Association of Research Libraries

Topics related to research library interlibrary loan staffing and organizational structures were explored through a survey conducted by the Systems and Procedures Exchange Center (SPEC) of the Association of Research Libraries. Data gathered from 82 libraries show a very small increase in the number of full-time equivalents in loan units between 1987 and 1992, with a static number of professionals and a slight increase in paraprofessionals and student employees. Lending operations are shown to be more labor-intensive than are borrowing activities. The use of students and paraprofessionals is high because of the many routine processing duties. Interlibrary loan operations generally tend to be part of the reference department or the circulation/access services department. The variety and complexity of new automated systems mean that training is a continuing requirement in loan operations. If interlibrary lending continues its rapid growth, the research library's ability to meet its clientele's needs will continue to be challenged. In addition to the survey results, information and sample documents for organization charts, and professional, support staff, and student job descriptions are included. A list of five selected readings is also provided. Flyer 187 is included, which summarizes the kit. (SLD)

The Systems and Procedures Exchange Center (SPEC) gathers, analyzes, and distributes information on the management of human and material resources in libraries today. Established in 1973, SPEC serves as a central exchange among ARL members for information useful for strengthening library operations and programs. Through survey and review processes, SPEC gathers valuable information on current library issues, trends, and management techniques. The goals of the SPEC program are to identify expertise and encourage its exchange among library professionals, promoting experimentation, innovation and improved performance in the field of library management.

Interlibrary Loan Trends:
Staffing and Organization

September 1992

INTRODUCTION
The volume of interlibrary loan (ILL) activity has skyrocketed in the past decade. The analysis of supply and demand in ARL libraries done by Kendon Stubbs in 1992 includes statistics that show that ILL lending activity increased 45% and borrowing activity increased 47% between 1985/86 and 1990/91.

While the volume of ILL activity has increased, the responses to the 1992 SPEC survey, "Trends in Interlibrary Loan," show that staffing levels in ILL did not increase nearly as dramatically as the workload. SPEC Kit #187 is the second of two SPEC publications examining issues in interlibrary loan. The first, Interlibrary Loan Trends: Making Access a Reality (SPEC Kit #184, May 1992), discussed trends in interlibrary loan by examining operational and managerial changes occurring to the pressure of increasing ILL activity. This SPEC kit focuses on topics related to research library interlibrary loan staffing and organizational structures, including staffing levels; use of professionals, paraprofessionals, and student employees; and reporting relationships.

SURVEY RESULTS
Staffing Issues. The data gathered from the April 1992 SPEC survey show that there was a very small increase in the number of full-time equivalents (FTEs) in ILL units between 1987 and 1992. The average number of professional FTE remained static between 1987 and 1992, and the number of paraprofessional FTE increased only slightly from 6.32 to 6.73. The use of student employees also increased only incrementally from 1.94 FTE in 1987 to 2.38 FTE in 1992. These figures include data gathered from CISTI, the National Library of Canada, the National Agricultural Library, and the National Library of Medicine, each of which operates a large document delivery/interlibrary loan service that employs a relatively large number of paraprofessionals. If these libraries are excluded from the FTE counts in the surveys, the trend in number of paraprofessional FTE is similar--a slight increase from 4.31 FTE to 4.71 FTE--but the overall staffing levels are lower.

Lending operations were shown to be more labor-intensive than borrowing activities, due to the high volume of activity. The average lending unit is comprised of 0.75 FTE professionals, 4.45 FTE paraprofessionals, and 1.55 FTE students, for a total of 6.56 FTE. (If the large lending operations in the libraries mentioned above are eliminated, the FTE counts average 0.75 FTE professionals, 2.34 FTE paraprofessionals, 1.55 FTE students, and 4.19 FTE total staff.)

Because many of the duties of lending unit staff require routine processing of incoming ILL requests, the use of paraprofessionals and students is high. On the other hand, borrowing requires substantial bibliographic expertise and computer skills. The breakdown of staffing shows 0.55 FTE professionals, 2.53 FTE paraprofessional, and 0.83 FTE students for a total of 3.81 FTE engaged in borrowing activities. Use of students is less prevalent in borrowing units than in lending units, probably because of the level of expertise required in borrowing.

A large percentage of libraries (63%) report that a librarian is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the ILL unit. This appears to be a controversial issue in many libraries; the ILL electronic discussion list has hosted several impassioned discussions concerning the value of an ILL unit head with an M.L.S. as opposed to a non-M.L.S. unit head. Whether or not the unit head has an M.L.S., the job responsibilities described in the position descriptions received have similar requirements; positions requiring an M.L.S., however, appear to do so because they include reference and collection development responsibilities, not because an M.L.S. is an absolute necessity for management of the ILL unit. It also appears that there has been substantial turnover in the management of ILL units within the past five years: 52% of the respondents indicate that the head of ILL has been in this position for five years or less, and another 4% of the management positions were vacant when the survey was taken.

Reporting Lines. The survey results show that ILL operations tend to be either part of the reference department or the circulation/access services department. In a very few cases (10%) ILL lending and borrowing are split and have different reporting lines.

