This guide is intended for use in a level 2 course in English as a second language that was developed as a component of a workplace literacy program for persons employed in the manufacturing and service industries. The course is structured so that, upon its completion, students will be able to accomplish the following: ask grammatically correct questions in various tenses, give grammatically correct answers in various tenses, ask for and understand oral instructions, read and use various types of literature encountered in the workplace, communicate effectively with coworkers, and build a working English vocabulary for the workplace and beyond. Included in the guide are a course outline and 16 sections of materials on topics such as verb tenses, expression of agreement and disagreement, comparatives and superlatives, count and noncount nouns, phrasal verbs and object pronouns, work vocabulary, and comprehension of literature encountered in the workplace. Each section contains some or all of the following: objectives; lists of topics covered; suggested teaching and evaluation methods, and materials required; teacher tips; student handouts; word lists; and learning activities/exercises. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Mercer County Community College thanks Carol Lewandowski, Senior Education Specialist/Curriculum Developer for creating this manual. Through her valuable contributions employees in manufacturing and service industries learned concepts relevant to their existing jobs and strategies for learning other tasks if the opportunity should arise.
COURSE OUTLINE:

Accent on English

Identifies English problems for non-native speakers. Encourages students to practice speaking, writing, listening, and reading skills using company literature such as procedures, lists, policies, and safety information. Provides strategies for students to improve pronunciation, sentence structure, verb tenses, American idioms, and work vocabulary.

OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Ask grammatically correct questions in various tenses
- Give grammatically correct answers in various tenses
- Ask for and understand oral instructions
- Read and use the literature in the workplace
- Communicate effectively with co-workers
- Build a working English vocabulary for the workplace and beyond
TOPOCAL OUTLINE:

- Simple past tense
- Simple future tense
- Past progressive tense
- Expressing agreement and disagreement
- Comparatives and Superlatives
- Count and noncount nouns
- Phrasal verbs and object pronouns
- Role plays: asking to borrow tools and equipment, reporting incidents in the workplace, asking for information regarding an incident, asking for and giving directions, calling in sick/late, making a doctor’s appointment
- Work vocabulary: tools, safety
- Work literature: company map, instructions, company policies as posted, team building materials

EVALUATION:

- students will be evaluated for written and spoken language skills with interviews and analysis of pre and post-tests
- improvement in learning techniques will be evaluated based on performance in class and on worksheets
- students will perform self-evaluations based on correct completion of worksheets
EMI # SESSION I

OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to explain how long it will take to perform a task, and will express agreement or disagreement.

TOPICS:
- questions using "how long does it take you to?"
- long and short answers with "it takes me . . ."
- negative answers with "it doesn't take me . . ."
- Q & A role plays: so do I / neither do I
- Q & A role plays: so am I / neither am I

METHODS:
- role plays
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:
- express time it takes to perform a task
- express agreement or disagreement

Students will make fewer errors in using the time estimation structure, and will be able to express how long something will take them in the workplace.

REVIEW

Question words:

WHO = person (subject)
WHAT = thing (subject/object)
WHERE = place
WHEN = time
HOW = in what way
WHY = reason
HOW MANY = quantity
HOW OFTEN = frequency
WHAT KIND OF = type
We use the expression "it takes me" to show the duration of an action that we do. For example, if I go to Philadelphia at 8:00 and arrive at 9:00, then it takes me one hour to get to Philadelphia.

The "it takes" stays the same in the present tense, but the object after it changes:

- it takes me
- it takes you
- it takes him
- it takes her
- it takes it
- it takes us
- it takes you
- it takes them

The structure always stays the same:

It takes me (time period) to do something.

Examples:

- It takes me three hours to drive to Lancaster, Pa.
- It takes the supervisor 15 minutes to make a new schedule.
- It takes us half an hour to finish the lesson.
QUESTION FORMAT

VARIATIONS:

- Sometimes we use this form without the personal pronoun to show that it is a general expression of time.

  How long does it take to go to NY by bus?
  It takes nearly 2 hours to go to NY by bus.

  How long does it take to cash a check?
  It takes 3 minutes to cash a check. But at my bank it takes me 10 minutes!

- Sometimes we use "SHOULD" to show the probable duration:

  It should take me only three minutes to use the MAC machine.

Practice:
Have students practice Q and A technique using "How long does it take?" and "It takes..." and report on each other in the third person.
Use the correct form of "It takes" to answer these questions.

1. How long does it take you to drive to work?

2. How long does it take you to eat lunch?

3. How long does it take to make a complete unit?

4. Does it take 17 hours to fly to Poland?

5. How long does it take to fly to Poland?

6. How long does it take Carol to drive to our company?
IT TAKES

7. How long does it take a package to reach California?

8. How long will it take us to finish this exercise?

9. How long should it take a unit to get to the end of the line?

10. How long should it take to test a unit?
To show agreement, we must use the correct verb tense and helper, along with SO or NEITHER.

