Project EXCEL is a federally-funded workplace literacy program involving hotel enterprises in the San Francisco (California) Bay area. Its focus is on identification and instruction of literacy skills essential to job success for limited-English-proficient (LEP) workers. Training is intended to enable employees to understand written work orders, enhance communication with supervisors and co-workers, and encourage greater involvement through team building and critical thinking. This training module is designed for hotel room cleaners in one participating hotel. An introductory section gives an overview of the curriculum and offers suggestions for classroom presentation. The curriculum consists of five instructional units on these topics: furnishings and arrangement in the hotel room; reporting problems and requests; appropriate and inappropriate behavior in the hotel room; describing actions; and accent reduction for Chinese-speaking workers. Each unit contains vocabulary lists and exercises using listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. The listening script and answer key are appended. WORKPLACE EDUCATION

Project EXCEL is a workplace education partnership with hotel enterprises in the San Francisco Bay Area. Its focus is on the identification and instruction of literacy skills essential to on-the-job success for limited-English-proficient (LEP) workers. Lessons are developed based on the specific needs at each hotel with emphasis on workplace communication and the American working culture.
PARTNERSHIP

Educational Provider: CRDC

Funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Project EXCEL is a training program administered by the Career Resources Development Center (CRDC) in partnership with hotels. As the designated partner, CRDC is the fiscal agent responsible for program compliance and funding regulations as required by the federal government.

CRDC develops customized curricula for participating hotels, provides classroom instruction and coordinates the program.

CRDC is a non-profit, community-based employment training agency located in San Francisco and Oakland. Since 1966 CRDC has trained over 3,500 ethnic minority members and women and successfully placed them in jobs in the service industries and the clerical field. We have extended our services to train and educate hotel workers. The agency has been working with local business partners to implement successful workplace literacy strategies since 1991.

Hotel Partners

Business involvement is essential to the success of the training. Following are some examples of in-kind contributions which reflect commitment from hotel partners.

- Providing full or partial release time for workers to attend classes.
- Providing facilities for classroom instruction.
- Assisting in curriculum design through consultations with our instructors and curriculum writers.
- Recruiting interested workers for classroom training.
GOALS OF THE TRAINING

The goals of the training are to enable workers to gain and retain employment, increase their productivity on the job and advance in their careers.

These goals will be accomplished by raising the literacy and basic skills level of the workforce. The results are worth the effort. The program enables employees to understand written work orders so they may perform tasks independently, enhances employees' ability to comprehend and communicate with supervisors and co-workers, and encourages greater worker involvement through team building and critical thinking activities.

PROGRAM DESIGN

Training modules last 8 to 10 weeks, with a recommended 3 hours of training a week. Each training module will be customized according to the needs of the particular department. Participating departments include Housekeeping, Laundry, Stewarding, Food and Beverage, and others to be determined by the specific needs of hotel partners. Training modules may also include more general topics such as Health and Safety, English for Customer Service, Career Advancement and Work Ethics.

SETTING UP WORKPLACE TRAINING AT YOUR HOTEL

Below is a 5-step summary of the implementation of Project EXCEL:

1. Identify needs at the workplace (1 week)

Our experienced staff and curriculum developers conduct interviews with:

Managers
Supervisors
Workers
Union Representatives to identify those areas where your employees would most benefit from instruction and training.

2 Analyze job tasks and communication skills
    (1 week)

Curriculum developers and instructors observe and participate in actual tasks at the worksite to get an insiders view of the demands of the job.

Our staff also gathers written material used at the workplace in order to specialize the course design for your unique company procedures.

3 Design a curriculum specific to the workplace
    (1-2 weeks)

After conducting the extensive task analyses, curriculum developers examine the results. Based on their findings, they design and develop material for the course. Your employees will have textbooks and workbooks developed especially for them, using your hotel's policies and the needs identified by your own staff as a basis for instruction.

4 Set up training room
    (1 day)

With your help, EXCEL instructors will find and arrange for a training facility easily accessible to students.

5 Conduct classes
    (8-10 weeks)

EXCEL instructors will come to your hotel 2-3 days a week to equip your employees with the English they need to successfully communicate at their workplace.

