This workbook is one of a series designed for adult learners of English as a Second Language. The overall aim of this volume is that the student who is a landed immigrant in Canada and leaves the country for a vacation or family visit will be able to deal successfully with Canadian immigration and customs officials upon return to Canada. This includes giving personal information (name, address, status, destination, etc.), stating necessary facts about the time spent outside Canada, stating the regulations concerning bringing goods purchased abroad into Canada, and explaining the reasons for a trip or absence from Canada. Five units are included, on these topics: airport check-in; airport immigration; airport customs; travel trivia; and crossing the Canada-United States border by car. Each unit provides illustrations and exercises for vocabulary development and language practice at proficiency levels 1 and 2. Exercises include flashcard games, dialogues, multiple-choice questions, flight schedule reading, listening comprehension exercises, crossword puzzles, and a trivia game. Some brief notes to the teacher are included. A list of additional resources is appended. (MSE) (Adjunct ERIC Clearinghouse on Literacy Education)

FOREWORD

The Community Survival Skills Booklets were developed for adults learning English as a Second Language in the Neighborhood English Classes and the Homefront Learning Program at Vancouver Community College. Learners in these programs have expressed a need for the language skills required to better cope and survive in the community.

THE BASIC LEARNING COMPONENTS IN THE COMMUNITY SURVIVAL SKILLS BOOKLETS:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>COMPONENTS:</th>
<th>DESCRIPTION:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Vocabulary Development</td>
<td>Vocabulary items directly related to the topic are presented in written exercises and on flash cards.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sequenced Picture Stories</td>
<td>A sequenced picture story, in dialogue or narrative form, is presented for each topic. The storyline is presented both visually and in print form.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dialogue Practice</td>
<td>Exercises and suggestions are given for practising those dialogues needed to cope in a designated situation. Dialogue situations are in both visual and print form where appropriate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reading Comprehension</td>
<td>Informative reading selections relating directly to the specific topic area with accompanying comprehension questions are given. Realia, such as forms, are supplied where appropriate.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The Community Survival Skills Booklets have been developed at two language levels. The two language levels are described in the table below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LEVEL ONE:</th>
<th>LISTENING</th>
<th>SPEAKING</th>
<th>READING</th>
<th>WRITING</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• is able to identify the topic of spoken conversation but cannot always follow the content of the conversation</td>
<td>• is capable of using single words, phrases and single sentences in English</td>
<td>• is able to read and understand most common signs and public notices in English</td>
<td>• is able to copy English printing and cursive writing</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• frequently misunderstands speech on the telephone and radio due to the absence of body language</td>
<td>• is only competent to cope with predictable needs</td>
<td>• is able to identify the topic and main idea in a short basic reading selection</td>
<td>• is able to fill in simple forms requiring personal information</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• is able to follow speech directed at him/her but needs frequent repetition or rephrasing</td>
<td>• uses hesitant speech with errors requiring a patient listener aware of the learner’s needs</td>
<td>• reads at a slow rate</td>
<td>• is able to write answers to questions in single sentences but not in a paragraph format</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LEVEL TWO</th>
<th>LISTENING</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• is able to follow format speech directed at him/her but experiences difficulty with colloquial speech</td>
<td>• is able to convey most types of information directly related to his/her interests or needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• may experience difficulty in following and/or participating in a discussion</td>
<td>• is able to read most texts in his/her interest area with limited comprehension</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Community Survival Skills Booklets provide a framework from which instructors can choose and duplicate the lesson content which will best meet the needs of their learners. To assist instructors, each booklet begins with a statement of an overall objective and language functions. Instructors are free to select and adapt these learning materials to the type and purpose of the class as well as the needs of the individual learner.

AIRPORT IMMIGRATION
Note to the Teacher

Permanent residents (landed immigrants) are free to leave Canada for holidays or family visits and return. This time spent outside the country still counts toward the three year residency requirement for citizenship, as long as their home is in Canada and they intend to return to Canada after their travels.

However, landed immigrants who leave Canada, or stay outside Canada, with the intention of abandoning Canada as their place of residence, will lose landed immigrant status.

Landed immigrants who stay outside Canada more than 183 days in a year must convince immigration that they didn’t intend to abandon Canada. It is also sometimes possible for landed immigrants who are out of Canada for fewer than 183 days to lose their status, but only if immigration can prove they abandoned Canada.