Training Needs. A variety of automated ILL systems, including electronic messaging systems (OCLC, RLIN, WLN), fax machines, and electronic imaging systems, allow requests to be transmitted electronically and, thus, have increased efficiency of ILL operations despite increased activity levels. The increasing variety and complexity of the automated systems used in ILL operations may necessitate review of specific job responsibilities for positions within the ILL unit to determine if appropriate classification levels have been assigned. The need for staff training programs will remain high, as will the need for creative ways to provide up-to-date training programs on an efficient, cost-effective basis.

Organizationaly, the reduction in acquisitions activity due to decreasing budgets may present an opportunity to redirect staff by combining acquisitions operations with ILL operations to create a "document delivery department." While to date no ARL libraries have made this organizational change, it may be an option that would allow a library to redirect existing staff as part of providing access rather than ownership.

ISSUES AND TRENDS

The research library's ability to meet the needs of the library's clientele will continue to be challenged if ILL activity continues its rapid growth. To meet the increasing demand for materials not owned locally, research libraries must carefully evaluate and revamp their document delivery and interlibrary loan operations to take advantage of emerging technologies as well as new commercial document delivery services. Development of user-initiated mechanisms, allowing clients to request materials directly from other institutions or commercial suppliers, would improve operational efficiency.

The variety and complexity of the automated systems used in ILL operations may necessitate review of specific job responsibilities for positions within the ILL unit to determine if appropriate classification levels have been assigned. The need for staff training programs will remain high, as will the need for creative ways to provide up-to-date training programs on an efficient, cost-effective basis.

SUBJECT: SPEC Survey and Call for Documents on Trends in Interlibrary Loan Operations

This SPEC survey seeks to document current trends in interlibrary loan. Of particular interest are four broad categories of information: 1) reimbursement of net lenders; 2) sources of funding for ILL charges; 3) ILL borrowing arrangements and agreements; and 4) reasons and policies for charging. Also of interest are trends in staffing, document delivery, and commercial suppliers.

This survey should be completed by the head of interlibrary loan or by the person who coordinates interlibrary loan activities for the library system. If borrowing and lending operations are split, the persons responsible for the two units may want to cooperate in completing this questionnaire.

Consult the glossary below and use the backs of pages to complete answers as necessary. Whenever appropriate, please provide copies of any documents related to the following aspects of interlibrary loan: annual reports, fee schedules, guidelines and policies, mission or goals statements, planning documents, policy manuals, and turnaround time studies.

Please return this survey and relevant documents by May 29, 1992 to the ARL Office of Management Services, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036. If you have any questions, call Brigid Welch at the OMS Office, (202) 232-8656.

GLOSSARY

Cooperative and/or reciprocal arrangements: A formal or informal arrangement where libraries agree to not to charge or to charge the same rate for similar services.

Document delivery service: A company or service which supplies documents for a fee. The typically specialize in quick turnaround and customized delivery options (e.g., British Library Document Delivery Service, EI, etc.)

Information brokers: Individuals or companies which provide professional library services including reference, research, and document delivery.

Net lender: Library which lends more items to libraries than it borrows from other libraries.

13. Is the library planning to make any changes in the ILL fee structures in the next year?

   Yes
   No

   If yes, please describe change briefly and give reasons why.

14. What is the rationale for charging other institutions for items you lend through ILL?

   To recoup some of the costs
   To recoup all of the costs
   To discourage excessive ILL requests
   Other (please specify):

15. Is the library reimbursed as a net lender (lends more items than it borrows)?

   Yes
   No. If not, skip to question #16.

   a. If yes, by whom is it reimbursed? (Check all that apply.)

   State library
   University administration
   Other (please specify): RLG

16. Do net lender agreements extend beyond your state or province?

   Yes
   No

   a. If yes, how is reimbursement made?

   Periodic payments
   Coupons
   Other (please describe):

17. To what extent does the amount of reimbursement for net lending cover the direct costs of lending materials through ILL?

   Total indirect costs covered
   Partial direct costs are recovered: %

18. If other institutions charge you for items borrowed through ILL, how are these charges handled?

   Total charges are passed on to the borrowing patron.
   Total charges are partially subsidized, with the remainder passed on to the borrowing patron.
   Amount of subsidy: $12.89 avg
   All charges are paid by the library; no charges are passed on to the borrowing patron.
   Other (please specify):
19. If the library pays some or all of the charges for items borrowed through ILL, what is the source of funding to cover these charges?

- 22 Lending fees are used to offset borrowing fees.
- 30 Funded from library materials/collection budget.
- 28 Funded from library operations budget.
- 1 Funded from indirect cost recovery (research, grant) funds from campus.
- 2 Don't know.
- 2 Other (please specify):

20. Is the ILL (borrowing and lending) operation involved in cross-border ILL traffic?

- 74 Yes. If yes, please describe (Use back of this sheet, if necessary).

INFORMATION ACCESS LIBRARIAN
Access Services Department

UCSD is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and specifically seeks candidates who can make contributions in an environment of cultural and ethnic diversity.