4. Your co-worker is having a really good lunch and is talking about food. Agree / disagree with him/her about the types of food.
ESL2 ➤ SESSION 2

OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to do the following:

• use possessives correctly in work related situations

TOPICS:
• possessives

METHODS:
• Q & A practice
• dialogues

EVALUATION:
Students will be able to give information regarding possession and property (whose?) and will be able to discuss their stations.

MATERIALS:
• worksheets

©Mercer County Community College
POSSESSIVES

POSSESSION means that something belongs to someone, or someone owns something.

For example, if the keys belong to Rob, then they are Rob's keys.

To show possession:

• When using a noun or a name, add apostrophes ('s):

  This is Carol's book.
  That is Peter's pencil.
  That is the student's chair.

• Nouns or names ending in s – add only apostrophe ('):

  They are Carlos' glasses.
  This is Luis' apron.
  It is not James' error.

• Plural nouns - s for plural, then ':

  Those are the students' papers.
  They are the workers' helmets.
  Those are not the supervisors' schedules.
POSSESSIVES

BE CAREFUL: you have to be clear when you use possessives (with apostrophes).

Look at the difference between these sentences:

- The supervisors’ lounge is not clean today.
  How many supervisors are using this lounge?

- The supervisor’s lounge is not clean today.
  How many supervisors are using this lounge?

- I put the teacher’s book back in the teachers’ lounge.
  (How many teachers own the book? the lounge?)
Write the correct possessive forms with apostrophes for these sentences.

Example: The coffee belongs to the teacher.
         It is the teacher's coffee.

1. The glasses belong to Tom.
    They are ____________ glasses.

2. The new car belongs to Karen.
    It is ____________ car.

3. The air gun belongs to Luis.
    It is ____________ air gun.

4. The aprons belong to the workers.
    They are ____________ aprons.

5. The notebook belongs to the student.
    It is ____________ notebook.

6. The notebooks belong to the students.
    They are ____________ notebooks.
POSSESSIVES

Possessive pronouns take the place of the name or the noun that owns the thing. For example, this is Susan’s notebook, so it is her notebook. Pronouns must agree in number and in gender (if singular).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>MY</th>

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>YOUR</td>
<td>YOUR</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HIS/HER</td>
<td>THEIR</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ITS</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This is Steve’s air gun.

They are Karen’s keys.

This is the company’s desk.

These pens are Karen and Steve’s.

This book is your book and my book.

It is his air gun.

They are her keys.

It is its desk.

They are their pens.

It is our book.
POSSESSIVES

Use the correct possessive for these sentences.

Example: That is not Gary’s walkie-talkie.
          That is not his walkie-talkie.

1. They are not Luis’ glasses.
   They are not ______________________ glasses.

2. Are those Lorna’s papers?
   Are those ______________________ papers?

3. That is Gary and Ron’s office.
   That is ______________________ office.

4. This is A-Line’s rate.
   This is ______________________ rate.

5. They are not my or your wires.
   They are not ______________________ wires.

6. Is that the supervisor’s timecard?
   Is that ______________________ timecard?
WHOSE is the question word for possession.

The question format that relates to possession is a little unusual!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>?</th>
<th>noun</th>
<th>verb</th>
<th>pronoun</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>book</td>
<td>is</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>papers</td>
<td>are</td>
<td>these?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>shoes</td>
<td>are</td>
<td>these?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>keys</td>
<td>are</td>
<td>they?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>idea</td>
<td>is</td>
<td>it?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WHOSE</td>
<td>apron</td>
<td>is</td>
<td>that?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note:

IT/THIS/THAT = singular (one)
THEY/THESETHOSE = plural (more than one)

Exercise: Have students go around the room and ask each other WHOSE questions and give possessive replies.
WHOSE?

Make the question for these sentences using WHOSE and this/these. Make sure that the verb agrees with the subject.

Example: Look at the book.

   Whose book is this?

1. Look at the notebook.
2. Look at the rivets.
3. Look at the apron.
4. Look at the pair of glasses.
5. Look at the safety shoes.
POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

Sometimes we use these pronouns to avoid repeating the thing that is owned. For example, we can say “It is my book” or “It is mine.”

Note: there is no apostrophe with these pronouns!

This is my book.
That is their room.
Those are his books.
Those are not your notes.
That is not our problem.
Those are not her rivets.

