Employment Equity for Aboriginal Teachers

2012
Employment equity for Aboriginal teachers

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING Between
British Columbia Teachers’ Federation (BCTF)
And
British Columbia Public School Employers’ Association (BCPSEA)
Re: EMPLOYMENT EQUITY—ABORIGINAL TEACHERS

The parties recognize that Aboriginal teachers are under-represented in the public education system. The parties are committed to redress the under-representation of Aboriginal teachers and therefore further agree that:

- They will encourage local school boards and teacher unions to make application to the Human Rights Tribunal under section 42 of the Human Rights Code to obtain approval for a “special program” that would serve to attract and retain Aboriginal teachers.
- The parties will assist local school boards and teacher unions as requested in the application for and implementation of a “special program” consistent with this Letter of Commitment.

BCTF supports an Aboriginal Employment Equity program. In the Member’s Guide to the BCTF it states
b) That the BCTF actively support an employment equity program for the public schools with the aim of achieving a teaching force that is reflective of the ethnic diversity of BC public schools.

Special programs
The Letter of Understanding applies to Employment Equity for Aboriginal Teachers. Currently districts do this and usually use target dollars to hire Aboriginal teachers Special target hire from target money

Once they’re in the classroom as a:
• TTOC
• classroom teacher
• classroom resource.

The challenges they face are:
• pressure to be the cultural broker for all Aboriginal people
• racism
• challenge to their credentials.

The Local Contacts for Aboriginal Education (LCAE) can work with the local president to establish an Employment Equity Program.