The University and the Library

The University of California, San Diego (UCSD), has an enrollment of approximately 17,600 and employs 3,900 faculty and other academicians, and over 11,000 non-academic staff. The main academic units are five undergraduate colleges, a division of graduate studies and research, the School of Medicine, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, the Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies, and University Extension. Although a relatively young institution, UCSD has developed distinguished academic programs. It ranks seventh nationally in annual receipt of federal funds for research and development and is one of fifty-two members of the Association of American Universities. The University Library, a member of the Association of Research Libraries, consists of the Central University Library, the Biomedical and Medical Center Libraries, the Undergraduate Library, the Science & Engineering Library, the Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies Library, and the Scripps Institution of Oceanography Library. The combined collections total 1.9 million volumes. Online integrated technical and public services are supported by the combined INNOPAC and INNOVACQ systems. The Library is in the early stages of developing a "Library Without Walls" to provide remote access to and delivery of both information and the collections of the Library.

The Access Services Department

The Access Services Department of the Central University Library is comprised of a variety of units, including circulation, reserves, stacks maintenance, billing, interlibrary loan, document delivery, intercampus van, security, current periodicals, newspapers, microforms, physical facilities, and the Library Annex. An energetic group of 33 FTE staff and approximately 26 FTE student assistants provide assistance at two public service desks and carry out numerous special projects. In the past year the department has automated its circulation operations, has moved 350,000 volumes to a new Library Annex, and has successfully introduced LIBRARY EXPRESS, an on-campus document delivery system to the UCSD community. As construction progresses on the addition to the Central University Library, each unit within the department will play a key role in maintaining and expanding access to information resources at UCSD and elsewhere.
Responsibilities

Under the general direction of the Head, Access Services Department, the Information Access Librarian is responsible for development and implementation of electronic access mechanisms for information retrieval and operation of LIBRARY EXPRESS (an on-campus document delivery system). The incumbent will supervise the information service provided at the Information Desk and will supervise the heads of Current Periodicals, Newspapers, and Microforms Unit, and the Interlibrary Loan Unit. Acts as the Access Services liaison to other public and technical services departments in the UCSD Library. The librarian will perform special projects as assigned and participate in circulation activities and management of the Access Services Department.

Qualifications

Required qualifications include an M.L.S. from an ALA-accredited library school; at least three years' experience in a public services department of an academic, research, or large public library; reference experience; interlibrary loan experience; knowledge of and experience using online systems, microcomputers, and electronic tools for document delivery; supervisory experience, demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills. Desirable qualifications include circulation experience; experience with automated circulation systems; experience in writing and producing public relations materials; budgetary experience; familiarity with issues related to periodical, newspaper, and microform collections in academic libraries; and experience in developing and implementing innovative information services. Appointment at the Associate Librarian rank requires superior qualifications and experience. UCSD Librarians, as academic employees, are expected to participate in librarywide activities and to be active professionally.

Benefits

Librarians at UCSD are academic appointees and are entitled to 16 hours per month of annual leave, eight hours per month of sick leave, reductions in incidental fees, and all other perquisites granted to non-faculty academic personnel. The University has an excellent retirement system and sponsors a variety of group health, dental, vision, disability, automobile and life insurance plans, as well as group legal services and a tax-savings program.

Applications received by June 30, 1990 will be assured of consideration. Submit a letter of application, enclosing a résumé and a list of references to:

Janet Tait
Assistant for Academic Personnel

University of California, San Diego
La Jolla, CA 92093

Responsibilities: Reports to the Director of Departmental Library Services. Has direct responsibility for the organization and management of the Research and Reference Center in the provision of quality interlibrary loan, photoduplication, and reference services to the residents of Illinois. Prepares budget requests, maintains required statistics, supervises and motivates staff to a high level of productivity, presents written and oral reports and participates in training of University and network staff. Maintains working relationships with other units of the Library to expedite the provision of materials and services to users in Illinois outside the immediate academic community of the University. Must play an active leadership role in the ILLINET community as well as participate in appropriate meetings and workshops as the representative of the University of Illinois Library.

Department: The Illinois Research and Reference Center is responsible for providing interlibrary loan service to both U.S. and international libraries, thereby making the UIUC Library the second heaviest interlibrary lender among ARL libraries. In addition, the Research and Reference Center also provides bibliographic/reference services to participating libraries in the state's nationally renowned multitype library network, ILLINET. It is a high volume, fast paced office processing more than 172,000 inter-library loan and 2,400 reference requests annually. Staff includes 3.25 FTE professional librarians, 1 FTE graduate assistant, 12.5 FTE support staff, and 17 student assistants.

Qualifications: Required: Master's degree in Library Science from an ALA accredited library school or equivalent degree; at least three years professional library experience, including at least two years of managerial/supervisory experience; working experience with a variety of interlibrary loan systems; experience in networks of a large interlibrary loan department; a commitment to statewide resource sharing; demonstrated facility in written and oral communication; and evidence of research orientation and ability to meet university requirements for promotion and tenure. Preferred: Working knowledge of OCLC and automated systems; demonstrated ability to function in large, complex library organizations.