It is mine.
It is theirs.
They are his.
They are not yours.
It’s not ours.
Those aren’t hers.
Is this yours?
No, it’s not mine.
Write the correct possessive pronoun to complete these sentences.

Example: They are my disks.
They are mine.

1. Those are not your clamps.
   Those are not ______________________.

2. These are their rivets.
   These are ________________________.

3. Where are my panels?
   Where are _________________________?

4. Who has her folders?
   Who has _________________________?

5. It is Ron's coffee cup.
   It is _____________________________.

6. This is our room for now.
   It is _____________________________.

MY STATION

Give a description of what your work station is like.

- What is the size?
- Where is your station?
- Who is your supervisor?
- Where is your locker?
- Is the equipment yours?
ESL2 ◆ SESSION 3

OBJECTIVES:
- use "going to" to express simple future
- use expressions for making doctor's appointment
- recognize and use correct terms for body parts

TOPICS:
- "going to"
- vocabulary for illness
- vocabulary for making doctor's appointment
- parts of the body

METHODS:
- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A practice

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:
- convey future time information using "going to"
- call to make a doctor's appointment
- express what is wrong with them to the doctor

MATERIALS:
- worksheets
- tape recorders

©Mercer County Community College
We use "to be going to" in order to show an action that will take place in the future.

Use the verb TO BE plus GOING TO plus another verb – only the verb TO BE changes!

- Tomorrow I am going to work overtime.
  Tomorrow I'm going to work overtime.

- Next week you are going to come to class.
  you're going to come

- Next month she is going to visit her parents.
  she's going to visit

- They are going to ask for a new computer, but they are not going to get it.
  They're going to ask

- We are going to have class in the working room next Thursday.
  We're going to have
GOING TO

Negatives:

- I am not going to work overtime on Friday.
  I'm not going to work

- You are not going to skip class.
  You're not going to skip

- She's not going to take a plane.

- They're not going to win the lottery.

- We're not going to drop the units.
GOING TO

Question Practice:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>?</th>
<th>TO BE</th>
<th>SUBJECT</th>
<th>GOING TO</th>
<th>VERB</th>
</tr>

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

• use modals "can" and "may" correctly
• ask to borrow material

TOPICS:

• tool instructions
• can/may

METHODS:

• dialogues
• Q & A

EVALUATION:

At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

• communicate with co-workers to share equipment

MATERIALS:

• worksheets
• tape recorders
CAN and MAY

CAN = ability
MAY = permission chance

Very often we interchange these two when we ask permission:

Can I use your hammer?
May I use your hammer?

But note the difference here:
I can drive my car. = I am able to drive my car.
I may drive my car. = There is a possibility I will drive my car.
CAN and MAY

QUESTIONS:

In the question form, MAY and CAN are helpers:

CAN and MAY

Short Answers:

Can you speak French?

Positive
Yes, I can.

Negative
No, I can't.
No, I cannot.

May I park here?

Positive
Yes, you may.

Negative
No, you may not.

Student Practice: Have students work on may/can using the QA practice.
CAN and MAY

Use either CAN or MAY (or CAN’T/MAY NOT) to complete these sentences.

1. He _______________ work late on Tuesday.

2. Excuse me, but _______________ I borrow the airgun?

3. It _______________ rain this afternoon.

4. I only have $10 and that _______________ be enough for dinner.

5. Where _______________ I put my safety glasses during class?
#1

Andy: Excuse me. Can I borrow your wrench?
Bill: Sure. Here you are.
Andy: Thanks a lot.
Bill: No problem.

#2

Alex: Excuse me. Can I borrow your hammer?
Bob: I'm sorry. But I don't have one. Go ask Steve.
Alex: Okay. Thanks. Hey, Steve.
Steve: Yeh, what's up?
Alex: Can I borrow your hammer?
Steve: Sure. Here you go.
Alex: Thanks a million!
Steve: No sweat.
#3

Karen: Hey Dan. Can I borrow your screwdriver?
Dan: Sure. But when can you return it?
Karen: Well, do you need it right away?
Dan: No, but I'm going to need it in an hour or so.
Karen: Okay. Let me use it for a minute. I'll bring it back, okay?
Dan: Okay. Just be sure you bring it right back.

#4

Paul: Hey Kathy. Give me your push-pull rod.
Kathy: What do you mean?
Paul: I said give me your push-pull rod.
Kathy: I'm sorry. I'm using it.
Paul: Don't get snappy with me! I only asked to use it.
Kathy: No you didn't! You told me to give it to you.
Paul: Same thing. Gosh, women!
OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use modals "can" and "may" correctly
- ask to borrow material
- use correct count / noncount terms: any/no

TOPICS:

- review of can/may
- any/no

METHODS:

- dialogues
- Q & A

EVALUATION:

At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:
- communicate with co-workers to share equipment

MATERIALS:

- tools (hammer, screwdriver, etc.)
- ask students to bring tools
- worksheets
- tape recorders
ANY and NO are used to show quantity.

