Legislation information is organized into the following broad categories: Civil Statutes; Civil Practice and Remedies Code; Education Code; Election Code; Government Code; Health and Safety Code; Human Resources Code; Insurance Code; Labor Code; Local Government Code; Penal Code; Property Code; Tax Code; and Miscellaneous. Concurrent resolutions of the legislature and a summary of Texas Attorney General Opinions relating to libraries and public records close the publication. (SWC)

PREFACE

Purpose

This new edition of Library Laws of Texas is published to provide a handy compilation of Texas statutes relating to libraries and topics of interest to librarians through the 74th Legislature, 1995. The last edition was published in 1991.

Scope

An effort has been made to include laws in which the words "library", "books", "Texas State Library", "Library and Archives Commission", and "director and librarian" appear in whatever form. In addition, the user will find legislation of interest to the library community on such topics as discrimination, intergovernmental cooperation, liability of public employees, obscenity, open records, public buildings and financing, etc. Concurrent resolutions of the legislature and a summary of Texas Attorney General Opinions relating to libraries and public records close the publication. For more detailed information on records management, please contact the State and Local Records Management Division of the Texas State Library.

Editing

Lengthy statutes or those containing provisions lacking relevance to libraries are not fully reproduced. Omissions of one or more sections, subsections, or paragraphs will be marked by the addition of asterisks (*), or with an elision (...) to show omissions within a paragraph. However, the reader should be aware that asterisks are not used to show text omitted prior to the first section or article quoted, as it is easy to determine that legislation beginning with section number 5 has had the first four sections omitted. Information added by the editor is enclosed within brackets ([ ]). The reader should always consult the full text to help determine if those portions omitted apply to the specific situation at hand.

Recodification

The Texas State Legislature has charged the Texas Legislative Council with the task of revising older statutes without changing their meaning or intent. As described by the Council "the process involves reclassifying and rearranging the statutes in a more logical order, employing a numbering system and format that will accommodate future expansion of the law, eliminating repealed, invalid, duplicative, and other ineffective provisions, and improving the draftsmanship of the law if practicable--all toward promoting the stated purpose of making the statutes 'more accessible, understandable and usable' without altering the sense, meaning, or effect of the law."

While the Council is busy with its task, the Legislature adds new laws and repeals or amends existing legislation. That is why in this compilation you might discover that a familiar statute has been replace by a new one or the topic divided among several statutes. Since the recodification process is on-going not all older statutes have been revised and relocated. That is why the first chapter of this compilation, Civil Statutes, contains laws in the older style format and on a variety of topics.
Legislative history

When the information was readily available, section notations were added within brackets to show the original date a statute was added and the date it was last amended. For example: [71st Leg., 1989; Amended 74th Leg., 1995] means that the act was added in 1989 by the 71st Legislature and last amended in 1995 by the 74th Legislature. The notation does not reference any repealed law which might have preceded the current act. While this publication is current as of the Regular Legislative Session of 1995, the notations are provided as an additional aid to the reader.

Texas State Library
Sec 1. All bonds heretofore voted by any incorporated city or town, including home rule cities, for the purpose of enlarging and improving a municipally owned and operated library building or constructing a new municipal library building, either or both, and all proceedings relating thereto, are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed, notwithstanding the fact that the election may not in all respects have been ordered and held in accordance with mandatory statutory provisions. Such bonds, when approved by the Attorney-General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and sold and delivered for not less than their par value plus accrued interest, shall be binding, legal, valid, and enforceable obligations of such city or town and shall be incontestable. Provided, however, that this Act shall apply only to such bonds which were authorized at an election or elections wherein a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters whose property had been duly rendered for taxation voted in favor of the issuance thereof.

Sec 2. This Act shall not be construed as validating any such bonds or proceedings, the validity of which has been contested or attacked in any suit or litigation pending at the time this Act becomes effective.

Sec 3. Revenue Bonds; Ordinance; Pledge of Revenues; Charges for Services; Leases.

(a) Any such city is hereby authorized to issue negotiable revenue bonds to provide all or part of the funds for the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of public improvements such as civic centers, civic center buildings, auditoriums, opera houses, music halls, exhibition halls, coliseums, museums, libraries or other city buildings, either or all, and golf courses, tennis courts, and other similar recreational facilities, and the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment or repair (any or all) of structures, parking areas or facilities, located at or in the immediate vicinity of such public improvements, to be used in connection with such public improvements for off-street parking or storage of motor vehicles or other conveyances.

(b) Such revenue bonds may be issued when duly authorized by an ordinance passed by the governing body of such city and shall be secured by a pledge of and be payable from all or any designated part of the revenues of said public improvements or said parking or storage facilities, as may be provided in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of such bonds. To the extent that such revenues may have been pledged to the payment of revenue or revenue refunding bonds which are still outstanding, the pledge securing the proposed bonds shall be inferior to the previous pledge or pledges. Within the discretion of the governing body of the city, and subject to limitations contained in previous pledges, if any, in addition to the pledge of revenues a lien may be given on all or any part of the physical properties acquired out of the proceeds from the sale of such bonds.

