CONSTITUTION OF EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL

Article 1. NAME

The organisation shall be named:

- (a) Education International (EI)
- (b) Internationale de l'Education (IE)
- (c) Internacional de la Educación (IE)
- (d) Bildungsinternationale (BI)

Article 2, AIMS

The aims of the Education International shall be:

- (a) to further the cause of organisations of teachers and education employees, to promote the status, interests and welfare of their members, and to defend their trade union and professional rights;
- (b) to promote for all peoples and in all nations peace, democracy, social justice and equality; to promote the application of the Universal Declaration on Human Rights through the development of education and of the collective strength of teachers and education employees;
- (c) to seek and maintain recognition of the trade union rights of workers in general and of teachers and education employees in particular; to promote the International Labour Standards, including freedom of association and the right to organize, to bargain collectively and to undertake industrial action, including strike action if necessary;
- (d) to enhance the conditions of work and terms of employment of teachers and education employees, and to promote their professional status in general, through support for member organisations and representation of their interests before the United Nations, its specialized agencies and other appropriate and relevant intergovernmental organisations.

- (e) to support and promote the professional freedoms of teachers and education employees and the right of their organisations to participate in the formulation and implementation of educational policies;
- (f) to promote the right to education for all persons in the world, without discrimination, and to this end:
 - to pursue the establishment and protection of open, publicly funded and controlled educational systems, and academic and cultura! institutions, aimed at the democratic, social, cultural and economic development of society and the preparation of every citizen for active and responsible participation in society;
 - to promote the political, social and economic conditions that are required for the realisation of the right to education in all nations, for the achievement of equal educational opportunities for all, for the expansion of public educational services and for the improvement of their quality;
- (g) to foster a concept of education directed towards international understanding and good will, the safeguarding of peace and freedom, and respect for human dignity;
- (h) to combat all forms of racism and of bias or discrimination in education and society due to gender, marital status, sexual orientation, age, religion, political opinion, social or economic status or national or ethnic origin;
- to give particular attention to developing the leadership role and involvement of women in society, in the teaching profession and in organisations of teachers and education employees;

- (j) to build solidarity and mutual cooperation among member organisations;
- (k) to encourage through their organisations closer relationships among teachers and education employees in all countries and at all levels of education;
- (I) to promote and to assist in the development of independent and democratic organisations of teachers and education employees, particularly in those countries where political, social, economic or other conditions impede the application of their human and trade union rights, the advancement of their terms and working conditions and the improvement of educational services;
- (m) to promite unity among all independent and democratic trade unions both within the educational sector and with other sectors; and thereby contribute to the further development of the international trade union movement.

Article 3. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- (a) The Education International shall be guided by the ideals of democracy, human rights and social justice.
- (b) The Education International shall be independent of every government. It shall be self-governing and not subject to control by any political party or ideological or religious grouping.
- (c) The Education International shall be associated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU) and work very closely with the International Trade Secretariats, in accordance with the Milan Agreement which guarantees that the Education International shall be autonomous and thus that the ICFTU cannot interfere in its internal affairs. Furthermore:

- any change in this relationship shall be subject to ratification by the Education International's World Congress;
- (ii) affiliation of member organisations with national trade union centres is a matter to be determined solely by those member organisations.
- (d) The Education International shall not interfere in the internal affairs of member organisations. It shall respect internal freedom and diversity of expression in accordance with the principles of the constitution.

Article 4. MEMBERSHIP

- (a) The Education International shall be composed of organisations of teachers and education and research employees upholding the principles of independent trade unionism and aspiring to enhance democracy, human rights and social justice in their respective nations, to improve the living and working conditions of their members and to advance education through trade union action.
- (b) Any national organisation composed predominantly of teachers and education employees¹ shall have the right to apply for membership and shall be admitted as a member of the Education International by the Executive Board, provided that the applicant;
 - subscribes to the aims and principles as described in Article 2 and 3 - and is thereby actively engaged in promoting the overall professional and trade union interests of its members;

Definition of scope of membership. References throughout this constitution to teachers and educational employees should be interpreted in the broadest sense, since member organisations may also include, for example, employees engaged in research or in cultural or youth services.

- (ii) pledges to fulfil the obligations of membership as described in Article 6;
- (iii) is, to the extent possible, national in character and scope and representative of teachers and/or other education employees in its country. The term country is defined according to membership in the United Nations. Nevertheless applications may also be considered from organisations at the regional level in a country where there is no national member.

Exceptions to this provision may be made by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at the Executive Board.

- (iv) practices internal democracy in the designation of its leadership, in the determination of its goals, policies and activities and in the management and administration of all of its affairs;
- is self-governing and not under the control of any political party, government and ideological or religious grouping;
- (vi) is not affiliated to or formally associated with other international teacher's trade union bodies or with their regional structures. This restriction does not apply in the case of affiliation to autonomous regional bodies.
- (vii) is not part of an organisation already in membership, such that acceptance of the application would create double affiliation.
- (c) If an application is received from an organisation operating in a country in which the Education International already has a member organisation, the Executive Board will consult with the member organisation(s) concerned before making its decision. In the event that the decision of the Executive Board on a membership application is contested, an appeal may be made to the World Congress in accordance with the By-laws. The decision of the World Congress shall be final.

(d) Only applications duly authorised by the applicant's governing body shall be taken into consideration by the Executive Board.

Article 5. COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS ON MEMBERSHIP

- (a) A Committee of Experts shall be established to report to the Executive Board on the application of membership criteria in cases where the Executive Board considers further inquiry to be necessary in order to reach a decision, or in cases where charges are brought against a member organisation.
- (b) Procedures for the establishment and operation of the Committee of Experts shall be determined in the By-laws.