Salary & Rank: Librarians have faculty status. For this position the salary is $26,000 and upward for appointment as Assistant Professor and $24,000 and upward for appointment as Associate Professor, depending on qualifications and scholarly credentials. Librarians must meet general university requirements for promotion and tenure (librarian-ship, research, publication, university/professional service).

Terms of Appointment: Twelve months appointment; 24 work days vacation per year; 11 paid holidays; 12 days annual sick leave (accumulative up to a maximum of 240 days) plus an additional 13 days per year if necessary; paid hospitalization for all employees (coverage for dependents may be purchased); participation in the University Retirement System is compulsory upon appointment (8% of staff member's salary is withheld and is tax exempt until retirement); newly hired University employees are now covered by the Medicare portion of Federal Social Security and are subject to its deduction.

Campus & Community: Urbana-Champaign, located about 135 miles south of Chicago, is a university community of over 100,000 inhabitants, including a student population of over 35,000 and an administrative, academic and support staff of over 12,000. Many departments and colleges have outstanding reputations for research achievement. The Library ranks first in size among state university libraries and third among all universities.

Apply: Send letter of application and complete resume with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of five references to Allen G. Dries, Library Personnel Manager, Library Personnel Office, 127 Library, University of Illinois Library at Urbana-Champaign, 1408 West Gregory Drive, Urbana, Illinois 61801 Phone (217) 333-8169.

Deadline: For maximum consideration, applications and nominations should be received no later than August 15, 1988.

I. INTRODUCTION

The incumbent of this position serves as the Interlibrary Loan Coordinator within the Collection Access Section within the Public Services Division. The Collection Access Section is responsible for interpreting and implementing the Library's interlibrary loan policy, retrieving collection items needed for loan or reader use, and maintaining the Library's collection, and oversight of the Library's automated interlibrary loan system. The purpose of this position is to provide professional support to the Library's interlibrary loan program.

II. MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Plans, controls and coordinates the activities of the Library's interlibrary loan program, including the activities of professional, paraprofessional, and student staff. Plans work to be accomplished by subordinate elements, establishes priorities and follows through for accomplishment; monitors productivity of library technicians involved with interlibrary loan; makes decisions on work problems presented by subordinate supervisors; collaborates with heads of other units to negotiate and coordinate interrelated matters; advises Head and Assistant Head of Section on problems involving major programs, having significant impact on these programs; evaluates subordinate supervisors and reviews evaluations made by them; makes effective selection recommendations for subordinate personnel; responds to grievances and employee complaints, and takes appropriate disciplinary problems; recommends appropriate training for subordinate staff; and consults with administrative officers, personnel specialists, etc. concerning other matters.

B. Plans and administers a coordinated program of interlibrary loan involving libraries in the United States and abroad, and corresponds with these libraries to ensure that the National Library of Medicine is providing the highest level of document delivery service. Sees that loans are promptly and effectively processed.

1. Provides guidance and technical assistance to subordinate staff, particularly pertaining to the handling of the more difficult or unusual requests and the application and interpretation of the National Library of Medicine's policies, procedures, and standards to determine acceptability of requests.

2. Performs a variety of assignments related to processing and bibliographic reference functions including development of data collection methods and analysis of operating statistics. Prepares reports, reviews procedures and workflow and undertakes procedural training and development of instructional materials.

3. Searches or supervises searching of pertinent indexes, abstracts bibliographies, manual catalogs and on-line files, to respond to requests for assistance from network libraries.

4. Works closely with the Collection Maintenance Librarian and the Senior Reference Librarian to initiate requests to other organizational elements of the Library to revise or correct errors in records, listings, etc. discovered during the performance of assigned duties and to procure additional material for the collection.

5. Collects information and drafts correspondence interpreting policies and programs relating to the Library's interlibrary loan service.

6. Performs studies to provide management information on document delivery, including analyzing operating procedures and policies to effect improvements related to document delivery.

7. Carries out special projects relating to loan and bibliographic reference service for NLM management and patrons which require indepth knowledge of the collection. Must determine availability of items requested, normally on a rush basis, for Congress, the Executive Branch, the White House, etc. and follows through on arrangements for delivery of requested documents.

8. Incumbent is responsible for maintaining the Section's Reference Collection, including coordinating recommendations for selection of material, collection inventories, weeding of the collection, requests for updated editions, and other maintenance of these bibliographic tools. Provides training to other professional and paraprofessional staff in use of this collection.

C. Serves as the Project Officer on contracts which are directly involved with document delivery. Incumbent will be responsible for contract administration, including the training of contractor staff, the monitoring of contract progress and tracking expenditures. Takes action to resolve all problems that impede the prompt handling of all requests for documents.

D. Officially represents NLM at professional meetings and provides an effective interface between the Library and outside organizations.

