This document contains validated activities and competencies needed by librarians working in a database producer organization. The activities and competencies are organized according to the functions which these librarians perform: acquisitions, thesaurus development and control, indexing/abstracting, and publications and product management. Within each function, competencies are grouped under the categories of Knowledge, Skills, and Attitudes, and three professional levels are dealt with: entry level (0-3 years experience), mid-level (4-9 years experience), and senior level (10 or more years experience). This document contains validated activities and competencies needed by librarians working in a database producer organization. The following operational definition of competency was developed:

A competency is a generic knowledge, skill or attitude of a person that is causally related to effective behavior as demonstrated through external performance criteria, where:

- Knowledge is having information about, knowing, understanding, being acquainted with, being aware of, having experience of, or being familiar with something, someone, or how to do something.
- Skill is the ability to use one's knowledge effectively.
- Attitude is a mental or emotional approach to something, or someone.

We have identified several types of knowledge that are necessary to perform information work satisfactorily as follows:

- Basic knowledge in such areas as language, communication, arithmetic operations, etc.
- Subject knowledge of primary subject fields of users served such as medicine, chemistry, law, etc.
- Library and information work environments such as the information community, its participants and their social, economic and technical interrelationships, etc.
- Knowledge of what work is done such as the activities required to provide services and produce products, etc.
- Knowledge of the organization or user community served such as the mission, goals, and objectives of the user or the organization, user's information needs and requirements, etc.
There appear to be three kinds of skills necessary to perform information work satisfactorily including:

- Basic skills such as cognitive, communication, analytical, etc.
- Skills related to each specific activity being performed such as negotiation of reference questions, evaluation of search outputs, etc.
- Other skills such as managing time effectively, budgeting and making projections, etc.

Attitudes of librarians are found to be extremely important to work performance. We have found it useful to subdivide attitudes into:

- Dispositional attitudes toward one's profession, the organization served, one's work organization, and other people such as users and co-workers.
- Personality traits/qualities such as confidence, inquisitiveness, sense of ethics, flexibility, etc.
- Attitudes related to job/work/organization such as willingness to accept responsibility, willingness to learn, desire to grow, etc.

The activities and competencies are organized according to the functions which librarians perform, and by professional level as displayed in Figure 1. The competencies are cumulative across professional level, i.e., competencies of mid-level professionals include entries shown at the mid-level as well as those at the entry level, etc.

It is important to understand the distinction between functions performed and positions or job titles. Our rationale behind the functional approach was that we were more concerned with what information professionals do than with what they are called. In a single-person library, therefore, the librarian will undoubtedly perform more than a single function. In using and interpreting the competency data in this document, it is important to consider the functions being performed by professionals and the activities being performed to determine which competencies are appropriate. The functions identified for librarians working in database producer organizations are:

- acquisitions
- thesaurus development and control
- indexing/abstracting
- publications and product management.

Three professional levels were defined as follows:

- entry level (up to 3 years of professional experience)
- mid level (4-9 years of professional experience)
- senior level (10 or more years of professional experience).

The activities performed are listed first and numbered sequentially. The actual assignment of individual activities to subcategories of the major activities and to the functions varies from one worksetting to another. The organization of activities that we developed provided us with the "best fit" case. Indented and unnumbered activities are essentially paraprofessional activities which, in small organizations, may be performed by professionals.

The activities are followed by the validated sets of knowledge, skills and attitudes. Two versions of each of the lists are provided. The first set have those competencies designated by the validators as essential in bold face print, and those designated as desirable in regular face print. The level of emphasis is denoted by asterisks as follows:

* denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 50-70 percent of the validators of that competency

 denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 71-84 percent of that validators of that competency  denotes each competency rated as essential or desirable by 85-100 percent of the validators of that competency.

The second set of knowledge, skills, and attitudes have competencies designated by the validators as becoming more or less important in the future. Again, the level of emphasis is denoted by asterisks as follows:

* denotes each competency rated by 1-20 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future

 denotes each competency rated by 21-40 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future

 denotes each competency rated by 41-100 percent of those who validated it (as essential, desirable, or not applicable) as becoming more or less important in the future

• denotes competencies rated as currently not applicable which have also been rated as becoming more important in the future.