ANY = used in a question and in a negative verb statement

NO = used in a positive verb statement

Question: Do you have ANY money?
Answer: No, I don't have ANY money.
No, I have NO money.
Mistake: No, I don't have no money.
(double negative)

Question: Does she eat ANY lunch?
Answer: No, she doesn't eat ANY lunch.
No, she eats NO lunch.
Mistake: No, she don't eat no lunch.
(double negative)

NOTE: SOME can be used for both question and answer:

Do you have some money?
Yes, I have some money.
(But "I don't have some" sounds odd)

However, "some" and "any" are not interchangeable:

Would you like some beer? (quantity)
Would you like any beer? (type? quantity?)
ANY, SOME, and NO

Use the words any, some, or no to complete these sentences.

1. Do you have ____________ money?

2. Yes, I have ____________ money.

3. Does she have ____________ time to eat lunch?

4. No, she doesn't have ____________ time to eat lunch.

5. Do you put ____________ screws in the units?

6. Yes, I put ____________ screws in the units, but I didn't put ____________ screws in the boxes.

7. Because he is so mean, he has ____________ friends.

8. Is there ____________ paper for class?

9. No, there isn't ____________ paper for class, but there are ____________ pencils for class.
ROLE PLAYS

Team up with a partner and make dialogues for these situations.

1. You need some screws to finish up your unit. Ask your co-worker if you can borrow some screws.

2. You forgot your wallet and it's lunchtime. Ask your supervisor for lunch money.

3. You need paper for your notebook. Ask the instructor for paper.

4. You need a new pair of safety glasses. Ask your manager.
ESL2  ◆  SESSION 7

OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use "will" to express the simple future
- call out sick/late

TOPICS:

- "will"
- role plays of calling in sick/late

METHODS:

- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:

At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- convey future time information
- call out when appropriate

MATERIALS:

- tape recorders
- worksheets

WILL and WON'T

WILL expresses the future tense. Here are some time words that show the idea of the future:

- tomorrow
- next week
- next month
- next year
- later
- after . . .
- then

Tomorrow I will work hard.
Next week he will take vacation.
Next month it will be cold.
Next year I will visit my in-laws in Italy.
They will return the tools later.
After lunch we will have a meeting.
Then we will discuss the line problems.
WILL and WON'T

QUESTIONS:

In the question form, WILL and WON'T are helpers:

WILL and WON'T

Short Answers:

Will you come to class tomorrow?

Positive
Yes, I will.

Negative
No, I will not.
No, I won't.

Will it rain this weekend?

Positive
Yes, it will.

Negative
No, it will not.
No, it won't.

CONTRACTIONS:

I will      =      I'll you will    =      you'll he will     =      he'll she will    =      she'll it will     =      it'll we will     =      we'll they will   =      they'll

Student practice:  Have students ask each other questions and respond using WILL and WON'T.
#1

Pat: Will you be in work tomorrow?
Alex: Yes, I will.
Pat: Will you be working first shift?
Alex: Yes, I will. Why do you ask?
Pat: Well, I need a ride to work. My car is in the shop and it won't be out until Friday.
Alex: Okay. I'll give you a ride. What time will you be ready to come to work?
Pat: I'll be ready at 8:00.
Alex: Okay. I'll pick you up at your house at 8:00.
Pat: Great. I'll be ready. I really appreciate it.
Alex: No problem.

Tim: Will you be in tomorrow?
Steve: No, I won't. I have to go to jury duty.
Tim: You're kidding! Will you go to a big, bloody murder trial? Or maybe a mysterious kidnapping trial?
Steve: I don't think so.
Tim: What about a huge robbery trial, with guns and lots of money?
Steve: No. I doubt it. I think it will be a small case.
Tim: That's too bad! I hope you can bring back some good stories.
Steve: Well, we'll see. I'll find out tomorrow morning what kind of trial it is.
Tim: Sounds interesting. Will you tell me all about it on Thursday?
Steve: I won't be here on Thursday either.
Tim: Really? When will you be back?
Steve: I don't know. I'll have to wait and see about the trial.
Tim: Well, good luck!

ROLE PLAYS

Break into pairs and come up with dialogues for the following situations. Use the previous worksheets on body/illness vocabulary if necessary.