(c) When any of the revenues of such public improvements and facilities are pledged to the payment of bonds issued under this Act, it shall be the duty of the governing body of the city to cause to be fixed, maintained and enforced charges for services rendered by properties and facilities, the revenues of which have been pledged, at rates and amounts at least sufficient to comply with and carry out the covenants, and provisions contained in the ordinance or ordinances authorizing the issuance of said bonds.
(d) If any such city leases as lessee any one or more such public improvements, structures, parking areas or facilities, such city shall have authority to pledge to the lease payments required to be made by such city all or any part of the revenues of such public improvements, structures, parking areas or facilities.

Sec. 4. Payment of Principal or Interest on Bonds.

The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal of or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation, except as to room taxes, if pledged.

Art. 1269j-9. Validation of Proceedings for Public Improvements on Civic Centers, etc. [61st Leg., 1969]

Sec. 1. All proceedings, including all revenue bonds and all provisions, pledges, security, and other terms thereof, and the terms and conditions of the sale of such bonds; and all contracts, agreements, leases, operating agreements, options, and all other agreements and proceedings; taken, had, made, entered into or executed by the governing bodies of all cities and towns, including home rule cities, in the State of Texas, in connection with the establishment, acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, operation, maintenance, and/or use of public improvements authorized by and described in Chapter 63, page 148, Acts of 1965, 59th Legislature, Regular Session, as amended by Chapter 563, page 1239, Acts of 1967, 60th Legislature, Regular Session (compiled, as amended, as Article 1269j-4.1, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes), are in all things hereby fully validated, confirmed, approved and ratified.

Sec. 2. All orders, resolutions, ordinances, indentes, and other actions authorizing the issuance of or securing any such revenue bonds, and the sale thereof, and the other agreements and proceedings validated in Section 1 hereof are themselves hereby in all things validated, confirmed, approved, and ratified.

Title 32. CORPORATIONS.

Chapter 9. NON-PROFIT, COOPERATIVE, RELIGIOUS AND CHARITABLE.

1. Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

Art. 1396-2.01. Purposes. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 71st Leg., 1989]

A. Except as hereinafter in this Article expressly excluded herefrom, non-profit corporations may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose or purposes, which purposes shall be fully stated in the articles of incorporation. Such purpose or purposes may include, without being limited to, any one or more of the following: charitable, benevolent, religious, eleemosynary, patriotic, civic, missionary, educational, scientific, social, fraternal, athletic, aesthetic, agricultural and horticultural; and the conduct of professional, commercial, industrial, or trade associations; and animal husbandry. Subject to the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 83, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and of such Chapter or any part thereof as it may hereafter be amended, a corporation may be organized under this Act if any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to organize laborers, working men, or wage earners to protect themselves in their various pursuits.

Art. 1396-2.02. General Powers. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 71st Leg., 1989]

A. Subject to the provisions of Sections B and C of this Article, each corporation shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession by its corporate name, unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation. Notwithstanding the articles of incorporation, the period of duration for any corporation incorporated before August 10, 1959, is perpetual if all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as provided by law.

2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

3. To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed on, affixed to, or in any manner reproduced upon, instruments of any nature required to be executed by its proper officers.

4. To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated, as the purposes of the corporation shall require, or as shall be donated to it.

5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

6. To lend money to, and otherwise assist its employees and officers, but not its directors, if the loan or assistance may reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the corporation providing the assistance. Loans made to officers must be:

(a) made for the purpose of financing the principal residence of the officer, or

(b) made during the first year of that officer's employment, in which case the original principal amount may not exceed 100 percent of the officer's annual salary; or

(c) made in any subsequent year, in which case the original principal amount may not exceed 50 percent of the officer's annual salary.

7. To purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, mortgage, lend, pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, government district, or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.

(8) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(9) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(10) To conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have officers and exercise the powers granted by this Act in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or any foreign country.

(11) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation for such period of time as the corporation may determine and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(12) To make and alter by-laws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this State, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(13) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes and in time of war to make donations in aid of war activities.

(14) To cease its corporate activities and terminate its existence by voluntary dissolution.

(15) Whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

(16) An religious, charitable, educational, or eelemosnary institution organized under the laws of this State may acquire, own, hold, mortgage, and dispose of and invest its funds in real and personal property for the use and benefit and under the discretion of, and in trust for any convention, conference or association organized under the laws of this State or another state with which it is affiliated, or which elects its board of directors, or which controls it, in furtherance of the purposes of the member institution.

(17) To pay pensions and establish pension plans and pension trusts for all of, or class, or classes of its officer and employees, or its officers or its employees.

