

New Mexico
Profile of State College and Career Readiness Assessments (CCR) Policy

CCR assessment policy	New Mexico statute requires grade 11 students to take a college readiness assessment or a workforce readiness assessment. The requirement has been suspended by Senate Bill 360 in school year 2011-2012 to support solvency of school districts.
Purpose	The purpose of the CCRs is to provide information to students, parents, and schools for education and career planning.
Major changes in CCR assessment policy since the 2009-10 school year for financial reasons	School districts were exempted from the requirement in 2009-2010 and 2010-2011. The requirement has been suspended by Senate Bill 360 in school year 2011-2012 to support solvency of school districts.
Major changes in CCR assessment policy since the 2009-10 school year for any other reasons	No
Grade CCR assessment first administered	11 th grade
State financial support for students to take the CCR assessment	School districts receive state operating funds, which includes funding for state assessments.
Is the CCR assessment administered during the regular school day?	Not applicable.
Is the CCR assessment used by postsecondary institutions for undergraduate admission purposes?	Not applicable.
Is the CCR assessment used by postsecondary institutions for placement purposes?	Not applicable.

Granted exemptions on college placement exams for students who meet a certain standard on the CCR assessment	Not applicable.
Is postsecondary institution course credit awarded for performance on the CCR assessment in any way?	Not applicable.
Is the CCR assessment used in any way by potential employers?	Not applicable.
Impact of adoption of the common standards on state CCR assessment policies	Not applicable.