technician; draft narrative statements to accompany the reports, if required

51. Approve/modify draft replies to correspondence concerning payment problems

52. Work with the finance and accounting department of the school system to establish deposit accounts with certain suppliers

53. Determine the average cost of each type of material purchased

54. Project budget requirements for purchasing materials for the new fiscal year

Fiscal Control (cont'd)

55. Assess performance of existing equipment/systems used in acquisitions and investigate capabilities of other equipment/systems

56. Recommend acquisition of new/additional equipment/systems

57. Train staff in operation and in-house maintenance of equipment/systems

58. Supervise in-house operation and maintenance of equipment/systems

59. Gather information for maintenance contracts on equipment/systems

60. Draft statements of work for contact proposals for services, systems, equipment and/or maintenance

61. Evaluate contractors' proposals

62. Train and supervise entry level staff and accounting technician(s)

63. Assist in the selection of new professional staff and accounting technician(s)

64. Write articles for professional journals/newsletters when appropriate

SENIOR LEVEL

Selection

65. Select and maintain an up-to-date collection of selection tools and aids to bibliographic verification

66. Work with reference, reader services and interlibrary loan section staff members to analyze library resources in the area and make recommendations concerning the degree to which duplication of collections should occur. Identify subject areas in which resource sharing may be mutually beneficial

67. Work with reference and reader services staff and faculty advisory groups to identify user needs and activities and charges occurring in the user population which will influence selection of library materials

68. Formulate draft selection and retention policies for all types of materials

69. Prepare draft selection guidelines to be used by staff and faculty advisory groups as an aid to interpreting selection policies

70. Periodically review staff selections to ensure more uniform interpretation of the selection policies; conduct training sessions as required

71. Participate in meetings of faculty advisory groups which review lists of materials selected for purchase

72. Evaluate the existing collections and identify areas of weakness

73. Prepare lists of materials to be purchased in order to upgrade areas of weakness in the collections

74. Together with reference and reader services staff, compile lists of reference books and standard works that comprise a basic collection in each major subject area. New editions of these materials are purchased automatically

75. Together with reference and reader services staff and faculty advisory groups, select materials for branch collections

76. Develop guidelines for identifying materials in the collections which should be retained in microform for preservation

77. Review damaged materials identified by collection maintenance staff; determine which materials should be replaced, discarded, rebound, or replaced by a new edition or more recent work on the same subject

78. Select items which have been weeded or set aside for disposal which may be offered to exchange partners, if appropriate

79. Identify existing collections of special value to the media centers which are advertised for sale or which may be solicited as gifts

ACQUISITIONS SENIOR LEVEL

Other

80. Function as a technical expert in all matters of selection and acquisition of materials for media centers

81. Work with senior reader services, cataloging and serials control staff members to identify processing priorities and draft guidelines for priority assignment to all incoming materials

82. Interview salesmen and publishers' and dealers' representatives to learn about forthcoming publications, revisions of standard reference works, services offered, etc.

83. Assist the section manager in negotiating with publishers' and dealers' representatives to set up on approval programs, leasing programs and other services

84. Prepare an evaluation of each dealer's performance for review by the section manager

85. Identify sources for obtaining out of print materials which are to be replaced/added to the collections

86. Draft a gift acceptance policy statement

87. Identify potential exchange partners

88. Draft an exchange policy statement

89. Draft documentation to establish an exchange program

90. Supervise the exchange program

91. Identify sources for disposal of unwanted materials

92. Draft documentation to set up disposal program

93. Draft all selection and acquisition procedures and policies; draft revisions as required

94. Flowchart and document selection and acquisition procedures

95. Assist section manager in on-going systems analysis of the section

96. Analyze statistics for all operations in the section and prepare draft statistical reports