Article 6. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

- (a) Every member organisation shall have the same constitutional rights and shall be bound by the same constitutional responsibilities, including the payment of membership fees as provided under Article 19.
- (b) From the date of admission to the Education International every member organisation shall accept the following obligations:
 - (i) to promote their members' awareness of the aims and work of the Education International;
 - (ii) to promote the interests of the Education International;
 - (iii) to inform the Education International about all major actions taken in pursuance of the Education International's aims;

18

(iv) to keep the Education International informed about national activities:

Article 7. SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- (a) In the event that it is charged that a member organisation violates or ceases to fulfill the requirements of the constitution, on the basis of a complaint lodged by the governing body of another member organisation, the Executive Board shall refer the matter to the Committee of Experts established under the provisions of Article 5. The Executive Board may also initiate a referral to the Committee of Experts. The following requirements shall be met:
 - (i) The Committee of Experts shall enquire into the charges and conduct a due hearing before presenting its finding to the Executive Board.
 - (ii) The organisation whose membership status is under review by the Committee of Experts, shall be given due notice, a copy of the charges, the right to respond to the charges, and a copy of the finding of the Committee of Experts.
 - (iii) The finding of the Committee of Experts shall be communicated to the Executive Board for action as specified in the By-laws.
 - (iv) A two thirds majority of those who are both present and voting at a quorate session shall be required for the Executive Board to exclude an organisation from membership.
 - (v) The member organisation concerned shall be informed of the decision of the Executive Board and of the reasons justifying that decision.
 - (b) Any organisation which is more than twelve (12) months in arrears of the payment of its membership dues, without the approval of the Executive Board, shall be excluded from membership.

- (c) Any member that has been suspended or excluded by the Executive Board other than for being in arrears of the payment of membership dues, shall have the right of appeal to the World Congress under conditions to be specified in the By-laws.
- (d) An organisation which seeks to withdraw from membership in the Education International shall provide notification of such intent six months in advance. Financial obligations to the Education International shall not expire until the end of the six month period.
- (e) Only notifications of withdrawal duly authorised by the member's governing body shall be taken into consideration by the Executive Board.

Article 8. ORGANISATION

The organisation of the Education International shall be:

- (a) Governing Bodies
 - (i) World Congress; and
 - (ii) Executive Board;
- (b) Committee of Experts on Membership
- (c) Regional Structures
- (d) Standing Committees
 - (i) Sectoral

Article 9. WORLD CONGRESS

- (a) The World Congress shall be the supreme authority of the Education International.
- (b) An ordinary session of the Congress shall:
 - (i) adopt its rules of procedure and agenda;
 - (ii) elect the President, Vice Presidents, General Secretary and other members of the Executive Board;
 - (iii) appoint the auditors;
 - (iv) determine the policies, principles of action and programme of the Education International;
 - (v) consider the activity report of the General Secretary;
 - (vi) consider the audited financial report, adopt the general budget, and determine the membership fees.
- (c) The Congress shall have the authority to amend the Constitution by a two-thirds majority vote or the By-laws by a majority vote and to take final decisions in case of appeals concerning applications for membership, the suspension or expulsion of member organisations or the removal of members of the Executive Board.

- (d) The Congress shall be composed of delegates representing member organisations and of the Executive Board.
- (e) Each member organisation shall be entitled to one delegate; additional delegates shall be allocated to each member organisation whose membership fees have been paid in full prior to the World Congress in accordance with the following scale: up to10,000 members 1 delegate;and more than 10,000 members, 1 additional delegate for every 10,000 members or a part thereof with a maximum of 50 delegates for any one organisation.
- (f) Votes shall be allocated to each member organisation whose membership fees have been paid in full prior to the World Congress in accordance with the following scale: up to 5,000 members1 vote; and more than 5,000 members, 1 additional vote for every 5,000 members or a part thereof.
- (g) A fully paid up organisation may vote by proxy provided it has given advance notice in writing to the General Secretary.
- (h) Member organisations shall receive provisional notification by the General Secretary of the number of delegates and votes to be allocated to them. A Credentials Committee to be appointed by the Executive Board shall verify and determine the allocation of delegate credentials and voting rights for each member organisation. No roll-call voting or election shall take place until the World Congress has adopted the report of the Credentials Committee.
- (i) The venue, date and provisional agenda of the Ordinary Congress shall be determined by the Executive Board, taking into account the recommendations made by the preceding Congress, and by the Regional Committees. Notification of the convening of the Ordinary Congress shall be given at least nine (9) months prior to the scheduled date.

- (j) The Congress shall meet in ordinary session at least every three years.
- (k) An Extraordinary Congress may be convened on the authority of the Executive Board (by a two-thirds majority vote) or shall be convened at the formal and properly substantiated request of at least twenty five (25) member organisations together representing at least one quarter of the paid membership.

Article 10. EXECUTIVE BOARD

- (a) The Executive Board shall direct the affairs and activities of the Education International between World Congresses in conformity with the resolutions and decisions of the latter.
- (b) The Executive Board shall:
 - (i) draft the agenda for the World Congress;
 - (ii) review implementation of the resolutions and decisions of the World Congress;
 - (iii) initiate policies and actions in accordance with the resolutions and decisions of the World Congress and with the aims and principles of the Education International;
 - (iv) review and approve financial statements, establish annual budgets, and submit a general budget to the World Congress;
 - (v) consider applications for membership, in accordance with Articles 4 and 5;
 - (vi) consider suspensions or exclusions of member organisations, in accordance with Article 7;

- (vii) determine standards, in accordance with recognised trade union practice, and procedures regarding the appointment, suspension, salary and conditions of employment of staff;
- (viii) determine the salary and conditions of employment of the General Secretary;
- (ix) submit to the World Congress a report on its decisions and activities.
- (c) The Executive Board shall be composed of twenty three (23) members, including:
 - (i) the President and four (4) Vice-Presidents;
 - (ii) a General Secretary;
 - (iii) ten (10) members, two from each region, and
 - (iv) seven (7) members;

at least two of the Vice-Presidents and at least one member from each region shall be women.

- - at the end of each ordinary session of the World Congress. Each member of the Executive Board shall be eligible for reelection for two additional terms in the same position, except that there shall be no limitation on the number of terms which may be served by the General Secretary;
 - (ii) at such time as an organisation to which the member belongs is no longer a member of the Education International.

- (e) A person holding a position outside the Education International or its member organisations which would be in conflict with his/her independent responsibility to the Education International cannot be a member of the Executive Board.
- (f) The Executive Board may remove a member from office under the following conditions:
 - (i) an objection raised by a member organisation in writing to the continuance in office of a member of the Executive Board who at the time of his or her election was a member or officer of that member organisation;
 - (ii) cessation of eligibility for men bership of the Executive Board under article 10(e).
 - (iii) grave misconduct or dereliction of duty.
- (g) An Executive Board member whose removal from office is under consideration shall have the right to be informed in writing of the objections raised and to respond before a meeting of the Executive Board. In the event of removal, the member concerned shall have the right of appeal to the World Congress.
- (h) In the event of a vacancy the Executive Board may appoint a replacement. If the vacancy occurs:
 - (i) in the position of President, a Vice-President shall be appointed as President until the next Congress;
 - (ii) in the position of Vice-President, a member of the Executive Board shall be appointed until the next Congress;
 - (iii) in the position of General Secretary, a replacement shall be appointed until the next Congress.