E. Performs other duties as assigned.
III. SUPERVISION AND GUIDANCE RECEIVED

Works under the general supervision of the Assistant Head, Collection Access Section, who provides guidelines as to the overall objectives and mission of the Section. On own initiative, incumbent plans work and independently performs duties, exercising considerable judgment in making a wide variety of operating decisions. Work projects are discussed in outline with the supervisor, but successful completion of the assignment is the responsibility of the incumbent. Supervisor is notified about unanticipated problems. Performance is evaluated in terms of soundness of conclusions reached and recommendations made, the quality of finished products, and the effectiveness in carrying out the mission of the Section's interlibrary loan service.

IV. OTHER SIGNIFICANT FACTS

Incumbent must have a Masters Degree in Library Science or equivalent experience. This position also requires specialized education and/or experience in document delivery, preferably with medical information; and extensive experience and proficiency in online bibliographic searching. Incumbent must also have progressive experience in document delivery, or related area such as access services; and, at least three years of supervisory experience and a working knowledge of the National Library of Medicine's online systems.

Position Description

Title: Reference Librarian/Coordinator for Interlibrary Loan Services
Incumbent: Kathryn Ryan-Zeugner

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Participates in the provision of reference services to Hesburgh Library’s clientele. Supervises the Interlibrary Loan unit. Develops the collection in assigned areas. Reports to the Head of Reference.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

1. Provides introductory, advanced, and specialized reference service, including the use of computerized sources, in the Hesburgh Library.

2. Aids students, faculty, staff, and visitors in making effective use of the Libraries’ catalogs and the Reference Department’s resources and services.

3. Participates in bibliographic instruction by giving tours, teaching classes, and developing appropriate informational aids and user guides.

4. Searches online databases as needed, particularly RLIN for interlibrary loan purposes.

5. Supervises the operation of the Interlibrary Loan unit. (See full position description, attached.)

6. Develops the Libraries’ collection in the area of anthropology, and serves as a member of the three-person Reference Collection Development team.

7. Assists in the formulation and implementation of policies within the Reference Department.

8. Participates in meetings of the Reference Department, and serves on library and/or University committees.

9. Maintains an active professional life demonstrated by participation in the meetings and activities of appropriate professional associations and/or by productive scholarship.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Graduate degree from an ALA-accredited program. Two years experience in reference or interlibrary loan work. Strong public service orientation; ability to work harmoniously with others and to communicate ideas effectively in oral and written form. Supervisory experience and familiarity with one or more foreign languages highly desirable.
Title: Coordinator for Interlibrary Loan Services

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Directs the operations of the Interlibrary Loan unit. Plans, implements and evaluates the service and supervises its personnel. Responsible to the Head of Reference.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES:

1. Hires, evaluates, and participates in the training of the personnel of the Interlibrary Loan unit, which currently consists of one full-time Library Associate, one full-time Library Assistant, one three-quarter-time Business Clerk, one three-quarter-time Library Assistant, 1.0 FTE student employees, and a half-time Library Assistant who reports to the Assistant Director for User Services.

2. Assists in the borrowing operation by verifying difficult citations and searching RLIN for elusive materials.

3. Advises Interlibrary Loan staff in the proper handling of problem situations or in cases of special needs.

4. Monitors and evaluates local interlibrary loan activities, using statistics and other reports to document trends, recommend policies and procedures, and investigate service or operational problems.

5. Maintains awareness of national developments in the profession, in technology, and in scholarly research and communication; incorporates these as appropriate into local interlibrary loan operations.

6. Monitors the interlibrary loan budget. Documents changes in cost situation to alert others to the need for additional funding, as needed.

7. Explores nontraditional methods of obtaining materials which are difficult to procure via standard interlibrary loan practice. Maintains awareness of availability of higher-cost but speedy sources of materials.

8. Investigates campus-wide needs for access to items not owned by this University.

9. Represents the University Libraries at local, regional, and national meetings relating to interlibrary loan.

Work Performed

This position has primary responsibility for automation management within the Interlibrary Loan (ILL) Department. ILL has become increasingly dependent on a wide variety of automated systems including national bibliographic utilities, OCLC and RLIN; local systems including NOTIS and/or CARL; E-mail access including ONTME II, DOCLINE, and local campus ethernet connections; facsimile transmission including Group III fax connections and RLG document transmission workstation using Group IV fax capability; dial-up library catalogs accessed via INTERNET; dial-up databases for verification, such as DIALOG and EPIC; and local statistics and file maintenance including ILLRKS and modification of RBase, PC-File, and LOTUS. In addition to maintenance, training, and troubleshooting responsibilities for ILL automation activities, this position oversees both the Borrowing Unit and Lending Unit, assisting with bibliographic expertise and coordination of workflow for maximizing staff (including student assistants) throughout the department.

Reporting line: Reports directly to the Interlibrary Loan Librarian.

Supervision: Supervises LAII (Borrowing Unit) and LAII (Lending Unit.) Ensures maintenance of workflow throughout the department to allow consistent service to CSUL patrons while maintaining responsibilities to other libraries.

