This publication presents the New Jersey State plan for the education of children of homeless families under the guidelines of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act of 1987. An introduction reviews current demographics of the homeless population, particularly children and youth, and highlights planned state responses. A second section covers methods and criteria for needs assessment through a study of the number, location, and educational needs of homeless children and youth. A third section presents 12 objectives in the state's plan for responding to homeless children's educational barriers. The next section outlines the state's plan of operation, including management, service delivery methods, and evaluation. A final section lists the findings of public testimony on the plan. Included are extensive appendices containing the text of the McKinney Act, a revision of state residency requirements, statewide regulations for provisions of the education of homeless children and youth, county liaisons, a Department of Human Services/Department of Education agreement, a parents pamphlet, information on a New Jersey advisory council, the survey instrument used, and a commissioner's memorandum to chief school administrators. 1. INTRODUCTION

The Changing Face of Homelessness

Most people in the United States today are aware that homelessness is one of our nation's most critical problems. They are less aware, however, that the nature of this problem has changed markedly over the past decade. What was for many years a population consisting largely of white, male, unemployed single adults now includes many families, unaccompanied youths and men and women forced into separation from their families in order to receive temporary shelter. This population also includes many elderly, disabled, and ethnic and racial minorities. An increasing number of homeless are fully or partially employed.

Homeless Children and Youth

Single male adults, while still the most visible of the homeless population, represent only about five percent of the total. Sixty percent of the homeless are families with children, and most of these children are of elementary school age.

Annual estimates of the number of homeless children in America range from 310,000 to 1.6 million. The U.S. Department of Education estimated that in 1989, 273,000 school-age children were homeless at some time during the year and that 28 percent of these children did not attend school during the time they were homeless.

Whether from lack of access or restriction of access, the failure of a child to attend school is one of many direct consequences of the parents' homelessness. Those children and youth who do succeed in enrolling in school face other obstacles, manifested in high dropout rates, erratic attendance, and poor academic performance.

The plight of New Jersey's homeless mirrors the nation's. Among the most heavily populated of all states, New Jersey ranks fifth in the number of homeless children and youth. Most of New Jersey's homeless children and youth are housed in welfare hotels, congregate shelters and transitional housing for families. Homeless children and youth are also living in:

- institutions that provide a temporary residence for individuals intended to be institutionalized; or
- a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings, such as cars.

Additionally, New Jersey children and youth are considered homeless if they:

- live with a parent in a domestic violence shelter;
- live in a shelter after running away from home;
- live in a home for adolescent mothers;
- live in a hospital because they are sick or abandoned and would otherwise be released if they had permanent residences;

- live with relatives or friends out of necessity; or
- live with their migrant families who lack adequate housing.

State and local agencies have taken significant measures to ensure that homeless children enroll in school, attend school regularly, receive the range of services they require and succeed in school. These strides were made possible by the passage in 1987 of the federal Stewart B. McKinney Act and the amendments to the act in 1990. Following is a description of the major features of this landmark piece of legislation.

The Stewart B. McKinney Act

The original legislation provided states with the direction and resources to assure that each child of a homeless individual and each homeless youth have the same access to a free and appropriate public education that would be provided for any other state resident, consistent with state laws governing school attendance. States with compulsory attendance laws that include residency requirements must review and "take steps to revise" such laws to ensure educational access for homeless children and youth.

Grants awarded to state educational agencies under the act were used to:
1) review and revise residency laws; 2) establish a state-level office to coordinate the education for homeless children and youth; 3) develop and carry out a state plan which ensures access to education for homeless children and youth; and 4) gather data on the number, location and educational needs of these children.

The enactment of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1990 substantially changed the original law. The McKinney Act of 1990 requires state departments of education to look beyond residency issues and focus on the educational barriers that may exist for homeless children and youth. The law specifies that "homelessness alone should not be sufficient reason to separate students from the mainstream school environment." Responsibilities for educating homeless children and youth now include:

- reviewing and undertaking steps to eliminate laws, regulations, practices or policies that act as barriers;
- providing activities for and services to homeless children and youth to enable them to enroll in, attend and achieve success in school;
- gathering data on the number, location and educational needs of homeless children every two years;
- developing, revising and carrying out state plan activities;
• facilitating coordination among various agencies providing services to the homeless;
• developing relationships and coordinating with other relevant programs and providers;
• developing and implementing programs for school personnel to heighten awareness of problems of homeless children and youth;
• awarding grants to school districts for direct educational and supportive services for homeless children; and
• submitting reports to the U.S. Department of Education, as required.

Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth

The Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth operates within the Division of Educational Programs and Student Services of the New Jersey State Department of Education. The mission of the office is to ensure that each homeless child and youth has the same access to a free and appropriate public education that is provided to any other state resident. The office has a coordinator and one full-time staff member. Since its inception in 1988, the office has been instrumental in fulfilling several major mandates. Following is a summary of the major activities of the office.

Review of Residency

As directed by the Stewart B. McKinney Act, residency requirements were reviewed. New Jersey's residency requirements entitle every student to a free, public education in the school district where he or she is domiciled [N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 (a)]. The law also stipulates that those students whose parents or guardians are temporary residents, even though not domiciled within the district, are entitled to attend public schools in the temporary district of residence [N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 (d)].

While it was clear that state residency requirements did not deny homeless children and youth access to public schools, it was also evident from a review of the requirements that they did not address the issue of homelessness directly, nor did they address the McKinney Act provision that permits homeless students to attend school in either the district of residence or the district where they are temporarily living. Revisions to the residency requirements were drafted by Department of Education staff and presented as a proposal for amendments to Senate Bill Number 2352. These amendments defined "homeless" persons as individuals who temporarily lack a fixed, regular and adequate residence and set forth specific procedures for determining the district of residence and appropriate educational placement for homeless children and youth. The amendments were signed into law in January 1990 and became effective on July 1, 1990 (Appendix B).