For other vacancies, the Executive Board shall seek a nomination, to which it shall give strong consideration, from the national organisation of the member being replaced.

- (i) The Executive Board shall meet in ordinary session at least once a year.
- (j) An extraordinary session of the Executive Board may be convened on the authority of the President or General Secretary and shall be convened at the formal and properly substantiated request of a two-thirds majority of members of the Board from organisations together representing at least one quarter of the paid membership.

Article 11. FUNCTIONS OF PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENTS AND GENERAL SECRETARY

- (a) The President shall be the principal representative of the organisation; he/she, or in his/her absence, one of the Vice-Presidents shall:
 - (i) chair the World Congress;
 - (ii) chair the meetings of the Executive Board;
 - (iii) represent the Education International, in consultation with the General Secretary.
- (b) The General Secretary shall be the Principal Executive Officer of the organisation; he/she shall:
 - (i) maintain liaison with member organisations, Regional Structures, Sectoral and other Standing Committees, and other bodies within the Education International; with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU), the International Trade Secretariats and other non-governmental organisations; and with intergovernmental bodies;

- (ii) convene and prepare meetings of the Executive Board and of the World Congress in accordance with decisions of the Executive Board;
- (iii) keep a record of the proceedings of the Congress and of the Executive Board;
- (iv) implement the decisions of the World Congress and the Executive Board;
- submit activity reports to the Executive Board and to the World Congress each time they meet;
- (vi) conduct the affairs of the Education International between meetings of the Executive Board, in accordance with the decisions taken by the Executive Board and the World Congress.
- (vii) be responsible to the Executive Board and the World Congress for the work of the Secretariat and for all staffing matters;
- (c) The President, Vice-Presidents and General Secretary shall meet at least once between Executive Board meetings.

Article 12. SECRETARIAT

- (a) The General Secretary shall be assisted by a secretariat staff to fulfil the tasks mentioned in Article 11(b).
- (b) The secretariat staff shall include at least one Deputy General Secretary to be appointed by the Executive Board in consultation with the General Secretary.
- (c) The standards and procedures regarding the appointment, suspension, salaries and conditions of employment of staff members shall be determined by the Executive Board.

- (d) The appointment, suspension, salaries and conditions of employment of staff members, with the exception of the appointment of a Deputy General Secretary, shall be attended to by the General Secretary in accordance with standards and procedures set out by the Executive Board.
- (e) In the event of suspension by the General Secretary, the individual suspended shall have the right of appeal to the next meeting of the Executive Board, or, with the approval of the suspended employee, through an alternative procedure to be established by the Executive Board.

BY-LAWS OF EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL

SECTION I - MEMBERSHIP

1. MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS

- (a) An application for membership, duly authorised by the applicant's governing body (ref. Article 4d of the Constitution) shall be lodged with the General Secreary and shall include a completed application form, a statement that it will subscribe to the aims and principles of the Education International and a copy of the Constitution of the applicant organisation.
- (b) Applications shall be considered by the Executive Board at the first meeting following receipt. At this meeting the General Secretary shall inform the Executive Board about the results of the consultations with any member organisations in the country of the applicant organisation.
- (c) Notice shall be sent to the applicant organisation and any member organisation in the same country within fifteen days of the decision of the Executive Board. An appeal to the World Congress may be filed by:
 - (i) a member organisation in the same country contesting a decision to admit;
 - (ii) an organisation whose application for membership has been denied.

Any appeal must be filed in writing to the General Secretary not more than 120 days after the decision of the Executive Board. The decision of the World Congress shall be final.

(d) Where a membership matter is referred to the Committee of Experts by the Executive Board the appeal procedures shall be as specified in 2 (j).

2. COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS ON MEMBERSHIP

- (a) The Committee of Experts shall be composed of a minimum of five and a maximum of seven members to be appointed by the Executive Board. One of the members of the Committee shall be designated by the Executive Board as the Committee's Chairperson. In agreement with the Chairperson, the General Secretary, who shall serve as the Committee's Administrative Secretary and provide all administrative services needed for the accomplishment of the Committee's tasks, shall convene and prepare Committee meetings.
- (b) Members of the Committee shall be selected according to their experience and expertise related to teachers' organisations and the trade union movement in general. They shall not be members of the Executive Board, of governing bodies of member organisations, or hold other positions in organisations which may create conflicts of interests affecting the impartiality of judgements.
- (c) Each member of the Committee shall be appointed for a single six year term. Appointments shall be made at intervals of three years with no more than half plus one of the members being appointed at any one time. In case of misconduct or dereliction of duty, the Executive Board may remove a Committee member from office.
- (d) In the event of a vacancy occurring on the Committee of Experts, a replacement shall be appointed by the Executive Board for the remainder of the term of the member whose place becomes vacant.
- (e) The Committee shall only examine cases referred to it by the Executive Board regarding:

- (i) applications for membership in respect of which the Board considers that conformity with the membership criteria is not evident:
- (ii) member organisations which have been charged by another member organisation or by the Board with failure to conform to the membership criteria.
- (f) When a case is referred to the Committee the Chairperson may designate one or more members to conduct an enquiry. The organisation concerned shall be notified that enquiry has been opened. The enquiry must respect rules of due process, including the right of the organisation concerned to a hearing and to present documentation. The enquiry shall be completed according to a time-scale pre-determined by the Committee. The report resulting from this enquiry must be considered by the Committee as a whole, which is required to make a finding as to whether the member or applicant organisation is in conformity with the membership criteria of the Education International;
- (g) If the Committee of Experts finds conformity with the criteria:
 - (i) in the case of a member organisation of the Education International, it shall be proposed that the Executive Board confirm its membership status;
 - (ii) in the case of an applicant organisation, the Executive Board shall be notified that there is no statutory obstacle to admission.
- (h) If the Committee of Experts finds non-conformity with the criteria, unless the Executive Board determines that the procedures followed by the Committee of Experts were not impartial, or that due process was not respected:

- in the case of a member organisation of the Education International, the organisation shall be suspended for a period of three years, unless the Executive Board
 - by majority vote, provides for a shorter period of suspension;
 - by two thirds majority, votes to exclude the organisation from membership.
 At the end of the period of suspension the question of whether the organisation is in conformity or nonconformity with the membership criteria shall be reexamined by the Committee of Experts.
- (ii) in the case of an applicant organisation, the application shall be rejected. The Executive Board may offer to assist such organisation to meet the membership criteria.
- (i) The Committee shall present its finding to the Executive Board, together with a written report describing its enquiry and showing, in the event that the Committee's conclusions are not unanimous, details of its votes on the finding.
- (j) The member or applicant organisation concerned shall be informed of the Committee's finding. The organisation has the right to lodge an objection to the Executive Board if it considers that the enquiry was not impartial or that due process was not followed. If such an objection is lodged, the Executive Board must satisfy itself that the Committee's finding was arrived at in an impartial manner and with respect for due process. If the Board is not so satisfied, it shall refer the case back to the Committee for a new enquiry.
- (k) Notice shall be sent to any member or applicant organisation which has been a party to a case shall be informed within fifteen days of the decision. Appeals to the World Congress concerning cases considered by the Executive Board on the basis of a finding by the Committee of Experts may be filed only by:

- (i) an organisation which has been suspended or excluded from membership;
- (ii) a member organisation which has been party to a case before the Committee of Experts involving another member organisation;
- (iii) an organisation whose application for membership has been denied because of a finding of the Committee of Experts.

In these cases any appeal must be filed in writing to the General Secretary not more than 120 days after the decision of the Executive Board and must be based upon the proposition that the procedures followed by the Committee of Experts and the Executive Board were not impartial or that due process was not respected. The decision of the World Congress shall be final.

(I) The Executive Board shall make the budgetary allocation necessary to cover the Committee's expenses.

SECTION II - CONGRESS

3. DELEGATES

- (a) At least six months prior to the opening of the Congress member organisations shall be sent provisional notification by the General Secretary of the number of delegates and votes to be allocated to them.
- (b) Member organisations entitled to send delegates to the Congress shall, three months prior to the opening of the Congress, furnish the General Secretary with the names of such delegates. One month prior to the opening of the

El By-Laws في ا

Congress the General Secretary shall issue to each delegate a credential certifying that he/she has been named as a delegate by a member organisation.

- (c) A delegate who is unable to attend the Congress may be replaced by a substitute from the organisation concerned provided that written notice of such substitution signed by an authorized officer of the organisation concerned is received by the General Secretary.
- (d) In order for the Congress to open at least one third of the member organisations having at least 50% of the total voting entitlement must be registered. A majority of the registered delegates shall constitute a quorum.

4. OBSERVERS AND GUESTS

- (a) At the discretion of the Executive Board organizations and individuals may be invited to attend the Congress as quests,
- (b) A member organisation may designate a reasonable number of observers from among its membership or staff.
- (c) Observers and guests may address the Congress if invited to do so by the Chair.

5. PLENARY SESSIONS

The Plenary Sessions shall be public except when the Congress decides to declare a closed session at which time only delegates and observers shall be present.

6. CHAIR

The President shall preside over the Congress. In his/her absence, a Vice-President shall preside, preference being given to the Vice-President with longest service in this office. If neither the President nor a Vice-President is available the meeting shall elect a chairperson from among the members of the Executive Board.

19 42

El By-Laws

7. COMMITTEES OF THE CONGRESS

(a) Credentials Committee

In accordance with Article 9(h) of the Constitution, the Executive Board shall appoint a Credentials Committee which shall be composed of at least three members. The Committee shall:

- (i) verify and determine the allocation of delegate credentials:
- (ii) verify and determine the voting rights for each member organisation;
- (iii) submit a report to the Congress during the first business session.

Pending the adoption of the Committee's report by the Congress, any delegate whose credentials are challenged shall enjoy full rights as a delegate.

(b) Elections Committee

The Congress shall elect an Elections Committee which shall be composed of at least five members and shall include delegates from all regions. The Committee shall:

- (i) ensure that elections are conducted fairly and in accordance with the Constitution and with By-law 13;
- (ii) report the results of each election to the Congress.

(c) Resolutions Committee

The Congress shall elect a Resolutions Committee. The Committee shall be composed of a Chairperson and fifteen members and shall include delegates from all regions.

43

El By-Laws

The Committee shall:

- (i) consider all resolutions and amendments to resolutions submitted to the Congress;
- (ii) prepare and present to the Congress recommendations regarding these resolutions and amendments, including the order of debate;
- (iii) prepare, if necessary, and present composite texts to the Congress;
- (iv) present recommendations regarding receivability and content of urgent resolutions.

The Resolutions Committee shall invite a member organisation which is not represented on the Committee to be represented at the Committee's meeting when a resolution or an amendment proposed by that member organisation is discussed.

- (d) Meetings of the Credentials Committee, the Elections Committee and the Resolutions Committee shall meet in closed session.
- (e) Voting in Committees shall be by show of hands and decisions shall be made on the basis of a simple majority.
- (f) The Congress may establish other Committees for the conduct of its business.

8. RULES OF DEBATE

(a) A delegate or member of the Executive Board shall speak only once in a debate, unless otherwise agreed by the Congress. The representative of a Congress Committee presenting a report or a mover of a motion, resolution or

- amendment (not concerning a motion of procedure) shall have the right of reply at the close of debate on an item.
- (b) A request to speak shall be made in writing to the Chair, except when related to a point of order or procedure. The Chair shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The Chair may call a speaker to order if his/her remarks are not relevant to the subject under discussion.
- (c) The time limit applicable to all speakers in debate shall be five minutes, except on procedural questions, when the Chair shall limit each intervention to a maximum of three minutes. When a delegate exceeds the allotted time, the Chair may call that delegate to order without delay.
- (d) The General Secretary shall have the right to speak on any subject.

9. RESOLUTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

- (a) Resolutions, written in one of the four official languages, shall be submitted to and received by the General Secretary at least four months prior to the opening of the Congress. They shall be translated and distributed to the member organisations at least three months prior to the opening of the Congress.
- (b) Amendments to resolutions, written in one of the four official languages, shall be submitted to and received by the General Secretary no later than during the period of registration prior to the opening session of the Congress. They shall be translated and distributed to the delegates as soon as possible.
- (c) The Resolutions Committee shall determine whether a resolution or amendment is in order. If the determination of the Resolutions Committee is challenged by a delegation, it shall then be put to the Congress whose decision shall be final.