ENTRY LEVEL

Verification and Ordering

1. Receive citations for serials/numbered series, selected monographs, reports, conference and workshop proceedings, audiovisuals, etc. approved for inclusion in the indexing database

2. Develop a working knowledge of the subject scope of the indexing database

3. Determine source of procurement for each title ordered (jobber, direct, gift, exchange, etc.)

4. Supervise ordering/claming of materials to be indexed:
   - verify and locate additional bibliographic data as required; refer problems to supervisor
   - search records to determine if title is already on order
   - prepare/input subscription and non-subscription orders, including the proper "ship to" addresses for materials to be indexed off-site
   - prepare/generate purchase orders, if required
   - prepare order documentation for mailing, or place orders online with the appropriate suppliers
   - forward order documentation to the fiscal control staff for coordination and mailing, if required
   - claim outstanding orders
   - claim missing issues of serials/numbered series
   - cancel orders, as required
   - re-issue orders to different sources as required
   - order replacement copies of damaged/lost materials
   - process subscription renewals
   - maintain a statistical record of ordering operations

5. Supervise ordering/requesting sample issues of serials/numbered series for review by the designated senior indexer

6. Search for trade and non-trade bibliographic information that technicians are unable to locate; refer problems to higher level staff, as appropriate
ACQUISITIONS

ENTRY LEVEL

Receipt Processing

7. Supervise receipt processing of materials to be indexed:

- sort incoming items, as appropriate
- search appropriate file to locate the records
- refer items not found in the records to the supervisor
- refer to the supervisor items which differ bibliographically from the item ordered
- update records with receipt of individual items/issues/numbers/parts
- flag serial records for gap filling, as required
- record/affix locator label on each piece; may be bar code/OCR label to allow for tracking of materials in process
- input bibliographic data (standard journal title abbreviation, volume, issue or bibliographic information for monographs, etc.) on the indexing form/record for each item received; (this activity may involve transfer of data from one automated file to another, rather than actual data input on the indexing form/record)
- mark materials with the organization's identification
- affix security labels, if required
- place new serial titles on the appropriate shelf for special file maintenance
- place serials which have title changes on the appropriate shelf for file maintenance
- place materials for indexing on the appropriate trucks
- deliver trucks to proper locations
- annotate receipt or shipping slips/invoice copies, if received, and forward to the fiscal control unit
- annotate packing slips/invoice copies for damaged/imperfect or unwanted hardbound series; forward documentation to the fiscal control unit
- prepare damaged/imperfect materials, incorrectly supplied materials, and unwanted materials for return to suppliers, if appropriate
- place surplus materials in specified area to await proper disposal
- maintain record of receipt processing statistics

8. Review materials for which no order records could be found (materials received on approval, as unsolicited sample issues from publishers, as gifts, etc.); dispose of materials definitely outside the scope of the indexing database; forward in-scope and questionable materials to the designated senior indexer
ACTIVITIES

ENTRY LEVEL

File Maintenance

9. Supervise creation and maintenance of records for non-serial materials input orders/requests, unsolicited receipts update records based on correspondence received and actions taken update records with receipt, return and disposal information delete records at appropriate levels

maintain statistical records of file creation and maintenance operations

10. Supervise creation and maintenance of serial records:

input records for new serial titles update records with data re: cancellations, reissues, claims, and gap filling update records for newly-received titles with indexing assignment (in-house or contract), standard title abbreviation, ISSN, frequency, etc.
update records with data re: change in frequency, change of title, change in publisher, cessation, change of indexing assignment input new records for newly changed titles input cross reference records as required remove records from the active file when appropriate delete records when appropriate
maintain statistical records of file creation and maintenance operations

Other

11. Handle problems related to ordering and receipt processing of all types of materials and to overall maintenance of the records; refer problems to higher level staff, as appropriate.

12. Conduct business by phone, when appropriate

13. Write memos and letters, as required

14. Prepare manuals of procedures

15. Make recommendations to the section manager for improvement in operations of the unit/section

16. Attend and participate in staff meetings

20. Assist section manager in writing job descriptions for self and for staff supervised

21. Assist section manager in developing performance standards for self and for staff supervised

22. Assist section manager in the review and performance evaluation of staff supervised

23. Assist in the selection of new technicians and paraprofessionals

24. Keep abreast of developments in the information field, library practice, or legislation that affect acquisition and processing of serials/numbered series, monographs, conference proceedings, audio-visuals, etc.

