FLORIDA ASSOCIATION,

HEALTH OCCUPATIONS STUDENTS OF AMERICA
CHAPTER 1
FLORIDA ASSOCIATION
HEALTH OCCUPATIONS STUDENTS OF AMERICA

History

Health Occupations Students of America is an organization which has evolved over a period of several years as a result of significant efforts and activities to establish a separate national vocational student organization for students enrolled in health occupations education programs. These include the following:

1972 - The National Advisory Council, VOCATIONAL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, identified the vocational student organizations as an "integral functional part of the curriculum" and recommended that all program areas support a student organization as part of the instruction.

1972 - The Health Occupations Education (HOE) Division of the American Vocational Association (AVA) voted to endorse establishment of a national Health Occupations Student Organization.

1974 - The National Task Force prepared a report which served as the preliminary steps in establishing the national organization.

1975 - The Planning Committee, appointed by the Vice-President of the HOE Division of AVA, completed plans for a Constitutional Convention that would formalize the development of a national organization.

1976 - The Constitutional Convention of the National Association, Health Occupations Students of America, was held in Arlington, Texas. Six states with established statewide organizations for health occupations students sent representatives to serve as delegates at the convention. The participating states were: Alabama, New Jersey, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and North Carolina. The National Health Occupations Students of America Bylaws were adopted for the new organization by the delegates at the convention.

Prior to that time, the health occupations education teachers in Florida who wished to provide experiences for their students in a vocational student organization had to affiliate either with the Cooperative Education Clubs of Florida or the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America. Health Career Clubs were also sponsored by the Florida Medical Association Auxiliary.
A study conducted in 1975 and 1976 by the Florida Department of Education revealed that teachers and principals in the high schools were in strong agreement that an organization should be made available specifically for students enrolled in high school health occupations education programs. On May 10, 1976, Joe D. Mills, Director of the Division of Vocational Education, Florida Department of Education, appointed members to serve on the State Advisory Committee for the Health Occupations Student Organization to assist in developing an organization for HOE students. This committee recommended:

1. The target date of 1977 for finalizing the development of a statewide organization.

2. The membership be limited to students in high school health occupations education during the first phase of the organization.

The members of the Advisory Committee were:

Nicholas Borota, Principal
Miami Carol City Senior High School, Miami

Arlene Carta, Instructor
Nurse Aide Program
Orange County Vocational School, Orlando

Catherine J. DeVito
Florida Medical Association Auxiliary,
St. Augustine

Mary Nan Dixon, Supervisor

The first meeting of the State Advisory Committee for the Health Occupations Student Organization was held September 22, 1976 in Orlando. Attending this meeting were committee members Borota, Carta, Dunn, Long, Minoque, Smith, Syfrett and Wert. Department of Education members attending were Betty Cannata, Willard Carlson, Louise Egan, Arthur Haseltine, Sarah Hurst, Harlan McCauslin, Etta McCulloch and Richard Ray.

Dr. Sarah Hurst, Consultant for Health Occupations Education, Department of Education, presented the committee with the results of a study conducted under her leadership to identify the need for an HOE student organization. Eighty-nine (89) percent of the respondents stated that the HOE student organization was needed.

On November 11-14, 1976, the American Health Occupations Education Student Organization (now HOSA), held its Constitutional Convention at Arlington, Texas. The first HOSA Bylaws were adopted at the convention. Attending from Florida were Dr. Sarah Hurst and Dr. Richard Ray.

1977 - Hazel Hogan, Health Occupations Teacher Educator at Florida Technological University (now the University of Central Florida), coordinated a workshop for the Department of Education in June, 1977 to develop a handbook for HOSA members and advisors. Dr. Elizabeth King, from the State University of New York at Buffalo was the principal resource person. Accomplishments of this workshop included the initial development of the handbook and the accompanying idea bank. The Workshop Director was Arlene Carta, Instructor, Nurse Aide Program, Orange County Vocational School, Orlando.

On November 4-5, 1977, the Constitution Convention of the Florida Association, Health Occupations Students of America was held in Orlando. The HOE instructor, one HOE student delegate, and one alternate were invited to attend from each high school HOE program in the state. The Florida Medical Association Auxiliary donated $425.00 to the association to help defray the costs of the convention. The association bylaws were adopted at the convention under the able direction of Willabeth Jordan, Parliamentarian. Sarah Hurst served as Convention Coordinator.

Other organizations contributing funds at the time were the Florida Dental Association, $50.00; Health Occupations Educators Association of Florida, $200.00; Florida Technical Education Association, $100.00; Florida Vocational Association, $100.00; and Florida Hospital Association, $150.00.

1977 - in December, 1977, the Florida Association, Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA), received its official charter from National HOSA. A Charter Plaque was presented to the Florida delegation at the Second National HOSA conference held in Cherry Hill, New Jersey on June 26th through July 1, 1979.

1979 - Several changes have been made in the Florida Association HOSA Bylaws since its inception. One particularly important change occurred when the bylaws were amended in 1979 to extend membership to students enrolled in post-secondary health occupations education programs. This change is consistent with the National Bylaws which provide for post-secondary membership and separate competitive events at the National conference.

The history of Florida Association, Health Occupations Students of America is summarized as:

1977 - Florida finalized development of a statewide organization and received official Charter from National HOSA.

1978 - Florida's Motto entry was adopted by National HOSA.

1979 - The Bylaws were amended to extend membership to post-secondary students. Received charter Plaque from National HOSA.
1980 - Florida's membership continued to grow.

1981 - The second revision of the HOSA Handbook was completed.

1982 - Florida students continue to participate in National events piloting a "Brain Bowl" event.

1983 - New publications are prepared to assist advisors in building HOSA Chapters.

1984 - Florida hosted the HOSA National Conference in Orlando. Florida members served on the National Board of Directors for the first time.

1985 - The Florida HOSA Foundation began.

1986 - Florida HOSA students won 53 Competitive Event awards from the National Conference. The Board of Director's representation was reorganized.

1987 - The Collegiate Division of HOSA was approved. Florida HOSA had the largest delegation attending the National Conference. Florida HOSA added an alumnae member to the Board of Directors.

1988 - Florida HOSA presented its first Honorary Life time membership to Dr. Etta Mc Culloch.

PHILOSOPHY OF HOSA

The vocational student organization is designed to assist students to understand and accept their abilities, aptitudes and interests. HOSA creates opportunities for the students to develop their interests and relate them to realistic goals in the health careers. HOSA activities are an integral part of the health occupations education program curriculum, providing leadership development opportunities for the student to:

1) improve interpersonal relations by practicing the communication skills;

2) improve team membership skills and attitudes by learning to share, to give and to receive criticism, encouragement, or support;

3) participate effectively in the democratic process both as a follower and as a leader;
4) enhance self-concept as a helping person by learning to accept responsibility for and consequences of personal actions with relation to others, especially to those being provided health care;

5) prepare for membership and participation in the health professions and society; and

6) practice and improve their chosen health profession skills through competitive events.

Purposes of HOSA

The purposes of the Florida Association, HOSA are stated in Article II of the Bylaws (Appendix A). Each HOSA member should become familiar with the purposes of the organization.

HOSA Emblem

In 1978, each chartered state had the opportunity to submit a HOSA emblem to be presented at the First National HOSA Conference. The House of Delegates selected the emblem to represent the national organization at the First National HOSA Conference held April 27-30, at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

A HOSA Emblem Ceremony has been developed in Florida, utilizing the circle, the triangle and the hands, which are symbolized on the national emblem. The ceremony may be used at chapter, regional or state meetings and conferences.
HOSA EMBLEM

The circle represents the continuity of health care.

The triangle represents the three aspects of humankind well-being - social, physical and mental, and

The hands signify the caring of each HOSA member.

Colors: Background of outer circle - maroon
Letters in circle - medical white
Triangle - navy blue
Hands, figure, HOSA in triangle - medical white
Area around triangle - medical white
"founded in 1976" - navy blue

HOSA Motto

"THE HANDS OF HOSA MOLD THE HEALTH OF TOMORROW" is the HOSA motto. The original motto, "The Hands of Youth Mold the Health of Tomorrow" was presented by Florida and adopted at the First National HOSA Leadership Conference in 1978. Due to the inclusion of post-secondary students, the word "youth" was changed to "HOSA" in 1979 at the Second National HOSA Conference held in Cherry Hill, New Jersey.

Legal Authority

The Florida Association, HOSA operates pursuant to federal and state laws which recognize the need for HOSA activities to be visible components of vocational education programs in health occupations education. The following statements are direct quotations from the Federal Register and the Florida State Board of Education Administrative Rules.

Federal Register, Vol. 40, No. 38 - Tuesday, February 25, 1975:

(i) Vocational Youth Organizations. The program of instruction may include activities of vocational youth organizations which are an integral part of vocational instruction offered and which are supervised by vocational education personnel. (20 U.S.C. 1262. (a)

Federal Register, Vol. 42, No. 191, states that: "...a state may use funds under its basic grant to support activities of vocational education student organizations which are an integral part of the vocational instruction offered (PL 94-482, PART 'B').

State Board of Education Rule - 6A-6.65(8) Instructional components of vocational education. The comprehensive vocational education program shall be offered in components organized as follows:

(8) To provide activities for students in vocational student organizations as an integral part of the instruction offered...

Structure

The State of Florida is divided into five HOSA regions with some regions being subdivided (see Appendix B). Meetings are held within each region to permit a maximum number of HOSA members to participate in the entire spectrum of organizational activities. Interaction among students from more than one school is encouraged.

A Charter may be issued to each secondary or post-secondary health occupations education teacher/program. If there is more than one program in a school, each program can have a Charter. Each Chapter is identified by its name.
As shown in Figure 1, HOSA members elect officers of the chapter. Chapter members elect Regional officers, chapter delegates elect state officers and, state delegates elect national officers.