B. Nothing in this Article grants any authority to officers or directors of a corporation for the exercise of any of the foregoing powers, inconsistent with limitations on any of the same which maybe expressly set forth in this Act or in the articles of incorporation or by-laws or in any other laws of this State. Authority of officers and directors to act beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of a corporation is not granted by any provisions of this Article.

C. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to authorize any action in violation of the Anti-Trust Laws of this State or of any of the provisions of Chapter 4 of Title 32 of Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Art. 1396-2.04. Corporate Name. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 72nd Leg., 1991]

A. The corporate name shall conform to the following requirements:

(1) It shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(2) It shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under the laws of this State, or the name of any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this State, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided by the Texas Business Corporation Act, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in the Texas Business Corporation Act, provided that a name may be similar if written consent is obtained from the existing corporation having the name deemed to be similar, or the person, or corporation, for whom the name deemed to be similar is reserved or registered in the office of the Secretary of State.

(3) It shall not contain the word “lottery.”

Art. 1396-2.05. Registered Office and Registered Agent. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]

Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or to conduct its affairs in this State which has a business office identical with such registered office.

Art. 1396-2.08. Members. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 57th Leg., 1961]

A. A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members.

B. If the corporation has one or more classes of members, the designation of such class or classes, the manner of election or appointment, and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

C. If the corporation is to have no members, that fact shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation.
D. A corporation may issue certificates, or cards, or other instruments evidencing membership rights, voting rights or ownership rights as may be authorized in the articles of incorporation or in the by-laws.

E. The members of a non-profit corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

Art. 1396-2.09. By-Laws. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]
A. The initial by-laws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors or, if the management of the corporation is vested in its members, by the members. The by-laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

B. A corporation’s board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation’s by-laws, or adopt new by-laws, unless:
   (1) the articles of incorporation or this Act reserves the power exclusively to the members in whole or in part;
   (2) the management of the corporation is vested in its members; or
   (3) the members in amending, repealing, or adopting a particular by-law expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that by-law.

Art. 1396-2.10. Meetings Of Members. [56th Leg., 1959]
A. If a corporation has members:
   (1) Meetings of members shall be held at such place, either within or without this State, as may be provided in the by-laws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation in this State.
   (2) An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such times as may be provided in the by-laws, except that where the by-laws of a corporation provide for more than one regular meeting of members each year, an annual meeting shall not be required, and directors may be elected at such meetings as the by-laws may provide. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the corporation. In the event the board of directors fails to call the annual meeting at the designated time, any member may make demand that such meeting be held within a reasonable time, such demand to be made in writing by registered mail directed to any officer of the corporation. If the annual meeting of members is not called within sixty (60) days following such demand, any member may compel the holding of such annual meeting by legal action directed against said board, and all of the extraordinary writs of common law and of courts of equity shall be available to such member to compel the holding of such annual meeting. Each and every member is hereby declared to have a justiciable interest sufficient to enable him to institute and prosecute such legal proceedings.

(3) Special meetings of the members may be called by the president, the board of directors, by members having not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting, or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.14. Board of Directors or Trustees. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]
A. The affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. Directors need not be residents of this State or members of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or the by-laws so require. The articles of incorporation or the by-laws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

B. Boards of directors of religious, charitable, educational, or eleemosynary institutions may be affiliated with, elected and controlled by a convention, conference or association organized under the laws of this State or another state, whether incorporated or unincorporated, whose membership is composed of representatives, delegates, or messengers from any church or other religious association.

C. The articles of incorporation of a corporation may vest the management of the affairs of the corporation in its members. If the corporation has a board of directors, it may limit the authority of the board of directors to whatever extent as may be set forth in the articles of incorporation or by-laws. Except for a church organized and operating under a congregational system, was incorporated before January 1, 1994, and has the management of its affairs vested in its members, a corporation shall be deemed to have vested the management of the affairs of the corporation in its board of directors in the absence of an express provision to the contrary in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

D. The board of directors may be designated by any name appropriate to the customs, usages, or tenets of the corporation.

E. The board of directors of a corporation may be elected (in whole or in part) by one or more associations or corporations, organized under the laws of this State or another state if (1) the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the former corporation so provide, and (2) the former corporation has no members with voting rights.

F. The articles of incorporation or the by-laws may provide that any one or more persons may be ex-officio members of the board of directors. A person designated as an ex-officio member of the board of directors is entitled to notice of and to attend meetings of the board of directors. The ex-officio member is not entitled to vote unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. An ex-officio member of the board of directors who is not entitled to vote does not have the duties or liabilities of a director as provided in this Act.

Art. 1396-2.20. Officers. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]

A. The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president and a secretary and may also consist of one or more vice-presidents, a treasurer, and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms not exceeding three (3) years as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. In the absence of any such provisions, all officers shall be elected or appointed annually by the board of directors, or, if the management of the corporation is vested in its members, by the members. Any two or more officers may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. A committee duly designated may perform the functions of any officer and the functions of any two or more officers may be performed by a single committee, including the functions of both president and secretary.