- (d) Urgent resolutions Urgent resolutions may be considered in the case of matters arising less than three months prior to the opening of the Congress.
 - (i) Urgent resolutions, written in one of the four official languages, shall be submitted to and received by the General Secretary prior to the end of the opening session of the Congress. If exceptional events occur during a Congress, urgent resolutions on those events may be considered with the approval of two-thirds of the delegates present and voting. Urgent resolutions shall be translated and distributed to the delegates as soon as possible.
 - (ii) The Resolutions Committee shall determine whether an urgent resolution is in order. If the determination of the Resolutions Committee is challenged by a delegation, it shall then be put to the Congress whose decision shall be final.
 - (iii) Amendments to urgent resolutions may be presented verbally to the Congress during debate.
 - (iv) The Chair shall determine whether an amendment to an urgent resolution is in order. If the determination of the Chair is challenged by a delegation, it shall then be put to the Congress whose decision shall be final.
- (e) The debate on a resolution or amendment shall not commence before the texts have been translated and distributed to the delegates, except in the case of an amendment to an urgent resolution presented verbally.

(f) If a member organisation submitting a resolution accepts an amendment to that resolution, the amended resolution shall form the basis for further debate.

10. POINTS OF ORDER, MOTIONS OF PROCEDURE

- (a) The debate on a question may be interrupted at any time by a point of order or by a motion of procedure. The Chair shall give an immediate ruling in response to a point of order.
- (b) A motion challenging the ruling of the Chair shall be put immediately to a vote.
- (c) A motion of procedure shall be required in order:
 - (i) to adjourn the sitting;
 - (ii) to adjourn the debate;
 - (iii) to close the debate and/or vote on the item under discussion;
 - (iv) to proceed with the next item on the agenda.
- (d) The above or any other motion of procedure shall be put immediately to a vote, except that the delegation submitting the resolution under discussion, may exercise its right to reply.

11. VOTING

- (a) Upon registration each delegate shall be given a voting card.
- (b) Voting shall be by show of voting cards. If a delegation requests a roll call vote, the request must be supported by at least five delegations holding 20 percent of the total voting rights before such a vote shall be taken.
- (c) A resolution, motion or amendment shall be declared

El By-Laws

- defeated if an equal number of votes has been cast in favour and against it.
- (d) An amendment to a resolution shall be voted upon before the resolution concerned is put to a vote.
- (e) If there is more than one resolution on the same matter, the Chair shall determine the order in which these resolutions or amendments shall be voted upon by the Congress, starting with the text farthest from the status quo. In the event that a majority vote is carried in favour of a resolution or an amendment to a resolution, which renders the alternative(s) redundant, the latter(s) shall not be put to a vote.
- (f) In the event that none of the resolutions or amendments to a resolution is farther from the status quo than the other, the Congress shall determine the order in which these resolutions and amendments to a resolution shall be voted upon. In the event that a majority vote is carried in favour of such a resolution or amendment, the alternative(s) shall be considered redundant and shall not be put to a vote.

12. VOTING RIGHTS

- (a) The number of votes to which each organisation is entitled shall be determined as provided in Article 9(f) of the Constitution, whereby the membership of each organisation be calculated on the basis of the average amount of affiliation fees paid since the preceding Congress or between the year of affiliation and the Congress.
- (b) Any proxy must be presented in writing, signed by an authorised officer of the concerned member organisation, to the General Secretary prior to the opening of the Congress. No organisation may exercise more than three proxies, and proxies may only be exercised on behalf of organisations from the same region.

13. ELECTIONS

- (a) Elections shall be conducted by the Elections Committee.
- (b) Prior to the elections each delegation shall receive a copy of the report of the Credentials Committee, showing the voting entitlement of delegations and proxy voting rights.
- (c) Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot in the following order: President, Vice-Presidents, General Secretary, regional members of the Executive Board and other members of the Executive Board. The Congress programme shall specify the period of time between each of the above elections.
- (d) For each ballot, voting papers shall be prepared showing the names of candidates, listed in alphabetical order of family names. The Elections Committee shall give to a representative of each member organisation the number of voting papers indicated by the report of the Credentials Committee.
- (e) Votes must be cast for a number of candidates equal to the number of positions to be filled. A voting paper with votes cast for a greater or lesser number shall be invalid.
- (f) If the number of candidates for any position is equal to the number of vacancies for that position, the candidate(s) shall be declared elected, unless at least five delegations holding 20 percent of the total voting rights request a secret ballot.
- (g) For the position of President, Vice-President and General Secretary a candidate must receive at least half plus one of the total votes cast in order to be elected. If for the position of President or General Secretary no candidate receives such majority on the first ballot, a run-off ballot shall be held between the two candidates receiving the most votes. For the positions of Vice-President, if necessary, run-off ballots shall be held among the candidates receiving the most votes, according to the vacancies remaining to be filled.

- (h) In the case of an uncontested election for which a secret ballot is held under 13 (f) and the candidate(s) do(es) not obtain the majority specified in 13 (g), new nominations shall be called and a new election conducted according to deadlines determined by the Congress.
- (i) For other positions on the Executive Board and for any other elections conducted at the World Congress, candidates receiving the highest number of votes corresponding to the number of positions to be filled, shall be declared elected.
- (j) A candidate for the office of President, Vice-President or General Secretary must be nominated by at least four member organisations from different countries, including his/her own organisation. Nominations for these offices, together with a statement signed by the candidate accepting nomination, must be filed with the General Secretary not less than four months before the opening of the Congress. The names of all candidates shall be sent to all member organisations at least three months before the opening of the World Congress.
- (k) A candidate for other positions on the Executive Board must be nominated by at least two member organisations, including his/her own organisation. Nominations for these positions, accompanied by a statement signed by the candidate accepting nomination, shall be filed with the General Secretary in accordance with deadlines determined by the Congress.
- (I) If as a result of withdrawal or other reason the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, electoral arrangements shall be made at the Congress.

14. RECORD OF PROCEDURE

The General Secretary shall be responsible for ensuring that a record is kept of every vote and all the proceedings of the Congress.

15. OTHER QUESTIONS

In all questions of order not specified above, the Chair shall recommend appropriate procedures to the Congress.

SECTION III - EXECUTIVE BOARD

16 MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

- (a) The President of the Education International shall be chairperson of the Executive Board. In his/her absence, a Vice-President shall preside, preference being given to the Vice President with longest service in this office. If neither the President nor a Vice-President is available, the Executive Board shall elect a chairperson from among its members.
- (b) The first meeting of the new Executive Board shall be held before the members leave the place of the Congress.
- (c) The Executive Board shall meet at least once in any calendar year in addition to meetings immediately before and after the Congress. An extraordinary meeting of the Executive Board may be convened in accordance with Article 10(j) of the Constitution.
- (d) The President, Vice-Presidents and General Secretary shall meet at least once between two Executive Board meetings.