State officers, regional officers and chapter delegates comprise the official voting delegation at the Annual State Leadership Development Conference. This voting delegation makes decisions effecting the operation of the Florida Association, HOSA, and elects state officers as well as delegates to represent Florida at the Annual National HOSA Conference.

Board of Directors

As set forth in Article VIII of the Florida Association, HOSA Bylaws, state officers, members at large, Regional Unit Advisors, a representative of the Florida Medical Association Auxiliary, the HOSA State Advisor and the Director of Health and Public Service Education serve on the Florida Association, HOSA Board of Directors. The Regional Program Specialists serve as ex-officio members. Based on information from all Florida chapters and input from the national HOSA organization, the Florida Association, HOSA Board of Directors amend bylaws as needed, and assume responsibility for directing the activities of the state association, HOSA.

As seen in Figure 2, the final responsibility for organization, development and programming of the Florida Association, HOSA rests with the office of the Director, Health and Public Service Education. The HOSA State Advisor is responsible to the State Director for the effective operation of the Florida Association, HOSA.

The Department of Education Regional Program Specialists for Health and Public Service Education provide technical assistance to the chapter advisors and regional unit advisors. In addition, the regional program specialists provide direction and coordination for the Regional Leadership Development Conference.
1. HOSA Uniform

   The official HOSA uniform defined by National HOSA is:

   For males  --  navy blazer, navy or white slacks, white shirt, maroon tie and HOSA emblem on left breast pocket on blazer.

   For females  --  navy blazer, navy or white skirt or slacks, maroon accessory scarf (optional), white blouse and HOSA emblem on left breast pocket on blazer.

   The official HOSA uniform items may be purchased from:

   HOSA Supply Service
   11722 Parklawn Drive
   Rockville, Maryland 20852

   For chapter, regional unit and state conferences, it is strongly recommended that HOSA members wear appropriate business attire in HOSA colors, not necessarily the official HOSA uniform, because of the expense involved. HOSA colors may involve a white shirt or blouse accompanied by a maroon tie for males or a maroon scarf for females. The HOSA patch may be placed on the blazer, if desired. The main objective of wearing HOSA colors at meetings is to present a nice appearance for HOSA and to help improve the members' self-image.

   At the HOSA national conferences, the official HOSA uniform is recommended for all business sessions and some competitive events. A navy blue blazer with the HOSA patch and appropriate skirt or pants are recommended. Also, a maroon accessory may be worn.

CHAPTER IV
ORGANIZING A SCHOOL CHAPTER
CHAPTER IV
ORGANIZING A SCHOOL CHAPTER

School Chapter Defined

In schools with more than one health occupations education teacher, the responsibilities of the advisor for the chapter operation may be shared.

Refer to Article V, Section 7 of the Hosa Bylaws. When more than one health occupations education program exists in a school, it is possible to have a HOSA chapter for each program. Having each program involved in HOSA, organized with officers and committees, creates a greater number of opportunities for students to participate in the Florida Association, HOSA activities.

Because of the intracurricular nature of the Florida Association, HOSA, the majority of the organizations activities will take place in the program classroom during regularly scheduled class time. The degree of participation in Florida Association, HOSA activities at other times and places becomes the option of the individual student and advisor.

Steps For a Successful HOSA Chapter

A HOSA chapter has many responsibilities in order to climb the steps to becoming a successful chapter. Each chapter should:

1. Contact the regional advisor to obtain organizational materials.

2. Become familiar with current HOSA bylaws (Appendix A), Chapter and Officer Handbooks, Guides to Parliamentary Procedures, HOSA brochure, competitive events and the guidelines for planning the regional and state conferences.

3. Discuss the need for HOSA organization with the principal of the school and other appropriate officials (see Appendix D), for sample letter to administrator.

4. Stimulate interest of all students and share materials with them.

5. Hold an organizational meeting involving all students. Select a temporary chairman, recorder, and committee to write chapter bylaws during this organizational phase.
Chapter bylaws should be reviewed each year, revised as necessary, and adopted annually. Students writing and amending the rules which will govern their organizational activities will learn a great deal about citizenship and responsibility as well as writing bylaws with appropriate content.

The only restriction in rewriting is that the school chapter bylaws may not contain provisions that conflict with the state and national bylaws (see Appendix A).

The advisor serves as parliamentarian until replaced by the appointed parliamentarian.

6. Conduct a campaign for election of officers.

Immediately before nominations, the duties and responsibilities of each office and qualifications of students should be reviewed by the members. These are described in the officers handbook. Members should discuss qualifications they consider important for each office rather than the personalities of potential candidates.

7. Hold a constitutional meeting to adopt chapter bylaws and elect officers.

8. Plan an Installation Ceremony for new officers so the newly elected officers can assume their respective functions immediately after elections are completed and serve for the remainder of the school year. (See officers handbook appendices for Installation Ceremony).

9. Provide leadership training for officers and committee chairpersons (see Officer and Parliamentary Procedure Handbooks).

All Florida Association, HOSA chapter meetings should be conducted following ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, NEWLY REVISED (see Teacher's Guide on Parliamentary Procedure). ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, NEWLY REVISED provides an opportunity for the student to become proficient in parliamentary procedure and develop skill and confidence in effective group interaction. The teacher/advisor should seek the help and support of qualified parliamentarians to assist the chapters. The Florida Association of Registered Parliamentarians has members who will work with advisors in the school district. The HOSA state advisor provides a list of registered parliamentarians each year. Workshops in parliamentary procedure may be made available to chapter advisors and students.
Standing committees for necessary to carry out the objectives and requirements of the bylaws should be appointed by the president of the chapter. Standing committees should include continuing functions such as membership, finance, program, and public relations. Each committee should prepare a plan of action keyed to the program of work for the chapter.

Supplementary task forces (ad hoc committees) may be appointed for special projects or be given brief, specific assignments within the larger plan. A number of task forces appointed for specific purposes will create more opportunities for different students to contribute to the organization.

10. Submit application and membership forms to the Florida Association, HOSA and national organization by designated date. Copies should be sent to Regional Advisor and Regional Program Specialist, H&PSE. As stated in the Florida Association, HOSA Bylaws, any school that offers health occupations education program may affiliate with Florida Association, HOSA, and national HOSA. Submit application for affiliation as a local chapter with the state organizations when:

a. chapter bylaws have been adopted - forward to state.
b. officers have been elected.
c. no provision of the local chapter bylaws is in conflict with the Florida Association, HOSA Charter or Bylaws or National Bylaws.
d. planned activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the Florida Association, HOSA.

11. Submit chapter membership list and state and national monetary assessment by designated date to state advisor and national office with copies to Regional Advisor.

The official categories of membership are defined in Article III of the HOSA Bylaws. Because of the intracurricular nature of vocational student organizations, high school and post-secondary students who are enrolled in health occupations education programs are expected to participate in the Florida Association, HOSA activities.

Each member will receive a membership card from national HOSA and a HOSA emblem pin from the State Advisor.
12. Gifts and Contributions - Individual school chapters may accept gifts according to the policies established by the school board. Florida Association, HOSA may accept gifts, grants and special awards for use in furthering the objectives of the association.

13. Affiliation fees for students who enrolled after January 1 must be received by National HOSA on or before March 1 of that same year.
CHAPTER V

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION, HOSA ACTIVITIES
PLANNING CHAPTER ACTIVITIES TO BE AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE CURRICULUM

The statement "HOSA is an integral part of the health occupations education program" is frequently used. Being an integral part means that HOSA is a tool of instruction which reinforces, through activities, what the student learns in the classroom and/or on the job. Integrated chapter activities improve the effectiveness of every health occupations education program and helps students become more employable. HOSA, classroom instruction, and/or supervised occupational experiences are components in the total health occupations education program and should be directly related to each other.

[Diagram with circles showing Supervised Occupational Experiences, Classroom Instruction, and Health Occupations Students of America intersecting]
The advisor should consider the time block that can reasonably be allocated to school and community projects, including fund-raising activities. Dates and approval for these activities must be scheduled according to the accepted policy for the individual school. This should be included in the pre-planning activities prior to the opening of school.

An important consideration in planning student activities is the need for support from the health care community. The advisor plays a major role in soliciting this support.

Program of Work

A program of work may be useful in implementing student activities.

Fund Raising

Refer to local school teachers handbook and county guidelines for policies and procedures (see Appendix F for fund-raising ideas).

Budget

The proposed budget should be prepared at the end of the school year by the treasurer. See Officers Handbook and Appendix for budget forms.

Joint Projects

When there are several chapters within the county, county-wide activities may be held for a variety of occasions. For example, an awards banquet of members from all or several chapters in the county may be more impressive than a separate chapter function. Leadership training and activities involving health care personnel and institutions may be planned on a county-wide basis to make utilization of community resources effective (see Appendix G).

Publicity and Public Relations

Publicity is good public relations for the chapter. Each chapter should take advantage of all available resources for publicity (see Appendix H).
CHAPTER VI

AWARDS
A HOSA Program which meets the stated objectives in the bylaws rewards members, advisors, the school and the community for their contributions.

Award Categories

1) Individual Student

Recognition of each member's progress toward his/her own goals should come from his/her peers.

Awards such as certificates of merit, academic letters, shoulder patches or pins bearing the logo of the organization may be considered.

2) Community Involvement

Formal recognition should be given to those persons and institutions in the community who provide support and assistance in implementing the organization's activities.

A special chapter meeting might be devoted to formal recognition of the people who have made community involvement possible. Student-produced certificates or other mementos may be presented.

3) Health Occupations Educators Association of Florida

The Health Occupations Educators Association of Florida (HOEAF) presents achievement awards (plaque and monetary) each year to an outstanding student in each of the following health occupations education programs in Florida.