B. The officers of a corporation may be designated by such other or additional titles as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

C. In the case of a corporation which is a church, it shall not be necessary that there be officers as provided herein, but such duties and responsibilities may be vested in the board of directors or other designated body in any manner provided for in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

D. In the discharge of a duty imposed or power conferred on an officer of a corporation, the officer may in good faith and with ordinary care rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, concerning the corporation or another person, that were prepared or presented by:

1. one or more other officers or employees of the corporation, including members of the board of directors;
2. legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person’s professional or expert competence; or
3. in the case of religious corporations, religious authorities and ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the officer believes justify reliance or confidence and whom the officer believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

E. An officer is not relying in good faith as required by Section D of this article if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by Section D of this article unwarranted.

Art. 1396-2.23. Books and Records. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]

A. Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, board of directors, and committees having any authority of the board of directors and shall keep at its registered office or principal office in this State a record of the names and addresses of its members entitled to vote.

B. A member of a corporation, on written demand stating the purpose of the demand, has the right to examine and copy, in person or by agent, accountant, or attorney, at any reasonable time, for any proper purpose, the books and records of the corporation relevant to that purpose, at the expense of the member.

Art. 1396-2.24. Dividends Prohibited. [56th Leg., 1959]

A. No dividend shall be paid and no part of the income of a corporation shall be distributed to its members, directors, or officers. A corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with its purposes, and upon dissolution or final liquidation may make distributions to its members, but only as permitted by this Act.

Art. 1396-3.01. Incorporators. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 70th Leg., 1987]

A. Any natural person of the age of eighteen (18) years or more without regard to the person’s place of residence or domicile may act as an incorporator of a corporation by signing the articles of incorporation for such corporation and delivering the original and a copy of the articles of incorporation to the Secretary of State.

B. Any religious society, charitable, benevolent, literary, or social association, or church may incorporate under this Act with the consent of a majority of its members, who shall authorize the incorporators to execute the articles of incorporation.

Art. 1396-3.02. Articles of Incorporation. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 73rd Leg., 1993]

A. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. A statement that the corporation is a non-profit corporation.
3. The period of duration, which may be perpetual.
4. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized.
5. If the corporation is to have no members, a statement to that effect.
6. If management of the affairs of the corporation is to be vested in its members, a statement to that effect.
7. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation.
8. The street address of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such street address.
9. The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors unless the management of the corporation is vested in its members, in which event a statement to that effect shall be set forth.

(10) The name and street or post office address of each incorporator.

(11) If the corporation is to be authorized on its dissolution to distribute its assets in a manner other than as provided by Article 6.02(3) of this Act, a statement describing the manner of distribution of the corporation's assets.

B. Provided that charters or articles of incorporation of corporations existing on the effective date of this Act which do not contain one or more of the requirements listed in the foregoing Section need not be amended for the purpose of meeting such requirements. Any subsequent amendment or restatement of the articles of incorporation of such corporation shall include such requirements, except that it shall not be necessary, in such amended or restated articles, to include the information required in Subsections (8), (9), and (10) of Section A.

C. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act.

D. Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the by-laws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a by-law, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

Art. 1396-3.03. Filing of Articles of Incorporation. [56th Leg., 1959; Amended 66th Leg., 1979]

A. The original and a copy of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

If it is determined that full compliance is not practical, there shall be substantial compliance as determined by the department with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the file system maintained by the department shall include the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification and shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification. Rules adopted as required by this subsection do not apply to the governing board or board of directors of a regional library system governed by applicable requirements of the Texas Business Corporation Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act (Article 1396-1.01 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

State grants may not be used for site acquisition, construction, acquisition of buildings, or payment of past debts.

(c) State aid to a free tax-supported public library is a supplement to and not a replacement of local support.

(d) Twenty-five percent of system operation grants shall be apportioned equally among the major resource systems and regional library systems that are operating under commission-approved programs of services, budgets, and bylaws or contracts, and the remaining 75 percent of these grants shall be apportioned among those systems on a per capita basis determined by the most recent decennial census or the most recent official population estimate of the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

Sec. 262.035. Modification After Award.

(a) After award of a contract but before the contract is made, the county official who makes purchases for the county may negotiate a modification of the contract if the modification is in the best interests of the county and does not substantially change the scope of the contract or cause the contract amount to exceed the next lowest bid.

Resolved, That Mr. Truett Latimer of the Texas Historical Commission be placed in charge of design and coordination of the project, with Dr. David Gracy of the archives division acting as consultant, to assure that the exhibit is authentic and informative; and, be it further

Resolved, That, following completion of the project, the Texas Historical Commission be directed to act as curator and the State Board of Control to provide security and maintenance for the display; and, be it further

Resolved, That construction of this display be funded by an appropriation of this legislature. The State Board of Control may accept donations of money for construction of the display, and such funds received by the board shall reduce the legislative appropriation by the same amount; and, be it further

Resolved, That official copies of this resolution be forwarded to the director of the Texas Historical Commission, the director and librarian of the Texas State Library, and the executive director of the State Board of Control as an expression of the views of the legislature of the State of Texas.