25. Attend professional meetings and prepare reports for dissemination to staff

26. Develop professional contacts both within and outside the organization

ACQUISITIONS

MID LEVEL

Verification and Ordering

27. Develop procedures for the verification and ordering of serials/numbered series and/or other materials selected for indexing

28. Supervise the maintenance of an address file of procurement sources

29. Draft form letters for ordering serials and other materials, claiming/cancelling orders, claiming missing issues, ordering lost/damaged issues, etc.

Verification and Ordering (cont'd)

30. Work with the appropriate fiscal office to schedule purchases of materials and renewal of subscriptions in order to operate within the budget.

31. Work with the appropriate fiscal office to develop procedures for the handling of the final steps in ordering and invoice processing.

32. Identify sources for filling gaps.

Receipt Processing

33. Develop procedures for receipt processing of all types of materials.

File Maintenance

34. Develop procedures for maintenance of records for order/receipt control of serial and non-serial materials.

35. Make preliminary selection of forms and/or develop draft record formats for all section files.

Fiscal Control

36. Work with the appropriate fiscal office of the parent organization to identify requirements and develop draft procedures for purchasing materials and services (e.g., open ended subscriptions, dealer check-in).

37. Work with the appropriate fiscal office to develop procedures for proper packing slip/invoice handling and receipt certification by section staff.

38. Assist the appropriate fiscal office in resolving any problems related to payment for materials.

39. Remain aware of the expenditures and balances in the materials account(s); notify the section manager of situations which may require special action.

40. Develop projected budget requirements for purchasing materials for the new fiscal year.
41. Assess performance of existing equipment/systems/services used in the section and investigate capabilities of other equipment/systems/services

42. Recommend acquisition of new/additional equipment/systems/services

43. Train staff in operation and in-house maintenance of equipment/systems

44. Supervise in-house operation and maintenance of equipment/systems

46. Gather information for maintenance contracts on equipment/systems

46. Draft statements of work for contract proposals for services, systems, equipment and/or maintenance

47. Evaluate contractors' proposals

48. Train and supervise entry level staff

49. Assist in the selection of new professional staff

50. Write articles for professional journals/newsletters when appropriate

Selection

51. Forward to the designated senior indexer any publisher/producer-supplied information or any other information on newly/soon-to-be produced materials which should be considered for inclusion in the master indexing database

Verification and Ordering

52. Select and maintain an up-to-date collection of aids to bibliographic verification
ACTIVITIES

SENIOR LEVEL

Receipt Processing

53. Work with senior staff of the indexing/abstracting section to establish procedures and resolve problems related to the timely receipt of materials for indexing and the input of bibliographic data on indexing forms/records by section staff.

54. Work with senior staff and quality and production control staff of the indexing/abstracting section and data processing staff to develop plans and procedures for using the acquisitions files for tracking materials from the time of receipt through completion of the indexing/abstracting workflow.

Publications Support

55. Work with senior staff of the indexing and publications management sections to develop procedures and resolve problems related to the regular publication of lists of titles indexed.

56. Work with section staff to produce for publication the list of materials currently indexed; include standard journal title abbreviations, ISSNs, references from former title to current title for recent title changes, and standard bibliographic citations for all other materials indexed.

Other

57. Function as a technical expert in all matters related to acquisitions.

58. Interview dealers' representatives to learn about the particular services they offer.

59. Identify dealers who have a good performance record in supplying irregular serials, conference/congress proceedings, and other materials which are difficult to acquire.
ACTIVITIES

ACQUISITIONS

60. Assist the section manager in negotiating with dealers' representatives to obtain the required level of service in acquiring and/or processing materials

61. Evaluate dealers' performance and report to section manager

62. Draft section procedures and policies; draft revisions as required

63. Flowchart and document section procedures

64. Assist section manager in on-going systems analysis of the section

65. Analyze statistics for all operations in the section and prepare draft statistical reports

66. Train and supervise mid level staff

67. Assist section manager in preparing the annual budget for section operations

68. Function as section manager in his/her absence

DATABASE PROLIFICER PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES

PUBLICATIONS AND FOCUS...
Planning

1. Work with senior staff of various sections to identify regular publications (in hardcopy or microform) and special data products (computer tapes for distribution to database distributors, special reports and listings, reprints, data supplied to special subject interest groups for publication of bibliographies, etc.) which may be developed from the master indexing, thesaurus, and acquisitions databases or which may be prepared by organization staff.