- Secondary
- Vocational/Technical School
- Community College

The HOEAF is a division of the Florida Vocational Association. Members of HOEAF are appointed each year to serve on the Student Achievement Awards Committee. Information regarding the awards are mailed directly to each school from the chairperson of the committee and state advisor.

4) Florida Vocational Association, Health Occupations Students of America, Student of the Year Award

The Florida Vocational Association (FVA) provides a "plaque" for the "Outstanding HOSA Student" in the Florida Association, Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) Organization. The award brings recognition to the student who receives it, and encourages others to strive for greater achievements in the future.
The Florida Association, HOSA Student of the Year is selected by a student awards committee appointed by the state advisor each year. The HOSA member must submit an application based upon specific criteria (see Competitive Events Handbook). Applications for eligible students should be provided by the HOSA chapter advisor making the nomination; however, additional information must be submitted by fellow classmates, guidance counselors, community leaders or clinical supervisors. A representative of FVA presents the award at the Annual Florida Association, HOSA Leadership Development Conference each year.

All nominations for the Outstanding HOSA Student of the Year must be sent to the state advisor by a deadline date. The state advisor shall forward the eligible applications to the Student Awards Selection Committee.

5) Florida Medical Association Auxiliary Scholarship Award

The Florida Medical Association Auxiliary Scholarship Award is awarded to an outstanding HOSA student enrolled in a health occupations education program. The award must be sent to the college in which the student is enrolled. If the HOSA member does not enter a health related program within a year, the scholarship shall be awarded to the second place winner.

6) American Heart Association Awards

The American Heart Association, Florida affiliate, Committee on Scientific and Health Related Careers, presents HOSA Service Monetary Awards to selected chapters throughout Florida on the basis of projects entered. The monetary awards are determined each year at the committee meetings.

All HOSA chapters interested in the annual HOSA competition sponsored by the American Heart Association should complete the application form (Appendix I) and forward to the local Heart Association by March 1. In order to qualify for the American Heart Association Award, it is necessary to engage in fund raising, community service, or educational projects that are related to the heart. (Examples - CPR instruction, blood pressure screening, blood drives, distribution of educational literature, etc.).

7) Recognition of Chapter Achievement

At the regional conferences the chapters are recognized and certificates may be presented by service and community organizations. As sponsors for special awards are identified, other activities and achievements shall be given formal recognition.
8) Florida HOSA Foundation, Inc. Scholarship

The Florida HOSA Foundation, Inc. was founded with the primary purpose of providing scholarships to HOSA students so that they may continue their educational studies in pursuit of a health career. See Appendix O for guidelines.

9) Broyhill Leadership Camp Scholarship

The Broyhill Leadership Camp Scholarship is awarded to State officers. The scholarship allows officers an opportunity to participate in a week long leadership development camp. Contact State Advisor for information. Participation is not limited to state officers, any HOSA member can attend by paying their own way.

10) Chapter/Regional/State HOSA Yearbook

A record of Florida Association, HOSA’s activities, highlighting the major events, is traditionally the responsibility of the historian. Outstanding achievements of individuals and teams should be recorded and displayed in the program unit, chapter and/or state HOSA yearbook.

Ribbons (rosettes), certificates and medallions make ideal awards because they can be preserved in yearbooks. In addition, pictures, articles, copies of chapter, regional and state programs, newsletters, newspaper clippings and other items may be utilized to prepare the yearbook.

Potential Contributors for Awards

The potential for receiving contributions for awards is unlimited. HOSA chapters should look into possibilities by contacting resources such as auxiliaries, professional organizations and businesses in the community.

SAMPLE LETTER TO ADMINISTRATOR
August 19, 1988

Holly High School
Avenue A
Western, FL 12345

Dear:

I would like to take this opportunity to inform you of the student organization specifically for the students enrolled in vocational health occupations education programs. The high school and post-secondary programs are eligible for membership.

The National Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) is a vocational student organization officially organized during the Constitutional Convention in Arlington, Texas, November 11-13, 1976. The Florida Association, HOSA was chartered in 1977 to meet student needs primarily identified by teachers, principals and other administrators of vocational education. The teacher advisor sets the standards of performance for the chapter and determines the quality of the student's experience.

The primary purpose of HOSA is to serve the specific needs of students enrolled in vocational health occupations education programs. This is achieved by fostering programs and activities which develop leadership, character, citizenship, promote involvement in current health care issues, environmental concerns and survival needs of the community, state and nation. The association assists each member in establishing realistic career goals and has chapter, regional and state meetings scheduled with competitive events.

The State Board of Education Rules state that vocational student organizations are an integral part of the vocational curriculum. With this in mind, could we, with your approval, incorporate the organization, Florida Association, HOSA, into the health occupations education program for the school year 1988-89?

Plans for this organization would include involving the students' parents as assistant advisors, allow students to participate in local, regional and state leadership development activities, write articles for the school newspapers, develop a brochure for distribution in the community and become involved with community projects. A variety of rewarding experiences will enable the students to develop healthy attitudes in their future roles as responsible adults.

May I meet with you, at your convenience, to discuss the organization?

Sincerely,

Chapter Advisor
HOSA

NEWS RELEASE GUIDELINES
Writing a News Release

What should be included in a news release?

WHAT - business meeting, social activity, speaker, competitive events, or other activity

WHO - names of organizations and people involved, such as committee chairmen, elected officers, speakers, winners, etc.

WHEN - exact date and time of meeting or activity
(Monday, June 13, 1988, at 8:30 a.m.)

WHERE - place

WHY - purpose of activity or meeting if not clear in description

HOW - details of how the activity was carried out

The lead (the first sentence or two) should answer these questions. The lead is designed to give the reader information quickly and in such a manner that he/she will want to read the rest of the story.

After the lead, the details are written in declining order of importance. This permits the story to be cut from the bottom, if need be, without having to rewrite the article or leave out important facts. Be sure to stick to facts: Be brief, accurate, and neat: Use short words, sentences and paragraphs!

Mechanics of Preparing News Releases

News releases should always be typed on one side of paper only and double spaced. on 8 1/2" x 11" plain white, medium weight paper (not onionskin).

Allow ample margins (1 1/2") for the editor to make notes. Leave about 2 1/2" of the first page blank at the top for the editor's use.

Identify your organization and/or school in the upper left-hand corner of the first page. Give the date the release is sent, the name of the person to contact for further information, and the address and telephone number.
Write a release date at the top of the page to indicate when the story can be published. If it can be published anytime, write "For Immediate Release".

If the news release consists of more than one page, end each page at the end of a paragraph. At the end of the release type "end" or "###".

Photographs

Provide photographs with a news release, if possible.

Use a 35mm camera and black and white film.

Take photo as close to subject as possible.

Try to portray some action in the photo.

Take at least two (2) pictures of each event.

Provide the photographer ample space and time to give instructions on what pictures he/she would like to take.

Attach a description to each photo that is sent to a newspaper. Briefly, it should describe in one or two sentences what the picture shows and the names, titles and affiliation of the subjects.

Identify individuals in photograph from left to right.

Attach the description to the photo to prevent errors in identification. A small piece of tape may be used.

Do not write on the back of the photo as this may detract from engraving quality and may make it unusable.

Write the name, address and HOSA identification if the photo is a head shot of an individual.

Enclose the picture between cardboard to mail in order to prevent damage.

Provide different pictures if several newspapers are used.

Radio and Television

HOSA members should not overlook radio and television stations in providing news about the organization. Radio and television are as important to the publicity cause as are newspapers, magazines and other publications.
Radio and television stations are required by the terms of their federal licenses to make available a part of the time they are on the air for "public service" programs and announcements. Activities conducted by HOSA members have a broad appeal and merit a share of this time.

Information regarding a HOSA conference, competitive events, fund-raising activities, educational programs, service projects and information regarding health occupations education programs are newsworthy and important to the school and community. The information may be publicized effectively through interview shows, panel or group discussions as well as spot announcements.

The news media should be extended an invitation to attend any activities in which you participate. It is very important to know the station program director when possible or to have a contact with the station who can give some assistance in developing usable materials.

A good publicity coverage is never complete unless radio and television stations are utilized. Remember, there are many individuals who get much of their news from one or the other. Many will hear the message HOSA wants to deliver where they would never take the time to read about it. Radio and television stations may also cover a wider area of the community than the local newspaper.

NATIONAL HOSA CAMPAIGN RULES

Refer to National Handbook campaign rules annually
"THE JOURNEY TO SUCCESS REQUIRES CONSTANT SERVICE AT THE POINT OF GREATEST NEED."

"IF I HAD JUST PUT MORE INTO IT!" OR "NO DEPOSIT  NO RETURN"

The election is long over...and you won! Belated congratulations! Leadership opportunities now become complex, compounded challenges.

Do you remember the anxiety you felt before the election?...the promises you made to yourself?...those ominous doubts during the last hours before that memorable announcement? (You Won.)

Victory is exhilarating, but it also can be deadly! The irony is that the competition is over, and you have to "get in shape" to qualify.

Will you remember all that anxiety, those promises? Can you recall how you would have felt if you had lost? Can you empathize with those others, those "trophies" in your career? Can you fully achieve what you pledged yourself to do?

This term of office will be one of the toughest times of your life. Remember that:

You are expected to be a good winner (much harder than losing well).

You are expected to be everyone's servant, but master of yourself in achieving ultimate standards in every field, above those you serve.

You are expected to know everything about every subject...but to spend all your time planning, organizing, doing...without any investment of study or time for yourself.

You are the subject of exploitation:

If you are a girl, you must be on the "fashion board;" you must be peppy when you feel dull; you must be an enthusiastic advertisement for your school--constantly. If you are a guy, you will be the "popular" date, you will be the "prestige" member sought by groups; you will set fads and be asked to participate at several events.

People will compliment you and shake your hand -- and then "confidentially" criticize you in the back room.