United States Constitution -- Amendments XIII, XIV, and XV
(H.C.R. No. 30, 74th Legislature, 1995)

Whereas, In response to an Act of Congress approved April 10, 1869, the 12th Legislature of the State of Texas convened in Provision Session from February 8 to February 24, 1870, and ratified Amendments XIII, XIV, and XV to the United States Constitution; and Concurrent Resolutions

WHEREAS, Those federal constitutional amendments, each ratified by separate joint resolutions of the 12th Legislature on February 15, 1870, solidified some of the most precious rights that have been guaranteed constitutionally to Americans, particularly ethnic minorities who were granted the blessings of equal citizenship and the beginning of an end to their past oppression; and

WHEREAS, Amendment XIII eliminated forever the practice of slavery. Amendment XIV promised due process and the equal protection of the laws, and Amendment XV prohibited denial of suffrage on the grounds of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and

WHEREAS, Over time, copies of the three resolutions regrettably have vanished from the holdings of the Texas state archives, yet others are preserved in Washington, D.C., by virtue of their certification and transmittal to the Secretary of State of the United States and to the presiding officers of the United States Congress; and

WHEREAS, The 1995 Regular Session of the 74th Legislature coincides with the 125th anniversary of these historic ratification actions and marks an appropriate time for the conveyance to this state of replicas of the three resolutions so that Texans may view and appreciate a series of documents that have played such an important role in the extension and elaboration of their civil rights; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the 74th Legislature of the State of Texas, Regular Session, 1995, hereby respectfully request the National Archives and Records Administration to make copies of the joint resolutions of the 12th Texas Legislature ratifying Amendments XIII, XIV, and XV to the United States Constitution and transmit those copies to the Texas State Library and Archives Commission for placement in the state archives; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Texas secretary of state forward copies of this resolution to the archivist of the United States at the National Archives and Records Administration, to the vice-president of the United States and speaker of the United States House of Representatives with a request that this resolution be officially entered in the Congressional Record, and to all members of the Texas delegation to the United States Congress, as an official request to the federal government by the 74th Legislature of the State of Texas; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That if and when such replicas are received from the National Archives and Records Administration, the Texas State Library and Archives Commission be hereby directed to place them in the holdings of the state archives to be available for public viewing and photocopying and in all other respects to be treated as any other material worthy of archival storage and retrieval.
Here are summaries of Texas Attorney General Opinions relating to the concerns of all types of libraries. Among the topics addressed are public, school and law libraries, public records, the handicapped, employment of librarians, and the Texas State Library. These summaries are quoted verbatim from the Attorney General's opinion document. The full text of opinions, including the question or questions prompting the opinion, may be obtained from the Office of the Attorney General, Box 12548, Austin, Texas 78711-2548.

Opinions are listed in chronological order, with the year of issuance in parentheses. Opinion numbers are shown together with the initials or first letter of the name of the attorney general issuing the opinion. Opinions beginning with the letters "ORD" refer to "open records decision," which are numbered sequentially without reference to a specific attorney general. "LO" opinions are letter opinions and have the same force as a more formal Attorney General Opinion.

Authority of Opinions

The weight and authority of Attorney General Opinions in law is a concept which has not been clearly delineated. The following comments may enable the reader to better understand just what these opinions are and how they should be viewed.

The Texas Attorney General is authorized under the Texas Constitution and Texas Government Code to provide upon request legal advise to the Governor, state officials, heads of departments of state government, and local officials on unusual or difficult legal questions, including questions relating to open records. Although the authority of the Attorney General to render opinions is not questioned and those services are regularly requested, the opinions themselves are not binding on the courts. Some courts have given individual opinions great weight and some have rejected them.

The Attorney General acknowledged the limited authority of his own opinions in Attorney General Opinion No. 0-7234-A (1946), where he stated:

"The opinions of the Attorney General have not the force of law and are legally binding on no one. They may be highly persuasive to the courts but apparently only in those cases where they coincide with the court's view of the law."

A leading case expressing the court's views on the authority of Attorney General Opinion states that opinions "while entitled to careful consideration by the courts, and quite generally regarded as highly persuasive, are not binding on the judiciary...." The courts also assessed the status of Attorney General Opinions in light of the Legislature's specific delegation of authority in the Open Records Act, when a Texas Court of Civil Appeals stated:

"Normally, opinions of the Attorney General are persuasive but not controlling on the courts. We consider that great weight should be given such opinions when the legislature has specifically delegated to the Attorney General the duty of interpreting the Act and aiding in its enforcement."