2. Contract for/conduct market surveys to identify the potential need, demand for, and response to the various planned publications/products.

3. Recommend modifications to planned publications/products based on analyses of market survey results.

4. Work with the section manager, staff of the respective sections, and data processing staff to prepare the production plans and requirements for each new publication/product. Provide special assistance by helping them visualize the publications/products and minimizing production costs in planning.

5. Following approval/modification of new publication/product plans by senior management, work with the appropriate senior staff to develop procedures and establish schedules for the production of each publication/product.

6. Estimate the cost which must be charged for each publication/product in order to cover costs and make a profit, if applicable.

7. Work with representatives of database distributors and other organizations to arrange preliminary details related to the use of and reimbursement for the supplied data.

8. Draft documentation required to support the production and distribution of each approved publication/product.

9. Work with appropriate organizational staff to negotiate and monitor contracts and other agreements in support of production and distribution of publications/products.
ACTIVITIES

SENIOR LEVEL

Database Coordination

10. Keep abreast of industry-wide standards for online databases

11. Work with senior data processing staff and staff of the respective sections to ensure that established standards are maintained in online files developed by the organization

12. Work with senior staff in the respective sections and data processing staff to develop methods for testing the technical integrity of each database prior to release of tapes for publication processing or for distribution to database distributors

13. Work with appropriate staff in the respective sections to ensure that the content data in each database is ready for release on schedule and fulfills quality and quantity requirements

14. Work with data processing staff, representatives of database distributors and photocomposition/videcomposition contractors to ensure that the data is released in formats compatible with the receivers' systems

15. Coordinate in-house preparation of documentation and training programs for representatives of database distributors; provide them with an overview of the content and potential uses of the data contained in each database

16. Coordinate staff review of database documentation created by database distributors for their clients

17. Coordinate the sending of computer tapes to the database distributors on schedule

18. Supervise the maintenance of documentation files for each database released to database distributors

19. Maintain a statistical record of the use of each database by database distributors' clients

20. Maintain a financial record of the royalty/usage charges received from database distributors
Publications Coordination

21. Work with in-house staff and contractors to ensure that all deadlines are met in the production schedule for each publication.

22. Coordinate operations related to the processing of illustrations for publications:
   - make/obtain half-tone photos and/or line cuts
   - crop photos as required and mark their locations on galleys
   - write captions
   - choose type
   - paste up boards
   - ensure return of negatives from publisher and file
   - return artwork obtained on loan

23. Provide guidance, as needed, to senior staff of the respective sections in development of objective, user-oriented introductory materials for publication.

24. Send galleys of introductory materials for typesetting.

25. Coordinate the proofreading of the introductory materials by senior staff in the respective sections.

26. Obtain computer tapes of the content data for each publication and send to the appropriate source for computerized photocomposition/compilation.

27. Receive the positive or negative camera-ready copy.

28. Work with senior staff of the respective sections to coordinate the proofing of the camera-ready content data.

29. Design or contract for the design of the covers for each publication.

30. Establish a color rotation cycle for the covers of successive year's issues/cumulations.

31. Obtain/assign publication numbers for each publication, as required (e.g., volume and issue numbers, in-house document numbers, publisher's series numbers)

32. Obtain an ISSN for each title published as a serial.

33. Obtain Cataloging-in-Publication (CIP) data for each publication/series.
34. Apply for copyright for each publication, if appropriate

35. Send the complete package of camera-ready copy to the printer with specifications for the size of the publication, the cover color(s), the type of binding, the type of paper, the number of copies (for in-house use and shipment to the distributing agent), etc.

36. For data to be published by special subject interest groups, send the camera-ready content data to the respective organizations for publication processing.

37. For microform publications, send computer-output-microfilm (COM) and introductory copy to the appropriate contractor for the creation of the masters and production of copies. Specify the number of copies for in-house use and for shipment to the distributing agent.

38. For special or occasional publications, provide guidance, as needed, to senior staff of the respective sections regarding writing the introductory material, so that the publication will not be outdated too quickly by use of time-linked wording.

39. For approved reprint publications, send negatives, if available, to the reprint publisher; ensure that all negatives are returned.

40. Keep track of costs related to production of each publication; note cost trends.

41. Notify the respective sections of the costs associated with production of each of the publications.

42. Supervise the maintenance of files related to production of each publication.

Marketing