17. COMMITTEES OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

(a) Finance Committee

At its first meeting after the Congress the Executive Board shall appoint five of its members to form the Finance Committee. The terms of reference of the Finance Committee are given in By-law 25 (c).

(b) Constitution and By-laws Committee At its first meeting after the Congress the Executive Board shall appoint at least three of its members to form the Constitution and By-laws Committee. The Executive Board shall appoint the Committee's Chairperson who shall preside over the Committee's meetings and who shall be the Committee's spokesperson.

SECTION IV - REGIONAL STRUCTURES

18. DEFINITION OF REGIONS

The regions are defined in Article 13 of the Constitution. Allocation of countries to these regions shall be determined by the Executive Board which shall undertake any necessary consultations. These allocations shall be published in the Handbook.

19. BY-LAWS OF REGIONAL STRUCTURES

- (a) By-laws of a regional structure, submitted to the Executive Board in accordance with Article 13(c) of the Constitution, must satisfy the following conditions:
 - (i) A region shall be defined as one of the five regions named in Article 13(a) of the Constitution.
 - (ii) All member organisations in a region shall be included in the regional structure.
 - (iii) The designation, functions, method of election and term of office of regional office holders shall be clearly set out at the first meeting of the regional grouping, convened by the General Secretary.

- (iv) The organisation and methods of governance of the regional structure, the frequency of meeting of its various bodies, and the quorum applicable to each meeting shall be clearly specified.
- (v) Provision shall be made for the permanent presence of at least one member of the Executive Board of the Education International in the governing body of the regional grouping.
- (vi) Ultimate responsibility for administration and communication shall rest with the General Secretary of the Education International who shall present reports to each meeting of the Executive Board.
- (vii) In the event of any conflict over provisions of the regional structure and those of the Education International, the provisions of the Constitution and the By-laws of the Education International shall prevail.
- (b) Any proposal for an activity of a regional structure which involves expenditures by the Education International must be accompanied by a full statement of costs and shall not be undertaken without the prior approval of the Executive Board or the General Secretary.

20. SUPPLEMENTARY MEMBERSHIP DUES

Subject to approval by the Executive Board, a regional structure may establish supplementary membership dues to be paid by member organisations in the concerned region. The supplementary membership fee shall be:

(a) (i) a percentage in addition to the membership dues of the Education International.

- (ii) collected by the Education International.
- (b) In no instance shall the supplementary membership dues paid to the regional structure be greater than or calculated on a different basis to the membership dues paid to El.

SECTION V - COMMITTEES OF THE EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL

21. COMPOSITION OF COMMITTEES

In composing all committees, the Executive Board shall take into account regional and gender balance.

22. SECTORAL STANDING COMMITTEES

- (a) Sectoral Standing Committees shall be composed of a maximum of 10 members to be appointed by the Executive Board in accordance with Article 14(b) of the Constitution. Each Committee shall include a representative of the Executive Board. Other members shall be appointed from among candidates recommended by member organisations or on the basis of their particular expertise. Each Committee shall elect a Chairperson who shall preside over the Committees' meetings.
- (b) A member shall be appointed for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term.
- (c) The staff providing services to a Sectoral Standing Committee shall be assigned by the General Secretary, who shall, in consultation with the Chairperson, convene and prepare Committee meetings.
- (d) Each Committee shall:

- (i) advise the Executive Board on educational and professional issues of concern to teachers and other education employees;
 - (ii) recommend policies and activities to be adopted and undertaken by the Education International, including seminars, conferences, studies or other activities, and advise on their implementation.
 - (iii) implement activities upon the mandate of the Executive Board to which they shall account in a written annual report presented through the General Secretary.
- (e) Each Committee shall meet once per year.
- (f) On the authorisation of the Executive Board, two or more Committees may decide to have joint meetings and/or to establish working groups addressing trans-sectoral educational and professional issues.

- (ii) Where the number of candidates is greater than the number to be elected, each member organisation shall receive a ballot paper on which shall be indicated the number of votes allocated to that organisation.
- (iii) The first election shall be for the office of President.

 Where ballot papers are issued, member organisations which choose to vote shall vote for one (1) candidate.
- (iv) The second election shall be for the office of Vice President. Where ballot papers are issued, member organisations which choose to vote shall vote for three (3) candidates. The woman necessary to satisfy the requirements in paragraph c (ii) shall be declared elected by taking the appropriate number of candidates with the highest number of votes. The appropriate number of remaining candidates shall be declared elected according to the number of votes cast.
- (v) The third election shall be for the twenty two (22) Board Members. Where ballot papers are issued, member organisations which choose to vote shall vote for twenty three (23) candidates. The three (3) candidates from each of the groups of countries mentioned in paragraph (c) (iii) with the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The women necessary to satisfy the requirements in paragraph (e) shall be declared elected by taking the appropriate number of candidates with the highest number of votes. The appropriate number of remaining candidates shall be declared elected according to the number of votes cast.
- (g) The term of office of each member of the Regional Committee shall be two years and shall expire

- (i) at the end of the Regional Conference; or
- (ii) at such time as an organisation to which the member belongs is no longer a member of the Education International.
- (h) A member of the Regional Committee who retires in accordance with paragraph (g) (i), shall be eligible for reelection.
- (i) Article 10 (e), (f), (g) of the Constitution of the Education International shall be applicable to members of the Regional Committee. In the event of removal the member concerned shall have the right of appeal to the Regional Conference.
- (j) In the event of a vacancy, the Regional Committee may appoint a replacement. If the vacancy occurs:
 - (i) in the position of President, a Vice-President shall be appointed as President until the next Regional Conference:
 - (ii) in the position of Vice-President, a member of the Regional Committee shall be appointed until the next Regional Conference;

For other vacancies, the Regional Committee shall seek a nomination, to which it shall give strong consideration, from the national organisation of the member being replaced.

- (k) The Regional Committee shall meet at least twice a year.
- 6. FUNCTIONS OF PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENTS
- (a) The President, or in his/her absence, one of the Vice-Presidents shall:
 - (!) chair the Regional Conference;

- (ii) chair the meetings of the Regional Committee;
- (iii) maintain liaison with the Executive Board of the Education International:
- (iv) liaise as necessary with the Secretariat of the Education International between meetings of the Regional Committee.