Back-up duties: Supervision/management of Borrowing and Lending Unit in absence of either LAII unit head.
Duties: (in priority order)

35% Automation management. Includes maintenance, troubleshooting and training responsibilities for all automated systems used in the department. Maintain and update OCLC terminal software and microenhancer software; training staff for each update; maintain ILLRKS files including back-up procedures; modify software as needed for statistics/file maintenance including COLONET requirements, USDA Document Delivery requirements, copyright files, and collection development needs within the libraries. Train new staff, including changing student makeup, on use of computer related hardware and software. Install and troubleshoot computer related hardware and software. Coordinate all fax activity.

30% Assists with problem resolution in both borrowing and lending. Completes verification of very difficult bibliographic data using sophisticated indexes and abstracts and searching on-line data bases. Contacts users/other libraries concerning difficulties/clarification with their requests. Assigns locations for difficult requests and maintains files of unusual locations requiring complex access procedures. Recommend and assist with negotiation of reciprocal agreements for the benefit of CSUL.

15% Patron assistance. Explains to library users how to use Interlibrary Loan, interpreting complex interlibrary loan policies. Gives bibliographic assistance for locating additional information about desired items and advises patrons on how to obtain specialized materials not owned by CSUL.

15% Supervision/training of LAII (Borrowing) and LAII (Lending).

10% Administrative Tasks. Performs a variety of compilation, statistical and record keeping tasks as needed.
This position is responsible for accomplishment of daily activities necessary to carry out the goals of the Interlibrary Loan Borrowing Unit within the Interlibrary Loan Department. This unit functions to provide materials not available in the University Libraries to members of the university community as efficiently as possible.

Supervision: Supervises Library Assistant 1A (Borrowing); ensures borrowing workflow continues smoothly with overdues handled in a timely manner and files well maintained to reflect all status changes. Assigns duties as necessary to LA1A to supplement student assistants.

Supervises/trains student assistants to perform the functions of: transmitting requests by RLIN, OCLC, ONTYME II, typing, or FAX; checking CSUL holdings; copyright file maintenance; checking-in material (shared with Library Assistant 1A).

Back-up Duties: Fills in for Library Assistant 1A (Borrowing).

This position is backed up by the ILL Library Technician.

Duties: (in priority order)

35% Bibliographic verification of borrowing requests using primarily RLIN and OCLC; assigns locations to requests.

20% Supervision/training of Library 1A (Borrowing) and student assistants. Management of borrowing workflow.

20% Patron assistance -- How to use ILL; bibliographic assistance/advice; identify area locations; contact patrons for clarification of requests.

15% Process unfilled requests.

10% Maintain message files on RLIN, OCLC and ONTYME II. Terminal scheduling. Verify CSUL holdings.

Please Specify

(c) What special skills or training are needed to perform job or operate equipment? (e.g. word processing, computer programming, CPR, etc.)

Competent, accurate typing (45-50 wpm); experience with telecommunication networks (ROLMNET, DATAPAC, etc.) telecommunication software; electronic mail services (Envoy, Can/Doc, CoSY, etc.) and their command languages; microcomputers, including operating systems (PC/MS DOS) software (telecommunications, word processing, ILL specific) file maintenance (back-up and restore procedures).

(d) Specify what equipment you operate on the job (e.g. floor polisher, photocopier, microscope, etc.)

Video display terminal; paper cutter; electric typewriter; microcomputer, photocopier, microfilm copier; microfiche reader printer, FAX machine.

4. RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

(a) How much concentrated, "on-the-job" learning time would you estimate should be required for a new person with education as in #3 to achieve competence on this job? (Experience may be gained on this and/or other jobs.)

1 to 2 months.

(b) Please elaborate on what type of experience must be obtained.

Specific Interlibrary Loan computer program; various electronic mail system protocols; sending and receiving ILL; invoice, billing and accounting program; filing; compiling online searching of items requested for Interlibrary Loan from bibliographic databases; billing and accounting procedures (within University and for outside requests); knowledge of procedures in areas of the Library which interface with the Interlibrary Loan section (Collection Maintenance, subject divisions).

5. INITIATIVE (INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION)

(a) List 3 decisions you make or duties you perform without subsequent checks or reference to a supervisor.

1. When and where to send requests.
2. Renewals -- guidance to user.
3. Cancellations -- guidance to user.

(b) List 3 decisions on which you seek consultation with, or approval from a supervisor.

1. Thesis requests.
2. Problem or delinquent ILL patrons (i.e., patron refusing to pay a bill because of delay in receiving material).
3. Hardware/software problems or errors.

(c) What guidelines, procedures, manuals, etc. are available to guide your decision-making and actions?

University of Guelph Library Policies & Procedures; Public Service Procedures Manual; Policies from other Libraries; Bibliographic searching tools, publishers' directories, cooperative union serials list for Ontario Libraries, etc., Ontario Council of Universities Directory, Union Lists, Electronic memos from other institutions; Directory of Interlibrary Loan Policies & Photocopy Services in Canadian Libraries; telephone directories.

(d) State any financial responsibilities (and amounts) your job involves e.g. budget, sales, revenues, ordering of supplies.

Cheques received for payment ($3.00 - $500.00). Approx. 300-400 per year.
6. IMPACT OF ERRORS

Describe examples of typical major errors that could reasonably occur in your major activities listed in #2, even with due care. Indicate the worst consequence e.g. waste, delays, time lost, money lost, injury, damage, effect on people.