Although the courts have generally ruled that opinions are "advisory in nature," persons who reasonably rely on Attorney General Opinions may be protected from civil and criminal liability, even if the Attorney General has erred in his interpretation. Conversely, the failure to follow the authoritative advice of the Attorney General may be evidence of a lack of good faith.

In summary, Attorney General Opinions are not binding on the courts; however, they are persuasive and the courts may give them great weight. Since the Attorney General is constitutionally and statutorily charged with interpretation of the law upon request by certain persons, reasonable reliance upon an Attorney General Opinion would constitute an affirmative defense to criminal prosecution.

Exercise Caution

One should always exercise caution in interpreting and applying opinions. The State Legislature may, for example, pass a law which would render a previously issued opinion inoperable, while more recent opinions may overrule part or all of previous opinions. In addition, opinions are responses to specific factual situations in point of time, which may or may not be the same as those of the reader. An attorney should be contacted if you seek further advice.
O - 520 (1939)
The provisions of Article 1683 relating to certificates of qualification, apply only to those who have received county librarians' certificates prior to the passage of the amendment of such Article.

O - 690 (1939)
The Commissioners Court is without authority to make appropriations of public money to any library controlled and operated by private individuals however worthy the cause may be.

O - 696 (1939)
The Commissioners Court is not authorized to pay for library books purchased under the provisions of Articles 1677-1696, inclusive, out of the public building and improvement funds.

O - 1316 (1939)
The Commissioners Court of Galveston County may contract with the Rosenberg library for library privileges in the manner prescribed by Article 1694 provided there are no restrictions in the will of Mr. Henry Rosenberg prohibiting the same.

O - 1636 (1939)
When an incorporated city does not have and never had a public free library, the inhabitants of such city who are residents of the county have the privileges of using the county library under Articles 1678 and 1688, and the property within the corporate limits of such city is included in computing the amounts to be set aside out of the county general tax fund for the maintenance of the county free library system.

It is not necessary, under Articles 1677-1696, for an incorporated city which does not have and has never had a public free library to contract with the county for participation in the county free library system or to make cash contributions for such participation before the inhabitants can enjoy the benefits of the system.

As the tax levy for county purposes cannot exceed twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollar valuation, if Llano County should levy five cents for a county library, said amount would come from the twenty-five cent levy allowed for the general fund of the county, which would leave twenty cents on the one hundred dollar valuation for the general fund.

O - 2744 (1940)
The Commissioners Court has no authority to appoint a county librarian who does not have a certificate from the State Board of Examiners; but should such an ineligible person be appointed, he would not legally be entitled to the salary attached to said office. Furthermore, where there is no qualified county librarian in charge of the county free library, the Commissioners Court has no authority to appoint an assistant librarian to serve in the capacity of county librarian.

O - 3055 (1941)
The Commissioners Court has authority to expend funds in establishing, maintaining, and operating a "book-mobile library" as a branch or subdivision of an established county free library located at the county seat.

O - 3409 (1941)
As members of the Texas State Library are not employed, either directly or indirectly, in any public school, college, or university, such members do not come within the provisions of the Teacher Retirement Act, and said act cannot be amended to extend to such persons.

O - 3890 (1941)
The costs incurred in the purchase or establishment or a "bookmobile library," as discussed in Opinion No. O-3055, and the expenses incurred in maintaining and operating the same cannot be paid out of the permanent improvement fund, but must be paid out of the general fund of the county.

O - 3956 (1941)
Under the provisions of H.B. 1080, Acts 1941, 47th Leg., the Commissioners Court is given broad powers in establishing and maintaining a law library and if in their discretion it is necessary, they are authorized to hire a librarian to be compensated out of the "County Law Library Fund."

O - 3957 (1941)
Under the terms of H.B. 1080, Acts 1941, 47th Leg., probate matters are to be considered among the cases on which the sum of one dollar shall be taxed as cost for the establishment and maintenance of a County Law Library. (Assuming, of course, that the Commissioners Court has first entered its order for that purpose.)

O - 4439 (1942)
Article 1702d is unconstitutional. Therefore, the question must be answered in the negative, and Nueces County may not legally collect the fee of $1.00 in each civil and criminal case and deposit it to the County Law Library Fund to be used in the manner provided for in Article 1702d.

O - 5347 (1943)
Finding no authority and law for the expenditure in question, it is the opinion of this department that the Commissioners Court is not authorized to expend county funds for the purchase of the Annual Pocket Parts to Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes as a necessary expense in the proper and legal conduct of the office of district clerk.

O - 5511 (1943)
The district and county clerks of Navarro County can not legitimately tax as costs in criminal and civil cases a One Dollar ($1.00) library fee as provided for in Article 1702b-2, supra.

O - 5688 (1943)
Any one of the Courts of Civil Appeals can expend for books for its library during each of the next two biennial years the sum of $500.00, together with any portion of the $500.00 appropriated for "equipment, maintenance and contingent items" not used for said purposes.