The amendments designate the district of residence as responsible for the educational placement decision after consultation with the parent or guardian. This determination shall be either to:
• continue the student's education in the school district of last attendance;
• enroll the student in the district of residence if the district of residence is not the district of last attendance; or
• enroll the student in the school district where the student is temporarily living -- whichever is in the student's best interest.

The amendments also clarify the responsibilities of the district of residence for paying tuition and transportation for homeless students and delineate the method by which placement decisions can be appealed. On November 7, 1990, the New Jersey State Board of Education adopted rules and regulations to implement the new revised residency requirements for homeless students (N.J.A.C. 6:3-7). The rules were established to assist school districts in determining placement of homeless students and to respond to appeals made by parents or other parties (Appendix C).

Coordination

The Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth established ongoing working relationships with the department's Division of Adult Education; the Department of Human Services; the inter-faith network; advocacy groups; and others responsible for, working with, and concerned about the homeless. The office also developed a State Advisory Council on the Education of Homeless Children and Youth and an intrastate response network, which identifies a homeless education contact person in each county office of education (Appendix D), and a district liaison in each school district. These contact persons are responsible for facilitating all the activities needed to ensure the timely educational placement of homeless children and Youth. A statewide directory of district liaisons is available through the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth.

An interagency agreement was also formalized between the Department of Education and the Department of Human Services on August 1, 1990. Its purpose was to facilitate delivery of educational services by supplying to school districts information to ensure that homeless children are enrolled in school (Appendix E).

Technical Assistance

The office has provided technical assistance and workshops on meeting the needs of homeless children and implementing the homeless law. These sessions have been presented to school districts, county welfare agencies, social service agencies, professional and community organizations, and advocacy groups.

Since its establishment in February 1988, the office has helped to resolve approximately 400 cases involving educational services to homeless students. The office has also developed a parents pamphlet detailing the educational rights of homeless children in New Jersey, which is also available in Spanish (Appendix F).
Pilot Projects

The office distributed grant funds to support pilot projects in the school districts of East Orange and Newark. These projects focus on providing comprehensive educational services to homeless students and will identify successful strategies which can be replicated throughout the state.

Advisory Council

An advisory council, consisting of homeless parents and representatives from shelters, advocacy groups and school districts, was established in February 1990. Its purpose was and continues to be to advise the Commissioner of Education on policies and practices having to do with the education of homeless children and youth. The council meets five times each school year and has developed a mission statement and goals. (Appendix G).

Needs Assessments

Needs assessments were conducted by means of two major surveys, which were the first to identify the number, location and educational needs of homeless children in New Jersey.

The first data collection was conducted by the New Jersey State Department of Human Services. The study gathered data from a one-year period, November 1986 through November 1987. The Department of Education conducted a one-day survey on November 18, 1988. Data were collected for a second time by the Department of Education in the fall of 1989. (Section II)

The following chart summarizes the activities of the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth from October 1989 through September 1991.

II. NEEDS ASSESSMENT

The New Jersey State Department of Education, working with data provided by the New Jersey State Department of Human Services, conducted a study in the fall of 1989 to update its information regarding the number, location and educational needs of homeless children and youth in the state. Following is a description of the study.

Purpose

The purpose of the study was threefold: 1) to determine the number and location of homeless children and youth in New Jersey from September 1, 1988 through August 31, 1989; 2) to further identify and verify obstacles to the provision of educational services to this population; and 3) to identify educational needs more specifically.

Data Collection

Data were gathered using two methods:

1. administration of a survey designed by the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth to obtain information on children and youth not receiving emergency assistance; and

2. calculation of projections, using Department of Human Services data regarding families and children receiving emergency assistance.

I. The Survey Instrument

A questionnaire was designed to collect information on the number of homeless children who were receiving services apart from the public welfare Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) emergency assistance system (Appendix H). The questionnaire was divided into the following sections:

- the current number of homeless children and youth by age level;
- the source of the respondent's information;
- the numbers of school-age homeless children who were attending or not attending school;
- the type of facility where homeless children were currently residing;
- the educational obstacles faced by homeless children and youth;
- the major educational needs of this population; and
- additional comments regarding problems encountered in identifying and meeting the educational needs of homeless children and youth.
Administration of the Survey

In conducting the survey, the Department of Education targeted shelters and social service agencies providing services to families not on emergency assistance. This population, a segment of the homeless working poor, would not be reflected in the data obtained from the Department of Human Services, since they would not be eligible for assistance. The questionnaire was mailed on November 15, 1989, to family shelters, domestic violence shelters, runaway youth shelters and interfaith networks providing services to this group.

Of 73 eligible agencies throughout the state, 36 returned completed questionnaires by December 1, 1989, representing a 49 percent response rate. Follow-up of non-respondents revealed one or more of the following reasons for their lack of participation:

- lack of staff or resources to obtain yearly figures for the targeted group;
- inability of agencies to separate the two populations (AFDC emergency and non-AFDC emergency); and
- unavailability of age or grade level data.

II. The Projections

A five-county sample of families and children receiving emergency assistance (AFDC/EA) funds was drawn from the records of the Department of Human Services. The following describes the procedure used to arrive at statewide projections of numbers of homeless children and youth.