1. You are sick and will not be in work tomorrow. Call in sick.

2. Your car breaks down on the way to work and you will be late. Call in late.

3. Your child is sick and you have to take him/her to the doctor. Call in to your boss and explain why you will be late.

4. You lost the video that you rented. Explain to the clerk what you will do.

5. On the line, your co-worker is planning to take vacation. Ask where he/she will go, how long, etc.
OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- recognize and use regular comparative

TOPICS:
- review of "will"
- comparatives

METHODS:
- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- compare and contrast

MATERIALS:
- tape recorders
- worksheets
Comparing two things:

van

![Van Image]

The van costs $27,000. The car costs $20,000.
The van is more expensive than the car.
The car is less expensive than the van.
(For long words to describe, use more/less)

The van is 10 feet long. The car is 6 feet long.
The van is longer than the car.
the car is shorter than the van.
(For short words to describe, add er)
COMPARATIVES

Write comparatives for these pictures.

English notebook                                Blueprint notebook

1. ____________________________________________

2. ____________________________________________
COMPARISON and CONTRAST

When we use a small word, we add ER; if we use a big word, we use more/less. Which would you use for these?

1. expensive
2. tall
3. old
4. effective
5. long
6. capable
Karen Smith
25 years old
5 ft. 5 inches
120 pounds

Susan Poponoupolous
30 years old
5 ft. 7 inches
140 pounds

Compare and contrast these two women.
Spelling rules

- Double the final letter before adding ER if there is not an E at the end and if the ending is vowel then consonant:

  big   bigger

- Do not double the final letter if there is an E -- instead, just add the R:

  nice   nicer

- If the word ends in Y, change it to I and add ER:

  pretty  prettier ugly    uglier happy   happier
COMPARISON and CONTRAST

Using the ER addition, spell out the comparative words.

1. tall
2. short
3. fat
4. easy
5. wise
6. busy
7. late
8. early
9. rich
10. rude
Pair off with another student and do one of the following comparisons/contrasts:

1. your 2 different jobs
2. your two different countries
3. your 2 different cars
4. your 2 different bosses
ESL2  •  SESSION 9

OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use comparatives and superlatives

TOPICS:
- comparing and contrasting two and more items
- spelling rules for EST
- irregular comparative and superlative forms

METHODS:
- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- compare and express their comparisons using the correct comparative/superlative

MATERIALS:
- tape recorders
- worksheets

©Mercer County Community College
SUPERLATIVES

When we compare two things, we use comparatives:

Our company is older than Carrier.
NY is bigger than Trenton.
A Porsche is more expensive than a Ford.

When we compare more than two things and we put one at the top (or bottom), we use superlatives:

- If the word is small, use THE and add EST:

NY is bigger than Trenton. NY is bigger than Paris.
NY is the biggest city in the world.

Our company is older than Carrier. Our company is older than American Standard.
Our company is the oldest company.

- If the word is big, use THE MOST and the word:

A Porsche is more expensive than a Ford and a BMW.
A Porsche is the most expensive car.
BIGGER AND THE BIGGEST

When we use a small word, we add EST; if we use a big word, we use the most / the least. Which would you use for these?

1. expensive
2. tall
3. old
4. effective
5. long
6. capable
SUPERLATIVES

Spelling rules

- Double the final letter before adding EST if there is not an E at the end and if the ending is vowel then consonant:

  - big
  - bigger
  - the biggest

- Do not double the final letter if there is an E -- instead, just add the ST:

  - nice
  - nicer
  - the nicest

- If the word ends in Y, change it to I and add ER:

  - pretty
  - prettier
  - the prettiest
  - ugly
  - uglier
  - the ugliest
  - happy
  - happier
  - the happiest
COMPARISON and CONTRAST

Using the EST addition, spell out the comparative words.

OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use modal "should" correctly
- use superlatives and comparatives
- compare information to give advice

TOPICS:
- modal "should"
- role plays with advice and superlatives/comparatives

METHODS:
- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- compare and express their comparisons using the correct comparatives and superlatives
- give advice using "should"

MATERIALS:
- tape recorders
SHOULD

We use "should" to express duty or obligation, and also to give advice.

\[ \text{SHOULD} + \text{ regular verb form (it never changes)} \]

It is going to rain, so I should bring an umbrella.
They should call their boss if they are going to be late.
We should clean the classroom when we are finished.

Negatives:

Should not = shouldn't

We shouldn't throw our garbage on the floor.
I shouldn't come to work late.
He shouldn't forget to call his sister today.
You shouldn't park in a handicapped parking spot.
Should is also used to show likelihood, or probability:

- It takes me two hours to drive to New York. If I leave at noon, then I should get to New York by 2:00.

- Paul is never late to work. It is nearly 9:15 now, and he should be here any minute.

- Nobody goes to Florida in August, so we should be able to find a hotel room once we get there.