TO SIGN UP

We would be pleased to talk more with you about our program and to set up workplace literacy training at your worksite. Please call Project EXCEL's Program Coordinator, at 415/775-8880, extension 22.
As a leader in the hospitality industry, ITT Sheraton has stressed the fact that quality service rests on a foundation of effective communication. Improved English proficiency allows the systematic delivery of the type of service designed to meet guests' needs and exceed their expectation. In the process the hotel has experienced the additional benefits of creating an environment where safety procedures are better understood, teamwork has improved and workers feel themselves to be secure, accepted, important members of the team.

* For years I've been whooping and hollering that a small business can train people in job skills, but we can't go back and give them a high school education. This program is great, because the only thing that will work is training in the workplace.

* The program has been a great help in improving communication between English-speaking managers and Hispanic employees. Clear, precise communication is so important... There are so many things going on at once, so many jobs that are intertwined. Employers need to come up with ways to make sure everyone understands what is happening, whether the employees speak Spanish, Chinese or any other language.

Barbara Radcliffe
Human Resources Director
Just Desserts Inc., San Francisco

* All over the City, hotel employees are polishing up their English -- at work -- in language classes specifically geared to their work-a-day needs. The program, created by the Career Resources Development Center, has won kudos from hotel executives, union officials and employees -- Japanese chefs, Chinese maids and Hispanic laundry workers.

ANSWER KEY AND LISTENING SCRIPT
TEACHING GUIDE

The current module was designed due to a perceived need on the part of management to improve the communication skills between their Chinese-speaking room cleaners and the inspectresses who do quality control check-ups at the hotel. These inspectresses speak no Chinese and must discuss—in English—quality control issues with the room cleaners. By extension, it was also hoped that the room cleaners' improved language skills would also help them communicate better with guests and with lower and middle management.

The overall structure of the module goes from the basic vocabulary of the parts of the bedroom and the bathroom, to action verbs used in housekeeping communication, and finally to the combination of nouns and verbs so as to assist the room cleaners in reporting maintenance problems in the rooms and to relay guests' special requests.

These last two topics (problems and requests) form the nucleus of the module and were initially the reason management decided to institute an on-site workplace literacy program. Consequently, the remaining units (especially Units 1, 3, and 4) serve either as a preparation to or a refining of Unit 2 (reporting problems and requests), the longest and most detailed unit in the module.

The last unit (Unit 5), on accent reduction for Chinese speakers, has enough built-in flexibility to serve as a model framework for teachers working with other linguistic populations. The form and structure of the unit can be adapted to the English sounds that are difficult for the new student population. The teacher, in essence, can substitute the sounds used with the Chinese speakers for those which his/her students need to practice the most.

The group of workers for whom the module was designed had no problem recognizing and using the basic vocabulary for the parts of the room and the bathroom. Therefore, for them the emphasis was on learning to read and write those words which they already knew for when a guest leaves them a note with special instructions about cleaning the room or ask the room cleaner to report maintenance problems.

The use of flash cards was especially useful in drilling students very quickly at the beginning of classtime and in teaching some fundamental phonics to the students with the lowest level of literacy. The student population for which this module was designed was composed of three distinct ESL competence levels. Half of the students were at the low intermediate level; about 25% were at the low beginning level; and the remaining 25% were at the literacy level.
With this multilevel class, it was especially valuable to use housekeeping vocabulary flash cards that had the word on one side and the image (picture illustrating the noun, verb, or concept) on the reverse. In this way the cards can be used to design exercises that can quickly test all four basic language skills.

By showing the image to the student and asking what it is, the teacher gets the student to practice SPEAKING. The teacher then should follow up with a question or two about the item and how it figures in the student's workday (for example, "How many beds do you have to make in one day?") by way of additional speaking practice.

This should then be followed by requesting the students to write down the key word just mentioned in order to practice WRITING. With the lower-level students, after the speaking part has been practiced, the teacher can then show the flash card containing the word and have the students copy it down. For more advanced students, the teacher should request that the students write the word down from memory.

LISTENING can be practiced by sticking with adhesive tape several cards on the board at a time. The teacher then reads the names of the items at random. After each name is read, a student goes to the front of the class, removes the card with the corresponding image, hands it to the teacher, and repeats the word.