Calculation of Projections

- The total number of homeless children and youth for the sample five counties was determined by school level.
- The total public school enrollment for the sample counties was obtained from the New Jersey State Department of Education's Vital Education Statistics, 1988-89.
- The total number of homeless children in the sample counties was divided by the total school enrollment to estimate the proportion of public school children who are homeless in the sample counties (by school level).
- The proportions obtained for the sample counties were used to estimate the number of homeless children in the remaining 16 counties in New Jersey (based on the total school enrollment in each of the counties).
- The actual number of homeless children in the five-county sample was added to the estimated number in the other 16 counties to arrive at a statewide projection.
In calculating statewide projections it was assumed that the proportion of homeless students in the elementary, middle/junior high school and high school levels in the five-county sample is representative of the statewide proportion of students in those three levels.

Survey Results: Numbers Served

Table 1 summarizes the numbers of homeless children and youth served during the survey period and not receiving emergency assistance (AFDC/EA). The data are shown by school level and age group.

The largest number of homeless children was found in K-6 age group. Of the 36 responses received, 23 reported using records to obtain this information; 5 reported estimates; and the remaining eight did not indicate a source. Respondents reported that of the 3,154 children in grades K-12, 2,649 were currently attending school and 505 were not attending.

Table 3 shows further that these homeless children are also concentrated in the K-6 age group. The pre-school data represent actual counts only. No estimates of numbers in the other sixteen counties have been added, since the New Jersey Department of Education data do not include pre-school enrollments.

Table 4 shows the type of housing which served homeless children and youth who have received emergency assistance (AFDC/EA).

As can be seen in Table 4, the vast majority of these children were sheltered in motels. Children sheltered in both shelters and motels received both types of housing during the duration of their homelessness. Relatives or friends are not offered as a type of housing to emergency assistance recipients. This accounts for zero in that column.

Table 5 shows the numbers of children and youth receiving emergency assistance (AFDC/EA) obtained from the Department of Human Services for the five sample counties and the projected figures for the 16 remaining counties in New Jersey. These figures do not reflect the numbers received from the survey conducted by the Department of Education. As can be seen, Essex County has the greatest number of homeless students in the state.

Results: Obstacles to the Provision of Educational Services

Based on the information reported in the statewide survey and office involvement on a case-by-case basis, the following are the major obstacles faced by homeless children and youth in obtaining access to educational services:

- Lack of Transportation: Throughout the state this has been a major issue. This is particularly critical when motels are located near busy highways or if families request that their children be sent across school boundaries to the original district of residence.

- Residency Requirements: These requirements posed a problem when families were temporarily housed in school districts outside of their original municipality. Residency requirements have since been revised to meet the unique circumstances of homeless students by providing them the option of returning to the school district they attended prior to becoming homeless (see Section 1).

- Lack of follow-up and coordination between school districts and social service agencies: At the time of the survey no formal procedures were in place to ensure that homeless children had enrolled in and were attending school.

- School Records: The immediate enrollment of homeless students in school is often delayed because health and school records from the previous school have not yet been obtained.

Results: Educational Needs

Respondents identified the need for services such as special, compensatory and bilingual/English as a Second Language (ESL) education as the most pressing educational need of the children and youth they served. They also indicated a need for counseling, after-school activities and alternative educational programs.

Also described by respondents were the difficulties they faced in identifying educational needs. These included:

- Frequent relocation of families and the transitory nature of homelessness, causing families to move from district to district;

- Priority given to survival needs (permanent housing, food, clothing, and good medical care), causing educational needs to recede in importance;

- Difficulty in formal assessment and documentation of educational needs because of frequent moves from district to district; and

- Delays in transfer of school records between districts.
Conclusions

The Population

Data from the two sources, as well as information gathered by the Department of Education on a case-by-case basis, indicated that the number of children and youth ages 0-18 served for the one-year period, September 1, 1988 to August 31, 1989, was 14,439. This seems to correspond to the estimate of between 10,000 and 15,000 homeless youngsters served over a one-year period derived from the previous needs assessment described in the first state plan. It does not, however, reflect accurately the total number of children and youth who were homeless in that time period. The reasons for this are:

- Absence of projected pre-school emergency assistance (AFDC/EA) numbers for 16 of 21 counties;
- Inability to count hidden homeless, who may be doubled up with friends or relatives, living in campgrounds, makeshift shelters, cars, etc.; and
- Difficulty reported by many surveyed agencies in providing the necessary information, yielding a 49 percent response rate.

Obstacles

The obstacles faced by homeless children and youth in obtaining access to educational services for the one-year period 1988-1989 continued to be the same as those reported in the previous needs assessment. Transportation, residency requirements, lack of follow-up, and delays in transmission of academic and medical records emerged as the major obstacles faced by homeless children and youth. The first state plan outlined 12 objectives by which to overcome these obstacles. The following chapter details the progress made since 1989 and provides an update to include:

- status of 1989 state plan objectives;
- educational obstacles faced by New Jersey's homeless children; and
III. THE STATE'S ROLE IN THE DELIVERY OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES TO HOMELESS CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Status of 1989 State Plan Objectives

The comprehensive state plan developed in 1989 included 12 objectives, each of which responded to one or more of the obstacles encountered by homeless students seeking educational access. The following details the progress made toward fulfilling each of those objectives.

OBJECTIVE 1: To ensure that all homeless children and youth have access to a free and appropriate public education.

- Communication sent to all school districts by the Commissioner of Education alerting districts of their responsibility for ensuring that all homeless students are enrolled and attending school, (Appendix I).

- Developed a statewide response network by identifying a county and a school district liaison for the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth, (Appendix D). These liaisons are responsible for facilitating activities needed to ensure the timely educational placement of homeless children and youth on both a county and local level. Presently there are 21 county liaisons and 587 school district liaisons. A copy of the statewide directory of school district liaisons is available through the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth.