7. SECRETARIAT

The secretariat and financial administration shall be provided by the General Secretary of the Education International

8. FINANCES

- (a) Supplementary membership dues to be paid by the member organisations shall be determined by the Regional Conference on a per capita basis in accordance with by-law 20 of the Education International.
- (b) The supplementary membership dues shall cover all expenses related to the Regional Conference, to meetings of the Regional Committee and other regional activities.
- (c) Member organisations that are affiliated to the European Trade Union Committee for Education (ETUCE) shall pay their membership dues to ETUCE through the Education International.
- (d) Supplementary dues shall be paid to the Education International before June 30 of each year, and shall be computed on the membership reported as of 31 December of the preceding year.
- (e) Any organisation which is more than twelve (12) months in arrears of the payment of its supplementary membership dues, without the approval of the Regional Committee, may, at the recommendation of the Regional Committee, be suspended by the Executive Board of the Education International in accordance with Article 7 (b) of the Constitution

(f) If a member organisation is unable to fulfil its financial obligations, owing to extraordinary circumstances, the Regional Committee may recommend the Executive Board of the Education International to, in accordance with Article 19 (c) of the Constitution, grant a delay, a temporary deduction or, in extreme cases, a temporary exemption from the payment of such supplementary fees.

(II) SUPPLEMENTAL MEMBERSHIP FEES 1993 and 1994

The proposed By-laws for the El European structure provide for an annual Regional Conference, a Regional Committee elected by the Regional Conference, and a Secretariat. The budgetary consequences of these provisions are given below. Projected are the expenditures for one conference per annum, two meetings of the Regional Committee in 1993 and two in 1994, and a European Bulletin. As for the Regional Conference the budget includes the cost of simultaneous translation in two languages (English and French) as well as travel and hotel expenditures to be made for a maximum of ten (10) members, representing organisations in Central and Eastern Europe. As for the two meetings of the Regional Committee, the budget covers the travel and hotel expenditures of all (26) Committee members. The total expenditures are BEF 4.960.000.00 in 1993 and BEF in 5.315.500.00, which implies that membership dues should be fixed at:

BEF 2.07 in 1993 and

BEF 2.21 in 1994.

The budget does not include expenditures to be made for other activities to be undertaken by the El in Europe.

BY-LAWS LATIN AMERICA

CHAPTER I ON THE REGIONAL ORGANISATION

- Art. 1. The organisation will be called: Education International for Latin America (EILA)
- Art. 2. The EILA will include all the organisations of the Latin America Region which are founder members of the Education International and all those which have been admitted as members under Art. 4 of the Constitution.
- Art. 3. The Education International for Latin America will have the following functions:
 - a. Carrying out the objectives and principles of the Education International (EI) in the Region.
 - b. Forming a mechanism for the application at regional level of the measures and policies established at the international level by the El.
 - c. Forming an advisory and cc `ultative body to the Executive Committee and General Secretary of the El.
 - d. Establishing policies for the region in accordance with the decisions taken at El Congresses.
 - Enabling and facilitating the communication and adoption of measures and policies among the member organisations.
- Art. 4. The highest authority of the EILA is the Regional Conference, which will ordinarily meet once between each two World Congresses of the El. It should be called at least 7 months before the date on which it is due to be held.

Art. 5. The EILA will be able to hold extraordinary Regional Conferences in places and on dates as chosen by the Regional Committee.

An extraordinary meeting of a Regional Conference must meet the following requirements:

- 1 It must be called at least 120 days before the date on which it is to be held.
- The notice of the conference must indicate the themes to be dealt with at the extraordinary conference. No themes may be dealt with there which do not appear in the notice, with the exception of urgent matters where necessary.
- 3 It must be financed by extra-budgetary funds from the EI.
- 4 It must be called by a two-thirds majority of votes of the members of the Regional Committee.
- Art. 6 Half plus one of the total number of countries and national organisations included in the EILA will constitute a quorum for the holding and legitimation of both regular and extraordinary Regional Conferences.
- Art. 7 Each member organisation has the right to a delegate at the Regional Conference. The representation costs of this delegate will be met by the El budget approved for the holding of the Conference.
- Art. 8 Each member organisation of the EILA has the right to determinate additional delegates on the basis of the number of members who have paid their affiliation dues in full before the holding of the Regional Conference and in accordance with the following scale:

Up to 5,000 members - one delegate

For each additional 5,000 members or fraction of more than 1,000 members one delegate

The maximum number of delegates for each organisation is 10.

The representation costs of the additional delegates will be met by the national organisation which appointed them.

Art. 9 The number of votes of each member organisation of the EILA will be established on the basis of the total number of members who have paid their affiliation dues in full before the holding of the Regional Conference and in accordance with the following scale:

Up to 5,000 members - one vote For each additional 5,000 members or fraction of more than 1,000 members one vote

An organisation which has paid its dues in full will be able to cast its vote by proxy, provided that it has notified the General Secretary of the EI in writing in advance.

- Art. 10 The General Secretary will inform each affiliated organisation of the number of delegates and votes to which it is entitled in due time. The Credentials Committee appointed by the Regional Committee will determine the number of delegates present, their credentials and the voting rights to which each member organisation is entitled, in accordance with the information provided by the General Secretary and the payments made by the organisations before or during the Conference.
- Art. 11 The member organisations of the EILA will appoint their delegates to the Regional Conference, applying their own statutes or internal regulations.
- Art. 12 The functions of the Regional Conference are as follows:

- i. To adopt its procedural rules, determine its agenda and draw up the programme.
- ii. To elect the President, Vice Presidents and other members of the Regional Committee.
- iii. To determine the policies, activities, programmes and projects of the EILA.
- iv. To lay down general lines of policy and priorities to guide the activities of the Regional Executive Committee.
- v. To approve the activities report of the Regional Executive Committee.
- vi. To examine the financial report and to adopt the general budget of the EILA.
- vii. To carry out all other activities in keeping with its character as a higher organisation.

CHAPTER II ON THE REGIONAL COMMITTEE

- Art. 13 The Regional Committee will be elected by the Regional Conference and will direct the activities and affairs of the EILA during the period between two ordinary Regional Conferences, in accordance with the resolutions and decisions of the last Regional Conference and/or of the extraordinary regional conferences held in the intervening period between the two ordinary Regional Conferences, and with the resolutions and decisions of the Executive Committee and the World Congress of the EI.
- Art. 14 The functions of the Regional Committee are as follows:
 - i. To prepare the agenda and documentation for the holding of the Regional Conference.
 - To supervise the implementation of the resolutions and decisions of the Regional Conference.