- An incorrect decision as to which library should receive the request could result in delayed receipt of material by the patron who could be working to a deadline; unnecessary charges to the University or excessive charges to the patron; and bad relations with external libraries.
- Inattention to details (i.e., date, amount willing to pay) on Interlibrary request forms could lead to unnecessary charges to the University. Incorrect billing, inadequate follow-up of requests received and books to be returned could result in bad public relations with external libraries, thereby jeopardizing our borrowing privileges.
- Telecommunications problems resulting in delays in sending requests.

7. WORKING WITH OTHERS (Excluding those supervised - See 9)

With whom are you required to work in doing your job? Use titles. Indicate purpose of contact (e.g. counselling, providing or seeking information, conflict resolution, consultation). Indicate the frequency as daily (D), weekly (W), monthly (M), quarterly (Q), annually (A)

Position Description

Office Manager -- ILL
Library Assistant

Department: Periodical Information and Access Services
Division: Interlibrary Loan, Room 222
Immediate supervisor: Jeanne M. Langendorfer, Head, Periodical Information and Access Services

A. Duties and Responsibilities

Public Service: 20%

I answer the phone, and route calls when necessary. This includes answering patrons' inquiries and solving problems with other ILL offices across the country.

I assist patrons by answering their questions, facilitating problem-solving, and helping them complete forms.

Records Management: 40%

I manage overdues for books and photocopies (Borrowing) by corresponding with and calling our patrons, and contacting other ILL offices to resolve problems.

I manage two database programs. I update fields in the database and type mail requests. I generate invoices and reports (such as Copyright Compliance lists and collection development reports), and print ALA mail requests and statistics.

I manage paper files for active and inactive borrowing and lending requests.

Other: 40%

I receive, process, and mail approximately 75 photocopies per day to our patrons.

I operate the telefacsimile machine for ILL. This includes sending and receiving approximately 300 items/month. I interact with patrons and other Library and University departments to send and receive mail, and contact fax recipients. I compile telefacsimile statistics for accounting purposes.
A. Duties and Responsibilities (cont.)

I search OCLC to answer patrons' questions. Occasionally, I update request status and search and input requests.

I sort outgoing mail and open, sort, and distribute incoming mail.

I receive payments and balance cash box.

I order and receive supplies for interlibrary loan.

I fill-in for others in Periodical Information and Access Services when necessary.

B. Complexity

The most complex part of this job is balancing the varied tasks to be done with phone and in-person service. The worker must constantly judge tasks to be done at a given time and initiate the task. Since there are many files to maintain, and varied tasks, the work must be kept well-organized.

C. Supervisory Responsibility: Students

D. Contacts:

1. University students, faculty and staff.

2. Other business, hospital and institution libraries' interlibrary loan staff.

E. Work schedule: M - F, 8am - 12am, 1pm - 5pm.

F. Unusual Physical Requirements/Working Conditions of the Position: None

G. Skill/Abilities:

   Ability to organize work flow.
   Ability to balance numerous job tasks with public service tasks.
   Ability to work well with people in a public service environment.
   Ability to initiate job-related tasks.
   Ability to use a microcomputer.
   Ability to maintain and manipulate database programs.

H. Equipment operated: microcomputer, NOTIS terminal, OCLC terminal, photocopier, printer, telefacsimile machine.

8% I receive requests for photocopies and loan of materials through the OCLC ILL subsystem, telefacsimile machine and mail.

15% I group the requests for processing on the basis of what is requested and by whom. I keep statistics for the following categories: KSU Regional Campus Libraries, other colleges and universities, hospitals, businesses and commercial enterprises, as well as for the way ILL requests are received: FAX, mail, and OCLC.

22% I manage the flow of work:

(a) I determine the order for processing requests by an ongoing evaluation of the current work situation (time and staffing) and the priority of the requests;
(b) I integrate continuous receipt of requests into the days' work;
(c) I assign the work to students and supervise their
   (1) retrieving of books and journals
   (2) photocopying of material
   (3) preparing and packing of books for mailing;
(d) I solve problems that students find as they look for material.

0-50% I process lending requests myself when short of students.

8% I charge out books on NOTIS, including making patron records and item records.

13% I input and use information in SAVEIT (an interlibrary loan statistics database). Pending records from OCLC are uploaded and converted to the in-process file. I access OCLC records (borrowing, lending) to answer questions and for statistics. I create mail requests, print them, and access them to answer questions and for statistics.
I send messages to other libraries, using the OCLC ILL Subsystem, to answer their requests, to renew books borrowed, and to check the status of material. Also, at the end of each day, I type into the Microenhancer the ILL numbers of all the requests we have answered that day.

I communicate with and maintain effective working relations with other library departments, branch libraries, and interlibrary loan offices to clarify requests, solve problems, and exchange information on policies and individual transactions. I develop reciprocity agreements with other libraries.