O - 5842 (1944)
A special tax cannot be voted by the people of a county for the original or additional county library support. A constitutional amendment would be required to authorize the assessment of a tax for library purposes where the said tax would be additional to the twenty-five cents per hundred dollars valuation.

O - 6094 (1944)
The Commissioners Court may contract for library privileges from some already established library upon its own initiative and without a petition of the majority of the voters of the county.

O - 6243 (1944)
This opinion concerns the authority of the Commissioners Court to enter into contracts with three libraries in Gregg County operated by three incorporated cities providing for the payment of an agreed sum from county funds for the partial support of said libraries.

O - 6441 (1945)
The Commissioners Court may construct a branch library building and pay for same out of the Permanent Improvement Fund. The amount that can be used in such construction is within the discretion of the Commissioners Court but is subject to the provisions of the county budget.

O - 7118 (1946)
A county cannot issue bonds for the purpose of erecting a building to house a free county library.

If the Legislature had authorized the issuance of bonds for the erection of the building to house a county library, same would have to be paid out of the constitutional fund commonly known as the Permanent Improvement Fund.
There is no other county fund out of which this type improvement could legally be financed.

O - 7319 (1946)
The County Commissioners Court has the authority to issue
Time Warrants for certain permanent improvements, including county park improvements and county airport, but not a library and museum building or a youth center.

O - 7539 (1946)
The Commissioners Court of Bexar County may establish a county law library under the provisions of Articles 1697-1702; Article 1702a-1, which applies to counties having five or more District Courts, is not an exclusive method to establish a county law library for Bexar county, but may only be used upon a proper order of the Commissioners Court.

The establishment and maintenance of the county law library must be paid out of monies appropriated by the Commissioners Court from the general fund as provided by Article 1698.

V - 397 (1947)
It is the statutory duty of the Commissioners Court to operate the county library, and this duty may not lawfully be delegated to any citizens committee or board. The operation of such library is regulated by statute, and local rules of such board are without authority of law.

V - 435 (1947)
The State Treasury Department is authorized to have photographic reproductions of its records prepared, defraying the cost of this work from the contingent expense appropriation of the State Treasury Department.

The State Treasury Department is not authorized to destroy its original records following their photographic reproductions, but it is authorized to transfer the records which have been replaced by photographic reproductions to the State Librarian. The State Librarian is authorized to destroy or further transfer such records.

V - 953 (1949)
A county cannot donate public money to an incorporated public free library. The county is authorized to contract for library privileges from an already established library and pay for the same out of the General Fund of the county.
Regarding types of proceedings subject to the County Law Library fee assessed in civil cases: guardianships and other cases in probate court, insanity, and restoration proceedings are civil cases within the meaning of Article 1702e....

A habeas corpus proceeding may be either a criminal case or a civil case depending on the facts of each instance. If in the proceeding it appears that the restraint is not because of some supposed violation of criminal law, then the proceeding must be classed as a civil case.

Under certain assumptions, the Commissioners Court has the authority to purchase a law library from the legal representative of a deceased District Judge.

The Legislature in Article 678m-2, expressed its intention that the Building referred to above should be known as the "State Archives and Library Building" but did not require that such title should be put in permanent form on that Building.

The properties owned by the El Paso County Medical Society furnished by it voluntarily to the public as a public library, but to which the public has access only at the sufferance of the Society as its invitees, are not exempt from ad valorem taxes as a public library under article 7150, subd. 8, as "public property used for public purposes" within contemplation of Article VIII, Sec. 2 of the Texas Constitution.

Section 3, Article 5441a, does not authorize the destruction of newspapers in print, purchased pursuant to Section 3, Article 5441, even though a microfilm copy of the newspaper is to be preserved and even if the consent of the State Auditor to the destruction of the newspapers is obtained, unless such newspapers are adjudged to be valueless.

Article 5441b authorizes the destruction of the newspapers which are over 10 years old, if the procedures of the statute are complied with.

Article 1678, applies to the whole of Hood County, there being no free public library in any incorporated area in the said county.

A petition for the establishment of a county free library may be signed by any qualified voter, and a sufficient petition makes it incumbent upon the commissioners court to establish such a library as soon after its presentation as may be practicable.

Article 1679, authorizes the Commissioners Court to set aside tax funds to maintain a county free library, and the statute vests discretion in the said court as to the amount set aside.

Subject to the approval of a new or revised State Plan allowing direct monetary grants to local public library units, the Texas State Library and Historical Commission may make direct monetary grants to local public library units under Title I of the Library Services and Construction Act of 1964, Public Law 88-269, as amended.

Pursuant to Article 6144g, the Texas Fine Arts Commission may publish a newsletter in which is printed the entire text of a pending Senate bill relating to the fine arts, and solicit the comments of the newsletter's readers on such bill.

However, the Commission may not comment that the bill is supported by certain interest groups, the Commission's Chairman may not give his personal opinion regarding the merits, if any, of the bill, and a list of members of the House and the Senate may not be printed in the newsletter.