- iii. To initiate policies and activities in accordance with the decisions of the Regional Conference, the World congress and the principles and objectives of the El.
- iv. To examine and approve the financial reports presented by the Regional Secretary.
- To prepare the EILA budget proposal and to submit it for the approval of the Regional Conference.
- vi. To call the ordinary and extraordinary Regional Conferences.
- vii. To present the Regional Conference with a general activities report and with proposals for future activities.
- Art. 15 The Regional Committee will consist of 14 members in the following manner:
 - 1 President elected from any member organisation enjoying full rights from any country of the region.
 - 4 Vice Presidents elected from any member organisation enjoying full rights; one for the subregion Central America and one for the sub-region South America.

At least two of these five positions must be held by women.

- 6 regional posts distributed as follows: 3 for the subregion Central America and 3 for the sub-region South America.

At least two of these six posts must be held by women.

- Art. 16 No country or organisation may have more than one member on the Regional Committee.
- Art. 17 The members of the Executive Committee of the Education International for the Region of Latin America will be members of the Regional Committee in their own right, included among the six regional posts established in Art. 15. They will be able to hold the positions of President or Vice President if the Regional Conference elects them to these positions in accordance with the electoral procedure as laid down in the present Regulations.
- Art. 18 The General Secretary of the Education International or his representative will be a member of the Regional Committee in his own right, with the right to speak but without the right to vote.
- Art. 19 The members of the Regional Committee will serve in their functions for the period intervening between the holding of two ordinary Regional Conferences.

 They may be re-elected to the same position or to a different one for two additional periods.
- Art. 20 The Regional Committee will meet once a year in the place determined by the Regional Committee itself.

If special circumstances occasion a change of venue, the resolution will be taken by correspondence with a vote in favour by at least 8 of its members.

- Art. 21 Parts E and H of Art. 10 of the El Statutes are applicable to the Regional Committee.
- Art. 22 It is the duty of the President of the Regional Committee, or one of the Vice Presidents in his absence, to:
 - i. Chair the Regional Conference.

- ii. Chair the meetings of the Regional Committee.
- iii. Call the ordinary or extraordinary Regional Conferences together with the General Secretary of the Education International.
- Art. 23 The resolutions of the Regional Committee will be taken by a majority of votes.
- Art. 24 The Principal Coordinator of the El for the Region will be the Secretary of the Regional Committee of the ElLA.

CHAPTER III FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

- Art. 25 The funds of the EILA will be constituted in the following manner:
 - iv. The budgetary sum allocated by the El and approved by the World Congress for the functioning of the Region.
 - v. The additional dues to be collected from the member organisations as approved by the Regional Conference.

In no case may the additional dues exceed the affiliation dues paid by each member organisation to the El by more than 25%.

CHAPTER IV ELECTORAL PROCEDURE

Art. 26 The Regional Conference will elect an Electoral Committee composed of at least 5 members, in which the sub-regions of the EILA are represented.

The duties of the Electoral Committee are:

- vi. To ensure that the elections are held in a correct manner and that the present Regulations are stric y adhered to.
- vii. To inform the Regional Conference of the result of the elections and to declare the election result for each position.
- Art. 27 The holding of the elections of the Regional Committee will take place in accordance with the following rules:
 - viii. The candidates for the positions of President and Vice President will be presented in writing to the Principal Coordinator of the El by at least 4 organisations including their own organisation. The candidacies and the signed declaration of proposals must be submitted at least four months before the opening date of the Regional Conference.
 - ix. The names of the candidates for the positions of President and Vice President will be submitted to the member organisations at least two months before the opening date of the Regional Conference
 - x. If no more than one candidate is proposed for the positions of President and Vice President for each sub-region, no elections will be held and the Electoral Committee will declare the election result at the Regional Conference.
 - xi. The candidates for the other positions on the Regional Executive Committee must be presented in writing to the Principal Coordinator of the El by at least two organisations including their own organisation on the opening day of the Regional Conference.

Sb

- xii. If there are no other candidates apart from those who are elected for each sub-region, no elections will be held and the Electoral Committee will declare the election result.
- xiii. If it is necessary to hold elections, the same will be held separately for the positions of President, Vice President and the other members of the Regional Committee.
- xiv. Before the elections, each delegation should receive a copy of the report of the Credentials Committee stipulating the number of votes granted to each organisations and the representations by virtue of size.
- xv. The elections will be held by secret ballot. The Conference programme will specify the period in which each election will be held.
- xvi. The election ballots will cond in the surnames of the candidates in alphabetical order. Each Head of Delegation will receive from the Electoral Committee the number of ballots as indicated by the report of the Credentials Committee.
- xvii. Votes may be cast for the number of candidates equal to the number of positions to be filled. A ballot containing more or less votes for candidates than positions will be declared null and void.
- xviii. Half plus one of the total of votes to be cast will be required for the election of the President and Vice President. The other positions will be chosen by a simple majority.

xix. If there is a tie in any of the condests, a second round will be organised for the candidates with the most votes. If necessary, successive elections may be held in order to obtain the number of votes required to declare the election result.

CHAPTER V INTERPRETATION, AMENDMENTS AND VALIDITY

- Art. 28 In case of doubt, the interpretation of the present Regulations will be the responsibility of the Regional Committee.
- Art. 29 Proposals for amendments to the present Regulations will be presented to the Principal Coordinator in writing at least six months before the opening date of the Regional Conference. The proposals for amendments and the explanatory texts considered relevant will be submitted to the member organisations at least three months before the opening date of the Regional Conference.
- Art. 30 The amendments will be adopted if the Regional Conference approves them with at least half plus one of the votes cast.
- Art. 31 In the event of a discrepancy between the provisions of the present Regulations and those of the Education International, the provisions laid down in the statutes and Regulations of the Education International will take precedence.
- Art. 32 The present Regulations will come into force as from the date of their approval by the Regional Conference and the Executive Committee of the Education International.

Education International was established in January 1993 following the decision of the International Federation of Free Teachers' Union (IFFTU) and the World Confederation of Organisations of the Teaching Profession (WCOTP) to create a new International Trade Secretariat (ITS) for the education sector. Education International is associated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU). El has a membership of 258 national unions from 140 countries representing nearly 23 million teachers and workers in education.