We use should to ask for advice and give advice:

I have a really bad headache. What should I take?
You should take some aspirin.

This morning I feel very tired. What should I do?
You should drink more coffee!

My co-worker is driving me nuts with her gum chewing. What should I do?
You should talk to her about it.

There are no parking spaces left. Do you think I should park in the boss' reserved spot?
No, you shouldn't park there!
SHOULD

Question format: In the question, should is the helper:

<td>X</td>
<td>make</td>
<td>the schedule?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Should</td>
<td>we</td>
<td>leave</td>
<td></td>
<td>early?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Short answers:

Should I close the door now?

Positive: Yes, you should.

Negative: No, you shouldn't.

Should we take the teacher's pencils home?

Positive: Yes, we should.

Negative: No, we shouldn't.

Student practice: go around the room using Q and A and have students practice long and short replies.
WHICH IS BETTER?

Sometimes we have to compare a few things and pick which one is best for us.

Look at these situations and give advice.

1. I am taking my friend out for lunch. I have $20, but we have only 30 minutes. My friend does not want to eat in the cafeteria, but she doesn't want just plain old pizzeria pizza. Where should we go for lunch? Why?

2. I want to buy a new car. I have $9,000 to spend. I don't want a big car, but I want an American car. In that case, what kind of car should I be looking at? Jaguars? Vans? Which is the best type of car for me?

3. I am interested in taking more MCCC classes. I want to take the blueprint reading class, but my math is not very good. I want to take the math class, but I am on second shift. Which is better? Taking the blueprint and working really hard, or coming in early for the math? What should I do?
#1

Mark: Hey Pete. How long does it take to get to Philadelphia?
Pete: It takes about one hour. Why?
Mark: Well, I'm going to bring my son to the art museum this weekend. Should I drive or should we take the train?
Pete: It takes about 50 minutes to drive. The train takes over an hour. Then you have to walk to the art museum from the station, or take a taxi.
Mark: How long does it take to walk?
Pete: The museum is about 10 blocks from the station, so it should only take half an hour or so.
Mark: That sounds like a lot of time. And a taxi can be expensive. I think I should drive.
Pete: So do I.
Mark: Thanks for the information, and the advice.
Pete: Any time.

#2

Kathy: Say, Sharon. Do you have any aspirin?
Sharon: Sure. Here you are. Do you feel okay?
Kathy: No. I have a very bad headache. This is my 12th aspirin today!
Sharon: Your 12th aspirin!? You shouldn't take any more aspirin, Kathy. You'll get sick. Maybe you should go home.
Kathy: I can't go home. I have to finish this set of units first.
Sharon: Maybe you should sit down for a few minutes.
Kathy: No, I can't. I have to do this job standing up. I am nearly finished. I should finish soon.
Sharon: I don't know, Kathy. You shouldn't put your job before your health!
Kathy: I guess you're right. Let me take just two more aspirins and then I'll see if I feel better.
Kate: Are you going to see Pam today?
John: Yes, I am. Why do you ask?
Kate: Well, I'm going to take tomorrow afternoon off to go to my doctor. I need to tell her but she's not here. Can you tell her for me?
John: It's better if you tell her. She's going to come in at noon today, so you can tell her then.
Kate: But I'm not going to be here then. I have to go to the A-Line and work. I should be there all day.
John: Why don't you write a note and leave it for her?
Kate: Good idea. But I don't have a pen with me.
John: Neither do I. You should get organized!
Kate: Yeah, I know. I'm just not up to par today. Oh, here's a pen! I'm going to write that note and leave, okay?
John: Whatever. Just put that pen back when you're done!
Role Plays: Asking for and giving advice.
Pair off with a partner and make dialogues for these situations.

1. You have lost your wallet and you have no money. What should you do? Ask a co-worker for advice and help.

2. There is a problem with your airgun. Ask your manager what you should do.

3. You just finished lunch and now you feel sick. Ask your friend what you should do or take.

4. Your boss tells you to straighten up the work area, but you don't know where to put the extra materials and supplies. Ask him/her for advice.

5. You are thinking about going skiing over Christmas holiday, but you have never skied before. Which is better - renting equipment or buying? Which is more expensive? Should you go to the Alps or to the Poconos?
ESL2  ▪ SESSION 11

OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use simple past regular form correctly
- report simple incident in the past
- recognize problem with sample report of instructions

- questions with simple past
- long and short answers with simple past
- Q & A role plays with simple past
- role plays: "What happened?"

METHODS:

- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:

At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- relay information using the past tense

MATERIALS:

- tape recorders
- sample paragraphs with incidents
PAST TENSE - REGULAR FORMS

We use the past tense to talk about events that happened in the PAST and that are completely finished.