You will be revered, admired, maligned, mimicked, ridiculed, and snidely talked about; you will be lonely, disgraced, cheered, and hated; ... you will be asked to lead!

You will walk a tight-wire between right/wrong; best/worst; greatness/petitiness; humility/pride; laughter/tears; achievement/goofs; -- somewhere in the middle from one extreme to another.
QUALITIES OF LEADERSHIP

What is leadership? Leadership is the ability of a well-adjusted person to handle people, to inspire or influence the actions of others, to make decisions, and to move a group to action.

What are the qualities of leadership? A good leader must have certain qualities that can be developed by the average person if he/she works at them intelligently. The following qualities are highly desirable in everyday life as well:

1. A leader respects the rights and dignity of others. He/she realizes that every person can make worthy contributions.

2. A leader is willing to accept responsibility and to do his/her part through work within the group.

3. A leader is able to work and get along with people in a friendly and peaceful manner. He/she must be straightforward, agreeable, and industrious. The leader praises where praise is due and has sensitivity to the basic trends and moods of the group.

4. A leader is able to communicate thoughts and feelings in a clear and understanding manner as well as to verbalize the ideas of the group.

5. A leader is well informed on matters which concern the group and arrives at a decision only after he/she has an opportunity to secure and study pertinent information.

6. A leader is self-confident. He/she possesses integrity and also shows trust for fellow group members.

7. A leader is optimistic and enthusiastic, believes that group action can overcome obstacles and solve problems, and works within the group with zest and enjoyment.

8. A leader is open-minded, does not claim to have all of the answers, seeks the opinions of the group, and accepts or supports them if they seem best for the group. However, he/she must be willing to compromise on issues.

9. A leader has strength of conviction. He/she will take a stand and be counted, yet can be convinced otherwise if evidence is presented that indicates that he/she is in the wrong.

10. A leader will show initiative in getting the group started through sound and careful planning. He/she proceeds with the group discussion with knowledge rather than with reckless abandon.

PRESIDENT

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
CHAPTER III
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE PRESIDENT

The person accepting the office of President assumes the responsibility of doing everything possible to make his or her HOSA group a stronger, better organization than it was before he/she was installed as President.

The President will need the latest edition of the Official HOSA Handbook, and a copy of Robert’s Rules of Order – Newly Revised, the accepted book on parliamentary procedure for HOSA. From these two books, the President should learn his/her part in all meetings and the basic rules of parliamentary procedure. This information will enable the President to preside at meetings and function in all other expected capacities efficiently.

An effective President will be familiar with the HOSA Constitution; will have a working knowledge of the Region, State and National Program of Activities; will understand the organization and operations of HOSA; and will know the names of the Region, State and National officers.

The President MUST realize that he/she cannot assume the responsibility of doing everything. The President’s task is to “direct” and “guide”. The ability to delegate responsibility without being “bossy” must be cultivated and practiced.

At times during the year, the President will need to appoint committees. As a rule, appointments to a committee should be done during a meeting. The President should spread the responsibilities of serving on committees by giving such jobs to several HOSA members, and by not using the same members over and over. A mixture of experienced members and younger members should be sought for each committee. Committee work provides opportunities for leadership training. The President is an ex-officio member of all committees, and may help in the efficient and effective operation of any committee, if it becomes necessary.

The President will need to work closely with the advisor(s) in planning meetings. Meetings with officers and chairpersons of all standing committees are valuable aids in planning for meetings. The President presides over all such meetings, directs the discussion, sees that all plans for meetings are made and then announces specific topics for meeting discussion several days prior to the meeting.

The President is often called upon to represent his/her organization at civic clubs, national and state education and professional associations, and other community organizations. Speaking at meetings is a common assignment. A knowledge of HOSA history and facts about local chapters, the state association and national association will be very helpful in making such presentations.

When presiding, the President should not take part in the discussion other than to see that the question before the chapter is clearly understood before action is taken. The President should not take sides. Should he/she wish to discuss the question, the Vice President should be asked to preside until the President has expressed his/her option. The President works for the good of the entire organization.
The duties of the President are:

To LEAD the organization

To PRESIDE at business meetings, and

To APPOINT committees.

In LEADING the organization:

1. Show intense interest in the HOSA program and be optimistic about its success.

2. Seek to inspire interest and optimism in others.

3. Make the group aware of your abilities and willingness to work.

4. Show tolerance of the sincere convictions of others.

5. Be sympathetic toward the problems of others.

6. Be willing to accept responsibility, and to share responsibility with others.

7. Give proper recognition to others for work well done.

8. Be able to lead a discussion democratically.

9. Be willing to come to conclusions based solely on the facts pertaining to the particular case.

10. Be pleasant and cheerful.

11. Keep the school administration informed of HOSA activities.

When PRESIDING at business meetings:

1. Know the rules of parliamentary procedure.

2. Have minutes of previous meetings approved.

3. Follow a definite order of business.
4. Recognize a speaker when he/she is standing and after the Chair has been properly addressed.

5. Confine discussion and motions to business that is before the house.

6. Make sure that motions and amendments are clearly understood.

7. Require seconds to motions and amendments before proceeding.

8. Call in individuals when they can make valuable contributions.

9. See that all members are given the privilege of speaking to the motion before proceeding.

10. Encourage timid members to take part in the meeting.

11. Be sure all members understand the motion and the consequences before calling for a vote.

12. Take the vote so that each member will feel free to vote as he/she chooses.

13. Call for a standing vote whenever it seems that the members might be dissatisfied with the vote count, or when the vote is close.

14. Make every matter of business a democratic expression of the group.

15. See that the Secretary is making proper record of the proceedings.

16. Ask for the advisor's opinion if necessary.

17. Call for order when necessary.

18. Refrain from doing most of the talking -- the President directs the discussion.

In conducting meetings:

1. See that the meeting room is ready, and that all paraphernalia is in place.

2. Know your part, and see that others know their parts.

3. Speak distinctly and with proper enunciation.

4. Conduct all meetings with dignity.
When APPOINTING committees:

1. Seek advice from others on the Executive Committee and the advisor before making appointments.

2. The individual should be consulted before an appointment. Give consideration to the individual's abilities and willingness to accept responsibility.

3. Keep in mind the nature of work to be done by the committee.

4. Use new members on committees with experienced members.

5. Distribute responsibilities and opportunities to achieve among all members.

6. Be sure the members of the committee understand what is to be done, and any deadlines that need to be met.
VICE PRESIDENT

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
A slate of capable officers is an important requirement for a successful HOSA organization. The officers must remember that they were selected to lead their chapter(s) in accordance with the constitution of the organization. (In conjunction with state and national constitutions and bylaws.) In accepting the office of Vice President, a person assumes the responsibility of doing everything in his/her power to make a stronger, better organization than it was when he/she was installed. If the Vice President has this purpose in mind, the activities of the organization will be successful.

By believing in HOSA and having a willingness to work and learn, the Vice President becomes a credit to the organization, the school and the community. In properly organized chapters, the Vice President is one of the busiest officers in the chapter. The Vice President must have a firm command of his/her position; must know the motto, aims and purposes of HOSA; and must possess the ability to handle meetings in accordance with parliamentary procedure. The vice President who accepts the challenge of the office, lives up to the duties and responsibilities, and tried to fulfill the goals of the organization, will be an asset to all of those with whom he/she comes in contact.

One of the most important jobs of the Vice President is to assist the President to develop the program of activities early in the year. This should be done with the cooperation of all officers and committee chairmen. The Secretary should have a copy of the completed program in the Secretary's Book. The vice President should make sure that a copy of the program of activities for the year is mailed to the State Advisor. This means that the Vice President should be knowledgeable of how to set up programs for the organization; local, region and state meetings. Programs should be planned well in advance of the meeting, posted on the bulletin board, and notices mailed if appropriate.

The Vice President is responsible for the arrangement of the meeting. The room should be arranged according to the plans for the meeting. The correct paraphernalia should be in the proper position.

Briefly, the duties and responsibilities of the Vice President are to:

1. Assist the President.

2. Take charge of planning and carrying out the activities as assigned by the President.

3. Preside in the absence of the President.

4. Plan and initiate ceremonies for new members with assistance from the advisor(s).

5. Serve as ex-officio member of all standing committees.

6. Collect all committee reports.

7. Be prepared to assume duties and responsibilities of the President.
SECRETARY

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
CHAPTER V
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE SECRETARY

A good Secretary contributes much toward the efficiency of an organization. Some organizations have one or more recording and corresponding secretaries while others have only one Secretary who performs all the duties belonging to that office. Whether your organization has one secretary or more than one, you may find the following list of suggested duties helpful.

1. Keep complete and accurate account of proceedings of the organization's business meetings and the meetings of officers. Minutes of meetings should include:
   a. Name of organization
   b. Kind of meeting
   c. Place, date and time
   d. Name of presiding officer
   e. Approximate number present
   f. All business proceedings
   g. Reports of committees, motions stated and action taken
   h. Signature of secretary only (do not sign "Respectfully Submitted")

2. Keep a membership list and record of attendance at meetings.

3. Serve as ex-officio member of the Membership Committee.

4. Call meeting to order in absence of the President and Vice President and entertain a motion for a temporary chairperson.

5. Prepare minutes of meetings and call the President's attention to any unfinished business.

6. Count the vote on either side when a vote is taken by the raising of hands or standing, unless tellers have been appointed.

7. Read correspondence directed to the group.

8. Answer all correspondence promptly and file the letter and the reply for future reference.
9. Collect and record reports of all committees and all written resolutions.

10. Advise the President on matters of business to be taken up or business procedures to be followed.

11. Include in the Secretary's Book the following:
   a. Minutes of meetings
   b. List of officers (may record local, region and state officers)
   c. List of committees
   d. Local and state Constitutions and Bylaws

12. The Region and State Secretaries must send a copy of all minutes to the State Advisor within three (3) weeks after meeting.