Finally, READING can also be practiced by orally describing to the student what an item is for (for example "Where I brush my teeth") and having the student then go up to the board and select the card which has the corresponding word ("SINK") written on it. The student then hands it to the teacher and repeats the word. Obviously, this last exercise also supplements the students' listening practice.

Generic flash cards for prepositions (such as those on page 11 of the module) can also serve some of the same practice functions for teaching and reviewing prepositions. For practicing verbs most commonly used to describe housekeeping duties, similar flash cards can be created from the pictures in Unit 4, which concentrates on "action" verbs for cleaning.

It is advisable that the workplace literacy (WPL) instructor make sure he/she has first consulted with management as to the most current policies managing the work of room cleaners at the specific hotel. A unit such as Unit 3 in the module can be more confusing than useful if the WPL teacher simply uses it "as is", without first making sure that this is the way work is actually carried out at the specific hotel where the students work. The format of the unit, though, can be borrowed and then modified as need be. The same can be said, by extension, about the entire module.
Units usually begin with Getting Ready activities. These are merely suggestions for getting the class "warmed up", i.e. get them to start considering the topic for that unit. They should not be read out loud to the students nor should the students be asked to read them. Instead, they should be brought up by the teacher in the most conversational style possible. Concurrently, the teacher should then begin assessing the level of competence the students have within that unit's vocabulary and tailor the tempo of the unit accordingly. For maximum results, the Getting Ready questions that open the units should also be personalized as much as possible. The teacher should draw from the individual experiences of the workers and the specific work conditions at their hotel.

The numerous Matching exercises can also be used as effective reviews within a listening comprehension format. With books closed, the day after the matching exercises have been done as a reading and speaking activity, the teacher can review the material by asking the students to write down the appropriate term (comprised in "Column A") after the teacher has read to them the definitions from "Column B". When a picture is used in "Column B", the need for flashcards becomes self-evident.

This technique of recycling material for review can also be applied to the multiple choice exercises: the teacher reads the question or statement and then reads twice each of the three or four options the students have to choose from. At the end, each question and each right answer are discussed as a speaking and analytical thinking exercise. Finally, with minor alterations, the fill-in the blanks ("cloze") exercises can also be turned into review by having the teacher read the statements and having the students write down the missing word, this time utilizing the exercise as a listening practice.

UNIT 2: PROBLEMS AND REQUESTS

DIALOGUES

Listen to the following recorded dialogues. Then, read them out loud in class with a partner.

DIALOGUE 1

Supervisor: Housekeeping, this is Elaine.
Housekeeper: This is Pennie. There is a problem on Floor 20.
Supervisor: What’s the matter?
Housekeeper: The lights in the hallway are blinking.
Supervisor: OK. I’ll report it. Thank you.

DIALOGUE 2

Supervisor: Housekeeping, this is Mrs. Garcia.
Housekeeper: This is Chris. There is a problem in room 1234.
Supervisor: What’s the problem?
Housekeeper: The toilet overflows.
Supervisor: OK. I’ll call an engineer. Thanks.

DIALOGUE 3

Supervisor: Housekeeping, this is Ms. Wong.
Housekeeper: This is Sharon. The guests have a request in room 2341.
Supervisor: What do they need?
Housekeeper: They want a rollaway bed put in.
Supervisor: OK. I’ll take care of it. Thanks for calling.

DIALOGUE 4

Supervisor: Housekeeping, this is Jeff.
Housekeeper: This is Mabel. The guests have a request in room 1423.
Supervisor: What do they need?
Housekeeper: They want the refrigerator taken out by tomorrow.
Supervisor: OK. I’ll write out a request form. Thanks
GETTING READY

1. What are some problems that you see in the rooms when you clean them?

2. What are some requests that the guests have?

3. What are some differences between a problem and a request?

4. What are other things that guests ask you?

READING

Read the following sentences, then write P if it's a problem and R if it's a request.

EXAMPLE: The toilet overflows. P
The guests need more towels. R

1. The faucet leaks. ______

2. The wallpaper is peeling. ______

3. The key for room 1654 does not work. ______

4. There is a wallet in a check-out room. ______

6. The carpet is stained. ______

7. The pipes drip in room 2134. ______

8. A family wants more glasses. ______

9. A gentleman wants a toothbrush. ______

10. The smoke detector does not work. ______
SPEAKING

In each group, three items belong in the bedroom or in the bathroom, but another one does not.

