The Archives Library Information Center (ALIC) acquisition list provides sources of information on a wide range of topics, including military, black history, and government archives, collection development policy, classification of nonprint media, archival preservation and access, electronic records management, and other facets of information preservation. Each entry is listed by ALIC accession number and provides the document's author, publication and archival source, publication date, and the number of pages. A total of 324 items are listed. Both an author-sponsor and a subject index are included. (MAB)