Suggestions For Recording Minutes

Several days before a regular meeting, the President and Secretary should check the program of activities.

At the time of the regular meeting, the Secretary should read and record any corrections to the minutes...and should read the order of business when called upon by the President. When a rising vote is taken, the Secretary should count and record the vote. It is the responsibility of the Secretary to record each motion, as made and seconded, and state whether it passed or was defeated. Any correspondence of interest should also be read in its proper place on the program by the Secretary.

Following the meeting, rewrite the minutes of the meeting in order. Following their approval at the next regular meeting, a copy should be entered into the Secretarial Records. A well-kept set of records will be neat and accurate. A good Secretary will keep records throughout the year. The Secretary should also check with the advisor for appropriate records to be sent to the HOSA Advisor.

Other duties of the Secretary are to fill out and issue membership cards, prepare reports and maybe certain contest entries.

The Secretary sometimes is called upon to serve as chairperson in the absence of other officers. This requires a knowledge of parliamentary procedure, the constitution and bylaws of both the local and state organization, and the local and state program of activities.
The following suggestions may be helpful to the Secretary in recording minutes:

1. Use a uniform heading for reports. Such headings should include: Identification of the meeting; date; place; time (usually); members present (use number if group is large, use individual if group is small).

2. Cooperate with the other officers at all times.

3. Keep complete, accurate records of all meetings.

4. Help plan all meeting programs.

5. Attend to official correspondence.

6. Have on hand at each meeting the necessary equipment and supplies to carry out the assignment.

7. Familiarize yourself with the local, regional and state bylaws, policies and procedures.

8. Keep the record of attendance at any officers' and organization meetings.

9. Keep in mind that the Secretary is the person who keeps the chapter together, preserves the official record, and in many respects is the executive officer of the chapter.
TREASURER

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
CHAPTER VI
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LOCAL AND REGIONAL TREASURER

The first duty or responsibility of the treasurer's is to learn from the advisor what the tasks of the treasurer are in the handling of the organization's money.

At the beginning of the year, the treasurer should have a new copy of the official treasurer's book, and the complete records of the outgoing treasurer. The records should be audited before they are transferred.

The treasurer should fill in the first few pages of the Treasurer's Book as soon as possible. Auditing and Budget Committees should be appointed early in the year. The membership role should be copied alphabetically, with the members' last names first. Chapter, state and national monetary assessments should be recorded in their respective columns.

The treasurer should make, immediately after taking office, a complete inventory of equipment, books and paraphernalia, with assistance from the outgoing treasurer and the advisor. This inventory should be recorded in the Treasurer's Book as soon as completed.

It is the treasurer's responsibility to keep a record of the income and expenses during the year. In order to do this, an adequate supply of deposit slips and an up-to-date Treasurer's Book should be maintained.

The treasurer is responsible, under the supervision of the advisor, for collecting the monetary assessment immediately after the school year begins. The treasurer should know what state and national dues are. It is the responsibility of the treasurer of the local chapter to work with the local advisor in sending to the state advisor the state and national monetary assessment before the deadline set forth in the state program of activities. Additional monies due the state and national organizations for students affiliating later in the year should be forwarded to the state advisor as they come in. The treasurer should be familiar with all types of membership in the HOSA organization, and the monetary assessment for each.

The treasurer, under the supervision of the advisor, should prepare the deposit slips and make deposits. The deposit information should be prepared in duplicate, in order that accurate, itemized records be kept on file.

The treasurer should not get behind with his/her record keeping. The Treasurer's Book should always be kept up to date. When cash is received, a receipt should be issued and a stub kept. When disbursements are made, a receipt for each disbursement should be kept. These should be filed as supporting evidence of expenses and receipts. The account should be balanced at regular intervals, and the cash on hand checked against the balance shown in accounts. At the end of the year, the treasurer's record should be audited by the auditing committee and approved by the school administration, or according to school policy.
The treasurer is the key person in preparing the budget. He/she should be assisted by the budget committee and the advisor. Copies of the budget should be placed in the Treasurer's Book as soon as the budget is approved. The budget should be carefully worked out by this group, and careful attention should be given to items requiring expenditure of funds during the year. Possible expenditures common to most organizations would include state and national monetary assessments, secretary and treasurer books, stationery and stamps, HOSA jewelry, projects and banquets.

The advisor and treasurer should always go over the budget before it is approved by those responsible for the program of activities. A double check may prevent overexpenditures.

VERY IMPORTANT – The Treasurer's Book, when completed, is to be filed as a part of the official records. It should never be torn up or disassembled to be used as a part of another year's Treasurer's Book. The Treasurer's Book contains records which should be available for use any time it is needed.

A good treasurer contributes much toward the efficiency of the organization, and should be accurate, prompt and resourceful. Some suggested duties are:

1. Receive and act as custodian of funds.
2. Collect monetary assessments, send in state and national monetary assessments by November 1, accompanied by a list of members (local chapters).
3. Keep financial records (state treasurer work closely with state advisor).
4. Pay out funds as authorized.
5. Encourage systematic savings.
6. Keep books available for any active chapter members to view.
7. Be responsible for any shortage of funds.
8. Make a report to the members from time to time on the financial status of the organization.

Suggestions for Keeping Financial Records

The records herein are samples only. It is not expected that the treasurer will, necessarily, follow them in detail. It is hoped that the samples illustrate usable forms for keeping financial records.

The budget should be formulated in accordance with the needs as revealed in the program of work and the income which seems possible. All the activities which will cost money should be listed and the estimated amount given under "Expenditures". Taking a look at last year's treasurer's report will be helpful. After it is known how much money will be needed to carry out the program of work, the next step will be planning to secure the amount of money needed. Some sources of income may be contributions or monetary assessments from members, money-making projects and, in some instances, contributions from civic organizations.

A sample budget is shown. Column on the extreme right is a record of the actual income and expenditures during the year.

As each member pays local, state, and national monetary assessment, the name and the amount paid should be entered on the "Record of Membership Paid".

A sample record for keeping the income is given. As the treasurer receives funds from other sources, record the date received, and the amount under the appropriate columns.

If you have a computer available, you may want to use either a spread sheet or a data base or both to keep track of your records.

Requirements of the Treasurer

1. All receipts and disbursements must go through a reconciling account, such as commercial bank or school office.

2. A yearly financial report must be prepared stating main itemization of receipts and disbursements and balancing with the reconciling account whether it be a commercial bank or school office signed by a local chapter advisor. A copy of this report along with other records will then be turned over to the new treasurer.

3. A bound disbursement book (such as a receipt book) shall be kept of all disbursements with the signature of person receiving money from the treasurer. Attach invoices or purchase information to copy of receipt and file.

4. Issue receipts for all monies received by the Treasurer.

5. Retain a copy of all receipts in the book to verify total cash deposits and cash receipts.

6. All deposit slips made with either school banks or commercial banks shall be kept to reconcile with cash, journal, and receipt book copies.

7. The Regional Treasurer must send a Treasurer's Financial Report to the State Advisor at the end of the year.
Recommendations for the Treasurer

1. Keep two main journals – cash receipts and cash disbursements.

2. Where money is not quickly obtainable, a separate cash account may be set up for Petty Cash with a maximum of $50 (depending on the school policy). Petty cash may be reimbursed as needed from the main fund through the cash disbursements journal.

HISTORIAN

CHAPTER VII
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF HISTORIAN

The HOSA organization cannot hope to have a successful year without interested hard-working officers.

The Historian/Reporter should meet at least the following minimum qualifications:

1. Be interested in HOSA.
2. Be able to write a legible hand.
3. Be able to write or be willing to learn to write a news item or a news story on chapter activities.

Immediately after being elected to office, the Historian should become familiar with the program of activities. The reporter should probably serve as chairperson of the Information Committee, or be ex-officio chairperson in a large organization. This will make him/her responsible for getting it carried out.

An active Historian/Reporter will not miss an opportunity to get news of the chapter(s)/region(s) before the public. Many possibilities are open to utilize. School papers, county papers, local and state newsletters are always wanting news items.

The best HOSA news is local news. This sort of news is happening continuously when chapters have underway a sound, challenging program of activities. Local people are interested in local news. You, as Historian/Reporter, are interested in the activities of your chapter and region. The editor of your local paper is interested in the activities of HOSA. The editor of your local paper is interested in the activities of the people who live in the patronage area of paper, which includes members of your chapter. For this reason, you should get well acquainted. Find out what the editor wants and how the news should be prepared. Some editors want facts on a story, others want the story written.

Pictures of individuals or groups of HOSA members who are selected for Region, Sub-Region (District), State or National honors may be used occasionally. Some editors will make the pictures and cuts, others will expect the chapter to furnish them. Remember to find out what your editor wants, then get the information to him/her. After all, he/she is experienced in newspaper work.

A local paper in the State may carry weekly HOSA news items if asked. Get a group of chapters together in your city and try the same thing.

Good reporters are able to recognize news when it occurs. If the local chapter participates in local, state and national HOSA activities, the items listed below might suggest news stories for your.
Region & Sub-Region Contests  Chapter field trips
State Contests  Members receiving honors
National Leadership Conference  Civic Club Programs
State Leadership Conference  Community Service Activities
Sub-Regional Leadership Conference  Region Leadership Conference

Daily papers usually will have a reporter who will write the story if given the facts. School papers and county papers will usually want the stories written by the reporter. These stories should be carefully written and should be checked by the advisor for accuracy and neatness. Stories should always be typed or written in ink. They should be double-spaced. In most cases, there should be an advance story and a follow-up story.

A column in the local paper, or in the school paper should be headed by the HOSA emblem. The HOSA Advisor should have the emblem.

Time does not permit to offer a course in news writing. However, here are a few suggestions which, if followed, should prove helpful:

Every complete news story can be divided into six parts. The following statement may be remembered about the six parts of a complete news story:

"Keep SIX honest members working with the Organization. They can teach everyone what is necessary to know. Their names are WHAT? and WHY? and WHEN? and HOW? and WHERE? and WHO?"