- Established an agreement between the Department of Human Services and the Department of Education which formalizes a procedure for notifying a school district when homeless students are housed temporarily in their district. The form generated as a result of the agreement (Appendix E) gives school districts specific student information to ensure that all homeless students are enrolled in school.

- Developed and disseminated a pamphlet for parents which outlines the educational rights of homeless children in New Jersey, (Appendix G). This pamphlet is currently being distributed to homeless parents through county welfare agencies, family shelters and other social service agencies. The pamphlet is also available in Spanish.

OBJECTIVE 2: To revise current residency requirements to better address the needs of homeless students.

- Revised New Jersey's residency requirements to better address the specific needs of homeless students. The law, which became effective July 1, 1990 (Appendix B):
  - assigns responsibility for the education of a homeless child to the district of residence, defined as that district where the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless;
- directs the district of residence to determine the educational placement of the homeless child after consultation with the parent or guardian based on the best interest of the child;

- allows three educational placement options for a homeless child: a) to continue the child's education in the school district of last attendance, b) to enroll the child in the district of residence if the district of residence is not the district of last attendance; or c) to enroll the child in the school district where the child is temporarily living;

- establishes an appeal process which requires the county superintendent of schools to resolve disputed placement decisions within 48 hours;

- fixes the responsibility of paying tuition and transportation expenses with the district of residence; and

- directs the Department of Education to assume financial responsibility for tuition if no district of residence can be determined.

- Developed regulations to assist school districts in meeting their responsibilities under the law. The purpose of these regulations is to establish statewide policies and procedures for ensuring that homeless children and youth have access to a free and appropriate public education. Specific rules clarify the determination of homelessness and define the responsibilities of the district of residence, establish criteria for educational placement decisions, and outline an appeals process when these decisions are disputed by parents or other parties (Appendix C).

OBJECTIVE 3: To ensure that homeless student school placement decisions are made in the best interest of the students.

- The following requirements have been included in the state regulations which implement the revised residency law for homeless students:

  - The district of residence must make each school placement decision in the best interest of the student, using the following criteria:

    - preference of the parent(s) or guardian(s) as to where the child should attend school;

    - continuity of the child's educational program with consideration given to the child continuing in the same school, the length of time the child attended a particular school, the time remaining in the school year, graduation requirements and district policies regarding the number of credits needed for graduation and geographical location where the family plans to seek permanent housing;

- eligibility for special instructional programs such as compensatory, bilingual, gifted/talented and special education programs; and

- distance, travel time and safety factors in coordinating transportation services from the temporary residence to the school.

- The district of residence must make the placement decision within three days after notification of the need for placement of a homeless student.

- School districts must have written documentation of consultation with parents, guardian or caseworkers in making placement decisions.

- The regulations also established an appeal process on the county and state levels to ensure that placement decisions are made in the best interest of students (Appendix C).

- School districts must be monitored to ensure that homeless student placement decisions are made in accordance with specified regulations.

OBJECTIVE 4: To provide technical assistance to school districts in developing and implementing transportation systems which meet the needs of homeless students.

- Developed regulations for school districts which clearly define who is responsible for transporting students and describe options for providing transportation and criteria to be considered in arranging transportation, e.g. travel time, distance, safety considerations.

- Provided technical assistance on a county and local level to ensure that school districts were meeting the transportation needs of homeless students. This is an ongoing activity.

- Coordinated transportation activities with other state departments to develop countywide transportation systems.

OBJECTIVE 5: To assist districts in developing and implementing alternative registration and transfer policies which ensure that school and health records of homeless students are available for immediate entrance to school.

- Communicated to districts that delays in the receipt of school or medical records must not preclude timely registration and immediate entrance of homeless students to school.
Developed and distributed a pamphlet for parents which details the educational rights of homeless children.

Facilitated the coordination of educational services between school districts and social service providers.

Developed and disseminated state regulations which outline criteria to ensure that homeless students have immediate access to school.

OBJECTIVE 6: To ensure that all homeless students receive educational services comparable to services offered to other students, including educational programs such as compensatory, bilingual and special education.

- Coordinated services to ensure that homeless students requiring compensatory, bilingual and special education services are enrolled in programs and receiving services.

- Amended Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth survey form to include information about the educational services provided to homeless students.

- Conducted a survey to identify the number, location and educational needs of homeless children and youth. A description of this survey is included in Section II.

OBJECTIVE 7: To provide technical assistance to school districts, social service providers and parents in meeting the unique educational needs of homeless children and youth.

- Provided technical assistance to over 500 districts, through district liaisons. Sessions focused on major mandates of the law, how to implement regulations, and how school districts can develop programs to meet the unique circumstances of homeless students.

- Conducted training sessions for county welfare agencies, shelters and social service agencies on the educational rights of homeless children. Sessions focused on establishing relationships with local schools to ensure that homeless children are receiving educational services.

OBJECTIVE 8: To facilitate the establishment of linkages between social service agencies, school districts, advocacy groups and other state agencies in order to meet the needs of homeless children more effectively.

- Developed linkages with the New Jersey State Department of Human Services, shelters, advocacy groups, interfaith networks and county welfare agencies to ensure that all homeless students are receiving educational services. Activities include:

  - facilitating on the county level formal systems for identifying where children are placed temporarily by county welfare agencies so that school districts can provide educational services;
developing on the state level an agreement between the Department of Human services and the Department of Education which establishes a procedure whereby the Department of Education and school districts are provided with sufficient student information to ensure that all homeless students are in school; and assisting school districts with large numbers of homeless children in providing comprehensive services by coordinating activities with local resources.

- Arranged for the participation of county office of education liaisons on local Comprehensive Emergency Assistance System (CEAS) committees.