Read each group out loud and circle the item that does not belong with the others.

EXAMPLE: faucet shower bed toilet

1. towels blankets rollaway refrigerator

2. cork screw hangers ice bucket toothbrush

3. toothpaste washcloths conditioner baby crib

4. razor shaving cream headboard shower cap

5. linen nightgown towel bar hanging lamp

6. carpet smoke detector toilet seat coffee table

WRITING

Unscramble the words in each sentence and write them in their correct order.

EXAMPLE: name Ramirez is Oscar my

My name is Oscar Ramirez.

1. doesn't the toilet flush

2. faucet running the bathtub keeps
3. toilet 1234 in overflows room the

4. out trash please the take

5. leak the pipes sink under the

7. 3114 in the replace room lightbulbs please

8. crib and a need the a rollaway need guests

9. toilet fills up the basin slowly too

10. double on the make this room up please

READING

Read the above sentences again and tell if they are problems or requests. Write P for problem and R for request.

1. P
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
LISTENING/SPEAKING

Listen to the following sentences and repeat them after your teacher.

1. The teacher is American. (YES)
2. The teacher is not Chinese. (NO)
3. The light does work. (1) (yes/singular)
The clock does not work. (1) (no/singular)
4. The lights do work. (2+) (yes/plural)
The clocks do not work. (2+) (no/plural)

SPEAKING

Now study carefully the sentences in the box and answer the questions below with complete sentences.

EXAMPLE: 1. Who is American?
(You say, "The teacher is American.")

2. Is the teacher Chinese?
3. Does the light work?
4. And the lights?
5. Does the clock work?
6. And the clocks?
Now study the words below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YES</th>
<th>NO</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>SINGULAR (1)</td>
<td>DOES</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PLURAL (2+)</td>
<td>DO</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CAREFUL!:
In English sometimes two words can change to one.
EXAMPLE: DOES + NOT = DOESN'T       DO + NOT = DON'T

WRITING

Now fill in the blanks by writing DOES, DOESN'T, DO or DON'T.

NOTE: You only say or write DOES or DO when your idea or your opinion is very strong.
In everyday speaking, you don't use DOES or DO many times.

1. Yes, the guests ______ need a rollaway in the room.
2. No, the toilet ______ flush very well.
3. No, the toilet tank ______ fill up.
4. No, the closet door ______ close right.
5. No, the lightbulbs ______ work in the bathroom.
6. Yes, the room door _______ lock.

7. Yes, the pipes _______ drip (or leak) in room 1638.

8. Yes, the lights _______ blink a lot in the hallway.

9. No, the housekeepers _______ clean up the room before 2 p.m. if there is a DO NOT DISTURB sign.

10. No, the guests _______ want a baby crib in room 1238.

ROLE-PLAY

1) Choose a partner.
2) Discuss and write down the problem or request in each picture.
3) Then, review the dialogues on p. 12.
4) Next, report the problems or requests to each other over the phone.

One person will be the room cleaner, the other will be the inspectress or assistant housekeeper.

Remember to say:

- your name,
- the room you are calling from, and
- what the problem or request is.
What is the matter in the picture above?
WRITING

Write down the opposite of the following words. Choose from the words in the box.

UNIT 5: PRONUNCIATION: CHINESE SPEAKERS

READING

Take turns reading aloud the following story and then answer the questions at the end.

A DAY'S WORK

Rita Kwan is a room cleaner at the Holiday Inn hotel at Union Square. She started at the hotel nine years ago. She started in the Laundry Department. Rita is now a maid because she wants to do a different kind of work. As a maid, Rita can practice her English more often when she speaks to the guests. In the Laundry Department she did not speak to guests. Read her story below and Rita will tell you about her day's work.

Hello! My name is Rita Kwan. I am a room cleaner at Holiday Inn—Union Square. I work in the Housekeeping Department and my job is cleaning the guest rooms. I make the beds. I clean the bathrooms. I put fresh towels on the towel racks. I also dust the furniture and vacuum the carpets. The job is not very difficult but I have to work very fast.