These six questions are all that you need to answer when writing a news story or getting together the facts to be given to the newspaper editor or reporter who will write the story.

The Lead of a News Story - The lead of a news story is the most important part of the story. It is usually one or two paragraphs long. Put into the lead the fact or facts that are the most important.

News can be defined as an event or happening in which a number of persons are interested, and the more people who are interested, the better the story, as far as the newspaper editor is concerned. News is judged as to:

1. Relative importance and value of what is being said and done.
2. Relative importance of person saying or doing something.
3. The "time-factor" of the story.

4. Unusualness.

5. Human interest appeal, or appeal to emotions.

In writing the news story:

1. Use short sentences. Two short ones are better than one long one.

2. Use short paragraphs.

3. Don't use a long word if a short one can be used.

4. Avoid the use of technical words whenever possible.

5. Be sure the facts are accurate, names spelled correctly.

6. State only facts, leave out personal opinion.

7. Omit slang.

Give story to the editor promptly. Don't argue with the editor. Don't fail to have a follow-up story.

It is not always necessary for the Historian/Reporter to write all the news. However, it is his/her responsibility to either write it or get it written.

Chapter Historian/Reporters have other responsibilities. They may have the responsibility of keeping the scrapbook. If this is true, they should collect all news items published during the year, that illustrate the activities. They should be on the alert and secure copies of the stories or news items as soon as they are published. These should be filed until such time they decide to fill in the scrapbook. Filed along with these clippings should be snapshots, important letters, fair and show catalogues, newsletters and other evidence of accomplishments.

RADIO AND TV PROGRAMS

Most local chapters should give at least one Radio or TV program during the year. The Historian/Reporter, as Chairperson of the Information Committee, should work with his/her advisor and members of his/her committee in preparing the program material.

Most programs should follow the question and answer pattern—rather than using a written script. After air time has been secured from the program manager, the person who serves as master of ceremonies should be determined. This may be a station announcer, advisor, or another member of HOSA.
The next step is to decide the topic or activity to be discussed or presented on the show. This may deal with single chapter activities such as participation in the Sub-Region (District), Region, State, or National activities, or a number of chapter activities.

Following the selection of the program subject, a series of good questions should be worked out, which will, when discussed, get the story over to the public. Avoid questions that can be answered Yes or No.

Most stations like to make voice checks of program members and to rehearse at least a portion of the program. Make your plans to arrive at the station at least 15 to 20 minutes in advance of the time of your program.

Good programs are not too difficult to put on, but should always be planned carefully. Be sure to let the people in your community know when the program will be broadcast. This is only one way to let the public become aware of what HOSA is all about.
CHAPTER VIII
DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARLIAMENTARIAN

Assist members in understanding the fundamental purposes of parliamentary procedure: be prepared to advise the presiding officer and other members on points of parliamentary procedure; have reference material pertaining to parliamentary procedure available for each meeting; watch for significant irregularities in parliamentary procedure and call them to the attention of the Chair; and, be prepared to explain any irregularity and its effect on the rights of all chapter members.

Parliamentary procedure is the term used to describe the system of rules by which organizations handle business and set policy. The procedures are designed to take care of business quickly and in a fair and orderly manner. Under the rules, everyone has an equal chance to voice an opinion on any business brought before the house and to bring any matter before the organization which he/she wishes the group to consider.

In order to do the job well, both officers and members should know the rules for proper procedure, but it is imperative that the officer know the proper methods.

Any group can establish rules for itself. An example of this is the United State Senate and House of Representative, who at the beginning of each session adopt the rules which will be in effect for the entire session. The importance of this can be seen in the news dispatches which often report on the parliamentary maneuver which has been used to defeat or advance a bill pending in the Congress. Most groups, however, do not draw up their own rules but adopt Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

GENERAL RULES

1. A member must be recognized by the presiding officer before he/she may speak.

2. A member should rise to be recognized and remain standing while speaking. This may be modified if the group is small enough to be seated around a table.

3. All remarks made from the floor should be addressed to the presiding officer instead of another member. Do not use a previous speaker's name, but refer to the person by title of "the previous speaker".

4. Care should be taken not to interrupt a member who has the floor. (Floor is used to mean having been recognized and given the right to speak.)

5. All discussion should be carried on before the entire assembly and never in small groups.

6. Members remain seated until the presiding officer announces the adjournment of a meeting.
The Parliamentarian should become familiar with how the following problems are governed by Robert’s Rules of Order:

1. A parliamentary inquiry
2. A motion to table a motion
3. A motion to suspend the rules
4. A motion to take a motion from the table
5. To postpone action until another time
6. To postpone action until an uncertain time
7. To rise to a point of order
8. A motion to amend
9. To appeal a decision
10. To withdraw a motion
11. To reconsider an action
12. To rescind an action
13. To make nominations
14. How the President may relinquish the Chair
15. How new business is proposed
16. How voting is done
17. How business is referred to committees

The Parliamentarian should know his/her duties and functions in handling:

1. Points of order brought up by members
2. Questions asked of the presiding officer
3. Errors in procedure

This POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL is the result of considerable effort by HOSA, Inc., Florida HOSA, and HOSA leaders to synthesize the manner in which the Health Occupations Students of America conducts the business of its association. Since this is a working document, it is reasonable to expect that the document will be constantly evolving as revisions are needed.

This document is based upon the HOSA, Inc., Florida HOSA, and HOSA Bylaws. The Bylaw Committee will maintain the Bylaws and communicate any changes. The POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL is maintained by the Florida State Advisor. The form provided in Appendix A is used to submit revisions in the current policy and procedures. The State Advisor will review all recommendations and submit a report to the Florida HOSA Board of Directors at each annual meeting.

It is believed the POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL provides Florida HOSA and HOSA leaders with a better understanding of how our state organization transacts the business of the association. Any suggestions to improve Florida HOSA policies and procedures should be directed to the State Advisor.

Let me express my appreciation to all those persons who contributed to the completion of this document.

POLICY STATEMENT REGARDING THE DIVISION OF REGIONS

WHEN IT IS NECESSARY FOR A REGION TO SUBDIVIDE INTO DISTRICTS DUE TO MEMBERSHIP NUMBER, GEOGRAPHICAL PROBLEMS, ETC., THE REGION WILL SEPARATE INTO DISTRICTS WHICH SHALL BE NAMED ACCORDING TO THE GREEK ALPHABET IN DESCENDING ORDER FROM NORTH TO SOUTH. THE DISTRICTS WILL BE PROPOSED BY THE REGIONAL OFFICERS AND ADVISORS WITH NO COUNTY TO BE DIVIDED INTO MORE THAN ONE DISTRICT. THE FORMATION OF DISTRICTS MUST BE APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

THE REGION WILL MAINTAIN THE REGIONAL OFFICERS AND REGIONAL ADVISOR AS STATED IN THE BY-LAWS. THE REGIONAL OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED AT A DISTRICT MEETING THAT IS TO BE HELD NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 15. ALL MEMBERS OF THAT REGION ARE ELIGIBLE TO ATTEND AND VOTE.

ANY MEMBER OF A REGION CAN RUN FOR A REGIONAL OFFICE. HOWEVER, NO CHAPTER SHALL HAVE MORE THAN ONE CANDIDATE FOR THE SAME REGIONAL OFFICE. NAMES OF THE CANDIDATES WILL BE SENT TO THE REGIONAL ADVISOR AT LEAST TEN DAYS BEFORE THE FALL MEETING.
TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT POLICIES

2. Board Members, Corporate Members and Management Staff will be expected to consider costs when arranging travel and lodging.

4. Board Members, Corporate Members and Management Staff will retain all receipts and submit them with the completed HOSA expense form to the State Office.

5. Reimbursement will be made only to Board Members with a completed expense form and attached receipts.
It was determined by the Board of Directors of Florida HOSA that the trip to the National HOSA Leadership Conference should be a reward for services rendered by the retiring State Officers. The past year's State Officers have proven their leadership ability and thus a reward is appropriate. Observing and participating in a National Conference can be a most memorable experience.

It was the consensus that these officers should not go to National HOSA without having a role at the National Conference.

Funding for travel for these officers should come from school support. However, in the event that the officers are post secondary and no longer in school, they should be assisted to attend the National HOSA Conference from HOSA funds, providing they are dues paying members of both Florida and National HOSA and funding monies are available.
STATE RULES AND REGULATIONS

based on

NATIONAL HOSA COMPETITIVE EVENT PROGRAM

1. Participants must be a member of State and National HOSA (registered on an official chapter assessment roster with assessment paid prior to April 1, membership deadline). The State and National HOSA Office shall verify competitive event participants as State and National HOSA members to the Competitive Events Committee. Eligibility requirements as specified in the individual Competitive Events Guidelines must be adhered to.

2. The official definition for secondary, postsecondary, and collegiate members of HOSA for the purposes of Competitive Events registration and participation is:

   Secondary - A secondary student is one who a) is enrolled in a state-approved health occupations education program b) has not received a high-school diploma (or its equivalent) prior to the state's annual conference and c) has been within the continuous, sequential educational system for two or more years prior to the current year's State HOSA Conference.

   Postsecondary - A Postsecondary student is one who is enrolled in a state-approved postsecondary program leading to less than a baccalaureate degree, has received a high-school diploma (or its equivalent).

   Collegiate - A Collegiate student is one who is pursuing a baccalaureate or higher degree in a Health Occupations program. At this time there are no events for this category.

3. Competitive Events Participants shall be registered by the deadline date. Participants may be dropped or another eligible student may be substituted up to Competitive Events registration held during conference registration. The participant's HOSA Advisor (or his or her designee) must accompany the student to Competitive Events Registration, complete and sign a Substitution Form and verify with Florida HOSA the student's membership in HOSA. Students must have competed in that event at the Regional level.