- Established and coordinated the activities of the New Jersey Advisory Council on the Education of Homeless Children and Youth. The council continues to advise the Commissioner of Education on policies and practices to ensure that homeless school-age children have the same access to elementary and secondary education as all other students in New Jersey. There are 18 participants, including homeless parents as well as representatives from public and private agencies, shelters, advocacy groups and school districts.

OBJECTIVE 9: To identify, recognize, and disseminate information on exemplary educational programs and practices for homeless children and youth.

- Established two pilot projects to provide comprehensive educational services to homeless students. The primary purpose of these projects is to identify successful strategies which can be replicated throughout the state. The school districts of Newark and East Orange are currently operating pilot projects (February 1991 to September, 1991). Projects focus on:

  - Ensuring that homeless students are enrolled in and attending school and providing supportive services in the areas of after-school tutoring, recreation, counseling, nutrition, and identification of health needs (East Orange).

  - Increasing student enrollment and attendance for the homeless student population in grades K-8. A large motel population is the target for this program. Program staff work to alleviate obstacles to enrollment and attendance. Their responsibilities include visiting area motels and shelters; counseling students with truancy problems; taking legal action when appropriate; acting as liaisons between the schools and parents, as well as shelter owners and parents; picking up and retrieving health and academic records from various schools; and acting as advocates for the homeless (Newark).

OBJECTIVE 10: To monitor educational and other related services provided to homeless children and youth.
Targeted site visits focusing on strategies used by school districts in implementing the following components of the homeless law:

- parent consultation;
- choice of educational placement;
- record transfer and enrollment procedures;
- timelines for enrollment;
- identification of homeless students;
- use of the Educational Services Emergency Referral form;
- tuition and transportation policies; and
- procedures for inter-district communication.

OBJECTIVE 11: To increase public awareness of and sensitivity to the issues surrounding homelessness and its effects on children and youth.

- Conducted training sessions and workshops on the needs of homeless children in order to:
  - Sensitize teachers and administrators to the needs of homeless students and offer recommendations in meeting their needs.
  - Sensitize social service providers to the educational needs unique to homeless students and the importance of ongoing communication with the schools.

Programs have been conducted for:
- school districts;
- county office of education contacts;
- county welfare agencies;
- advocacy groups;
- social service agencies dealing with the homeless; and
- homeless parents.

- Served as information clearinghouse for school districts, social service providers, advocates and the community at large.

OBJECTIVE 12: To assist districts in developing programs of supplementary supportive services, including health, nutrition, recreation and social services for homeless students.

- Assisted school districts in developing programs which address the educational, physical, social and psychological needs of homeless students.
- Assisted school districts in coordinating services with local resources to meet the comprehensive needs of these children.
- Established school district programs which offer supplementary supportive services to homeless children, including:
- tutoring;
- counseling services;
- enrichment activities;
- recreation activities;
- summer programs;
- nutritional support;
- health and hygiene counseling; and
- parental involvement.
The needs assessment conducted by the New Jersey State Department of Education (NJDOE), along with the enhanced coordination developed among the department and other state agencies, school districts, social service providers, advocacy groups and homeless parents, have served to provide the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth with a better understanding of the obstacles which continue to restrict access to a free and appropriate public education for homeless children and youth in New Jersey.

The following section summarizes obstacles identified as major and continuing problem areas for New Jersey's homeless students.

1. Transportation
   - Unavailability of district transportation in many urban school districts;
   - Limited abilities of families to provide transportation;
   - Location of motels and hotels on busy highways and other roadways; and
   - Lack of a fixed location at which to pick up students whose location may change from week to week.

2. School and Health Records
   - Lack of timely enrollment due to variations in school district policies regarding school and health records;
   - Denial of registration due to lack of school and health records from a previous school district;
   - Guardianship prerequisites for school registration; and
   - Incomplete records sent by the previous school district.

3. Educational Services
   - Lack of accurate data on the number, location and educational needs of this population;
   - Inappropriate placement because of delayed or incomplete records;
   - Exacerbation of learning problems and increase in educational needs due to the condition of homelessness;
   - High mobility, leading to discontinuity of educational services;
- Difficulty in completing special education evaluation requirements due to mobility.
- Lack of continuity in programs such as special education, compensatory and bilingual/ESL education due to mobility; and
- Exclusion of many homeless children of pre-school age from participation in early intervention or preschool programs.

4. Coordination
- Lack of coordination among social service providers and educational agencies on state, county and local level;
- Inadequate outreach and follow-up procedures;
- Absence of uniform interstate records transfer policies; and
- Lack of coordination among school districts.

5. Establishment of Exemplary Programs
- Lack of processes by which exemplary programs can be identified, evaluated and replicated by other school districts; and
- Lack of state and federal funding to support exemplary projects.

6. Identification of Homeless Students
- Lack of awareness by school personnel that homeless children and youth can be found living in various circumstances, such as doubled up with friends or relatives;
- Lack of information by homeless parents about the choice of school district and other rights available to their children.
- Lack of awareness that homelessness is not always correlated with socioeconomic status.

7. State Monitoring
- Lack of criteria related specifically to educational services for homeless students in current NJDOE monitoring instruments and procedures;
- Lack of formal guidelines for monitoring educational services to homeless children and youth; and
- Lack of corrective action procedures for districts not in compliance with state and federal mandates.
8. Public Awareness

- Lack of information about rights, needs, enrollment procedures, transportation, and access to other social services;
- Lack of awareness of the embarrassment, shame and social stigma that often results from the condition of homelessness;
- Lack of information, resulting in the persistence of stereotypes based on outmoded images of homelessness; and
- Lack of opportunities to sensitize service providers, parents, teachers and students concerning the problems resulting from homelessness.