Time words:

- yesterday
- last night
- last week
- last month
- last year
- ago
- since
- for ________ (time)

To make the simple past tense for regular verbs, just add ed:

- talked
- walked
- called
- worked

Yesterday I talked to Gary.
Last week I worked 6 days.
Last year I earned more than $15,000.

Negatives:
Yesterday I didn't talk to Lorna.
Last month I didn't work overtime.
Last year I didn't earn a million dollars.

©Mercer County Community College
A) To spell the regular past tense forms, just add ED to the base:

- talk → talkED
- walk → walkED
- pick → pickED

B) Add just D to verbs that already end in E:

- decide → decideD
- invite → inviteD
- bake → bakeD

C) For short words that end in one vowel and one consonant, double the consonant and add ED.

- stop → stopPED
- shop → shopPED
- grab → grabBED

PAST TENSE SPELLING

D) For words that end in Y after a consonant, change Y to I and add ED.

try trIED apply applIED fry frIED

E) For words that end in vowel and Y, keep the Y and add ED stay stayED obey obeyED

EXCEPTIONS: paid (not payed), said (not sayed)
PAST TENSE SPELLING

Write the regular form for each word using the rules on the spelling handout.

1. need
2. hope
3. call
4. cry

OTHER COMPARISONS

First, complete these sentences using the correct verb form. Then, make questions to get these sentences as answers.

Example: Yesterday we ___________________________ lunch at noon.
(to eat)

Question: When DID we eat lunch?

1. The unit ___________________________ off the conveyor belt.
(to fall)

2. He ___________________________ his timecard to his boss.
(to bring)

3. They ___________________________ the new machines on the A-Line.
(to see)

4. She ___________________________ the bad news about the weather.
(to hear)
OTHER COMPARISONS

5. We ______________________ to Gary about the schedule.
   (to speak)

6. I ______________________ to work at 8:00 a.m.
   (to drive)

7. They ______________________ to class at 2:00.
   (to come)

8. Because he had money, he ______________________ a new car.
   (to buy)

9. The machine ______________________ after lunch.
   (to break)

10. The students ______________________ their notebooks from the last class. (to keep)
WHAT HAPPENED?

Very often we have to report incidents to other people -- in other words, we have to tell them about something that happened to us or around us.

Write a paragraph about something that happened to you this past week in work or at home. Use the list of irregular verbs to help you.
ESL2  •  SESSION 13

OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this session, students will be able to:

- use simple past irregular forms correctly
- report incidents in the past
- use more/less/fewer

- review: questions and answers with simple past irregular forms of past tense verbs
- more/less/fewer

METHODS:

- role plays
- dialogues
- Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:

At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

- relay information using the past tense using both regular and irregular verbs
- express quantities and comparative quantities correctly

MATERIALS:

- tape recorders
COUNT AND NONCOUNT NOUNS

NOUNS are things. Sometimes we can count them, and sometimes we can't. For example, we can count CUPS of water, but we cannot really count WATER.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Either Noncount or Plural</th>
<th>Only Noncount</th>
<th>Only Plural</th>

<td>a few</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>some</td>
<td>much</td>
<td>many</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>any</td>
<td>an amount of</td>
<td>a number of</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

When we compare, we have to be careful!!

more          less        fewer most          least       fewest

Examples:

(water = noncount)
I drink a lot of water during the day. I drink more water than Steve.
Steve drinks less water than I do.
Paul drinks the most water!
Karen drinks the least water.
COUNT AND NONCOUNT NOUNS

(cups of water = countable)
I drink more cups of water than Steve does.
Steve drinks fewer cups of water than I do.
Paul drinks the most cups of water.
Karen drinks the fewest cups of water.
Part I

1.

Peter has $10.  George has $30.  Stan has $50.

Peter has ___________ money than George.
George has ___________ money than Peter.
Stan has ___________ money.
Peter has ___________ money.
Peter has ___________ dollars than George.
George has ___________ dollars than Peter.
Stan has ___________ dollars.
Peter has ___________ dollars.
COMPARATIVES - MORE AND LESS

Carl eats __________________ food than Paul does.

Paul eats __________________ food than Carl eats.

Lisa eats __________________ food.

Carl eats __________________ sandwiches than Paul.

Paul eats __________________ sandwiches than Carl.

Carl eats __________________ sandwiches.

Lisa eats __________________ sandwiches.

3. The white box weighs 33 pounds. The black box weighs 62 pounds.

The white box weighs __________________ than the black one.

The black one weighs __________________ than the white one.

The black one weighs __________________ pounds than the white one.

The white one weighs __________________ pounds than the black one.

