The Importance of a Multicultural Curriculum

How do certain landmarks symbolize a particular place and its culture? The United States of America is easily identified by the Statue of Liberty, France by the Eiffel Tower, Egypt by its Great Sphinx and China by its Great Wall. But what do these landmarks tell us about these places? What are the characteristics of the place and culture that are symbolized by these landmarks? These questions can serve as the framework for a multicultural inquiry into landmarks that help students towards an understanding of the unique histories and accomplishments of many of the societies that are now part of America’s cultural landscape.

Advocates of a multicultural curriculum in the public schools argue that including the heritage and cultures of the many cultural and ethnic groups in our society will result in a better educated citizenry with a better understanding of the broader society of the United States (Smith, 1999). To achieve this goal it is important that students investigate ways of living in cultures different from their own. It is also important that they investigate the contributions of different cultures. The investigation of important places and structures that often represent a cultural group’s contributions to human history will help to achieve the goal of better cultural understanding (Banks, 2001; Huang, 2002).

First Step: Constructing Concepts

Strategies for Constructing Concepts

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Concept Formation</th>
<th>Concept Attainment</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Students study examples of the concept</td>
<td>1. Teacher names or labels the concept for students</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Students determine common attributes for concept</td>
<td>2. Students find examples of the concept</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Students give the concept a name or label</td>
<td>3. Students discuss attributes that are common to each example</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Parker, 1991; Taba et al, 1971)
Constructing the concept of landmarks with concept attainment:

1. Examples of landmarks:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LANDMARK</th>
<th>Created by Humans</th>
<th>Natural</th>
<th>Local</th>
<th>National</th>
<th>International</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Our Local Courthouse</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plaque Commemorating Our Town’s First Settlers</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Oldest House in Our Town</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Golden Gate Bridge</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statue of Liberty</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Liberty Bell</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Grand Canyon</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>✓</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Great Wall of China</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Taj Mahal</td>
<td>✓</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Schematic web of attributes of landmarks:

- It means something to the people who live near it
- It’s easy to recognize
- Special, not like anything else
- Big
- Old

3. Differentiating between physical landmarks and landmarks created by humans:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>LANDMARK</th>
<th>CREATED BY HUMANS</th>
<th>NATURAL</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Our Local Courthouse</td>
<td>The Grand Canyon</td>
<td>Old Faithful in Yellowstone National Park</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plaque Commemorating Our Town’s First Settlers</td>
<td>The Mississippi River</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Golden Gate Bridge</td>
<td></td>
<td>The Mississippi River</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statue of Liberty</td>
<td>Niagara Falls</td>
<td>Mt Everest</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Great Wall of China</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Constructing the concept of culture with concept attainment:

1. Examples of cultures:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Mexican</th>
<th>Chinese</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Korean</td>
<td>Columbian</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indian</td>
<td>Pakistani</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nigerian</td>
<td>Guyanese</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Attributes of Culture:

- Food
- Traditional Clothing
- Holidays
- Language
- Landmarks

Second Step: Group Inquiry:

An inquiry into landmarks is an example of “authentic” research where students construct their own questions about topics that puzzle them and try to find answers (Tompkins, 2002, 2004; Wells & Chang-Wells, 1992). Additionally, the idea of a group inquiry, in this instance collaborative group research, is a scaffolding technique to ease students into further research activities. First they conduct research in a group with other classmates before undertaking an individual research project.

1. Selecting International Landmarks to research from Children’s Tradebooks:

Ben’s Dream by Chris Van Allsburg, Talking Walls by Margy Burns Knight and Talking Walls: The Stories Continue by Margy Burns Knight

The following is a complete list of the landmarks in all three books:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ben’s Dream</th>
<th>Talking Walls</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Statue of Liberty</td>
<td>1. Great Wall of China</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Big Ben Clock Tower</td>
<td>2. Aborigine Wall Art</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Eiffel Tower</td>
<td>3. Walls of the Lascaux Cave</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Leaning Tower of Pisa</td>
<td>4. Western Wall in Jerusalem</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Parthenon</td>
<td>5. Mahabalipuram, India’s Animal Walls</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Great Sphinx</td>
<td>6. Muslim Walls depicting the pilgrimage to Mecca</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. St Basil’s Cathedral</td>
<td>7. Granite Walls of Great Zimbabwe</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Taj Mahal</td>
<td>8. Berlin Wall</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Great Wall of China</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
10. Mt Rushmore

- Talking Walls: The Stories Continue
  1. Peace Wall in Moscow, Russia
  2. Friendship Wall in Union, Maine
  3. “Repaired Wall” in Indianapolis, Indiana
  4. The Walled City of Fez, Morocco
  5. Maya Murals in Bonampak, Mexico
  6. Prayer Wheel Walls in Tibet and India
  7. Wat Po Temple in Bangkok, Thailand
  8. Hadrian’s Wall, England
  9. Holocaust Memorial in Kazimierz, Poland
  10. Divali Wall Paintings in India
  11. Ndebele Wall Designs in South Africa
  12. Dog Wall in Shibuya Station, Tokyo, Japan
  13. Peace Lines in Belfast, Northern Ireland
  14. Pablo Neruda’s Fence in Isla Negra, Chile
  15. Dikes in the Netherlands
  16. Chinese Poems at Angel Island, California
  17. Anti-Graffiti Network, Philadelphia

2. Structuring the Research Questions:

- Each group in the class chooses or is assigned one of the landmarks
- The students formulate questions that each group can ask about the landmarks
  - Teacher encourages students to begin with concrete questions such as who, what, where and when
  - Teacher encourages students to move from concrete to abstract questions such as:
    1. How do the landmarks reflect the beliefs and values of a particular place and people?
    2. For what different reasons do people build awe-inspiring structures?
    3. Which landmark do you believe is the most spectacular? Why?
    4. How have characteristics, or features, of landmarks remained the same throughout history? How have they changed?
    5. Discuss landmarks in different parts of the world. How are they alike? How are they different?
    6. The Egyptian pyramids and other structures have withstood the test of time. What modern-day structures do you think will be around in the year 3000?
    7. What do you think is the most important characteristic that a landmark must have? Explain.

3. Using a Data Retrieval Chart to Organize the Research:
   See Appendix

4. Completing the Inquiry:
   - Assignment of writing tasks to groups to complete
     Completion of individual chapters on landmarks
     Completion of the introduction and summary
Use of a process approach to writing including peer review, editing, teacher review, editing (Tompkins, 2002, 2004)

- Additions to the Inquiry
  - Illustrations, such as a picture or drawing of each landmark
  - Timelines that show the construction of the group of landmarks from the oldest to the most recent or grouping landmarks from different locations into the same time period such as the Renaissance
  - World map that gives the location of each landmark

5. Publishing:

  - Class Museum
  - Class Book
  - Power Point presentation or Hyperstudio Presentation

Aesthetic Perspective:

Possible Questions:
1. What are the building materials and style of each landmark?
2. What are the relationships of these landmarks to the natural environment?
3. Consider the photographer's or artists point of view in creating this image. Why this perspective?

The Eiffel Tower

The Eiffel Tower from Underneath

(Van Allsburg, 1982, p. 14-15)
The Statue of Liberty

Statue of Liberty from Above

(Van Allsburg, 1982, p. 11)

The Taj Mahal

(Van Allsburg, 1982, p. 24-25)
Geography Applications:

Possible Question:
1. In the book Ben’s Dream, in what directions does his house float as he goes to each landmark?
2. What is the distance between each landmark?
3. On what continent is each landmark? Are any of the continents not represented?