9. Supplementary, Supportive Services

- Lack of comprehensive educational programs which include:
  - adequate health and nutrition services;
  - space, equipment and materials for homework;
  - counseling services;
  - access to recreational and social activities;
  - before- and after-school care programs; and
  - parent involvement.

10. Pre-School Educational Services

- Lack of coordination to ensure enrollment of homeless preschool children in school district programs.
- Lack of preschool services to prevent academic deficits;
- Lack of preschool services to address developmental delays; and
- Lack of information to parents and provider agencies on the availability of preschool services.

11. School District Programs

- Lack of available funding to school districts for additional programs for homeless students;
- Lack of coordination between school districts and community agencies to establish programs; and
- Lack of awareness of existing community resources which serve homeless families.

IV. PLAN OF OPERATION

Management Plan

All of the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth activities and services operate within the Division of Educational Programs and Student Services. Staff from the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth will implement all activities. This office will coordinate program activities with other state and local agencies providing services to homeless children and youth.

All program activities will be coordinated as follows:

- The coordinator of the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth will oversee all objectives and will be responsible for ensuring that activities are completed in a timely manner.
- Meetings will be held with county office of education staff assigned to serve as contacts to the office.
- Personnel from the Departments of Education and Human Services responsible for cooperative activities will meet on a regular basis to plan and coordinate.
- All activities will be documented and evaluated.
- The Department of Education abides by and follows all fiscal regulations and procedures of the State Department of Treasury. The treasury department governs the expenditures of all funds, including those related to federal grants. The control of the funds will be the responsibility of the Director of the Bureau of Basic Skills, who will keep an account of all balances and expenses.

Methods Used to Provide Services

To provide the major services proposed in the activities section, the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth will use the following:

- data gathering: through surveys, evaluation reports and questionnaires;
- training: through regional workshops, seminars, general meetings and on-site visits;
- program monitoring and evaluation: through on-site visits to school districts and shelters, interviews with staff, use of surveys and checklists;
- technical assistance: through on-site meetings, group sessions, seminars, workshops and published documents;
- information dissemination: through correspondence, newsletters, phone contacts, meetings, conferences, news releases, publications; and outreach activities: through mailings, direct phone contact, on-site visits, round-table discussions and conferences.

Evaluation

Throughout the development and implementation process, evaluation activities will be undertaken by the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth. These evaluation activities will measure progress made towards the objectives. The evaluation data will include the following:

- notices, agendas, minutes and records of attendance at meetings;
- workshop and conference evaluation forms;
- reports by staff;
- copies of documents and materials produced for dissemination;
- logs of technical assistance sessions; and
- program reports of field and monitoring visits to school districts.
V. PUBLIC COMMENT

In order to provide the public with the opportunity to comment, a draft of the plan was circulated to county superintendents, members of the New Jersey State Advisory Council on the Education of Homeless Children and Youth and representatives of government agencies and advocacy groups. All were urged to provide input to the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth. An emergency meeting of the state advisory council was held on May 17, 1991 for this purpose. While it was generally felt that the revised document is a comprehensive one, specific recommendations were offered to strengthen the effectiveness of the plan.

Recommendations from Public Testimony

Following are the recommendations received by the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth at the May 17th meeting. The advisory council will assist with the following:

- Coordination between social service providers and school districts;
- Establishment of statewide data collection system;
- Development of linkages on a county and local level;
- Development of training programs; and
- Increasing public awareness and sensitivity to homeless children by identifying community groups and supporting public awareness initiatives.

Additional recommendations received by the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth concerned the following areas of the plan:

Language Clarification

- The terms referring to homeless children and youth by income eligibility need to be clarified.

Examples of Homelessness

- Specific examples of homeless living situations should be included to clarify who can be considered homeless in New Jersey.

Homeless Education Liaisons

- It is important that this information be kept current.
- It is not practical in most instances for a district superintendent to assume this demanding responsibility.
- The position of district liaison should be funded to carry out homeless education activities.
Transportation

- Alternate methods of transporting homeless students need to be explored for those districts that are unable to transport beyond their boundaries.

Responsibility to Implement the Plan

- Concern was raised as to the feasibility of meeting these objectives given the size (two staff) of the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth.

APPENDIX B

REVISED STATE RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

FOR HOMELESS STUDENTS

AN Act concerning the district of residence for certain students, amending P.L. 1979, c.207 and N.J.S. 18A:38-1 and supplementing chapter 38 of Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes.

1. Section 19 of P.L. 1979, c.207 (C.18A:78-12) is amended to read as follows:

19. For school funding purposes, the Commissioner of Education shall determine district of residence as follows:

a. The district of residence for children in foster homes shall be the district in which the foster parents reside. If a child in a foster home is subsequently placed in a State facility, or by a State agency, the district of residence of the child shall then be determined as if no such foster placement had occurred.

b. The district of residence for children who are in residential State facilities, or who have been placed by State agencies in group homes, private schools or out-of-state facilities, shall be the present district of residence of the parent or guardian with whom the child lived prior to his most recent admission to a State facility or most recent placement by a State agency. If this cannot be determined, the district of residence shall be the district in which the child resided prior to such admission or placement.

c. The district of residence for children whose parent or guardian temporarily move from one school district to another as the result of being homeless shall be the district in which the parent or guardian last resided prior to becoming homeless. For the purpose of this amendatory and supplementary act, "homeless" shall mean an individual who temporarily lacks a fixed, regular and adequate residence.

[c.] d. If the district of residence cannot be determined according to the criteria contained herein, or if the criteria contained herein identify a district of residence outside of the State, the State shall assume fiscal responsibility for the tuition of the child. The tuition shall equal the State average net current expense budget per pupil plus the appropriate categorical program support, if any. This amount shall be appropriated in the same manner as other State aid under this act. The Department of Education shall pay the amount to the Department of Human Services or the Department of Corrections or, in the case of a homeless child, to the school district in which the child is enrolled.