All the room cleaners also have to go to department meetings every month. At the meetings, we talk about our work and we get important information about our department and about the hotel. We like to make suggestions at the meetings so the hotel will be better. We also like to hear about the good work that we are doing.
Mrs. Chin is our supervisor. She is the Assistant Housekeeper. She tells us which rooms to clean. She also asks the inspectresses to check and see if we cleaned the rooms well. There are many room cleaners at the Holiday Inn—Union Square hotel. Some speak Chinese, others speak other languages, but well all speak English at work.

When I get to work, I go to the ladies’ locker room. I change my clothes and put on my uniform. Then, I go to Mrs. Chin’s office to get a list of rooms that I must clean that day. After that, I go to the storage room to get a cart and a caddy. I load the caddy with cleaning supplies and equipment. I load the cart with things guests need in their rooms.

Next, I go to the first room on my list. I look at the door to see if it has a "DO NOT DISTURB SIGN" on it. If there is a sign, I go to the next room. If the door does not have a sign on it, I knock on the door. If nobody is in the room, I open the door with a special key. That key is called a "pass key". It opens all the doors of the guest rooms.

Then, I start to work. First, I make the beds. Next, I dust the furniture, clean the ashtrays, and empty the trash. Then, I clean the bathroom. I take out the dirty bath towels, wash cloths and I replace the bath mat. I scrub the sink and the bath tub. I wipe the mirrors and clean the toilet. Last, I wipe the bathroom floor.

Now I am almost done. I put out clean towels, wash cloths, and a new bath mat. Then, I put out things the guests might need: hand soap, matches, stationary, drinking glasses, and other things. At the end, I vacuum the carpet and spray room freshener.

I leave the room and lock the door. I cross out that room number from the list Mrs. Chin gave me. Next, I go to the next room and clean it. I do this all day. During a busy day, I clean fifteen rooms.

At lunch time, I eat in the cafeteria with the other room cleaners. We get free meals at the hotel. When I finish my work day, I put the cart and the caddy back in the storage room. I tell Mrs. Chin I am finished for the day. I go back to the locker room and put on my street cloths. Then, I go home.

The day goes by fast! I like working here. I like what I do and I like the people I work with at the Holiday Inn hotel.
Review the story about Rita Kwan. Then, read the sentences below and circle TRUE (T) or FALSE (F).

EXAMPLE: The room cleaner's name is Mary Smith.

LISTENING/SPEAKING

Listen to the following dialogues. Then, choose a partner and practice them. Carefully listen to each other’s pronunciation.

DIALOGUE 1: The sounds L and R

Mrs. Chin: John, go to room 1268.
Houseman: Why? What’s wrong?
Mrs. Chin: The light is not installed right.
If the light is installed wrong, it may cause a fire.
Houseman: You’re right. I’ll take care of the light in room 1268.
Mrs. Chin: Don’t wait too long!

DIALOGUE 2: The sounds L and N

Guest: Maid! This hotel is not nice.
In my room there are lots of lice!
Maid: I’m sorry, sir. We never have lice.
Guest: And the window lever doesn’t work.
Maid: And the lights?
Guest: The lights near the hallway don’t turn on.
Maid: Anything else, sir?
Guest: Yes, I have a neighbor who snores all night!
DIALOGUE 3: The sounds S and SH

Guest: Excuse me, maid. This room is a shed!
Maid: I'm sorry. What was it you said?
Guest: This room is a shed.
I came back and my shoes were in the shower!
This makes me very sour!
Maid: I see. I'm shocked. Please don't sue!
I'm not the same maid who cleaned your room.
Guest: Well, my patience is getting sort of short! Who is your supervisor?

DIALOGUE 4: The sounds S and TH

Maid: (knock, knock) Housekeeping!
Guest: Come in! I'm sick today and will not leave the room.
Maid: Maybe you should take a warm bath.
Guest: Oh, I think my cold will pass.
Maid: Can I move your medicines by the sink?
Guest: I thought I put them away!
Maid: Oh, it's no sin! You're very tense!
Guest: Well, thank you, maid ... What's today's date?
Maid: I think today is the tenth.