It is our opinion that Article 1137r, Vernon's Penal Code (prohibiting the reproduction for sale of sound recordings without the original owner's consent), is valid and is not in conflict with Article I, Sec. 8, Cl. 8, United States Constitution, or the Copyright Clause, and the implementing federal statutes, 17 USC §§1-215, the Copyright Act.

The State matching contributions for O.A.S.I. and employee's retirement contributions for employees of the State Law Library required to be matched by the provisions of Section 3 of Article V of the current General Appropriation Act may be transferred into the State Law Library fund, because such deductions and matching contributions constitute a cost of maintaining, operating and keeping up to date the State Law Library. [Note: this Opinion has been overruled by Opinion H-947 where they conflict]

Forty-five riders contained in the 1971 General Appropriation Act are considered and passed upon as to validity. See this Opinion for specific riders.

The Texas State Library need not obtain the consent of the Systems Division of the State Auditor's Office in order to purchase a computer, but it must comply with subsection (a) of article V, section 37 of the General Appropriations Act before making the expenditure. The Library has fully complied with the provisions of Article V, section 37 as soon as the Governor has made the requisite determination pursuant to subsection (a), since subsection (b) therein is invalid. The rider to the Library and Historical Commission appropriation does not apply to funds received by the Texas State Library which are solely federal in origin.

ORD - 100 (1975)
Information which would reveal the identity of a library patron in connection with the object of his or her attention is exempted from disclosure by section 3(a)(1) as information deemed confidential by constitutional law. However, we do not believe that this constitutional protection extends beyond the identification of an individual patron with the object of his or her attention. Thus, we do not believe the fact that a person has used the library, owes or has paid a fine is confidential information.

Article 6574b, V.T.C.S., has no application to records in the custody of the county clerk or clerk of a county court, and does not bar transfer of those records to regional historical resource depositories as authorized by article 5442b, V.T.C.S. Regional historical resource depositories have no legal obligation to return court records to the clerk of the original court or other courts for the use of private attorneys, absent a court order requiring the return of such records, so long as microfilm records of the documents sought are available from the clerk of the originating court.

State agencies may not refuse to employ a qualified handicapped person on the basis of his handicap. A handicapped employee who utilizes a private automobile Article V, section 4 of the current General Appropriations Act does not prohibit an agency from publishing, in its monthly newsletter, stories which contain neutral, factual reports of the formal votes of members of the legislature and/or verbal comments which may be made by legislators in open forum. As a general rule, article V, section 5 does not prohibit an agency from publishing the name(s) of agency officials or employees in its newsletter for attribution or to facilitate the reader's understanding of a story. That section does embrace the use of legislators' names in print. Article V, section 66(c) applies to units of government which publish periodicals on a monthly basis.

Exceptions 3(a)(1) and 3(a)(2) of the Texas Open Records Act, article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S., apply to some of the information found in the medical records of the personnel files of the Texas National Guard for the years 1903-1913. Absent express or necessarily implied authority to open confidential information to the public, a custodian of public records may not adopt a policy in contravention of a third party's right of privacy. Nevertheless, the custodian may, after a significant number of years, reasonably presume that the privacy interest protected by sections 3(a)(1) and 3(a)(2) has lapsed because of the death of the protected person. The confidentiality accorded to information in medical records by section 5.08 of article 4495b in connection with the statutory law aspect of section 3(a)(1) does not lapse upon the death of the protected person. Unless required by other law to retain them, a custodian of public records has discretion over whether to preserve non-current records of the sort in question.

Records created or received by the governor's office in carrying out its statutory duties fall within the definition of "public records" in section 441.031(5) of the Texas Government Code and the definition of "public records" in section 2(2) of the Texas Open Records Act, article 6252-17a, V.T.C.S.

Such records also constitute "governmental records" within the meaning of sections 37.01(1)(A) and 37.10(a)(3) of the Texas Penal Code. Section 37.10(a)(3) prohibits, among other things, the intentional, unauthorized removal of governmental records. Whether the removal of specific gubernatorial records from the custody of the state at the end of a gubernatorial administration violates section 37.10 depends on proof of the elements of the criminal offense described in section 37.10.

Similarly, violation of section 12 of the Open Records Act, which prohibits the unauthorized removal of public records, depends on the facts in a given case.

Section 441.002(g)(8) of the Government Code authorizes the Texas State Library and Archives Commission to demand physical custody of public records that a state official has determined are not in current use. Section 441.002(i) provides that the attorney general shall resolve disputes regarding the proper custody of records subject to section 441.002(g)(8).

the agreement was not subject to unilateral rescission and

Under the Local Government Code, Chapter 323, subchapter B, it is permissible for a county to use the county law library fund to purchase statutes and reporters to be located in the chambers of district and county courts and thereafter maintain them, provided that the materials are convenient and readily accessible to litigants.