2. N.J.S.18A:38-1 is amended to read as follows:
Chapter 290 - 69 -

18A:38-1. Public schools shall be free to the following persons over five and under 20 years of age:

(a) Any person who is domiciled within the school district;
(b) Any person who is kept in the home of another person domiciled within the school district and is supported by such other person gratis as if he were such other person's own child, upon filing by such other person with the secretary of the board of education of the district, if so required by the board, a sworn statement that he is domiciled within the district and is supporting the child gratis and will assume all personal obligations for the child relative to school requirements and that he intends so to keep and support the child gratuitously for a longer time than merely through the school term, and a copy of his lease if a tenant, or a sworn statement by his landlord acknowledging his tenancy if residing as a tenant without a written lease, and upon filing by the child's parent or guardian with the secretary of the board of education a sworn statement that he is not supporting the child, accompanied by documentation to support the validity of the sworn statements, information from or about which shall be supplied only to the board and only to the extent that it directly pertains to the support or nonsupport of the child; provided, however, that the board of education may contest the validity of the sworn statement in proceedings before the commissioner, except that no child shall be denied admission during the pendency of any such proceedings that the board of education may contest the validity of the sworn statement in proceedings before the commissioner, the resident shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence before the commissioner that the child is eligible for a free education under the criteria listed in this subsection. If in the judgement of the commissioner this evidence does not support the claim of the resident, he may assess the resident tuition for the student prorated to the time of the board's request for a sworn statement from the resident. Tuition shall be computed on the basis of 1/180 of the total annual per pupil cost to the local district multiplied by the number of days of ineligible attendance;
(c) Any person who fraudulently allows a child of another person to use his residence and is not the primary financial supporter of that child and any person who fraudulently claims to have given up custody of his child to a person in another district commits a disorderly persons offense;
(d) Any person whose parent or guardian, even though not domiciled within the district, is residing temporarily therein, but any person who has had or shall have his all-year-round dwelling place within the district for one year or longer shall be deemed to be domiciled within the district for the purposes of this section;
(e) Any person for who the Division of Youth and Family Services in the Department of Human Services is acting as guardian and who is placed in the district by said bureau;
(f) Any person whose parent or guardian moves from one school district to another school district as a result of being homeless and whose district of residence is determined pursuant to section 19 of P.L. 1979, c.207 (C.18A:7B-12).

3. (New section) The district of residence for a homeless child determined pursuant to section 19 of P.L. 1979, c.207 (C.18A:7B-12) shall be responsible for the education of the homeless child. The district of residence shall determine the educational placement of the child after consulting with the parent or guardian. This determination shall be a. to continue the child's education in the school district of last attendance, b. to enroll the child in the district of residence if the district of residence is not the district of last attendance, or c. to enroll the child in the school district where the child is temporarily living, whichever is in the child's best interest. If the parent or guardian objects to the determination made by the district of residence, the county superintendent of schools shall be notified and within 48 hours shall determine the placement of the child based on criteria established by the State Board of Education. Any appeals regarding the determination shall be resolved according to rules established by the State Board of Education.

When the homeless child attends school in a district other than the district of residence, the district of residence shall pay the costs of tuition for the child to attend school in that district and shall pay for any transportation costs incurred by that district. When the homeless child attends school in the district of residence while temporarily residing in another district, the district of residence shall provide for transportation to and from school pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.18A:56-7.

4. Subject to the "Administrative Procedure Act," P.L. 1966, c.410 (C.52:14B-1 et seq.), the State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the purposes of this act.

5. This act shall take effect July 1 next following enactment.

STATEMENT

(SEE REVERSE FOR COMPLETION INSTRUCTIONS)
DIRECTIONS FOR COMPLETION

This is a carbonized triplicate form. Please type or use a ball point pen when completing. Pencil and/or felt tip pens should not be used. This form is to be filled out by appropriate staff of the County's Emergency Assistance (EA) Unit when placing a family in a temporary shelter (hotel, motel, shelter etc.) and is to be completed on the date of emergency placement but no later than the morning of the next business day. Please note that children must attend school within three days of placement.

A. The form should be addressed to the local School District Liaison within whose jurisdiction the family's current emergency shelter lies. A current listing of the County Superintendents Office Liaisons, and the School Districts within your County, indicating the names of the School District and Liaisons to the Emergency Assistance Programs will be provided.

B. List the name of the homeless parents/guardians for whom Emergency Assistance was provided and the address of the shelter and/or temporary housing in which the family currently resides.

C. List the last permanent address of the family. It is important that this information be as accurate as possible, because the school district which has jurisdiction over this address will be the district billed for school services provided to the family during the duration of their temporary housing. At a minimum, the family should have established a permanent mailing address at the location listed.

D. List the CWA case number.

E. Indicate the name of the school district in which the children last attended school prior to the date of Emergency Assistance application. This may or may not be the same district as that listed in C, dependent on whether the family utilized other temporary housing prior to applying for Emergency Assistance.

F. Please list all children in the household regardless of whether they are of school-age. The Social Security number should be listed for each child, as well as date of birth and an indication of whether they are still attending the School District listed in E.

G. Indicate the name and title of the CWA representative, the Agency's name and the telephone number of the representative.

The original of the form is to be sent to the attention of the Liaison within the Superintendent's Office of the Local District within whose jurisdiction the family's current emergency shelter lies.

The second copy is to be sent to the attention of the Liaison within the County Superintendent of Schools Office.

The third copy is to be retained in the case file.