4. When HOSA's affiliated state associations conduct all aspects of the events which are included in the National Competitive Events Program at the State level, these events shall be conducted according to the approved National Competitive Events Guidelines (as revised December, 1983, September, 1984, January, 1985, and October, 1988). It is recommended that state associations plan and conduct the Annual State Conference in sufficient time to allow them to meet the National Conference registration deadline. (Note: The National HOSA Conference usually is held the last Wednesday through Saturday of June each year.)

5. Participants in National Competitive Events must have competed in the same Competitive Event at the state level for which they are entered at the national level, in the school year immediately preceding the National HOSA Conference. For Team events, at least half (50 percent) of the members of a team registered must be students who were members of the winning team at the state level. Other qualified student members may be substituted in the remaining team positions. The same guidelines apply to the State HOSA Conference.
6. Registered participants must attend the scheduled orientation session at the Conference for the event(s) in which they are competing, or provide acceptable adequate documentation of the reason for their absence and provide a substitute (Advisor, student) qualified to interpret to the competitor the directions/information shared at this meeting. Failure to do so may result in the student's disqualification from the event. Acceptable documentation of the excuse shall include: letter/memo signed by competitor and Chapter Advisor, and school administrator and parent/guardian (if minor) and physician (if applicable). Acceptable excuses shall include: illness verified by physician; employment commitment verified by employer; school, state, or national examination schedule verified by administrator; essential family or personal commitment verified by parent/guardian, or other family member; entry in more than one HOSA competitive event; selected others with appropriateness to be determined by the Competitive Events Committee.

7. Participants must report to the location of their Competitive Event at the designated time and place. The participant's failure to report to the competition area within 5 minutes of the appointed time may result in his/her disqualification. It is the participant's responsibility to report as scheduled to avoid disqualification. For possible special circumstances, such as overlapping events due to close scheduling in different categories, prior arrangements must be made by the Chapter Advisor through HOSA Management.

8. The Competitive Events Committee will determine whether (and how many) sections will be scheduled for each Competitive Event at the HOSA Conference according to the number of registered participants. See Multiple/Single Section Assignments Schedule. The Competitive Events Committee also will determine which procedures are to be performed for Health Occupations skill events, based upon criteria which include space arrangements and condition of available sites; availability of equipment; and similar factors pertaining to operation of these events in a particular year.

9. Separate sections of each event shall be conducted for secondary and postsecondary unless stated otherwise. The competencies and procedures will be the same for both secondary and postsecondary levels. Students may enter only one event in each of the four Competitive Event categories (Health Occupations Related Category, Health Occupations Skills Category, Individual Leadership Category and Team Leadership Category).

10. A minimum of three (3) contestants or teams must be properly registered by the deadline date in order for Florida HOSA to conduct a particular Competitive Event at the State Conference. If this minimum number of contestants has not registered by the deadline date, those who have registered will be notified if the event is cancelled.

11. Participants must adhere to the Dress Code as specified in the Individual Competitive Event Guidelines for the event in which they are competing. Penalties or disqualification will be assessed according to the individual guidelines. Participants may only wear their contestant number — other name, school or state badges or ID's must be removed or completely covered during competition, with the exception of Community Awareness Project and Job Seeking Skills Competitive Events. Specific dress code requirements are designated in the individual guidelines for Extemporaneous Health Display and Standard First Aid/CPR, in Category I, and all skills events in Category II. For all other regular competitive events, competitors must be attired in either official HOSA uniform (See Handbook, Section A), or in proper business attire. Proper business attire is interpreted to mean business suit (skirt and blouse or simple daytime dress for females, dress slacks, shirt and tie for males).

APPENDIX E Florida HOSA Policies and Procedures Manual 25
12. Participants may be penalized or disqualified if they do not bring the required material/equipment as specified in the Individual Competitive Event Guidelines for the event in which they are competing. The Chairman of the event and/or the Category Lieutenant will make the final decision on whether the student will be assessed penalty points, disqualified from one competency of the event or the entire event.

13. Except for team events, participants must work independently, without assistance from judges, teachers, fellow students or observers during the Competition. Participants may be disqualified for receiving assistance.

14. Students participating in Competitive Events will be judged according to the rating sheet and Individual guidelines for the event in which they are competing as well as these General Rules and Regulations. The decision of the Judges shall be final. Judges Rating Sheets should be used as a part of a learning process for the student. Participants' rating sheets will be returned to their Advisor, with the exception of any test instruments which include questions or other test items which must be kept "secure."

15. For the Standard First Aid/CPR event in Category I, and all Health Occupations Skill events in Category II, if a student jeopardizes the patient's or his/her own safety or fails to perform a critical technique (overriding criterion) and does not take immediate action to rectify the error, the total points for the procedure or specific subpart(s) of the procedure will be deducted. Critical Techniques (overriding criteria) involving a procedure, subpart of a procedure or specific step in a procedure will be identified with an asterisk.

16. A process is established to provide opportunity for an individual competitive event participant to submit constructive suggestions and/or grievances to the Competitive Events Committee at the Conference via completion of "Competitive Event Inquiry Form." This completed form must be signed by the student and/or local Advisor and turned in to Conference Headquarters within two (2) hours after the competitive event concludes. (see Appendix B)

17. The Competitive Events Inquiry Committee will consist of the Competitive Events Chairman and the Lieutenants from each of the four (4) Competitive Events categories and one (1) State Officer.

18. Only the HOSA Competitive Events Committee and/or the HOSA Board of Directors have the responsibility and authority to change Competitive Events Guidelines (in a responsible and timely manner). A State Association may submit suggestions and guidelines for new competitive events to be added to the National Competitive Events program to the National Competitive Events Committee and the Board of Directors at least thirty (30) days prior to the Annual National HOSA Conference. After review and if approved by the Committee and the Board, the event will be demonstrated and evaluated at the next year's Conference. If evaluation is positive, it will be piloted and evaluated at the next successive year's conference. If evaluation continues to be positive, following review, revision as appropriate and approval by the Committee and the Board of Directors, the event will become an official event of the National Competitive Events Program for the following school year. Then the guidelines for the new event will be distributed to each affiliated state.

19. The "Approved Procedure for Determining Finalists in HOSA Competitive Events Requiring Multiple Sections Procedure" will be used to determine finalists where multiple sections are required, as included in the National HOSA Handbook Appendices. See Multiple/Single Section Assignments Schedule, Appendix E.
20. Observer Rules - Observers are permitted only when designated by the National Competitive Events Committee; they shall not talk or be disruptive to the judges, participants or other observers and must obey the following rules:

   c. Judges may disqualify competitive event participants if they accept assistance from observers.

   d. When roped off or marked areas are designated for observers, NO observers, including HOSA Advisors, shall be outside the designated area. The number of observers permitted in any one area will be monitored.

   e. Cameras with flash bulbs, recording devices or writing materials will not be permitted in any competitive event area without written permission by the National Competitive Events Committee Chairman.

   f. Additional observer rules may be posted or announced at specific competitive event locations to further avoid unnecessary distractions (i.e., entering or leaving during a speech or presentation).

   g. The following events will be open to observers, assuming adequate contestant holding areas and observer seating space are available:

      1) Community Awareness (Oral Presentations Only)

      2) Dental Spelling

      3) Extemporaneous Speaking

      4) HOSA Bowl

      5) Medical Spelling

      6) Parliamentary Procedure

      7) Prepared Speaking

      8) Standard First Aid/CPR

h. Other events may be open to observers depending on the facilities and at the discretion of the Events Chairman and the Competitive Events Committee.

21. Numbers for contestants, teams and/or order of competition in each event where such is necessary will be pre-assigned on a random selection basis (computer may be used).

22. Any advisor or chapter member found deviating from the rules during competitive events (such as false entries, cheating or other unethical behavior) should receive suspension from competition or other such appropriate reprimand, to be determined by the members of the Rules and Arbitration Committee. The penalty will be decided within 24 hours and the notification will be given in written form to the person(s) involved with copies to the appropriate principal or vocational director and, if indicated, the superintendent of the school district.
NATIONAL HOSA METHOD FOR DETERMINING FINALISTS IN COMPETITIVE EVENTS REQUIRING MULTIPLE SECTIONS

Due to the technical nature of many of our Competitive Events, necessity has dictated that a method be derived to expedite the running of the events. After examining alternatives, National HOSA piloted a mathematical method to determine finalists at the 1982 Convention.

The following is the rationale for this technique and an explanation of its use:

1. FAIRNESS TO THE COMPETITOR—When the previous method of determining finalists was used, there was no guarantee the top 10 students selected would be the best. Whenever multiple sections of an event were run, only the top from each section were allowed to compete in the finals. Since there is no seeding of competitors in HOSA, it is possible that the best 10 competitors could be entered in the same section. Hence, they would be eliminated from becoming finalists. The new method eliminates the need for a final run-off competition and, therefore, allows for the possibility of the best competitors being recognized.

2. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN JUDGES AMONG SECTIONS—Regardless of the specificity of the rating instrument, there always will be differences when different teams judge different sections. A means of compensating for these differences is necessary. The mathematical method will accomplish this.

3. TIME—To run finals in any event requires a great deal of additional time and personnel. Mathematically calculating the finalists eliminates the need for a final run-off competition.

4. ELEMENT OF SURPRISE MAINTAINED—Whenever a final run-off competition is announced, the element of surprise is greatly reduced. For those who did not make the finals, there is no sense of anticipation for the awards ceremony. The new method maintains this element of surprise until finalists are announced at the awards ceremony.

5. PILOTING—This mathematical method was successfully piloted for two years in several HOSA affiliated states and is being used by some other national student organizations.