If landed immigrants fear this problem, they should apply beforehand for Returning Resident Permits. These can be issued either inside or outside Canada. Landed immigrants who study in another country, or who are transferred abroad by a Canadian company usually obtain these permits. The permits are for up to 1 or 2 years.
Answers to questions listed below will be used for Customs control purposes and to compile statistical data.

To be completed by all travelers.

Mrs. Singh comes from India. She lives in Canada. She went back to India to see her mother. Now she's coming home to Canada by plane.

On the plane, the stewardess gives Mrs. Singh a Canadian immigration card. Mrs. Singh fills it out.

Mrs. Singh is tired when she gets off the plane in Canada. She's happy to be home.

There is a long line-up at the immigration counter. Mrs. Singh stands in line.
The immigration officer asks Mrs. Singh some questions. "I live in Vancouver," Mrs. Singh says. "I went to India to see my mother."

Next, Mrs. Singh goes to Customs. The customs officer looks in her suitcase and asks, "What did you buy in India?"

Mrs. Singh waits for her luggage, and picks up the two suitcases from the carousel.

Now Mrs. Singh is through Customs. Her family is waiting for her outside the door.
Comprehension Questions

1. Does Mrs. Singh live in India?
2. Why did she go to India?
3. What does the stewardess give Mrs. Singh?
4. How does Mrs. Singh feel when she gets off the plane?
5. Where does she stand in line?
6. What does the immigration officer ask her?
7. What does he look at?
8. Where does she get her luggage?
9. How much luggage does Mrs. Singh have?
10. Where does Mrs. Singh go then?
11. What does the customs officer ask?
12. Who is waiting for Mrs. Singh when she is through customs?

Note to the Teacher: Ask the easier questions to the lower students, and harder questions to the upper students. These questions could also be used as a written exercise for level 2 students.
DIALOGUE

At the Immigration Counter

Officer: Good morning. May I see your passport?
Mrs. S: Here you are.
Officer: You’re coming back from India?
Mrs. S: Yes.
Officer: How long were you away?
Mrs. S: Three weeks.
Officer: Where do you live?
Mrs. S: Vancouver.
Officer: What’s your address?
Mrs. S: 3348 East 19th Ave.
Officer: Why did you go to India?
Mrs. S: I was visiting my mother.
Officer: Fine, thank you.
Questions the Immigration Officer Might Ask

Are you a Canadian resident? permanent resident?
landed immigrant?
May I see your passport and immigration paper?
Do you live in Vancouver?
Where do you live?
What's your address?
Do you own a house in Vancouver?
Do you work in Canada?
Do you have a job in Canada?
How long have you lived in Canada?
Where were your children born?
Is your family here?
What family members are in Canada?
How long were you away?
When did you leave Canada?
What was your exit point?
What city did you leave from?
Why did you go to India?
What was the purpose of your trip?
Did you work in India at all?
Do you have a business in India?
How many times have you been to India this year?
Did you stop anywhere else on your trip?

Note to the Teacher: These are listening comprehension questions. The students need to understand them and answer briefly, but don’t need to learn to use this language. Record the questions on language master cards or cassette tape, and have the student practise listening and replying.

AIRPORT CUSTOMS
Note to the Teacher

This section of the booklet contains a simplified version of Canada Customs regulations for students to read. For more detailed information on the rules, pick up a copy of the pamphlet I Declare at the airport, a travel agency, or the Customs office.

Customs Office
1001 West Pender Street
Vancouver, B.C.

(604) 666-0545
Note to the Teacher: This picture can be used to introduce the topic and elicit vocabulary.
DIALOGUE

At the Customs Counter

Officer: Do you have anything to declare?
Mrs. S: Yes, I bought a blouse for myself and some gifts for my children.
Officer: How much did they cost?
Mrs. S: The blouse cost $20, and the children's gifts cost $30.
Officer: Are you bringing back any food?
Mrs. S: Only a little dried meat for my husband.
Officer: I'm sorry. You can't bring meat into Canada.
Mrs. S: Really?

Note to the Teacher: Vary the dialogue using different items which Mrs. Singh might have bought. Have the students role play the dialogues. You or upper students with a knowledge of the customs rules should be the customs officer. Lower students can arrive at the counter with goods they bought. It's useful to vary the type of customs officer, friendly, stern, etc.
Canadian Customs Rules

If you are out of Canada for more than 24 hours, you can bring home things that cost up to $20 without paying duty (tax). You can do this as often as you want. You have to declare (tell the customs officer) what you bought. You should keep the bills for everything. You can't bring cigarettes or alcohol.