EDUCATION OF HOMELESS CHILDREN AND YOUTH IN NEW JERSEY
For Further Information Please Contact:

Office of Education for Homeless Children & Youth
Division of General Academic Education
New Jersey State Department of Education
CN 500
Trenton, N.J. 08625-0500
(609) 984-2101
Every child in New Jersey has a right to a free and appropriate education. During this time of crisis your child’s education is of critical concern.

It is important that your child continues to go to school. We understand that not having a home puts a great stress on all members of your family. Keeping your child in school while you are looking for a permanent home can help you and your child during this time.

This pamphlet will help you keep your child in school. Please remember to:

- Enroll your child as soon as possible after you arrive in a shelter, motel, or any other temporary housing situation.
- Go to the nearest school to register your child.
- When you enroll your child bring his/her transfer card or birth certificate and health records, if available.

The following is a summary of the educational rights of homeless children and youth based upon legislation which became effective July 1, 1990.

CHOICES

A homeless child can attend school in one of three districts:

1) The district of residence, which is the school your child was attending when you became homeless;

2) the school district your child last attended;

3) the school district where you are living temporarily.

BEST INTEREST

Selecting your child’s school will be based upon what is in the child’s best interest. The decision is made by the school district where your child was attending school before you became homeless, in consultation with you as the parent or guardian. The district must make a decision within three days of being notified of a child’s need for school placement.

APPEALS

If you object to where your child will attend school, you have the right to an appeal. Contact the county superintendent of schools in the county where you lived before you became homeless. You should make this call immediately to ensure that your child is enrolled as quickly as possible.

TRANSPORTATION

Transportation to and from school will be provided by the district where your child will be going to school.

SCHOOL RECORDS

School district staff will help you with transferring school and health records. This should not delay the entrance of your child into school.

ASSISTANCE

Each school district has appointed a person who is responsible for helping you to register your child as quickly as possible. Speak to this person in the school district.

COMMISSIONER'S MEMO TO
CHIEF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS
(AUGUST 9, 1990)
The education of homeless children and youth continues to be a critical issue in our state. A report submitted to Congress in March 1990 by the United States Department of Education ranks New Jersey's homeless school-age population as the fifth highest in the nation. We have recognized the critical needs of these children by becoming one of the few states to pass legislation which addresses the unique circumstances of homeless students, N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and 18A:7B-12. This law, which became effective July 1, 1990, revises New Jersey's residency requirements to better address the specific needs of this population.

This communication will provide you with information about:

- the major provisions of the law;
- the status of the proposed rules now before the State Board of Education which will provide guidance in implementing the law; and
- an agreement between the Department of Human Services and the Department of Education to share homeless student information which became effective August 1, 1990.

Major Elements of the Law

The amendments to N.J.S.A. 18A:38-1 and 18A:7B-12 will assist greatly in ensuring that homeless children and youth have educational access, a right often denied to these students. Specifically, the law:

- assigns responsibility for the education of a homeless child with the district of residence, that district where the parent or guardian lived prior to becoming homeless;
- 117 -

- directs the district of residence to determine the educational placement of the homeless child after consultation with the parent or guardian based on the best interest of the child;

- allows three educational placement options for a homeless child which are: a) to continue the child's education in the school district of last attendance, b) to enroll the child in the district of residence if the district of residence is not the district of last attendance, or c) to enroll the child in the school district where the child is temporarily living;

- establishes an appeal process which requires the county superintendent of schools to be notified of disputed placement decisions;

- fixes the responsibility of paying tuition and transportation expenses with the district of residence; and

- directs the Department of Education to assume financial responsibility for tuition if no district of residence can be determined.

I have enclosed a copy of the law for your information.

Rules and Regulations

In addition to the law, I have also enclosed the proposed rules which were developed to provide school districts with clear and concise guidance in implementing the provisions of the law. They clarify the procedures needed to ensure that homeless students have access to a free and appropriate public education. Specific rules define the responsibilities of the district of residence, establish criteria for educational placement decisions, and outline an appeals process when these decisions are disputed by parents or other parties.

In addition, the rules propose that each school district designate a liaison for the education of homeless children. This person will be responsible for facilitating all of the activities needed to ensure the timely educational placement of homeless children and youth and for coordinating activities with other districts. This response network has already been initiated and liaisons have been identified in each school district and county office of education. I have enclosed a copy of the county and school district liaisons for your region in this mailing.

These rules were approved by the State Board of Education at the proposal level on August 1, 1990 and will be published in the New Jersey Register in September 1990 with a tentative public hearing date scheduled for September 18, 1990. We anticipate that the rules will be adopted in November or December 1990. Though not formally adopted, the proposed rules should provide you with some guidance in implementing the requirements of the law. Please note that questions and answers on a variety of topics related to the rules have also been included.
Department of Human Services/Department of Education Agreement

The Departments of Human Services and Education have entered into an agreement, which will result in school officials receiving information from human services personnel when homeless families with children are placed in the area. This agreement, which went into effect August 1, 1990, will ensure that homeless school-age children enroll and attend school in a timely manner. The Educational Service Emergency Referral Form will be sent to the district liaison by the County Board of Social Services for immediate follow-up.

At-Risk Students

Homeless students represent a population of our children who are most at-risk. Their needs are complex and they face many challenges because of their homeless situation. With the development in 1989 of the Education of Homeless Children and Youth in New Jersey: A Plan for State Action, educators realized the importance of developing educational and supportive programs for this population. Today, as we begin implementing these new requirements, we are another step closer to accomplishing the goals of that plan.

Thank you for your efforts in facilitating the implementation of these new policies and procedures which will guarantee the educational rights of homeless children in our state. For assistance or further information, please contact your county office of education or the Office of Education for Homeless Children and Youth at (609) 292-8777.