NATIONAL HOSA STEPS FOR DETERMINING FINALISTS IN COMPETITIVE EVENTS REQUIRING MULTIPLE SECTIONS

The process for implementing the National HOSA Mathematical Method for Multiple Section Finalists identification is explained below by first identifying symbols for scores and sections; second, listing the steps to be taken, and third, providing an example using hypothetical scores.

<tr>

<td>Final Competitor Score</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

STEPS IN IMPLEMENTING THE MATHEMATICAL METHOD

1. Determine an Individual Competitor Average Score (ICAS) for each competitor in each Section.
   - Add all scores (one per judge) for each competitor; divide by number of judges; result equal the ICAS per competitor.

2. Determine the Average of Judges' Scores (AJS) for each Section.
   - Add all Individual Competitor Average Scores (ICAS) separately by section; divide total by number of competitors in a particular section; result equals the AJS for each Section.

3. Determine the Control Section (CS).
   - Compare the Average of Judges' Scores (AJS) for all sections. The section with the highest AJS (or highest AJS, if three or more sections used) becomes the Control Section.

4. Determine the Judges' Differential in Scoring (JDS) between Sections.
   - Subtract the lower Average Judges' Score (AJS) from the higher AJS; the difference equals the Judges Differential in Scoring, when two (2) sections are used; the results equal the JDS.
   - When three (3) or more sections are used, an average of the AJS totals for all sections lower than that of the Control Section (CS) must be obtained by adding these AJS totals and dividing by the number of sections with lower AJS totals.

5. Determine an Adjusted Competitor Individual Average Score (ACLAS) for each Competitor in each Section except those in the Control Section (CS).
   - Add the amount of the Judges Differential in Scoring (JDS) to each Individual Competitor Average Score (ICAS), except those in the Control Section (CS).

APPENDIX E
Florida Policies and Procedures Manual 30
6. Identify the Final Competitor Score (OFCS) for each Competitor.
   For the Control Section (CS), the original Individual Competitor Average Score (ICAS) becomes the Final Competitor Score (FCS) for each competitor.

   For all other sections, the Adjusted Individual Competitor Average Score (AICAS) becomes the Final Competitor Score (FCS) for each competitor.

7. Determine the Rank Order of each Final Competitor Score (FCS).
   Assign a rank number to each Final Competitor Score (FCS).

8. Identify as finalists the top 10 ranked Final Competitor Scores (FCS).

EXAMPLE OF USE OF MATHEMATICAL METHOD:

Hypothetical Event: (Individual) - Prepared Speech or (Team) - Parliamentary Procedure

Number of Competitors/Teams: 20 (10 per section)

Number of Sections: 2

(To ensure accuracy of results, each section should include a minimum of ten competitors or ten teams)

Number of Judges: 6 (3 per section)
COMPETITIVE EVENTS INQUIRY PROCEDURE

Request for Review of Rule Infraction

At the conclusion of a competitive event, any student or their advisor that feels a major rule of infraction has occurred should:

1. Discuss the infraction with the competitive events chairperson and/or event lieutenant.

2. If this private discussion does not resolve the question, the student should immediately fill out the official Competitive Event Inquiry Form, sign it, have it signed by the State Advisor, and immediately submit it to the Conference Headquarters.

   THIS FORM MUST BE FILLED OUT AND TURNED IN NO LATER THAN TWO HOURS AFTER THE CONCLUSION OF THE COMPETITIVE EVENT.

3. The competitive event inquiry will be investigated by the competitive events inquiry committee. If requested by the committee, the student and advisor should be available to confer with the inquiry committee during a called meeting.

4. The student and all other competitors in the event should be available for the competitive event to be rerun, if the committee determines the rule infraction was sufficient to make the original judging invalid. The decision of the committee is final.

Constructive Suggestion

The competitive events committee and Board for National HOSA will appreciate your submitting constructive suggestions for improvement of the event(s) in which you competed. Any item submitted to the competitive events committee as constructive suggestion(s) will be reviewed by the competitive events committee immediately following the annual conference.

EVENT PREPARATION

Members interested in the Competitive Events Program should follow ten steps in preparing for competition.

Members should:

1. Talk with the HOSA Chapter Advisor and let him or her know their interest in entering a competitive event at Regional and/or State Conferences.

2. Review the National Competitive Events Program and select the event or events that are consistent with their career objective.

3. Secure a NATIONAL HOSA HANDBOOK; SECTION B and specifically concentrate on the "general rules and regulations" in preparing for the event.

4. Study the detailed guidelines and the judges rating sheet(s) to know the exact criteria by which event participants are evaluated.

5. Practice, practice, practice and practice the event at the local chapter level before competing at a Regional or State Conference.

6. Talk with other members who participated in competition previously and gain as much as possible from their experiences.

7. Ask the HOSA Chapter Advisor to conduct event simulations in the classroom to allow all members to experience competitive pressure and their reaction.

8. Know all rules and procedures for the event in which they are entering to avoid disqualification or point deductions.

9. Enter Regional and/or State competition and carefully review all instructions to event participants. Don’t be late to event orientation meetings or competition.

10. Enjoy the competition because the real benefit of competition was realized in the preparation. Members fortunate to be recognized as an event winner should be proud of their accomplishments; however, the dividends of preparation are available to all participants.

BASIC EVENT REGULATIONS

A few regulations and procedures that should be noted by all competitors include:

Competitive event participants:

1. Must be active members of HOSA.

2. Must have competed in the same event at the Regional level for which they are entered at the State level.

3. Must attend the scheduled orientation sessions at the State Conference for the event in which they are competing.

4. Must not be late in arriving at the event area at the risk of disqualification.

5. Must adhere to the dress code as specified in the event guidelines.

6. May be penalized or disqualified for failure to bring required equipment or materials as specified in the event guidelines.

APPENDIX E

Florida HOSA Policies and Procedures Manual 34
7. Must work independently, except in team events, or be disqualified for receiving assistance from judges, teachers, fellow students or observers during competition.

Every effort is expended to secure judges that are competent in the event for which they are assigned. For example, in Standard First Aid/CPR, judges must hold a current Instructor card for 1) American Red Cross First Aid/CPR, or 2) American Heart Association/CPR.

By recognizing the personal and career benefits of the State Competitive Events Program, members know the time they invest in preparing for and participating demonstrates to other chapters the preparation of its members. Chapter pride is built when members represent their institution and participate in competition. The pride grows when members receive recognition as an event winner at the Regional and State Conference. Chapter pride continues when one or more members attend the HOSA Conference representing both the Chapter and Regional Association. The pride grows stronger, for chapters and members, when the event winners are announced and brought to the stage. Members will almost burst with personal satisfaction and pride in knowing that their investment was reaping dividends for not only themselves but for their chapter as well. All HOSA members are impressed with excellence in performance, therefore, you will not be surprised when you hear the applause of all delegates expressing their appreciation for preparing for state competition.

Those who are not called to the stage for special recognition must also be proud of their accomplishments. Although the State Competitive Events Program is designed to award medals to a select few event participants, the real winners are those who are able to leave the State Conference with new experiences, improved skills, greater knowledge, enhanced confidence and the determination to not allow the HOSA experience to die when the conference is concluded or at graduation. The ultimate goal is not to be a winner at a Regional or State Conference. The realistic goal for all HOSA members is to secure entry level employment or an advancement within the health care field. The real value of the Competitive Events Program is when members are able to perform more effectively as a health care professional.

By taking advantage of the many opportunities available for involvement and leadership roles, HOSA members will be more confident than those students not actively involved in chapter activities. The Health Occupation Education classroom builds health care skills; HOSA builds a more confident health care professional able to achieve success in a rapidly changing and competitive industry.

IN SUMMARY

All members should take advantage of the HOSA Competitive Events Program. This publication is designed to guide the entire chapter as well as individual members for the opportunities available in event competition at Regional, State and/or National Conferences. Fortunately, the benefits of participation in competitive events does not cease at the conclusion of the conference. The National HOSA Competitive Events Program will have a lasting impact upon the professionalism of HOSA members as they pursue rewarding and challenging careers in the dynamic and competitive health care industry.

OFFICIAL HOSA UNIFORM POLICY

The HOSA uniform will be worn for all official functions, such as: Competitive Events when uniform is specified, official business and Executive Council meetings, when representing HOSA in various public relations activities, and other related activities. The official uniform policy is:

1. Blazers for Members - Male and Female. A tailored navy blue blazer with emblem affixed over the heart. In 1983, the Board of Directors for HOSA, Inc., designated the Balfour/HOSA Supply Service as the official supplier for this blazer.

2. Shirt/blouse for female members. A white tailored shirt or blouse. This is interpreted to mean: an open-neck with a pointed collar (a closed-neck Peter Pan collar, a man-tailored closed neck collar or jewel necklines with lace, ruffle or full-edged collars are not acceptable). It is essential that when a group of HOSA members appear together at a national, state, and/or district function or related meeting, a uniform appearance be maintained. Therefore, the Florida Executive Council Officers, elected state officers, and the entire State Association, in a particular year, or as a general policy, should select and maintain one neck style.

4. Accent for female members. The maroon HOSA scarf no longer is a required part of the official uniform for females. However, use of a maroon neck accent is optional. As for the shirt/blouse style, in #2 above, it is essential that a uniform appearance be maintained. This is interpreted to mean that in any particular year, official groups of HOSA members may choose to use no neck accent, or may select one style from several options, including tie, ribbon tie or other tailored maroon neck accent.

5. Accent for male members. A solid navy or maroon man-tailored long tie.

6. The official HOSA member or advisor pin is centered on the left lapel of the jacket.

7. Matching navy or white slacks for males, and slacks or skirts for females. (Jeans and denim skirts are not considered appropriate.)

8. Footwear appropriate to the overall appearance of the uniform in navy, black, or white, should be consistent among the particular group. (Tennis and track sneakers/shoes are not considered appropriate.)