If you are out of Canada for 48 hours or more, you can bring home things that cost up to $100 without paying duty. If you are 16 or older, it's okay to bring cigarettes. If you are 19 or older you can bring back alcohol. You can bring 200 cigarettes, 1.1 litre of wine or liquor, or 24 cans of beer. You may have to fill in a customs declaration form.

If you are out of Canada for 7 days or more, you can bring back things that cost $300. Some of this can be cigarettes or alcohol (the same amounts as above). You can only do this once a year. You will have to fill in a customs declaration form.

It's okay to bring back more than these limits but you will have to pay the duty.
Vocabulary Exercise

TOTAL $
Mrs. Lee is in Hong Kong on a holiday. She's buying a gift for her friend. It's a beautiful sweater. It cost $35. Mrs. Lee wraps the sweater and puts in a card to her friend. She mails the gift to her friend in Canada. Mrs. Lee doesn't want to bring the gift home in her suitcase, because her suitcase is very full. Mrs. Lee and her friend don't have to pay any duty (tax) on the sweater.

People who live in Canada and go on a trip can send gifts back to their friends in Canada. There is no duty on gifts mailed to friends. The gifts must not cost more than $40 each. The gifts must not be alcohol or tobacco. It's a good idea to put in a gift card each time.

Note to the Teacher: Many people prefer to mail gifts from abroad to their friends and relatives as these gifts are duty free and are in addition to the usual personal exemption. Gifts brought back with you must be counted as part of your personal exemption.
READING

When Mrs. Lee went to Hong Kong last month, she took her camera with her. It's an expensive camera. Mrs. Lee's husband bought it for her in Hong Kong three years ago.

Before Mrs. Lee left on her trip, she showed the camera to a customs officer. He gave her a card that said she already had the camera in Canada. When Mrs. Lee comes back to Canada with the camera, she won't have any trouble. She can show the card. Then a customs officer will know she didn't buy the camera on this trip. She won't have to pay duty on the camera.

Questions

1. When did Mrs. Lee get the camera?

2. Where did Mrs. Lee get the camera?

3. Did Mrs. Lee buy the camera on this trip?

4. Why did she show the camera to a customs officer before her trip?

5. What will happen when she comes back to Canada with her camera?

Note to the Teacher: If a student is planning to take expensive jewellery on a trip, he or she should get advice from Canada Customs.

TRAVEL TRIVIA
TRAVEL TRIVIA

Note to the Teacher:

The cards on pages 65 - 74 have to be photocopied and cut up. Questions are on one side and answers on the other.

Students are divided into two teams. One team is given half the questions and the other team half.

Teams take turns asking the opposing team a question. A correct answer is accorded two points. If a team gives the wrong answer, it is told the correct answer but is not given any points. The team with the most points wins.

Some questions and answers are quite complex requiring two or more answers. You may want to use an alternate point system e.g. one point for each 'part' answered correctly.

Facts and figures for this game are based on 1984 Customs and Immigration information.

CROSSING THE CANADA-UNITED STATES
BORDER BY BUS OR CAR
GOING TO THE U.S.A.

Last Saturday the Wong family went by bus to the United States. They were going to Seattle to catch a plane to Hong Kong.

The border was very busy that day. There was a long line-up. Finally they got through.

AT THE BORDER

Customs: Good morning.
Mr. Wong: Good morning.
Customs: Where were you born?
Mr. Wong: In Hong Kong.
Customs: How about the rest of your family?
Mr. Wong: They are from Hong Kong too.
Customs: Are you Canadian citizens?
Mr. Wong: No. We're landed immigrants.
Customs: Do you have a U.S. visa?
Mr. Wong: Yes. Here it is.
Customs: Where are you going?
Mr. Wong: To Seattle to catch a plane to Hong Kong.
Customs: When are you leaving Seattle?
Mr. Wong: Tomorrow afternoon.
Customs: Okay. Have a nice day.

Note to the Teacher: Most landed immigrants in Canada need a visa (obtainable at a U.S. Consulate), to enter the U.S.
CONTACT ASSIGNMENTS

As the students become confident about using this material, give them the opportunity to try it out outside the classroom. For example,

- On a field trip to the airport have students ask for information at airline counters. e.g. "How long before an overseas flight do I have to check in?"
  "How much is the baggage allowance?"

- Have a student call or write Canada Customs (address on p. 51) and ask them to send a copy of the pamphlet I Declare.

- Have a student phone Canada Customs and ask if it is okay to bring mangoes into Canada.

- Have a student call the U.S. Consulate and ask how to get a U.S. visa.
