Alphabetical Title List
Foreword

The majority of the listed items are in the collection of Bureau of Statistics and Plans. The list selects only those printed materials having at least ten pages for monographs or those printed serials appearing at least once in the covering years. It excludes the works by Guam Community College and the University of Guam, which can be considered for another list. It leaves out audiovisual materials; grant applications; requests for proposals; and those items not available for verification when the list is compiled.

The list is organized in one alphabetical order by producing agencies, by the corporate and personal names of authors, and then by titles. Each entry contains a standardized bibliographic citation, including the author; the title; and the place, publisher, and date of publication. For monographs, the number of pages; and for serials, the beginning date, the ending date, and the frequency of the publication are provided if they are available. The question mark "?" in the citation indicates that the related information is uncertain. A table of contents including a list of producing agencies is arranged in the front and an alphabetical title [many are shortened] list is attached at the end. 2005 Guam Phone Book was a basic guide for the names and order of Government of Guam agencies.

Thanks are due to the faculty and staff, particularly to Prof. Rick Castro and Prof. Mark Goniwiecha, at the University of Guam’s Learning Resources unit; and to the Government of Guam’s Bureau of Statistics and Plans staff, especially to Ms. Janet A. Quitugua, for extending their hands to help me compile this list.