Part II

1. Does the A line or the XL line have more workers?

2. Does the A line or the XL line make more units in a single day?

3. Do you have more time to watch TV on the weekends?

4. What about during the week?

How did the lines do?
Glen was driving his car to visit a friend in Boston when his water hose burst. He heard a cracking sound, so he stopped his car on the side of the road. He saw water dripping from under the front of the car. He felt really stupid because he meant to take the car into the shop before he left on such a long trip, but he got so busy with his job and other things that he forgot. He stood on the side of the road for a long time.

"What should I do?" he thought to himself?

Just then, a van pulled off the road and parked in front of him. A young man got out of the driver's side, and a young woman got out of the passenger's side.

"Having trouble?" the young man asked Glen.

"Yeh, you could say that. My hose broke and my car is leaking water."

"Are you a member of AAA?" the woman asked.

"What's AAA?" asked Glen.

"Nevermind," she said. "If you don't know, then you aren't a member."

"Hop in and we'll give you a ride to the nearest station," the man said.
DO YOU BELIEVE WHAT HAPPENED?

"I don't know," Glen replied. "I hate to leave my car here all alone. Besides, I don't know if I can trust you. You are strangers."

The man laughed and said, "You're right. We are strangers. How about this. We could drive to the nearest station and let them know that you are here. Then they could send a mechanic to help."

Glen's eyes lit up. "That would be great! Thanks a million!!"

The man and the woman drove off. Glen wondered if he should have gone with the couple, but he remembered that his parents told him never to take a ride from strangers. He hoped they would stop and get help for him.

About 20 minutes later, a man pulled up in a tow truck. He got out of the truck and walked towards Glen.

"You the fella with the broken hose?" he asked. "Some folks stopped at my station and said there was a young fella stranded."

"That's me," said Glen. "I guess I could have trusted them."

"I don't know about that," replied the other man.

"What do you mean?" asked Glen.

"Well, right after they told me you were here, they robbed my cash register and took all my money! I tried to drive after them, but they were too fast."

"Gee," said Glen. "And I thought I was having a bad day!"
ESL2 ◆ SESSION 14

OBJECTIVES:
At the end of this session, students will be able to:

• use past tense correctly
• report an incident at work
• express comparisons in a variety of ways

TOPICS:

• past tense
• time words
• expressing comparisons

METHODS:

• role plays
• dialogues
• Q & A role plays

EVALUATION:
At the end of this session, students will be able to perform the following tasks:

• relay information using past tense
• understand and use a variety of comparisons

MATERIALS:

• tape recorders
• tools and safety equipment
WHAT HAPPENED?

Look at these directions. Then read what Larry did. What happened?
Did Larry follow the directions? What didn't he do?

• PACKING A UNIT:

1. make box for unit
2. use glue gun to apply glue to bottom flaps
3. press flaps firmly until sealed
4. take label from unit envelope
5. put label on box
6. place box over unit
7. flip over
8. use glue gun to apply glue to bottom flaps
9. press flaps firmly
10. push unit down the line to the end of the belt

Larry's Job

First, Larry took an old box from a damaged unit. Then, he taped the top flaps of the box together. He put the box over the unit, and then he closed the top of the box. He used staples to seal the flaps. The flaps didn't close correctly, so he stuck a piece of tape over the edges. Next, he wrote XL on the box and he pushed it down the line.
OTHER COMPARISONS

There are several ways to say the same idea in English; it depends on what you want to emphasize.

Our company is bigger than Carrier.  (emphasizing our company)
Carrier is smaller than our company.  (emphasizing Carrier)

Using negatives:
Our company is not as small as Carrier.  (emphasizing our company)
Carrier is not as big as our company.  (emphasizing Carrier)

Simple past: the week is over
On Sunday, Thomas went to church and listened to music.
On Monday, he worked and he watched TV.

But, let's say that it is Saturday evening and Thomas is thinking about THIS WEEK.
The week continues (it isn't over yet).

This week, Thomas has worked 5 days.

form of "to have" past participle (reg. form is verb plus ED)

This week, Thomas has watched TV a few times.
This week, Thomas has rented a video.

Negatives:
This week, Thomas hasn't visited his in-laws.
This week, Thomas hasn't worked overtime 3 days.

PART V: DICTATION

Listen to the teacher for the first reading. Then, as the teacher reads a second time, write down what she says. She will read the paragraph a third time -- make corrections then.

David worked at American Heating for 7 years before he came to the company. That was nearly 5 years ago. So, he has worked at the company for 5 years so far. He usually works on the B-Line, but last month he was moved to the insulation booth. He likes B-Line better than he likes the insulation booth because he prefers to do a variety of jobs. David hopes he will move back to the B-Line soon.