I follow established procedures in determining if an item is to be lent or photocopied, when exceptions to lending policies can be made, in determining how an item will be delivered (courier, mail, UPS, Federal Express, telefacsimile, etc.), and suggest policy changes.

I print out several reports: 1) collection development librarian's list, 2) monthly statistics for borrowing and lending, 3) a statistics profile of any borrower or lender for any time period; 4) or a statistics profile of any group (NEDMARL, reciprocals, etc.). I archive statistics gathered during each month on storage disks.

I answer the phone and the telefacsimile, and assist patrons who come into the Office.

B. Complexity:

This job requires considerable experience and knowledge with OCLC ILL subsystem; employee independently interprets, adapts or verifies highly complex records, data and/or policies.

D. Contacts:

1. Internal Contacts:
   a. Library Departments: Acquisitions, Reference
   b. Faculty, students, staff.

2. External Contacts:
   a. Other libraries and lending agencies.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Borrowing Coordinator -- ILL

Library Associate II

Section I
Department: Periodical Information and Access Services
Division: Interlibrary Loan Office, Room 222
Immediate Supervisor: Jeanne M. Langendorfer, Head, Periodical Information and Access Services

A. Duties and Responsibilities:

1. I process ILL requests for KSU patrons by
   a. receiving requests each morning;
   b. counting and recording numbers of requests for loans of material and for photocopies of articles or excerpts from books or periodicals, and recording the number of requests already searched;
   c. searching each request on OCLC to find the bibliographic record(s) which identify it, and then to find the list of libraries which own the material;
   d. choosing 5 libraries from which to borrow; and
   e. writing the OCLC number and the 3-letter symbols for each holding library on the request form.

2. I advise patrons if
   a. KSU is included in the list of holdings in OCLC for the item they have requested through ILL. Using CATALYST to find the location in this library, I inform the patron of its availability here.
   b. problems arise with the patron's request: more information needed, more money needed to fill the request, etc.

3. I pass the request to the Renegotiation Coordinator if the material cannot be found or obtained through OCLC,

4. I enter the requests into the ILL subsystem on OCLC.

5. I use OCLC to find the due date and to signal the lending library that the material has been received.

6. I file request forms by patron name if a student is not available.
7. I prepare the borrowed books for patrons if a student is not available by
   a. finding the request form
   b. photocopying the patron notice
   c. banding each book for identification
   d. placing each item in the cabinet for patron pick-up

8. I maintain office work flow by assessing how the day's work is progressing. If there are any problems (bottlenecks, etc.) I assign the work to students or do it myself.

9. I assist in evaluating students.

10. I assist in solving student/staff problems.

11. I assist in policy- and decision-making in ILL. In the absence of the PIAS supervisor, I make necessary decisions.

12. I cover for absent ILL personnel (phones, etc.)

Section I
Department: Periodical Information and Access Services
Division: Interlibrary Loan Office, Room 222
Immediate Supervisor: Jeanne M. Langendorfer, Head, Periodical Information and Access Services

A. Duties and Responsibilities:

1. I take the printed requests (for lending) from the OCLC Message Waiting File, categorize requests and prepare same for student assistants. Requests for materials from libraries other than NEOMARL and Regional Campuses are turned over to Lending Coordinator for further subdivision and allocation.

2. I retrieve books and journals in the absence of student assistants, matching the requests from the OCLC printout. Photocopies of requested articles are made. Everything must be ready for the courier by 10:00 - 10:30am.

3. I deliver and retrieve courier mail.

4. I print out all "conditional" requests (i.e., requests with poor citations or monetary discrepancies) received via OCLC ILL Subsystem, and others received by U.S. Mail, or telefacsimile.

5. I initiate all requests via mail (item is not available on OCLC) including requests to foreign libraries.

6. I maintain office work flow by assessing how the day's work is progressing. If there are any problems (bottlenecks, etc.) I assign the work to students or do it myself.

7. I renegotiate all requests not successfully filled the first time. I work extensively with KSU patrons, by mail and phone, to clarify their requests and keep them informed of progress towards fulfillment of their requests.

8. I search (whether the first time or in renegotiation) in OCLC, the National Union Catalog, or other available sources in an effort to verify existence and location of items of a specialized or esoteric nature.
9. I train and supervise students to request items for our patrons via OCLC and to process incoming materials for KSU patrons. In their absence I do this work.

   a) books are banded and marked with patron’s name, the date, and ILL number.
   b) photocopies are made of the patron’s request form and mailed to notify patron item has arrived.
   c) items are stored on shelf till patron picks them up.

11. I assist in evaluating students.

12. I maintain correspondence and keep pertinent information from the Center for Research Libraries in Chicago.

13. I place KSU requests for articles (photocopy) from University Microfilms International (UMI).

14. I keep UMI dissertation order forms for KSU patrons for use when normal borrowing efforts have been exhausted.

15. I maintain ILL coupons for Libraries which require same for their lending transactions.

17. I assist in solving student/staff problems.

18. I assist in policy- and decision-making in ILL. In the absence of the PIAS supervisor, I make necessary decisions.

19. I cover for absent ILL personnel (phones, etc.)
